

Meeting set tonight to explain graduation requirement change

Will your child graduate from Iowa Park High School with credits earned in college preparation courses or not?

This is a decision which must be made by Feb. 15, and a meeting will be held this evening to explain to parents the changes in new requirements and courses for graduation.

It is set to begin at 7:30 in the high school cafeteria. Parents of students enrolled as freshmen, sophomores and juniors this year are encouraged by the administration to attend.

Another meeting for parents of students in the eighth grade is scheduled Feb. 12. It will be held in the junior high school cafeteria.

Two plans for graduation were approved recently by the Iowa Park school board. The advanced plan, designed for students planning to enter college, requires 26 credits for seniors who will graduate in 1987 and afterward.

The regular plan, which is not for students who do not intend to enroll in college, will require 25 credits for graduation. Students graduating under this plan will not be prohibited from enrolling in college, but their chances of succeeding in college are considered by administrators as slim.

Pre-registration for classes all students will take in the fall of 1986 will be held Feb. 15. The date was selected in order to give administrators an opportunity to make arrangements both for space and teachers, in order to achieve the teacher-student ratio dictated by state legislation.

General requirements for both plans of graduation include:

- * students may earn no more than two credits in physical education toward state graduation requirements;

- * students substituting marching band for physical education must take and must pass a physical fitness test;

- * athletics may substitute for two credits of physical education;

- * marching band may substitute for physical education requirements during the first semester of each school year only;

- * all credits for graduation shall be earned in grades nine through 12.

Credit requirements under the advanced plan include: four in English; two in foreign language; three each in mathematics, science and social studies; one and a half in physical education; one each in fine arts and computer science; half credit in health, and seven electives.

Regular plan requirements include: four in English; three each in mathematics and social studies; two in science; one and a half in physical education; half credit in health and 11 electives.

Though many credit requirement numbers are similar in the advanced and regular plans, courses vary.

RECIPIENTS OF ANNUAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AWARDS
... Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Homer Blalock, Robert Wilcox, Dr. James Edwards.

Chamber banquet gets public's 'rave review'

A key to the success or failure of any organization's event is generally gauged on comments of those who attend.

If so, Saturday's Chamber of Commerce banquet was a roaring success, because comments from the public were still being received by Chamber officials as late as the middle of this week.

Besides the recognitions of four individuals, the appearance of the Red River Lyric Theater group and the steaks cooked by the MuleSkinners have prompted "rave reviews" from the public.

Individuals receiving awards were: Grover Cleveland, Citizen of the Year; Mrs. Homer Blalock, Outstanding Senior Citizen; Robert Wilcox, Outstanding Agriculturist; and the Outstanding Educator awarded posthumously to Carol Edwards.

Cleveland, according to Bob Hamilton who made the presentation, worked for years with the youth of the community through Boy Scouts, but had received virtually no recognition for his hundreds of hours of effort.

As the Agriculturist recipient, Wilcox has also given of his time to the community through his volunteer work as announcer at high school football games. Ray Hicks pointed out that Wilcox has missed announcing only one home game of the Hawks since 1950.

Annetta Reusch, in making the announcement of the Educator award, said Mrs. Edwards was so devoted to her job that she did not attend classes on campus, that she continued her work after learning she had cancer until she had to go to the hospital, from which she never returned.

Mrs. Edwards was the wife of Dr. James Edwards, the outgoing president of the Chamber.

Recognition was given Mrs. Blalock for her dedication to serve the public through her work as a newspaper reporter. In making the announcement, Lita Watson told of Mrs. Blalock's reputation as a writer of wedding stories, and said "Her love for the Lord is evident every day."

Mrs. Blalock, society editor for the Iowa Park Leader, received a spontaneous standing ovation from the audience as she accepted her plaque.

Toastmaster Charlie Lee gave no indication to the audience that he was aware the speaker was actually in the building until his time on the program. Instead, Lee had the audience convinced Jett was apparently going to miss the banquet.

But Jett, a public relations representative of Lone Star Gas Co., did appear on cue, and made a humorous delivery on the topic of the energy crisis and effect of the Arab nations on world oil prices.

