Year's biggest weekend begins

MRS. LITA WATSON
528 W. CLARA
IOWA PARK TX 76367 112

HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES this year include, from left, Kayla Nault, Darla Boyles, Donna Bradford and Kari Robnett. Results of the student body voting will be made known Friday night when the 1985 queen is crowned.

Whoop-T-Do

Several thousand are expected to attend, and participate, in the 1985 Whoop-T-Do, sponsored by the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce.

Featuring 24 organization booths, 13 arts and crafts booths and an arts and crafts exhibit, there'll be something for everybody.

Whoop-T-Do dates back more than a decade. It was begun by the Chamber to give homecoming celebrators something to do between Friday night's football game and Saturday night's annual Ex-Student Association banquet, as well as providing an opportunity for local organizations to have fund-raising events.

Those attending are encouraged to visit the Chamber's booth, which will be in front of the Chamber office, to register, at which time registrants will receive a ticket stub and green ribbon.

Drawings will be held through the day for 40 gifts donated by local merchants. When a winner's name is drawn, if they have the green ribbon on them, they will receive two gifts, instead of one.

To begin at 9 a.m., the activities will continue until 4, at which time closing comments will be announced and a special activity kicking off Iowa Park's participation in the Texas Sesquicentennial will be held. Activities and times will be as follows:

9:00 - Turtle Trot - entries by children third grade and younger, a $25 prize from Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home to winner.

9:15 - Junior High Band

9:30 - High School Band

10:00 - Friendly Door Band

10:30 - Studio KG students to perform

11:00 - Junior High Choir, High School Chorale, Mixed Company Choir and A Cappella Choir

12:00 - Whoop-T-Do Queen and King Coronation

12:30 - Cow Chip Throwing Contest - organized by State National Bank, it will be operated by the Volunteer Fire Department which will maintain $20 and $10 cash prizes for first and second place men's and women's divisions; also two special barrels for prizes of a rechargeable flashlight from Parkway, set of car rims from Wal-Mart and $25 worth of groceries from King's Food.

1:00 - Sheppard Air Force Base Weapons Drill Team

1:30 - Red River Valley Association of Round and Square Dancers with David Hudson of Wichita Falls calling; also a clogging performance

2:30 - Eddie French and The French Quarter, a country and western band

The arts and craft booths will be lined along the sidewalk on Wall, between Cash and Park.

Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association will host its annual Peoples' Choice Show at the Lions Club Building, 102 W. Cash. It is to begin at 10 a.m. and be completed by 4 p.m.

Because there is always a lot of walking and few places to rest, Independent American Savings is providing a canopy and chairs on the vacant area by First Christian Church where visitors might rest.

School board sets meeting

Iowa Park school trustees are to meet Tuesday evening with architect Don Daugherty to discuss construction of additional classrooms at Kidwell Elementary.

Need for additional class space to comply with state-mandated teacher-pupil ratio of 1-22 has been discussed several months by the board, but this is the first time it has met with an architect.

The meeting is to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building.

Homecoming

The annual Iowa Park High School homecoming activities get underway this afternoon and will continue through Saturday evening.

Starting off the big weekend will be a pep rally at 5 p.m. today in Hawk Stadium, prior to the junior varsity and freshman games, to get things whipped up for Friday night's football game with Haskell. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m.

The annual homecoming parade, hopefully to feature the oldest IPHS graduate, Gale Lowrance, is to get underway at 4:30 p.m.

All entries are to be in place by 4 p.m. at the junior high. The route is to be through the city streets, starting around the 100 block of West Park, over to Bank and finishing up at Park West Shopping Center.

Using a theme of "Roaring Twenties," the parade will be led by a vehicle carrying Gale Lowrance, if his health allows his participation. Otherwise, his two sons, Gene of Chico and Linton of Iowa Park are to represent him.

The Friendly Door, more commonly known to oldtimers not now residing here as Tanner Hardware, will serve as headquarters for ex-students to gather Saturday.

Members of the Class of 1945 are planning a dinner Friday night, breakfast Saturday and visitation from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the Texas Electric Reddy Room, as well as attending the annual banquet Saturday.

As has been the format of past homecomings, classes with the present last-digit year will be honored. So this year, honor classes will be the 1979, 1988, 1995, 2002, 1999, etc.

Catering for the Ex-Student Association banquet will be the Iowa Park MuleSkinners, who are planning a menu of brisket, slaw, beans, and all the things that go with it.

During the business session, besides honoring the mentioned classes, new officers will be elected.

Hawks hosting Indians for homecoming tilt

"Offense, Offense. Wherefore art thou, Offense?"

Paraphrasing a writing by Shakespeare is exactly what the Hawks, their coaching staff and fans are asking, going into tomorrow night's homecoming game against the Haskell Indians.

Last week's 21-7 loss to Stamford dropped the Hawks to .500, with a 2-2 season record. This time last year, they were riding high with a 4-0 slate.

Assessing the Stamford game, Coach David Baugh simply pointed out "We turned the ball over too many times." He was recalling the fact the Hawks lost possession five times on fumbles and again on an interception.

"We played our worst game of the year," Baugh said. But added, "I'd rather lose this one than a district game."

Turnovers did prove the downfall of the Hawks, because the offense was able to gain 174 yards rushing and another 75 passing.

