Police assist county in arresting 2 here

Iowa Park police Thursday morning assisted Wichita County deputies in arresting two men here.

Police joined four units of county officers in converging on 211 W. Emerald at 11 a.m., where the two suspects were found.

Arrested were Cecil Hugh Watson, 29, and Allen Duhon, 34. Neither man resisted arrest, but one complained of illness and fire department emergency medical technicians and an ambulance were called to the scene.

Bands to march in UIL contest

The Iowa Park Junior High and High School bands will competing Saturday in the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest at Memorial Stadium in Wichita Falls.

The junior high band will march at 9:30 a.m. with the high school band to compete at 10:06.

With a new schedule this year, all junior high bands and all AAA and larger school bands will march in the morning.

Watson was wanted on a felony warrant of possession of amphetamines and Duhon on three counts of bond forfeiture and attorney off bond. Both were transported to county jail.

The day before, police arrested another man here on a county warrant for theft over $200.

Ricky L. King, 27, was released to a county deputy after the arrest.

Cases of theft and criminal mischief were reported in the same neighborhood in the west part of town Sunday.

Dana Roland said someone poured sugar in the gas tank of her automobile while parked at 800 Park Plaza.

Two stereo speakers were reportedly stolen from a pickup owned by Kevin Rowe, 1323 Edgehill.

City officers arrested Emery Cleophas Roosa II, 26, at 11:29 p.m. Tuesday in the 1000 block of East Ruby, on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was released to a Department of Public Safety trooper.

City, school meetings scheduled next week

Iowa Park city aldermen plan a lengthy work session to review the code of ordinances and changes in personnel will be considered by school trustees, when the two bodies meet next week.

The city meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers and board members will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

Aldermen plan to review ordinances on the books for revision or deletion with the city attorney.

Bids to purchase a one-ton truck for the water department and a new police car will be considered. A third bid, for a four-wheel vehicle, likely will be rejected, according to James Barrington, city administrator.

Aldermen will be asked to consider advertising for a new group medical insurance policy, or revise the one recently approved for personnel.

A request to authorize placing of a water fountain at Burnett Memorial Library will be proposed by the Friends of the Library.

Also to be proposed is permission to hold a boat race on Lake Iowa Park in June of 1987.

Other topics on Monday's agenda are consideration to authorize final payment to Scales Construction on the Johnson Road project, and taking another look at a revised drawing of an official logo for the city.

Accepting of resignations and employing new personnel are on the school board's agenda, though no names or positions are listed.

Trustees will be presented an amended policy for consideration which would include illness in the immediate family as authorized days off for cafeteria, custodial and maintenance personnel.

Action will also be asked on a request of a City View School District's application to transfer here.

Tax collector Allen Shewmake is to report on certification of the 1986 tax rolls, give a collection report and ask board's approval of the annual tax report for the City of Iowa Park.

Trustees are also to set the extra curricular transportation cost figure, and hear a report from the recent state convention of school boards and administrators.

Hawks to open district play Friday at Decatur

The Hawks will initiate their quest for the Dist. 6-AAA title Friday at Decatur, and the coaching staff has reminded the players to not take the Eagles lightly.

In fact, they have only to recall the 1984 season to put emphasis on tomorrow's game.

Two years ago, the Hawks were undefeated through six games when they met the Eagles, and lost 14-7 in a driving rain.

That loss, coupled with another later in the season, knocked Iowa Park out of the playoffs in their first year after being reclassified from the 4-A division.

"Decatur may be the best 3-A team in the state with a season record of 0-4-1," wrote the sports reporter of the Wise County Messenger.

The Eagles lost their opener to one of the top Class AA teams in the state, Boyd, 14-8. Boyd has since built a 4-1 season record.

In their second game, they tied Olney, 0-0, and the Cubs are 4-0-1 this season. Olney has also beaten two other Dist. 6-AAA teams, 28-7 over Jacksboro and 34-0 over Bowie.

Springtown, now 5-0, had to come from behind to defeat the Eagles 28-17. Three fumbles deep in Eagle territory provided the loss.

Two weeks ago, Decatur was edged 14-7 by South Lake Carroll, the same club that blasted Bridgeport 28-6 earlier.

Last week, a good Graham team edged the Eagles by a narrow, 16-10 margin. The Steers trailed 7-0 early in that game, and captured an Eagle fumble with less than three minutes in the game to nail down the win.

The Eagles are led both offensively and defensively by returning All-District performer Lance Aldridge, a 192-pounder who is their leading ball carrier and doubles as a safety.

