Unbeaten Hawks host Mineral Wells Friday

Iowa Park's Hawks will put their unblemished season record on the line here Friday night when they take on the Class AAAA Rams of Mineral Wells.

When the ball is kicked off at 8 p.m., it will initiate the 10th meeting between the two schools. And the Rams have a big edge on wins, with a 6-2-1 record against the Hawks.

Their first meeting was in 1976, when Mineral Wells dropped back from AAAAA classification and the Hawks were AAAAA. The Rams won the first three contests, were tied 14-14 in 1979, and Iowa Park took its first win, 14-3, in 1980.

Iowa Park won again in '82, but lost in '83, and then there was a gap in scheduling until last year, which was won by Mineral Wells, 37-33.

Mineral Wells has six offensive and three defensive starters back from last year's 6-4 club, including quarterback John Ruelas, who started two years ago as a sophomore.

Ruelas, who has completed 24 of 44 passing attempts thus far this season for 380 yards, completed 88 of 176 last season for 1,137 yards and 11 touchdowns, while rushing for 651 more.

Against the Hawks last year, he completed eight of 18 for 122 yards.

The Hawks' scouting report on the Rams says, "Offensively, they run a Pro I and Power I sets. The QB is quick, has a good arm and he will run the ball on the option and can scramble..."

Taking pressure off Ruelas is the team's leading rusher, Darren Dow, who has carried the ball 39 times for 305 yards.

Complimenting the offense is the Ram's defense, which has held its three opponents to an average of only 1.78 yards per rushing play (110 carries, 196 yards), and against three rush-oriented teams.

In their season opener, the Rams shot down Weatherford, a former district opponent but now in the higher classification, 36-28. They were tied by Burkburnett 7-7, and last week, against AAA Aledo, coached by former Jacksboro mentor Chuck Curtis, won 34-7.

The Rams are averaging about 350 yards per game offensively, while giving up about 165 per game.

Mineral Wells has apparently improved on its kicking game, as evidence by the Aledo win. Coach Frank Riney said the punting game hurt the Rams against Weatherford and Burkburnett.

Riney was to use his fourth candidate as a punter against Aledo.

The Hawk offense was hurt somewhat in the Breckenridge game Friday, when tailback David Slack received a rib injury and will likely be out of action at least a week.

The senior back, who has 242 yards thus far on 29 carries for an 8.3 average, will be replaced by senior Marc Cruz and sophomore Mike Brewer.

But, two-way starter Gary Green is expected to be back in the lineup after missing two games with an ankle injury sustained in the Burkburnett game.

Green, a 242-pound junior, was also a two-way starter last season and is a key player in the Hawk blocking scheme.

Slack is the only varsity player not expected to be in uniform Friday, though defensive safety Brian Luney may be slowed somewhat with a sprained ankle he received late in the Breckenridge game.

Thieves hit lockers while game played

Iowa Park police were continuing their investigation yesterday into a burglary at the junior high gymnasium Tuesday night, where articles belonging to several football players were taken while a game was underway.

Some 20 lockers were broken into, and items such as watches, cash and shoes were taken.

Detective Ray Smock said some of the items had already been recovered Wednesday, and he was interviewing suspects who were enrolled both at the junior high and high school.

Entry into the dressing room was apparently gained through an unlocked window.

The thefts were reported to police at 7:57 p.m. Tuesday.

Police made four arrests during the past week, all on unrelated cases, and assisted Wichita Falls police in arresting a fifth subject.

Responding to an informant's call at 11:41 p.m. Friday to Allsup's, officers took two men into custody on charges of public intoxication.

They were James Harley Kerr, 36, and Robert Joe Belcher, 61.

Belcher was also charged with resisting arrest, and was transferred to county jail. Kerr was later released on bond, according to the police blotter.

Charles Daniel East, 39, was taken into custody in the 100 block of East Emerald at 1:22 a.m. Sunday when police responded to a call about a domestic disturbance. He was charged with a Class C assault and released two hours later.

Lonnie Kinnett was arrested shortly after midnight Sunday at Colonial Heights Apartments on a charge of criminal trespass. He was turned over to the sheriff's department on outstanding warrants from that office for public intoxication and failure to appear.

Local police stopped a vehicle, at the request of Wichita Falls police, at US 287 and Bell Road at 5:37 a.m. Saturday which had reportedly been driving between 90 and 100 miles per hour. A Wichita Falls unit was in pursuit and took the driver into custody, according to the blotter.

Alumni banquet set

The 22nd annual Iowa Park High School Alumni and Ex-Student Homecoming Banquet is set for Oct. 7 at the Iowa Park High School Cafeteria.

The evening will begin at 5:30 with a reception to be held in the foyer in front of the cafeteria. A steak dinner, catered by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners, is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Former I.P.H.S. principal, Bob Dawson, will be the speaker.

The theme of the banquet will be "Bright Spots in the Classes of '9," with special emphasis being placed on the classes ending with the year '9."

Cost of the dinner is $8 in advance, and $10 at the door. Reservations should be made and paid by Wednesday, to the Ex-Student Assoc., P.O. Box 614, Iowa Park; or by calling the Chamber of Commerce at 592-5441.

OPEN HOUSE CROWD - Ken Turman and his children joined hundreds others Tuesday night to attend the annual open house at Bradford Elementary. An equally large crowd was present Monday for open house at Kidwell Elementary, and another is expected this evening at Iowa Park Junior High.

Council okays stop sign, turns down water offer

City aldermen approved placing a stop sign on West Texas, and turned down a request from the water supply cooperative which wanted to serve residents of Horseshoe Lake.

Alderman Bud Burch twice made motions to place a stop sign on West Texas at First Street. The first time the motion died for lack of a second.

