Brown was west-bound and attempting to turn on Bank when he collided with a car driven by Carla J. Turner. City, county agree on roads

Iowa Park's city council Monday night passed a resolution for joint participation in maintenance of two roads with the county which will be used to reach the new landfill, and accepted the lowest of three bids for renovation of part of the city hall.

A state agency had required a joint agreement between the city and county for maintenance on parts of Johnson and Smith roads, because trash trucks will be using them when delivering to the proposed new landfill.

Mayor Charlie Lee and Administrator James Barrington attended Monday's meeting of commissioners' court, where that group approved its portion of the agreement. Following their report on the change in wording, aldermen passed their resolution, sealing the agreement.

At the morning meeting, County Judge Tom Bacus told the commissioners "I've given them (Iowa Park) verbal assurance we can work it out. We don't expect them to build us a new road."

Commissioner Gordon Griffith said then, and repeated again that evening to the council, that the county just " ... expects the roads to be kept in the general condition as they are now and not let them deteriorate as (north) Johnson and Harmony roads did."

Griffith suggested also that less maintenance would be needed if city trucks would use Magnolia to Johnson and then go to the landfill, explaining Smith Road wouldn't stand up under the heavy weight and traffic.

Commissioners approved inserting of the phrase "in present condition" concerning county roads to be used, in their resolution, and that was ratified in the city resolution.

Griffith also said, later, that the county would "probably" sealcoat Smith Road and repave the railroad crossing on Johnson sometime in August.

BID ACCEPTED

The council accepted the lowest of three bids submitted for renovation of a part of city hall.

In fact, they were so pleased with the bid that the base bid and all three alternatives were approved, totaling $64,557.76 by Gilbreth-Calhouhn of Wichita Falls.

The firm's bid on the basic remodeling of the old fire station into office space was $44,288.70. Alternates included a conference room ($7,958.25), restroom facilities ($8,609.09), and administrator's office, $3,701.72).

In recommending to the council that the bids be approved, Lee said "I think we're past due the time of getting employees out of working hallways.'

Following a 10-minute executive session, the council approved wavering the city's vacation policy for employees and gave Barrington a five-day vacation with pay.

The mayor explained "We feel, and a lot of other people in the city as well, that James is doing a Barrington would have been eligible for only one day vacation the first year.

Other business on the meeting agenda included:

* Cable Television manager Raymond Greenwood explaining his firm's pending sale to Telecommunications Inc. of Denver, known as the world's largest cable TV firm eventhough most of its holdings are in smaller cities; and introduced Bill Medlin of Mineral Wells, district manager:

* Approved an ordinance abandoning 15 feet of street of Seneca, north of Bank and on the east side (the action taken at the request of Eldon Dowell, to clear up property line where structures several years past were built into dedicated right of way):

* Accepted a bid of $20 per acre from Charlie Helms for pasture lease at the sewer plant, his being the greatest of two bids received;

* Discussed but took no action on the "Overbey House" on West Highway, and possible locations for a fire department substation in the south part of the city.

Criminal mischief, theft reported

Police received reports during the past week of one case each of criminal mischief and theft.

Sometime between 7 and 10:30 p.m. Saturday, the back window of a pickup owned by Terry Dewayne Daniels was broken out while parked at 520 W. Clara. Loss was set at $400.

Expressway Texaco worker said a car, possibly displaying Ohio license tags, took 16.3 gallons of gasoline worth $19.64 and left without paying at 7:20 a.m. Sunday.

One of the best examples of enjoyable retirement years is that of Riley and Flossie Thompson. Riley is retired from Civil Service and Flossie is retired from teaching.

They share numerous hobbies. They have a greenhouse and a lovely garden. Riley has a collection of barbed wire, arrow heads and a unusual collection of clocks from the United States and other different countries.

The most unique of all these hobbies is Riley's clocks. He says he has had approximately 70 clocks in all, through the years.

Flossie's eyes light up when Riley shows the lovely clock he designed especially for her. This clock is a piece of wood slab polished beautifully and carved carefully by Riley in the shape of the state of Oklahoma. That's Flossie's home state.

There is an Indian head representing each tribe of Oklahoma on the face of the clock. Beautiful pearls are inset representing the town where Flossie was born and one for each town in Oklahoma where her closest relatives still reside. This clock is of unique design and creativity. It hangs proudly in the den of their home.

