Chamber directors approve new budget

Directors of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce Monday approved a budget for the coming year which is $1,600 less than expenditures of the past year.

A budget of $8,146.11 was presented for adoption during the regular monthly meeting of the board. According to the organization's financial statement for 1980, total expenditures for the past year were $9,760.33.

Phil McClendon was named director at-large by the board.

Reports on the banquet ticket sales were made by Phil Welch, and on the banquet plans by Tommy Key.

Mrs. Gus Rich named Welch, Keith Aulds and Dr. Carter Pirkle as ticket takers for the banquet; H.M. Nipper, Linda Merrick, Herb Skinner, Dr. Richard Carver, Bud Burch and Luther Shaw to the welcoming committee.

Cable TV, money on city's agenda

Cable television and money will take up most of Monday's city council meeting, according to an early draft of the agenda. Aldermen are to meet at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Cable TV manager Raymond Greenwood has been invited to meet with the council to discuss service and answer questions concerning the number of channels being provided.

An ordinance will be considered which would raise all utilities' rental fee to three percent of their gross revenues. Two utilities, Texas Electric Service and Lone Star Gas now pay three percent. But under existing contracts, Southwestern Bell Telephone and Cable TV pay only two percent, Steve Morath, city administrator, said.

A review of the recommended general revenue sharing budget for 1980-81 will be held, and aldermen will consider a proposed formula for financing the county tax appraisal district.

ROBIN DOAN
...Miss Wichita County

Crown to be passed along

Robin Doan will give up her Miss Wichita County crown when the annual contest is held at the Iowa Park High School auditorium Feb. 7. "After a year-long reign, the hardest part is giving it all up. It's all been so exciting, the trips, the clothes, and of course all the people I've had the chance to meet," she said.

Twenty-five girls will compete for the title, which includes a $1,000 scholarship, a $2,000 wardrobe and a $1,200 expense account.

The Iowa Park High graduate who now resides in Wichita Falls has made over 100 appearances around the county during the year.

the plaques at the Chamber's annual banquet, Jan. 31, when their announcements and presentations will serve as the climax for the evening.

Named will be the Outstanding Citizen of the Year, Outstanding Senior Citizen, Outstanding Agriculturist and Outstanding Educator.

First recipient of the Outstanding Citizen award was Mrs. D.O. James in 1971. She was followed by: Dr. Gordon Clark, 1972; Mrs. Frank Harlin, 1973; Ralph Beall, 1974; Wayne House, 1975; Darrell Dick, 1976; Mrs. Earl Watson, 1977; Mrs. Charlie Lee, 1978; Bill Steger, 1979; and Gordon Griffith, 1980.

The late Fenton Dale was the first to receive the Outstanding Senior Citizen Award, in 1976. Mrs. W.F. George followed in 1977, Arch Hughes in 1978, Charlie Metz in 1979 and last year it went to Mrs. Bertha McDonald.

The Outstanding Agriculturist

Award first went to Virgil Woodfin, in 1978. Loys Barbour was named in 1979 and Ray Hicks in 1980.

Newest of the four awards is the Outstanding Educator Award, presented for the first time in 1979 to John Sibley. Miss Ethyle Kidwell was named last year.

Anonymous selection committee has been named by Mrs. Gus Rich, outgoing Chamber president, to pick this year's recipients.

Tickets to this year's banquet are available at the Chamber office, and most businesses in the community, according to Phil Welch, chairman.

Admission is $6 per person, which includes a steak dinner, prepared by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners.

Keynote speaker for the evening will be Andrews publisher James Roberts, president of the Texas Press Association and a strong advocate of free enterprise, who can mix humor with fact to the delight of an audience.

SHATTERED PICKUP WINDSHIELD MUTE EVIDENCE OF VANDALS ... damage Monday night heavy at E&S Exxon.

