

State school board member frustrated with legislature

By BOB HAMILTON

State school board member Bill Hudson, speaking here Tuesday to the Iowa Park Lions Club, allowed his frustrations with the legislature to show.

In fact, the Wichita Falls resident and retired veteran of more than 50 years in education, stated he didn't know how to sound a warning to all the million-plus people he represents about what could come out of the current special session concerning school finance.

His primary concern is the wording of Senate Bill 31, which has been passed, pointing out that more than half the material in the 34-page document has nothing to do with the financing of education, but rather to dictate control of the duly-elected state board of education.

The Senate bill, after adoption, was sent to the House. And members of the House voted down their own bill, prompting Gov. Bill Clements to call for a second 30-day session to begin April 2.

Hudson's fear of the Senate bill surviving was born the following day, when a reporter for the Dallas Morning News wrote, "The Senate is expected to stay with the education bill it passed last week when the next session gets under way."

"I am only safe (as a state school board member) while the legislature is not in session," Hudson stated.

"You voters have the intelligence to elect your legislators and governor, but right now the legislators have the opinion you do not have the intelligence to elect me," he said.

Part of his frustration is the fact that he, and the rest of the state board, were elected by the voters to set policy for the operation of public schools in Texas. But, based on the Senate bill, the defeated House bill, and House Bill 72 which was passed in 1983, legislators appear to believe it is their task to dictate the running of public schools.

Besides drawing the line on who is to direct policy of public schools, Hudson pointed out his responsibility is dictated by more than anyone in the legislature.

He explained that his district includes 49 counties, 14 state representative districts, five senatorial districts, six congressional districts, eight of the 20 Educational Service Centers, and 1,100,000 people.

All of which is more than any member of the members of the Texas Senate and House.

"Any change in the powers of the school board to be taken away must be done so by a constitutional amendment," Hudson said.

He made the point to explain senate's first bill draft, which was defeated, required the appointment of the board chairman by the governor.

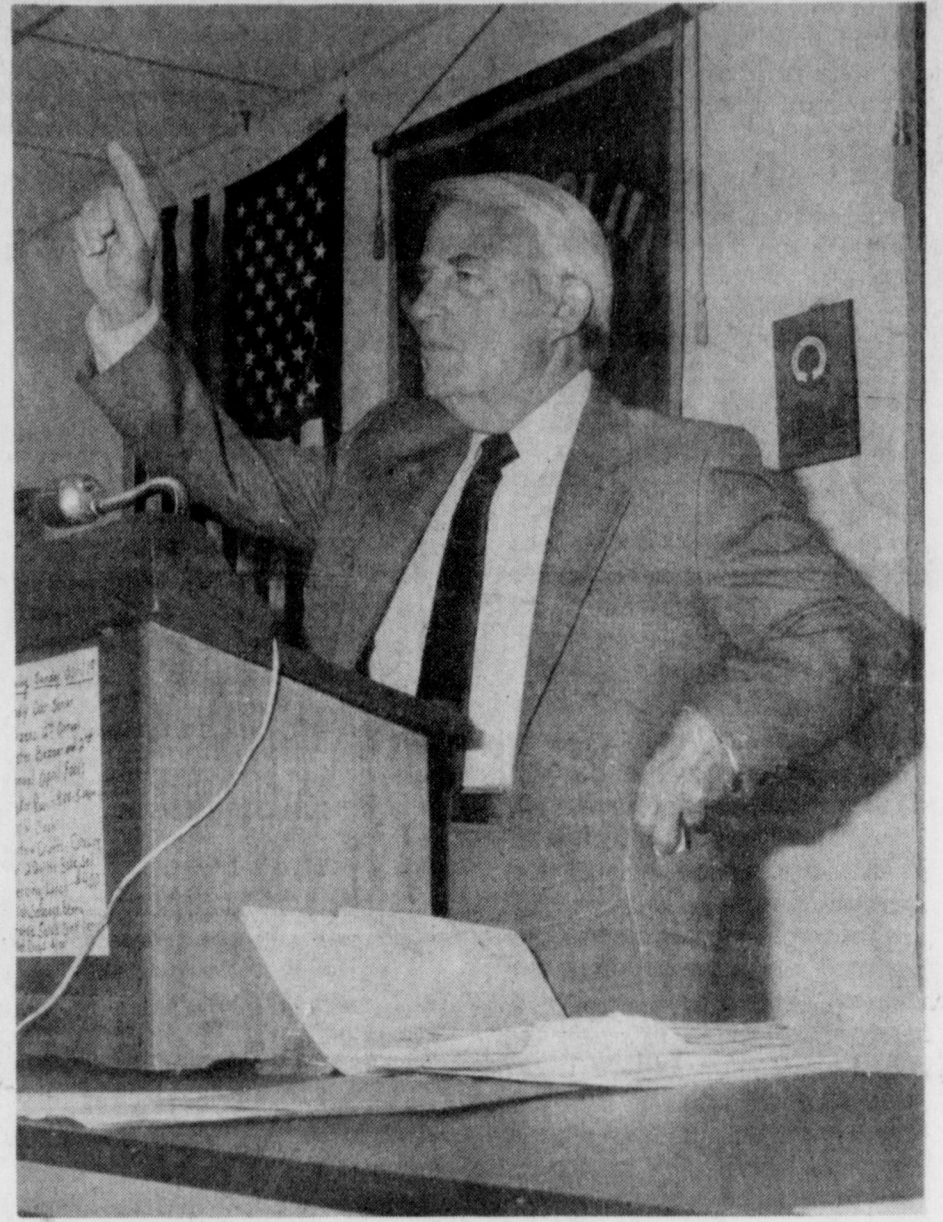

Another point of frustration is the fact that a concurrent resolution by the legislature has instructed the school board to draft a finance plan which would meet the state supreme court's demands.

The board has completed the plan, but it apparently is not being included in either the Senate bill or those considered by the House.

"I resent it when they tell me I'm not a quality educator. And like others, we taught every one of those legislators who were raised in this state," Hudson commented about the lack of confidence in the board by members of the legislature.

