IN MAY 6 ELECTIONS

No absentee ballots cast

If absentee voting is any indication of the interest in the May 6 city and school elections, a record-low turnout may be seen at the polls.

As of Wednesday noon, not one absentee vote had been sought or turned in at either absentee poll.

Tuesday is the deadline for absentee voting by personal appearance.

Four candidates are seeking one seat on the school board. Place 5, which is being vacated by Jimmy Howell, has attracted Carmen Lozippone, Larry Godwin, Keith Fisher and Denny McCarthy, listed as they will appear on the ballots.

The other candidate is incumbent Jerry Reed, for Place 4. Two of the three incumbents on the city council are unopposed. They are Virgil Woodfin, Place 1, and Johnny Coker, Place 3. Place 5 incumbent Diane Robnett is opposed by Ira Hambricht.

NEW RURAL ADDRESSES IN MAIL - Robert Wilcox, assistant Iowa Park postmaster, loads 1,182 notices for delivery today to all rural postal patrons residing in Zip Code 76367. The notices are the new rural addresses developed for the Emergency 9-1-1 project. Each road has been named and every residence issued its own house number. Wilcox, who was assigned to do most of the identification work in this area, said there are approximately 100 more residents who do not have rural boxes, because they receive their mail either in Iowa Park or Kamay post offices. As is noted in a Letter to the Editor from Postmaster Ken Turman, in this week's issue, anyone normally receiving mail at their rural address and not receiving one of these notices today is urged to contact the Iowa Park Post Office as soon as possible. The 9-1-1 addresses are entered into a computer, and in case of an emergency, that address will be on the computer's screen when the number is dialed. However, anyone making such a call is encouraged to remain on the telephone until the response operator asks the nature of the emergency.

Trustees continue study of future district needs

In a called meeting of the school board Tuesday night, trustees took yet another look at optional needs of the district for the next five years, approved a list of transfer students to attend classes here next year, and heard "one more plea" to re-open the Valley View campus.

Trustees heard projected needs and cost estimates offered by architect Don Daugherty, and compared them with his earlier estimates as well as with those offered by consultant Gary Keep.

Daugherty's original estimates were made in May, 1987.

Supt. Glen Mitchell, who worked with Daugherty on several additions to the overall proposal for the board's study, said "Even though Report Number Two (Daugherty's) costs are too high, it does give you the opportunity to study the total needs before setting priorities."

Daugherty's 1987 estimates were for a total of $4,280,200. Keep estimated needs and costs earlier this year at $2,826,000. Daugherty's "Report Two" estimates were set at $3,316,680.

While most of the architect's figures were based on five-year needs, as were Keeps, some additional points were presented, such as an energy management system for each campus, as well as a program for the removal or sealing of asbestos at two of the campuses.

The energy management system cost was estimated at $15,000 per campus, but Daugherty said, based on results of a similar program in the Wichita Falls schools, would easily pay for itself in savings within two years.

With three of the four candidates in the May 6 election, each seeking the seat being vacated by board chairman Jimmy Howell, listening to the discussions, Trustee Wendall House said he wants to make sure decisions for the five-year plan are based more on "needs" than "wants."

The board will continue to study proposals, making cuts and adding where needs are apparent, through the next couple of months, before setting priorities. Then, after an extensive program of informing the public, the taxpayers will probably be asked to vote on a bond issue sometime in October.

While some of the projects being studied are to meet the needs of projected school enrollment over the next five years, some are to care for existing problems.

One of the major problems, which Howell listed as his number one priority, is to reroof all of the 20-year-old high school building, except for the gymnasium.

Howell explained that constant leaks allowed by the old roof are doing considerable damage to the interior and must be corrected.

Additionally, the airconditioners on the high school are on the list to be replaced, both because of age and the fact that repair parts are almost impossible to find, it was pointed out.

Most of the other needs are space needed for the exceptionally large lower four grades in elementary.

The board approved a list of 40 students requesting to transfer here from the City View School Dist.

The list includes 19 freshmen, up from 14 transferring last year. And the total list is 10 greater than last year, Richard Davis, high school principal, pointed out.

Some of the 40 are not high school students, but are children of faculty members who teach here.

Howell, pointing out Tuesday was the last full meeting he would meet with the board, said he failed to interpret the board's feelings two weeks ago, reported by the Leader, that trustees decided without vote to not re-open the Valley View campus because of costs.

The senior board member, who lives in the Valley View community and formerly taught vocational agriculture in Iowa Park High, asked the

Junior high bandmen selling subscriptions

Members of Iowa Park Junior High band will launch their second annual fund-raising campaign this weekend.

In their initial project last year, the young musicians earned more than $1,500 in commissions by selling subscriptions to the Iowa Park Leader.

The money, according to director Ed Hefti, was used to purchase new and needed instruments, without having to ask for funding from the school board.

And similar to last year, the top salesman will earn his or her own color television set.

Jason Meisel sold the most subscriptions last year, and received his television set. This year's top prize will be awarded to the student selling the most new subscriptions, as opposed to renewals.

The amount of commissions paid the band is based on the total number of new and renewal subscriptions to the Leader.

Juveniles, animals top list of calls to police

Most of the entries on this week's police blotter concerned juveniles and calls for the animal control officer, but there were two arrests noted.

Jerry Lee Fowler, 31, was arrested at 2:12 a.m. Thursday following a short chase that ended in the 800 block of East Bank, according to the blotter entry.

Fowler was charged with second offense DWI, evading arrest, speeding, running a stop sign and class C assault (verbal). He was transported to county jail.

Linda Gail-Sue Bagby, 36, of Wichita Falls was arrested at 4:22 p.m. Friday at Loop 370 and Victoria on a charge of having no driver's license. She was taken to the police station and issued a citation.

An equalizer was reportedly taken sometime Friday night from a pickup parked in the 200 block of Hope Lane.