Baugh said his offense executed it plays better than the previous games. "The holes were there (for the backs). The line did a pretty good job of blocking," he commented.

But the problem of the offense was summed up by Baugh when he said, "It's just a lot of little things we're not doing that are hurting us."

Tomorrow's opponent could provide more of a test than some might expect. While the Indians are winless this season, 0-4, the teams that have beaten them are no slouches.

Haskell opened the season with a 33-0 drubbing at the hands of Munday, defending Class A state champion that has similar scores with all its opponents this year.

The Indians then lost to touted Electra, 39-2, which is about average for all this year's scores of the Tigers.

Two weeks ago, Seymour, coached by former Hawk assistant mentor James Ivey, outscored the Indians 47-18. And then last week, Quannah edged Haskell 7-0.

Though a small school, Haskell boasts of six players who range from 200 to 230 pounds. The team is composed mostly of sophomores and juniors who will, the coaching staff believes, improve as the season progresses.

The Hawks humiliated the Indians, 42-0, last year before Haskell's home crowd. That was the first meeting between the two schools since Iowa Park edged the Indians 14-13 in the 1970 state semifinals.

Drug-sniffing dog finds marijuana at high school

Marijuana was found on students twice during the past week by a drug-searching dog, according to reports filed at the Iowa Park Police Department.

The dog sniffed out marijuana on a student Friday afternoon and again Monday, both times shortly after the lunch period.

Both cases were reported to the police by assistant principal Don Iekles. The drug was turned over to police.

Police arrested Brent Ray Price, 24, at 1008 N. Fourth at 2:50 p.m.

Explosion kills two

An Iowa Park man and another whose parents live in Iowa Park died over the weekend from burns suffered Friday afternoon at the Central YMCA in Wichita Falls.

Mark Pettyjohn, YMCA building superintendent, died Sunday and Ralph McCann, a chemical salesman and resident of Iowa Park, died Saturday.

An investigation continues into the cause of the explosion that took place in a storage room. Both men reportedly were standing in a hallway near the room.

Both men reportedly received second degree burns, McCann over 60 percent of his body and Pettyjohn over 85 percent of his body.

Complete obituaries for both men are elsewhere in this issue.

Saturday, on a felony warrant from Richland Hills Police Department.

The department had been notified of the outstanding warrant Thursday, but did not locate Price until Saturday. The warrant was for "assault with a deadly weapon (knife)," and a $5,000 bond placed on him.

Price was turned over to the Wichita County Sheriff's Department.

Police received a report Thursday afternoon that a man, described as young and riding in an older model blue automobile, attempted to grab a third grade girl as she was waiting for her bus at Bradford Elementary. A vehicle matching that description was not found.

A flute valued at $250 was reported Tuesday as having been stolen from the high school. Walter King filed the report.

Police are talking with the county juvenile probation officer and charges are pending concerning an alleged fight involving three junior high girls Monday afternoon.

Detective Tommy Adams said two girls fought a third girl beginning near, but not on, the school campus.

Local taxes about middle among towns

Iowa Park is definitely not the most expensive place to live in the area, tax-wise, but neither is it the least expensive.

According to a study of city, school, county and in one case hospital taxes indicates Iowa Park is right in the middle of the five communities of Wichita County.

When the city tax for 1985-86 of .7582 is added to the 71-cent school tax and 24-cent county tax, Iowa

Parkans' local tax load is $1.7082. Electra is the highest at $1.841 and Burkburnett the lowest, $1.34. Wichita Falls is almost four cents higher than Iowa Park, $1.7434, and City View is next lowest, $1.5077.

Holiday residents this year will pay $1.4685.

Electra would be lower than Wichita Falls, had it not been for the 11.7-cent hospital tax.

Greenhouse, garden toured

The Iowa Park Garden Club members took a field trip Friday morning to the Bill Parker's greenhouse east of the city where he raises orchids. He has been raising the plants 23 years, and their beauty attest to his expertise in the field.

Mrs. Joe Kennedy and Mrs. Bill Sturgis took members on a tour of the garden. Mrs. Sturgis assured the group that even a beginner can grow orchids in the home. She recommended the phalaenopsis as the best specie for growing in the home and said that under the right conditions it should flower 11 months of the year.

Among the beautiful plants viewed was the cattleya orchid which is considered the queen of the orchids. Mrs. Sturgis said that it took about five years to bloom from the seed, but after the plant is mature it should bloom every year at about the same time. She said that even though orchids seem to cost a lot, one should remember that he is buying time and labor.

After the tour, refreshments were served in the greenhouse by Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Sturgis.

Preceding the tour, members met at Texas Electric Reddy Room for a brief business meeting conducted by Mrs. Charlie Lee. Mrs. Michael Hodson, chairman of the Whoop-T-Do activities, discussed the final plans for decorating a car for the homecoming parade, and organized a work schedule for members who will be working at the club's "Trash to Treasures" booth.

In other business, it was voted to place the Garden Club, Inc. emblem on the Chamber of Commerce signs which will be placed at two entrances of the city.

Seventeen members were present.

Bushfield, Seitz vows solemnized Saturday

Captain and Mrs. Thomas Edward Seitz, who were married Saturday evening at the First United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, are honeymooning in Colorado this week. They will live in Wichita Falls, when they return.