One of the oldest clocks Riley has in his possession dates back to the year 1819. Of sentimental value, it belonged to a relative now deceased.

Thompson says through all his dealings with clocks he has never sold one. He gives them away to close friends or relatives on occasion.

He gives an account of a granddaughter who badly wanted a grandfather clock. She was expecting her first baby, and she said "Grandfather, if I have a male child will you give me a grandfather clock?" Well, Riley said that wasn't a bad bargain, so he said yes, and she did and he reciprocated.

He says with a broad smile "I love to give them to my children." He has a large grandfather clock standing in his den that will one day go to his oldest son. The youngest son has the clock that was a favorite of his now deceased mother's.

Vol. 14, No. 44

So the clocks weave their way in and out of Riley's life, but they live somewhere with his memory behind them.

He has one clock that was given to him by his brother. This is a silver money tree clock; 1964 silver coins represent each number on the clock. That was the last year silver coins were minted.

Thompson says he is strictly an amateur. He got started quite by accident. He had an old family heirloom and everytime someone would come in they would want to buy it. It put him to thinking there must be some value in it.

He set about to get it repaired and it cost him over 100 dollars. When expressing his dismay at it costing so much to a friend, the friend suggested that in the future he should do the work himself.

So this began a lifetime hobby for Riley.

just have to get inside and stay with it until you learn what makes it tick. He says "I have some clocks I like and some I don't like, it depends on how easy they go together." He quickly adds "clocks have personalities."

clocks running in the den alone, and Riley says "If one of them stopped, I knew immediately which one it was." At this time he has about 32 in his possession, with 20 of them running in the house.

story all it's own. It either speaks of a segment from Riley's life, maybe a bit of history from a foreign land or just a remarkable piece of workmanship. Some clocks may begin with a kit and many begin with a single idea and grow into a work of art.

Thompson has created for himself and all those who are fortunate enough to be his friends, because the sharing seems to be part of the beauty of his art.

Cosstick, Williams vows are exchanged Saturday

Father Dan Matusiewicz officiated the marriage ceremony at Chapel Sheppard Air Force Base, 3, Saturday afternoon to unite Miss Lori Lee Cosstick and Norman Phillip Williams. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jaye Cosstick and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams.

The nuptial decorations featured two large arrangements of lavender gladioli spikes, lavender and white daisies, baby's breath and leather leaf, urns of Boston fern and branched candelabra.

The wedding music was provided by Jim Ouashnock, organist, and Jim Hodges, vocalist, the latter singing "Truly," "The Wedding Song," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. She wore a candlelight Qiana gown with a chapel train, a gown with family sentiment because it had been worn by her sisters at their weddings. The bodice featured delicate front pleats and seed pearls deftly applied, Chantilly lace sleeves cuffed with Qiana at the wrists.

Her mantilla lace veil extended to fingertip length, and she carried a silk bouquet of lavender and white daisies, white roses and English ivy. She kept the traditions of "something old, new, borrowed and blue" to complete her costume.

Mrs. Bob Hodges, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Lisa Doyle was the bridesmaid. They wore stylish long lavender Qiana gowns designed with a sheer ruffle at the necklines and three of the ruffles below that covered the shoulders and formed short sleeves. They wore white picture hats banded with lavender ribbon and carried white lace fans that held their silk bouquets of lavender daisies, wisps of Mothers of the bride and groom graced their long gowns with purple cattelya orchids. Mrs. Cosstick wore a lavender chiffon gown designed with a V neck and an attached matching capelet. Mrs. Williams wore a sleeveless mauve chiffon gown over mauve Qiana.

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception held at Texas Electric Reddy Room in Iowa Park.

The refreshment table, tastefully decorated in a lavender and white color scheme, stood out beautifully in the setting. It was draped to the floor with white Chantilly lace over white crepe featuring a wide hemline flounce. The dignified centerpiece of lavender and white daisies and a generous mixture of baby's breath added to effect a delicate touch was arranged in a crystal bowl.

The sides of the table were marked with a silver punch bowl and white wedding cake of three tiers strewn with refreshing lavender roses and sweetpeas and wedding rings in frosting designs intermixed with tiny white ceramic doves. One set of Gothic posts and the bride and groom standing in a garden gazebo trimmed with lavender ribbon and net on the top tier enhanced interest in the confection. The napkins and punch repeated the chosen colors.