Someone reportedly fired a shot through a window of a home in the 100 block of James Drive, according to a report filed Saturday evening.

And someone reportedly entered a yard through a locked gate on Surrey sometime Tuesday and attempted to pry open a window.

Swim pool to open June 3

Iowa Park Sesquicentennial Swimming Pool will open June 3, the day immediately following the final day of school.

Plans for the year were made by the pool committee, jointly composed of representatives of the city and school.

Pool hours will be 12-noon to 6 p.m., with two exceptions. During July, the pool will close at 7 p.m., and swimming lessons will be taught in the mornings.

Admission rates will remain the same except a new rate for day care children, which will be $12 per child or $120 for 10 for the summer, it was decided.

Pool personnel this summer will be Mark Wilson, manager; Lisa Holloway and Jeanne Wilson, assistant managers; and Sandra Evans, Peni Lee, Bill Chandler, Tiffany Gray and Bryan Wineinger, lifeguards.

Applications for additional lifeguards are being accepted, according to Robert Palmer, assistant school superintendent, who chaired the com-

Council okays purchases

The city council Monday night approved purchases of mobile radios, leasing of dump trucks and purchasing of a large water meter system.

In addition, aldermen approved two resolutions, one concerning a drug-fighting task force and the other to seek a grant for the library.

Though 12 radios were budgeted at the beginning of the year for the public works department, Mike Price, department director, requested to advertise for prices on only 10.

Renting of dump trucks will not only shorten the period of a project to clean out the drain area south and east of Lake Gordon, but also be less expensive, according to Price.

He said the project to clean out the drainage area of the floodplain could be accomplished in five or six days, if three trucks could be leased locally. Otherwise, he said, using only city-owned vehicles could extend the project to a month.

Total cost of the project was set at $5,000. But a major savings will be experienced by the city because the water district has agreed to use of its tractorhoe for the cleaning, with the city paying the operator's and fuel costs.

Cleaning of the drainage area of trash, brush, silt and trees was recommended during a recent visit by the Texas Water Commission.

Administrator James Barrington recommended to the council that a new meter be purchased to measure water taken from the Cyprus Street Treatment Plant in Wichita Falls.

The new meter would replace one which has been in use more than 15 years and is expensive to calibrate each year, as required by contract.

Annual calibration costs $1,800. The new meter is estimated at $4,800 and calibrating costs only $500.

The first of two resolutions passed by the council authorizes city police to participate in a multi-jurisdictional task force to fight criminal drug trafficking.

The other resolution authorizes the city administrator to submit an application for a grant from the Texas State Library for an addition to the Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Council members discussed with Kerry Maroney, engineer, the possibility of exchanging the city hall park water tower for a tall tower on which radio antennas might be placed.

Maroney suggested Pittsburg Tank, which recently was awarded a contract to move another tower from Lake Gordon to the south part of the city, might be able to sell the oldest of the city's towers to the community of Woodson.

In exchange, Pittsburg possibly would erect a tower up to 200 feet in height for the antennas that are used by the police and other city department radios that are currently on the old tower.

Council members were told the cost of having the old tower removed could cost as much as $12,000.

Mayor Tim Hunter read a proclamation declaring "Be Kind to Animals Week" in Iowa Park.

At the end of the regular council meeting, aldermen adjourned into an executive session, which lasted 57 minutes, concerning "personnel." No action or further statement was taken when members returned and re-opened the meeting.

Roberts, Yeakley exchange vows recently in double-ring ceremony

Miss Lori Beth Roberts and James Deryl "Jay" Yeakley exchanged double-ring matrimonial vows April 15 at First Baptist Church in Jacksboro in a ceremony marked by distinction and excellence.

The altar decorations were created with an arch entwined with boxwood greenery flanked by heart-shaped candelabra dressed with the greenery and holding cathedral candles aglow. The altar extremities were marked with white wicker baskets of fern intermingled with peach and baby blue carnations. In the background, the choir rail was outlined with greenery accented with peach silk bows.

During the service, guests viewed the candlestick that held the unity candle for the bride and groom to light to seal their vows. The holder was trimmed like the arch just behind it and also held candles that the parents of the bride and groom had lighted just before the ceremony to show their approval of the marriage. Church pews were decorated with peach silk bows.

Rev. Duane Perkinson officiated the exchange of vows by the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terril Roberts of Jacksboro and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yeakley of Iowa Park.

As wedding guests arrived at the church, they were invited to register by Miss Jennifer Reeves who sat at a table covered with white silk that held the bride's book, peach plume pen and pictures of the bridal couple when they were one-year-old.

The music for the wedding will forever be one of the most treasured memories of the occasion, not only for the bride and groom and their families, but for the wedding participants and guests.

The prelude music was especially impressive. Ed Hefti of Iowa Park, accompanied by Mrs. Troy Dean, pianist, provided sopano saxophone numbers to include: "People Need the Lord," "Proclaim the Glory," "O Magnify the Lord," "Allegro from Sonata No. 13," and "Alleluja from Exultate Jubilate."

Vocal solos were presented by Mrs. Stephen Thompson, cousin of the bride, who sang "Love Will Be Our Home," and Mrs. Bryan Tilgham, who offered "The Wedding Song."

During the wedding, Kent Roberts, cousin of the bride, sang "Security," and the groom sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. The traditional marches played by Mrs. Therrol DuBoise, organist, added extra sentiment to the music.

The charming bride entered the sanctuary with her father who escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. For the day worth remembering in her life, she chose to wear a formal gown of white shimmering bridal satin. The gown was fashioned with a bodice covered with lace appliques in a floral motif, an exquisite sweetheart neckline embroidered with hand-beaded pearls and iridescents. The sleeves were puffed in style and beautifully adorned with lace cut-outs and iridescents. A dramatic V-plunge and English bow in the back added the perfect touch to the back of the gown.