New officers of the Chamber were introduced, including Dr. Erwin Soell, president; H.M. Nipper, first vice president; Rip Smith, second vice president; and nine new directors.

In his departing comments as president, Dr. Edwards pointed out to the audience the need for more membership and the Chamber's leadership in an effort to improve the business community's appearance.

City election set in April

The election to name three aldermen was officially set for April 6 during Monday night's meeting.

Terms of three aldermen, Lita Watson, Johnny Coker and George Hammonds, expire this year. Coker and Hammonds have already declared their intentions to seek re-election, but Watson has not yet made a commitment.

An ordinance will be drafted for approval at the Feb. 11 council meeting to set the date.

Aldermen approved abandoning a portion of street right of way on Emerald and an ordinance amending the city code regulating unlicensed electrical and plumbing work.

A 20-foot right of way on both sides of Emerald in the 100 block West and 100 and 200 blocks East was abandoned to the adjoining property owners.

Action was taken to narrow the 100-foot-wide street after property owners in the affected blocks responded to an inquiry. Owners in other blocks along the same street are considering the same action.

The code permitting electrical and plumbing work by an owner of a home without a licensed worker was amended to restrict individuals who abuse the privilege. The action was taken to plug a loophole being used by some who build homes, without any intention of living in them, without the use of licensed workers.

Council also approved a replat of lots in Block 157, between Wall and Park Avenue and south of Emerald, proposed by developer Bill Swan.

A resolution to permit demolishing of a partially-burnt structure at 404 W. Lafayette, and placing a lien against the property, was approved. An abandoned structure at 400 W. Lafayette is also in the works to be destroyed.

Aldermen approved advertising for sale unused property on West Highway that was purchased to permit extension of Fourth Street. Administrator James Barrington said he had received several inquiries about the land for commercial use.

Approached by developer Ray Townsend to have the city finance the paving of East Garden Drive and let the buyers pay it out, aldermen did not reach a consensus and the subject was tabled until the next meeting.

Commenting on the proposal, Mayor Tim Hunter said, "It would be a very expensive project. I see a no-win situation."

Aldermen did approve a request from a man who received a building permit for the lot at 303 E. Garden, even though the street is not paved, to allow him to continue his construction. He said his driveway was only a few feet from existing pavement, and he would connect the driveway with

Police chief says week busiest in many years

Chief of Police Bob Dean commented yesterday that the past few days have been the busiest he can remember in all the years he's been on the local force.

Among the numerous arrests made by department personnel since last Wednesday have been one on a charge of aggravated rape, another of a man harrasing a local woman and being placed in the state hospital in Wichita Falls, several arrests on warrants from agencies outside the city, and picking up a juvenile runaway from Carrollton.

The husband of a 16-year-old woman told police Sunday morning that his wife had been raped the previous evening. The alleged 26-year-old attacker reportedly turned himself in at the police station Sunday evening, gave a statement, and the case remains under investigation.

Kenneth Howell, 32, of 612 W. Louisa, was taken into custody shortly after 8 a.m. yesterday, and taken to the state hospital for observation.

Howell had reportedly been harrasing a local woman both at her home and at work, with at least five entries during the past week on the police blotter indicating his persistence.

He resisted being taken into custody and during a scuffle the right index finger of officer Tommy Stephens was broken.

A 27-year-old Cuban man, John Stuart, was stopped Thursday on Bell Road for a traffic violation, and it was learned an outstanding warrant was out on him from Sabastion County in Arkansas.

The county sheriff's department there confirmed Stuart was wanted for theft by receiving and failure to appear, there was no bond on him, and that department would extradite him. His car was turned over to his wife and he was taken to Wichita County jail.

Two individuals were arrested in a three-day period on outstanding warrants from Sherman.

Susan Faye Reece Buchanan, 29, was wanted on charges of speeding, no motor vehicle inspection certificate and failure to appear. She was released last Wednesday after paying a $60 local fine and $88 on the Sherman charges.

Saturday, Danny Richard Fuller was arrested on warrants from Sherman for speeding and failure to appear. He was released after paying $125 in fines.