Another portion of SB 31 which makes Hudson's blood boil is a section that requires "oversight" of board actions. Any and everything the board might do, under the Senate's legislation, would, if adopted, mean the board had to answer to the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee, Legislative Educator Board, Bond Review Board, Leadership in Educational Administration Development, Legislative Budget Board, Academic Excellence Indicators Advisory Committee, and Educational Economic Policy Center.

Senate members proudly state that under their bill, the state's share in public education costs would rise from 42 percent to "not less than 50 percent."

STATE BOARD MEMBER BILL HUDSON . . . explains frustrations with legislators.

But the addition is faulted. Of the $1,144,500,000 additional state monies required for public education under SB 31, the bill states new local portion would be $1,158,612,829.

That's an error of $14,112,829. Also directed in the Senate bill is a cut of funds for vocational courses, requiring the elimination of CVAE classes other than in grades nine through 12. That means none for grades seven and eight, which are now offered in Iowa Park.

One of the reasons House Bill 1 was voted down was the fact that 40 amendments had been tacked on before it was called to a vote, Hudson observed.

Charles Finnell and Rick Perry both voted against the House bill, but John Gavin voted for it.

Sen. Steve Carriker voted for SB 31, according to a printout Hudson had with him.

Besides his frustration with the legislation that has thus far been brought out in Austin, Hudson has one other.

After referring to the size of his district (he traveled over 25,000 miles during his campaign), he asks "How in the world can I get the word out to all these people in time for them to let their legislators know how they feel about public education and how it should be run."

IOWA PARK LEADER

Vol. 21, No. 28 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 Thursday, March 29, 1990

Trustees okay contracts, reassigns nine teachers

Iowa Park school trustees Thursday night approved contracts for all teachers in the system, changing the assignments for nine of them, but took no action on construction bids for the two elementary campuses.

As in the case of administrators' contracts which were approved earlier, however, the board's motion included a phrase, "...with the salaries to be set when the budget is approved."

Changes in assignments, to begin next year, include:

* Terry Davis - now junior high athletics and PE; changed to Kidwell PE currently taught by Daryl Frazier.

* Bob Gray - now junior high coach and assistant to principal; junior high coach, teach three PE classes now being taught by Davis.

* C.D. Knobloch - now junior high history and 7th grade sports; coach junior high athletics now being taught by himself and Davis, and continue to teach junior high history.

* Daryl Frazier - now Kidwell PE and high school coach; will teach two high school history classes taught by Len Williams, and teach high school health.

* Dennis Brooks - now CVAE vocational instructor; become vice principal at junior high.

Mike Bowling - now maintenance/energy coordinator; teach CVAE and continue with energy program.

Jimmie Cain - now high school coach and teacher; continue present assignment, except will assist Mrs. Smith with 7th grade girls until football season is over.

Ray Sefcik - now high school coach and teacher; continue present work, except will work with 8th grade off season sports 7th period after football season is over and until track starts.

LaRae Collins - now high school English/journalism teacher; become elementary counselor presently held by Pat Davis.

Contracts were extended to teachers on the high school campus, submitted by Principal Richard Davis, including: Wendell Allen, Ruby Black, Dennis Brooks, Jimmie Cain, Tim Clark, Diana Collins, George Collins, LaRae Collins, Ray Dillard, Alice Dyer, Linda Escue, Olivia Garcia, Jim Gotcher, Linda Gray, Jean Johnson, Terry Johnston, Tim Kaspar, Dean Kirkpatrick and Lorna Klinkerman.

Also, Barry Lucy, Gary Lyles, George Martin, Jim Merchant, Candice McKee, Greg Miller, Eldon Patterson, Mary Ress, Earnie Reusch, Carey Roberts, Ray Sefcik, LaRae Slack, Robert Sumner, LaVelle Turman, Carole Venhaus, Janet Walker, Jeanie Wilson, Len Williams and

Aldermen pledge help with flooding problem

The city council Monday night promised a number of residents that an effort will be made to correct flooding conditions along Hawthorne near the intersection of East Garden.

In his appearance before the council, Eddie Richardson suggested the culverts at Garden and the alley were too small and created a backup of water.

Mike Price, public works director, told the council materials, not including labor and equipment, to replace the present horns would cost approximately $1,400.

Alderman Bud Burch suggested one home flooded by the problem would cost considerably more than that amount, and others on the council agreed.

Because the cost was under the $5,000 level, no vote was required for the project to be approved.

Though it was not mentioned during the discussion, council members had attempted to discourage any home building in that area earlier, because of potential flooding.

Two aldermen, Bud Mercer and Virgil Woodfin, were not present at Monday's meeting to express their opinions, but the consensus of the rest of the council was to have the work done.

Also approved was the cost of erecting a radio tower which has been given the city by Wichita Falls.

Aldermen were told contractor Bill Sargent would erect the 80 feet of tower and add an additional 70 feet to reach the desired 150 height for the radio antennas of the police and fire departments.

Cost of the project was reported to be $4,557. The city has already paid Sargent $4,957 to dismantle and store the tower.

Part of the total cost will be paid from $6,000 the city is to receive from the city of Woodson, which has agreed to purchase the old water tower at city hall, on which all antennas are now located.

Earlier discussions have pointed out that cost of maintenance on the old tower, which has not been used since the Johnson Road tower was constructed, would be less than the erection of a smaller tower.

Also approved was a proposal to advertise for bids to rebuild part of North Colorado. Concrete will replace the present asphalt surface, but curbs and gutters will not be included in the plans.

Mayor Tim Hunter read two proclamations: "Iowa Park Optimist Club's Our Club In Action Week" March 18-24, and "Building Safety Week" April 8-14 in the city.

Tim Cook was recognized as the city's Employee of the Month.

Police have three suspects in window-shooting spree

Charges are pending and expected to be filed this week against three Wichita Falls juveniles in connection with a series of vehicle and home window shootings.

Detective Ray Smoth said yesterday the charges will be filed on three males, all students of Notre Dame school and residents of Wichita Falls.

They are alleged to have shot a pellet gun the first week of March in a neighborhood on North Fourth Street.

Additionally, the same youths are alleged to have shot out between 15 and 20 business windows in Wichita Falls, Smock said.

Police arrested a Wichita Falls man who works here Tuesday evening.