Pickups are victims of Monday vandals

Approximately $1,570 in damage was inflicted on three pickups parked at E&S Exxon service station on West Highway sometime during Monday night.

Windshields of the pickups were shattered and nine tires cut sometime between 8:30 p.m. Monday and 6:54 a.m. Tuesday.

One of the pickups was a government vehicle used by the Soil Conservation Service, one was owned by the service station and the third was owned by a customer.

Sometime during school hours Thursday, a car parked in the high school parking lot was broken into and two Sparkomatic speakers and seven tapes were reportedly taken.

Steve Hammonds, the owner, said the vent window on his car's right door was forced open to gain entry sometime between 8:30 that morning and 3:40 in the afternoon.

Perry Copas told police someone cut a chain which had his tool box secured in the bed of his pickup and took the box and tools in it.

The theft was reported to have taken place between 10:30 Friday night and 7 the next morning while the pickup was parked in front of his home at 116 West View.

Iowa Parkans are recognized

Three Iowa Parkans were recognized Tuesday in a joint meeting of the county extension service and Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District, held in Wichita Falls.

Tim Hunter, superintendent of the Iowa Park experiment station, received the conservation business-professional man award; Mrs. Pricilla Taylor was named outstanding conservation homemaker, and Donald Hill was recognized for his 20 years service on the conservation district's board of directors.

Hill, who had served as secretary, vice president and chairman during his tenure on the board, recently retired from the board.

City awards increase for ambulance rate

The Iowa Park city council Monday night joined with Wichita Falls, Wichita County and Burkburnett in approving a temporary rate increase for ambulance service and agreeing to advertise for service over the county.

The rate increase was granted to Gold Cross here and in Burkburnett Monday, while Wichita Falls and the county took similar action Tuesday.

The new rate, to become effective Feb. 1, permits the ambulance firm to increase its emergency call rate from $45 to $52 as a base, and $1 per mile from pickup to destination.

A non-emergency rate, for Wichita Falls between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. only, was increased from $35 to $40, also.

The four governmental bodies share a contract for ambulance service, which is held by Gold Cross. Under provisions of the contract, the final year of the contract's duration was cut off, and advertisements for new service will be run.

Bids for ambulance service are to be opened Feb. 16, copies of the bids distributed to the four governmental entities the following day, a meeting by staff members to discuss the bids is slated Feb. 20, and by Mar. 3, all the entities are to have formally awarded the bid, with the contract date set for April 15.

Bob Coburn, owner of Gold Cross, told the Wichita Falls city council he could not continue to operate under the original contract, nor could he operate with the temporary increases granted.

December business good in Iowa Park

Iowa Park businesses enjoyed a marked improvement in trade during December, when compared with the same month the previous year.

According to the sales tax report from the state comptroller's office, sales of taxable items increased 57 percent.

Iowa Park received its sales tax check for $6,733.87, up from December of 1979, when it was $4,279.91.

Holiday's sales were up 14 percent, from $4,263 to $4,887, according to the comptroller's office.

Hawkettes even loop record with win over Mineral Wells

Hawkettes senior center Jill Watts celebrated her 18th birthday Tuesday night by controlling the backboards against a taller Mineral Wells club, and sinking a pair of free shots with 12 seconds remaining in the game to put the score out of reach.

The 30-24 victory was the first in two Dist. 3-AAAA starts for Iowa Park, but the game was much closer than the final score indicates.

Opening conference play Friday at Vernon, the girls were shot down 37-29, so they are now 1-1 in district.

Mineral Wells was hampered by the absence of two-time all district player Regina Kimbrew, but the Ramettes still had the taller team. Their center was estimated to tower 6-3 under the backboards.

However, Watts' positioning and jumping ability gave the Hawkettes more offensive and defensive rebounds than they were expected to take.

The lead in the game kept bouncing back and forth like a tennis ball in a professional match.