Arrested Monday evening on warrants from the Department of Public Safety and Wichita Falls Police Dept. was Ronald Craig Shook, charged with having no motor vehicle liability insurance and failure to appear. He was released after posting a $119.50 bond.

Acting on a telephone tip, a 16-year-old female juvenile runaway from Carrollton was found last Wednesday at 205 W. Lafayette. She was turned over that evening to her mother, who came here for her.

A 22-year-old man, Douglas Wayne Disselhorst, was arrested at 1:28 p.m. Monday at a local eating establishment on charges of public intoxication and carrying a weapon, a .22 cal. hand gun. He was later released after posting a $500 bond.

Velma Shipman Oakley, 58, was arrested on Park Plaza at 1:15 a.m. Sunday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. She was turned over to a DPS officer who took her to Wichita Falls for a breath test and later to county jail.

A security officer at Cryovac called

Three new businesses, new building reported

Three new businesses are opening their doors in Iowa Park this week, and another has commenced construction of a new building.

Formal ribbon-cutting by the Chamber of Commerce board of directors will be held at 901 West Highway at 11 a.m. Friday in observance of two new firms, Video Library and Circle L Builders.

The third new firm, Yoder's Automotive Center, is now open at 1502 Johnson Road, but formal opening activities are still in the planning.

Work was begun the first of the week by Philip Welch, State Farm Insurance agent, on a new office building. It will be located between Settle Drug and Iowa Park Florists.

Owned by Eddy and Carmen Lambert, Video Library will occupy the building formerly occupied by Cable TV. In fact, Mrs. Lambert has been the office manager for the cable firm the past four years. They will feature video cassette rentals.

The couple has lived here five years, moving here from Vernon where they were raised.

Occupying the west office of the same building will be Circle L Builders, owned by Bob, Don and David Lawson. The firm has been operating out of a home several months before finding available office space.

Besides being a Butler Steel Building dealer, the firm also constructs homes.

Bural Yoder is opening his automotive center in the building north of the Texaco station on Johnson Road. He will feature "Kwik-Serv" oil changing, used cars on consignment, do-it-yourself repairs and vehicle storage.

To be completed in approximately 60 to 90 days, Welch's building will be constructed of brick and will contain 1,300 square feet. He has been officing in the State National Bank annex building, on the east end of the same block.

Whiteley, Sutton vows exchanged Friday evening

Father Vance Redder performed a double-ring ceremony Friday evening at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Wichita Falls to unite Miss Mary Lynn Whiteley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie B. Whiteley of Wichita Falls, and David Anthony Sutton of Iowa Park.

The altar decorations featured a candlelight setting provided by tall tapers aflame in seven-branched candelabra and the outer candles in the unity candlestick, the frames of each were entwined with greenery and white silk roses. Palm trees were placed at vantage points to enhance interest in the setting.

Miss Cindy Green, pianist, and Miss Kimberley Partain, soloist, provided the wedding music, the latter singing "Stuck on You" for a prelude number, "There Is Love" and "We've Only Just Begun" during the ceremony. The pianist played the accompaniment and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. The regal radiance of her white bridal satin gown was enhanced with drifts of

MRS. DAVID ANTHONY SUTTON

Venise lace that bordered the tulle yoke on the front of the natural bodice and hemline of the long flowing skirt that drifted into a chapel length train. Pearl buttons adorned the cuffs of the long, slender sleeves and the back of the bodice to accentuate the effects of loveliness.

The finishing touches of the bride's costume were her layered fingertip illusion veil edged in lace and applied with flowers graced with a wreath headdress of baby's breath, and her bouquet of white satin roses, lavender silk daisies and baby's breath.

She observed bridal traditions by wearing her maternal grandmother's wedding band on her right hand for "something old," pearls that belonged to Miss Sandra Brown for "something borrowed," her wedding gown for "something new," and a garter for "something blue."

The bride was attended by two maids of honor, Miss Sandra Brown and Miss Jennifer Baker, four bridesmaids, Miss Carole Ammons, Miss Shannon Hobbs, Mrs. Christy Whiteley and Miss Cindy Bradshaw. Each was attired in a formal orchid taffeta gown designed with ruffled neckline, short puffed sleeves and cummerbund front that tied in a sash at the back. They carried long stem white roses.

