Hawk-Bearcat bi-district rematch on tap Friday

As they have the past two years, Iowa Park and Ballinger will meet Friday night for the Bi-District title and decide which team will continue on into the state AAA playoffs.

Some call the contest, which will get underway at 8 p.m. in Stamford, a rubber match. That's because Ballinger edged the Hawks 21-14 in the first game, but Iowa Park knocked the second-ranked Bearcats last year, 27-12.

The Hawks, who earned their first outright title in football since 1970, knocked off Bridgeport 56-14 Friday night to wind up the regular season with a 9-1 record, while the Bearcats, who already had a lock on the playoffs as runner-up in Dist. 5-AAA, were upset 28-9 by Brady.

Ballinger had only two non-conference games before launching its conference schedule, and defeated a pair of AA schools, Winters 27-6 and Hamlin 22-15.

The Bearcats then dropped Coleman 23-0, Colorado City 14-7, Clyde 14-7 and Sonora 22-18, before being outscored by Abilene Wylie, the district champion. After jumping out to a 28-0 lead by the end of the first quarter, Wylie came roaring back to score 21 points in the final period and win, 42-41. Ballinger finished out the season with a 7-0 win over Merkel and 21-7 over Coahoma before losing to Brady.

In that scorefest with Wylie, Ballinger gained 233 yards rushing and 119 passing, while the winners used the airways for 279 yards and had only 94 rushing.

Ballinger has an all-senior backfield headed by quarterback Phillip McBee, 185, fullback Donnie Bruton, 160, and halfbacks Terry Strambler, 195, and Paul Green, 145.

Strambler, who gained almost 1,200 yards last season is nearing the 1,000 mark this year. He has been timed at 4.4 in the 40-yard dash and was an all-district selection in 1986. McBee averages passing about 15 times per game. He suffered a slight shoulder separation in the Merkel game, but is back in uniform now.

His favorite receiver is wide receiver James Clayton, a 150-pound senior. Robbie Ogle, 145 senior, is the other end. Interior linemen include Tony

Playoff Game Facts

Tickets for the Iowa Park-Ballinger game will remain on sale at the high school business office until 3:45 p.m. Friday, at $5 for adults and $2 for students. All tickets sold at the game will be $5.

School will dismiss at 3:45 p.m., following a 3:30 pep rally, according to Principal Richard Davis.

To reach Stamford's football stadium when entering the city from the north, take the downtown route (there's a new bypass on the west side now), drive to the south side of the square, turn left and continue until passing underneath a railroad overpass, turn right at the first stop sign, and the road leads directly to the stadium.

Bradley, 190, at center, Bud Halfmann, 255, and Ron Conner, 220, at guard, and Robert Martinez, 220, and David Meredith, 170, at tackles. Martinez is a freshman and Bradley a junior, while the rest are seniors.

The Hawks have both their starters back in uniform who received fractured bones in the Spring-action Friday against Bridgeport and is expected to start tomorrow. Jeff Huff, who started the season at quarterback and defensive safety, was suited out Friday but didn't see any action. He is not expected to start at quarterback, but could be used if needed. Huff is expected to see action as a wide receiver and on defense.

Both Iowa Park and Ballinger will be watching the results of another bi-district game that also will be played Friday at Copperas Cove. The winner of the McGregor-Burnet game will take on the winner of the Stamford game the following week for the area title.

Other teams in the lower half of the Region One playoff bracket are Perryton, Tulia, Idalou and Kermit. Upper half bracket teams include Childress, Littlefield, Slaton, Fabens, Abilene Wylie, Decatur, La Vega and Lampasas.

Council okays low bids

The city council Monday night approved $51,084 in renovations to the police department, decided to rebuild third street, but took no action on final condemnation of a house which has been declared unsafe.

Taylor Construction of Wichita Falls submitted the lowest bid on the police department work. Highest of 10 bids submitted was $69,522.

Administrator James Barrington told the council his office had been informed that a joint grant from state and federal offices would be used here to rebuild a street, if the city identifies its priorities.

Aldermen were reluctant to name

Third Street, both because they feared a lengthy delay would take place, as it has on another project. South Wall has been on the drawing board almost three years, they pointed out.

Also, under such a project, the city would have nothing to say about when the work would be undertaken, and it could be a major inconvenience if it were done while school was in session.

So the priorities named for the grant, which will be 25 percent state and 75 percent federal, are, in order, Washington west from Bell Road; Diamond, from Texowa to Colorado, and North Wall, from Old Highway to Texas.