Refreshments were served by Misses Kristi Cooley, Carmen Howard, Julie Guyton, Roxa Reusch and Sandy Gullatt.

Miss Yvonne Guyette registered guests at the chapel and again at the reception at a table covered with the wedding book and plume pen.

The gift table in the room was covered like the other tables and appointed with purple candles and a basket filled with the net rice bags. The bride and groom were graduated from Iowa Park High School where she was in cosmetology. He is a self-employed carpenter. After a wedding trip to Dallas, they are at home in Iowa Park.

The theme of the Bible lesson was "The Origin of Peace" taken from the yearly study on "Peacemaker." She described peace as one of the fruits of the spirit which include all of the Christian virtues including love and joy.

"Peace is not merely the absence of quarreling or strife. It is instead an inner release from tensions that comes from Christ," Miss Blanks stated. She further emphasized that peace in hearts of the individuals gives them a desire to achieve what Christ wants them to.

Terry was crowned 1983 Wichita County Pecan Queen last December. She will compete with other girls from throughout the state for Texas Pecan Queen.

The contestants will enter evening gown competition, present pecan food demonstrations, answer questions about pecans and be treated to a Texas barbeque, a ladies luncheon, and a banquet.

Theme for the 62nd annual conference of the Texas Pecan Growers Association is "Changes for the 80's." Keynote speakers will discuss the pecan industry from the planting of the trees to harvesting nuts.

Shower honors Miss Fitzgerald

A lovely prenuptial courtesy was extended Saturday afternoon in the Silver Square Room at Parker Square Bank in Wichita Falls to Miss Connie Fitzgerald, bride-elect of Jeff Nolen.

Hostesses for the miscellaneous shower were Mmes. Hugh Rains, Don Fletcher, Bob Wesbrooks, Johnny Crawford and Bob Hamilton.

Decorations for the function were governed by pink and white, colors chosen by the honoree for the couple's wedding when they exchange vows Aug. 27 at the Floral Heights Assembly of God in Wichita Falls.

The refreshment table was characterized by a look of airy delicacy appropriate for the summer season. It was covered with a white sheer cloth featuring a ruffled skirt with a band of pink ribbon at floor level. The centerpiece was a nine-branched white wrought iron votive candelabrum based with pink candles tied with pink ribbon. It held a handsome bouquet of pink roses, rosebuds, small mums, stephanotis, amaryllis, sweet peas and baby's breath accented with two white love birds and wedding bells.

The table was further appointed with a silver punch service, individual cakes decorated with white sugar bells and pink icing ribbons, a shrimp ball, assorted crackers, grapes and pink napkins.

Shotgun blast injures two men

One of two young Iowa Park men wounded by a shotgun blast over the weekend remains hospitalized.

Robert Blair, 21, was in Bethania Hospital where he is being treated for pellets in his face, neck and chest, with the most serious wounds reportedly being in an ear and one lodged behind an eye.

Richard Young, 25, was treated and released from Nocona Hospital and reported to work at Sheppard AFB. He was also wounded in the face and head.

A third victim of the blast from a .410 shotgun is Susan Johnson, 30, of Nocona who remains in Bethania Hospital.

Richard Russo, 28, of Nocona was arrested Saturday evening and charged with aggravated assault.

According to one report of the incident, Blair and Young had met Johnson at the Nocona Country Club. Johnson had two weeks previously

The trio had driven to Russo's home in Nocona Hills to talk to Russo. saw him exit his house with a shotgun and were attempting to drive away when the gun was fired in their direction.

All three were hit in the side of their heads as the pellets apparently entered the car through the right hand door, which was still open on Blair's side as they were driving away.

Young drove to Lake Nocona camp grounds where his parents have a mobile home. An ambulance and law enforcement was called to the scene.

The three were taken to Nocona Hospital from where Blair and Johnson were transferred to the Wichita Falls hospital.

feeling of doubt about our (teachers) ability to do our best. Teaching for tests would become the rule, rather than the exception, and, most important, our children's education would suffer.

I am for requiring teachers to pass a test before being given a teaching certificate. I am for education departments in our colleges and universities upgrading their teachers and education courses.