After a discussion, the motion was repeated, and this time it passed, but by a 4-1 margin, with Alderman Bud Mercer opposing it.

The council was responding to an appeal and petition from residents of the 600 and 700 blocks of West Texas, where the pavement was recently replaced with concrete.

The council was told that drivers were speeding on the smoother surfaced roadway, and children lived in many of the homes fronting it.

proached Administrator James Barrington with a proposal to take over supplying of water to residents of Horseshoe Bend, aldermen were told.

Water is currently sold directly to the developing firm, Sereno Lago, which in turn sells the water to the residences.

The arrangement was made with the approval of Wichita Falls, which requires any taps on the transmission line between the two cities be approved by that city's council.

Sereno Lago made the arrangements prior to construction at the development.

Barrington told the council the city would gain nothing from turning the service over to the cooperative, and therefore recommended it not be done.

The council agreed, and took no action on the proposal.

Council members continue their discussions from previous meetings, on whether to construct a new building to house the Recreational Activities Center (RAC), or expend the funds necessary to bring the older structure up to code standards.

It was decided to ask officials of Burkburnett if they still have the plans used to construct that city's community center.

Aldermen had said to ask officials of Burkburnett if they still have the plans used to construct that city's community center.

Workers must re-work, in some way, the painting of the city name on the relocated water tower, because the spacing of the lettering is not acceptable.

Council members discussed the different ways of making the correction, but were definite in indicating they wanted to spend no more money on the project than already pledged.

In other business, the council approved a request from Rev. Mike Grubbs of the First Christian Church to hold the second annual CROP Walk fund-raising project in November. The route was not discussed.

Aldermen approved a request to advertise for proposals to purchase a new backhoe for the water department.

Prior to the meeting, Laura Perkins, police radio dispatcher, was recognized as the city's employee of the month.

It's early, but it frosted!

It may be way too early, but at least two farmers southwest of town reported frost on their truck windshields Sunday morning.

Temperatures haven't dropped below 40, but Rex Wells said he had to wear turn of the century clothing. Former pastors will be there during the day, as will the district superintendent and bishop.

That day's bulletin will be printed on old-style funeral home fans.

A booklet containing the history of the church has been published, and special Christmas cards will be made available.

DESTROYS EVIDENCE - Ray Smock of the Iowa Park Police Department destroyed evidence gathered over the past two years, but for cases that have been cleared in court. The burning Tuesday at the landfill was of several kinds of dope (that's almost a pound of marijuana in his hands), as well as confiscated lethal weapons and other items. Smock said he needed the space in his evidence room.

The Iowa Park Garden Club's upcoming projects were the main topic of discussion at the organization's meeting held Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Robert Illingworth.

Mrs. Bernice Compton presided over the business session, in which Mrs. John Clapp, community service chairman, outlined this year's projects.

The club's annual flower show, held in conjunction with the homecoming Whoop-T-Do, has added a youth division, and local youth organizations have been invited to participate.

Other projects include planting and maintaining a community wild-flower flowerbed, and maintaining a horticulture project at Heritage Manor Nursing Home here.

For the program, Mrs. Deryl James introduced Mrs. Judy Purser of Holliday Gifts and Floral. Mrs.

Purser told members of the basic designs of flower arranging and gave several tips for professional floral design, showing several arrangements she designed using silk flowers, artificial cactus, dried flowers and fresh German status.

She then showed members how to tie a bow and make a rose out of paper ribbon. In conclusion, she demonstrated the technique of arranging flowers in a cornucopia using silk flowers in fall colors, and presented it to the hostess.

Members answered roll call with a favorite fall flower, and Mrs. Harold Smith was accepted into the club as a new member. 19 members and one guest, Mrs. Ray Copening, attended.

Mrs. B.J. Gilmore, chaplain, gave the thought for the day, entitled "I've Got to Talk to somebody, God," by Marjorie Holmes.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 6 at First Christian Church.

Dee Decker reported on changes recommended by the by-laws committee, each of which was discussed and approved.

The nominating committee presented a new slate of officers to the board, and they were approved unanimously. New officers, whose terms begin in November are Billy Gilmore, president; Dee Decker, vice president; Delean Goin, secretary and Phil Johnson, treasurer.

In other business, Billy Gilmore discussed the Fun Run to be held in November, and Delean Goin reported on T-shirts for members to wear at RAC functions.

Cook of the Week

Our featured cook this week, Cindy Sampley, and her husband, Calvin, are both natives of Iowa Park and have lived here all their lives. Recently, they moved to Holliday where they bought a home.

Calvin is employed by CMD Drilling Co., and Cindy enjoys being a housewife and mother. Their two children are daughter, Randi, six-years-old, and in the first grade, and a four-year-old son, Garrett.

When she has time, Cindy enjoys sewing and baking. She credits her mother-in-law, Ruth Sampley, with teaching her how to cook and sew. Now, Cindy said she makes a lot of her daughter's clothes, and in the wintertime she like to paint on sweat shirts.

Cindy and Calvin like to fish, and bowl together. She said she prefers to let her husband go hunting by himself. They go to the First Baptist Church in Holliday, and Cindy is a member of the Holliday P-TA.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

I have rarely taken issue with a decision of the city council over the past several years, but I just can't let one action aldermen took this week go by without comment.

The issue was a request from residents on West Texas to place a stop sign, or two if possible, between Pacific and Third Street ... a distance of three short blocks.

Residents were asking that the sign be put there to slow down traffic which they alleged to have speeded up since the 600 and 700 blocks were repaved with concrete.

They also pointed out that a lot of children live in the homes fronting the street.

