Hawk Band headed for Austin

Mean Green Marching Machine qualifies for state

CELEBRATION TIME CAME WHEN RESULTS OF CONTEST WERE ANNOUNCED

For the first time in Iowa Park High School Band history, the Mean Green Marching Machine will compete in UIL State Marching Contest Monday at Univ. of Texas Memorial Stadium in Austin.

Preliminary competition for AAA bands will begin at 8:30 a.m. with the Hawk band to march at 10:22. Results from the preliminaries should be told by noon, with those advancing to the finals to begin competing at 6:45 p.m.

The band paved the road to the state contest by being the only band in the 3-A district to receive a first division rating at district competition and one of the top two bands at regional competition.

The band, which is 105 strong on the marching field, is relatively young. Director Greg Miller approximates there are around 15 seniors, some 20 juniors, 30 sophomores and 35 to 40 freshmen.

Assistant director Ed Hefti cites the band's main strength to be the low brass and said there are really no major weaknesses. He also said the trumpet line, woodwinds and the percussion section have greatly improved since the first of the year.

The band's improvement has come from a lot of hard work. Hefti said the band took up sectionals three weeks ago with the entire band practicing one night a week and each section practices all others nights but Friday.

The percussion section has benefitted from the help of Bill Brown, who is stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base and is a former member of the Blue Devils, a nationally known drum corps, who works with them on sound and formation.

Brown has also worked with drum majors Wes Ward and Christi Cravens on their pre-show salute and routine.

The Hawk Band's record speaks for itself, having rated only a second division in marching competition once in 10 years. This includes first division ratings in marching the last

Hawks take on Bulls to wind up schedule

The Hawks won't be able to look over their shoulders toward Breckenridge, where the Bucks will be hosting Decatur tomorrow night.

Based on Bridgeport's performance last week against the Buckaroos, Iowa Park will have its hands full with a talented herd of Bulls.

Iowa Park has a vested interest in the Decatur-Breckenridge outcome, because if the Eagles win their game by 15 or more points, the Hawks will be left at home when the state playoffs begin next week.

Going into tomorrow's action, the Hawks are standing in second place with Decatur among Dist. 6-AAA teams and Breckenridge remains undefeated.

And even though Iowa Park beat Decatur, the Eagles could earn the district's runner-up position with a 15-point win over the Bucks, because of a district rule change this year.

Instead of deciding ties with the flip of a coin, which left Springtown at home last year while Iowa Park and Vernon advanced, the new rule calls for a point spread between the tied teams.

Though Bridgeport has won only three games all season, and is 1-3 in conference play, the Bulls showed last week they're no pushovers.

Breckenridge may have still been celebrating its 20-6 win over Iowa Park when the Bucks entered the game, because they were trailing the Bulls 20-8 at the half.

In fact, had it not been for an eight-minute period in the third quarter of their game, coupled with some turnovers late in the game, the Bulls would have waxed the Bucks.

But the league-leading Buckaroos were able to cover three Bull fumbles, two of them inside the Breckenridge 10, and steal one Bull pass attempt to thwart disaster.

In the meantime, a determined Bridgeport defense intercepted three Breckenridge aeriels and covered one Buck fumble.

Leading the Bull ball carriers this year, as he did last year as a sophomore, is 195-pound Cason Rangel, who was a second team All-District selection in 1985.

Bridgeport isn't blessed with a bunch of big players, but 285-pound center Scotty Hale holds his own when he's on the field.

The only other Bull who tips the scales over 200 pounds is a sophomore, Sam Lara.

Bridgeport, which has never beaten the Hawks, lost 26-7 to Olney in the season opener, and 28-6 to Carroll, before beating Sanger 25-19. The Bulls beat Aledo 25-13 the following week, but fell 14-7 to Boyd in the final pre-district contest.

After opening Dist. 6-AAA play with a 15-14 win over Jacksboro, the Bulls lost 18-7 to Decatur, and then was edged 20-17 by Bowie.

In their previous two meetings, Iowa Park handled Bridgeport 35-13 (1984), and 24-0 last year.

Police investigating Dairy Queen burglary

Iowa Park police are continuing their investigation into a nighttime burglary of Dairy Queen.

Reported at 5:54 a.m. Thursday, an unspecified amount of cash and checks were taken in a deposit bag after entry into the building was gained through the roof air conditioner.

Nothing else was reported missing, according to Det. Tommy Adams.

The following night, an 18-year-old man was arrested as a suspect after the burglar alarm at Wal-Mart was set off.

Police found no one at the business, after the 1:32 a.m. alert, but, according to the police blotter, took Justen Scott Bush into custody at 2:54 a.m. in the 100 block of West Alameda as a suspect of criminal mischief and driving while intoxicated.

Police reported evidence of attempted forced entry in the front door of Wal-Mart.

Bush was turned over to a county deputy at 5:11 a.m.

Later in the day, Bates Chevrolet reported a pickup being stolen, and it was the vehicle in which Bush was found and confiscated after the arrest. It was returned to the owner, according to the blotter.

Thursday afternoon, burglary of contents of a coin operated machine at Davis Wash House was reported.

Police arrested Alice Wardlow, 35, at a local business on a Henderson County warrant for forgery.

The woman was released on a personal recognisance bond, however, after tests determined she had Class B infectious hepatitis.

Two tires were slashed sometime Saturday night on Sunset.