Outstanding warrants had been issued against Jack Temple Fultz, 25, by police departments here and Wichita Falls, as well as the Department of Public Safety.

Fultz was wanted here for driving with an expired drivers license, expired registration plates, and no vehicle insurance.

Wichita Falls warrants were for driving with an expired drivers license and vehicle registration violation. The DPS charges were for speeding and failure to appear.

Fultz was transported to county jail after being booked here.

Two men were arrested at 2:41 a.m. Monday on a traffic check near the intersection of Bell and Old Highway.

Harvey Don Eaton, 22, was charged with unlawful carrying of weapons and public intoxication. He was later transported to county jail.

Also arrested was on a charge of public intoxication was Russell Dean Eaton, 19. He was released after paying a $69 fine, according to the police blotter.

Jitty Man Harmon, 39, was arrested Saturday on a charge of having no drivers license and failure to maintain fiscal responsibility (insurance). He was released after promising to appear in municipal court.

Items valued at $890 were reportedly taken sometime Sunday evening from a pickup while parked in the 500 block of West Highway.

Listed as being stolen were a spare tire and wheel, fishing tackle box with rod and reel, assorted lawn-mower parts, tools and a life jacket.

A criminal mischief report filed Sunday stated a front door glass of a home in the 400 block of N. Victoria was broken out, sometime between Friday and Sunday. There were no signs of entry into the home.

News Briefs

Set clocks ahead Saturday

Iowa Parkans and the rest of the nation will supposedly lose an hour of sleep Saturday night.

The nation returns to Daylight Savings Time.

Citizens should set their clocks ahead one hour before going to bed

Saturday, so they will be on the same schedule as everyone else when they get up Sunday morning.

In deciding how to set one's clock, the old saying, "Spring Forward; Fall Backward" should be remembered.

Circus performs here tonight

Two performances of the King Royal Bros. Circus will be held today in the area south of Hawk Stadium.

Sponsored by the Iowa Park Lions Club, performances will be at 5 and 7 p.m.

Weather delays street work

Construction of concrete valley gutters for storm water drainage on Rebecca and Louisa have been rescheduled, and another project just announced also will hamper traffic on another street.

The city's public works department postponed until next week work in the 600 block of Rebecca and 1100 block of Louisa, because of rain.

To begin Tuesday, work on those two block should be completed by next Friday, weather permitting.

The work will require residents to park elsewhere, according to Mike Price, public works director.

Southwestern Bell Telephone workers will begin working near the intersection of Bank and Wall.

Candidates draw for places

Names were drawn Thursday for placings on the May 5 city and school elections, and in every case not one of the incumbents' names heads the list.

Incumbent Keith Fisher is unopposed for Place 7 on the school board.

The order in which the names of the six candidates for Place 6 on the board is Eddie Miller, Jimmy E. Duggins, Don Decker, Randy Catlin, Carmen Lozapon and Nan Davis. Decker is the incumbent.

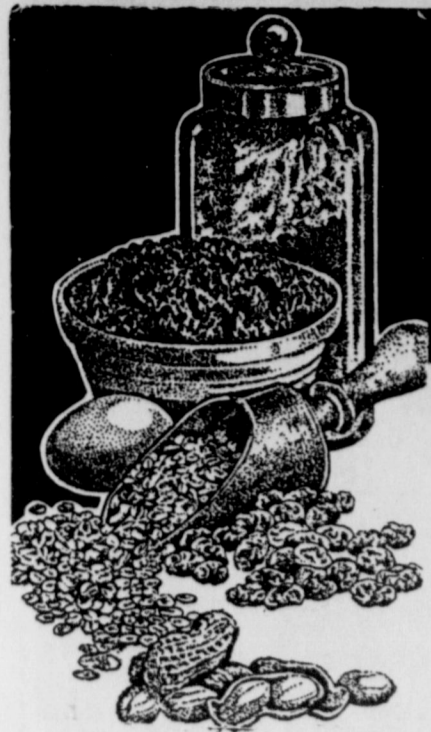

On the city ballots, mayoral challenger Wayne House's name is first, followed by incumbent Tim Hunter.

Place 2 alderman will have challenger Charlie Helms listed first, then incumbent Bud Mercer.

There is no incumbent in the race for Place 4 alderman, as Bud Burch has opted to not run again.

Three candidates for that position are Ira Hambricht, Mark Raby and Johnny Crawford.

Does your subscription to the Leader expire this month? check the list on page 4.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Mike Mills

Terri (Mrs. Mike) Mills said she and her husband chose to buy a home in Iowa Park because of the school system. Also, she said, they prefer the friendly, easy lifestyle of a smaller town and Iowa Park fits that description.

Terri grew up in Wichita Falls and is a graduate of Wichita Falls High School. Her husband, Mike, a graduate of Rider High School, is a carpenter journeyman.

The couple lived on FM 369 four years before deciding to buy a home in Iowa Park and moving here three weeks ago. They have two sons, Robert, eight years old, and David who will be three in June. Terri is expecting a third child in the latter part of July.

The family likes to go camping and fishing, she said, and now that Robert is playing Little League baseball, they will be involved in that.

Terri and Mike enjoy working in their yard and have already planted a vegetable garden. Also, she is looking forward to making jams and jellies from the fruit of their peach and plum trees.

Terri learned to cook at home and in home economics courses in high school. She said she is especially fond of baking and making pastries. Some of the recipes she submitted are ones given to her by family members. The unusual recipe for Broccoli Corn Bread belonged to her grandmother. Chicken and Rice was her mother's recipe, and Oatmeal Cake, a favorite, is from a recipe given to Terri by her mother-in-law.

CHICKEN AND RICE

1 chicken, cut into pieces
1 - 10 3/4 oz. can cream of chicken soup
1 - 10 3/4 oz. can cream of mushroom soup

1 medium onion, diced
1 1/2 cups Minute Rice
2 cans water (use soup cans)
1/4 cup celery (optional)
4 slices bacon (optional)
Preheat oven to 275 degrees. Mix soups, onion, rice, water, celery in bowl. Lay bacon in bottom of 13x9x2" pan. Pour rice mixture on top, then lay chicken on top of rice. Cover with foil and bake 1 1/2 to 2 hours, or until chicken and rice are done. Serve 6.