I don't blame them. I'd be surprised if there is anyone in all of Iowa Park who wouldn't want vehicles to drive faster than five miles an hour in front of their homes.

That is others, because they don't want to drive that slowly themselves.

My problem with the council's decision to put the stop sign up at First Street, just one block off Pacific for those traveling west, is this: a traffic flow survey was made a few years ago by experts, and this report was not considered before the action was taken.

What the council did was to effectively transfer considerably more east-west traffic onto Clara and Magnolia which has regularly been moving on West Texas.

If the vehicles were traveling at unsafe speeds, that's the responsibility of the police department. And I'm not sure a complaint was ever issued to the police department about speeding traffic on West Texas, between Pacific and Third.

I hope more study is made when such requests are received in the future by the council.

Monday's vote was a knee jerk reaction.

Worth Quoting

To use the famous quotation about a rose by Gertrude Stein, a bum is a bum is a bum.

But nowadays, we don't call 'em bums -- we use the more swallowable term: homeless.

And to hear the caterwauling of the bleeding hearts, our nation is overrun by the homeless. It became such a popular issue on television and in the news magazines last year, that all presidential candidates felt it necessary to dedicate a plank in the party platforms to doing something about the homeless.

Because of a few highly visible bums living in a park across the street from the White House, Congress has appropriated a few million dollars to study the plight of the homeless.

Even our Texas legislature got caught up in the popularity of the subject of the pitiful homeless and enacted legislation that interlocks most health and care agencies into addressing the problem of the homeless. They were probably helped along in their zeal to help the homeless by the photos published in several daily newspapers around the state of several bums living beneath a highly traveled bridge in Austin.

But three new national surveys of the homeless indicate that the issue is more myth than fact, more emotional than reality, and more hype than anything else.

Michael Dukakis and former speaker Jim Wright claimed, as did countless news reports, that three million Americans were huddled in streets, doorways, and shelters each night.

Hogwash! A 1988 study by the nonpartisan Urban Institute, based in part on interviews with 1,700 homeless individuals in 20 large cities, concludes that at most, 600,000 Americans were living in shelters or on the streets on a given night.

Percentagewise, that's about the number of bums we've always had in this country.

The three independent studies also debunked some other myths about the homeless.

Last year George Bush said that mental illness was the "principal cause" of homelessness. Yet two of the surveys found that only a third of homeless adults are mentally ill. Moreover, the wholesale release of mental patients from hospitals did little to create the homeless problem of the eighties. Tulane University Professor James Wright reports in a forthcoming book that fewer than five percent of the 83,000 homeless men and women treated at the Robert Wood Johnson clinics were in a mental institution immediately prior to becoming homeless.

Another myth: That the new homeless are displaced working class Americans who can no longer find inexpensive rental apartments. Not true! The surveys found that most homeless parents with children are black or Hispanic single women on welfare, and many have little job experience, and most were driven from their homes by domestic violence.

Another myth: That more charity is the answer. Not necessarily. One survey revealed that the private sector is already doing a good job. Last year, roughly nine out of 10 shelters for the homeless were operated by community groups and churches -- and a whopping 80,000 volunteers worked in the shelters, four times more than helped out five years ago.

All they need is housing is another myth debunked. Some of the groups beating the drums for a national policy concerning the homeless pitch that the real solution lies in housing.

Not so! Recent studies reveal that roughly half of the urban homeless have been homeless more than once, indicating that a roof over the head of an alcoholic, a mentally ill person, or an addict might not mean that he or she would stay put.

The studies suggested that perhaps rather than a new federal program to throw billions of dollars in public housing complexes for the homeless, that most of the homeless require treatment at a community health center, a stay at an alcohol-free halfway house, or even a bed in a safe and clean flophouse.

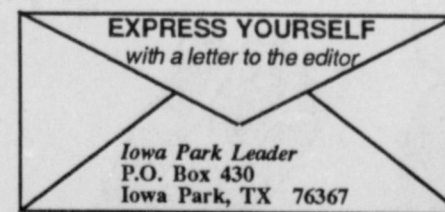

A long, hard look at the facts rather than media-politician-generated emotion, could go far in recognizing that a bum is a bum is a bum!

If you see me walking down the sidewalk tugging at my clothes like my underwear doesn't fit right this week, that's not it at all. I did a little work outside this weekend and the red bugs covered me up.

I always like to think there is some purpose to everything, but it's hard to figure out how chiggers fit into the overall scheme. Maybe they are just evidence God has a sense of humor.

Plenty of volunteers

There was plenty of volunteer help Saturday morning to clean up the interior of a fire-damaged home, thanks to the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance.

Fifteen volunteers responded to an appeal from the pulpits of member churches to help clean out a mess left by fire and vandals at the home of Cora Blevins, 908 E. Highway.

Actually, there were 16, as alderman Bud Burch, as promised, was on hand to help.

Other members of the council reported for duty, but the large group had done its work so quickly, there was nothing left for them to do. One council member made available a truck to haul away the debris.

Tax helpers sought

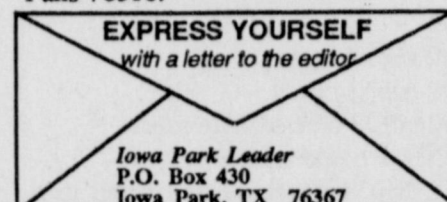

As the 1990 tax season approaches, the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) is accepting applications of persons interested in assisting the elderly with their income tax.

Nationally, over 1.5-million persons were helped last season through the Tax-Aide Program co-sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service. In Texas, over 80,000 persons were assisted, including many shut-ins.

Volunteers of all ages can perform the service and AARP membership is not required. Training will be provided. Volunteers usually work four hours per week providing free income tax help to older adults in sites such as libraries, churches and senior centers.