Specifications for bid letting will be drawn for the rebuilding with concrete of Third from Magnolia to the Access Road, with construction to not commence until June, aldermen decided.

Also concerning street work, the council discussed Monday and also at the previous meeting, a proposal to undertake a major street rebuilding project and finance it over a 10-year period with certificates of obligation, to be paid from sales tax receipts.

It was decided, however, that such a project could complicate funding construction of an incinerator, if that project is undertaken.

The city's policy of street work being done on a year-by-year with sales tax receipts will be continued.

A "show cause" hearing was postponed until 5 p.m. Monday. It is the third and final hearing concerning a house at 325 E. Bank which, if no change is decided, will be destroyed.

The structure is owned by Joe Harry Bower of Uvalde, and other relatives, and was found several months ago to be in noncompliance

Sales tax picture brighter

While the nation's economic picture is being painted bleak by reports from Wall Street stock markets, the economy in Texas is apparently on the uprise, according to this month's sales tax report from the state comptroller's office.

The same is true in Iowa Park and all Wichita County cities.

The state's sales tax receipts rose about half a percent, when compared with 1986, according to the report from Austin.

Iowa Park was a minus 1.85 percent last month, compared with the same period last year. This month it is a plus .30 percent.

The city received a check this month for $16,954.90, making the year's sum $142,559.94. The November check in 1986 was $14,161.12, and that brought the year's total to $142,131.25.

Burk Burnett, according to the report, is experiencing a healthy, 10.12 percent, increase over last year, while Wichita Falls is a minus 8.14 and Electra minus 12.20. Both the latter cities are improvements over last month, however.

Holiday also has improved to a minus 18.20 percent, having a year's total receipts of $46,330.88.

November checks represent taxes collected on sales made in September and reported to the comptroller by Oct. 20. This month's checks also include third quarter allocations, which reflect sales reported to the comptroller on a quarterly basis.

Cemetery Association meeting slated Sunday

A general meeting of Highland Cemetery Association members will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, following a 1:30 meeting of directors.

Both meetings will be held at the First Christian Church.

HOT BED OF FLAMES - Fireman Wayne Williams extinguishes a flaming mattress Saturday afternoon on US 287 just east of Peterson Road. It and a few pieces of furniture caught afire somehow in the back of a pickup while it was traveling east. The driver had to be notified by another motorist that his load was aflame. Most of the furniture, however, was saved.

Trustees turn down rural campus idea

The Valley View school campus will not be used for one or more grades, and additional classrooms will be built at campuses in Iowa Park, school trustees decided Tuesday night.

School board members have been studying a proposal to reopen the Valley View building, rather than town, to meet space needs the next few years.

The study was being made even while the closed facility had been put on the market for sale.

But when a vote was called on the issue Tuesday, it was a 5-1 decision to "not consider moving the fifth and/or sixth grades to Valley View."

Board chairman Jimmy Howell was the only member voting against the motion. Trustee Gary Fielding was absent.

While all the trustees spoke against reopening the facility, John Sibley's comments were probably the strongest against reopening.

The retired educator pointed out he was well acquainted with the plant, having worked several years at the West Wichita Co-op office.

He said he and Don Decker spent considerable time at the old campus recently, besides the board's visit last month, and it's condition was deteriorating to a point where the cost would be more than should be spent on it.

He also said a future board might decide to move the classes back to in-town campuses, and whatever was spent would be wasted.

Estimates to put the old building, which has been closed since spring of 1980, back into condition and operate it were over $100,000.

A resident of the area, Mike Castles, said the kitchen alone would cost that much. He said he was in favor of keeping the classes in town, even though it was very near his home.

the proposal was David Parham who explained he was raised in a small school district, Munday, and he didn't like riding a bus when he was a student.

Parham also pointed out that the cost of renovating the Valley View building could run considerably more than estimates, pointing out that a contractor will not give a firm bid on such a project, but would on building a new structure.

Howell, in his argument to use Valley View, said reopening the building would free the school from using the temporary classrooms the school bought this year, and also eliminate the need to add on to both Bradford Elementary and junior high.

The savings to the district could be as high as $1-million, he stated.

Prior to the discussion on using Valley View, board members heard proposals from teachers and students that the high school be used for an all-night party following graduation exercises.

Carol Venhaus explained holding such a party would give the graduates a place where they could celebrate, and not be out trying to find something to do.

She said numerous persons had already volunteered to chaperone the party and students would be working to develop activities.

Trustees said they felt such a plan would be "outstanding" and gave their permission.

