School budget, tax voting set tonight

School trustees will adopt the 1990-91 budget and set a tax rate to fund it at a called meeting tonight. The meeting is to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high library. As has been the board's custom in recent years, a reception for new teachers in the system will begin half an hour earlier than the meeting.

Cuts made at the direction of trustees, since the original budget was proposed, amount to $67,059. However, $5,200 not in the original budget has been added.

The budget calls for expenditures of $6,407,841.

Yet to be determined will be the tax rate.

Supt. Glen Mitchell continues to appeal to the board to adopt a rate of 96-cents per $100 valuation.

That would be a 15-cent increase over the 1989-90 rate of 81-cents.

Eleven cents is required for debt service, created when voters in the district last fall approved a $2.75-million bond issue.

The superintendent's proposal is to increase taxes above the debt service requirement by four cents. He explains there are several items that are needed this year which are not included in the budget, as well as additional needs which will be identified for 1991-92, as well as the state's formula to receive maximum state funding.

Needed but not included in the budget are: Extended Living Center teacher; new school buses; computers and software; air conditioning for elementary school cafeterias which was deleted from construction projects because of a lack of money; parking lot paving, and furniture that was deleted from the bond money.

Cuts which contributed to deletion of $67,059 included: Barry Lucy's salary for one semester; athletic trainer cost; choir chairs; baseball pitching mound; Extended Living Center teacher; administrators' and counselors' salaries; property insurance; maintenance; journalism, and weed eater.

Added to the original budget were $200 for junior high special education and $5,000 for higher gasoline prices.

OTHER BUSINESS

Several other topics also are on the trustees' meeting agenda, including:

- * recognize students who have participated in state UIL competition;
- * adopt amended school budget for 1989-90;

- * Set the beginning and ending dates for Appraisal Periods One, Two and Three;

- * Approve the list of appraisers other than the principals;

- * Accept/reject bids for cafeteria food and supplies;

- * Accept/reject football stadium and gym concession stand contracts for 1990-91;

- * Approve/reject student transfer request for 1990-91;

- * Approve/reject renewal of the audit service agreement with Nayland Smith and Associates to audit the 1989-90 records;

- * Employ new personnel.

MAKES PRESENTATION -- Iowa Park Mayor Wayne House presents the keys and title to the city's displaced pumper fire truck to Richard Harmon, chief of the Cameron Gardens Volunteer Fire Dept. The event took place Sunday afternoon. The truck, disqualified by the state for discount points on the city's insurance key rate, was purchased in 1960 for $17,500. The Cameron Gardens department was selected for the gift because of its close cooperation with local volunteers.

Council's meeting has heavy topics

Street work, park conditions, RAC highlight city business

Improvements at city parks, more streets designated for work, completion of the Recreational Activities Center and additional work on the Colorado paving project were highlights of Monday's city council meeting.

After viewing a slide film presentation on the condition of the city's parks and equipment, a lengthy discussion was held concerning possible routes of improvements to be taken.

Mayor Wayne House commented, "It's all leading to creation of a parks department."

Playground equipment and picnic benches were all in a poor state of repair, the photos indicated.

"You can't expect Mike (Price, public works director) to pull off his people (from street and water work). We need some other people to do park work," House said.

Alderman Johnny Crawford proposed an overall master plan, "...to see direction over the years by this and following councils."

The mayor agreed, but suggested the immediate need should not have to wait for an overall plan.

Former alderman Bud Burch said the council might set priorities on the parks, and possibly do away with those that seldom are used.

A suggestion by Dee Decker was to declare a park day, similar to the annual clean up project, during which residents might volunteer their work in cleaning and improving the parks.

The outset of the discussion was to have a list of work needed to be done ready for consideration at the next meeting of the council.

Twenty nine more blocks were identified to have a slurry coating applied to their asphalt paving, though a time schedule was not made.

Identified were portions of Park Plaza, First, Alameda, Washington, Texas, Penn, Alameda, Second, Cornelia, Ruby, Garden and Poe.

A public hearing was held during which council members discussed with the Recreational Activities Center (RAC) board when and how the new facility might be completed.

The structure, located on Third Street, is almost completed, as far as was originally planned. That includes the building, office and portions of the rest rooms.

Yet to be completed are the other interior walls, floor covering, the balance of the rest rooms, the kitchen, air conditioning, parking lot and landscaping.