Decatur's basic offense is the wishbone. The scouting report indicates split end Chris Cain is an outstanding receiver; Bryan Guinn is used on both reverses and passes when he is at split end, and fullback Clint Carter, a 151-pounder, is a strong runner.

Physically, the Hawks should be at full strength for the district opener.

Linebacker and offensive guard Dennis Phillips has recovered from a severe ankle sprain three weeks ago, though he was used in the last two games to snap the ball for punts and extra points.

Defensive end and reserve fullback Jim Cummings was sidelined in civilian clothes Friday night with an illness, but has been working out this week.

Chad Fielding, injured when clipped during Friday's game with Vernon, is also expected to be back on the field tomorrow.

Fielding required assistance to walk off the field, but was later found to have only badly bruised ribs.

The Hawks, sporting a 3-1-1 record, showed their defensive power Friday by recording their third shut-out of the season, over Vernon. The other blanks were against Seymour, 7-0, and Graham, 14-0.

Iowa Park's only loss was in the season opener, when Burkburnett posted a 14-6 win over the Hawks. The tie was a 14-14 standoff to Springtown.

Coach David Baugh went with senior quarterback Scott Davis as his starter last week, and moved Brad Huff to split receiver.

Prior to the Vernon game, Davis had been used primarily as a fourth quarter field general, designed to take advantage of a tired defense with a fresh offensive backfield.

Fullback Danny Forman continues to be the workhorse and leading ground-gainer for the Hawks. He has carried the ball 96 times thus far for 527 yards, a 5.5-yard average.

UW pledges exceed goal

Though solicitation for donations to the United Way fund continues here, Iowa Park has already exceeded its goal, according to Robert Palmer, local drive chairman.

Palmer reported the goal of $47,100 has been exceeded by $139, and more is expected to be received.

Pledges in the five categories include: Major Firms, $44,302; Special Gifts, $437; Public Employees, $1,150; Professionals, $100, and Metro, $1,250.

Last year's local goal was $45,000.

Owens yard is selected

The Yard of Mr. and Mrs. James Owens at 1010 N. Jackson was selected by the Iowa Park Garden Club as the Yard of the Month for October. It will be one of the yards considered for the Yard of the Year.

Rain measures 1.81

Iowa Park added another 1.81 to its year's rainfall total during the past week.

Virgil Woodfin reported measuring .71 Thursday, .08 Friday and another .30 Monday.

Rickman, Whitaker wed in ceremony Friday

Miss Kelly Jo Rickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rickman, and James Bruce Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitaker, exchanged wedding vows Friday evening in the reception room at Tom Burnett Memorial Library. Richard W. Cranford of Electra, Justice of Peace, a close friend of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The decorations in the nuptial space consisted of a brass arch, double candelabra and brass columns, all generously entwined with dogwood.

The taped wedding music featured a medley of love songs and the traditional marches.

The bride's father presented her in marriage. She wore a white organza gown fashioned with off-the-shoulder neckline, petal sleeves accented with insets of lace flowers, tight bodice and a wide hemline flounce that formed a short train.

She wore a bandeau of white silk flowers and pearls to secure her two-tiered veil, the second tier extending to fingertip length. She carried a colonial bouquet of white silk roses and lilies of the valley accented with sparkling pearls and white cascading silk ribbons.

Miss Laura Perry, the maid of honor, and Miss Dottie Perry, the bridesmaid, wore identical pink taffeta dresses defined with off-the-shoulder necklines. Their identical bouquets were formed with three long-stemmed pink roses and baby's breath entwined with matching ribbon.

Brandi Denise Rickman of Angleton, niece of the bride, the flower girl, wore a pink tea length silk organza dress.

Shawn Smith, the ring bearer, was dressed in a grey tuxedo with pink cummerbund, tie and wore a pink carnation boutonniere, his attire matching that of the groom's attendants and ushers, who wore pink rosebud boutonnieres.

The groom wore a grey tuxedo with tails, white shirt, grey cummerbund and tie, and his boutonniere was a white rosebud accented with pearls. He was attended by Todd Duncan, the best man, and Bobby Earl Gilbert, the groomsmen. Craig Rickman and Kevin Rickman of Angleton were the ushers.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore corsages of pink rosebuds and white carnations to complement their dresses, and grandmothers of the couple wore pink rosebud corsages.

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception which was also held at the library.

Miss Tina Nobel presided at the guest book placed on a small round table covered with white lace over

MRS. JAMES BRUCE WHITAKER

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal barbecue dinner at their home Thursday evening where a western theme governed decorations. The food table was covered with a red and white checked cloth and placed in white. In addition to the book and plume pen, it held a glass basket filled with rice bags.