Assistant Superintendent Robert Palmer went over curriculum goals which would be put into place by the faculty.

on reading, but also on math. The goal will be an average of 90 percent mastery over a five-year period on the two areas of the Texas Education Assessment of Minimal Skills testing, he explained.

Trustees approved authorizing the administration to take legal action against Thomas Sims who, it was explained, has not paid for damages to a school bus after an accident a couple of months ago.

Chamber election is Monday

Wichita County Judge Nick Gibson will be the guest speaker for the annual all-membership business luncheon Monday of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting will begin at 12 noon at the county agriculture building. Reservations for the lunch, $5.25 per plate, must be made by 3 p.m. Friday at the Chamber office.

Gibson will speak on projections of growth and economy in the county.

Chamber President Robert Palmer noted that the luncheon is open to all Chamber members, not just directors, and encouraged members to attend.

Primary business of the meeting is to hold an election of officers, who will be installed at the annual banquet Jan. 23.

Area records rain, killing freeze

Iowa Park received .43 of an inch precipitation Monday, and killing freeze Tuesday and Wednesday, when temperatures dropped as low as 25 degrees.

The rain is said to have helped wheat farmers greatly, while the freeze assisted those raising cotton to defoliate leaves on stalks to make ready for stripping.

Harrison, Wallace vows exchanged Friday

The Trinity Baptist Church in Randlett, Okla. was the setting Friday evening of a wedding ceremony for Karry Johnette Harrison and Taz Gregory Wallace to exchange double-ring vows. The officiating minister was Rev. Charles McNeil.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harrison of Randlett, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Wallace of Iowa Park and the late Taz O.D. Wallace.

The ceremonial platform featured a white arch entwined with ivy and lily of the valley flanked by fourteen-branched spiral candelabra that held tall white tapers. White cathedral baskets filled with white gladiola and antique pink rubrum lilies graced the approach to the platform.

The wedding music was provided by Pam Fox of Randlett, the pianist, and Diane Larson of Burkburnett, the vocalist. Together they presented "Nothing Is Going to Change My Love for You," "The Glory of Love," "I'll Still Be Loving You" and "Doubly Good to You." The pianist played the traditional marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a lovely white taffeta formal wedding gown enhanced with Alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline of solid lace and a sheer yoke adorned with clustered seed pearls. The full skirt that fell from a lace-trimmed waistline captured attention with deep scallops defined with lace appliques, and a wide hemline ruffle that swept to a chapel length train.

She wore a white bridal hat of Schiffli lace accented with satin bows, organza flowers, clustered seed pearls and a waltz length veil of French illusion. She carried a traditional cascade of white sweetheart roses, tiny antique pink roses entwined with strings of opalescent pearls. A sentimental touch to the bouquet was a tussy mussy made of a piece of lace from her mother's wedding dress.

Mrs. Monty Kemp of Randlett, sister of the bride, took part in the wedding as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Bobby Wolfe of Graham, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Russell Harrison of Randlett, her sister-in-law.

MRS. TAZ GREGORY WALLACE

They wore identical tea-length dresses of colonial blue taffeta designed in princess style with quarter length sleeves and V-shaped backs. They carried white lace fans decorated with antique pink and colonial blue roses entwined with opalescent pearls.

Ashley Kemp, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a white taffeta fitted princess-style dress with long sleeves and a bow in the back.

Kyle Martin of Graham, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer and was dressed like the groom in a white tailed tuxedo.

David Hillard of Iowa Park served as best man, and the groomsmen were Tim Horne of Holliday, Gary Wallace of Iowa Park, cousin and brother, respectively, of the groom. The ushers were Bob Bates of Bedford, Kenneth Johnson of Iowa Park, Russell Harrison, brother of the bride, and Monty Kemp, her brother-in-law, both of Randlett. They wore pearl grey tuxedos.

Clinton and Justin Horne of Holliday, cousins of the groom, were the candlelighters.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the Community Center in Randlett.

The bride's table was highlighted by a three-tiered cake decorated with blue and pink roses and a double glass heart cake top. The servers were Connie Abbott of Burkburnett, Kim Cox of Devol, Okla. and Becky Bradley of Randlett.

The focal point of interest on the groom's table was a chocolate Texas-shaped cake trimmed with a Texas flag. The decor was completed with mints in the shapes of cowboy boots, hats, and state of Texas, and a silver coffee service. Elaine Horne, Barbara Horne and Charlotte Welch of Iowa Park, cousins of the groom, presided at the table.

Julie Welch of Iowa Park, directed signatures of the wedding guests and Chris Bradley handed the rice bags to them.