BROCCOLI CORNBREAD

2 - 6 oz. pkgs. cornbread mix
4 eggs
3/4 cup melted oleo
1 medium onion, chopped
1 - 10 oz. pkg. frozen broccoli
1 - 16 oz. ctn. cottage cheese
Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Combine all ingredients and pour into greased 13-9-2" pan. Bake 25-30 minutes. Makes 24 2-inch squares. Spinach may be substituted for broccoli.

OATMEAL CAKE

Mix:
1 1/4 cups boiling water
1 cup oats
1/2 cup butter
Let stand 20 minutes.
In large bowl mix:
1 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. cinnamon
1 Tbsp. baking soda
1 cup brown sugar
1 1/4 cup flour
2 eggs
Add oat mixture and stir until well blended.

Pour into greased and floured 9x13" pan and bake approximately 35 minutes in 350 degree oven.

ICING

Bring to rolling boil:
1 1/2 cup sugar
1 cup pecans
1 cup flaked coconut
1/2 cup evaporated milk
Pour over cake and place under broiler one minute or until slightly brown.

BROWNIES

2 cups sugar
1/3 cup cocoa
1 cup oleo
4 eggs
2 tsps. vanilla
1 1/2 cups flour
1 tsp. salt (optional)
1 1/4 cup pecans
Mix sugar, cocoa and oleo in sauce pan. Bring to a boil. Fold into flour, salt, beaten eggs, vanilla and pecans, in large bowl, until dry ingredients are moist. Place mixture into greased pan. Cook 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Ice while hot.

COCOA ICING

1 stick oleo
6 Tbsp. milk
1 tsp. vanilla
6 Tbsp. cocoa
1/2 cup pecans
1 box powdered sugar
In saucepan, bring oleo, milk and cocoa to a boil. Boil two minutes (no longer) and set aside. Sift sugar and add pecans and cocoa mixture, then vanilla. Mix well. Ice brownies or cake while warm.

IMPOSSIBLE PIE

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place in blender:
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
2 cups milk
1 tsp. vanilla
1 stick oleo
1/2 cup flour
1 scant cup coconut flakes
1/2 t. butter flavoring
Blend well and pour into greased and floured 9-inch pie pan. Bake 30-40 minutes. Makes its own crust.

Recycling information given to Garden Club members

Mrs. Don Decker and Gala Mikkelson presented an informative program on recycling for the Iowa Park Garden Club during a regular meeting Friday at TU Electric Reddy Room.

Mrs. Norma Fortner was hostess for the meeting.

During the program, Mrs. Decker told members that each person throws away from three and a half to four pounds of trash each day, with 50 percent of the garbage consisting of packaging materials. She said that solid waste disposal, now costing over $4-billion each year, is becoming a topic of concern for people across the nation.

Traditionally, she said, trash has been disposed of by burning or landfilling, but the country is running out of landfill space at an alarming rate.

She told members that a solution to the problem is to reduce the amount of trash being disposed of by reusing and recycling.

Mrs. Decker advised members to shop more wisely by rejecting double-packaged, ready-for-the-microwave food, disposable diapers, and fast food in foam shells. She reported that Americans spent some $32-billion last year on food packaging, totaling eight percent of our total food bill.

Mrs. Mikkelson closed by challenging members to recycle paper, glass, metal and plastic products by utilizing local recycling facilities.

During the business, Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore, awards chairman, announced that nine members attended the District II Spring Convention in Stephenville March 14.

During the convention, Dr. William Welch, chairman of the National Council of Landscape

Design and author of "Perennial Garden Color," gave a slide presentation entitled "Our Texas Gardening Heritage."

Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore accepted three awards in the Garden Club's behalf during the awards presentation. They included Scrapbook, second place; Yearbook, third place; and recognition for a monetary contribution to the Wild Basin Wilderness Project.

Those attending included Mmes. Ray Copening, Don Decker, Jim Gilmore, Vern Mikkelson, Billy C. Gilmore, Bill J. Gilmore, Gladys James, Jo Gilbert and Gala Mikkelson.

In other business, Mrs. John Clapp reported that the wildflower seeds planted last fall at Highland Cemetery Pavilion as part of the club's participation in "Operation Wildflower," have bloomed. "Operation Wildflower" is a district and state project of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc.

Mrs. B.J. Gilmore gave the thought for the day entitled "Seated In The Back," and the 16 members attending answered roll call with items that are recycled at home.

Special guests were Mrs. Micheal Davis and Mrs. Roy Farr.