Mineral Wells held a 9-6 lead at the end of the first quarter, thanks to their outside shooting. But the Hawkettes scored seven unanswered points early in the second period and held on to lead 16-13 at halftime.

The visitors came roaring back in the third quarter to lead 19-16, but Iowa Park managed a rally and held a two-point advantage, 21-19, going into the final period.

Leading 26-24 as they started a stall, Iowa Park had a chance to extend their lead with 39 seconds remaining on the clock, but Watts missed a free shot. Trailing 26-24, Mineral Wells missed a shot with 18 seconds remaining, and then was forced to foul Watts with the ball in an attempt to get another chance at a shot.

But Watts was not to be denied this time, and sank both charity tosses with 12 seconds remaining to give the Hawkettes a 28-24 margin.

Mineral Wells missed another shot at the goal, and Tammie Richardson grabbed the rebound. While holding the ball to let the clock run out, she was fouled as the buzzer sounded. She sank both her free shots to widen the final score.

Watts and Lindy Neely tied for Hawkettes scoring honors, with eight points each.

In Friday's game at Vernon, the hosts led the Hawkettes 20-16 at the half, and added four more points margin in the third quarter for their first district victory.

Watts was also high for Iowa Park in that game, with eight.

The Hawkettes junior varsity lost 29-15 to Vernon, and then was edged Tuesday by Mineral Wells 21-20 after leading 16-10 going into the final quarter.

The Hawkettes will host Graham Friday night, and then travel Tuesday to Burkburnett.

Cook of the Week

Virginia (Mrs. Marvin) Klinkerman is indeed one of the most versatile and capable women in our area, as many people in the Precinct 3 found out when she ran for commissioner last spring in a race where seven were running. The only woman in the race, she went into a very close run-off election. Even though she did not win the election, she won the respect and admiration of the entire precinct.

The former Virginia Haynes, she was graduated from Electra High School and attended Midwestern State University. She and her husband live on their farm northwest of town. She is an ideal wife and homemaker, mother, grandmother and business woman. She is a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wichita Falls, Iowa Park Garden Club and Burk Burnett Forum Study Club and League of Women Voters.

Virginia loves gardening, canning and other aspects of country life as she indicates in some of her statements that we use verbatim today. She enjoys sewing, reading, painting and ceramics. The Klinkermans have two daughters, Mrs. Danny Bohannon and Mrs. Kent Daulton, both of Iowa Park, and six grandchildren.

Since we are featuring Virginia as the cook of the week, we can learn a lot about her efficiency in the kitchen and canning departments through her own statements and observations:

"I have devised some recipes to use up the abundance of vegetables from our garden. When squash or okra make there is always more than I can seem to use. When we first married, Marvin would not eat okra or squash but now they are his favorites.

"I always try to can as many things out of the garden as possible, including potatoes, squash, okra and tomatoes combined, beans and anything else I think will be good.

"Canning seems to scare some people, mostly I believe because of the pressure cooker, but if used according to instructions, I have never had any problems or losses from this method. The cooker I use belonged to my mother and I have no idea how old it is, but it still works great. I guess I enjoy canning so much because I grew up seeing my grandmother and mother doing the same thing every summer.

"We grew up by the Red River when it was still full of water and fish. My dad would go fishing and if he had real good luck, my mother would can fish. Of course, this was before the day of the deep freeze, but I still find that there is never enough room in mine, so canning is a good way of preserving food," she said.

HAMBURGER-VEGETABLE SKILLET DINNER

1 lb. hamburger meat
Onions, chopped (small green or mature), the amount depending on taste
3 cups 1/4 inch sliced okra
2 cups fresh tomatoes chopped (remove skins), or 1 to 1 1/2 cups tomato sauce
Green and/or banana peppers to taste, chopped
Salt, pepper and seasoning salt to taste
In electric skillet, brown hamburger meat a little, then add chopped onion and peppers and cook until they are tender. Add fresh okra and tomatoes, stir well. You may need to add a little water, 1/2 to 3/4 cup. Add salt, pepper and seasoning salt. Cover and simmer until okra is tender, about 30 minutes; stir often.