The "S" shaped refreshment table was draped with a full length white lace cloth. It was appointed with a five-point hurricane globe candelabrum, silver punch bowl and cake encircled with garlands of dogwood.

True to form, the cake was a delightful surprise that blended superbly with the other appointments. The white delicacy of three tiers was decorated with deep scallop and shell sculpting and cascades of pink roses with pale green leaves. Tall Grecian pillars divided two of the tiers to add height to the cake and to enhance its beauty with the top of one layer completely covered with the frosting roses. The top ornament completed the picture with a bride and groom standing in a wreath of pink and white silk flowers banked with pink lace and net ruffles.

Miss Judy Perry presided at the refreshment table, and the houseparty members were Misses Reba Sanders, Dorothy Hix and Shelly Rickman.

a setting featuring saddles, wagon wheels, cow skulls, wooden butcher block, guns, rod and reel, covered wagons and pheasants. Back of the table a lattice board held pictures of the betrothed couple in kindergarten, fourth grade and high school.

Following a trip to Ruidosa, N.M., the couple will live in Weatherford. They were graduated from Iowa Park High School and he is working at the Thrifty Stores as a butcher in Willow.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Laura Sanders of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Rickman of Memphis, grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Verda Whitaker Ogle of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Burris of Bowie, grandparents of the groom.

Other out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Bobby Booth of Memphis, Ray Walker and Steven Walker of Conroe.

Study Club program on volunteer work

The 23 Study Club started activities for the year at a brunch held Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. China B. Smith, with Mrs. C.E. Birk the co-hostess.

The serving table was covered with a beautiful cloth and held a variety of delicious foods including quiche, link sausage, cookies, coffee cake, and a fruit plate of kiwi, canteloupe, strawberries, dates and bananas.

The quartet tables carried out a Sesquicentennial theme in the burlap cloths, napkins and votive candles. The napkins used to serve the fruit juice as members arrived were accented with "Eat, drink and be quiet."

Mrs. Sam Hill, vice president, served as program chairman, led the pledge of allegiance and Club Collect.

The meeting was highlighted with the address of Mrs. Joe Singer, president. She used "Creating Tomorrow's Heirlooms through Community Involvement" for her topic to tie in with the club's program theme for the year, "Community Involvement-One Step Beyond."

She emphasized the importance of implementing volunteer programs that strengthen and improve the community in which members live. She stated that "Unity in Diversity," the motto of GFWC was chosen in 1889 at the first gathering of club women and has been the same since 1889.

"The motto exemplifies the diverse interests and methods GFWC members have for implementing programs and projects to meet the needs of their communities, states and foreign lands," she said.

Mrs. Singer then challenged club members to recommit themselves to volunteer services in working to improve and enrich the lives of others during 1986-88.

She gave incentives for volunteer service by mentioning that during 1984-85 GFWC members donated more than 54 million hours and over one hundred and eight, million dollars to volunteer projects. She also listed some of the outstanding accomplishments of TFWC during the past 89 years where volunteer efforts played a major part, and discussed the Stop Elder Abuse, a project of the present state president.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Traffic problems around the two elementary schools of Iowa Park are both real and serious.

And 90 percent of the problems are caused by unthinking parents.

Kidwell Elementary Principal Ron Woods appeared before the city council last week in an effort to find some solution.

To my thinking, contact with the parents of the students taking their children to school would get more results than putting up no-parking signs, changing a street to one-way traffic and the other suggestions.

I'm not a regular at the school each morning, but I'm there often enough to recognize the primary problems.

Parents are taking their children to the school, parking, and either waiting with the children for the bell or sitting there in their car and watching the youngster until school starts.

This parking is primarily taking all the available parking spots on Third Street in front of the school.

So those who get there after the early arrivals are forced to get into a one-lane circle of the parking lot to let their children out on the side of the building.

That side-building drop off is a major problem, because people want to take the children to the far east end before letting the children out, instead of four or five cars unloading all at once. It's extremely slow.

And then you have those who are late for work, or impatient, and they make a double line out of it. This is real smart, because the children have to walk between the cars nearest the building to get on the sidewalk.

On that parking situation along Third Street, I've even noticed parents who have parked their vehicles standing on the sidewalk, without their children, visiting while other try to find a place to unload.

And then, always in the early part of the year, we have those parents who can't read any better than their first grader, who use the circle drive for delivery. That's for school buses only, folks, and there's a sign at the entrance telling you.

Compounding the Third Street parking situation are those who are headed north, see a parking place on the west side, and just pull over to take it.