One was reported by Mrs. Jerrell Chenaude, 1308 Sunset, and the other by Clyde E. Gray of 1328.

Trustees set meeting, council's postponed

Members of the Iowa Park school board will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building, but Monday's regularly-scheduled meeting of the city council has been postponed.

Among the topics to be discussed by the trustees are work on the junior high school building, a request to participate in the University Interscholastic League swimming program, emergency use of the Valley View school building, and appoint a member to the county tax appraisal district board.

Trustees will consider a contract to install metal siding and do other related work on the east wall of the junior high building.

Postponed from their recent called meeting is a proposal to the board by parents to permit their children to participate in the UIL swimming competition.

The Fifth Battalion of the Army Reserve has requested permission to use the Valley View building as an alternate assembly area during a period of international conflict. Board action is required before permission can be granted.

Also on the agenda is presentation of a special recognition award to the Iowa Park High School band, which will be competing Monday in the state marching contest in Austin, and action to accept letters of resignations and employment of new personnel.

Monday's meeting of the city council was postponed because of conflicting activities for several aldermen.

All-Membership Chamber luncheon slated Monday

The annual All-Membership meeting of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce will be held at 12-noon Monday in the County Agriculture Building, 220 W. Park.

Attracting industrial payrolls to the area will be the subject of two Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry staff members, Tim Cowden and Jim Johnson, when they speak at the meeting.

Officers and directors of the Chamber will be elected during the business meeting. They will be installed at the annual banquet in January.

"This meeting is open to all members of the Chamber, not just the officers and directors," emphasized President Frank Gossett.

Reservations for members, spouses and guests for the catered meal should be made by Friday, by contacting the Chamber office, 592-5441. Price of the meal is $5.

Area voters agree with county, state

Iowa Park area voters Tuesday went along with the majority of Wichita County and Texas voters in returning former governor Bill Clements to office.

Clements carried four of the five Iowa Park area boxes, but incumbent Mark White had the most votes in the box at Valley View.

Cong. Beau Boulter carried every area box, as well as the majority of Wichita County and the 13th District.

While Clements and Boulter are both Republicans, they didn't help long enough coat tails to help any other party candidates in the Iowa Park boxes. Voters switched over to the other side on all the rest of the candidates, who were Democrats.

Also like the rest of the county, area voters approved the special issue on the ballot, the Enhanced 911 telephone number.

Clements, who was unseated four years ago by White, carried only 29 boxes in Wichita County, as well as the majority of the absentee ballots. White, on the other hand, had the majority of votes in the other 33 polls of the county.

Of the 25,280 ballots cast Tuesday in the county, 2,252 were from the five Iowa Park area boxes. The five boxes produced 8.9 percent of all the ballots cast election day.

Precinct 32, the box for the north side of the city, again attracted more ballots, 1,344, than any other box in the county.

Clements carried Precinct 32, 825-462; Precinct 33, 203-153;

Precinct 53 (Pleasant Valley Church), 91-70, and Precinct 60 (Wichita Valley Community Building), 127-103.

White won only Precinct 34, 71-60.

While many observers had felt the weather would hold down attendance at the polls, the steady drizzle apparently had little effect on local voters.

Horton, Hudson vows exchanged Saturday

The Log Cabin in Wichita Falls' Lucy Park was the scene of a double-ring ceremony performed Saturday afternoon for Miss Robyn Heather Horton and Scott P. Hudson.

The bride's parents are Sandi Buffington of Dallas and Robert Horton Jr. of Kamay, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hudson of Wichita Falls.

Rev. Darius McKay, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, officiated the ceremony in a nuptial space decorated with a white swan holding an arrangement of blue flowers and white baskets of blue and white mums supported by brass stands.

The taped music for the wedding featured "House Full of Faith" by Steve Green and the traditional marches.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length Spanish-style dress overlaid with white lace accented with white satin ribbon, and the trim was repeated on her matching hat. She carried a silk bouquet centered with a white orchid complemented with roses, sprengeri, baby's breath and ivy.

Mrs. Barry Taylor, the matron of honor, wore a long off-the-shoulder-style blue taffeta dress.

Megan Horton, the flower girl, wore a long blue chiffon dress and a headpiece of blue rosebuds and baby's breath.

Michael Horton, the ring bearer, was clad in beige dress pants and blue dress sweater.

The groom, Billy Hudson, the best man, and the father of the bride wore black tuxedos with white shirts and grey vests.

The ushers were Jim Bob Horton and Lydia Brubaker.

The bride's mother's ensemble consisted of navy pants, blue chiffon blouse worn over a white sweater. The groom's mother wore a turquoise street-length dress topped with a short jacket.

MRS. SCOTT P. HUDSON

The wedding reception was held at the Log Cabin. The bride's table was covered with royal blue overlaid with white lace. The highlight of the table decorations was the traditional three-tiered cake decorated with white wedding bells and a top ornament featuring a kissing bride and groom standing under a lace heart.

The table also held a silver and crystal compote with blue mints for the centerpiece and a silver punch bowl.

The groom's table was laid with royal blue and white lace. The appointments were a chocolate cake trimmed with white, set off with wedding rings and "Robin and Scott" in the center, two brass candlesticks,

Baby shower held Sunday

Mrs. Bruce Gibbs was honored Sunday afternoon at a baby shower given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Copas. The hostesses were Leora Aaron, Tammy Delaney and Brenda Copas.