During the discussion, it was pointed out that one method of financing completion might be for the RAC board to solicit individual and organization pledges to fund the work, and the city complete the building and be paid back as the pledges were honored.

It was decided that information as to how much the completion work would be, with a breakdown of each phase, and have that information brought before the council in the near future.

Another topic which drew considerable discussion was the city's ordinance concerning fire and burglar alarms, which has been in force less than a year.

Police Chief Wayne Parsons, responding to a question of how frequent were false alarms, said the average was "about two a day."

The outset of the discussion was for Parsons to study the ordinance and report back any suggestions for change he might feel necessary.

Also discussed was the city's program for compensatory time off, which was described as a method of saving overtime pay.

Council members decided to continue the present policy.

A changeorder on the Colorado Street construction project, which is to pave the drain area from the north side of the shopping center's parking area to West Highway, was approved.

Cost of the project is $20,483. Also approved was a proposal to advertise for bids to purchase a tire shredder for the city's landfill.

Unshredded tires are not allowed to be buried in a landfill.

The council voted to table a proposal to spend $18,900 on rubber railroad crossings to be used on Victoria.

Without discussion, the council voted approval of the 9-1-1 Communications District annual budget.

Every campus reports increased enrollment

Iowa Park schools reported an increase of 67 students when classes opened Tuesday.

First-day enrollment was 1,915, compared with 1,848 the first day last fall.

Each campus reported increases, with Bradford Elementary and the high school counting the largest gains.

Bradford had 486, an increase of 25; high school 526, a gain of 22; Kidwell Elementary 491, 14 more than opening day last year, and the junior high had a gain of six, with 412 enrolling.

Supt. Glen Mitchell said each of the school principals anticipated still more to enroll, based on past experience that not all parents enroll their children on opening day.

Kidwell Principal Ron Woods reported the largest kindergarten class in the school's history, with 166. That is a gain of 19 over opening day last year.

First-day enrollment by class, compared with 1989, were:

	1989	1990

Fifth arrest made in 4-week-old case

The fifth and final arrest relating to a theft of several vehicles July 30 was accomplished Monday at the county courthouse.

Investigator Ray Smock arrested Larry Moss Dewvall, 17, on a charge of theft over $750.

Dewvall was taken before a justice of the peace, placed under a $1,000 bond, and put in jail.

He, another adult and three juveniles were charged with cutting the fence of a used vehicle lot on East Highway and taking several motorcycles and all terrain vehicles, which were returned to the owner.

A woman reported an attempted assault early Saturday morning, but police have not been able as yet to identify the suspect.

She told police she was returning home after taking her husband to work, when her vehicle stalled at the intersection of Texowa and Ruby.

A shirtless man offered assistance, reached inside the vehicle to shift the vehicle's gear, and then allegedly grabbed the woman by the throat and ordered her out of the vehicle.

She told police she screamed, scratched the man, possibly around the eyes, and drove away.

In another case listed on the police blotter, a man told police he had left his automobile parked at the high school Friday night, and when he returned about 2 a.m., several items had been taken.

Listed as missing were the car's sun roof, stereo, equalizer, tapes and clothing, all estimated at $2,200.

Vacek, Smith vows exchanged recently in double-ring ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Keith Smith are at home in Farmington, N.M. following their marriage and a wedding trip to Maui, Hawaii.

Mrs. Smith is the former Amy Ruth Vacek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Robert Vacek of Littleton, Colo.

Smith's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene George Smith of Iowa Park.

Double ring vows were recited by the couple the morning of Aug. 11 in Denver at Trinity United Methodist Church. Officiating ministers were Susan Patterson-Sumwalt and Dale Wood.

Delphinium, austromeria, gerbera and snapdragons in vivid summer hues were arranged in large brass urns that flanked the altar area. White satin bows decorated the pews.

Vocalists for the ceremony were Linda and Rich Rediger, who sang "One Hand, One Heart," and "All I Ask of You." "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Rediger.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride chose a beautifully designed, high-style gown of white silk taffeta and Alencon lace.

A jewel neckline was banded with seed pearl paillettes. The bodice was covered by an attached reverse bolera of lace adorned with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and complemented with three-quarter sleeves of matching Alencon lace.

The figure-molding, shirred midriff accented the waistline and flowed into a bouffant skirt that terminated in a court train.