It is, therefore, my opinion that a competitive salary schedule (with other businesses) and higher college standards would help the teaching profession become the first choice of college bound students instead of their last choice. This would, in turn, eliminate the need for merit pay.

The Wichita Falls newspaper had on the front page of its Sunday edition a real tear-jerking story about how new car sales were down in every community of the county.

Sales the first half of this year were reportedly down 10.5 percent.

Problem is, the figures quoted by the reporter didn't include all six months of this year. It apparently had incomplete figures for 1983, because it's for sure Iowa Park's June sales weren't in the figures.

June was a heck of a month for Shaw Motor Co. The local Ford dealer sold 50 cars and pickups. In fact, sales were so good, Shaw's running an ad this week that he's got an overstock of used trade-ins he wants to sell.

Owner Luther Shaw told me the figures quoted by the paper didn't include June sales for Iowa Park. . . and he wasn't sure about other communities in the county.

The month's report wasn't picked up at the court house until July 7.

There is a report collected and printed for distribution to dealers, financial institutions and others interested in that sort of thing each month. The information is taken from court house records.

The report used to be done by a private firm. It's now compiled by the Wichita Falls newspaper. Apparently whoever gathers the information just failed to let his fellow employee know what was going on.

Tractor Pull set this weekend

The annual Wichita County Young Farmers Tractor Pull is slated Friday and Saturday nights at Red River Rodeo Arena on FM 369.

To begin at 7:30 nightly, admission this year is $8 for adults and $3 for children.

You doubtlessly will never see a correction, however. A few years ago one eager big neighbor reporter did a story about taxes of each city and school district in the county. It really made Iowa Park look bad.

I found several flaws in the report, checked them out with the sources, and told the reporter and his editor about it.

You're right, it was never corrected. And Iowa Park continued for years to be a place real estate shunned from showing people prospective buyers houses for sale. Taxes, you see, are somthing prospective buyers are interested in. along with the monthly payments.

Smaller towns often get the bad publicity in big town media. It makes the Chamber of Commerce and residents chew their nails, but there's little they can do about it.

But it's to be expected. Big town people have always looked down their noses at us "hick town" folk.

A glance at the recipes today submitted by Pam (Mrs. Rick) Carlton, three of which call ; for eggs, is a reminder that eggs are one of the most important ingredients in the cuisine of many lands today. The Encyclopedia Brittanica sums up the place of the egg thus: "Considering all factors, eggs rank next after milk in importance and efficiency among foods of animal origin."

"The egg," wrote a French gourmet of this century," is to the cuisine what the article is to speech." Another French gourmet of the last century called it the "Proteus of the kitchen." To compliment the egg, Brancus described it as "the most perfect form of creation."

There are many kinds of eggs but the hen's egg is man's choice. The peacock eggs were eaten by ancient Romans; ostrich eggs have been eaten since Phoenician times; plovers' eggs were eaten by American Indians. The Japanese and English appreciate quail eggs, and duck eggs are frequently eaten in Holland, England and Belgium.

The popularity of the egg is justified in that it comes very close to being a complete food. Nobody knows how many hens' eggs are eaten throughout the world but they were slow to enter into the human larder. Neither chickens or eggs are mentioned in the Old Testament.

The strain of attempting to get reality in touch with the things we wish for can be like trying to connect two tracks that refuse to meet. After a while, we may feel like it's not worth the effort. We make a lot of wishes and fantasize about that better position, that right person, that changing situation. But these seldom link with reality. You see, optimism is based on right circumstances. If everything is going well - if by chance things work out right - we can be optimistic. When life falls apart - what then?

Hope is different. It's deep and unassailable. Jesus was a hopeful person Even in the midst of pain, distress, unease and the stresses of life. He gave and gives hope. Connect your reality to a living hope.

Few openings remain for slow-pitch meet

There are still a few openings for in the fourth annual teams MuleSkinner Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament, to be played at Burnett Field Aug. 21-24.

The four-day event has a bracket for 24 teams, according to Bill Hrncirik, who along with Phil McDonald and Marvin Robertson are co-chairmen.

Teams interested in entering can contact Hrncirik at 592-5076, McDonald at 592-2363 or Robertson at 592-2681.

Trophies will be awarded to teams and individuals.

Proceeds from the tournament and concession stand will be used to pay for the new concession stand and press box built this week by the MuleSkinners.