The groom's mother gave the rehearsal dinner at the community building. A Texas theme was carried out in decorations featuring red, white and blue balloons with blue-bonnets used as centerpieces. Miniature black western hats filled with nuts and a decorated straw western hat on the head table completed the decor.

The bride was graduated from Big Pasture High School in Randlett and attended Cameron Univ. at Lawton. She is employed at Wal-Mart in Burkburnett. The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School where he lettered in football and was in vocational agriculture four years. He attended Midwestern State Univ. and was graduated from North Texas Council of Governments Regional Police Academy. Following a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, they will live in Bedford.

Officers installed

Mrs. China B. Smith conducted an impressive installation ceremony during a meeting of the Arts and Crafts Association held Tuesday evening at TU Electric Reddy Room.

She used a wheel theme, comparing the president to the hub and other officers to different parts of the wheel. As she charged the officers, she presented them with candles and they blew them out at the close of the service by making a wish.

Those installed were Mmes. Alvin Jeter, president; Eddie Worthy, vice president; Howard Marlar, secretary; Jack Railsback, treasurer; Jerry Denton, program chairman; Roy Smith, publicity chairman; and Miss Helen Reed, telephone chairman.

For refreshments, each member brought a dessert that would be a grand finale to the Christmas dinner.

Cook of the Week

In beautiful autumn, and that's right now, people's appetites are stimulated and foods seem to taste better than they did during the hot summer days. So the ones responsible for satisfying eager eaters need a certain amount of ingenuity to plan meals.

Jennifer (Mrs. Larry) Goin shares recipes with us today that suggest that she has plenty of ingenuity to plan meals, whether in autumn, winter, spring or summer. They include two casseroles, two cakes, one salad and crockpot dressing.

Asparagus Casserole, one of her recipes, sounds like a blue ribbon winner, especially for those who like asparagus.

Of all the familiar vegetables none is less documented than asparagus. Its place of origin is unknown. It is supposed to have been a plant of the Old World which grew wild at first. However, cultivated asparagus has been a luxury for a long time.

The Egyptians cultivated it and found it worthy of offering to gods. Julius Caesar ate it in Lombardy with melted butter and it is still eaten like that there today. The Emperor Augustus cooked asparagus so it remained a trifle crunchy under the teeth. He is credited with having invented the Roman equivalent of our own "faster than you can say Jack Robinson."

Thomas Jefferson grew asparagus from imported seeds, but he did not introduce it in the United States because it was mentioned in an American garden book in 1775. Birds, no doubt, were partly responsible for spreading the seeds throughout the nation.

Mrs. Goin is a native of Paducah, Ky. where she was graduated from high school. She met Larry when he was visiting relatives there and after they were married they came back to Iowa Park to establish their home. He is a truck driver for Caravan Express, Inc. and she is a homemaker and sells Avon products. They attend New Life Cathedral in Wichita Falls. They have two daughters, Kimberly, four years of age, and Kelly, two years old.

Jennifer likes to cook and she enjoys skiing, fishing and riding horses with her family.

Railroad crossing safety program for joint meeting

The annual joint meeting of the three federated study clubs in Iowa Park was held Monday evening at Tom Burnett Memorial Library, with the Amity Study Club serving as hostess.

Mrs. Joe Singer of the 23 Study Club served as leader, and Mrs. Thomas Johnson of the Philia Study Club led the pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Earnie Reusch, a member of Amity Study Club, presented an impressive devotion highlighted with one of her original poems and closing with a poem "Lord, Grant Me the Strength."

Mrs. D.O. James, federation counselor of the 23 Study Club, gave the advantages of Senate Bill "The Act of 1987" which protects volunteer workers.

Hobie Miller, an engineer on Burlington Northern Railway, gave an informative program on Operation Lifesaver, a Texas Federation of Women's Clubs project, designed to educate people to watch for trains and not to make a railroad crossing a "finish line."

He emphasized the three points of the program which were: enforcement of existing laws governing grade crossings, engineering grace crossings to provide the greatest safety, and education of the driving public about the inherent danger of the grade crossings.

Miller said that Texas has more than 14,000 public grade crossings which, including rural areas and city railroad crossings, is larger than any state in America. He said that between 70 and 100 people are killed each year at Texas railroad crossings and that practically all of the accidents happen because someone is in a hurry or simply ignores the warning signs.

To climax the program, he showed a film that depicted the grief of parents and friends of young people who were killed in train-car accidents.

The beauty and colors of the autumn season were reflected in the tasteful refreshment table decorations.

What can a person do who doesn't know what to do?