The full skirt was accented in front with scattered cut-outs adorned with pearls and iridescents and flowed gracefully into a semi-cathedral train.

The bride's wedding attire was completed with a pearl-trimmed headpiece and fingertip illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of peach roses, stephanotis, baby's breath, tiny pearls and greenery with trailing knee-length peach and cream silk ribbons.

She followed bridal tradition and chose for "something old" a gold bracelet that was worn by the groom's great-grandmother and all of her daughters and great-granddaughters in their weddings. She wore pearl and diamond earrings that belonged to Mrs. Leora Roberts, her paternal grandmother, for "something borrowed," her wedding gown and veil for "something new," and a garter trimmed in blue for "something blue" She completed the traditions with a good luck penny that was dated the year of her birth in her shoe.

MR. AND MRS. JAY YEAKLEY

The attractive quartet of bridal attendants included Miss Danielle McGee of Abilene, the maid of honor, Miss Paula Brooks of Wichita Falls, cousin of the bride, Miss Lisa Yeakley of Wichita Falls, sister of the groom, and Miss Teresa Withers of Jacksboro, bridesmaids.

They wore modish tea-length dresses of peach acetate accented with a floral spray pattern. They wore shoes dyed to match, pearl necklaces and baby's breath in their hair to complete their attire.

The maid of honor carried a bouquet of cream roses, baby's breath and greenery finished with peach and cream streamers, and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of peach roses, baby's breath and greenery that also had peach and cream streamers.

Audra Deweber of Jacksboro participated in the wedding as flower girl. The frock she wore was designed with the bodice and sleeves of solid peach acetate and a skirt of pink acetate with floral spray pattern. She wore a big peach bow in her hair and carried a white satin basket trimmed in white lace, white and peach ribbons.

Jared Rosette of Cleburne, the ring bearer, was dressed like the bride's father in a black tuxedo, cummerbund, bow tie and peach carnation boutonniere.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails, black cummerbund and tie and a peach rosebud combined with baby's breath for his boutonniere.

The best man, groomsmen and ushers wore black tuxedos with peach bow ties and cummerbunds and peach carnations for boutonnieres.

Alton Yeakley served as best man for his son. The groomsmen were Charles Perry of Lubbock, Wes Ward of Iowa Park, and Darryl Yeakley of Boulder, Colo., cousin of the groom.

Duties of ushering and seating guests were assigned to Chad and Tim Roberts of Jacksboro, brothers of the bride, Robert DuBoise of Houston, Jeff and Shannon Daniels of Wichita Falls, and David Trice of Lubbock, the bride's cousin.

The bride's mother wore a tea-length ivory cream dress of elegant classic design featuring seven types of lace over ivory underlay. It was highlighted by short fluttered lace sleeves and lacy bodice that dropped to a flared skirt. She complemented her dress with classic style bone pumps, a string of pearls and matching earrings.

The groom's mother chose a basic black classic style dress fashioned with a jewel necklace, straight wrist-length sleeves, a dropped chemise bodice with lettuce-edged ruffling running the length of the bodice and sleeves, and a skirt of three tiers of scalloped-edged lace. She wore a necklace and ear-rings formed from a mixture of black and Austrian crystals and white gold-accented pearls, and her late mother's pearl bracelet. She completed her attire by wearing black patent leather pumps.

Both mothers wore corsages of peach carnations and baby's breath.

The reception room of the church was the setting for the post-nuptial reception hosted by the bride's parents. The decorations and appointments in the room were governed by the bride's colors of peach, baby blue and cream to effect a special kind of beauty and charm.

The three-tiered cake on the bride's table, draped with ivory lace and accented with peach silk bows over ivory satin, was a wedding sensation. The white-frosted confection was decorated with peach, baby blue and cream roses and based with a flowing fountain surrounded with greenery. The bride's bouquet flanked by silver candlesticks holding blue candles, cut glass punch bowl, crystal serving dishes enhanced the distinction of the table.

The groom's heart-shaped table was draped in identical style to the bride's table. It held a Bible-shaped cake representing the groom's love for the Lord and his willingness to serve Him. It also held an arrangement of blue lilies, peach crocuses, gypsophila and ivy, bride and groom bears, and M&M's, the groom's favorite sweets.

The napkins on both tables were peach and lettered with "Today I Will Marry My Friend -- Jay and Beth, April 15, 1989."

Misses Shelly and Darla Brown, cousins of the bride, presided at the bride's table, and Miss Cindy Harper and Miss Melissa Hatcher served at the groom's table.

Birdseed bags were distributed from a wicker basket with bows by Amy Gowens and Kim Brogdon, cousins of the bride.

The houseparty members were Mmes. Truman Deweber of Jacksboro, Annette Brown of Bryson, Charles Gowen, Wayne Trice, Joe Brogdon, Wendell Brown, all of Graham, and Dennis Brown of Red Oak, aunts of the bride.

Special wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown of Bryson, and Mrs. Leora Roberts of Jacksboro, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Neal Yeakley and C.H. Irwin of Wichita Falls, grandmother and step-grandfather, respectively, of the groom.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner on the eve of the wedding at the Steak House in Jacksboro. During the evening, the betrothed couple presented gifts of appreciation to their attendants.

The bride was graduated from Jacksboro High School and attended Weatherford College. She has been an active member of First Baptist Church and is also a choir member. The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School. He attended Hardin-Simmons and Midwestern State Universities and was graduated from the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will live in Floydada where he is minister of youth and singles at First Baptist Church. He plans to complete his college education at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

As you know, this newspaper has been promoting a slogan of "Shop Iowa Park First" for more than just a few years.

We do it in support of our businesses, the community, and to keep as much sales tax money at home as is possible.

By purchasing locally, we have an opportunity to provide employment for our neighbors who work in retail and service establishments, we give our business people a chance to not only remain open but to offer more and more selections, and in doing so, keep from having to rely on traveling out of town when we want or need something.