Mrs. Marvin Klinkerman

In winter, use canned okra and tomatoes. All you have to do is to add them and cook about 15 minutes. This is a great way to use lots of your vegetables. The dish is especially good with fresh lettuce salad if you have some growing in your garden.

FRESH LETTUCE SALAD

Chop or break up lettuce into small pieces. Mix up dressing of: Salad dressing or mayonnaise thinned to a smooth consistency, add sugar to taste. This is one that you will have to experiment with to get the amounts to suit your taste.

SQUASH PATTIES

2 cups mashed cooked squash
1 egg
1 cup flour
Salt and pepper to taste
Beat all together. Drop by tablespoons into a skillet with a small amount of hot fat about 400-425 degrees. Brown well on both sides. Drain on paper towel. This is a good way to serve leftover cooked squash or open up a jar of canned squash (be sure to drain off all the liquid before using). Mrs. Klinkerman notes "My grandchildren love this."

CRANBERRY WALDORF SALAD

2 cups fresh cranberries
3 cups miniature marshmallows
1/2 cup sugar
2 cups diced unpared tart apples
1/2 cup seedless green grapes (fresh or canned)
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Small carton Cool Whip
Put cranberries in food processor to grind. Combine with marshmallows and sugar. Cover and chill overnight. Add apples, grapes (cut in half) and nuts. Fold in Cool Whip and chill. Makes 8 to 10 servings. "So good you will want to eat it for dessert."

QUICK COTTAGE CHEESE AND JELLÓ SALAD

1 quart cottage cheese
1 - 3 oz. pkg. lime jello
1 large can crushed pineapple, drained
1 small carton Cool Whip
Sprinkle jello over cheese; mix well. Add pineapple and Cool Whip. Good also with chopped nuts added. Chill until ready to serve.

FAVORITE OATMEAL COOKIES

3/4 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
1 egg
3/4 cup water
1 tsp. vanilla
3 cups uncooked 1-minute oats
1 cup all-purpose flour
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. soda
Beat together shortening, sugar, egg, water and vanilla until creamy. Add combined remaining ingredients; mix well. For variety at this point add chopped raisins, nuts, coconut and/or chocolate chips. Bake in pre-heated oven at 350 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Be sure to not overcook.

Children's hospital is program topic

"Sharing and Caring" was the theme of an educational program based on St. Jude Children's Hospital which highlighted the meeting of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Tuesday evening.

The meeting was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church. Hostesses were Mmes. Phil McDonald, Larry Whitaker, James Spears, Darrell Gunderson, Jerry Hopkins, David Parkey and Luther Shaw.

Mrs. Bill Hrnecirik, who directed the program, was assisted by Mrs. Ted Martin of Arlington, state Circle of Life director, Mrs. Clarence Bridges, president of the Burk Burnett chapter, and Mrs. Joyce Henry of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. James Dyer presented a film showing the latest developments at St. Jude Hospital.

Mrs. Roy Johnson, local president, conducted a short business meeting and introduced special guests, Mrs. John Bell of Fort Worth, State ESA president, Mrs. John Bjork of Hurst, District VI president, and Mrs. Ted Martin of Arlington. She also recognized members of the six chapters that shared in the special meeting.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was adopted by ESA in 1972 as the international philanthropic project. The entire fourth floor of the hospital was dedicated to ESA women in 1975.

Epsilon Eta will sponsor a skate-a-thon at Sand Beach Mar. 6 to raise funds for the hospital.

For the meeting Tuesday evening, the registration table was draped in blue velvet and held a large floral candle arrangement. The buffet table, covered with gold, was appointed with silver services and a centerpiece of yellow silk jonquils and a tall silver tapers. Mrs. Richard Hicks decorated a cake as a receipt from St. Jude for $4,500 sent to the hospital.