Mrs. Seitz is the former Audrey Denise Bushfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sefcik of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. George Bushfield of Dallas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Seitz of Phoenix, Ariz.

The candlelight setting for the wedding featured the flaming tapers in two branched-candelabra and candle arches in the altar area, and in candle trees that flanked the altar, each structure decorated with greenery and baby's breath. Large bouquets of ivory lilies accented with touches of mauve on either side of the altar completed the decorative pattern.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. Phillip McLarty, and the acolytes were John McLarty and Richard Niles.

The impressive music for the wedding was furnished by Casey Cantwell, organist, Gail King and Michael Maroney, violinists, Dr. Ron Hogue, cellist, Cynthia Compton, violist, Debra Barrow and Kenneth Carroll, vocalists.

The organist and string quartet music included "Canon in C" and "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring" for prelude numbers, "Psalm XIX" for the processional and "Toccata" for the recessional. The vocalists sang "In This Very Room" during the ceremony and "May the Lord Bless You and Keep You" at the close.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory taffeta gown, its beauty enhanced with a Chantilly lace bodice sparkling with iridescents and seed pearls featuring a dropped waist in both front and back. An illusion yoke bordered with lace reached to a high neckline with a lace collar, and the fitted sleeves extended in points over the wrists. The long full skirt terminated in a graceful ruffled hem ornamented with seed pearls.

Her tiered illusion veil was edged in seed pearls and cascaded to fingertip length from a lace headpiece. The bride's bouquet of ivory lilies, stephanotis, baby's breath glamorized with pearl ropes was a perfect complement to her gown and veil.

Mrs. Tom McNeely of San Antonio, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Dorothy McDonald of Los Angeles, Brynn Bristol and Nina Storm of Wichita Falls. They wore identical mauve satin tea length dresses styled with ruffled illusion bodices and full skirts. They carried free form bouquets consisting of ivory and mauve lilies, baby's breath and streamers to match.

Kimberly Harris of Phoenix, Ariz., niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a long mauve silk dress designed with a ruffled bodice trimmed with lace and ribbon. She carried flowers in an ivory lace basket that was used in her mother's wedding and made by the groom's mother.

Adam Wilson of Iowa Park, the ring bearer, and David Seitz of Phoenix, brother of the groom, the best man, wore dark blue suits. The groom, groomsmen and ushers wore full military dress.

Captains Robert Robertson of Blytheville, Ark., Bob Stocking of Calif., and Charles Adams of Lubbock were the groomsmen. The ushers, all from Wichita Falls, were Captains Jim Moulton, Wm. Bird, Rich Fullerton and Steve Seque.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State Univ. She is on the board of directors for First Step, Inc. and Red River Lyric Theatre. She is a loaned executive to the United Way campaign and a member of the directing staff at Backdoor Theatre. She is community relations and marketing director of Red River Hospital.

The groom was graduated from East High School at Phoenix and Arizona State Univ. He is in the Air Force and an instructor pilot for the Euro-NATO Joint Jet Pilot Training Program at SAFB.

The bride's parents hosted the wedding reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace accented with garlands of baby's breath and glistened with silver appointments. A branched candelabra formed the centerpiece and was flanked by three-point candelabra, each supporting ivory candles and mauve silk flowers. A silver punch service was at one table extremity, and the decor reached a peak of attractiveness in the four-tiered heart-shaped cake decorated with ivory silk flowers.

Mrs. Gunnar Jonsson and Mrs. Joseph Duff served refreshments during the reception.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Jerry Burke, Ted Buss, Charlie Simpson, Tom Cleary, Buzz Rodgers and Miss Sharon Shankle.

Mrs. George Bushfield Jr., presided at the white lace-covered guest table highlighted with a memory candle made by the groom's parents.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the home of the groom.

Other wedding guests from Phoenix were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Harris, Heide Schneider, Ed York, David Guarino and Scott Wilson. The family of Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Naughel of Wagoner, Okla. were other out-of-town guests.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

It's always a keen pleasure of mine to welcome former residents back to Iowa Park, especially those who attend our annual school homecoming.

I know you will all enjoy renewing acquaintances with your old school chums, as well as people you used to know who still live here.

But, please, don't comment that Iowa Park hasn't changed. At first glance, maybe it doesn't look much different, but take a good, hard look. We're changing, and I hope for the better.

Go by the old Burnett place, for instance, and see what is happening there. You won't be able to tour the inside part, but this is going to provide us with one of the best and most beautiful libraries of any community.

We've got several new businesses, like a couple of new feed stores, for instance. And we'll have another eating place in the near future, at Park West Shopping Center.

We've had some business ownership changes, too. A couple of ex-students are now full fledged members of our business community. I speak of Kenneth Via, now owner of Parkway, and Jerry Gholson, who bought R.W. Hill Insurance but still has Richard and Donald Hill working in the office.

A new church, Lakeview Church of God, is under construction on the east side of Gordon Lake. And another church, Cornerstone Pentecostal Church of God, is about to break ground on Smith Street.

We've got a new school superintendent, Glen Mitchell, and Richard Davis, the former Vo-Ag teacher, is now high school principal.

The city hall is now completely remodeled on the inside, with a modern drive-up window for utility payments. And the city council is planning to give the outside a new look in the near future.