Klinkerman, Belcher on Greenbelt teams

The attention of area sports fans will swing to the west Aug. 5, for the kickoff of the 34th annual Greenbelt Bowl Football Classic at Childress.

including obstetrics.

Klinkerman is listed as one of two quarterbacks on his squad. The 6-1, 180 former Hawk was starting field general his junior year, but was moved to a receiver slot and reserve signal caller last season. He was outstanding as a defensive back, where he will likely see lots of action on his 22-player team.

Belcher, 6-0, 205, is listed as a wide receiver and defensive back for the East. He was one of the more prolific yard gainers in this part of the country, as well as being a fearsome tackler.

Players are to report to begin workouts July 31. Game time is 8 p.m. Klinkerman did not have a queen nominee listed on the press release, but Belcher nominated Jill Bynum.

Trustees close campus, hire new band director

Holliday School Board Monday night hired a new band director and accepted guidelines to close the school campus beginning next year.

Trustees held a short closed session to deal with personnel before re-opening the meeting to approve the hiring of Mark Cartwright, a former assistant director at Iowa Park, at $4,300 above state base on a one-year contract.

After running into numerous problems with the previous open campus policy at Holliday's schools and recent allegations of a drug problem on campus, trustees established guidelines closing the campus during school days between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. At that time, only authorized personnel and vehicles will be allowed on campus.

The policy covers all school property in Holliday.

Authorized personnel only will be allowed on campus during school hours, unless special permission is received from school administration. This includes students enrolled in school, employees of the school, and persons delivering products to the school cafeteria, elementary building and high school building, and those purchasing products from the school district.

Parents picking their child up after school can use the parking along the school's property adjacent to College Avenue. Parents wishing to speak to school administrators or personnel must receive permission before entering the campus.

Only authorized vehicles will be allowed, according to the guidelines, which include vehicles owned by the above-mentioned authorized personnel.

Students driving cars to school are to park them when arriving, and they are not to be moved until the student is dismissed in the afternoon or have permission from their principal to leave campus. The student driver must have a valid driver's license, and cannot go to the car at anytime during school hours unless permission is obtained. Trustees also added a note stating that cars parked on school property during school hours can be searched at anytime when the administration feels it contains anything that permits the school not to have a safe and sound environment for education.

AFTER SCHOOL HOURS

During the hours of 4 p.m. until 10 p.m., students and adults may have access to the tennis courts. Parking is allowed by the tennis courts as long as care of school property is observed. No vehicles will be allowed past the tennis court area. Adults wishing to use the track area for walking may do so. All activity is to be completed and tennis lights are to be turned off at 11 p.m. Tennis courts are not to be used on Sunday mornings or after 6 p.m. or on Wednesday nights after 6.

Vehicles used by those attending functions are allowed as long as the school campus rules are observed.

In other business, trustees accepted a policy limiting extra-curricular activities during spring, selected First State Bank of Archer City as bank depository for the next two years, and was granted a homeowners exemption of 30-percent for the 1983-84 school year.

Citing a need to concentrate more on basic education and the problems in doing such with an unlimited number of spring activities, trustees okayed a policy which states that, beginning the second semester, the student will be limited to two events from the extra-curricular activities including homemaking, vocational agriculture, and athletic events.

According to policy, a student may not miss an average of over one class per week for extra-curricular activities until after the district or area competition.

Finnell encourages program participation

State Rep. Charles Finnell, pointing to the importance of recognizing and remembering the pioneer farm and ranch families in Texas, is inviting long-time farming families to participate in the Texas Department of Agriculture's 1983 Family Land Heritage Program.

Registration for the program, which recognizes families who have had land in agricultural production for 100 years or more, is currently underway and will continue through August 16, said Finnell.

"To date, 14 properties in the 80 Legislative District have qualified for the Family Land Heritage Program, and this year I hope we will be able to identify even more," commented Finnell recently.

Basic requirements of the program include continuous agricultural production of the farm or ranch for 100 years, land ownership within the family, complete operation or supervision of the farm/ranch production by family members who are Texas residents, and a size of at least 10 acres with a minimum income of $50 from farm or ranch products. If the farm is smaller than 10 acres, sale must total at least $250 per year.

Those who wish to apply may obtain an application by writing to: Family Land Heritage Program, Texas Department of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin, Texas, 78711.