Her headpiece of iridescent sequins, crystal and pearls held a full jewelled pouf of illusion and a flowing cathedral train with a satin-edged veil sprinkled with seed pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Keith Smith
(Amy Ruth Vacek)

She carried her great-grandmother's handkerchief that she carried in her wedding.

Forming the cascading bridal bouquet were white roses, white lisianthus, yellow alstromeria, pink dahlias, blue delphinium, red gerbera and orange kalanchoe.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Jill Vacek Brugioni of Littleton.

Acting as bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Dotsy Vacek Moroney of Monterey, Ca., and Janet Vacek Rose of Littleton. Bridesmaid was Kathryn Everett of Bryan, Tex.

Feminine attendants wore identically styled costumes. The two-piece fuschia dresses were fashioned with a narrow tea length skirt and a peplum jacket featuring a V-neckline, short capped sleeves and decorative cloth buttons.

Each carried a bouquet of bright flowers like those that formed the bridal bouquet.

Megan Christine Moroney of Monterey, Ca., niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Her tea length costume of white cotton damask was designed with a V yoke of white eyelet lace and short puffed sleeves. A white taffeta sash marked the waistline and tied in back with a large bow.

She carried a white wicker basket filled with bright hued summer flowers.

Thomas Jones of Coraopolis, Pa., acted as the groom's best man.

Groomsmen were Steve Smith, the groom's brother, Steve Harris, both of Wichita Falls, and Rick Gullett of Daytona Beach, Fla.

Serving as ushers were Mark Smith of Sweetwater, brother of the groom, John Vacek, Bryan, the bride's brother, and Dan Brugioni of Littleton.

Ringbearer was Matthew David Moroney of Monterey, nephew of the bride.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails, a white pleated shirt, white vest and bow tie. His boutonniere was a white rosebud.

The bride's father, ushers and groomsmen were attired in black tuxedos with pleated white shirts, black cummerbunds, and black bow ties. Their boutonnieres were white rosebuds. The ringbearer wore black tuxedo pants, white double breasted jacket, and black bow tie.

Mother of the bride was attired in a two piece light pink silk suit with beads and sequins decorating the jacket.

The groom's mother wore a blue cocktail length frock with lace bodice and chiffon skirt overlaying taffeta.

A reception was held at Pinhurst Country Club in Denver. Tables were covered with white cloths and were decorated with vases of bright colored summer flowers. The bride's cake had white frosting and was topped with fresh white flowers.

Guests were registered by Lisa Gullickson of Phoenix, Az.

The bride received the B.A. degree in mathematics from Denison

University, Granville, Ohio and the J.D. degree from the University of Denver College of Law.