We know that our local businesses are the ones who pay taxes to the city and schools here. They are the ones who make donations to the various activities of our youngsters and civic organizations. And they are the ones who buy the advertisements in the various programs, sought by our youngsters and organizations.

It's selfish, and I admit it. But ours is not the only town promoting itself to shoppers.

Wichita Falls last year adopted a similar slogan. Businesses over there have begun to feel the pinch they have created on Iowa Park businesses.

Who's the newest city to start a shop-at-home promotion? Would you believe San Antonio?

I love it. Those businesses down there have been raking in trade from all the smaller towns in the area for years and years, but are now realizing some of their own trade is going elsewhere.

A story in one of this week's Dallas Morning News quoted Gail Maring of the city's Department of Economic and Employment Development, as saying, "All we're asking is (that) if they have a choice, give San Antonio first shot."

But it's not just cities. The same article pointed out that San Antonio

Lions discuss pro, cons of proposed state prison

Leo Lane from the Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry spoke to the Evening Lions Tuesday on a proposed state prison in Wichita Falls.

Introduced by Dave Davis, Lane asked for a show of hands for those who were for, not sure, or opposed to a state prison being located in the area before he gave some of the advantages other cities have experienced with prison sites being in their area. He said most of those cities were asking for other state prisons because of the economic impact.

He stated the main questions asked by people in the areas where prison sites are proposed were: "Does the crime rate in the community go up? How will the location effect the value of property in the area? Will the image of the city suffer? Will there be enough security areas? Is there a high rate of AIDS among prisoners? Does the community stop growing? Are inmates eligible for parole?" among others.

Lane answered members' questions on the basis of the status of cities which have state prisons.

Jim Sligar conducted the business. The date for the annual club auction was set for May 20. Gordon Callahan reported that the club had purchased a computer and had modeled its program after one started in 1982 by the state of Oregon.

So our businesses aren't asking for something others don't. Have you tried them recently?

Grace sales sets record

W.R. Grace & Co. has issued its 1988 annual report announcing the success of the company's prior restructuring and the resulting improved profits from the company's newly-focused operations.

Grace is an international specialty chemical company with interests in energy and service businesses with sales last year of $5.8-billion.

In his report to shareholders, chairman and chief executive J. Peter Grace noted the company was increasing its focus on specialty chemicals, which passed $3-billion in sales for the first time in 1988.

The company is supported by 45,700 employees at more than 1,300 facilities, including Cryovac in Iowa Park, in 44 countries around the world.

The company's annual meeting of shareholders will be May 10 in Tulsa.

Rep. Finnell introduces rail-crossing legislation

Rep. Charles Finnell has introduced legislation to expand a successful state rail-crossing safety program to more public roads in Texas.

Finnell was the driving force to have the four crossing guards installed here in Iowa Park.

He authored the Rail Crossing Safety Act of 1983, which established a toll-free hotline for reporting malfunctioning signal equipment on state highways to the Texas Department of Public Safety.

His current House Bill 2408 would provide that the 254 Texas counties post the existing toll-free number at mechanized crossings on roads they maintain. The information would be posted with signs provided by the state.

"Since this program began in 1983, the DPS has received more than 1,500 calls reporting broken signals, track damage and other hazards," he said. "These reports have helped prevent deaths and injuries at crossings throughout Texas."

Texas has 14,500 railroad crossings, the most in the United States. There were 52 deaths and 244 people injured in Texas in train-motor vehicle accidents in 1987. About 50 percent of those accidents occurred at crossings with signal devices.

The bill is supported by the DPS and Operation Lifesaver, a rail-safety program supported by the 19 railroads in Texas.

"I say it's an alternative, and could save $600,000 to $700,000," and added he believed it (decision) should be left up to the public.

Howell has been a consistent proponent during his term on the board to re-open the Valley View campus.

At the meeting two weeks ago, Consultant Keep estimated the cost of getting the Valley View campus ready for classes would cost $128,000, not including personnel.

After praising the board members, administration and faculty for their loyalty to the district, Howell stated, "I think the citizens of Iowa Park have supported the board better than any place I know. They do it because they are satisfied with the way the district is being operated."

Everybody Welcome!

GOOD NEWS!

We will be having the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ proclaimed April 30 - May 3 by Mack Lyon of Edmond, Oklahoma. Many of you have probably seen Brother Lyon on the "SEARCH" program viewed on channel 3 at 7:30 a.m. each Sunday. The gospel truly is good news when we receive the message Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures. (1 Cor. 15:1-3).

Mack Lyon is more than just a television evangelist; he is a kind, caring, compassionate Christian. I have known Mack personally in many roles: as a friend, preacher, counsellor, encourager, and role model. In preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ I have appreciated Mack so very much. I have observed Mack for over 30 years now and in my service as local preacher I have tried to imitate him as he imitates Christ. (1 Cor. 11:1). I deeply admire, respect, and love this man of God. Come and hear him proclaim the good news. After meeting Mac and hearing the gospel I am sure you will feel the same as I do concerning him: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring glad tidings of good things!" (Rom. 10:1).

We are anxious to meet you. A warm and friendly welcome awaits you!

The couple's two children, Kim and Curtis, and two grandchildren, live in Iowa Park.

Judy enjoys cross-stitch, sewing, volleyball and gardening. She is a member of the Kamay Baptist Church, the Iowa Park Volleyball League, and a life member of P-TA.

Modern Dentistry

By Dr. Richard Carver

PORCELAIN FACINGS

A few years ago, if your teeth were stained, had a large cavity or broken, the only way you could correct the situation was with porcelain veneer crowns, or a plain gold crown. Even though the teeth had not a single cavity, they had to be ground down in order to fit the crown.

Many people object to grinding, the shot, and the time. I don't really blame them, however the dentist must work with the materials and methods that are available.