Two mile resurfacing city's goal this year

The third year of Holliday's five-year street resurfacing plans will be in full tilt Tuesday with city officials hoping to resurface at least two miles of streets, which would equal the work done the two previous years.

Holliday city administrator Jim Hamill said recently residents of the streets designated to be resurfaced are urged to cooperate by not parking their cars on the streets while work is being done. "Once the asphalt truck is on the street, there is no stopping it, and we don't want to see any vehicle damaged," he commented.

City crews, including several high school boys working part-time, have been busy preparing the long-neglected streets for resurfacing. County workers will come to Holliday Tuesday to begin work, which includes laying a liquid asphalt on the street, followed by a layer of crushed chat, then a series of sweeping and packing to seal the road correctly.

Hamill said work will begin on the city's northside beginning with North Pecan and Main, then East and West Maple, North and South Cedar, then Southwest Ave. and West Myrtle.

Continuing into Wednesday, work will be done on streets including West Live Oak and West Chestnut, Oak St. (two block area), and the two standby streets, depending on the amount of materials received by the county, which are East Myrtle and East Live Oak.

The two earned the honor by maintaining a grade point average of between 3.5 and 4.0.

Information about your changing telephone service from Dan Adams. Community Relations Manager

By now you've probably read about the company's rate request for $1.7 billion.

How did we come up with that figure? Why is this request so much larger than previous rate filings? In this column. I hope to provide some answers for you.

Local rates subsidized by long distance

If somebody else were to pick up half your lunch check, what would you say? Probably, thank you. But what if they started paying half of all your meals? At some point it would be human nature to start taking them for granted. Our situation is similar.

You've been paying an average of $11 a month for something that costs about $29 a month: residence telephone service.

Long distance and other services have been picking up the difference. This came about because the company wanted to keep local service as cheap as possible. That way everyone could afford to have a phone. And as long as Southwestern Bell operated as one big system. this worked fine.

But with recent government rulings, things have changed.

Southwestern Bell can't continue to subsidize local rates with the money we make on optional services. As Paul Roth, vice president of revenues and public affairs, said in a recent press conference. "Local rates no longer can hide behind long distance, because we're just about out of the long distance business." For the most part. the long distance business is going to other carriers like AT&T and MCI. And, we're virtually out of the customer equipment business. As a consequence, local rates must go up...substantially.

Three main components make up rate request

Basically, the company's request for local rates can be divided into three parts: — The company is requesting an increase of 8502 million statewide to recover the costs of doing business, and to produce a fair return on Texas investment.

- –We're asking for an increase of $450 million in depreciation expense and other capital recovery changes that is more consistent with today's technological changes.
- The company is seeking $249 million in access charges to partially replace the subsidy provided by intrastate long distance revenues to local rates. The filing also proposes additional charges of $504 million to intercity carriers such as AT&T and MCI.

Lower cost options due later this year

We are concerned about how these increases will affect our customers... particularly those on fixed incomes. That's why we're researching several lower priced offerings as alternatives to flat-rate unlimited service.

Under such offerings, customers would pay for each call made, but the monthly rate for most would be substantially less than unlimited service.

With local rates rising to meet costs, it doesn't make sense for all customers to pay the same flat rate no matter how much or little they use their line. People who use less should pay less. This is no different than rates charged for other utility services.