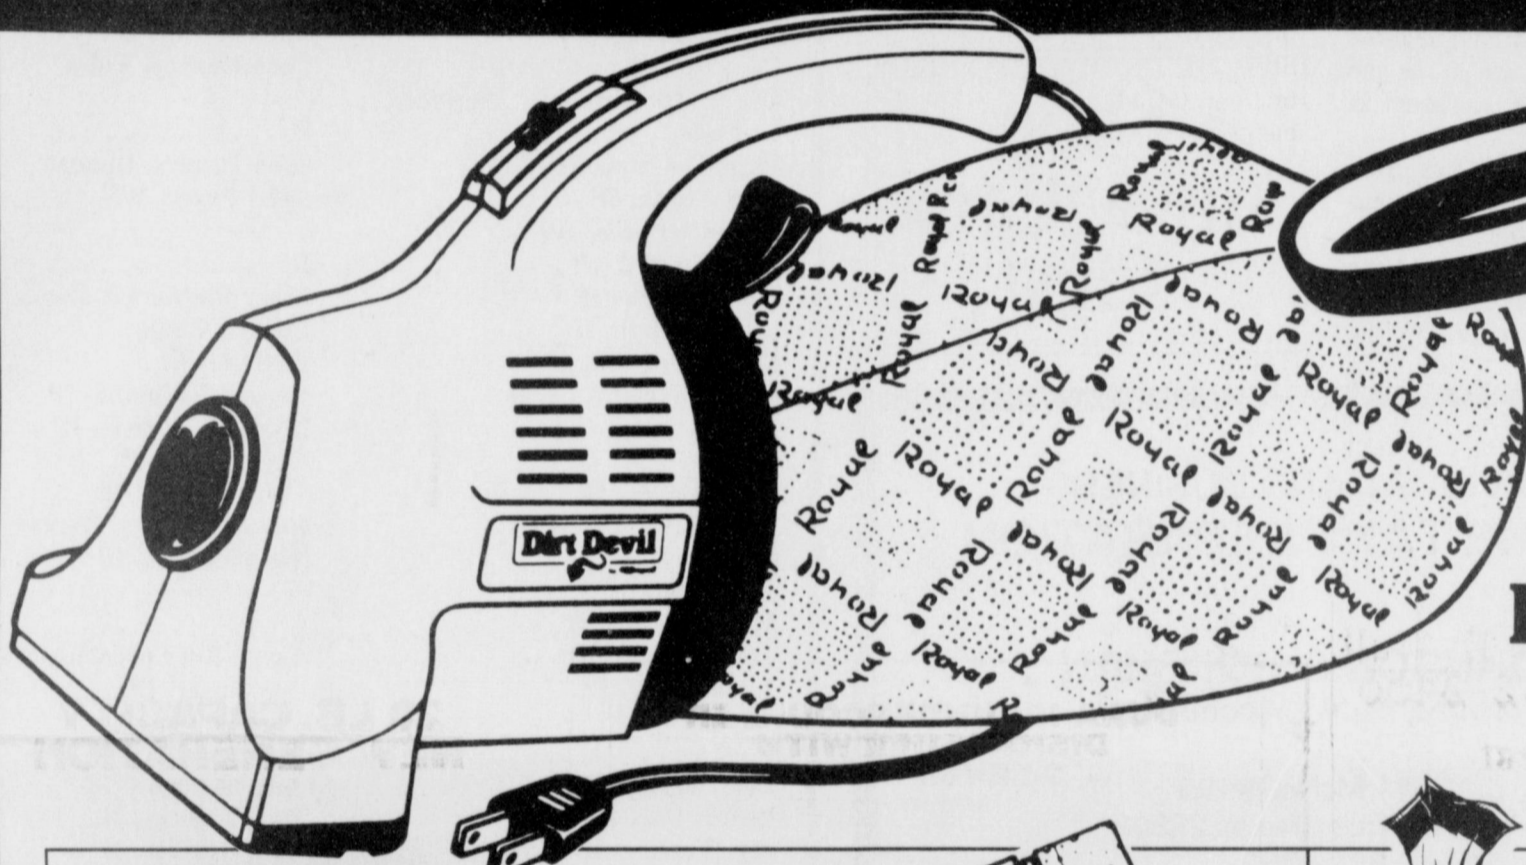

The next meeting will be held April 13 at the TU Electric Reddy Room where member will plant individual cactus gardens.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

Boy, have things changed since I was in school back in Hereford!

I'd never have been able to get a job, pay for my clothes and various activities I wanted to do, if the U.S. Department of Labor had the same rules then they do now.

Our government, while trying its best to do what is right, I'm sure, is making it tougher for teenagers to get jobs these days.

Besides the minimum wages now in place, how in the world can businesses afford to hire school-age youngsters for part time jobs?

I must admit my ignorance of the DOL's regulations. But, apparently, there were several others in this state who shared that lack of information. The DOL recently issued more citations to Texas employers than all employers in the other 49 states, for alleged violations, according to Mary Scott Nabors of the Texas Employment Commission.

For you employers, I'll give you the basic guidelines, so you also will know them and not be cited.

NONAGRICULTURAL JOBS:

(1) Youths 18 years or older may perform any job, whether hazardous or not, for unlimited hours;

(2) Youths 16 and 17 years old may perform any nonhazardous job, for unlimited hours;

(3) Youths 14 and 15 years old may work outside school hours in various nonmanufacturing, nonmining, nonhazardous jobs under the following conditions:

(a) no more than three hours on a school day,

(b) no more than 18 hours in a school week,

(c) no more than eight hours on a nonschool day,

(d) no more than 40 hours on a nonschool week,

(e) work may not begin before 7 a.m., nor end after 7 p.m., except from June 1 through Labor Day when evening hours are extended to 9 p.m.

(f) 14 and 15 year olds who are enrolled in an approved Work Experience or Career Exploration Program (WECEP) may be employed for up to 23 hours in school weeks and three hours on school days (including during school hours.)

(4) Fourteen is the minimum age for most nonfarm work. At any age, however, youths may deliver newspapers, work for parents in their solely-owned nonfarm business (except in manufacturing or on hazardous jobs) or gather evergreens and make evergreen wreaths. Children of any age may perform in radio, television, movie, or theatrical productions. There are, however, state regulations concerning child actors which must be followed. Employers in this industry may obtain a copy of the rules and regulations by contacting the State Office of the TEC.

Are you getting any hints of political pressure when these rules were written?

But wait. There's more!

FARM JOBS

(1) Youths 16 years and older may perform any job, whether hazardous or not, for unlimited hours;

(2) Youths 14 and 15 years old may perform any nonhazardous farm

job outside of school hours;

(3) Youths 12 and 13 years old may work outside of school hours in nonhazardous jobs, either with parent's written consent or on the same farm as the parents;

(4) Youths under 12 may perform jobs on farms owned or operated by parents or, with parents' written consent, outside of school hours in nonhazardous jobs on farms not covered by minimum wage requirements.

(5) Minors of any age may be employed by their parents at any time in any occupation on a farm owned or operated by their parents.

But if you want to find out what constitutes "hazardous" or "nonhazardous" jobs, you gotta contact some Wage-Hour office of the U.S. Department of Labor.

And lotsa luck!

to the Editor

Thanks for response

Dear Editor:

On March 17, 1990 my wife was injured in a motor vehicle accident. Many of the neighbors responded to her need. We often hear, through the media, how people fail to respond to people in need. I feel that these people should be thanked; however, many of their names are unknown to me. Please allow me to say thank you through your newspaper.

Our community should also be proud of our Volunteer Fire Department and our Police Department. Their prompt and professional response is greatly appreciated. Again, to all who helped, I say thanks!

Sincerely

Michael D. Grubbs

Census forms mailed here

Iowa Parkans began receiving their U.S. census questionnaires in the mail Friday, and deliveries by the Postal Service were to have been completed by Tuesday.