And we've got a new mayor since last year, IPHS grad Tim Hunter.

With all this, Iowa Park is growing. The city limits on the north side of the expressway now extends all the way from Johnson Road to the old lake road, and another big chunk of land has just annexed into the city on North Johnson Road.

Like the old song says, "Hey, look us over!" We're proud of our community and we're delighted to have you home to share our pride.

Worth Quoting

Forget, for the moment, that the Saudi's are finally going to retaliate against other OPEC members and open up the valves for an additional million barrels of crude per day.

Forget also that the English and the Russians are busy kicking' spies out of each country right before the summit meeting, that for the first time we owe foreigners more than they owe us, that cotton and wheat are due for bumper crops but it's still a disaster because of the price, and that the little gal from Mississippi has been Miss America for five whole days and no one has uncovered any uncovered pictures of her. Forget all that heavy stuff 'cause we're dyin' to tell ya this story:

This patient was explaining why he was in the hospital.

He said his wife had brought a bunch of pot plants and hanging baskets into the house to keep them from freezing, and it happened that a little green snake had hidden himself in one of those plants, and it got carried inside.

When the house - and the snake-warmed up, it came slithering out of one of the plants and went under the sofa. The fellow's wife saw it and let out a great scream.

He happened to be taking a bath at the time, but he leaped out of the tub, and ran naked to see what his wife was screaming about.

His wife told him a snake was under the sofa. So, he got down on the floor to look for it, and here came his dog and cold-nosed him.

He thought it was the snake and fainted dead away.

His wife thought he'd had a heart attack and called an ambulance. The attendants rushed in and loaded him on the stretcher and started carrying him out.

About that time the snake came slithering from under the sofa, and the ambulance men saw it and dropped the stretcher and broke the fellow's leg, and that's why he was in the hospital.

Well with her husband in the hospital with a broken leg, and a snake under her couch, the wife went next door to enlist the aid of a neighbor who had the reputation of an outdoorsman, having camped out with the Cub Scouts last summer.

His wife was at the grocery store and he volunteered to corral the snake.

Armed with a rolled up newspaper, he took a few swishes under the couch and declared that the snake had vacated the premises.

"Thank goodness," declared the woman plopping down on the couch. As her hand dropped between the cushions, it brushed a small scaly skin, which she immediately realized was the snake.

Screaming, she fainted dead away on the couch as the snake slithered quickly back to the floor and underneath the couch.

Realizing that something needed to be done, the outdoorsman drew upon his meager knowledge of first aid and remembered a demonstration of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation he'd seen.

So, he pushed the woman's head back into the proper position and just as he started the first breath, in ran his wife, carrying a sackful of canned goods she'd had in her arms when she heard the scream.

Seeing her husband mouth-to-mouth with the neighbor woman on the couch, she immediately slammed the heavy sack of cans across the top of his head.

The crash, and scattering cans, brought the fainted woman up with a start.

When she saw the neighbor lying on the floor, and his wife bending over him, she was sure he was snake-bitten and ran to the kitchen for a bottle of medicinal whiskey which she started trying to pour down the poor fellow's throat.

His wife, beginning to regret hitting him with the sack, was subdued but did manage to wrestle the whiskey bottle away from the other woman, sloshing some on both of them in the process.

About that time, two policemen, summoned by a neighbor who had also heard the scream and crash, walked in.

After a sniff of the whiskey aroma from the man and both women, the officers listened politely as the two women, talking at the same time, explained about how a snake caused it all.

The policemen left with the ambulance that took the still unconscious husband and his sobbing wife away to the hospital, leaving the first woman with a very seared little green snake hidden far back under the couch.

JAMES ROBERTS
 Andrews County News

I was reading an article in Sept. 26 Iowa Park paper in which the TV Cable Co. was calling Satellite dish owners pirates. I would like to give my point of view on this matter.

First of all the air waves are public air waves, any signal I can intercept. But I would gladly pay any services I receive from CNN, ESPN, HBO, etc. if their rates are the same as Iowa Park TV Cable pays. For example CNN wants to charge me $25 a year. They charge TV Cable Co. around $2.25 a year per subscriber. ESPN wants to charge me $19.95 a year. They charge TV Cable Co. around $1.85 a year per subscriber.

I paid for my equipment just like the Cable Co. has paid. Why should I pay rates that are 8 to 10 times higher than those paid by cable operators.

In my opinion the Cable Co. wants a monopoly on satellite TV programming.

So I ask the question: Who's The Pirate?

Glen Brewer

Mr. Editor,

I am writing to try and make those concerned, aware of a common, growing problem - Disregard of Rules.

I attended a public function this past Saturday nite. The parking lot was not full. There was no shortage of space in which to park. It did look like rain however.

The No Parking zone in front of the entrances had been freshly painted and were very plainly marked.

My son arrived just before my husband & I & promptly parked in the no parking zone at which time he was asked by my husband to park his car in the proper spot, which he did. Also he pointed out to us there were already several others already parked in the area.

The custodian was standing on the walk and remarked that only last week there had been a call for an emergency vehicle & had needed to park in the area.

Following the function, as we were leaving, we observed the entire area marked No Parking was parked full and the president of the school board was parked there as well as his son.

My questions are 1. Had an emergency vehicle been needed how much time would have been lost asking people to move their cars?