The speakers' table held tall tapers in silver holders and ceramic floral nut cups for place cards. Other tables in the room held pictures of Danny Thomas, founder of the hospital and groups of children.

Mmes. William Wamble, Steve Turner and Roy Johnson provided name badges and place cards for the occasion.

UMW meeting is important

The United Methodist Women met Tuesday morning in the Randolph Clark Memorial Chapel for the observance of a Day of Prayer and Self-Denial, one of the most important meetings of the year.

Mrs. S.B. Keeler was leader for the program entitled "Children Advocacy and Ministry." She presented the devotion which was based on "of such is the kingdom of heaven," words spoken by the Master.

Mrs. Don Owens discussed "Children in Other Countries" from the standpoint of services provided for mental and health care and cultural opportunities.

Mrs. Larry Park discussed services provided for children in the U.S.

Each speaker mentioned centers where the project offering could be of the most help to needy children. An offering was taken for projects involving children around the world to conclude the meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

My wife and I would like to thank all who visited, sent cards, made phone calls, and, most of all, for your prayers while I was in the hospital. I am recuperating at home now and we want you to continue to remember us in your prayers.

Human rights discussion topic

An informative program that recognized the inherent dignity and equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family was presented Thursday afternoon for the 23 Study Club through an address on Human Rights by Miss Ethyle Kidwell.

Mrs. Travis Smith and Mrs. D.O. James were hostesses for the meeting held in the home of the former in Wichita Falls.

To introduce her talk, Miss Kidwell distributed copies of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations in 1948. She reminded members that the declaration was designed for the purpose of peace and unity among all nations, for the preservation of human dignity, the commitment of freedom and mutual toleration, and that all nations agreed upon the declaration and signed it.

She observed, however, that as each year has passed, the prospect for universal acceptance of human rights as a governing law and policy of nations has dimmed. "Witness the story of Uganda, the happenings in Chile, Uruguay, South Korea, the Philippines, Iran, Brazil and Argentina to know that some things that have happened in recent times run more than a close second to the happenings in Hitler's time," she said for emphasis.

Miss Kidwell asked, "Why do nations defy the principle of the declaration of rights yet they all agreed that human beings are entitled to certain basic rights?" She remarked that perhaps some countries' idea on human rights had been shaped according to what they have struggled against socially, economically and politically. She further listed selfishness, greed and racial problems as destroyers of human rights, and stated that every country has enough to be ashamed of without finger-pointing and that the United States was no exception.

She closed by remarking that the adoption of the Declaration of Rights opened the doors of United Nations to all people to have equal rights. "The accomplishment of the goal must evolve from mankind's desire to improve the life of his fellowman through finding areas of cooperation, understanding other people's viewpoint and working for the common good of all," she concluded.

Mrs. China B. Smith led the group in the pledge of allegiance and presented Mrs. Sam Hill, program leader for the afternoon.

With the program theme in mind, Mrs. L.E. Brooks stressed that human rights were from God, who created all men equal, in her devotion. She stressed the importance of deeper appreciation capacities of "Heavenly Father-Child" relationships to improve the earthly human relationships.

For the art feature, Mrs. Rollins Woodall, who has won recognition for her poetry in Santa Rosa District, read an original poem, "A Word for America."

The next meeting will be Feb. 5 and Mrs. John Meux, a social studies teacher in Iowa Park High School, will be the guest speaker.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Tuesday was an exceptionally heavy day for national and international news media. What a day: we got a new president and our 52 citizens were released from Iran.

You will remember, a few weeks back, I wrote in this column that the Iranians were masters at propaganda. There is no question in my mind that Tuesday was a planned date.

The Iranians planned the release date for the same date as the inauguration for at least two reasons: they wanted to cheat Jimmy Carter from having the release of the hostages during his presidency; and they wanted to water down news coverage of the inauguration of Ronald Reagan with the release.