If you break a bone, you can go to the emergency room.
If your vision is impaired, you can buy glasses or contact lenses.

But what can a person do

- when they feel broken inside? when life itself seems splintered by stress and unpredictable change?
- when the lethargy and heaviness they feel comes not from a physical ailment, but from a gripping depression?
- when heavy use of drugs or alcohol has altered their mind, broken their spirit, and torn their family apart?

One out of every 5 Americans experiences symptoms of mental or emotional illness at some time in their lives. And, unlike dealing with symptoms of physical illness, these persons often do not know what to do to get well.

But they can get well. For 15 years, HCA Red River Hospital in Wichita Falls has helped many people recover from mental illness.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

Congratulations to the Hawk football team and coaching staff, for winning the district championship.

I've never seen a year when a team suffered more adversity than this group. And had the team not had the depth I was figuring on at the first of the season, they wouldn't be where they are today.

Since the glory years that ended in 1970, Hawk teams have come close, but not quite getting there.

Oh, I'm well aware that we are in the playoffs for the third straight year. But last year it was as runner-up and the year before due to a three-way tie and lucky flip of the coin.

Those teams back in 1972-73-74 were all close to being champions, but it was one thing or another that kept them from a title.

Why do I make such a fuss about having a winning football team?

Well, in Texas, very few events, occasions, things or individuals put a town the size of Iowa Park on the map quicker than a winning football team.

And that is especially true for a town our size that is sitting in the shadow of a larger city like Wichita Falls.

It's a situation every Chamber of Commerce hopes for.

Back in the glory days, I could not go anywhere in the state without people asking me about our football team and what prospects were for the next year.

Seldom was I ever asked about where Iowa Park was. That has not been the case recently.

Few know anything about our major industry, Cryovac, or our fine library, or even the folk who live here.

We had one of the final four baseball teams in the state tournament several years ago, but I never had anyone to ask me about how the team would do the following year when I went to Austin, Dallas or wherever.

And a winning team is much better than the one down at Cumby that got a mentioned this week in the Dallas Morning News.

Cumby Friday night completed a season only one other school in Texas has equaled. The team did not score a single point the entire 10-game season.

But all was not lost. Cumby wound up with a 1-9 record. One of the opponents had to forfeit its win.

Drug abuse is problem, speaker informs Lions

"If you were told someone was going to blow up Lake Kemp in the next 15 minutes, would you be willing to get up and go try and stop him?"

That question was posed to the Iowa Park Lions Club Tuesday by Alan Shewmake, who is a member of the Optimist Club's committee to fight drug abuse.

Shewmake acknowledges there is a drug problem in Iowa Park, and his committee's efforts to fight it is being paralleled by the Iowa Park Police Department and several school organizations.

He had a display of various types of drugs that are available, and showed a common cowboy boot which had been used to conceal drugs should the wearer be searched.

The acceptance of drugs, he said, is among those who believe, "If it feels good, do it."

Shewmake proposes parents should acquaint themselves with all the various drugs being abused by reading "as much as you can to learn."

"The only way we can do anything about it (drug problem), is to recognize that it is a problem, and work toward solving it," he said.

During a business session following the talk, members voted to donate $100 to a police project which concerns drug abuse. Phil Welch was voted into membership in the club.

City employee is recognized

Don Turner has been named the first recipient of the City of Iowa Park "Employee of the Month" title.

The Iowa Park City Council initiated the program in an effort to boost employee initiative.

Turner moved to Iowa Park five months ago from Oklahoma City. He is employed with the city as an equipment operator in the Street Department.

He was instrumental in the city's preparation for the annual Whoop-Do this year as he hand-painted the figures and lettering on the city booths for the event.

Turner, whose hobbies are hunting and auto body work, lives in Iowa Park with his wife, Shelly, and their two children.

with numerous city building codes. All utility services to the house have been severed.

Two leases of city property were approved. Virgil Duffy was granted a lease on a six-acre tract of land just south of the Lone Star Gas office at Lake Iowa Park. He will pay $60 and build a fence, according to the lease.

Deryl James received a one-year extension on a tract of city land at Fourth and West Highway, where his used car lot is located. The fee for leasing the land is $600 annually.

Aldermen approved a proposal to build a replacement for the sewer lift station the city provides the state to service the two rest stops on US 287.

Once it is in place, the work will be part of a major sewer line project which will serve that area, it was explained.

rant fees, all totalling $185. Brookshire was taken to county jail.

Steven Lee Lane, 24, was released after posting a $104 bond Sunday. He was stopped at 10:15 a.m. Sunday on a local outstanding warrant for driving while license was suspended.