In this situation, the driver must cut across traffic to get to the curb, and again to get away from it. And while they're looking for cars both directions, it would be difficult to see a child crossing the street from a properly-parked car on the east side.

Oh, it's also true that parking against traffic, facing north in a south bound area, is against the law.

And speaking of driving against the law, we have parents who, once they've let their little darlings out at school decide they need to hurry, and fail to observe the 20 mph limit in the school zone.

May 1 mention, Fourth Street is also a school zone. It appears not many people realize this. Or care.

In a lot of cases, those traveling so fast appear to be late getting away from home and wanting to beat the tardy bell, and then trying to get to work on time.

If I sound a little sarcastic, it's because so many people are so thoughtless.

Just a little bit of thinking and cooperation will virtually eliminate the problems around Kidwell and Bradford schools.

Whoops, we goofed!

Names of several winners in the Sesquicentennial portion of the Whoop-T-Do were inadvertently omitted from last week's story.

They include:
 Costume contest - Man, Larry Palmer, first, Robert Palmer, second; Woman, Carol Hayslip, first, Joni Whitis, second, Faye Woodfin, third; Boy, Billy Whitis, first, Tommy Brillhart, second; Girl, Mindy Vanek, first, Hope Gilmore, second, and Becky Petty, third.

Baked Goods - Adult Cakes, Debbie Gilmore, first; Adult Pies, Betty Hodges, first and second; Youth Cakes, Katie Yow, first, Leslie Yow, second, Mandie Yow, third, and Hope Gilmore, fourth.

Beard Judging - Larry Ashford, first.

The Leader regrets the oversight.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter is a response to Baylor County News publisher Earl Gwinn's column)

Dear Mr. Gwinn,

We are the band directors at Iowa Park High School. Originally, we had not planned to write this letter, but due to continuous events, such as anonymous letters, we saw a need to correct some misleading information about the Seymour-Iowa Park half time activities.

First, to the people who wrote anonymous letters, we know that you do not represent the true spirit of Seymour, or any other community if you do not have the courtesy or courage to sign your letters. So, we are forced to ignore the comments in your letters and realize there are people who believe everything they read.

Secondly, it is erroneous to report that our band members made inappropriate comments to members of the Panther Band. After reading the accusations in your paper, we called Mr. Driscoll, director of the Panther Band, on two separate occasions. In both conversations, Mr. Driscoll reassured us that nothing had been said by our band students to his band students. So, after careful questioning of our own students and the telephone conversations with Mr. Driscoll, we firmly believe that our band students behaved in a proper manner.

Yes, it is true that a few of our so-called fans (?) acted in an unexcusable manner. This was also confirmed by Mr. Driscoll. To the extent that we can, we apologize to Seymour for the actions of those few people. However, similar to the way we feel about the anonymous letter writers, we do not consider these people to be true representatives of the Iowa Park community or schools. It is sad that such a small group has given the community and schools of Iowa Park a black-eye. In any case, if our administrators or teachers had been aware of the situation, it would have been stopped immediately. Even now, we are trying to prevent a reoccurrence of such behavior in the future. Yes, Mr. Gwinn, this was unfair to the Seymour Band. Our own band has sent a personal apology to the Panther Band and Mr. Driscoll for the actions of these people. We only hope that they accept our sincerest regrets.

Finally, we need to address the "scattered like wild-fire" comment. If you had watched closely, you would have noticed our band split in half to get out of the way as quickly as possible, so the Panther Band could line up on the side line. No, we did not march away. It is our belief that we can move our students more quickly in this fashion and save precious seconds for the home band's performance. We have done this for several years and will continue to do so. As a visiting band, we never want to be the reason the home football team receives a penalty due to a lengthy half time. You also did not notice that after the Panther Band lined up on the sidelines, our two halves became a whole again on the dirt track. It was there on the track that the Hawk Band stood quietly and courteously watching the entire performance of the Panther Band. Then, and only then, did our band return to the stands for their third quarter break.

We can only hope that this letter has presented a more complete picture of the Seymour-Iowa Park half time activities. We do want the people of Seymour to know that we expect our band students to behave in a manner that is complimentary towards the community and schools of Iowa Park. If such behavior is not forth coming, then we deal with them in an appropriate manner. While everyone may not agree with everything we've written, we want everyone to know there is another side to the story. So, please Mr. Gwinn, try to be a little more factual in the reporting of future events to your readers. Believe us, inaccurate information in a newspaper can be very damaging. By the way, we felt the performance of the Panther Band that night was an outstanding musical and marching performance, and we wish them the best of luck at contest.