Shawna Buckmaster, the flower girl, was dressed like the attendants and carried a lace basket that contained flowers like those in the bride's bouquet.

Cory Sutton, nephew of the groom, had the role of ring bearer and was dressed like the groom's attendants.

The groom wore an all-white tuxedo with tails and a white silk rose boutonniere. His attendants, ring bearer and father of the bride, wore black tuxedos with lavender cummerbunds and ties.

Ricky Nix served as best man. Groomsman were Bobby Whiteley, brother of the bride, Dan Sutton, brother of the groom, Steve Majewski and Mike Stegall.

The bride's mother wore a lavender sheer dress designed with blouson bodice, cap sleeves and tie belt. Mrs. Dan Sutton wore a cream colored sheer dress featuring a Victorian bodice and A-line skirt. Their corsages were formed of lavender silk roses and baby's breath.

After a wedding trip to Taos, New Mexico, the couple will live in Iowa Park. The bride was graduated from Rider High School and attended Midwestern State Univ. She is employed by Union Square Credit Union at Sheppard Air Force Base. The groom was graduated from Windthorst High School and attended MSU. He is vice president of North Texas Savings and Loan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sutton, brother and sister-in-law of the groom hosted the rehearsal dinner at their home in Wichita Falls, and the bride's parents honored the couple at a postnuptial reception at the Silver Square Room, Parker Square Bank.

At the reception, the refreshment table was draped with white outlined around the top with English ivy. The floral ornamentation consisted of the bride's throw away bouquet for the centerpiece, a bouquet of silk flowers in the bride's colors and the long stem roses carried by her attendants.

The bride's cake and groom's cake marked table extremities. Hers was a three-tiered structure with columns decorated with orchid silk flowers and baby's breath and topped with the traditional bride and groom standing in a heart centered with wedding bells. His was a chocolate cake trimmed with grapes and strawberries set on a pedestal dish encircled with fresh fruits on a silver tray.

The silver punch service and an assortment of hors d'oeuvres were placed on another table. Refreshments were served by Miss Carla Sikes and Miss Lanette McGhee, and Miss Carla Walden secured signatures of the wedding guests.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Troy Young of Denton, Thomas Williamson of Oklahoma City, Mike Roberts of Sherman; and Miss Patsy Sutton of St. Louis, Mo.

Nutgrass is subject of Garden Club program

The Iowa Park Garden Club met Friday in the Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Mrs. Vernon Gilbert, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. D.O. James, chaplain, gave the thought for the day.

Mrs. Frank Gossett is chairman of celebration for the 25th anniversary of the club. There will be a reception honoring all past-presidents. All scrapbooks that are available will be on display. Mrs. Gossett heard reports from her committees finalizing plans for the event.

Jimmy Howell, representative for Estes Chemicals, gave an educational program on "pesticides."

Howell gave each member a pamphlet that informed them what to use on their lawn, garden and flowers. He said that "nutgrass" seemed to be the worst enemy of every yard. He said to spray "Round-Up" in the spring because digging out nutgrass will not kill its many roots.

He also told the group that he was sure if any had questions about their yard or need help that Don Decker, at Farmers Grain, would be glad to help.

Twenty-three members and two guests were present. Mrs. Gilbert said the next meeting will be a field trip to a hothouse in Charlie where lettuce is grown.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I'm going to suggest to Mayor Tim Hunter and the others who are planning the "think tank" session next Thursday that they have an alternate location for the meeting.

Everyone I've talked to has indicated an interest in the meeting and what can possibly come from it. If as many people attend, to voice their suggestions and awareness of need to improve our community, who have indicated they will, the city's council chambers meeting room won't be large enough.

There is a growing awareness of need to improve not only our image in the business community, but throughout the city as a whole.

What this think tank is for is to, first recognize our problems, secondly how they might be corrected, and third how to finance them.

Joe Thompson, publisher of the newspaper at Electra where work is underway for image improvement, made a point while speaking here this week that made real sense.