Chamber directors hear projects

Projects involving high school students were disclosed Monday when the Chamber of Commerce board of directors met at Iowa Park High School.

Principal Richard Davis, who said the meeting, which included lunch in the cafeteria, was the first of several invitations to be issued to civic groups in the community.

Davis said students will be involved in "Project Graduation" (which was approved the following evening by the board of trustees, Students Against Drunk Driving and "Just Say No."

Project Graduation will be an all-night lock-in of seniors following graduation in an effort to provide a safe activity of celebration.

Students Against Drunk Driving is an organization sought by students after drinking-related fatal accidents the past two years when classmates were killed. The organization will fight peer pressure to drink alcohol.

Selected students who are roll models for students primarily in lower grades will be video taped and viewed in classroom activities, encouraging the youngsters to "Just Say No" to drugs and alcohol, Davis said.

In other business, directors heard details of a membership drive the organization will put on next month, were reminded by President Robert Palmer of the annual all-membership luncheon and business meeting next Monday, and were told of a large number of people who will be in town for a soccer tournament.

Some 300 letters will be mailed to prospective members, both business and individuals, in the near future, soliciting their membership in the organization, Palmer said.

A soccer tournament involving 136 teams from over Texas and Oklahoma will be centered Dec. 5 in Wichita Falls, and a spillover will involve Iowa Park, directors were told.

Because Wichita Falls does not have enough fields, Iowa Park's two fields will host some of the play, and approximately 200 players and fans will be in the city that day.

Directors decided to have a map printed for those coming to the city.

BECOMING A CHRISTIAN

One must hear the gospel (Rom.10:17), believe that Jesus is the Son of God (Acts 16:30,31), repent of all sins (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38). This involves a change of mind, sorrow for sins, and a change of life. One must confess openly his faith in Christ (Rom.10:9,10; Acts 8:37). He must be baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16). When a person is baptized, he receives the remission of his sins (Acts 2:38), and is saved from past sins (1 Peter 3:21). His sins are washed away (Acts 22:16) and he puts on Christ (Gal. 3:27). He enters Christ (Romans 6:3) and contacts the blood of Christ (Romans 6:3). Baptism is a burial in water. This was the meaning of the Greek word "baptizo". Men were buried in baptism (Rom. 6:4, Col. 2:12). The Ethiopian Eunuch went down into the water and came up out of the water (Acts 8:38,39). Much water is required in baptism (John 3:23). The very significance of the act of baptism is bound up in immersion. Baptism is a proclamation of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

TOP OF TEXAS FOOTBALL

MIDGET HAWKS 8 MIDGET EAGLES 0

The Midget Hawks won the Top of Texas playoff championship Saturday night with a thrilling 8-0 victory over Holliday.

A third quarter four-yard run by Tony Lozipone, and Lozipone's pass to Josh Castles for the extra points, provided the only scoring.

But there was plenty of excitement.

The Hawks drove 53 yards in eight plays for an apparent touchdown on their initial drive, but a motion penalty nullified the score, and Holliday took over at the six-yard line.

The defenses controlled the remainder of the first half.

B.J. Murray's interception stopped the Eagles' first drive of the second half. Jeremy Kingcade raced 31 yards to the Eagle 24 on the following play. Runs by Kingcade and Murray took the ball to the five-yard line where the Eagle defense stiffened again and Holliday took over.

The Hawks held and, after a punt to the Eagle 26, Kingcade carried twice to the four-yard line. Lozipone then ran around left end for his touchdown.

Late in the fourth period, the Eagles mounted a drive on runs by Byron Gravitt and Blake Belcher, and two key passes to Skylar Kowalick. The Hawks stopped the drive on their own 33 and ran out the clock.

Kingcade led all rushers with 80 yards on 12 carries. Gravitt had 54 on 11 tries and Belcher added 44 for the Eagles.

The Hawks finished the season with a 9-0 record, while the Eagles were 7-2.