The Bureau of Census is encouraging recipients to complete the questionnaire and return it in the postage-paid envelope as soon as possible.

The return envelope has been especially designed to facilitate handling by the Postal Service. A unique ZIP Code plus the four digit add-ons and a corresponding bar code will enable the Postal Service to sort the mail by means of high speed automated equipment to Census district offices and processing centers.

This is the 21st time for the national census to be taken, a project scheduled every 10 years.

"I WISH YOU WERE MY DADDY"
My heart has always gone out to children, and I have often found myself on their side. When we show a bit of special attention to children we quickly find out: just how much they believe in us; how readily they accept what we are saying. It does not take a lot of special attention to win their hearts. They just want to feel important and want to be loved.
One lesson I had been talking about how children are to be loved, about how important they are, and how many do not receive the kindness, love, and consideration they must have. I must have made an impression upon one little boy who said, "I wish you were my daddy". Of course I tried to tell him I was sure he had a good daddy, one that loved him very much, but it left me wondering.
It is hard to believe that there are children that hate their parents, but doubtless, there are. There are parents who hate their children. Look at the ways parents often treat them. An East Texas girl said in a newspaper interview a few years ago, "To get out of the hell I lived in, I ran away from home."
"I wish you were my daddy." What haunting words! Today's world would be a far better world without a doubt if all parents loved their children as the Lord commands. Ask hundreds of thousands of young people over on Hollywood Boulevard in Los Angeles, and on streets all over our nation, why they left home, many to suffer all kinds of humiliations, ending up selling their bodies for another meal and a place to sleep... ask them why, and you may hear these words: "Nobody loved me."
Oh, dear God, help us to quit sinning against our most priceless treasures - - our children!

Elliff to lead revival next week

"Here's Hope! Jesus Cares For you" is the theme for a revival Sunday through Wednesday at First Baptist Church.

Thomas D. Elliff will deliver the message and singers Andy and Phil Dietz will provide special music for each service.

Services are scheduled for 10:55 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday; and 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., Monday through Wednesday. A youth fellowship will follow the Sunday evening service, a youth hamburger supper will be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday, and a corn dog supper for children in the first through sixth grades will be 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Elliff, a third generation Southern Baptist preacher, began his career in 1962 in Arkansas while attending college. He has since filled pulpits in Dallas, Mansfield, Tulsa, Okla., and Denver. His present position is pastor of First Southern Baptist Church of Del City, Okla.

He has led crusades and conferences for Southern Baptist and affiliated groups in Kenya, Tanzania,

Shower fetes Mrs. Ressel

Mrs. Julie Anderson Ressel was honored Sunday with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. James Owens.

Jamie Owens and Karen Helwig served as co-hostesses.

The former Julie Anderson and Roy Ressel were married March 5 at the First United Methodist Church Chapel.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth, and centered with a crystal bowl filled with mauve and pink silk roses, daisies, carnations and baby's breath. It also held a cake decorated with large mauve double wedding bells inscribed with "Julie and Roy," and gold wedding rings. Martha Crawford, aunt of Mrs. Ressel, registered guests.

Special guests included Mrs. Peggi Anderson of Iowa Park, mother of the bride, and Wynn Fulton of Dallas.

South Africa, Zimbabwe, South Korea, Germany, Switzerland, Norway, Austria, The Caribbean and across the United States. He is also author of "Praying for Others," and was a contributing writer for "Masterlife" and "The Disciple Study Bible."

He and his wife, Jeannie, have four children, Mrs. Tony Cox, Amy, Sarah, Jon, and a grandson.

Andy and Phil Dietz, twin brothers, will lead the music during

Faith Baptist slates revival

The Faith Baptist Church has slated a revival to be held Sunday through Friday with worship services to be held at 7 o'clock each night, and a special noon meal and worship service Monday through Friday.

Chris Cowen of Bonham will lead the revival.

Cowen pastored two Southern Baptist churches for nearly 11 years after serving as a youth minister in Daleville, Ms. He was pastor at Boyd Baptist Church in Bonham nine and a half years, when he resigned to enter vocational evangelism.

He graduated with a B.A. degree from East Texas State Univ., and served in the U.S. Navy from 1971 to 1977, when he was honorably discharged.

He and his wife, Shara, have two daughters, Christy and Amy.

Leading the music for the services will be Bill Pursley of Wichita Falls.

A detective with the Wichita Falls Police Dept., Pursley began singing in local churches at the age of 14. At 16 he joined in his first quartet. In 1984, he began his venture into the evangelistic music field and has since been at his present church home, Faith Baptist Church in Wichita Falls.

He and his wife, Loyce, have a daughter, Cassie.

Spring, summer fashions are shown

The Evening Lioness Club held its third annual style show, where the newest spring and summer fashions from Just Because were modeled, Thursday evening in the Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church. Estaleen Newman and Mary Guthrie directed the show and Essie Johnson was the narrator.

The stage decorations were provided by Tami Taylor of Sincerely Yours, and Norma Young was the make up artist. Sue Gwinn furnished the music for the models.

The models were Gay Graves, Kay Lucy, Bernice Compton, Dolores Hamilton, Robin Cook, Jennifer Welch, Leisa Bates, Michelle Neves, Jennifer Rinehart, Gerry Thurlo, Bea Tate, Carlene Bennett, Glenna Via, and Jennifer Panter.

During the intermission, Megan Horton, Amanda and Michelle Collins performed gymnastic acts under the direction of Cindy Collins.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Kenneth Via, club members voted to give $100 to the Ministerial Alliance and $10 to the Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville in honor of Robert Walkup, retiring governor of District 2-EI

The Friendly Door is open

By MYRNA SMITH

A day of fun and festivity is planned for April 1 to help kick off spring activities in Iowa Park when the 12th annual Friendly Door Senior Citizens Easter Bazaar and second annual Red River Harley Davidson April Fool's Poker Run is scheduled. All proceeds will go to the Senior Citizens Center.

The Friendly Door, 100 W. Cash, will open at 9 a.m. Arts, crafts and baked goods will be sold during the day and lunch will be served at noon. The 15-member Senior Citizens Rhythm Band will perform at 1:30 p.m.