Pink and blue rocking horses were featured in decorations for the party. The refreshment table was centered with a beautiful wicker basket of baby bath supplies accented with a helium balloon. The refreshments consisted of an assortment of cookies and punch.

The honoree, her mother, Mrs. Perry Copas, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Gibbs, who sat with her while she opened her gifts for display, wore corsages of pink and blue carnations and miniature baby toys.

Mrs. James L. Copas, grandmother of the honoree, was a special guest among more than forty who attended.

Mission work is topic

Mrs. S.B. Keeter opened the Tuesday morning meeting of the United Methodist Women by using the calendar of prayer for missionaries who observed their birthdays that day. Their names and fields of service were called, and special prayer for them and mission work areas on the national level was offered.

During the meeting, Betty Dyer, recently elected district secretary, reported on a workshop held at Electra Sunday.

Gerry Thurlo gave a report of the district meeting held at the First United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls recently. She said that Ellen Palmer was the featured speaker and told of her recent trip to Haiti with an eye doctor team. She had recently spoken to the local group. She had pictures of the Haitian women receiving the piece goods sent by the Iowa park unit along with cash donations given to her in early October to distribute to the natives.

Mrs. Keeter announced that a copy of "Mission Milestones," a newly published history of the North Texas Conference of Methodist Women, was now in the church library.

She gave a brief history of the Iowa Park Women's work which was begun in 1896 when they met for quilting and Bible study. In 1910, they were able to purchase pews for the new brick church.

Announcement was made of a bake sale at the church Dec. 6 beginning at 9 a.m. At that time the cookbook "Sharing Recipes" compiled in 1985 will be on sale for $5.

Mrs. Don Owens gave the devotion on "Giving Thanks Always" and the "Touch" benediction closed the meeting. Twenty members were present.

and a brass vase holding blue silk flowers.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Blaine Horton and Ronda Scobee, and the houseparty members were Mrs. Bill Horton and Mrs. Benny Horton.

Angela Buffington sat at the guest book on a table that held a candle ring of blue flowers.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and works for Supercuts. The groom was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and is employed by the Texas Highway Department.

Following a trip to Dallas, the couple are at home in Wichita Falls. When they departed for Dallas, the bride was wearing a grey and white striped dress with a white corsage.

Out-of-town wedding guests came from Dallas, Graham, Archer City, Abilene, Amarillo and Biloxi, Miss.

Projects reported

Members of Epsilon Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met in the home of Mrs. Alan Forney Tuesday evening and Mrs. Paul Walker served as co-hostess.

Mrs. Howard McDowell gave a report of the seminar and district meeting and announced the state board meeting at Weslaco this weekend. Mrs. Bill Hrcirik and Mrs. Bud Mercer will represent the chapter at the meeting.

A report was given on the face painting and hair sculpture for the Tom Burnett Memorial Library and face painting at Heritage Manor Halloween night.

The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving dinner for members and their spouses, and the next regular meeting will be held Dec. 2 when a program on "Drug Abuse" will be given.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Two Valley View 4-H club members have recently represented Wichita County well at the 1986 State 4-H Record Book Competition held in College Station.

Christy Cravens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Cravens of Valley View, placed eighth in the state competition. Christy's record book contained information primarily on her 4-H sheep projects throughout her 4-H career. Also listed were other 4-H activities.

Lisa Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hodges of Valley View, placed seventh in the 4-H Leadership class. Lisa's record also contained information concerning various other 4-H projects in which she has participated as well as awards and offices held.

Both Hodges and Cravens have proven outstanding in the 4-H program. Both are recipients of the 4-H Gold Star Award, the highest honor at the county level. Both 4-Hers have competed in other district as well as state 4-H competitions.

Fish Oil Concentrate Reduces Blood Fats

Administration of daily doses of omega-3 fatty acids (marine lipid concentrate) has produced beneficial changes in blood fat levels in patients with coronary heart disease, according to Dr. Michael H. Davidson of Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center in Chicago.

These benefits were obtained solely from dietary supplementation with omega-3 capsules, without other modifications of diet or lifestyle.

Dr. Davidson studied 30 patients with coronary artery disease and randomly assigned half to receive either capsules of olive oil or fish oil.

After 30 days of treatment, the 15 patients who received the omega-3 capsules had a 12% decrease in serum total cholesterol, a 40% reduction in serum triglycerides and a 17% decrease in the ratio of serum total cholesterol to serum HDL.

The capsules are available in our pharmacy.

Raymo, Evans wedding features western theme

Karen Christine Raymo, granddaughter of Dorothy Brooks of Berea, Ohio, and Robert Curtis Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Evans of Iowa Park, were married Saturday afternoon at the home of the groom's parents. Rev. Larry Washburn, pastor of the Pacific Avenue Missionary Baptist Church, performed the double-ring service.

A western theme was noted in room decorations, music, attire of the bride and groom and those who took part in the wedding, and reception table decorations.

Country love songs, including "Now and Forever," a favorite of the bride and groom, was the taped music for the wedding.

For recitation of their vows, the couple stood before the fireplace mantel decorated with brass candelabra holding blue candles and pothos ivy. Bouquets of blue silk flowers were placed at vantage points in the room.

The bride's attire featured a long blue denim skirt, grey silk blouse accented with pastel pink stripes, and blue boots. She carried a bouquet of blue and white silk daisies and wild flowers.