2. How do we teach our young people to regard rules & regulations?

3. Does anyone enforce the rules?

Thank you

Dear Bob,

During the Friday night football game with Stamford, I was reminded once again that the Iowa Park Band continues to deliver quality performances to the fans who come to see them.

This Band program year after year consistently excels at whatever it attempts to accomplish. The programs at both the Jr. High and the High School appear to be growing and reaching new levels of excellence each year. Considering the fact that these kids are learning skills and appreciation for music they can conceivably use either in part or in whole for the rest of their lives. Mr. Miller and Mr. Hefti deserve a sound round of applause and solid backing from both the School System and the community.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Johnny Jones

This is one of the seasons of the year to capitalize on spices, and cinnamon is one of the most popular in America and several other countries. Webster defines spice as "any of various aromatic vegetable products used in cooking to season and to flavor foods." Cinnamon, sold in powder form, is probably the way that most cooks in America use it.

Jessalea (Mrs. Johnny) Jones' Cinnamon Twists recipe this week suggests how the rich velvety flavor of cinnamon gives it an important place among the world's seasonings. Some of the familiar Apple Pie, American Cinnamon Buns, Italian Vinegar, and more exotic dishes like South African milk soup, Chinese five-spice powder, and the fiery berbere seasoning which goes into or on every dish to which Ethiopia can supply it.

Many of the famous gourmets support the idea that cinnamon is a native of Ceylon, other sources differ, but that does not change its interesting history. About 2700 B.C., the Emperor Shen Nung made in a treaty the first known reference to cinnamon.

The Dutch East Indies Company grew rich in spices, and its most profitable one was cinnamon. The Dutch inaugurated the cultivation of cinnamon in the 18th century. The cinnamon gardens which they established are still proudly displayed to tourists. If they arrive by sea, they can smell the fragrance several miles before they make landfall.

Jessalea was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She has had rewarding work experiences and is presently employed as a machine operator at CertainTeed. She had previously worked as a dispatcher for the Wichita Falls Police Department, an office manager of Metro Photo, worked at Nortex Press, and owned and operated Mr. Rooter Plumbing five years.

Jessalea came back to live in Iowa Park when she and Johnny, who works for Cryovac, and their children B.J. Toft, seven years of age, and Cami Lisa Jones, one and a half years old, moved here several months ago.

She is a member of Pleasant Valley Baptist Church, a volunteer worker and homeroom mother coordinator for the second grade at Kidwell Elementary School. She is also coaching coordinator for the Iowa Park Alumni Athletic Association. She played with the Wichita Falls softball team 12 years that went to the state finals 10 of those years.

CINNAMON TWISTS

1/2 cup sugar
2 tsps. ground cinnamon
1 pkg. refrigerated biscuits (10 count)
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
2 T. chopped walnuts, if desired
Combine sugar and cinnamon. Roll biscuits, each into a 9-inch strip, bring ends together and seal. Dip in melted butter, then in cinnamon and sugar mixture. Twist once, place on greased baking sheet. Sprinkle with nuts. Bake at 450 degrees 10 minutes.

OVEN PORCUPINES

1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup uncooked regular rice
1/2 cup water
1/3 cup chopped onion
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. celery salt
1/3 tsp. garlic powder
1/8 tsp. pepper
1 can (15 oz.) tomato sauce
1 cup water
2 tsps. Worcestershire sauce
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix meat, rice, 1/2 cup water, the onion, salts, garlic powder and pepper. Shape mixture by rounded tablespoonful into balls. Place balls in 8x8x2 ungreased baking dish. Stir remaining ingredients together and Roll chicken in Aunt Jemima Pancake Mix; place in hot Crisco and brown lightly. Place browned chicken into electric skillet. Fill 3/4 full with water. Cook covered at 300 degrees 1-1/2 hours. Add water if needed. This makes delicious chicken and gravy. May be served over rice, if desired.

TATER TOT CASSEROLE

1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup onion
1 small pkg. frozen Tater Tots
1 can cream of chicken soup or 1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup grated cheese
Brown ground beef, meat and onions; drain. Mix in 1 can of desired soup. Place ground beef mixture in 2-quart casserole dish. Top with Tater Tots. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes or until Tater Tots are browned.

The following recipe is not something to eat, but it is one that makes for a happy home, Jessalea thinks, and is definitely her favorite.

Vehicles required two license plates

Some states require only that a vehicle have a rear license plate, but Texas law requires both front and rear plates.

The fine for not having both plates on your vehicle can range as high as $200, according to Department of Public Safety Maj. V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of Lubbock.

The DPS considers compliance with this law important, since it enables law enforcement officers to more easily identify your vehicle if they are attempting to locate you in case of emergency. Having both plates on a vehicle also will make it easier to locate if it has been stolen. Maj. Cawthon said.

If a person only has one plate, a new set of plates must be obtained from the local office of the county tax assessor-collector. The fee for a new set is $5.30. To get the new set of plates, the old single plate must be surrendered.

The first plastic ever invented was celluloid in 1868.

National defense topic of speaker here

Col. Wm. T. Crafton (Ret.), a former commander at Sheppard Air Force Base and presently an executive director of Midtown Now in Wichita Falls, gave a stirring address on "National Defense" for the Iowa Park Lioness Club Thursday evening at the first meeting of the new club year. He was introduced by C.L. Thompson.