He said, "You can live in a town all your life. . . love it. . . and yet not be aware that its appearance is going down. It all happens so gradually that you don't see it as others do who don't live there."

He suggested we should all, with open minds, drive over our community and look at it as if we had never been here before, or at least had been away for many years. Look with a critical eye, comparing what you see with other communities you think are attractive.

Certainly, everyone is hoping the think tank session won't turn into a gripe session. Not all solutions offered will be workable, or maybe not adequate. But it's a starting place.

Business people here should have heard a speaker we listened to last week at the mid-winter meeting of the Texas Press Association.

A marketing and advertising expert, he suggested businesses should cater more to their customers. It was his suggestion that business people fix up their places, attractively, offering the idea that cleanliness is next to godliness. So their businesses shouldn't be dirty or unkept.

He also made the point that the buying public has changed over the years, but most business habits haven't.

The speaker reminded us that women do most of the buying at stores now, either as the wife and mother or as an individual. And since the vast majority of women are now working, their time available to shop is not the same as it was when she was a full-time homemaker.

He said stores that are not open on Sundays, because of the Blue Law, should remain open late at night.

His explanation was that women who work cannot go out to shop in the evening until after supper is served and dishes washed. But stores are already closed by then.

Why can't they shop on Saturdays? Well, he said that was the day when the working woman became a full-time housewife, doing the week's laundry, house cleaning and other time-consuming projects.

Since they can't shop Sundays, don't have time Saturdays and the stores close early on weekdays, the housewife can't do the shopping she'd like or needs. Hence, stores need to stay open later in the evenings, at least until the Blue Law is repealed.

There's room for improvement everywhere we look. The only problem is recognizing what is needed to be done, how it might be accomplished, and then the hard part, how to fund it.

Maybe we'll get the ball rolling next Thursday to make Iowa Park a better place to live, shop and do business.

the pavement at his own expense.

A proposal to allow up to $10,000 tax deduction for qualified disabled persons, discussed at the council's previous meeting, was not approved.

Rather, at the suggestion of Alderman Bud Mercer, the proposal will be placed on the April election ballot for decision of the voting public.

The council was requested by the Recreational Activities Center board of directors to assist in the cost of re-flooring that structure. Aldermen agreed to pay half the cost, but set a cap of $1,600.

Other actions by the council were:

- * approved a proposal to have the city's landfill tractor undergo major maintenance;
- * accepted a bid of $250 from Bill Gilmore for an old, unused fire truck;
- * approved expenses of the administrator and mayor to attend a legislative seminar Feb. 11 in Austin;
- * approved a request by Lloyd Tepfer to tap a water line on Coleman Road, at his expense;
- * and approved closing city hall to the public Feb. 18 to allow moving of furniture and records in preparation for renovation work in the building.

Letter to the Editor

I am a veteran of World War II. Our beloved Commissioners and County Judge want to close our Veterans Office and turn the office over to Sheppard Personnel Veterans officers as President Regan cut off their office funds. The guys out there don't know what they are doing and don't care. The Veterans office has been in the Court House for 30 or more years under Coy Ball. There is over 2 million dollars in surplus. What is going to be done with the money. It's not spent on the roads. Before this is done check and see how many veterans there is voting. This could be your last term in office so stop and think.

Hawks win first half; Hawkettes on a roll

Coupling the Hawks' Friday night win and Vernon's loss, Iowa Park won the first half of Dist. 5-AAA play and is thus assured a place in the state playoffs.

And while the boys are doing well, the Hawkettes have made a complete turnaround and are undefeated through three games of their second half district schedule.

But the boys started off the second half of their schedule on the wrong foot, losing on their home court Tuesday to fast-improving Decatur, 50-60.

Two weeks ago, the Hawks beat the Eagles 49-42 in the Decatur gym. Incidentally, it was Decatur that aided Iowa Park's first-half win, because the Eagles shot down Vernon Friday night, 65-62.

Iowa Park hosts Vernon at 7:30 tomorrow night. The Hawks edged the Lions 57-56 at Vernon in the first round. Tuesday, the Hawks make their final scheduled road trip, to Springtown.