Respectfully yours,
 Greg Miller - Ed Hefli

UNIDENTIFIED HAWK WIPES OUT POWER SWEEP WHILE SUPPORT APPROACHES

Hawks shut out Vernon

Iowa Park's Hawks posted their third shutout of the season Friday night, and shut out the Vernon Lions by the unusual score of 5-0.

All five of the points were chalked up within a six-second period on the scoreboard clock, during the third quarter.

Junior kicker Toby Brown booted a 40-yard field goal with 2:10 remaining in the period. Brown had missed two attempts the previous week against Springtown, but the soccer-style kicker's attempt split the uprights despite the damp turf, which makes the footing difficult for his style.

Following the lighting of the scoreboard, Robert Adams boomed a kickoff deep into the Lion territory. Lion back Greg Weaver was standing on his five-year line and attempted to field the ball as it sailed over his head.

The ball went through Weaver's hands, and died inside the one-yard line. Weaver scrambled to pick it up, and took a step into the end zone where he touched his knee for a touchback. But as his knee hit the grass, he realized his mistake and he attempted to run. However, the officials were blowing their whistles and signaling a two-point safety for the Hawks.

Vernon entered the game with a 3-1 record, and appeared to be well on the way to a fourth victory as the Lions completely dominated the first quarter.

During that period, Iowa Park's offensive unit ran only one play. Vernon had killed a punt on the Hawk one-yard line, and Danny Forman bulled his way to the two.

Scott Weaver got the Hawks out of the hole, however, with a tremendous punt.

Following Forman's run, Weaver and Forman lined up behind quarterback Scott Davis as if they were going to run again. But a quick kick had been called.

The ball was supposed to be snapped between Davis' legs. It made it through, but touched him and dribbled the rest of the distance to Weaver.

The senior back picked up the ball, took one step to his right and kicked the ball, which went 62 yards to the Lion 36. Most of the distance the ball was in the air, and very little was roll.

Vernon missed a 35-yard field goal attempt on the fourth play of the second quarter. The rest of the quarter and through the third period, the Hawks dominated the game as did the Lions in the first.

Iowa Park picked up three first downs, on runs of 21 and 22 yards by Forman and a 20-yarder by Joel Galloway. Adams attempted a 37-yard field goal after the Hawks stalled on a drive that took them to the Lion 17 and drew a five-yard penalty.

The visitors missed an opportunity to score in the last minute of the first half when they covered a fumble by Forman on the Hawk 34.

A big part of holding off the Lions was credited to reserve defensive end Lance Farris. On the first two plays, he sacked the quarterback for a five-yard loss, and on the next play deflected a pass.

On the third play, Vernon picked yardage to the Hawk nine and there, with six seconds remaining on the clock, quarterback Dan Buesing mishandled the snap and Charlie Stamm covered the ball on the 11.

Taking the kickoff for the second half, the Hawks marched all the way to the Lion 18 with a drive that featured a 19-yard pass from Davis to quarterback-receiver Brad Huff.

The drive stalled, but Vernon was able to gain only two yards in three plays and was forced to punt. The punter muffed the snap and barely got the ball away, going only to the Lion 39.

Forman then carried six consecutive times, to the 24. And it was then Brown was called on to kick his field goal.

Midway in the fourth period, Vernon again appeared to be in scoring position. A 28-yard run was stopped by Jeff Huff at the Iowa Park four yard line, but a penalty flag was dropped back at the 14, where Chad Fielding had been clipped.

Even with the 15-yard penalty from the point of infraction, Vernon still had a first down at the 30.

But defensive end Wayne Oltman tackled a screen pass receiver for a four-yard loss, then made a tackle on the next play to set the Lions back another yard. Buesing's pass attempt on the next play fell incomplete.

Facing a fourth down and needing 15 yards, with 3:20 remaining in the game, Buesing tried a desperation pass into the end zone, but David Meissner jumped in front of the receiver and intercepted the ball to kill the drive.

Weaver again punted the ball out of Hawk territory when the Mean Green's drive to control the ball stalled.

From their own 21 yard line and with 45 seconds remaining in the game, the Lions completed three passes, 12, nine and 15 yards, but time ran out and the Hawks had their second consecutive win over the Lions.

Forman finished the night with 95 yards on 20 carries. Galloway had 19 and Weaver 15.

Brenda England

The "Vegetable Kingdom" is worth exploring, it offers minerals and vitamins galore, beauty and color. Vegetables have family trees that go back to the dawn of history. They add a bright note to our meals, for instance the gold of carrots, refreshing green of beans and peas, and the rich reds of beets and tomatoes.

The Copper Penny Carrots, one of Brenda England's recipes this week, sounds like it would give its best in nutrients, color and flavor.