He stated emphatically that the United States must maintain forces to insure freedom and reminded his audience that the Soviet Union's objective was to rule the world. He directed attention to five myths that the people of the United States have at the present time concerning the Soviet Union.

The myths were feeling: that Russia will not become the society that the U.S. is; that we are unnecessarily involved in world affairs; that the U.S. is the cause of the current arms race; that additional improvements in our forces are unnecessary; and the last myth which concerns the militarization of space.

Col. Crafton closed with a homily on freedom intended to make all Americans aware that their land is truly "the land of the free and the home of the brave" and to renew their pledge to keep it that way at any price.

The meeting was held in the Lions Club building and hosted by Mmes. G.O. Thurlo, W.E. Karstetter and D.O. James.

Mrs. Thurlo read "What Is Freedom?" for the devotion.

Members and guests gave their favorite symbols and signs of patriotism for roll call.

Mrs. D.O. James was in charge of business when Mrs. Robert Palmer was recognized as a new member. Work assignments for the club's booth at the Whoop-T-Do Oct. 5, where homemade cakes and pies will be sold, were made.

Personal colors are topic

Eight members and four guests attended the regular business meeting of the Epsilon Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Bud Mercer, with Mrs. Roy Johnson serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Howard McDowell presented Mrs. Johnson who gave the educational program on colors that each person would look good in as the seasons change. She also gave a color test and told the group if they were not sure about their clothes and make-up to ask a friend.

During the business, Mrs. Al Denton received her Pallas Athene award and Mrs. McDowell received her five-year service pin.

The discussion of the upcoming Whoop-T-Do King and Queen contest received major consideration. The contestants are to turn in their money to Mrs. Mercer by 9 p.m. today, and they will ride with last year's winners on the ESA float in the homecoming parade Friday afternoon.

This year's contestants are asked to meet at the Chamber of Commerce office Saturday between 11:30-11:45 a.m. to get ready for the crowning of the King and Queen at noon.

HAWK BACK DANNY FORMAN IS SWAMPED BY STAMFORD DEFENDERS AFTER GAIN

Hawks fumble away game to Stamford, 21-7

It's awful hard to win a football game if you don't outscore your opponent, and it's equally difficult to score if you don't have the ball.

That's what the Hawks found out here Friday night, when they turned the ball over to Stamford's Bulldogs six times and were outscored, 21-7 in a non-district game.

The visitors lit up the scoreboard first, on a spectacular 98-yard run by heralded speedster Timmy Delce. But the Hawks came right back to tie the score before the first quarter ended.

Not until Stamford scored its third touchdown late in the fourth period did it appear the Hawks were out of the game. But that last TD nailed the lid shut on Iowa Park's chances to pull the game out.

The Hawks turned over the ball five times on fumbles and once more on a pass interception. Because of the turnovers, Stamford held the ball considerably longer than did Iowa Park, getting off 58 defensive plays to only 44 by the Hawks.

After stalling on their first possession with the ball at Stamford's 48 yard line, punter Donnie Wilson put the 'Dogs backs to their own end zone at the two yard line.

On third down, and still on the two, Stamford caught the Hawks with a surprise wide pitchout to the right. Delce took the pitch five yards deep into the end zone, found the south sideline and sprinted the distance to score.

Iowa Park had anticipated Stamford to try an inside power play to get the ball away from its goal line, and was pinching toward the center in an effort to plug up the middle.

Scott Davis took the following kickoff and fumbled the ball on the return, setting up the Bulldogs at the Hawk 20. But four plays later, the Mean Green defense had held, turning over the ball to the offense at the 12. That's when the Hawks mounted their only sustained drive.

During the next 3:22, the Iowa Park drive, highlighted by a 15-yard run by Randy Boutwell, 12-yarder by Danny Forman, 16-yard pass from Ray Sefcik to Steve Allen and three penalties against Stamford, led to Stamford's end zone when Wilson plunged four yards over right guard with only three seconds remaining in the first period.

It appeared the Hawks were going to score again midway in the second quarter, when Allen caught a 29-yard pass from Sefcik that took the ball to the Bulldog 10 yard line.

Then Boutwell carried the ball on the next play to within six inches of the goal line. But the Hawks drew a 10-yard holding penalty on the play, and two downs later Sefcik's pass attempt into the end zone was intercepted.

Stamford missed a 32-yard field goal attempt as the final two seconds ticked off the clock to end the first half.

Taking the second half kickoff, the Hawks had advanced into Bulldog territory, primarily on a 35-yard run by Forman. But the junior running back coughed up the ball on an 11-yard run, giving the visitors possession on their own 38.

It took Stamford only five plays to score again, with the TD play coming on a 38-yard pass and run.

Late in the third period, the Hawks appeared to be on their way to tie the score, when Scott Weaver sprinted 35 yards to the Bulldog 18. But the play was nullified by a 10-yard holding penalty. Iowa Park was forced to punt away the ball on the last play of the third stanza.

On their next possession, and with still plenty of time to pull the game out of defeat, the Hawks lost possession near midfield when it appeared Weaver had gained 25 yards, but lost control of the ball when hit by a tackler.