Barbara Galik of Troy, Tex. served as matron of honor and Kristy York, daughter of the bride, was the bridesmaid. They wore jeans, shirts striped in colors of soft pink, blue

Home missions program topic

Seventeen members of the Night BW of First Baptist met with Mrs. D.O. James Monday. Mrs. Sam Hill was the co-hostess.

Mrs. Terrel Silvers presided during the period devoted to business which was opened by Mrs. E.T. Patterson who was in charge of the missionary birthday prayer calendar.

The president outlined plans for a special program during the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions during December, and it was voted to contribute articles of clothing to the Wichita County Welfare for the November outreach project.

Mrs. J.T. Parker was leader for the program taken from Royal Service. The topic was "Church/Home Missionaries" and emphasized how three women have found the true spirit of missions in their homes in South America.

Mrs. Parker pictured Priscilla in the New Testament as a church/home missionary as she helped her husband, Aquila, with tent making and opened her home to Paul for lodging.

Those who assisted with the program were Miss Helen Reed, Mrs. J.A. Berg and Mrs. Homer Blalock who gave topics on church/home missionaries in Ecuador, Uruguay and Paraguay.

in a brass spittoon. The bride's ring was custom-designed in gold, diamonds and sapphires. The groom's ring was shaped in a horseshoe of diamonds and featured a horsehead and fence in the center.

The groom wore a grey western dress shirt with denim jeans and a boutonniere made by the bride. He was attended by his brother, James Evans, as best man, and Virgil Morris as groomsman. They wore western attire.

The bride was graduated from high school in Mesa, Ariz. The groom, who works at Cryovac, was graduated from Wichita Falls High School. They will live on Horseshoe Lake Road, Iowa Park.

The refreshment table was covered with blue denim trimmed with white eyelet. The appointments featured a cowboy boot filled with pothos ivy and assorted blue silk flowers, cowboy hat, red bandana, punch bowl and a sheet cake decorated with small cowbells, ceramic cowboy and cowgirl standing under an arch of flowers.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ray Hamilton and Mrs. James Evans, and guests were registered by Kristy York.

There are over ten million people who are diabetics, and this amount is increasing annually by six percent. A thorough physical examination by a physician can identify diabetes, but there are signals that might alert suspicion. Two of the common warning signals are the onset of vision problems combined with a pain or tingling in the hands or feet at night.

If an individual suspects diabetes in themselves or a family member, the best course is to seek medical evaluation immediately.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Congratulations to the members and directors of the Mean Green Marching Machine for having qualified as the first Iowa Park band to reach the University Interscholastic League state marching contest.

The entire community is proud of you all!

I got my Christmas present early this year, when Whooeee White was voted out of the governor's office in Tuesday's general election.

But I don't think, on a state-wide level, voters were voting so much for former governor Bill Clements as they were voting against White. It wasn't, in my opinion, a vote for the Republican party, either, as evidenced by all the high-level Democrats who were returned to office.

White won four years ago because of the votes he wrangled from senior citizens and educators. He had either lied or misled them, and his true colors were exposed in his short stay in the mansion.

Eventhough an organization of coaches in the state were campaigning against White, I'll tell you it wasn't primarily on the "No Pass, No Play" issue. There was a lot more, and educators realized it after House Bill 72 was put into action.

And senior citizens learned White's promises of lower utility bills wasn't something he could control.

But the public, in general, switched back to Clements for two primary reasons: they felt Clements, a businessman, could do a better job of running the business of the state and at less cost; and they learned very quickly that White's answer to any and all problems of the state could be settled by more money. Tax money.

I couldn't help but chuckle over one box in Wichita Falls that went with White.

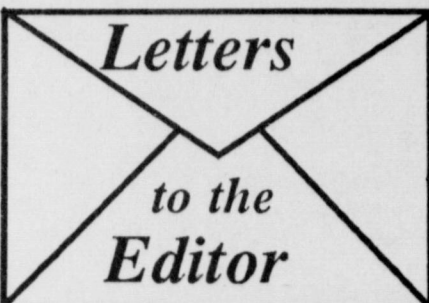

He narrowly edged out Clements, 16-15, at the State Hospital.

Hawk Coach David Baugh came up with the quote of the season during Friday night's runaway game with Jacksboro.

It was in the latter part of the game. The score was completely out of hand in favor of the Hawks. And then the penalty flags started flying. One of them had recalled a 65-yard score.

Then, when one of the Tigers was returning a kick and lost the ball on a fumble, and possession was given back to Jacksboro, Baugh sounded off.

Feeling the officials were demonstrating sympathy for the Tigers, Baugh shouted, "Don't be so easy, Ref. This is a contact sport!"

Problem at poll

Tonight at about 5:30 p.m. while exercising my right to vote I witnessed two separate incidents that makes me question the validity of this year's election.

One elderly gentleman stated he was unable to read and required his wife's assistance. The woman in charge would not allow this. She said she was the only one allowed to help. He explained that last election he had let a stranger help and still doesn't know how he voted. He can trust his wife, he doesn't know this other person.

This gentleman was forced to depart without voting. He was denied a right guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

Less than a minute after this man left, a young woman entered and stated that she had lost her Voter Registration Card.

She was informed by the same woman as had just denied the gentleman his right to vote that she could not vote without the card. After much argument and another voter showing them the back of his card that stated "You may vote without your certificate by signing an affidavit at the polling place, she was finally allowed to vote.