The Eagles jumped on the Hawks early, taking a 15-8 lead in the first quarter and then outscoring the hosts 16-9 in the second quarter to lead 31-17 at the half.

Coach Earnie Reusch's squad showed they could fight back, narrowing the score to 10 points, 31-41, with 1:05 remaining in the third period. But they fell behind by 16 in the fourth and could never get closer than 10 points.

Reusch told the players they were just not mentally ready to play Decatur.

Mark Copeland and Stephen Bidy led Hawk scorers with 14 each, and Joey Bates had 10.

Friday's game at Bridgeport was close through the first half, as the Hawks held only a 26-19 lead at the half. But they extended that to 42-29 by the end of the third quarter, and went on to win 58-45.

Bates had 20, Bidy 14 and Copeland 12.

HAWKETTES ROLLING

After winning their final first-half game Jan. 18 here against Springtown, the Hawkettes have been rolling.

They opened the second half schedule with a revenge win over Bowie, at Bowie, and Friday defeated Bridgeport 52-48 and Tuesday won 53-47 over Decatur.

Coach Teresa Beckham, who has taken over the duties of Ray Sefcik since his heart attack, said the Hawkettes' turnaround was primarily their realizing they hadn't been playing to their capability.

"We didn't think Vernon was that much (38-63) better than us," she said. "That (loss) kinda worked us up too. Also Coach Sefcik is back (on the sidelines) and the girls have really improved."

So with two games remaining on their season schedule, the Hawkettes can win the second half of district play by defeating Vernon here tomorrow and Springtown there Tuesday. That, like the boys, would make the team an automatic entry into the state playoffs.

At Bridgeport, it looked like another game in the loss column through the first quarter. Bridgeport had expanded its lead from 12-10 in the first quarter to a halftime score of 28-14.

But the Hawkettes turned things around in the third period, outscoring their hosts 22-9, to trail only 36-37 going into the final period.

Lisa Holloway led scoring with 17 and Cindy Clanton had 10.

Decatur also led through the first half here Friday, 18-12 and 32-26. But Iowa Park came roaring back to lead 44-43 after the third period.

The Hawkettes assured their win when Lisa Selby scored six of the team's final seven points in the final five minutes, and the team fought back efforts by the visitors to narrow the score and win the game.

Holloway, who sank only two free shots, finished the game with 20 points. Selby had 12.

The Hawkette games here tomorrow and Tuesday at Springtown both start at 6 p.m.

Iowa Parkan's position election focus

Two places on the Region Nine Education Service Center board of directors are open for election this spring. The board is composed of lay citizens from the 12-county North Texas area of Region Nine.

Region Nine board members are elected by the board of trustees of the 40 school districts in this region. School district trustees will vote on the candidates during the regularly scheduled March meeting.

Applications will be accepted beginning Friday for Place Three (representing Wichita County); and Place Five (representing Montague County). Place Three is currently filled by Fred Parkey of Iowa Park, and Place Five is filled by Jimmy Fitts of Nocona. Region Nine counties include Archer, Baylor, Clay, Foard, Hardeman, Jack, Knox, Montague, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger and Young.

Members of the Noon Lions Club heard Tuesday what the people of Electra are doing to improve the appearance of their downtown business area.

Speaking at the civic club's weekly meeting was Joe Thompson, publisher of the Electra Star-News and member of that community's Chamber of Commerce.

Like Iowa Park, Electra over the past few years has been losing its retail stores. "It was mostly our own fault, for letting Wichita Falls merchants beat our merchants (for business)," he said.

As the businesses closed, moved or burned out, the downtown area deteriorated. It happened so gradually, residents didn't realize how badly the area looked, until former residents visited and commented on the state of the downtown area.

That was when Thompson and a friend decided to drive through the entire town and look at it as if they weren't living there. "You've got to have an open mind when you do that, but you will see things in a different light than you do when you're just driving from home to work, like you do several times daily," he said.

The city government has launched a project to improve its utilities, garnering some $600,000 in grants for water service improvements, and working on its paving.