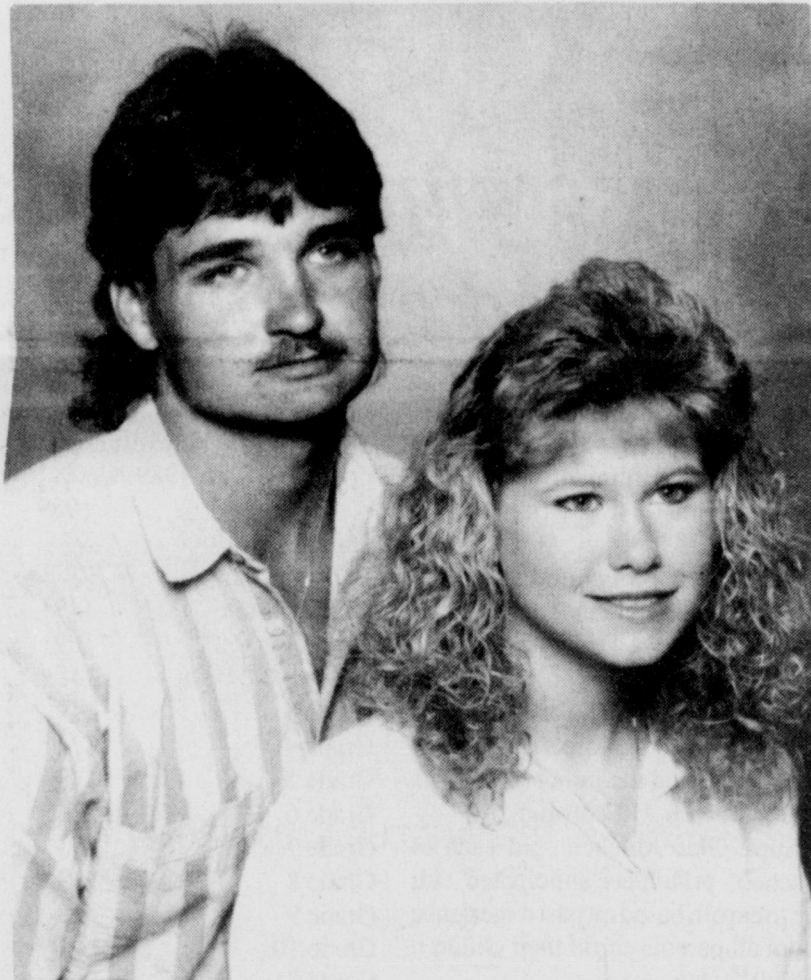

Smith received the B.S. degree in Petroleum Engineering from Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

Parents of the groom hosted the rehearsal dinner in the Thornton Room of the Warwick Hotel in Denver.

Out of town guests for the wedding included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown of Pawnee City, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Wendy Stewart and Kitty Pitson, Lebanon, Ok., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bell and Chris of Marietta, Ok., Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stewart and girls of Norman, Okla., Chad Dunston and John Lambert of Dallas.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

There appears to be confusion among some of our residents, concerning the community's Recreational Activities Center (RAC), that is being completed on Third Street.

Some residents are complaining that the city has built something they voiced opposition to, when questioned a couple of years ago. The question was listed on the utility bill, asking for a straw vote.

No, the city has not done what the Wichita Falls city council did several years ago.

What the Iowa Park council did was to build a replacement for what we've had several years, a new RAC.

The old RAC, you may recall, was two discarded one-story buildings that were obtained from Sheppard AFB. They were put together, by the now defunct Jaycees, near the Gordon Lake dam.

The RAC has over the years served a large majority of our residents, in one function or another, and continues to do just that.

But the old structure has been repaired and repaired so many times, it plainly is past the point of feasible repairs.

It was so bad that the council decided, rather than spending something like $30,000 to make it a legal structure --- it fails to meet several of the city's own building codes --- that our city leaders decided to offset and build a new facility.

But the council had just so much money, and not enough to complete the structure. I believe the cost was something like $97,000 to do what has been done.

Now, that brings us to a new problem. How will the interior walls, floor coverings, kitchen, air conditioning, rest rooms, parking area, landscaping and other necessities be financed?

Well, as the president of the all-volunteer RAC board, Billy Gilmore, suggested: "We have two major landmarks in our community that were funded primarily by volunteer donations and help, the football stadium and library."

That may well be the way. In fact, short of total taxpayer financing, it may be the only way.

The cost of operation of the RAC is funded through the United Way. It is used almost constantly for everything from crafts and skills developing to physical exercise classes, and is the primary site for family reunions.

Think of it. Where else can all these community services be held?

We're talking quality of life here. And that's what Iowa Parkans seem to most cherish in our community.

Give it some thought. Maybe your organization will want to adopt the RAC as its primary project this year, and maybe next year also.

Nothing is yet finalized on how the structure will be financed for completion, but we all should give it some serious thought.

We need the RAC. And now the RAC needs us.

Worth Quoting

Trying to please readers is an impossible task for the editor of a little country newspaper.

Take last week, for example. It was the issue immediately following the Brush Poppers Weekend which generated lots of photographs. There were too many photographs, in fact, to squeeze into one 12 page issue.

I had to make some tough decisions about which photographs would run in that issue and which ones would have to be postponed for future editions. I figured whatever I did, it would make someone mad. I was right.

The Leader had just hit the streets when Starlet Gorgman stopped by to complain about her picture appearing on Page 1 along with other members of Henrietta Volunteer Fire Department's championship chili cooking team. She said I should have whittled her out of the edge of the group photo.

The next day Frank Yonts of Lake Arrowhead Volunteer Fire Department called to complain about the photograph of his department's championship chili showmanship team being left out of that issue. He didn't seem too thrilled to learn that I already was planning to publish the photo in the next issue.

So there you have it: one person griping because her picture is in the paper and another person griping because his picture was left out. If I had known that earlier, I would have published Frank's photo and omitted Starlet's which would have saved us all a lot of grief.

I need a crystal ball.

Cook of the Week

Over the years, the Leader has featured many good cook and their recipes. This week is no exception.