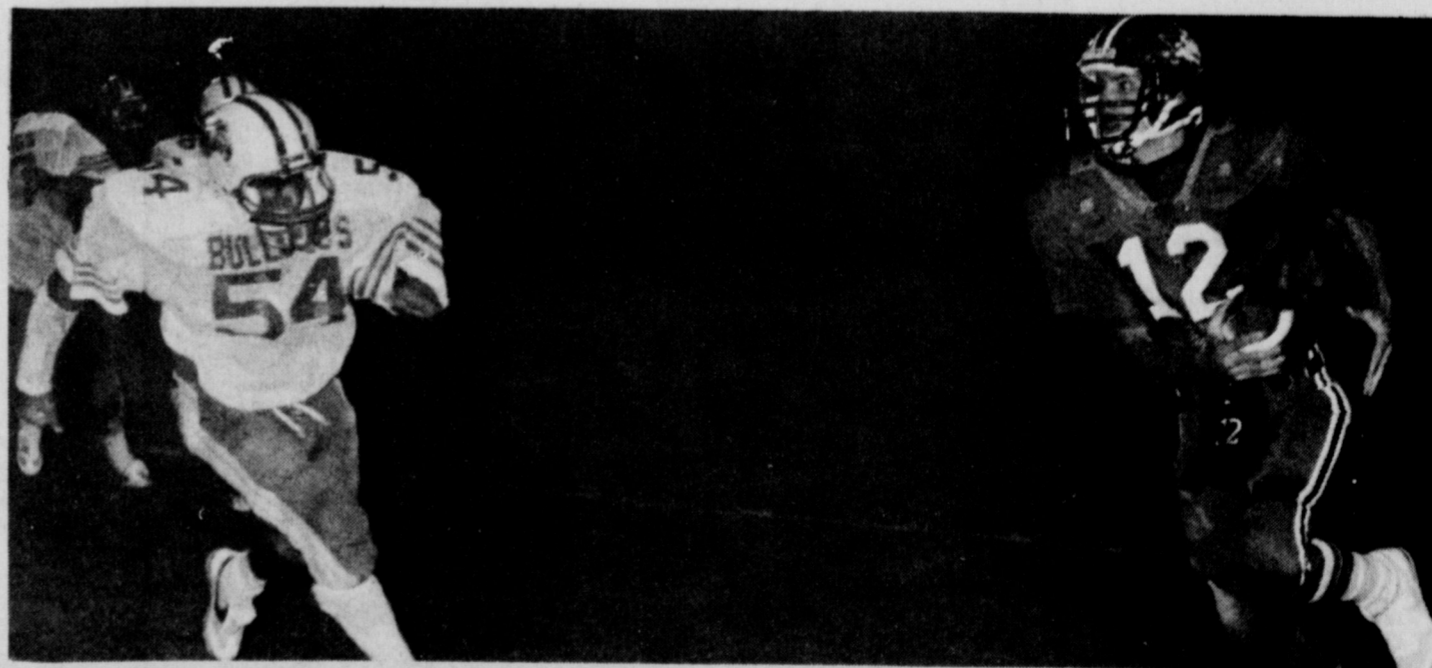

The Mean Green defense held the visitors on that possession, but after being forced to punt once more, Stamford drove 67 yards, primarily on a 38-yard pass play, to score once more. The final blow was on another pass, this time 10 yards.

Forman finished as Iowa Park's leading ground gainer, picking up 55 net yards on seven carries. Weaver had the ball 10 official times and gained 53 yards. Boutwell carried six times for 32 yards.

Sefcik connected on six of his 12 pass attempts. Other receivers besides Allen were Weaver, Donald Young and David Dietrichson.

Big Red wins 20-12

LES DOLBERRY HAULS IN 13-YARDER FROM PARKER

Holliday's Eagles utilized the running of backs Larry Krob, Tim O'Brien and Garner Mahan to compliment the dominating Stonewall Defense Friday night to overwhelm Seymour 20-12 in Eagle Stadium.

All three backs from the Big Red Stables contributed nicely to the offensive cause for Holliday, in avenging last year's loss to the Panthers with the district-opening win.

Krob led all rushers in the contest with 102 yards in 30 carries, while O'Brien had 55 yards on 17 totes, and Mahan 56 yards in one big carry. All three scored a touchdown in the game, Krob and O'Brien on one-yard runs, and Mahan on a 56-yard work of art.

"Going into the game (with Seymour), we felt like they were going to be a tough team to beat, and they were," Eagle head coach Don Lucy said. "Overall, I felt like we played pretty good. You take away two or three plays, and we played about as well as I feel we can."

The win gives the Big Red a 3-1 season record, and 1-0 District 9-AA slate going into tomorrow night's matchup against the top-ranked Class AA team in the state, Electra.

Seymour falls to 2-2, 0-1 in district, and plays Olney at home tomorrow.

THE GAME

Krob opened the scoring Friday with a one-yard plunge, capping a 64-yard drive, Holliday's first in the game. The run was set up by a 28-yard pass completion from quarterback Pat Parker to end Les Dolberry. Parker kicked the extra point to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead seven minutes into the first quarter.

Daniel Meador, playing one of his best games with the Stonewall Bunch, made one of his two fumble recoveries to set up the Eagles' second score. O'Brien broke into the end zone on a one-yard run to cap the 48-yard, 10-play drive in the second period, freezing the scoreboard at 14-0 into intermission with Parker's point after kick.