I'll say one thing, they did a pretty good job of it, if you are a television watcher. The networks were going crazy, trying to decide whether to cover the release or the inauguration and of course it was impossible to do a good job of either all at the same time.

Pres. Reagan hit the nail on the head, when he said the 52 Americans should be called "prisoners of war" rather than hostages.

I still say they were held 443 days too long. The act of attacking our American embassy was as much an act of war as if the same "students" had attacked the White House. Under international law, there is no difference.

Had it not been for the anti-war protestors making such a big showing during Viet Nam, I don't think there is any question we would have attacked Iran in full force.

It is puzzling to me how a bunch of lazy "chickens" like Jane Fonda and her kind made such a change in the thinking of Americans. But they apparently did. And we will suffer for it in years to come, unless we bite the bullet as did our ancestors and earn our place once more as a leading nation in this world.

Equipment recovered

The North Texas Oil and Gas Association has been notified of the recovery of oilfield equipment which is suspected to have been stolen.

The equipment involved includes a 739 Fairbanks Morse engine, serial number 950267, possibly stolen in August, 1980; a 208 Fairbanks Morse engine, serial number K 508326; and 250 rod boxes, 7/8 inch. Also recovered was a model 208 Fairbanks Morse engine, serial number 201661. This is painted yellow and green, includes a base and has a red and white Murphy heat switch. It also has an extended oil intake with a hand valve and round chrome rake or clutch handle.

Anyone having information about this equipment, or any stolen oilfield property, is asked to call 817/723-4131. Collect calls will be accepted.

MR. and MRS. BERT CADDELL

Couple to observe 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Caddell will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Jan. 31 from 2 to 5 p.m. at their home, 604 N. Wall. The reception will be hosted by their children, Carolyn Adams of Abilene and Royce Caddell of Crosbyton, and their spouses, Doyal Adams and Pat Caddell.

No local invitations are being mailed but friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Caddell were married Jan. 31, 1931 at Frederick, Okla. They moved to Wichita Valley Farms in 1940 and moved to Arnett, Okla. in 1967. He was engaged in refinery construction work for several years during which time they lived in New Orleans, La. Mr. Caddell retired in 1973 and they established residence in Killeen, but his retirement was not for long because he went back to refinery construction work and the couple moved to Monahans in 1974 and lived there until 1977 when they moved back to Iowa Park. They are members of the First Baptist Church and Sunday school classes.

Finnell bill cuts paper work

Last Tuesday in Austin, State Rep. Charles Finnell along with 149 other members of the Texas House of Representatives, took the constitutional oath of office. The 67th legislative session has just begun and the 53rd District Representative has lost no time expressing his desire to eliminate wasted time and tax dollars.

Finnell has authored House Bill 428 which is aimed at simplifying and reducing paperwork and expense to taxpayers. This bill would allow an alternate short form acknowledgment for legal documents such as deeds or other legal agreements.

"The purpose of H.B. 428 is to reduce the cost of paperwork to citizens," Finnell said.

The Finnell bill, which is endorsed by the State Bar of Texas, is expected to be referred to committee soon.

In a similar move for efficiency, Finnell strongly supported an amendment to House Rules designed to limit each of the 150 representatives to introducing no more than 20 bills during the session. It has unfortunately become quite fashionable to be the representative who introduces the most pieces of legislation each session, regardless of the importance, relevance or content of the bills.

ACLD meets today

The Wichita Falls Area Association For Children With Learning Disabilities, (ACLD) will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in First Presbyterian Church, 3601 Taft, Wichita Falls.

Book on missions group's study

Mrs. Roy B. Smith introduced the study of "Mission Possible," a book relating to the part the 1200 associations have in Southern Baptist missions, during the meeting of the Night WMU of First Baptist Church Monday at the home of Mrs. E.T. Patterson.