In exploring the vegetable kingdom, we learn that edible roots must have been one of the very first foods of man. It has been said that it is easy to imagine prehistoric man, even before he learned to fish grubbing up roots from the ground, one of which may have been the carrot.

A native of Afghanistan, the carrot was already being cultivated in the Mediterranean region long before the Christian era. Greek writers mention it as early as 500 B.C. In more recent times, according to Encyclopedia Britannica, carrots were cultivated in Germany, France and China by the thirteenth century; and by 1600 were grown in fields and gardens of England.

There were no wild carrots in the New World before the English brought in the seeds of the cultivated plant. Today the wild carrot is a common roadside weed. Waverly Root says that it is known as Queen Anne's lace, a name which should date from the early 18th century since Queen Anne refers to Queen Anne of England.

Carrots are eaten raw, boiled and buttered, used in soups, puddings, cakes, bread and hors d'oeuvres.

HIGHLAND CEMETERY ASSOCIATION
 IOWA PARK, TEXAS

The ultimate fact of life is Death. No one wants to think about it, talk about it, or plan for it. But refusal to do so only makes it harder on the survivors when it happens.

Regardless of age, everyone needs to plan for physical death. We understand the importance of insurance to cover costs, and to take care of loved ones. But, how many people write down their wishes concerning the actual funeral?

If it's important to you to have a certain kind of funeral, or in a certain place, leave instructions while you think you will live forever. If you want a bronze casket, or a vault, make provisions for them. But, if you want a "pine box" funeral, then take the decision away from your survivors, and make it easier on them.

No matter how well you plan in advance, the family will still have to take care of a lot of details. They will be in a state of shock. One thing they should NOT have to do is pick out a burial site.

It is so easy to "shop" for a family plot in the cemetery when there is no need for it; and so hard, when it is done in grief. Please, if you haven't purchased your family plot, do it, NOW.

Exercise VS Cancer

The risk of cancer of the breast and reproductive organs is less for women who exercise regularly during their college years and beyond, according to a study conducted at the Harvard University School of Public Health.

The study showed that women who did not exercise regularly in college were nearly twice as likely to develop breast cancer and 2.5 times as likely to get cancer of the uterus, ovary, cervix or vagina.

The study also found that women who were athletic in college continued to exercise later in life. The research encompassed 5,400 women, aged 21-80.

4-H CLUB NEWS

PROJECT SHOW TODAY

The Wichita Falls Project Show will be held today, starting at 6 p.m., at Bridwell-Rider Ag Farm on Old Lake Road.

It is sponsored by the Wichita Falls Lions Club in conjunction with the Wichita County Fair.

4-H and FFA youth will be exhibiting animal projects which will be shown in March at the county livestock show.

THIS IS 4-H WEEK

Wichita County 4-H members will have a lot of special programs and activities this week.

Some of the planned activities include a 4-H booth at the County Fair.

Wichita County boasts over 200 members who are among more than 4.3-million young people across the country who will participate in the week-long celebration using the theme, "4-H For Youth, For America."

"In celebrating National 4-H Week, we recognize that 4-H is truly a people development program," says Donnie Peters, county Extension Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H.

"4-H helps young people develop their strengths and weaknesses. It exposes them to activities in a variety of career fields. And, most importantly, 4-H'ers learn and have fun doing it. And families can add to the fun by learning and growing together," Peters added.

Some 70 adult volunteer leaders work with boys and girls in Wichita County through eight different 4-H Clubs.

The Eyes Of Texans

The Invisible Pedestrian

Two recent tragedies, that resulted in the death of two people in the area who were walking along the side of a road, point out the need for pedestrians and drivers alike to be aware of the "invisibility factor" for persons who either walk along the side of a road or try to cross a road or street at nighttime or twilight time.

The combination of darkness, headlight glare and dark clothing can make a pedestrian very difficult for a driver to see even though the walker thinks he can be seen clearly when bathed in the glare of a car's headlights.

Another factor is the "selective suppression" of the brain. That is, the brain will ignore things it is not "programmed" to watch out for.

That is why bicycle riders sometimes get hit because the driver literally didn't see the cyclist because the brain was programmed to watch out for 4-wheel vehicles but not 2-wheel bicycles.

The best thing a person can do who walks or jogs at night is to wear reflective clothing which will give the driver a greater chance to notice the pedestrian. And finally, a cyclist or walker should never assume that the driver can see him or her.

In the interest of better vision from the office of.....

JV, Fresh lead early but lose to Coyotes

By Cindy Blanton
"Playin' good" was the term used to describe the Freshman and Junior Varsity football games played here last week against Wichita Falls High School.