First avenue of improvement to be taken by the citizens was to organize a tree-planting project in the downtown area. A fund of $2,500 was established by private donations, and Chamber members did the work themselves, with the bank and savings and loan doing the same on their properties.

Bradford pear trees, the non-bearing variety, is being used because they grow upward and don't branch out to cover a wide area. The second phase of the improvement project is to clear a burned building area in the business district, surface it with gravel, and decorate it with planters and more trees.

Also to be accomplished is to put up false fronts on vacant lots in the business district, and hold a marketing and advertising seminar to help merchants compete for business, Thompson said.

The cause of the improvement effort is primarily economic, Thompson said. "We feel we could totally eliminate our personal property tax if all the money earned in Electra was spent there," he stated.

He gave an example of the person who drinks his coffee from a mug purchased at the Target store in Wichita Falls, who drives a car purchased at Longhorn Chevrolet, wearing clothes bought at Muehberger's, and uses a ball point pen he bought from Buchanan's in Wichita Falls to write a stinging letter to the mayor of Electra demanding to know why the city can't pave the streets in his city.

Thompson spoke here Tuesday at the request of Robert Palmer, a director of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, one of the organizations which will sponsor a "think tank" meeting Feb. 7 in city council chambers in the hope of improving Iowa Park's image.

Cook of the Week

Today's busy mothers and business women seem to be getting better results with fewer hours in the culinary department. They are indeed bringing efficiency and "know how" to preparing nutritious meals for their families and cutting the kitchen hours to a fraction of what they were just a few years ago.

Yvonne (Mrs. Max) Henderson is a young wife and mother and her recipes this week suggest that she has found ways to cut the kitchen hours.

The former Yvonne Reed, she was graduated from Iowa Park High School, and worked for the First National Bank in Wichita Falls and the State National Bank in Iowa Park for a time. She is now helping her husband, who works for Cryovac, manage the Colonial Heights Apartments. They have a daughter, Jodi, six years old, and a son, Jeff, three years old.

Yvonne is a member of Faith Baptist Church. Her hobbies are ceramics, tennis, softball and water skiing.

Eastern Star Chapter observes 75th birthday

The Iowa Park Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star celebrated its 75th anniversary Saturday night. The theme of the celebration was "1910."

The business district of Iowa Park was described by Robbie Smith, and Jo Gilbert, Mary Bartoe, Mildred Metz and Kathleen Hatten, a 60-year member, recalled some of the most interesting memories of the chapter through the years.

Fiddle music was provided by the Billy Curtis Band from City View and L.D. Swift, worthy patron of the chapter.

A meal of red beans, ham, cornbread, turnips, fried potatoes, peach and berry cobblers and pecan pie was eaten by lighting provided by kerosene lamps.

Over 100 people attended the affair. The out-of-town chapters represented were Wichita Falls 237, Wichita Kemp, Wichita Falls Faith, Electra, Vernon, Burkburnett and Bluegrove.

New scholarship set by Wal-Mart

The Wal-Mart Store in Iowa Park has announced that a $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to a high school senior in the near future.

Speaking on behalf of the store, Chris Hanson, manager said, "One scholarship will be presented to a student who plans to attend a college or university after graduation from high school."

The scholarship will be based on the student's scholastic and academic achievements, extra curricular and work activities, and financial need. A team of judges, consisting of community leaders, will evaluate the applications and make their final determination during an interview with the student.

"Students interested in applying for the scholarship should check with their high school counselor for applications and more information," Hanson stated. Applications must be received by the school counselor before Feb. 8.

The scholarship given by the Iowa Park Wal-Mart Store is only one of over 755 other scholarships being given by the company. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., headquartered in Bentonville, Arkansas, operates 745 stores in 20 states.

Tips On
Dental Health
RICHARD CARVER, D.D.S.

DENTAL HEALTH MONTH

February is National Children's Dental Health Month and a time to remind ourselves that if we have not selected a family dentist - now is a good time.

It is important to have an interested family dentist if you are interested in long term successful dental care. A bad time to try to pick your dentist - is when you have an emergency.