Now, thanks to continued research - things have changed. The dentist now has porcelain laminates or facings to work with. These very thin laminates made of porcelain gives the tooth the look and luster of natural tooth enamel. These facings can be fabricated then bonded to the front of the teeth with the relatively new light activated composites. Unless the teeth are unusually out of alignment, rotated, or severely broken these facings can be placed without shots or grinding.

We have used them to close spaces between the front teeth, cover stained and discolored teeth, correct alignment and change the shades of teeth. We have found them to be very durable AND COST LESS THAN A CROWN.

LOOK CLOSELY IN THE MIRROR AND IF YOU DON'T LIKE YOUR SMILE-CALL THE DENTIST FOR AN APPOINTMENT, OR YOU MAY CALL 592-5141 FOR MORE INFORMATION.

Students spend Spring Break in Canada

Kari Robnett and Kyle Long, students at Abilene Christian Univ., spent their spring breaks in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, as a part of ACU Student Association's Spring Break Campaign.

Sponsored by the Iowa Park Church of Christ, the two, along with some 20 other students, traveled to Canada for the purpose of seeing first-hand what life in the mission field is like, as well as to encourage members of the Church of Christ congregations they visited.

During the one-week visit, participants worked with the Stoney Creek Church of Christ, located near Toronto. Church members opened their homes to the students, providing room and board.

Some of the various activities involved with the campaign included visiting nursing homes, holding devotionals, working with children and teenagers of the congregation, conducting church services and "door knocking."

Although the group stayed on a tight schedule, one day was reserved for sight-seeing in the area, touring the Castle Casa Loma and the CN Tower in Toronto, the tallest building in the world. They also traveled to Niagara Falls, and to Battlefield Park, where famous battles were fought in the War of 1812.

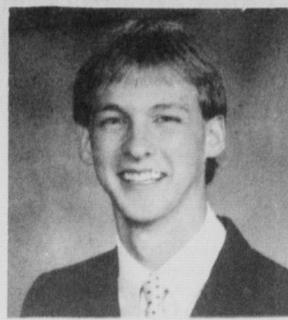

This marks the second campaign trip to Toronto for Miss Robnett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Robnett. A 1986 graduate of Iowa Park High School, Kari is a junior at ACU, majoring in education and math. Some of the activities she is involved in at ACU include cheerleading, and membership in Ko Ja Kai, a women's social club. She is employed in the Placement Office at the university, and is a member of the Iowa Park Church of Christ.

Kyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Long, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James Buddy Huff, all of Iowa Park.

A sophomore at ACU, Kyle majors in marketing. He is a member of Frater Sodalis, a men's social club, where he was recently elected to serve as secretary. Long also is a representative on the Inter-Social Club Council, a body that works with the administration of ACU in decision making regarding student activities on campus. He is a member of the Iowa Park Church of Christ, where he talked to the congregation about the trip upon his return.

JoAnn Hale, third grade teacher at Bradford Elementary School, traveled to Fort Worth April 10 to attend an Elementary Education Keyboard Training Program. She was among ten teachers and coordinators from Region IX chosen to attend the training.

Delia R. Duffey from TEA Division of Educational Technology along with her able assistant, Professor AWHFE conducted the training program. The attendants of this program will provide training for other teachers in Region Nine in workshops this summer.

It has been mandated by the Texas Legislature that the use of the computer be an integral part of the elementary program.

Iowa Park's schools presently have the computer keyboarding program starting at the third grade level. Bradford Elementary students in grades 3 through 5 have computer classes at least once a week. The lab is also used for tutorial classes in several subjects. The computer lab has created a tremendous amount of excitement this year. The school intends to upgrade their equipment by adding additional software as the need arises.

Mrs. Hale stated that she and Mr. Davis are proud of the way the Bradford teachers have jumped in there with such enthusiasm. The future is only a "byte" away.

Air Force Association recruiting new members

The Air Force Association opened its annual membership drive Monday at Sheppard AFB.

AFA is a national, nonprofit organization which works for better benefits for Air Force people and supports a strong national defense posture.

AFA's effectiveness in support of Air Force needs is directly related to the size of its national membership, according to Maj. Rebecca Russell, AFA drive chairman.

"Membership in the association is open to all active duty, retired military and civilians," Maj. Russell said, and AFA is the only organization representing the entire Air Force family."

"The association has long been regarded as the Air Force's professional society and, through its active duty advisory councils, hears the needs of Air Force people, takes positions on those stands, and fights for them," she said.

"Through its influence, AFA has been instrumental in stemming the erosion of benefits for Air Force members," she added.

Some of the accomplishments brought about in part by AFA efforts in recent years include across-the-board pay raises, enlistment bonuses, extension of the GI Bill, improvements in the Servicemans' Group Life Insurance Program and retention of the commissary service.

As evidence that the association works for the interest of enlisted members as well as officers, AFA was instrumental in the creation of the office of the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force, obtaining degree-granting authority for the Community College of the Air Force

"...and a whole host of other lesser-known programs that improve the quality of life for members of the Air Force family," the major said.

Among the association's current objectives are improved dental care for family members, an improved Survivor's Benefit Plan, added per diem allowances, increased incentives for educational studies, and, in general, a stronger congressional commitment toward the Air Force, she said.

AFA is also in an unique position to help the Air Force since it has more than 350 chapter organizations located in all 50 states and at many overseas locations. The chapters provide a civilian-military forum to build support for Air Force needs.

In the Texoma area, AFA members are encouraged to join the Wichita Falls chapter, and membership dues are $21 for the first year or $48 for three years.

Maj. Russell can be contacted by calling 676-4303.

Churches sponsoring 'Healthy Homes' series

Four churches in Iowa Park are responding to Child Abuse Prevention Month by offering a series on "Healthy Homes" here next week.