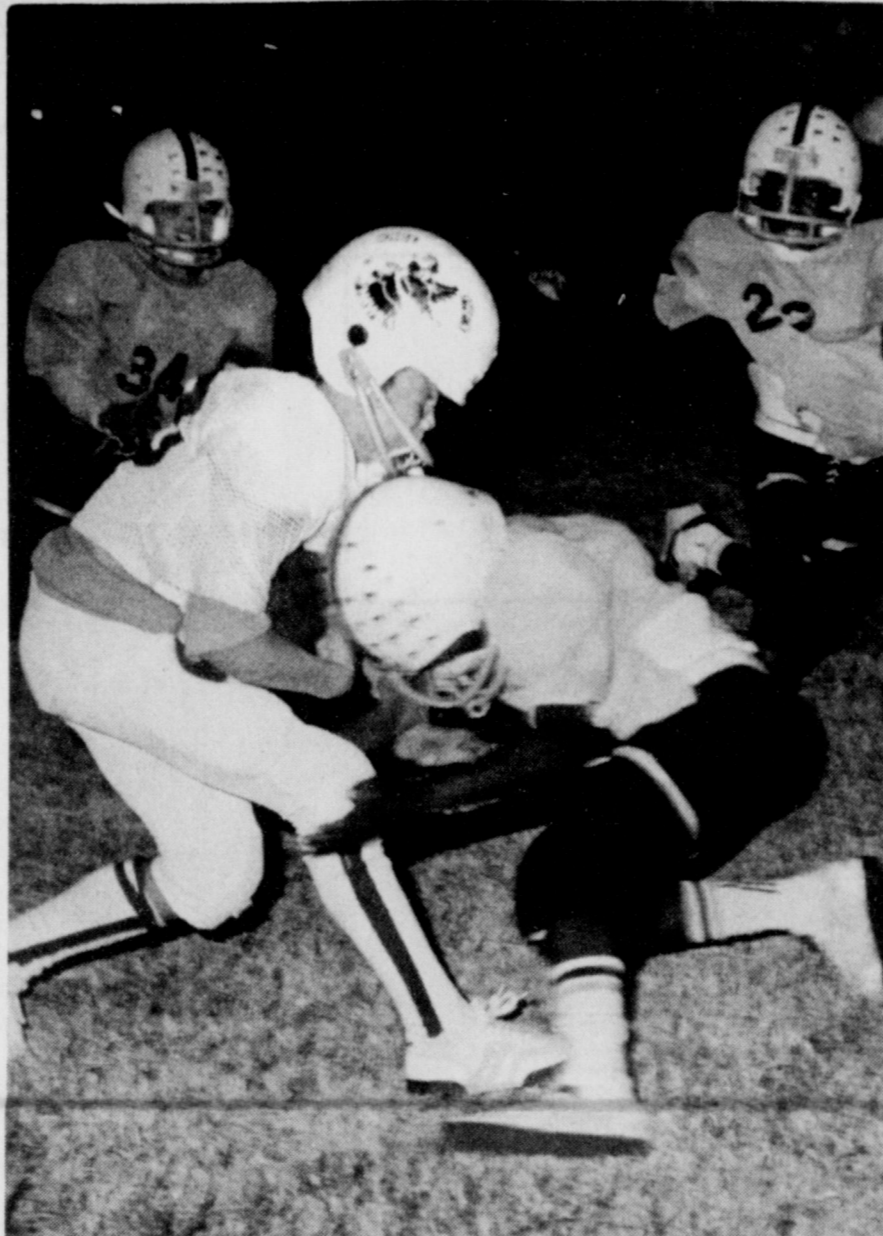

"Big plays were the factor," noted Holliday Coach Gary Gribble. "They made them and we didn't."

Coach Gil Gilbert said, "We lost the game on the line of scrimmage, both offensively and defensively."

"Everyone knows what happened tonight," remarked Coach Mel Belcher. "The real question is why. Size, speed and training are of little value without the win."

The Eagles were paced by Josh Bobbitt, Sylar Kowalick, Kent Byers, Belcher and Byron Gravitt. "Those five boys played outstanding ball and they really deserved better," said Coach Belcher.

Basketball gets underway Tuesday evening for Iowa Park High teams, when they host Byers.

The Lady Hawks' Junior Varsity will play first at 5 p.m., followed by the Varsity, and immediately after that game the Varsity boys.

Coach Earnie Reusch said he will obviously not be playing some who will be on his varsity, because they are still playing football.

However, he said he has enough athletes who are not in football to field a team.

Trustees review report

HOLIDAY - The Holliday School Board in regular session Monday night reviewed the performance reports for the 1986-87 school year.

Supt. Dan Owen said the performance reports are mainly an overview of the district's achievements and give information on classroom sizes, testing, the number of employees, the number of dropouts, expenditures and revenue.

Owen reported the district had a three per cent dropout rate during the 1986-87 school year and a total of three disciplinary actions requiring one expulsion.

He also said improvement was shown in the reading program on the first through eighth grade levels.

The report also told of the strength and weaknesses on the TEAMS test administered to grades three through 11. All Holliday High School 11th graders passed the exit-level TEAMS test, which is required for graduation.