I feel that both these acts should have been handled differently. Apparently this one woman was mad at something and as a result, one man was denied his constitutional rights and the woman was needlessly harassed.

Something needs to be done to prevent this from happening in the future. I'm sure the first incident was a violation of the federal law. If this much happened in the brief 10-15 minutes I was there I can only begin to imagine how many other persons were denied their rights or needlessly harassed.

Joe H. Noel Jr.
(EDITOR'S NOTE: Noel later stated he voted at Precinct 33)

Has problem voting

Election Nite Nov. 4, 1986

As I drove from my work in W.F., I was feeling very positive about the fact I had asked people in my department at work if they were voting? Only one was registered. I tried to explain the importance of this right. We have to vote. Some said because of my suggestion they would consider registering to vote next year.

Before going home I went into Precinct 33 in Iowa Park to vote.

Mrs. D.O. James asked me for my registration card. I told her I didn't have it, but I was registered and would be on the computer sheet. She kept on insisting that I needed this card to vote. By this time the other lady had seen my name was on the computer sheet. However, Mrs. James continued to pursue the fact that I should have this card on me to vote.

Finally, I asked, do I have all that is required to vote. The other lady said yes. I said thank you, maybe I can vote in peace now. Why the hassle?

Needless to say by this time I voted all one ticket due to the fact I was ready to leave because of the abuse.

Mr. Boulter, you lost a vote. Mrs. James, hang it up.

As I read the national news media and listen to the professional news readers on the major national networks, I am shocked by their lack of knowledge. In the midst of their concern for the people of South Africa, their outrage at the treatment of journalists in the Soviet Union and the weekly guesses as to who will be the presidential candidates two years from now, they are over looking one of the biggest stories of this decade.

It must be as I have heard. To the Eastern media, all life ends west of the Hudson river. They are more concerned with what is happening half way around the globe than what is happening in our own back yard.

I have yet to see any mention in the national media about the unrest, riots and demonstrations that are taking place in Mexico today. It is as if the problems of our nearest Southern neighbor did not exist.

The problems all started in Mexico about four years ago when the price of crude oil began to slip. The ruling government of the country, the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), was badly overextended on loans that they counted on oil money to pay off. Instead they were forced to borrow more money from the bankers of the world.

The conditions that the bankers placed on the loans were that the government cut spending and curtail development plans. The government complied, throwing millions of Mexicans out of work, but they retain their fat salaries and payoffs.

As the economy of the country worsened the signs of a government not in control appeared. Corruption is rampant, the drug lords ply their trade with little interference from the government and the people are trying to get out of the country and into the United States.

The opposition party, the National Action Party (PAN) is trying to win the government back by the election process. They fielded a slate of popular candidates in the Chihuahua state elections, in an attempt to win control of the state's legislative process.

The PRI resorted to election fraud and voter intimidation to prevent the rival PAN from winning a single office. The supporters of PAN screamed foul and rioted in the streets of Juarez.

Cooler heads prevailed and the riots ceased to be followed by a hunger strike and other acts of civil disobedience. The city was placed off limits to American troops stationed at nearby military installations.

What will happen when the leaders of the PAN can no longer control their followers? Rioting in the streets has a way of leading to armed resistance and guerrilla warfare.

State Senator John Trager of Seguin has said that if such a revolution were to occur that over 70 million refugees would cross the border into the United States.

If the problem had begun in any other Mexican city other than Juarez, it would not be nearly as important. Juarez was the city that spawned the revolution that threw the French out of Mexico and was the beginning of a free Mexican nation.

The Senate passed a bill to permit states to increase the speed limit to 65 miles per hour on interstate highways in rural areas.

Little chance is given the bill to pass the House for the simple reason that the representatives from the crowded corridors of the Northeast prefer the 55 miles an hour limit.

The national 55 mph speed limit was imposed on states by the federal government during the energy crisis of the early 1970s.

And the issue has been a thorn in the side of all motorists west of the Mississippi ever since.

Texas has 2,422 miles of rural interstates, far more than any other state, and only 794 miles of urban interstates.

The statistics used by the National Safety Council that the double nickel speed limit saves lives have come under heavy fire this summer.

The dramatic drop in lives lost from highway accidents when the 55 mph speed limit was first passed has been used every year to show the number of lives saved.

Yet in the eighties, with average speeds increasing in almost every state, the number of people killed in highway accidents has continued to drop.

By actual measurement, 75 percent of vehicles on monitored stretches of rural interstate highways last year were exceeding the limit.

The bottom line is simple. Raising the speed limit to 65 on rural interstates would cost 500 lives per year. The trade off is time--lots of it.

Raising the double nickel to 65 would save, according to one statistician, 50,000 years of driving time nationwide.

In other words, one life for each 100 years of driving time...that's the question...if you believe in statistics.

five years and Sweepstakes, marching and concert and sightreading, the past three.

To qualify for state a band must first be named top three in it's district to advance to regional competition. At regionals, the band must rate in the top two, which Iowa Park did Saturday along with Tulia.

At state competition, Iowa Park will be competing with 10 to 14

AAA bands for the prestigious state title.

The present format to state band competition has only been in effect the last three years. Before then, if a band got a division one rating at region, they had the option to compete at the state level. This became a problem when too many bands were competing.