She said that the Philadelphia Association established in 1704 was the first in the U.S., the Charleston Association established in 1751 was the second, and by 1845 when the Southern Baptist Convention was organized there were 100 of the organizations.

To enhance interest in the study, Mrs. Smith showed films depicting the work of seven of the associations.

Mrs. Elmer Singleton conducted the business. For the community missions work, members brought personal items for residents at the Cottonwood Manor.

Mrs. Bill Curry was in charge of the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar to open the meeting.

Fire marshall, sirens highlight city meeting

Holliday city council appointed Jim Hamill fire marshall and set a date for testing of the civil defense sirens, in major action taken during Monday's meeting.

Hamill, serving in the capacity of city waste-water operator since October of 1980, was appointed fire marshall after councilmen went into executive session for approximately 30 minutes.

In addition, Hamill was given a 50-cent raise, to $5 per hour, after councilmen learned he had passed his waste-water examination, earning a Class C sewer license.

According to mayor Tom Hall, Hamill would have been given a Class B license but didn't have the required number of classroom hours or actual work experience to achieve the higher grade. Hamill is a retired naval officer, and originally resided in Kamay.

Speaking of his newly-appointed position, Hamill stated, "If there is a regulation required by law, we will have to follow it." Hamill continued, "I expect to have open channels with the council and city administrators, in order to do my job right, and I will be asking Glenn (Woods) for advice when it is necessary." Woods is a former fire marshall for Holliday.

SIREN TEST MONDAY

Melvin Bills, civil defense director, reported that the civil defense sirens have been erected, and testing should be done in the near future. Councilmen set the date of testing for Monday at noon. Present at the test will be Bills, Hall, Larry Spencer, and electricians from Marvin Grove Electric Co., who will check the sirens and correct any problems that may occur.

According to Bills, the first test may last for several minutes, while city workers become familiar with the procedure, and the sirens are tested.

The sirens are capable of making several signals. A straight, long blast will be sounded only in the event of a nuclear attack. A wavy, long blast will signal the sighting of a tornado, or from any natural or man-made disaster that would require Holliday residents to seek shelter.

Tests in the future will last approximately one minute, said Bills. "But for the first run, they may run for awhile until we get used to them," Bills said.

In addition, councilmen tabled three proposals made by Bills until a later meeting. One proposal was to establish a reward system for arson and theft information. Bills also asked that the fire department begin a yearly installation banquet, with the city paying the cost of the meals, and set up a civil defense meeting.

Other action taken by councilmen included placing additional street lights on FM 368, renewed their insurance contract with Talley Insurance with additional coverage, heard Spencer's report on Holliday's police statistics, named the Iowa Park Leader the "official hometown newspaper" for 1981, and gave the Holliday VFD permission to sponsor an Explorer Scout troop.

Aldermen decided to contact TESCO for an estimate of how many lights to erect on FM 368 on the southside of Holliday to the curve adjacent to FM 1954, after a local resident complained of poor lighting in the area. Alderman John Goforth, himself a resident in that area, agreed that the situation needed to be corrected with more homes being established in the area.

MORE INSURANCE

Don Talley of Talley Insurance told councilmen their current coverage of the city hall and contents was inadequate, and needed to be corrected. Councilmen agreed to raise the amount of coverage from $19,800, for building and contents, to $30,000 for the building and $10,000 for contents.

In addition, Talley requested a list of all city and police radio prices in order to insure them. Councilmen also agreed to have the civil defense sirens insured. According to Talley, the radios and siren can be placed under an all-risk form, which would cover everything except natural aging.

Spencer reported to councilmen he had written an average of 27 citations in his 10 months as policeman in Holliday. Estimated total fines were projected at $7,695, but according to Spencer, some violators have neglected to pay, which has led to warrants being issued. Mayor Hall mentioned that Spencer had received a letter of commendation from Sgt. Don Rains of Holliday, after Spencer apprehended the suspect who burglarized Rains' home earlier in the year.