In spite of this, both Hawk teams fell to the Coyotes.

Marc Cruz ran in the opening kickoff to start the Freshman game with a bang; Hawks leading 6-0. Jimmy Nicholson then faked an extra point attempt for a two-point conversion.

Late in the second quarter, Nicholson scored again, this time a touchdown. It was called back by the officials on an offensive holding charge and the score remained 8-6, advantage Hawks, at halftime.

"We're playing a real good first half," commented Coach Tim Clark, who went on to say this was the fourth week in a row that the Hawks have led at halftime and still failed to win.

Early in the third quarter, Wichita Falls scored a touchdown to take the lead and then a two-point conversion to bring the score to 14-8.

Finally in the fourth quarter, the Coyotes scored another touchdown to wrap up the game at 20-8.

In the Junior Varsity game the same night, Jerry Flesner scored an off-tackle touchdown. Don Ledesma kicked, scoring the extra point.

Later in the first half, Bill Kenyon ran in a kickoff for six more points, but the Hawk two-point conversion attempt failed.

The score at halftime was 13 to 6, favoring the Hawks.

In the second half, Wichita Falls blocked a punt and scored two plays later to take the lead in the last five minutes of the game.

Then, with 38 seconds left on the clock, the Hawks scored on a 70-yard pass from Dan Fannin to Craig Rickman. But the play was called back and Wichita Falls went on to win 14-13.

Coaches felt the teams did extremely well to be playing a 5-A school.

"The JV defensive unit played an outstanding game. The offensive linemen, Brad Lewis, Ray Admire, Scott Davis, Lee Cokendolpher, Bobby Keller, Mike Lubinski and Tony Taylor, all opened up huge holes for the offense. They enabled us to control the ball," said JV Coach Ray Sefcik.

After a tough pre-district schedule, the Hawks are ready for district play. Both teams open district games today against the Decatur Eagles in Hawk Stadium; Freshmen at 5:30 and JV at 7:30.

MIDGET HAWKS 14 SHEPPARD 0

The Midget Hawks moved their record to 4-0 with a tough 14-0 win over Sheppard Saturday night.

After struggling with numerous penalties in the first half, which ended 0-0, the Hawk offense finally started rolling in the third quarter.

Scott McNeely scored on a 10-yard run for a 6-0 lead.

Patric Kennedy, the game's leading ground gainer, chalked up the second TD on a one-yard plunge.

Ralph Dillard added the extra point conversion to complete the scoring.

Another fine performance was turned in by the aggressive Hawk defense, as Sheppard earned only two first downs, other than on penalties, in the entire game.

Leaders on defense were T.J. Bean, David Hollis, Jeremy Kingcade, Chad Thompson, Jason Miller, Jason Dudley, Dillard, Kennedy and McNeely.

Kennedy's stats were 16 carries for 128 yards. Dillard carried six times for 37 yards and Thompson eight for 27.

Iowa Park hosts Electra Saturday at Griffin Field on West Magnolia. The Peeeweeks kick off at 6 p.m. and the Midget game follows.

Tennis tourney set Oct. 25-26

Iowa Park Tennis Association will sponsor an Adult "Fall Fun" Benefit Tournament Oct. 25-26.

Events will include A and B singles and doubles for men and women, men 40-plus singles and doubles, mixed doubles and consolation bracket for first-round losers in mixed doubles.

Play will begin at 8 a.m. Oct. 25 at Iowa Park High tennis courts.

Entry fee is $7 for singles and $14 doubles, and deadline is 1 p.m. Oct. 22.

Contestants can contact Pan Bowerman at 1615 Karen.

MIDGET EAGLES 28 MIDGET TIGERS 0

The Holliday Midget Eagles overcame a rugged Electra defense, which was inspired by a vocal home crowd, to record their fourth victory of the season.

Electra, now 2-2 on the season, must now win two of their next three games to enter the playoffs.

The Eagles opened the scoring late in the first quarter on a five-year run by fullback Blake Belcher, who added the PAT for an 8-0 lead.

Both teams struggled offensively for the remainder of the first half.

Holliday scored next, late in the third quarter on a three-yard run by Rob McIlhoney. The PAT failed.

The fourth quarter was more productive for the Eagles.

Holliday's third score was set up by a 40-yard pass from Belcher to Bubba Turner. McIlhoney carried the ball over from the eight.

The Eagles' final score came after a 25-yard pass from Belcher to McIlhoney. Belcher bulled the ball over from five yards out. Josh Bobbitt then connected with Turner for the final two-point of the game.