Miller and Hefu agree that the realization of state competition was made possible not only by the band members, but also by the financial support given by the school board, which provided new uniforms and marching instruments. Hefu said, "The financial support given by the school has made a big difference."

The Iowa Park Band Boosters are also given a lot of credit. "The Band Boosters have been the supporting backbone of our band program," Hefu said.

The Band Boosters are responsible for many fund raisers for the band including concession stand sales at home football games, the calendar sale, and the annual cornbread and bean supper. They are also responsible for various Hawk Band paraphernalia, signs that decorate the school, getting sponsors for trips and the annual twirling festival.

Miller commented that the community support has been great. "There was an incredible amount of Iowa Park people attending (the regional competition) Saturday," he said.

SCOTT DAVIS SCORES SECOND HAWK TD OF THIRD QUARTER, A 13-YARDER

No contest: Hawks 57, Tigers 7

Despite Coach David Baugh's using 10 different backs to carry the ball, two different quarterbacks and playing every member of the varsity Friday night, the Hawks humiliated Jacksboro 56-7 in their final home game of the regular season.

It was the most points scored by an Iowa Park football team since 1970, when the Hawks posted a 70-0 win over Bowie.

Five different backs scored touchdowns, one of them while playing on defense.

The Hawks made the same mistakes that have led to two losses and a tie this season, but as when they played at Bowie, they were so dominating that they could overcome the miscues.

Junior tailback Joel Galloway was called on 13 times to carry the ball, and he produced his first 100-yard game of his varsity career. Galloway romped for 123 yards and scored twice, on runs of one and 10 yards.

Scott Weaver scored on runs of 14 and 21 yards, and had a 65-yard TD called back on a penalty. He still had a 64-yard night. Both his touchdowns were in the first quarter, when he carried only six times.

Danny Forman carried 10 times, gained 47 yards, and scored on runs of three and six yards.

Starting quarterback Scott Davis carried the ball only four times, but scored on a 13-yard rollout.

The other touchdown was a 38-yard return of an intercepted pass by Eric Whitman.

Toby Brown split the uprights on all three of his extra point kick attempts, Robert Adams hit two of three attempts, and Jim Cummings ran for a two-point conversion, accounting for all the Hawk points.

Iowa Park scored 21 points in the first quarter, seven in the second, 21 in the third and seven in the fourth.

Jacksboro's lone TD was posted on the scoreboard in the second quarter, when the Tigers were trailing 28-0.

On the play immediately following Weaver's 65-yard touchdown which was called back on a holding penalty, Davis was hit before he could pitch the ball out to one of his backs, fumbled, and Jacksboro had the ball on the Hawk 16.

Jacksboro punched the line for a yard, and on the next play, ran a reverse which caught the Hawk defenders flatfooted and scored.

The penalty which nullified Weaver's touchdown was one of nine that cost Iowa Park 110 yards on the night. Seven of those penalties were majors.

Davis's lost fumble was among four turnovers by Iowa Park. Gary Tatum lost a fumble, and Jeff Huff had two of his eight pass attempts intercepted.

But the Tigers turned the ball over five times to the Mean Green defense, three times on fumbles and twice on interceptions.

The visitors' fumbles were covered by Galloway, Wayne Olman and Steve Allen. Weaver had the other interception besides Whitman.

The Hawk defense held the Tigers to a net 41 yards rushing and 30 yards passing, completing three of five attempts.

Meanwhile, however, the Iowa Park offense was amassing 347 yards rushing and 120 through the airways.

Tatum carried five times for 24 yards, Whitman three times for 37, Cummings three for 14, Chad Fielding twice for six, David Meissner once for 21 and Adams once for four.

The win gave the Hawks a 3-1 record in district and 6-2-1 for the season.

JUSTIN INMAN WITH FAVORITE PET, RUSTY
... youngster happy with unusual hobby.

Youth doesn't chase after his pets

By KARI COLLINS

What's the difference between a turtle, a tortoise and a terrapin?

If you don't know the answer, just ask Justin Inman. Turtles have been his hobby the past three and a half years.

Inman, an eighth grader and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Inman, became interested in turtles when his cousin brought a tortoise back from Arizona.

His collection of turtles began with a female named Sammy who still bears a painted "S" on her back. Since then, his collection has grown to 21.

He said, "We have two birds, two cats, one dog and 21 turtles. Kind of an odd combination, isn't it?"

Justin also raises pigeons, which are kept at his grandfather's house.

Most of Justin's collection consists of ornate box turtles, but he also has three "toed box turtles," a snapping turtle and a soft shell turtle.

He said he prefers box turtles to snappers because the latter are more difficult to tame. The turtles seem quite comfortable being handled by Justin or anyone else.

Most of his turtles are given to him by friends, but he'll occasionally find one he wants to keep. One of these is the soft shell turtle he found in the Wichita River.

Caring for his "friends" is relatively easy, according to Justin. Most of them find their own food, but they will eat meat, bugs, bananas and occasionally garden tomatoes when fed to them.

Only the soft shell turtle, "Rusty," which has to be kept in water and fed minnows and crawdads, requires any extra care.

The turtles, which live in his back yard, only pose a problem when it's time to mow the lawn and they have to be gathered up. They never stray from the yard, knowing a good deal when they see one.

A neighbor of the Inman's commented that after the lawn had been mowed, to look in the backyard is almost like looking back into prehistoric times. "You look back there and there are turtles creeping everywhere," he said. "It's neat."