Peggi (Mrs. Ted) Anderson thoroughly enjoys the art of cooking, and her husband, Ted, shares her interest.

Both are members of the Mardi Gras Cooking Club. "Mardi Gras translates into 'Fat Tuesday,'" Peggi told us with a laugh.

The group began in 1984, when 16 people got together for a cooking school in Wichita Falls. They had so much fun that they decided to form a club. Peggi was elected the first president and is currently serving in that capacity again.

The Andersons moved to Pleasant Valley Estates in 1968 because they wanted their children to attend Iowa Park schools.

Ted is the owner of Armored Roofing Co., and Peggi has worked in the History Dept. at Midwestern State Univ. and was secretary to Rhea Howard, the late publisher of the Wichita Falls Times and Record News.

In 1980, because of health problems, Peggi was unable to work outside of her home. She kept herself busy cooking and experimenting with new recipes. She now has a collection of over 200 cookbooks.

She says she especially enjoys working with dough, baking bread, desserts, and making good soup. Although Ted didn't start cooking until two years ago, Peggi said that he already outshines her in baking bread.

Ted and Peggi belong to the Spares and Pairs Sunday School Class at First United Methodist Church. Recently the class put together a cookbook and dedicated it to their teacher, Shirley Lowrey.

Peggi said that she and Ted lead a full life, centered around their family, church and cooking.

Their children are Julie (Mrs. Roy) Ressel of Iowa Park, and Denny lives in Dallas, where he works at the Univ. of Texas Health Science Center.

Mrs. Ted Anderson

MARK TWAIN AND EVOLUTION. One of the fallacies that has led to a belief in evolution is a failure to recognize that one cannot always project backwards on the basis of the current situation. Therefore, the Mississippi between Cairo and New Orleans was 1,200 miles long 176 years ago. Now if I want to be one of those ponderous scientific people and "let on" to prove what has occurred in the remote past by what has occurred in a given time in the recent past, or what has occurred in a given time in the recent past, or what will occur in the far future by what occurred in late year, what an opportunity is here! Geology never had such a chance, nor such exact data to argue from. In the space of 176 years the lower Mississippi has shortened itself 240 miles. This is a trifle over one and one-third miles per year. Therefore, any calm person who is not blind or idiotic, can see that in the Old Silurian Period, just a million years ago next November, the lower Mississippi was upwards of one million three hundred miles long and stuck out over the Gulf of Mexico like a fishing rod. And by the same token, any person can see that 742 years from now the lower Mississippi will be only one and three quarters of a mile long, and that Cairo and New Orleans will have joined their streets together and be plodding along under a single mayor. There is something fascinating about science. One gets such a wholesale return of conjecture out of such a trifling investment of fact."

Estelline Newman's life mirrors many roles

By Myrna Smith

The attractive, soft-spoken businesswoman assumed a yoga-like position as she sat in a comfortable over-sized chair.

"You won't find anything interesting enough to write about me," she said.

Business woman, homemaker, wife, mother. Charming and hospitable. Any one or all of these attributes are readily identifiable with Mrs. O.N. (Estelline) Newman.

Reared in Freeport, she met Newt, her future husband, while he was working for Dow and attending the University of Houston Law School.

She was 18. Had just graduated from Freeport High School and had enrolled at the university.

Her father died and her mother's health was not good, so Estelline would not leave her when it came time to enter the university in the fall.

After their marriage the Newmans lived at Lake Jackson. He drove more than 100 miles round trip a day for seven years while earning his law degree.

His father, who died when Newman was a young child, wanted his son to be an attorney, so Newt pursued that career.

The Newmans came to Iowa Park in 1957.

"I don't think I could have made it after we moved here if it had not been for two friends I made when we first came. I was away from my folks and was lonely and depressed," Mrs. Newman said.

The two friends were the late Mrs. S.T. Buzzard and the late Mrs. John B. Barbour Sr. Mrs. Barbour later would become godmother to the Newman's daughter, Staci.

For a time after moving here Estelline was active in club work. She is a charter member of the Iowa Park Garden Club and Philia Study Club. She also was a member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, the Jayceettes and Woman's Forum of Wichita Falls.

Beginning in 1964, there was a period of time punctuated with sadness, more depression and frustration. Staci was just a baby and in November Estelline was diagnosed with thyroid cancer.

She waited until after Christmas to have surgery. This began a long seige of illness. But, she has been very fortunate and has had no recurrence of the malignancy.