The reported showed the school district's expenditures at $2,500,000 and its revenues at $2,440,000.

Owens said copies of the performance reports are available for public distribution.

During the executive session, the board approved the hiring of Donnie Reynolds as bus maintenance personnel and Danny Holman as a bus driver.

During other business, the board voted to announce teachers to be placed on the career ladder at the December meeting.

Hawks 6-AAA champions; trample Bulls 56-14

The Iowa Park Hawks earned their first outright district football championship in 17 years Friday night, and they did it in grand style by closing out the regular season with an impressive 56-14 win over Bridgeport.

Iowa Park now goes into the playoffs with healthy 9-1 season and 5-0 district records. The Hawks had shared the Dist. 6-AAA crown with two other teams two years ago and were runners up last year.

Making the victory even more impressive was the fact that Coach David Baugh pulled his offensive regulars with 5:04 remaining in the third quarter, and leading 35-8.

Bridgeport lived up to its billing, of having a good offensive club but lacking defensively. The Bulls gained 194 yards rushing and 65 more passing, but allowed the Hawks to amass 529 yards on the ground and 27 more via the air.

Fullback Jim Cummings had a field day, scoring five touchdowns and a pair of two-point conversions, while racking up 243 yards during the evening.

The Hawks took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards to score on a six-yard plunge by Cummings, but Bridgeport players and one of their coaches helped along the way.

Tailback Joel Galloway appeared to have scored on a six-yard run, but the play was called back on a holding penalty. A couple of plays later, a pass by quarterback Jimmy Duggins was picked off by the Bull secondary. However, an official ruled that a Bridgeport defender had held one of the Hawk receivers, before the ball was caught, and the Hawks had the ball at the Bull 14.

Galloway gained two yards, and then the ball was placed at the Bull six when an unsportsman-ship penalty was assessed against a loud Bull coach on the sideline. Cummings scored on the next play, but the following snap on the extra point kick attempt was bobbled and the kick failed.

Bridgeport punted after no gain on three plays, and the Hawks appeared to be on their way to another score, until Duggins fumbled and a Bull claimed it on the Bridgeport 32. Eight plays, including a 36-yarder by Cason Rangel, later Bridgeport took the lead, 8-6.

But Iowa Park wasted no time in regaining the lead, as Galloway returned the kickoff to the Hawk 39, Cummings gained 22 after a Duggins pass fell incomplete, Billy Kenyon gained four more, and then Cummings broke 34 yards to score. He followed with a three-yard plunge to put the Hawks ahead for the evening, 14-8, only 1:35 after Bridgeport's score, according to the scoreboard clock.

Iowa Park put together another 77-yard drive, highlighted by Duggins' only completed pass of the evening which was caught by Galloway, as the second quarter was winding down. Cummings scored from the three and then ran another two-point conversion to send the Hawks to the field house for their halftime rest with a 22-8 lead.

The final 1:35 of the half was not without its interesting points, however, as possession of the ball changed on three consecutive plays. Kenyon intercepted a Bull pass. On the next play, Galloway fumbled, giving Bridgeport possession on the Hawk 40, with 14 seconds remaining. Bridgeport attempted to score on the following play with a pass, but it was picked off by Jimmy Kirkhart, ending the threat.

Cummings returned the second half's opening kickoff to the Bridgeport 46, but the ball was brought back to the Hawk 39 on a penalty. Six plays later, Cummings broke on a 37-yarder. He had to stiff-arm a pair of tacklers at the 10, but got his score.

Bridgeport helped set up Iowa Park on its next possession when the Bull punter shanked the ball out of bounds on the Bull 37. That short drive was highlighted by a 19-yard run by Galloway and was capped with another three-yarder by Cummings.

The Hawks got the ball back on the 50-yard line, and the reserves made quick work of the next score, scoring in seven plays. Marc Cruz had a 25-yarder to help get the ball to the Bull one-yard line, and Gary Tatum finished it off.

The visitors had something to cheer about when the Bulls put together an 85-yard drive to score, but those cheers turned to groans quickly when, on the first play following the next kickoff, Kenyon romped 66 yards to score.

Raul Swanson put the finishing touch on the scoring by sprinting 17 yards around right end for the final score, with 23 seconds remaining on the clock.

Galloway finished the evening with 91 yards rushing, Kenyon had 92, Cruz 46, Tatum 33, and Swanson 24.

Despite Bridgeport's linemen being as large, or larger, than the Hawks, the offensive linemen were able to open holes the entire evening against the Wise County defenders.