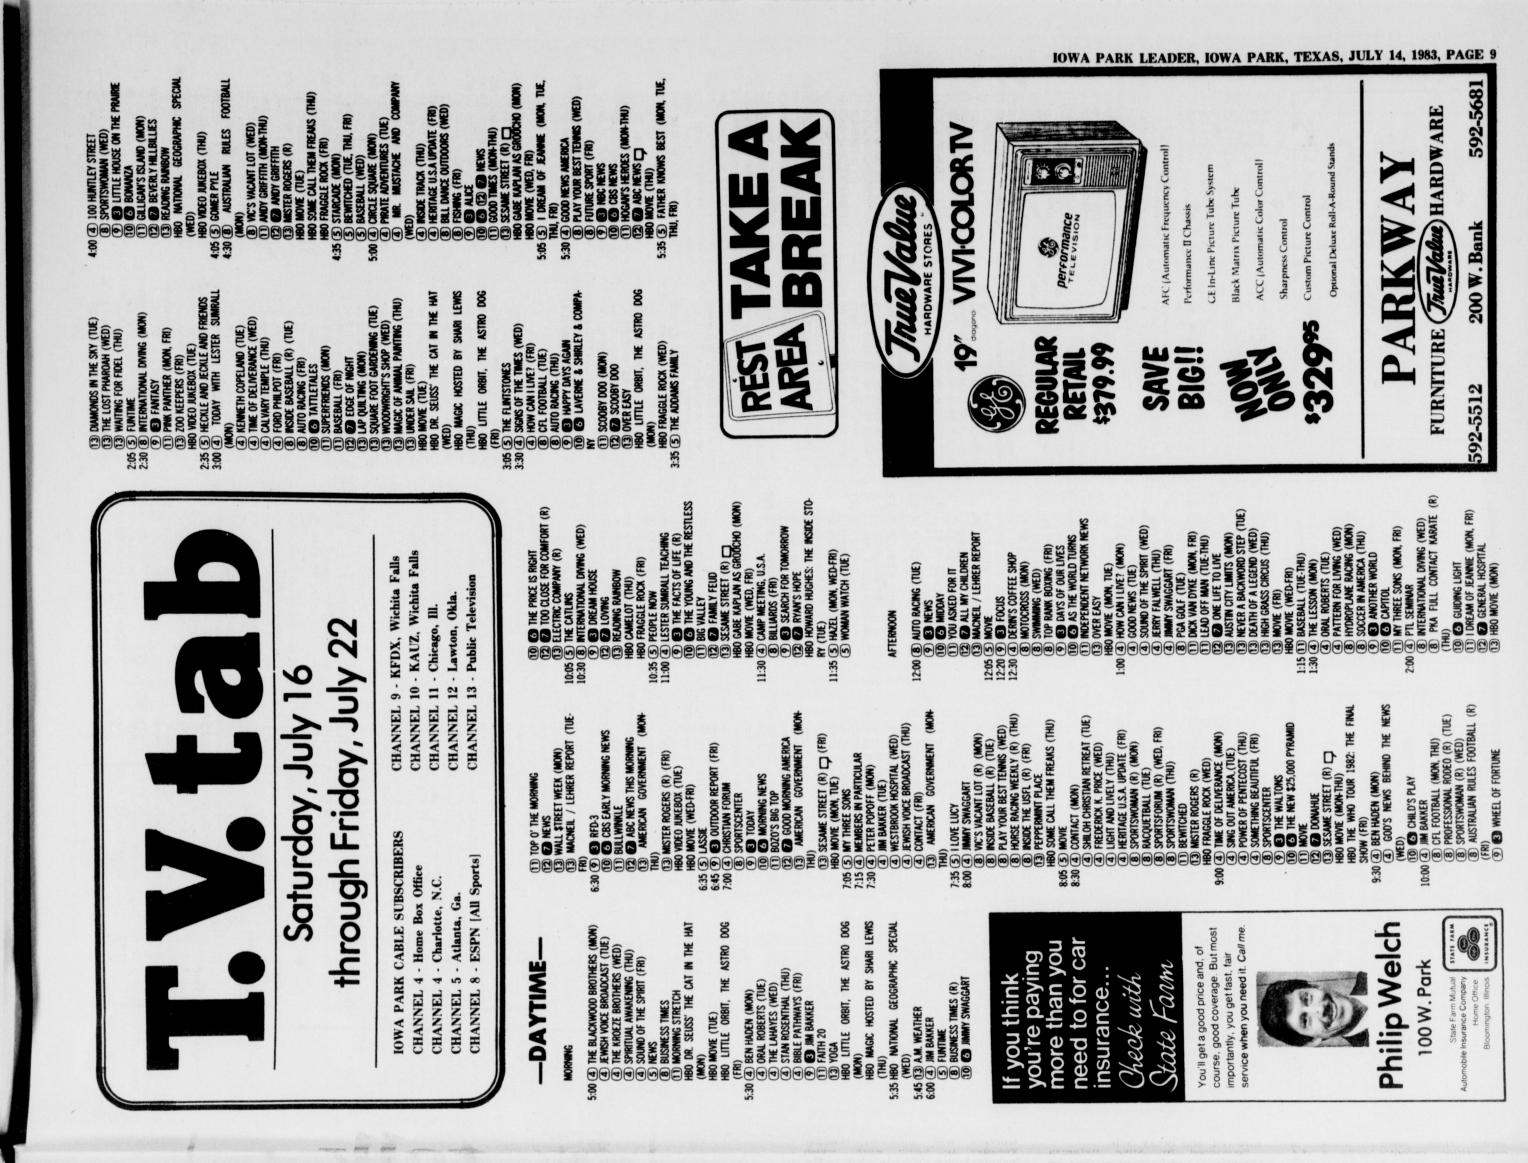

For further information and background about the rate filing, send for our free booklet. "Telecommunications Changes and the Cost of Telephone Service." Address requests to: Rate Request Booklet, Southwestern Bell, P. O. Box 225265, Dallas. Texas 75265.

Area oil, gas report

Dave W. Rhone of Wichita Falls has staked locations for the No. 1 thru 6 Burlington-Northern Ry. "A" Lease in the Wichita Regular Field. They are each scheduled for 1,999-feet of hole making. The locations are in a 27-acre lease in Wichita County's H&GN RR Survey, about 2.5 miles southeast of Electra.

Location has been staked by 3-S Production Co. of Wichita Falls for a 1,850-foot developmental probe in Wichita County's W.V.F.L. Survey, two miles west of Kamay. The well is designated as the No. 8 Warren. Drillsite will be in a 105-acre lease in the Wichita Regular Field.

Midland has recorded a successful developmental well in Wichita County's H. George Survey. It is the No. 17-4 J&J Waggoner "A", showing potential for 5 barrels of crude oil per day on an open choke.

Drillsite was in a 40-acre lease in the Wichita Regular Field, seven miles southeast of Electra.

The well was drilled to a total 1,556 foot bottom, after entering the pay structure at 1,304 feet. It was perforated to produce from an interval 1,304 to 1,308 feet.

The No. 2 J&J Waggoner "14", a developmental well in Wichita County's K.M.A. Field, is scheduled to be drilled 10 miles south of Electra. TS&T Drilling Inc. of Electra is listed as the operator. Location is in a 560-acre lease in the H&TC RR Survey. Projected total depth is 4,500 feet.

Burk Royalty Co. of Wichita Falls has posted initial production figures for the No. 1 Norma Hohle, a new well in Wilbarger County's H&TC RR

Seniors look to second chance Iowa Park's Senior League

All-Stars have run into some good news and bad news at the area tournament in Olney.