During the school year, when Justin has the least amount of time to spend on his hobby, the turtles oblige and hibernate for the winter. This occurs when the weather starts getting cooler, usually in October, and they come out in April or May.

Justin gets most of his knowledge about turtles not only by reading books, but simply by hands-on experience with them.

He rattles off facts about turtles as though it is common knowledge. Facts like hibernation, eating habits, personalities, and telling males and females apart, which incidentally is in the color of their eyes.

Next spring, his collection will be cut to about 10. Justin plans to keep the baby turtles and the good older ones including, of course, Sammy, and sell or give away the others to start over.

By the way, the difference between a turtle and a tortoise lies in the fact that a tortoise has a bigger, bumpier shell than a turtle, and a tortoise won't eat meat, a turtle will. And a terrapin? It's just another name for turtle.

UT SURVEY SHOWS

Texans prefer newspapers for shopping information

When asked where they get most of their consumer shopping information, approximately two out of three Texans respond, "newspapers," so reports Dr. Frederick Williams, director of the Center for Research on Communication Technology and Society at the University of Texas at Austin.

Direct mail ads run a distant second (20 percent), followed by television (11 percent), magazines (six percent) and radio (four percent).

"These figures are not unusual," reports Dr. Gary Wilcox, a specialist in advertising in UT Austin's College of Communication, who is conducting the detailed analysis of the study. "Newspapers are particularly important to people for shopping information on vendor and price," Dr. Wilcox adds.

Similar to other studies of sources of advertising information, the Texas research indicates a relationship of income and education with the use of print media. "This may be a carry-over from a similar correlation found in preferences for sources of news," Dr. Wilcox explains. "The educated tend to rely upon more sources of information and print in particular," he adds.

The current study, when compared with similar information gathered in 1984 from a statewide sample of Texans, further indicates a visible increase in the report of newspapers as a source of shopping information.

In the earlier study, newspapers were reported as a main source of shopping information by 50 percent of the respondents, followed by mail (22 percent), television (18 percent) and radio (10 percent). Magazines were not included as an option in the study.

Those changes in sources of shopping information may reflect several points, Dr. Wilcox says. For example, in difficult economic times, people may have to seek out more detailed information on competitive prices or sales in order to stretch their money further.

That may account for the greater use of newspapers in 1986 in Texas as compared with 1984.

Another and not necessarily competing explanation, Dr. Wilcox adds, is that there are more Texans of higher income and better education in 1986 than 1984, and "we know that this is related to uses of newspapers."

Findings such as these do not mean that advertising in media other than newspapers is a poor investment, Dr. Wilcox explains, pointing out that advertising involves many types of information and persuasion.

The broadcast media generally introduce products to create their images, whereas newspapers may place more stress on where to buy and what the cost will be, he notes.

Mail is interesting as an advertising medium because it can combine these two functions, he adds.

LET'S TALK: Before you plan a funeral, what factors influence your decisions?

- A. Pressure from others to overspend?
- B. Your feelings of guilt, real or imagined?
- C. What "other" people will think?
- D. The TRUE wishes of your deceased loved one?
- E. Being told, "This is the last thing you will ever be able to do for ---."

LET'S BE HONEST: Whatever you do, it will not be for that deceased loved one, but for the survivors.

LET'S FACE IT: No matter how much you spend, no matter how beautiful the casket, you can't do a thing for that loved one. If "aunt Mary" isn't paying, why allow her to intimidate you? The public doesn't care if your loved has a rosewood casket, or a bronze vault. Most likely, you have no real guilt, but even if you do, you can't buy off your conscience. Would your loved one really want you to overspend?

LET'S BE PRACTICAL: Caskets are covered, never to be seen again. But the resting place is forever in view. If you have a set amount of funds, does it make more sense to spend it all on the funeral, or to set aside a portion of it for a contribution to the cemetery in MEMORY of your loved one?

LET'S THINK ABOUT IT: If every bereaved family reserved a portion of available funds for the maintenance of the burial site, the resulting monies, placed in long-term certificates or bonds, would support the cemetery, from INTEREST alone.

It is the dream of HIGHLAND CEMETERY ASSOCIATION to create a beautiful garden. Only when the public shares that dream will it become a reality.

PEEWEE HAWKS 16
QUANAH 8

Jason Young's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown with only 45 seconds to play in the game gave the Peewee Hawks a spot in the championship game Saturday against Holliday.

Quanah's Braves had tied the game on a 48-yard run by Germont Jackson in the third quarter, and they were attempting to drive for the winning score when Young made his interception.

Once again, a great team effort by the Hawks provided the victory over the much-improved Braves.

Early in the game, with the Braves backed up at their own six after the initial Hawk drive stalled, Chad Simpson broke through to trap a Quanah runner for a safety and an early 2-0 Hawk lead.

After a short Quanah kick, Cory Thompson finished the Hawk drive with a one-yard touchdown run. The extra point attempt failed, but the Hawks led 8-0, which stood through the first half.

On Quanah's second possession of the third period, Jackson broke for his touchdown and, with the extra point run, tied the score at 8-8.

Both defenses controlled the remainder of the game, capped by Young's big interception.

Quanah had one more shot with the ball before the scoreboard clock ran out, but Robert Klinkerman put a stop to that with an interception of his own.

Clint Witherspoon led the Hawk runners with 65 yards on 15 carries. Klinkerman had 26 and Thompson 22.