Those interested can contact H.D. Russell, 4650 Balboa, Wichita Falls 76310.

Congratulations to the Alleyrats-City League Summer Volleyball Champs! The team earned the title after defeating the Methodist Sandstormers in a final play-off game Sunday. Each team was awarded a trophy as first and second place winners.

After summarizing the results of the organization meeting held Monday, the beginning of a fall league is questionable. If the city were to sponsor a fall league, it would begin mid-October. However, without more positive response, this will not be possible. If you would like to have a city league team, please notify Jo Lynn at the library by Oct. 6.

First Step provides free help

First Step is a United Way agency that offers a wide variety of services in Wichita County.

Dealing primarily with the victims of rape, child abuse and family violence, workers operate a 24-hour crisis hotline and referral service; they operate a family shelter that can hold up to 20 people at one time; they conduct individual and group counseling sessions for victims, families, and friends; they conduct public education seminars; and they train volunteer counselors and speakers.

All these services are free. Last year, two Wichita County women were murdered, who were victims of family violence.

One woman was killed by her husband in a murder-suicide because she was attempting to leave him to escape from his abuse. The other woman had left and was filing for divorce when her husband tracked her down.

Unfortunately these women could not be saved -- but many others are.

"What we are doing here is literally saving people's lives," said Laura Grimsinger, First Step director. "This is an extremely vital service to the community. If the women we shelter didn't have a place to stay, more people would die. Last year, 647 women and children were given emergency shelter."

"Our residents do cover the complete socio-economic spectrum," Grimsinger said, "but for the most part they tend to be middle class. Recently, we had a 69 year old woman who was in an abusive relationship for over 54 years."

The shelter is a small facility, with only three bedrooms holding about seven people each. They are full almost year around, with a waiting list of victims trying to escape from violent situations.

The shelter is in desperate need for more space, but right now they can't afford it. "When these people call us, it's serious," Grimsinger said. "It's really hard to turn people away."

They are forced to turn away about two families each month and they provide a hotel stay for another two families.

During a family's stay at the shelter, First Step provides for all their needs including counseling, job referrals, and locating a permanent place to stay. Many families arrive without even a change of clothes, so First Step maintains donated clothes to supply the need.

They are also donated toys which are given to the children on birthdays and holidays.

The crisis hotline (767-4933) received 2,528 calls in the first six months of this year. They provide assistance and counseling for up to 60 rape victims each month and about 27 children are involved in the Children's Program at any given time.

First Step relies heavily on the support of its volunteers. T/Sgt. Carolyn Crenshaw, from Sheppard AFB, has been a hotline volunteer since 1982 and has served on the board of directors.

"When I first got to Wichita Falls, I was looking for something to do," said Crenshaw. "I was looking for something that would satisfy me and, at the same time, help other people; and domestic violence is something that has been overlooked for a long time. People are being murdered over little family arguments."

"The police department has really benefitted from us; we have taken some of the burden off of them. Domestic situations can really be dangerous. Sometimes the police call us ... but we have to receive a call from the victim before we can help," Grimsinger said.

First step is supported by donations through the United Way and the Combined Federal campaign.

First step served over 800 persons last year, of whom 27 were from Iowa Park.

WHAT SITS OUT BACK, RUNS SUMMER AND WINTER, AND SAVES YOU MONEY?

A heat pump. And there are three good reasons you should get one.

A HEAT PUMP COOLS. HEATS AND SAVES.

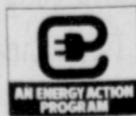

Replace your old air conditioner with a new electric heat pump. It's a high efficiency air conditioner in summer. While, in the winter, it's the most energy efficient heating system you can own. On even the coldest days, a heat pump system operates efficiently and will provide all the warmth you need.

A HEAT PUMP CAN SAVE $130 A YEAR.

Compared to a gas furnace, a heat pump is more energy efficient. And TU Electric's low rates make heating and cooling your home with a heat pump an even better value. Tests have shown you can save $130 or more a year by installing a heat pump.*

GET MORE INFORMATION.

You can find out more about the amazing heat pump, including details on rebates, from your local heat pump dealer.

WHO ARE WE?

We are a people of restoration spirit wanting to restore in our time the original New Testament church.

Dr. Hans Kung, a well known European theologian, published a book a few years ago entitled THE CHURCH. Dr. Kung lamented the fact that the established church has lost its way, has become burdened down with tradition, has failed to be what Christ intended. The only remedy, according to Dr. Kung, is to go back to the Scriptures to see what the church was in the beginning and then to recover in the twentieth century the essence of the original church. This is what churches of Christ are seeking to accomplish.

In the latter part of the eighteenth century, men of different denominations, studying independently of each other in various parts of the world, began to ask: why not go back beyond denominationalism to the simplicity and purity of the first century church? Why not take the Bible alone and once again continue "steadfastly in the apostles' teaching" (Acts 2:42)? Why not plant the same seed (the Word of God, Luke 8:11) that the first century Christians planted and be Christians only, as they were?

They were pleading with everyone to throw off denominationalism, to throw away human creeds, and to follow only the Bible. They taught that nothing should be required of people as acts of faith except that which is evident in the Scriptures. They emphasized that going back to the Bible does not mean the establishment of another denomination, but rather a return to the original church.

We who are members of the churches of Christ are enthusiastic about this approach. With the Bible as our only guide, we seek to find what that original church was like and restore it exactly. We do not propose this arrogantly, but humbly. We are saying that we do not have the right to ask for men's allegiance to a human organization but only the right to call upon man to follow God's blueprint.