The series, sponsored by Christ the King Catholic Church, First Christian Church, First Presbyterian Church and First United Methodist Church, will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday through Wednesday, in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Sunday evening, Rev. Jim Smith, pastor and pastoral counselor from Highland Park Presbyterian in Dallas, will speak on Healthy Homes.

Rev. Smith is a witty and dynamic speaker, often invited to speak on family life.

Monday, a panel from Child Abuse Prevention Network in Wichita Falls will explain their expertise on issues of child abuse and its prevention.

Iowa Parkan Rick Crowley and staff members of the Texas Department of Human Services in the division of Adult Protection Services, will speak Tuesday evening.

He will speak of his experiences in dealing with the needs of elder citizens.

Wednesday, Ron Burks, certified social worker and clinical member of American Association of Marriage and Family Counselors, will speak on chemical dependency.

Burks is a well-known speaker and regularly sought after not only for his expertise but also for his compassion and understanding of chemical dependant persons.

The four sponsoring churches are convinced the series will enable individuals and families to create a more healthy environment within their families and homes.

The public is invited and child care will be provided at no cost.

Card of Thanks

In times of grief, such as this has been, it means so much to have friends to share with. Gestures need not be elaborate or grand, but with all your good thoughts were able to withstand at least part of the emptiness. The family of Patricia Lee Shown would like to send heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all who came forward and shared with and supported us. From those who brought offerings of food to our house, to the florists who did a fantastic job, the fellowship of Faith Baptist Church and most especially to the fine folks at Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home. May God bless and keep you all.

Consumer Groups Storm Local Grocery Stores!

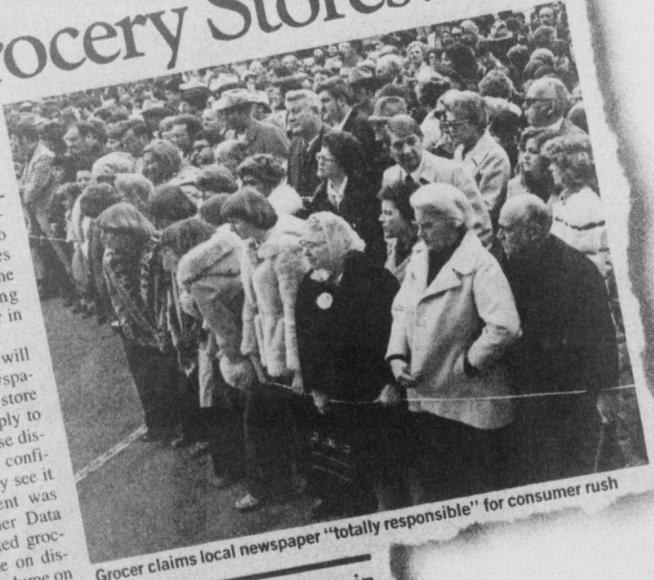

Stores point finger at newspaper

Today saw one of the largest consumer responses of the week to offers made by local grocery stores for discounted prices. Across the city, shoppers were redeeming coupons cut from the local paper in record numbers.

"We know any offer we make will be highlighted most by the newspaper," commented a grocery store spokesman. "Our goal is simply to inform the consumers that these discounts are available. We are confident they will respond if they see it in the paper." His statement was backed by recent Consumer Data Service reports that indicated grocery store ads triple volume on discounted items and double volume on regularly priced items. It also revealed grocery ads are read by well over 70% of newspaper readers.

Grocery store representatives unanimously agreed that newspaper advertising was the only way to get immediate consumer response. One grocer remarked, "Most people read the paper, and a bunch of those readers clip our coupons. It's that simple." His comments reflect the well-known Manufacturer's Coupon Center report which stated that over 80% of all families use coupons.

"When consumers want more for their money, they always go to the Singleton Production of Iowa Park has revealed plans to drill two 1,999-ft. developmental wells 13 miles west-southwest of Harrold in the Wilbarger County Regular Field.

The No. 1 Castlebury "B" will be located in a six-acre lease, 2,400 feet from the north line and 450 feet from the west line of Section 67, Block 14 of the H&TC Survey, A-287.

The No. 4 Andrew "B" will be located 2,510 feet from the south line and 1,274 feet from the east line of Section 80, Block 14 of the H&TC Survey, A-904, in a 40-acre lease.

Five years after being labeled as a dry hole, the No. 1 HBJV-Bounds is scheduled for a re-entry operation in a Hardeman County wildcat location. Located 7.5 miles south of Chillicothe, the well bottomed dry at a total depth of 8,326 feet when completed in August 1984.

The same operator, Trio Operating of Wichita Falls, will be seeking production at a depth of 8,289 feet.

The well is located in an 80-acre unit, 1,475 feet from the north line and 2,140 feet from the west line of Section 61, Block 16 of the H&TC Survey, A-1134.

United Petroleum of Dallas has temporarily abandoned a re-entry operation at the No. 1 Payne at a wildcat location in Hardeman County.

With drillsite about one mile north of Quanah, the well is designated as the No. 1 Payne. The Payne was originally completed by Crawford Energy as an oil producer in 1982 with total depth of 8,800 feet. United had plugged the hole back to 6,100 feet.

Location is in an 80-acre unit, 1,195 feet from the south line and 1,863 feet from the west line of Section 148 of the W&NW Survey, A-1358.

Williams Petroleum of Burkburnett is preparing to make hole for a 1,100-ft. developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field, two miles southeast of Fowlkes. It will be known as the No. 9 Burnett Oil. Location is in a 240-acre lease in the SA&MG Survey A-430, 2,100 feet from the north line and 2,600 feet from the west line of Block Four.

Two new developmental wells are planned in the Wichita Regular Field by Singleton Producing of Burkburnett. They will be known as the No. 2 and No. 3 Holtzen "B." They are both scheduled for 1,999-ft. maximum hole and are five miles northwest of Burkburnett.