Corky Petty's kicking kept the Chiefs in poor field position most of the game.

Young led Hawk tacklers with six. Josh Castles had five and Witherspoon, Casey Moser, Brian Spruiell, Mickey Mayo, Phillip House and Chad Simpson had three apiece.

Quanah failed to complete any of the five pass attempts, and was held to only 55 yards on 21 rushing plays.

The Hawks will play Holliday in the final game at 6 p.m. Saturday.

drive late in the game for the final 14-0 score.

McIlhane also accounted for 29 of Holliday's total 40 yards passing in nine attempts.

The Bears rushed 41 times for 83 yards and completed one of two passes for two more yards.

"We did have seven first downs to four for Henrietta, and we did not allow a first down in the second half," noted Gill Gilbert, defensive back coach. "But our play will have to improve dramatically to even have a shot at Burkburnett.

Kickoff for the championship is 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Iowa Park's Griffith Stadium.

MIDGET EAGLES 14
HENRIETTA 0

The Holliday Midget Eagles earned their first trip to the Top of Texas League Championship Game in over 10 years with a 14-0 win over Henrietta in Iowa Park Saturday night.

"The last time the Midgets played for the championship, two of our coaches were on the team," commented Don McClendon, Eagle defensive coach.

The Eagles' win Saturday was not very impressive. Coach Mel Belcher told his team after the game, "Gentlemen, if this is the way you're going to play football, then you've won your last ball game."

The Holliday team must now play the AAAA team from Burkburnett, which has not lost since their star running back returned to the lineup.

Henrietta played great defense and hard-nosed offense, and the Eagles were lucky to be deadlocked at 0-0 at the half.

The second half saw Holliday pick up the pace slightly. Blake Belcher, who led all rushers with 76 yards in 14 carries, scored late in the third period on a four-yard run.

Rob McIlhane then hit Cory McClendon with a pass for the two-point conversion.

McIlhane, who accumulated 57 yards on nine tries, capped a 65-yard

Electra slips by Eagles

HOLLIDAY - The Holliday Eagles suffered a disappointing loss Friday night to the Electra Tigers, 28-21.

The Eagles are now in a three-way tie for first place in the district with Electra and Seymour, each with a 3-1 record.

The first half of the game looked good for the Big Red, who rushed for a total of 237 yards and in the lead 21-14 by half time.

Tiger Rodney Bell, who proved to be the mainstay for Electra, moved his team 69 yards in 10 plays to set up the first touchdown of the game with a 23-yard pass to Chuck Cassey. Bell was good for the PAT.

Holliday was quick to tie the score, running 72 yards in five plays, then topped it off with a 48-yard TD by David Hoepfner. Tim O'Brien made the extra point kick to tie up the game, ending the first quarter 7-7.

The Tigers took the lead again at the first of the second period with a one-yard dive into the endzone, bringing the score to 7-14.

But the Eagles made a quick comeback as O'Brien scored on a six-yard run, and with a failed extra point attempt, the score was at 13-14.

O'Brien came back to score what would be the Eagle's final TD of the game, on a three-yard run. O'Brien was successful on a two-point conversion putting Holliday in a seemingly comfortable half time lead, 21-14.

The third quarter remained scoreless and still looked promising for the Big Red. But a fourth quarter rally won the game for the Tigers.

At fourth-and-three on the Eagle 43-yard line, the Eagles opted to go for a first down. Bell broke through from his safety position to tackle O'Brien for no gain.

Four plays later, the Tigers tied the game again with a 23-yard run.

On Holliday's next possession, they moved the ball to the Electra 39, but a tackle against O'Brien resulted in a four-yard loss, and the Eagles were forced to punt.

Electra took advantage of the situation and after a six-play, 77-yard drive, scored again with a four-yard run. A good PAT by Bell put the final score of the game at 28-21.

Holliday will face Seymour on the road at 8 p.m. Friday. The Panthers are ranked ninth in the state in class AA by the Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll.

Electra will play Olney, who is ranked second in the district with a 2-2 record, Friday night.

Cook of the Week

Young housewives and cooks, early in their married life, learn that home is where the heart is, and the heart of most homes is the kitchen. The cool weather this week and the approach of Thanksgiving has probably inspired many of them to go through their recipes and pull out some of their favorite desserts.

Toni (Mrs. Stuart) Lutz is one of the young cooks who is thinking about desserts for the holidays, judging from her recipes this week. Four call for eggs, which indicates what an important part the eggs have played, and still play, in human diet.

Just how important is the egg? A French gourmet of this century said "the egg is to the cuisine what the article is to the speech," and Brancusi called it "the most perfect form of creation." The Encyclopedia Britannica sums up the place of the egg thus "concerning all factors, eggs are next after milk in importance and efficiency among foods of the animal origin."

There are many different kinds of eggs eaten throughout the world namely, hen, turkey, guinea, duck, peacock, plover, partridge, turtle, etc., but the hen egg is man's choice in the United States. Its popularity is justified because it comes close to being a complete food.

Mrs. Lutz was graduated from Premont High School. She has

The couple are members of the Faith Baptist Church in Wichita Falls where they belong to the Master Life Group and she is a Girls Auxiliary leader. Her hobbies are acrylic painting and crocheting.

I'd like to explain all the benefits of this coverage that insures you both, usually for less than the cost of two separate policies.