For this reason, we are not interested in the man-made creeds but simply in the New Testament pattern. We do not conceive of ourselves as being a denomination, neither as Catholic, Protestant, or Jewish, but simply as members of the church which Jesus Christ established and for which He died.

The Holliday politician was named to the Texas State Artist committee and the Joint Legislative Task Force on the Mentally Retarded Persons Act of 1977.

The artist committee consists of three representatives and three senators, charged with the responsibility of identifying Texas artists who have exhibited exceptional ability in portraying the beauty of the state, some facet of its history or the spirit of its people.

Twenty-nine seventh grade students at Iowa Park Junior High School have been identified as eligible to participate in a Talent Identification Program (TIP) sponsored by Duke University. Eligible students must score in the upper three percent on the Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills (CTBS) taken in the spring of their sixth grade year.

The primary goals of TIP are the identification and development of this group of extremely able youths. Eligible students may take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the ACT Assessment (ACT) later this year. These tests are normally administered only to high school juniors and seniors. If the students score high on these tests, they will receive special recognition in ceremonies in Austin. A Grand Recognition Ceremony will be held in May at Duke University.

Red Cross solicits funds for victims of hurricane

The Wichita County chapter of American Red Cross is appealing for cash donations to assist the thousands of people in the southeastern United States and Caribbean who were affected by Hurricane Hugo.

Funds will be used to assist with food, shelter and other basic needs.

The relief effort currently underway is so great that the entire Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund has been exhausted, according to a spokesman.

"This means that unless we are successful in our appeals to the public, the Red Cross won't be able to continue meeting the needs of disaster victims from all over the nation who count on us in times of crisis," the spokesman said.

The local chapter's goal is to raise $30,000, which is only a small part of the nation effort to raise $40-million.

Donations of any amount can be mailed to: American Red Cross Disaster Relief, Wichita County Chapter, 1809 Fifth St., Wichita Falls, 76301.

A most heartfelt thanks to all who donated their time and help with "Cleaning House" at 908 E. Highway on Saturday, Sept. 23rd. The true spirit of community participation came through and is most appreciated. God bless each of you.

Hawks hobble Bucks, 25-14

Using a combination of determined ball carriers with an effective passing attack, and taking advantage of their opponents' mistakes, the Hawks Friday night knocked off old rival Breckenridge, 25-14, and pushed their season record to 3-0.

Matthew Blackman and David Slack carried the ball 39 times for 213 yards, while Jimmy Duggins was connecting on seven of 12 pass attempts, and five Buckaroo fumbles were claimed, three of them by alert Chuck Brown.

The win, on the road, tripled the number of victories Iowa Park recorded all last season and delighted a large delegation of Hawk fans who made the long trip.