The Stonewall Bunch, meanwhile, made things next to impossible for the Panthers, holding the visitors to minus-three yards total offense through the first half.

Seymour's talented backs were stymied until midway into the third period, when Wayne Owens broke several tackles and rambled 74 yards for the Panther's initial score. The extra point kick was wide to the left, making it 14-6.

Three plays after Holliday received the kickoff, Mahan scored his second touchdown in as many weeks, on a wingback reverse covering 56 yards.

Parker's kick was wide left, making it 20-6 with just over five minutes left in the third quarter.

Two possessions later, Parker's punt attempt at the Eagle 20 was blocked by cornerback Corey Pierce. Pierce took the ball into the end zone for a Panther touchdown with just over two minutes left in the third period. Panther quarterback Jon Hrnecirik was stopped short of the goal line on the two-point conversion run, leaving the score at 20-12 for the rest of the contest.

Eighth Graders shine; Seventh Grade sputters

There was good news and bad news Tuesday evening when Iowa Park and City View teams played.

The good news was the Eighth Grade's 44-0 routing of the neighbors to the east.

But the bad news was a similar score, reversed: City View 30, Seventh Grade 0.

The Eighth Grade's score could have been even worse, had two touchdowns not been called back on infractions. One was a 40-yard aerial from Bruce Palmer to Danny Tatom. The other was a 45-yard sprint by James Holt.

Eighth Grade scoring went as follows:

Marc Cruz, two yards, set up by a 50-yarder by Chad Patterson.

Jimmy Duggins pass to Bryan Pyle, 72 yards; Patterson ran two-point conversion.

Jimmy Nicholson, 45 yards; Holt ran PAT.

Duggins, 14 yard run. Patterson PAT.

Pyle, 35-yard pass interception. Cruz, 70-yard punt return; Dennis Blevins ran PAT.

Defensively, three City View pass attempts were intercepted by Chris Abila, Cruz and Palmer.

The teams are to host Wichita Falls Tuesday, with the first game starting at 4 p.m.

Auction set next month for stallion service

By DAVID FINLEY
County Agent

Have you ever been to a stallion service auction? Some may say, "What's that?" This is when local stallion owners auction off a breeding to one of their top sires. The breeding is awarded to the highest bidder, and the funds raised will go to two sources here in the county.

Carol Mione and members of the Wichita County Extension Horse Committee are sponsoring the auction to be held Nov. 17. The money raised will be used to first, provide funding for programs in 1986 and secondly, for a breeders weaning futurity in the fall of 1987.

These breeders that own a stallion and wish to donate a breeding for the auction are urged to contact either Carol Mione at (817) 692-7917 or Paula Phillips at (817) 855-3854.

A catalogue will be printed containing information on each of the subscribed stallions. These will be circulated prior to the auction. In order to insure that the stallions are included in the catalogue, contact Carol or Paula before Oct. 12.

The Annual Rolling Plains Economic Program meeting will be held Friday in Vernon. This year's meeting will begin with registration at 9:30 a.m. in the Wilbarger County Auditorium, 2100 Yamprika Street. The fee for the day long conference is $7.50 and this includes lunch.

"Facing Tomorrow" will be explored during the luncheon address by Sister Thomas More Bertels, a Catholic nun from Maintowoc, Wisconsin. Sister Thomas More has earned national respect as a critic of farm issues and spokesperson for farm families.

Those present will have the opportunity to attend two of three concurrent sessions. One session will feature lawyer Jay Cantrell of Wichita Falls. He will discuss "Facing Bankruptcy Courts - Who Wins." Dr. Wayne Hayenga, Extension Economist for Management from Texas A&M Univ., will address "Facing Oil and Gas Lease Options." Finally, Laura Tidwell will talk about "Facing Yourself - Health and Fitness."

Several exhibits will be on display during the day. Jeanne Tucker with Bodimetric Health Services will have a blood pressure screening booth. Dr. John McNeil, Extension Beef Cattle Specialist from Amarillo, will have a stocker cattle computer analysis.

I have seen this analysis before, and it is excellent. This would be a good opportunity for local stocker cattle producers to analyze their own situations at little cost.

Jim Schur of Seymour is Chairman of the 1985 R-PEP Executive Committee. He is joined by Ken Lane of Haskell as Vice-Chairman and Burt Dockery of Vernon, Secretary. Ed Garnett and Elaine Houston, District Extension Directors from Vernon, are coordinators for the event.

Residents wishing to attend this year's sessions should contact their local County Extension Agent for registration information. This program is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to promote economic growth and development in a 30-county area.

FUN RUN NOV. 23

In an effort to promote community-wide physical fitness, the City of Wichita Falls Parks and Recreation Department and Wichita Falls Coca Cola will join efforts once again in sponsoring the Fifth Annual Wichita Falls Fun Run. The event is scheduled for Saturday, November 23. This year's Fun Run will have two additional distances for their running pleasure. The original 10 Kilometers (6.2 miles) will still be offered as well as a 5 Kilometer (3.1 mile) and a 1 mile course for those wanting to run a shorter distance. Participants may either run, walk, or a combination of both. There will be a $5.00 entry fee to defray expenses and the first 400 entries will get a free Fun Run T-shirt compliments of Coca Cola.
