ENGLISH TESTIMONY.

How the Leading London Financial Journal Fears Silver in This Country.

From the London Financial News of March 19 is the financial situation in the United States is very serious. The Senate has blocked all relief measures proposed by President Cleveland and Congress is at a dead standstill on the money question. The free coinage senators are masters of the situation. The condition of affairs in the United States Congress demands the immediate attention of British financiers and statesmen. The trade of the world is now in our hands, but it will not long remain there if the United States goes to a bimetallic basis with free and unlimited coinage of silver.

With the addition of silver to the volume of money, everything in America will take a new turn; labor and industry would gain new life. The grip of the gold standard on the products of the world would be loosened and the prices would rise. Great Britain would lose her markets in South America, Asia and Europe, and American ships would not be long in capturing the carrying trade of the world.

British creditors must now apply themselves quickly to the American money problem. The sound money men and banking interests, led by Senator Sherman, Cleveland and Carlisle, with a plentiful supply of means, have been beaten. The American people are now thoroughly aroused and educated on the power and use of money, and made desperate by debt and business depression they are forcing free silver as the main issue. Great Britain need fear no injury to her trade or investments if the Republican party can force "protection tariff" as the main issue in the coming presidential campaign, but if free silver dominates the American mind and carries at the polls it will bring about a change in England that will be ruinous for its suddenness and severity. The damages that can be done British manufacturers by a protection tariff is slight compared with the disasters that would be entailed by a change from a single gold to a complete bimetallic standard.

It is evident that the Democratic party will not nominate a man who holds to President Cleveland's idea on money and the only hope for a continuation of Mr. Cleveland's financial policy will be in the success of the Republicans in the next election.

The success of free coinage will bring down the rate of interest on money and cause an immediate rise in the price of all commodities. When silver becomes primary money the American mines will pour their products into the mine and a new era similar to that produced by the issue of greenbacks during the civil war will begin. Gold will leave the banks and enter into competition with silver in the avenues of trade, and the manufacturers of the United States, which have been shut down or crippled since 1892, will again resume their fight for the English markets.

It is doubtful whether the Republican party can be held much longer in check by sound money statesmen, as its adherents are divided by powerful factions. The Democratic party is also breaking up under the weight of the free silver agitation. If matters come to Great Britain which party succeeds if the gold standard is maintained, but either of the old parties or a new party which goes into power pledged to free coinage will be inimically prejudicial to English manufacturers and trade.

The American people cling with wonderful tenacity to party organizations, but financial embarrassments and business stagnation have become too severe for their patience and they are ready for any change that promises relief. They are becoming convinced that it cannot be found in the protection theory, as that has been tried, and they are massing now for free silver. When that issue comes fairly before the American people, England will regret her apathy and adherence to the single gold standard. —St. Louis Post Dispatch Aug. 26, '96.

SOUR GRAPE.

The populist continue to pour hot shot into Sewall; and Sewall continues to saw wood.—BAIRD STAR.

His wood sawing will amount to just about as much as THE STAR man's did when he tried to get into the 26th legislature.—Prodigal.

The Prod man should not make himself too conspicuous along this line as the public might think he envies THE STAR man, because his party tendered him a nomination for the legislature unsolicited, and would have given it to him again had he wanted and made a canvas for it; while the Prod man demanded the nomination for the legislature at the hands of his party, but his claims were refused and he went sailing up Salt Creek from Albany. Don't be envious brother, the good book tells us envy is a grievous sin. But be patient, your party may recognize your eminent (F) ability and fitness for office some day, and nominate you for constable or justice of the peace or something of the kind.

Because the populist refused to nominate the editor of the Prodigal for the legislature is no reason he should turn up his aristocratic proceeds at THE STAR. Such little squalls as the extract from the Prod will no doubt go far towards convincing the unprejudiced populist that they did a wise thing when they refused to nominate the Prod man for a seat in the 26th legislature.

To close out my stock of wall paper, I will sell for spot cash at 25 per cent discount. R. Phillips. 402

AN ENJOYABLE SOIREE.

When Terpischore, promoter of dancing, first taught to festive youth the poetry of motion, found, as many think, in the art, preservative of all arts, the goddess of mythology, little rec'd her of the Myriad of worshippers who would always bow at her pleasure shrine, where youth and beauty most do love to congregate after this manner of history and feed on those pleasures, which are found in tripping the light fantastic in the labyrinthine dance.