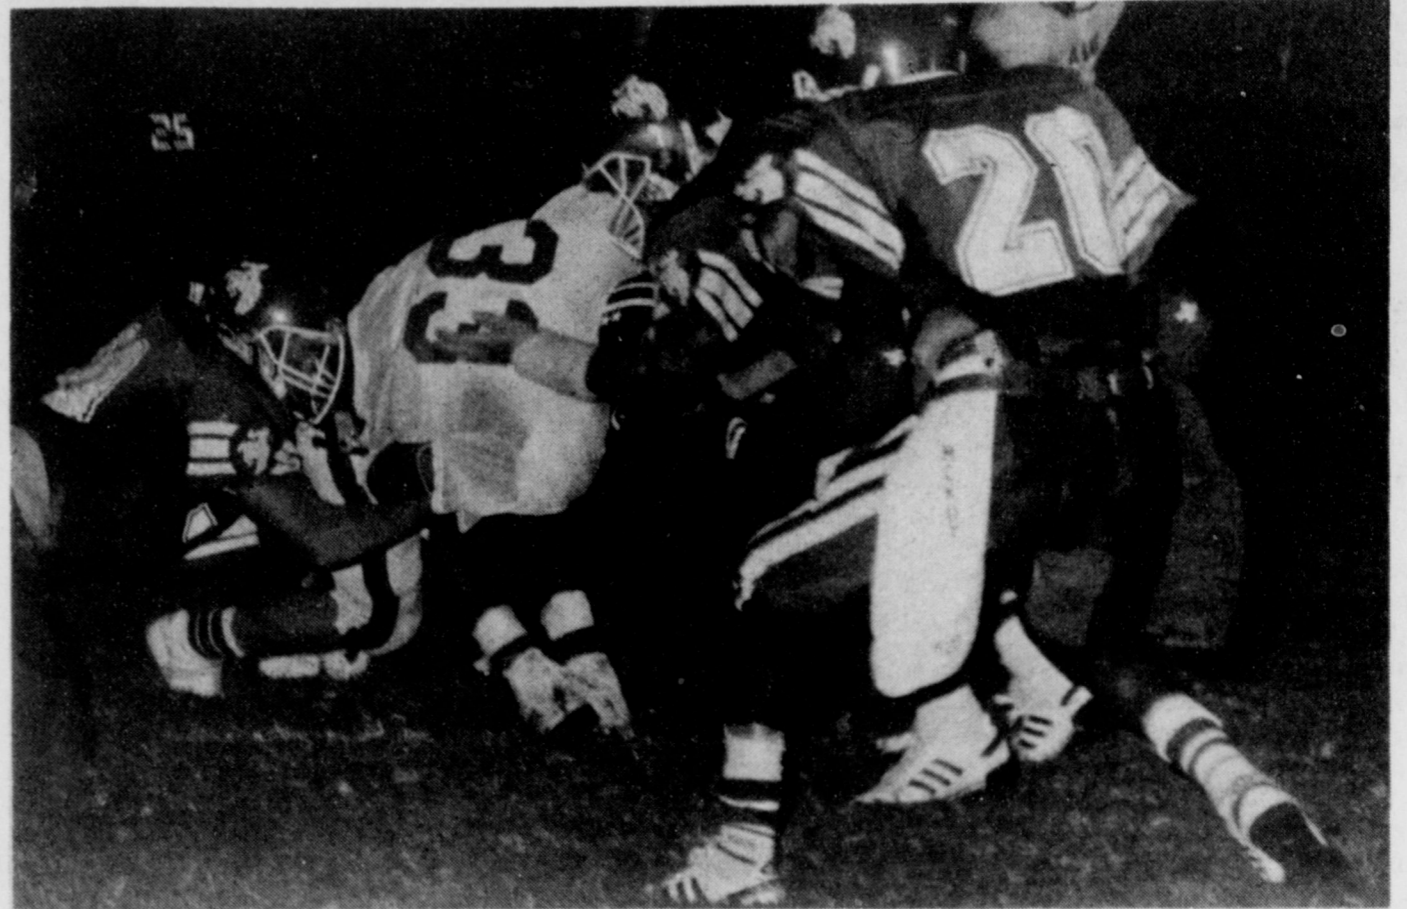

The Buckaroos were the first to light up the scoreboard, but were then held out of the end zone until the final 10 seconds remained on the temporary clock (the regular scoreboard clock was not working).

Breck's first touchdown was set up by one of two Hawk fumbles. Iowa Park had taken the game's opening kickoff and driven to the Buckaroo 23. But Duggins and center Chris Cook had a problem on a snap, and the hosts claimed possession on their own 37. The Bucks needed only 10 plays, and a 10-yard penalty against Iowa Park, to score on a six-yard pass. The extra point kick failed, and Breckenridge held a 6-0 lead with 5:49 left in the opening period.

It looked like more of the same, when the "starburst" kickoff return handoff was bobbled, but Brian Luney covered the loose ball on the Hawk three yard line.

On the fourth play of the drive, tailback Slack skirted left and raced 73 yards down the sideline before being knocked out of bounds. Three plays later, the Hawks had advanced the ball only to the 15 yard line, and Kelly McClure split the goal posts for a 32-yard field goal.

During the second quarter, the teams had exchanged punts and fumbles, when Brown covered another Buck miscue, this time on a muffed punt reception, on Breck's 38. The main play that set up Blackman's one-yard touchdown run was a fake handoff by Duggins, who carried the ball 24 yards to the hosts' 10 yard line. A penalty set up Blackman's one-yard run for the two-point conversion that gave Iowa Park an 11-6 lead as the second quarter wound down.

Brown would cover two more fumbles in the third period, one on the second half kickoff and the other, on the midfield stripe, setting up the period's only score.

Only four plays were needed on that drive, which featured a 17-yard reception by Marc Cruz and a 16-yard run by Blackman, setting up Blackman's three-yard run over right-guard to score. McClure's kick was good, and Iowa Park led 18-6.

Breckenridge ate up the yardage on its following drive in short time, but stalled on the Hawk 20 when possession was turned over on downs as the final period got underway.

At that point, starting guard Gary Green, sidelined three weeks with an ankle injury, commented "What we need now is a six-minute drive." Well, the Hawks beat that, eating up 8:10 with 16 plays, and the final a 10-yard pass to Brown for a TD. With 2:24 remaining in the game, McClure's extra point kick cleared the tall screen behind the north goal post. When Toby Brown did the same two years ago, a Breckenridge fan commented no one had ever done that before.

Breckenridge returned the kickoff to its own 45. Two long running plays advanced the ball to the Hawk 21, from where the Bucks connected on their other passing attempt of the evening, to score.

Blackman finished the game with 112 yards on 28 carries, and Slack handled the ball 11 times for 107 yards. Brown caught two passes for 13 yards; Cruz two for 30; Perry one for 20; Palmer one for 15, and Bunkie Imboden one for a minus two yards.

Besides Brown's three fumble recoveries, McClure and Cruz also captured balls dropped on the turf by Buckaroos. Neither team had an interception.

Both teams were flagged eight times for penalties; Breckenridge for 77 yards and Iowa Park for 22.

Near-perfect defense couldn't stop Breck TD

Education effort aimed at abuses

Seeking to cease alcohol and drug related deaths and injuries, and to reduce the crime rate, the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance along with city and school officials have joined together in an effort to educate local citizens of all ages on the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse.

Mayor Tim Hunter read a proclamation, which was accepted by aldermen, declaring the 1989-90 school year as "Alcohol and Drug Abuse Awareness Year in Iowa Park" at a city council meeting two weeks ago.

Hunter called upon the school system and its related student and adult organizations, churches, Chamber of Commerce, the community's civic and social clubs and organizations and all citizens to join with the city in promoting heightened awareness of the acute problems of drug and alcohol abuse.

The Iowa Park School Board acknowledged its support of the proclamation.

October is the kick-off month for the campaign, and a full month of activities has been planned.

Each pastor involved in the campaign will speak from his or her pulpit during the month about the danger of substance abuse, and officials and students at Iowa Park High School are reorganizing a S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) chapter.

Chief of Police, Allen Sheffield, presented posters with anti-drug and anti-alcohol slogans to be displayed in all schools and at the Whoop-T-Do, where the group has secured a booth, and distributed to businesses and churches. Display of the posters will begin next week.

Workers are in the process of securing a professional athlete to speak on the subject at the city council meeting in November.

City, school receive bank franchise taxes

Iowa Park city and schools are among 431 Texas taxing entities to share in $5.8-million in bank franchise tax allocations, according to the state comptroller's office.