The Eagles accumulated 224 yards rushing, led by McIlhoney's 131 yards in 14 attempts. Belcher added 85 yards on 18 carries.

Holliday completed six of 14 pass attempts for 115 yards, paced by Turner's two catches for 51 yards.

The Eagles, with 339 yards total offense, rolled up an impressive 16 first downs to Electra's three.

Electra must now visit Iowa Park, while Holliday hosts the defending champions, Sheppard, which destroyed the Eagles last year, 40-0, eventhough the game was cut short six minutes by rain.

Eagles blast Indians

HOLLIDAY - The Holliday Eagles blasted the Nocona Indians, 34-7, Friday night on the road.

Holliday dominated the first half of the game, leading 27-0 at half time.

Scott Belcher was first to score in the game on a five-yard run with an extra point kick by Tim O'Brien, bringing the score to 7-0.

O'Brien then turned around and scored on a 19-yard run to the endzone also making the extra point kick.

At the end of the first period, the Eagles led 14-0.

It was O'Brien again who opened up the second quarter with a 4-yard scoring run and good fieldgoal attempt to bring the score to 21-0.

Brian Box then scored on a 67-yard pass from Pat Maxwell. The extra point attempt failed, and the Eagles led 27-0 at the half.

Belcher made the final Eagle score for the night in the third quarter with one-yard run. O'Brien's extra point kick was good, and the score came to 34-0.

The Big Red did, however, allow one touchdown by the home team in the fourth quarter to end the game at 34-7.

Holliday is 4-1 after losing to Childress last week.

The Eagles will begin district play Friday night against Archer City at 8 p.m. in Eagle Stadium.

The Iowa Park Chapter of Future Farmers of America will hold its monthly meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in the high school auditorium.

Special activities have been scheduled, including the election of the Chapter Sweetheart.

The meeting is open to parents, faculty and students.

Efforts for the organization of an Iowa Park FFA Booster Club are underway with the first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 16 at the Iowa Park Agriculture Building.

Heard panther scream

On September 30, 1986 at 3:18 in the morning I was startled from my bed by the sound of someone or something screaming not far outside my window. At the same instant my German Shepherd dog jumped to her feet and began a frenzied barking. Her tone indicated that she was not about to leave the safety of the porch to challenge whoever was doing the screaming. Yet, something was out there, and something very strange was going on.

The quality of the scream made the hackles on my neck stand erect in an alarming fashion. Three long, flat vowel cries followed by a fourth short one, they indicated such a sense of sorrow and despair that my first thought was of a lost child wondering alone in the darkness of Dutch George's east pasture. My second thought, that I was hearing the hopeless crying of a desperate woman, was quickly followed by the idea that the sound emanated from a large, powerful wild animal. My final thought was to call the police. Within a few minutes the patrolman arrived, shining his spotlight across the pasture and along the sides of east Texas Street. He found nothing. I went back to bed, but as soon as the light grew strong, I, too, drove along the street looking for some sort of tell-tale sign. I, too, found nothing.

Now, in the full light of the day, I am convinced that I heard the night crying of a giant cat. Big cats, the old timers called them lions or panthers, were once common in Wichita County. The brushy creeks that drain the watersheds of the Red and big Wichita Rivers provided them with ample shelter, and they harvested an adequate living from the deer and antelope herds that once thrived in the Iowa Park area. The early settlers of Iowa Park were no different from the American pioneers who settled the entire continent. They seemed to feel that they had a commission to destroy all of the wildlife that they could. Before long the deer and the antelope had disappeared, along with most of the wild turkeys, golden plovers, scattered buffalo and various types of other wildlife. Of course, the giant cat took his place on the list of "used-to-bes."

But the panther is slowly making a comeback in Texas. All of the studies made of the habitat of the mountain lion indicate the necessity of a good-sized deer herd. Still, lion sightings in such places as Milam County, central Texas are becoming rather commonplace. There are virtually no deer in Milam County. Even without them, the panther apparently can survive. Why not in Wichita County?

The few people who have been privileged to hear the crying of a panther describe it as a cross between the crying of a lost child, the screaming of a desperate woman, and the tormented wailing of a banshee. A feathered quality of the edges of the cry that I heard last night, something extremely difficult for the human voice to reproduce, convinces me that I indeed heard the calling of a giant cat, one probably migrating between the Wichita and the Red. I called the State Game Dept. this morning, but they said, "Nope, no panthers in Wichita County." Perhaps I ought to consider the possibility that I heard the tormented ghost of the lone cowboy, murdered by Indians and buried in an unknown grave somewhere on Pond Creek just east of the city; but unless something shows up to convince me differently, I think I'll opt for the cat.