It makes good sense to consider several things before deciding which dentist will provide your family with regular care. Some things to consider are *whether the dentist makes himself available to his patients out of office hours *will he tell you what should be done to correct the situation - or just begin *will he discuss the fee before the treatment begins *what happens if the dentist is out of town and you have an emergency? (ask him).

More information can be gotten by asking about the dentist. You might ask your friends, your pharmacist, your physician, your banker, or perhaps the principal or superintendent of your school who their dentist is.

The dentist likes to know about the person he is to help - so get yourself established - February is a good time to get it done.

Prepared in the interest of better dental health. RICHARD CARVER D.D.S. Phone 592-5141.

Four bandsmen All-District

Deborah Jackson was recently chosen as a member of the All-Region Orchestra, All-Region Band and All-Area Band, and heads a list of four Eagle Band members chosen to the Class A, AA, AAA All-District Band, according to directors Mark Cartwright and Louis Banister.

Jackson, playing the French horn, was the lone Eagle Band member to advance past All-District honors. Other band members chosen to the

All-District Band include Becky Cullers, flute, Terry Varnell, contrabass clarinet, and Darrin Carlton, trombone.

Selected to the Freshman All-District Band were Shannon O'Brien, French horn, and Karoline Rathman, tuba.

Ronnie Molina was the lone Holliday selection to the Junior High All-District Band, according to Cartwright.

Wichita 76th in production

The sale of crude oil and natural gas from Wichita County wells made an important contribution to the county's economy in 1983 and accounted for $145-million of the $38.3-billion wellhead value of Texas petroleum last year.

In its annual survey of the economic impact of oil and gas industry operations in the significant producing counties of Texas, Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association reported that the county ranked 76th among Texas' 254 counties on the basis of the value of its marketing petroleum production. The production figures included condensate and casinghead gas.

The county's wells produced 4.9-million barrels of crude oil, valued at $144.5-million, and 228-billion cubic feet of natural gas, valued at $512,984. Owners of royalty in the county received $18.1-million as their share of the output, the Association noted.

The chairman of the Association, J.C. Walter, Jr., of Houston, said: "These figures give evidence that again last year the petroleum industry was of great importance to the economies of those counties throughout the state with significant production."

In addition to paying property taxes to cities, counties, and school districts, producers in the county supported state government through production tax payments estimated at $6.7-million, according to the Association survey. Crude oil taxes amounted to $6.6-million, while natural gas levies totaled $38,474.

Based on Texas Employment Commission figures, some 4,100 oil and gas industry employees in the county received wages of about $94.6-million in 1983.

In the search for new petroleum reserves in the county, oil and gas producers spent a reported $75.6-million in the drilling of 515 wells, including four wildcat, or exploratory wells. This effort resulted in the successful completion of 324 oil wells, although some $28.1-million was lost in the drilling of 191 dry holes. As of April 1, 1984, there were 8,578 oil producing wells in the county.

8. The Texas Water Commission shall, if requested by at least 25 persons, hold a public hearing in the area where the operation is to be conducted prior to the issuance of a permit. No public hearing will be held on this application unless a request for a hearing is made within 30 days of the date of the first publication of this Notice. Country music show Saturday

The Holliday Volunteer Fire Department will host a country music jamboree beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Erma Barton Auditorium in Holliday.

Proceeds from the jamboree, which will also feature concessions and a bake sale, will go towards improvements to the new fire station located on S. Main.

Fire department officials say the country and western jam sessions will become a regular feature in Holliday, both to give residents something to do in their own hometown, and to promote a good cause.

Admission is $1 per person.

Senior reps on committee

Texas House of Representatives rules seniority does not apply to the Appropriations Committee, but the Speaker of the House has appointed the four House members with greatest seniority, including Rep. Charles Fennell, to the Appropriations Committee.

Following the first meeting of the committee, which controls the purse strings for the entire state, Fennell commented, "Although the situation in which we find ourselves is both difficult and challenging, it's always possible some good can come of it. The 69th Legislature has the opportunity now for a serious examination of our state's limited resources. Also, the working relationship between the governor, speaker of the house, and lieutenant governor is better than I've ever seen before."