The bad news is, they lost to Burkburnett's all-stars, the tournament's top seed, by a 14-6 score.

The good news is, they are playing in a double elimination tourney.

According to coach Leon Biddy, Burk's players were dominating offensively, but the local all-stars were playing a quick game of catch-up before the contest was called after six innings.

Biddy added that his team had a chance to rally in the final inning, but an 11 p.m. curfew in Olney forced an early closing of the fields.

At presstime yesterday, Iowa Park was scheduled to meet Seymour at 5 p.m., and, if they advance, the locals will play the winner of the Sheppard A.F.B.-Olney game today at 5 p.m. A win there will place them in the loser's bracket finals, against either Burk or Brazos Valley, at 8 p.m. tomorrow, and, hopefully, into Saturday's tournament finals.

If they advance that far, said Biddy, they will have to win two games against the winner's bracket finalist, which looks to be Burk.

Twelve members of the Iowa

The group includes Rowdy Robertson, Derek Crumpton, Tracy Taylor, Misty Hicks, Kim Williams, Becky and Bruce Whitaker, Jeff Sawyer, Tommy Riggins, James Cowley, Stanley Watson and Scott Young.

Robertson, Watson and Cowley will receive the Lone Star Farmer Degree during the convention, which is the highest rank to receive in the state.

Open Daily 3 - 9 p.m.

Next to Scobee's II

Survey, Sec. 41, Blk. 14, six miles southeast of Vernon.

The well indicated potential for 53 barrels of oil on an open choke. With drillsite in a 95-acre lease in the Wilbarger Regular Field, the well had total drilling depth of 6,950 feet. It entered the pay horizon at 6,706 feet and will produce from a set of perforations 6,706 to 6,714 feet into the wellbore.

The well is 467 feet from the south line and 783 feet from the west line of the lease and survey.