The operation is in a 50-acre lease in the F. Huseman Survey, 4,200 feet from the south line and 200 feet from the west line of the Survey.

L.J. Miller and B.J. Parker will team up to drill the No. 16 Parker Heirs "F" in the Wichita Regular Field, nine miles west of Wichita Falls. The well will carry permit for 1,500 feet of hole. It will be spudded in a 120-acre lease in the Palo Pinto School Land Survey, 450 feet from the north line and 750 feet from the east line of Block 17.

Midland-based Atapco Inc. has plugged and abandoned the No. 88 Reilly "H" in the Wichita Regular Field, about two miles southeast of Clara. The well bottomed dry at a depth of 1,717 feet after being spudded on March 17.

DeFranco Oil of Wichita Falls has abandoned an undrilled location in the Wichita Regular Field, 2.5 miles southwest of Burkburnett. The well had been designated as the No. 6 Clark, with total depth projected to 1,999 feet.

A trio of 1,950-ft. developmental wells are planned in the Wichita Regular Field by KROT Oil of Burkburnett. The ventures will be known as the No. 1, 2 and 3 "K" C. Birk. The operation is in a two-acre lease about five miles northwest of Burkburnett.

The No. 1 is 825 feet from the north line and 1,026 feet from the east line of the Huseman Survey. The No. 2 is 1,000 feet from the south line and 650 feet from the east line. The No. 3 is 900 feet from the south line and 500 feet from the west line.

Crutcher Oil Properties of Archer City is preparing to make hole for the No. 1 Waggoner Estate in the Wichita Regular Field, five miles southwest of Electra. The 1,999-ft. venture is in a 61-acre lease in the KMA District, 1,280 feet from the south line and 450 feet from the east line of Section 33.

At a location one mile west of Armers Valley, Paul DeCleva Inc. of Wichita Falls has finaled a new oil producer in Wilbarger County's Piarist Field.

The well is designated as the No. 2 Moore "B", flowing oil at the rate of 31 barrels per day on a 3/64-in choke. Flowing tubing pressure registered 840 PSI. The well showed potential to produce 19,000 CF casinghead gas per day.

Location is in a 225-acre lease in the H&TC Survey A-905. Bottomed at 8,270 feet, the well will produce from perforations in the Mississippian Formation, 8,242 to 8,250 feet into the wellbore.

Location is 2,097 feet from the north line and 1,022 feet from the east line of Section 60, Block 16 of the survey.

Location has been staked for the No. 1 F.W. Prechel "M" in the Wichita Regular Field, 1.5 miles southwest of the Clara community. C.J. Melton of Burkburnett is the operator.

With total depth projected to 1,850 feet, the well is in a 47-acre lease in the T.E. Hallas Survey A-691. The drillsite is 2,350 feet from the north line and 450 feet from the west line of the survey.

Two 1,999-ft. developmental wells are planned by Singleton Production of Iowa Park at drillsites nine miles south of Vernon, Wilbarger County. The locations are in a 40-acre unit in the H&TC Survey. The No. 2 Andrews is located 2,235 feet from the south line and 1,136 feet from the east line of Section 80, Block 14 of the H&TC Survey, A-904. The No. 3 Andrews is located 2,510 feet from the south line and 971 feet from the east line of Section 80, Block 14 of the same survey. The wells are in the Wilbarger County Regular Field.

Hawks face crucial five-game series

The Hawk baseball team travels Friday to Bowie with the knowledge that it must win at least four of its next five games, in order to have any chance of advancing into the playoffs.

Iowa Park, the defending district champion, won only two of its games in the first half of 5-AAA play.

Results of a showdown Tuesday between previously undefeated Bowie and Graham were not known at press-time, nor was the outcome of the Vernon (1-3) and Bridgeport (2-2) tilt.

But to have a shot at advancing in the playoffs, the Hawks must either win the second half, or force a playoff for second place, in order to extend the season.

Bridgeport edged Iowa Park 3-2 Friday, with all the scoring coming in the first two innings. Tuesday, the Hawks improved their record to 2-3 with a 11-7 shootout over winless Decatur.

In Friday's game, Bridgeport and Iowa Park both scored two runs. But the Bulls put the winning score on the board in the second, and that was it for the day.

Jimmy Duggins pitched two and a third innings, and Danny Tatom finished from there.

Gary Green went two-for-two at the plate, Duggins two for three and Shannon Bernstein two for four.

After taking a 5-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning here Tuesday, the Hawks saw their lead narrowed to 5-4 in the top of the third, after the Eagles scored three in the second.

But Iowa Park scored two runs more in the bottom of that frame, as well as the fourth and sixth innings. Decatur's other three runs were in the fifth.

J'Bill Merrick worked the first inning and a third, Justina Inman relieved him for three and a third, and Duggins finished the game.

DECATUR BATTER ATTEMPTS UNSUCCESSFULLY A SQUEEZE BUNT HERE TUESDAY . . . Hawk catcher Jimmy Nicholson is ready, but bunt was a foul.

Letters to the Editor

Majority law-abiding

Dear Bob,
As you know, we have recently arrested several persons on drug related charges. Two of those did, indeed, work for the local nursing home. That should not be construed as an indictment of all of the home's staff. In fact, as in other businesses, the vast majority of employees are hard-working, law-abiding citizens and they do support the efforts to discourage the use and delivery of unlawful substances. We appreciate their cooperation.
Sincerely,
Alan Sheffield
Chief of Police

Addresses changing

Bob,
As you know, we have been working with the NORTEX 911 District for the past year preparing the Iowa Park Post Office delivery area outside the City Limits of Iowa Park with a unified address system. Instead of Rural Patrons using Routes and Box Numbers, they will be provided a numbered street address like used in town.