The city's payment, $10,021.29, and school's, 9,652.11, are 7.31 and 5.53-percent lower respectively than allocations received in 1988, the comptroller's office reported.

The payment was the second and final allocation to be made this year, to more than 2,000 cities, counties, school districts, hospital districts and other special districts.

This year's bank franchise tax allocations are 22 percent lower than had been allocated last year at this time. The drop reflects the troubled times faced by the Texas banking industry.

The bank franchise tax rate is the same as the state's corporate franchise tax rate -- $6.70 per $1,000 of taxable capital and surplus, with a minimum tax of $150, according to the report.

But beginning in January, both the bank franchise tax rate and corporate franchise tax rate will drop to $5.25 per $1,000, with a minimum tax of $68.

The higher rate was passed by the legislature in 1987 as a temporary tax measure to offset revenue shortfalls caused by the Texas recession.

The legislature authorized the bank franchise tax in 1984, with the first collections taking place in 1985.

Iowa Park Pee Wees 16 Henrietta Pee Wees 0

Iowa Park's Pee Wee Hawks kept their undefeated record clean, and also their record of allowing no scores by opponents, in shutting out Henrietta 16-0 Saturday.

Chad Wright scored once, on a 52-yard scamper, and Michael Swenson posted the other TD on a 28-yarder.

All four extra points were scored by Brandon Brown.

Iowa Park had 192 yards rushing.

Outstanding defensive play was credited to Brandon McLemore, Bodie Yarbrough, Richard McCann and Tres Beisch.

Iowa Park Midgets 42 Henrietta Midgets 12

The Iowa Park Midget Hawks improved their record to 3-0 for the season Saturday night, with a 42-12 win over the Henrietta Bearcats.

The Hawk offense rolled up 188 yards in the first half while scoring four touchdowns.

Iowa Park's defense held Henrietta's offense to a minus 17 total yards in the same two quarters, as the Hawks cruised to a 30-0 lead.

Robert Klinkerman, Corky Petty, Jake Dillard and Dusty Johnson each ran for a touchdown, with Shawn Fulfer scoring twice.

Toby King recovered an on-side kick in the second half and Dillard made an interception.

8th grade shuts out CV

Iowa Park's Eighth Grade Hawks ran wild in the first half of their game Tuesday, defeating City View 32-0.

All the scoring was during the first two periods, and Scott Byrd had four of the touchdowns.

Byrd scored twice from the one-yard line, once from the 10, and returned a punt 80 yards for the other.

Don Ellis set up one of Byrd's short TDs with an 85-yard screen pass.

The final TD was a 30-yard pass from Tony Lozipone to Brent Brown, and Billy Flippin ran for a two-point conversion.

Cheerleaders' Point of View

Last Friday, the Hawks brought us our third victory. The game started off very close, but the Hawks got fired up and pulled through another win. We would like to thank everyone for their participation and Hawk spirit. You may not know it, but the crowd has a big influence on the team's spirit. Hopefully you will continue to back the Hawk team.

Next Monday starts off Homecoming Week. To boost school spirit we are having an adjective week. Monday is Big Day. Tuesday is Cool Day. Wednesday is Bright Day. Thursday is Dark Day. Friday is Mum Day. Each day we ask that everyone dress as what the adjective of the day is.

Bonfire wood needed

Anyone with wood that can be used to fuel this year's homecoming bonfire is asked to pile it at a designated place on the city's block north of Ken's Pizza.

Homecoming for Iowa Park High School will be Oct. 6, but the bonfire will be set next Thursday evening.

Friday's 25-14 win by the Hawks over Breckenridge apparently impressed the pollsters for the Dallas Morning News. The Hawks still didn't make the paper's top 10 Class AAA teams, but received nine votes, the most of any team not ranked. Gainesville moved up to second, behind Southlake Carroll, and Vernon, with its first win of the season, was elevated to eighth from ninth.

Texas Tech's sports public relations department said after last week's 31-15 win over Oklahoma State: "Defensive tackle Charles Perry (Iowa Park) made it three-for-three with another tremendous performance last weekend. The SWC Defensive Player of the Week after the New Mexico game, Perry slammed around inside for 15 tackles (six unassisted), one tackle for a loss and two QB pressures."

Former Head Hawk Tommy Watkins had a big problem Saturday, while reviewing Friday's game film with his Garland Lakeview coaches and players. The mother of a player stormed into the room and started cursing Watkins for not giving her son enough playing time. She returned after being ejected, and reportedly hit Watkins with her fists, and then filed a charge that he assaulted her. The school has likewise filed charges against the mother. More to come!

JV looking for first win

By BRUCE PALMER

The Junior Varsity Hawks will be looking for their first win tonight as they travel to Mineral Wells to take on the Rams.

Iowa Park hopes to rebound from a tough, 18-6, loss to Breckenridge last week. The loss was the result of turnovers and the team being extremely short-handed.

During the game, the JV lost three starters. At one time the tight end, wingback and tailback positions were occupied by players who had been in those slots less than a week.

All injuries were relatively minor and the team hopes to be back at full strength tonight.

Breckenridge struck in the first quarter, making the score 6-0. They attempted to kick the extra point, but it was blocked.

The Bucks scored again before the half, but again were stopped on the extra point attempt, making the score 12-0.

Iowa Park opened the second half with a long scoring drive which was capped off by a two-yard Johnny Dug-gins run. The two-point conversion failed, making the score 12-6.

Breckenridge then stopped Iowa Park's comeback by scoring a late third-quarter touchdown, making the score 18-6, which was the final.

The Hawks lost three fumbles which ended good drives. However, they have been getting back skill people from the varsity and, having some healed injuries, should eliminate turnovers against Mineral Wells.