The Iowa Park Leader was named Holliday's "official hometown newspaper" for 1981. The motion was made in accordance with Texas Municipal Law, which requires a city without a newspaper within its city limits to contract on a yearly basis with one for the printing of legal publications.

Councilmen gave the volunteer fire department permission to sponsor Holliday's Explorer Scout Troop. Local firemen and Spencer will coordinate events which will give the Explorers a working knowledge of the fire and police departments. In addition, the Explorers will be trained in CPR, and other safety techniques in order to earn certain merit badges.

In other business, Mrs. John Kuykendall offered her assistance to councilmen in coordinating fund raising projects to remodel the Holliday Community Center. Motion was made to cease doing business with Walker's Garage, after what councilmen felt was a history of overcharging for services rendered in the past.

Eagles drop 2

The Holliday Eagle basketball team dropped its district record to 3-2 with losses to state-ranked Archer City and Nocona in games played over the week.

The Wildcats from Archer City, ranked second in Class AA by some polls, managed to keep the scrappy Eagles at bay throughout last Friday's game, winning 77-48.

The Wildcats jumped to 15-5 first period lead, and led at halftime 36-15. Kevin Lilley paced the Eagles with 11, while brother Kent added 10. Darryn Shearmire was the mainstay on Archer City's squad, scoring 27.

Tuesday night, the Nocona Indians ran away with a 48-37 win over the Eagles, raising their district record to 5-0, 15-6 for the season. Kevin Lilley again led the Eagles with 14.

In a game played prior to the boys' contest, the Lady Eagles raised their district record to 3-3 with a 60-46 scalping of the Lady Indians. Cinda Grantham scored a season-high 27 points in the contest. Kristi Lucy added 15.

Last Friday, the girls lost to Archer City 62-32.

The Camp Fire Girls Candy Sale will begin Friday, Jan. 30 and end Sunday, Feb. 15. Blue Birds and Adventure girls will be knocking on doors in their neighborhoods as well as selling in business establishments in their own home towns.

The candy which the girls are selling will be offered in five varieties this year: peanut clusters, snorkles, mint creams, chocolate creams and turtles. Each box sells for $2.

The money earned from the sale will be used to operate, improve and maintain the council camping facilities. Last year 10,000 people enjoyed the facilities of Harrell Park, located in Wichita Falls. Hawks to host Graham for district opener Emerging from a tough nonconference schedule with a 10-5 record, the Hawks tomorrow night open Dist. 3-AAAA play here against Graham.

A cold third quarter Friday night kept the Hawks from closing out their nonconference schedule on a winning note, as they lost 53-50 to the Wichita Falls Coyotes.

The boys will play Graham's Steers in the local gym, following two other games. The first contest will be the boys' junior varsity, and that will be followed by the varsity girls' contest. First game of the tripleheader is slated for 4:30 p.m.

Tuesday, Iowa Park plays host to Burkburnett.

In the Coyote game, the Hawks pulled from behind to tie the visitors 25-25 by halftime, after trailing 14-11 at the first official rest stop.

The Coyotes took a four-point lead by the end of the third quarter, and then held off a determined challenge by Iowa Park in the final period, as the Hawks outscored them 17-16.

If the Coyotes know the Hawk players by their first names, they probably had nightmares later that night by the name of Steve.

Steve Paige and Steve Smith provided most of the scoring trouble for the Coyote defense, with Paige scoring 19 points and Smith 18 (sinking 12 of 16 free shots).

CARD OF THANKS
May we take this opportunity to express our deepest gratitude to all of our wonderful friends for the many things that they have done to take some of the sadness from our hearts during the loss of our loved one. You have not faltered in doing the things that encouraged and strengthened us and gave us hope to carry on. Your caring was expressed through prayers, visits, calls, flowers, food, cards and spiritual ministry, and we shall always remember each of you with the tenderest of thoughts.