Although it has caused a great deal of time and effort, and will continue to do so, we support the new numbering system for the primary reason that it will allow emergency personnel to more easily find our customers when they have an emergency.

While we are confident that we have done everything humanly possible to insure the accuracy and completeness of our delivery area, I need your help in a last effort to identify households that are in our delivery area, but do not receive mail service through our office.

All of our letters telling customers of their new 911 address will be sent out on Thursday, 4-27-89. If you could publicize this with a request that any family in the Iowa Park Rural Delivery area not receiving a letter please contact the Iowa Park Post Office, we will greatly appreciate it.

As a public service we are trying to assist Mr. Sidney Smith, regional 911 director, in "getting the word out" to insure all area residents have been accounted for before any kind of emergency may occur.

I would like to stress that mail will be delivered whether it bears the new 911 address or the old route and box number. As new customers move into the area they will be provided with the 911 address as their mailing address. Our case labels will use the 911 address as the primary address, and have been cross-referenced with the old box number.

It is the intent of the Iowa Park Post Office to notify major mailers such as Social Security, electric company and other utilities, and magazine publishers of the new addresses.

It is not necessary for Rural customers to change their addresses with correspondents. However, if they would begin to use the new 911 address when giving their address for new accounts or in their return address, we would appreciate it. If customers wish to notify individual correspondents of their new address it would be very helpful.

When the 911 district was approved by the voters it was incumbent upon the administrators to develop a better method of finding households with an emergency. This numbering system is the culmination of that effort. It was destined to be whether the Post Office helped or not. We have tried to help make the system as accurate and complete as humanly possible.

"Aunt Gladys" will be celebrating her 86th birthday with her new friends in the convalescent home on April 27, 1989.

She received much pleasure from the Centennial edition and it was inadvertently thrown away. I have extra copies and will replace her copy. Thank you for a job well done. Although Gladys has been gone from Iowa Park many, many years, she still enjoys the "hometown" newspaper.

Enclosed is my check for my renewal -- I was in Pasadena packing for Gladys when the paper with my renewal notice came.

11 athletes on way to region competition

A delegation of 11 Iowa Park High School athletes and their coaches will leave today for the Region One track meet and tennis tournament at Odessa.

Heading the delegation will be IPHS's first-ever district champion girls' track team qualifiers, who will be competing in seven events.

The girls qualified all three of their relay teams and four individual events.

Returning in the same four events as she qualified as a freshman last year will be Kerri Dorner, who will compete in both sprint relays as well as the 200-meter dash and long jump.

And returning to the regional tennis tournament for his third time will be Jeff Bartow, who is teamed with Matt Gerstner in the doubles.

Chris Blalack, the 5-AAA singles champ, is the other netter to make the trip.

Bartow and Blalack qualified for the region last year in doubles, and two years ago, it was Bartow and Gerstner.

Patrick Birk was the only Hawk runner to advance out of district. He will compete in the 800-meter run.

Angie Turner and Shonna Weaver are competing on all three of the Lady Hawk relay teams. Turner was added to the 1600-meter relay squad after an outstanding performance in a qualifiers' meet last weekend.

With Turner and Weaver on the 400-meter squad will be Dorner and Kristy York. The foursome was clocked in 50.09 at the district meet, but won its division in the Dr. Pepper Classic Saturday in 50.69.

Turner, Weaver and Dorner are joined on the 800-meter relay squad by Courtney Kirkpatrick. They beat their district-winning time of 1:48.15 at Dallas Saturday with 1:47.02, and are expected to be one of the top contenders at Odessa.

The Lady Hawk 1600-meter team is composed of Weaver, Deean Warren, Turner and Kirkpatrick.

Dorner established a new school record Saturday in the long jump, with a measurement of 17-9. It took only 16-10 to win district.

Coach Lorna Klinkerman said Dorner is capable of exceeding 18 feet in the jump.

Dorner is also this area's premier 200-meter sprinter. She won district with a 25.96, but was timed in 25.76 at Dallas, when running against the clock.

York made a significant improvement in her hurdles time Saturday.

She placed second at district with a 16.36, but Saturday was clocked in 15.60.

Tomi Sue Cockburn is the other individual who qualified for region. She placed second in district with a measurement of 31-10, but Coach Klinkerman said she was capable of going well beyond that, eventhough she had only a 30-11 at Dallas.

Birk, who trained all season primarily as a miler, was a surprise second place in district in the 800 meters with a 2:06.75. He ran a 2:08.8 Saturday in the qualifiers' meet, as well as a 5:02.2 in the mile.

Coach Barry Lucy took some of his other athletes to Dallas for more competition, eventhough they will not be eligible to compete this week at Odessa.

Bruce Palmer had an outstanding day, clearing 11-6, a personal best, in the pole vault, running a 51.5, another personal best, in the 400 meters, and placing fourth in the 200.

In fact, Lucy said Palmer came within four points of earning high point honors for his classificatin at Dallas.

Jonathan Imboden placed second to Birk in the 800 meters with a 2:08.9, and beat the sophomore in the mile with a time of 4:57.7.

Also, Gary Green placed third at Dallas with a toss of 126-10 in the discus.

Deanne Sosebee was third in the high jump, clearing 4-8.

The regional meet will be run in Odessa's Ratliff Stadium.

Dorner will compete in the long jump at 11 a.m. Friday, and all the preliminaries in running events for both girls and boys will begin at 2:30 p.m. Cockburn's competition in the triple jump will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday, and all running event finals are to start at 12-noon.

First and second place relays and individuals at Odessa qualify for the state track meet May 12-13 at Austin.

Water Safety instructor course offered by Wichita County Red Cross will begin May 1, and meet on Mondays and Wednesdays, 6:30-9:30 p.m., at Central Boys Club in Wichita Falls. Applicants must be at least 17, have a current advanced lifesaving or lifeguard training certificate and able to pass a swim test. Call 322-8686, ext. 43, to register.