Freshmen win 33-22

By BRUCE PALMER

Iowa Park Freshmen scored a season-high 33 points, while only giving up 22 to Breckenridge, to get their first win of the season in Hawk Stadium Thursday.

Chris Williams had his best game of the year, scoring three touchdowns. The first came on a 15-yard run in the first quarter. The extra point failed, however.

Three plays after a Buck turnover Williams scored again, on a 19-yard run. The Hawks tacked on the extra point to lead 13-0, which was the halftime score.

Iowa Park scored on the third play of the second half, when Williams romped 27 yards. The extra point failed.

Iowa Park quickly regained possession after the kickoff, on a Patrick Kennedy interception.

Mark De la Rosa then made a 52-yard TD run, and added the extra point.

The Frosh then threw an interception which was returned for a touchdown by Breckenridge.

Bobby Johnson added the final Hawk score, on a 10-yard plunge.

Salad supper

Friday for fans

Tickets for the meal are $1.50 for children and $2.50 for adults, as a fund-raising project by the FFA Booster Club.

The building is conveniently located on the north side of Hawk Stadium parking lot for fans who plan to attend the game between Iowa Park and Mineral Wells.

This season, those eating at the Booster Club's meals are seated in the Vo-Ag classroom, which is air conditioned and dust-free.

Dr. Watson recertified

Dr. Earl Watson of Iowa Park has recertified as a "diplomat" of the American Board of Family Practice as a result of passing a recertification examination offered by the organization.

Watson thus maintains a specialist status in the medical specialty of family practice.

Diplomats must continue to show proof of competence in the field of comprehensive, continuing care of the family by being recertified every six years.

The written examination is designed to prove the candidate's continuing competence in the basic components of family practice -- internal medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry and neurology, and community medicine.

Nearly 37,000 family physicians have now been certified in the specialty. Most are members of the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors.

Annual Finnell event set Oct. 19

Local entertainment with the rural flavor of the 80th House District will be features of the Finnell Fish Fry, set Thursday, Oct. 19, at the Holliday school cafeteria, according to Don Talley, treasurer of the sponsoring Committee for Responsible Representation.

Open to the public, guests will be entertained by fiddle music of "The Deputies," a local group consisting of law enforcement officers.

Finnell actively supported the passage of 32 bills directly benefiting Texas' law enforcement during the 1989 session.

Finnell and a prominent statewide elected official will address the group.

Tickets are $15 and are available from the Committee (Box 639 Holliday) or at the door.

OIL REPORT

A 1,999-ft. developmental well is planned by Singleton Production Co. of Iowa Park at a drillsite one-half mile north of Kamay, Wichita County. The location is in a lease in the Kemp S/D Lot 16 Survey. It is in the Wichita County Regular Field.

Exmoor Oil & Mineral Corp. of Dallas had completed four new oil producers in the Wichita County Regular Field. The No. 27 S.L.C. Pratt, No. 178 Ruyle and No. 53E W.F. Ramming "A" are located six miles north of Iowa Park while the No. 4E C.N. Prothro is six miles southwest of Burkburnett. The operations pumped oil at the combined rate of 58 barrels per day, plus 19 barrels of water. They will produce from perforated intervals, 1,590 to 1,600; 1,668 to 1,677; 1,221; and 1,664 to 1,670 feet into the wellbore, respectively.

SADD membership drive begins

AUSTIN, Texas -- The SADD campaign for Texas membership drive has begun.

The goal is to achieve 100 percent placement of Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) chapters in every Texas middle school and high school.

Recently, Anheuser-Busch, Inc., announced that it would make available to every Texas middle school and senior high school SADD starter kits. On Sept. 13, a letter from SADD founder Bob Anastas and SADD's Texas state Coordinator John T. Rogers explaining the Texas membership drive was mailed to every middle school and high school principal throughout the state. The effort is also being supported by the Department of Public Safety.

The principals are being encouraged to send a reply regarding their interest in the program to SADD headquarters, located in Marlboro, Mass. A complimentary SADD start-up kit will then be forwarded to them.

SADD, founded in 1981 by Anastas, is the largest student activist organization whose goals are to eliminate illegal drug use, illegal drinking, drinking and driving, and death due to drinking and driving among our youth. According to SADD national headquarters, SADD now has chapters in 15,000 schools.

In conjunction with the kick-off of the SADD Texas membership drive, Anastas will attend SADD press conferences in several cities throughout the state. Details regarding the events will be announced soon.

"SADD encourages all members to work toward influencing their peers to follow a healthy lifestyle and to comply with the laws of their state involving drug and alcohol use," Anastas said. "We commend Anheuser-Busch for its extensive efforts in this area."

During the initial announcement regarding the membership drive, Stephen J. Burrows, vice president of Anheuser-Busch's department of consumer education and awareness, said that "Anheuser-Busch intends to become part of the solution."

The SADD philosophy emphasizes the importance of open communications between parents and teenagers, and of positive peer pressure to discourage teenage drinking.

Finnell opposes new gas tax

Rep. Charles Finnell says two congressional proposals to raise the federal gasoline tax by as much as 50 cents a gallon would derail the state's economy and penalize Texas consumers, who drive longer distances than most Americans.

Finnell, an appointee to the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, said an increase of 50 cents in the tax, even in 10-cent increments proposed in one bill, would cost Texans billions of dollars.

"Lower gas sales would trigger refinery cutbacks and layoffs," he said. "But the greatest damage would be to Texas business and agriculture in drastically higher transportation costs."

Finnell said both bills to raise the tax are pending in the U.S. House Ways and Means Committee in Washington. He urged Texans to immediately contact their congressional representatives to oppose the proposals.