The lunch menu will consist of Polish sausage, beans, potato salad, soft drinks and dessert. Price of the meal will be $4, and hot dogs will be available for $1.

Bill Gilmore Sr., with the Harley Davidson group, will prepare the sausage, beans and hot dogs. Members of Senior Citizens Center will provide the rest of the meal.

There will be two drawings at 4:30 p.m. for two quilts that were made by senior citizens. Tickets are $2 each.

Each year Iowa Park clubs, individuals and organizations donate arts, crafts and baked items to be sold, along with those made by the senior citizens. Myrna Robinson, director of the center, has requested that those who wish to donate arts and crafts bring them to the Friendly Door on Friday between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Baked items may be brought Sunday morning, April 1.

Jim Gilmore, who is in charge of the Poker Run, is expecting from 75 to 100 entries if the weather is good. This is the second year the Run has been held in connection with the Easter Bazaar for the benefit of Friendly Door. The Run raised approximately $1,000 last year, Gilmore said. Entry fee for the Run is $8 for singles and $14 for doubles. All motorcyclists are invited to enter.

Entrants may register Sunday at Red River Harley Davidson located on Highway 287 Expressway and Bell Road. The first cycle out will be at 10 a.m. and the last at 12-noon. The Run will end at 5 p.m.

Four check points will be set up on the designated route within a 100-mile radius of Iowa Park. Gilmore explained that a card is drawn at the starting point by the cyclists and at

Nominations sought for FmHA committee

Farmers Home Administration will begin April 5 accepting nominations for election of a county committee person for Wichita and Clay counties.

The committee assists the county office in determining the eligibility of applicants for certain types of FmHA loans.

Attend FLBA meeting

Representatives of the Red River Federal Land Bank Assn. were among more than 600 attendees at the annual Farm Credit Bank of Texas meeting Mar. 15-16 in Austin.

Among them was Iowa Parkan Clifton Smith, a director.

each check point on the route. The rider with the winning poker hand will receive a plaque at the end of the Run and other awards will be presented by Gilmore and members of the Wichita County Chapter. Also, Gilmore said, games have been planned at the conclusion of the Run for the participants.

Mrs. Robinson expressed appreciation for all of the help the Senior Citizens Center receives from activities such as the Poker Run and from the many clubs, organizations, Eastern Star Chapter 42 and individuals who donate their time and talent to benefit the Center and to help with various activities and services.

"The Center could not operate without the help of these people," she said.

In addition to the support of townspeople, the Center receives some support from United Way and Nortex Regional Planning Commission.

The Center is located in the old Tanner Hardware Store building that now is owned by the Evening Lions Club. The Center pays the club $1 a year rent and the utilities in exchange for the part of the building they occupy.

Anyone who is 60 years of age and over is welcome to join senior citizens at the Friendly Door, which is open five days a week. Meals are served at noon and no one is required to pay, however, donations are accepted. From 35 to 40 people congregate each day for meals and 20 to 25 Meals on Wheels are delivered by volunteers from churches, organizations and Camp Fire groups.

Specially scheduled activities include a performance by the Rhythm Band at the Center on the first and third Monday mornings of the month. In the afternoon on those days the Band goes to any of the nursing homes or other places their appearance is requested. Sue Gwinn is volunteer pianist.

The second Monday of each month is set aside for a birthday party for all members who have birthdays that month. A special table is arranged for the honorees and each member brings a covered dish. Kathy Hicks furnishes the birthday cake each month and Iowa Park Florist provides a potted plant. The birthday honorees draw for the plant following the luncheon.

On the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month a Bible study is held with a member of the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance presenting the study at 10 a.m. The third Tuesday of each month at 11 a.m. Rev. Ed Prince, minister of the Iowa Park Church of God, conducts a sing-song and serves as pianist.

Wednesdays are designated as grocery shopping day, when senior citizens are taken to shop by volunteers, Mrs. Robinson or her assistant, Cherry Wood. They also furnish transportation for the seniors to go to the bank, the pharmacy, post office or doctor's office.

On the first and third Wednesdays, Pat Kisner from Region IX Education Service Center brings films on "Remembering When."

Special services are provided for the group throughout the month. Modena Blair checks blood pressure from 9:30 a.m. until noon the second Thursday of each month. Each Thursday a volunteer, Etoy Chapman, trims fingernails and toenails for senior citizens at the Center. On the last Friday of each month a person from Park Home Health Services checks blood sugar levels from 10:30 a.m. until noon. Also each Friday at 1 p.m., transportation is provided for those who want to go bowling.

Programs are presented by various groups for the enjoyment of the seniors group. In the afternoon members play dominoes, 42, Canasta, work puzzles, crochet or quilt, and once a month they have Bingo games. And Mrs. Robinson or a volunteer picks up commodities for the seniors once a month.

The Friendly Door Senior Citizens Center began May 1, 1977, meeting in the First United Methodist Church building. After three years, they moved their meeting place to its present location. The members are picked up each day, Monday through Friday, at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Mrs. Robinson has served as director since the Center's inception. She is paid for six hours work, but anytime a senior citizen needs anything, Mrs. Robinson takes care of that need.

A native of Loving in Young County, Myrna is the youngest of 10 children. Following graduation from Graham High School in 1949, she attended Draughan's Business College in Wichita Falls. She and Bill Robinson married when she worked for the City of Wichita Falls and he was an employee of White's Auto Store.

In 1960 the couple moved to Iowa Park where they owned and operated the Western Auto Store. They have two daughters. One daughter lives in Tulsa and the other is in Dallas.

Myrna is a member of First United Methodist Church, serves on the Board of Trustees and is a member of the Kumkuble Sunday School Class. She is an inactive member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

As soon as I reach 60 I plan to retire and join 'em," said the director. It's a sure thing she won't have any trouble doing that because, as she says, "The Friendly Door is always open to anyone 60 or older."

Davis included: Johnna Adams, Denise Alsup, Darlene Barrington, Michael Bean, Jayna Case, Patricia Coker, Kathryn Cole, Patricia Craven, Leslie Crumb, Phyllis Dawson, Meri Guyette, Jo Ann Hale, Carolyn Hancock and Vickie Jordan.