The lovers of the above art, consisting of a goodly number of young ladies and young gentlemen of the city enjoyed themselves in the mazes of the dance on last Thursday night at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Solomon, whose hospitable doors were thrown wide open to as joyous, as gay and bright a scene as is seldom witnessed; and where music that might have charmed Calypso and her nymphs, arose with its sweet swell and soft cadences, as it was borne on the wings of the cool night air; now strong, wild and weird, like old ocean's mighty swell into a grand diapason fall; now soft, sweet and low awakening memories, both sweet and tender, sweet and enchanting as the perfume of flowers at the close of sunset, just as the Idle Reporter has feasted his eyes on the Italian sky made clear and brilliant by the golden tints of the after glowing of a radiant evening. Then those same sweet strains of music, their lovely and inspiring mission fulfilled, dying, at last, like the gentle wavellet, on a silent shore.

The music, as under the accomplished management of the musical trio, Kavanaugh, Gray and Hoffman, was sufficient to charm the birds from the trees, and seemed to have in it the sweetness of a hymn, as it was borne aloft into infinite space on the wings of the wind, which no block-head could chain.

The large number of dances were of the choicest selections, both round and square, and so kept the party up to the mark that it was dancing, dancing, dancing. Putting one in mind of the occupation of Ariadne, the Greek goddess of mythology, and her never ending chain of thread, weaving, weaving, weaving.

During the intermission, ample refreshments, from well filled tables were served and enjoyed by all.

Among those present, the ladies were: Mrs. Kavanaugh, the Misses Trent, the Misses James, Misses Teeple, Black, Louns, Flores and Turner. The gentlemen present were: Messrs. Jas. Gray, G. A. Jameson, Dr. C. C. Cooke, W. P. Cochran, Alden Bell, W. D. Boydston, C. S. Boyles, Mark Paes, D. M. Martin, Will Starves, Ed Arnold and W. D. James.

THE IDLE REPORTER.

DEEP CREEK DOTS.

Sept. 9.—And now comes Mont Pennell and is ready to deposit under oath that on Sept. 1 there was born unto his good wife a fine boy weighing not less than 11 pounds. It is the first child and that explains the boyanoy or his feelings.

One of the most successful breeders of superior horses and mules is our friend John Boen. He is not quite up to the standard of road overseer (that stump doer: still the middle of the road) but when it comes to fine colts then he heads the possession. You ought to see him work a two year old stallion and a 15 months old mule colt and you will agree that he understands how to raise and to handle good animals.

John Matthews' gin registered last Saturday 77 bales and does really a good work. The other day from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.—deducting an hour for dinner—not less than 11 bales were ginned, and a superior staple is turned out. No grumbling this year so far, but new patrons coming in daily. His charges are only 50c. per hundred, 80c. for bagging and ties with 20 pounds knocked off for the weight of bagging.

Our efficient County Surveyor, M. R. Hall was in the neighborhood last Monday to run the lines of Clark Smith's 100 acres pre-emption.

The trustees of the Spring Gap school have engaged Miss Lillian Hatfield of Cross Plains as teacher for the next term. The young lady was in charge of the public and subscription school at Board Flat community and is now attending the high school at Baird.

W. H. Dawkins left Saturday for Buffalo Gap.

I was really surprised to read the circular issued by Mr. Peters the chairman of the Cotton Planters Association. How any body can talk and report an increase of the cotton crop by 2,000,000 bales is something I can't understand. Of course there are some fools or schemers, like that merchant of Cisco who wired to Galveston after the last train that Eastland and Callahan County would make 2,000 bales each, more, on account of that rain. From the reports of the most careful farmers and from my own observation it will take all over the country at least an average of 8 acres to yield one bale and where last year were made 3 bales, this year will be the yield of only 3 or 4 bales.

The crop is this year at least 4 weeks earlier and therefore arrive at the markets now thousands of bales where last year only so many hundreds reached the market. That is deceptive and serves in the hands of speculators to keep down the prices. While I do not believe that the quotations will go much over 5c.—considering the low price of wool—5c. and probably more should be the basis and will be the basis as soon as the true situation is ascertained.

To make things still worse the cotton pillar begins his day's work in some fields and is spreading rapidly. H. B.

... platform and risk an...
... people. But so, they do not do that.

That is not my language, my friends, that is the language of the republican platform and that is the construction placed upon it, by the candidate who runs upon it, in his letter of acceptance. He says in his letter that the American people can not enter upon bimismal without the concurrent assent of the other nations. Why? Does he say we shall maintain a gold standard for one year? No. For four years? No. But the conclusion is that we must maintain it forever if the other nations say we must. Applause.

My friends, it is not more tax the people want, but more money to pay taxes with. (Applause.) If there is any farmer here who has not taxes enough I beg him to go to his county treasurer and satisfy his conscience that he does not try to tax all the rest of the public. (Applause.)

It is no laughing question, my friends. This question is of much importance to those who are seeking to raise the value of gold by legislation, and should it not be important to those who for twenty years have benefited from this financial legislation?