Also, Galyia Kasperek, Howard Klinkerman, Karen Lamberth, Karen McCluer, Beverly McClure, Willa Mitchell, Mary Pike, Keven Robertson, Judy Schneider, Tamara Horton, Arlene Welch, Tandra Williams and Jan Yeager.

Submitted by Principal Ron Woods, the Kidwell Elementary list included: Mary Alfert, Nancy Bauer, Janet Bowling, Debra Brandt, Lee Ann Bryant, Betty Cash, Gayla Clegghorn, Pat Coker, Patricia Costello, Valerie Dillard, Daryl Frazier, Connie Ginnings, Debra Gruber, and Dianne Hefu.

CONSTRUCTION BIDS

Architect Don Daugherty told the board he had no idea why or reason for bids for additions to the two elementary campuses to be higher than expected.

The bids were opened earlier Thursday afternoon, and the lowest of five bids received was 47 percent higher than the $669,000 budgets for the work.

Daugherty explained he had not had enough time to study each of the bids submitted, in an effort to determine where most of the increases in his projected costs were made.

He said all estimates he had made were based on $45 per square foot, and still believed that to be a "good number."

The lowest bid, $849,534, was submitted by Arthur/Moss Construction of Wichita Falls. The figure was the net after all alternates were deleted.

The other bids, after deletion of alternates, were $867,999, $868,797, $876,013 and $906,100.

The board has 30 days from when the bids were opened to take action.

Daugherty, Supt. Glen Mitchell and the two elementary principals will be studying the plans in an effort to determine where cuts can be made, and report back to the board.

The architect said he had no feel as to how the bids would be on the work to be done at the high school. Those bids are to be opened this afternoon.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the board voted to deny the "freeport" tax exemption, approved a number of proposals including a new pay scale for cafeteria employees, the sale of excess equipment, textbook committee recommendations, and a starting date for the 1990-91 school year.

By a split vote of 4-3, the board voted to not allow a tax exemption to industries within the district that manufacture goods for shipment outside the state. The product, if approved, would not be taxed.

Citing a lack of data which would inform the board how much money they were talking about, as well as not knowing what state funding could be expected from the special session of the state legislature, trustees Jerry Reed, John Sibley, Don Decker and Denny McCarthy voted against the exemption.

Keith Fisher, Wendell House and Sherri Kennedy said, before voting for the exemption, they wanted to show support to industries in the district and indicate an interest in more locating here.

Board chairman Reed pointed out the exemption could be enacted any time in the future, such as after the data is provided and more is known about what is to come out of Austin.

Once the exemption is approved, it cannot be started again, according to information provided by the board.

Sam Laird, Cryovac manager, told the board his company is proud of Iowa Park schools and fully supports them. While recommending the exemption be passed in the future, he pointed out that a reduction in inventories is already a goal of the firm, but not because of the "freeport" tax.

Because of the new minimum wage bill enacted by congress, some employees of the cafeterias received an automatic 30-cent-per-hour salary increase.

A step program for wages, based on years service and responsibilities, has been observed for several years by the local district. The increase for the "non-skilled" workers would have affected the step program, had the board not approved an across-the-board similar increase.

But, for the year, all step increases were frozen, the board voted.

The new pay scale for regular employees of cafeterias now ranges from $3.80 an hour to $5.90. Part-time employees start at $3.80 and step as high as $4.90. Managers are paid $5.15 starting to $7.45.

Saturday's track meet at Holliday was cancelled, because of weather, so the Hawks and Lady Hawks got an extra week of rest. The Hawks are scheduled to compete Friday and Saturday at San Angelo, and the Lady Hawks are entered in a meet in Wichita Falls

Hawks beat AC 13-5

Weather and cancellations have Hawk baseball coach Daryl Frazier scrambling for opponents, as the Apr. 10 district opener against Bowie nears.

Eventhough his club defeated Archer City 13-5 Friday, and is now ranked fourth in the state by the Texas High School Coaches Association poll, he knows his team needs more work.

And two of the four games he had scheduled before the conference opener have been wiped out.

Rain cancelled Tuesday's game at Frederick, and Olney backed out of its April 6 contest.

That leaves only two games on the schedule before the conference opener: at Holliday, 4 p.m. Friday, and Childress here, 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Leading the team's eight-hit assault against Archer City was Kelly McClure, who had two hits in four trips at the plate, with one of them out of the ball park.

Pat Kennedy was 2x3 and Robert Denton 2x4, while the team posted eight hits in 24 official at-bats.

In the state poll, Falfurrias was elevated from second place last week to first, with a perfect 12-0 record. Barbers Hill, 12-1, dropped to second.

Coppell, 11-0, took Waco Connelly's third place after the latter's record dropped to 3-2-1.

JV wins 10-0

The Hawk Junior Varsity baseball team beat Holliday's JV 12-0 Monday, and will take a 3-0 record into a one-day tournament Saturday at Wichita Falls.

J'Bill Merrick gave up one hit and recorded nine strikeouts in earning the win.

He had a lot of help, however. Jason Miller went 2x2 at the plate, scoring two runs, two RBIs and had four stolen bases.

Ralph Dillard was 2x2, two runs and three steals. Jason Didley went 1x1, scored three times and stole four bases.

The round-robin tournament will be played at Hoskins Field. Iowa Park's games are at 11:30, 1:30 and 3:30.

Williams Oil Bowl coach
Iowa Park's Head Hawk, Len Williams, will join a succession of former head coaches, having accepted an invitation to coach the Texas-Oklahoma All-Star Oil Bowl Classic.
Williams was elected head coach of the Texas team. He will be assisted by Billy Whitman of Mansfield and Ron Sanderson of Eastland.
Others from Hawkland to hold that position were Tommy Watkins and David Baugh. Also, former Hawk assistant coach and head coach of the Holliday Eagles, Don Lucy, has served on the Texas staff.
None of the Texas players will be appearing in the Texas Coaches Clinic game this year, because the Aug. 4 date is the same week as the Clinic, Williams said.
Coaches and Classic committee members decided Saturday that a special effort will be made this year to draw all the talent for the Texas All-Stars' team from schools closer to this area.
Oklahoma coaches will include Woody Roof of Weatherford, Rich Jones of Broken Bow, and Eddie Paul of Lindsay.