DANGERS OF PIANO NOTES.

PIANO NOTES FOR PAYMENTS ON PIANOS AND ORGANES and on installments are generally sold or transferred to others, hypothecated with banks or factories, or traded for other goods. Lien notes, when placed in the hands of a collector may be taken advantage of, and when used, hence no business man should give notes when buying instruments on installments. Mark Pace, who has been at home visiting his parents for some time, chaperoned a bunch of cattle to St. Louis Saturday, from there he will return to school at Dallas. Mark said he had a splendid time during his visit, and will spend Christmas with his Baird friends.
Mr. J. B. Witt has sold a half interest in the City Meat Market to Mr. Dan Jones of Belle Plaine. The firm hereafter will be known under the firm name of Witt & Jones and they will constantly keep on hand a good supply of fresh meats and will endeavor to please all.
Mr. J. M. Hayden who has been spending the summer in Iowa with relatives, returned home Sunday. Mr. Hayden says the conditions up there are about like they are here. Hard times and politics galore. The republicans claim the state but the democrats deny this. Mr. Hayden says he could not tell how things were going, but looks for some revolution. Unexpected in Iowa, Illinois and adjacent states at the coming election. No such a campaign was ever seen in these states before but Mr. Hayden says he will not venture a prediction as to how the election would result.

FOR SALE.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.
I will address the people on the finances of the county at the following places and dates below:
Pecan, Tuesday night, Sept. 15
Rough Creek, Wednesday " " 16
Eagle Cove, Thursday " " 17
Tecumseh, Friday " " 18
I will divide time with my opponent, Judge J. E. Thomas. J. H. Wood, Candidate for County Judge.

NEWSPAPERS IN THE CAMPAIGN.
In the present campaign, the newspapers will be the greatest educators, in teaching the voters of the land the proper way to view the political questions of the day. The St. Louis Republic is without doubt the most able instructor published on the Democratic side, as it explains in almost every issue, by editorial or learned article why the mass of the people should vote for the Democratic Presidential candidate. In addition, it prints all the news of the doings of both parties and all the speeches of statesmen. The Republic is only 85¢ a year, $1.50 for 3 months, or 45¢ a month by mail. Semi-Weekly Republic $1.00 a year.

BARGAINS BARGAINS.
I will sell all summer goods cheap. If you want Bargains come at once, cost is not in it at all. Half Price.

WOOD WANTED.
Sealed bids will be received for two cords of sound oak wood, two feet long delivered at School building. Bids will close 4 o'clock Sept. 15, 1895.
J. N. RESNUM,
Secy. Board Trustees.

THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.
The old newspaper saying, "now is the time to subscribe," was never more true than at present. The times are so full of incident, so many important national and State affairs are shaping themselves for a change, that no one can afford to be without a metropolitan daily or weekly. The St. Louis Republic, the greatest Democratic newspaper, is making a special offer of its daily and Sunday paper for 3 months at $1.50. It is six dollars a year by mail. The Twice-a-Week Republic is sent two times a week—104 papers—for only $1 a year. In addition to all the political news it prints every day a spread of general news and features not equaled by any other paper.

GOV. FISHBACK HEARD

Arkansas writes for the double standard.

Shows wherein the present gold standard is causing misery. The foreigner exports what he needs.

Why has silver depreciated 50 cents in the dollar? How can the law restore it to a 100-cent dollar?

What France has done. Yet France, which is only a second-rate power, that manufactures less than half as much as Great Britain...

Why? For many reasons. In the first place there would be a big influx of silver from every country.

What do we give in exchange for the imports that we receive? The products of our farms and our factories.

How do we pay the interest? We borrow it. We borrow it.

How do we get the gold? We borrow it. We borrow it.

How does this country happen to owe such a vast sum abroad? Nearly all our largest industries are owned by foreign capital.

Why not? Because the silver dollar is cheaper than the gold dollar? Yes, the silver dollar was worth a premium of 1 cent over the gold dollar...

THE MODERN NAPOLEON AT WATERLOO.

A large army of populists are closing in on our rear.

Why is it impossible? Because all our gold is now leaving us, and if something is not quickly done to prevent it we will soon be on a silver basis.

Yes, very much; but what we need most is a double basis. We should have to go about getting on a double basis.

Very likely. If the government could silver free at the ratio of 16 to 1 which is equivalent to 129 cents per ounce, holders of silver bullion would not part with their metal at a smaller figure.

Yes, by throwing the demand onto silver. Gold would then flow into the country from all over the world.

For many reasons. In the first place there would be a big influx of silver from every country.

What do we give in exchange for the imports that we receive? The products of our farms and our factories.

water both. We produce $800,000,000 more of agricultural products than any other nation on the globe.