In 1965 Mrs. Newman's mother died and a short time later her grandmother died.

"My mother owned a dress shop in Freeport. For the next few years we made a trip there once a month to check on the business," Estelline said. They eventually sold the Velfree to the store manager.

Remembering the Velfree shop long before her mother purchased it, she had always thought the name probably had something to do with the name of the town. When her mother bought the shop from the Greek owner, she told her Velfree in the Greek language meant "coming of age."

As long as Staci was small Mrs. Newman would not work outside the home. She didn't want to leave her with baby sitters.

When Staci started to school her mother decided it would be good to have something to occupy her mind. She decided to open a sportswear shop, which she named Velfree. Staci always went to the store after she got out of school.

Estelline said all she knew about running a dress shop when she opened was keeping the books and going to market. She soon learned.

She had always had an affinity for wedding apparel. "When I was small I loved weddings and would dress my dolls in wedding finery and put them on display on our front porch," Mrs. Newman recalled.

After she opened the Iowa Park Velfree a sales representative came by with some wedding dress samples. Mrs. Newman stocked a few in the back room of the shop that was used as an office.

"I had no idea there would be such interest in bridal gowns," she said. But when customers came in, so many started going to the back room to look at the dresses she decided they would be good merchandising items.

ESTELLINE NEWMAN

Mrs. Newman began stocking bridal gowns, dresses for the attendants, tuxedos and apparel for other members of the wedding party.

She served as a bridal consultant, advising the girls on wedding etiquette, rehearsals, receptions, their announcements, etc. She gave many rehearsal parties and showers for the brides-elect.

Estelline operated the shop here 15 years before the building where it was located sold. She was assisted at that time by Leta Bedford. After the building sold, Mrs. Newman moved her shop to Wichita Falls for a short time.

Four years ago she and her partner, Mary Blanche Guthrie, with whom she had worked since 1975, opened the Just Because Shop. And they still stock wedding apparel.

The unusual name of the shop was really coined in fun. When they told their husbands, Newt and Junior, they wanted to open another shop their husbands naturally wanted to know why.

They told them, "just because we want to make our own money, or "just because we miss seeing the people," or "just because we want to have something to do."

So, when they opened the shop they thought "Just Because" might be a "catchy" name. "Just because we were too old to get a job and too young for Social Security."

The Newmans did a lot of entertaining for youth when their children were young. He was a Sunday School teacher and a Boy Scout leader and Mrs. Newman worked with Cub Scouts.

She recalls one time she had Christmas parties three nights in a row. That was when they lived in a much smaller home than they now have.

They had room to set up tables for only 14 couples each night by using a large piece of plywood on top of smaller tables.

Newman had killed deer and they were thrilled to get to share with their friends. She made tablecloths out of burlap, "because that was all I could afford at that time. I decorated them with red felt poinsettias and they looked real pretty.

"But, my feeling of elation didn't last too long," she laughed. "I had to send Newt's suit to the cleaners the next morning and come to find out all of the other men had to send theirs too. Their suits picked up the lint from the burlap. And right there at Christmas! We could laugh about it later, but it was rather embarrassing at the time," Estelline added.

The Newmans wouldn't have a problem feeding 40 or 50 friends at one time in their present home.

They built their sprawling red brick home 21 years ago. It started out to be a swimming pool, turned out to be a house, and the swimming pool became a reality 10 years later.

Newman had always liked Spanish style houses and after a trip to Mexico his liking became more intense.

Although they had a professional architect draw up the house plans, Newman also was instrumental in the planning.

His wife says, "Newt could just as easily have been an architect as a lawyer. He has always had a natural bent for that."

The imposing structure with arched facade and red brick retaining wall sits on a graduating hill on Peterson Road. Red brick and wrought iron encloses the courtyard.

Red tile brought from Mexico is used as flooring throughout the home. It also is used on the porches and patio.

Some of their furniture also came from Mexico. Heavy double doors at the front entrance have carved panels.

Mrs. Newman didn't say if her experience at Christmas time years ago had anything to do with the decision to have tables and chairs in almost every room in the living area.

This is also true of the glass enclosed garden room, which originally was an open patio. So much traffic noise made the Newmans decide to enclose it. There are white patio tables and chairs in this area.

The garden room looks out on the kidney shaped swimming pool that is surrounded by more white tables and chairs.

One side of the back yard, near the pool, is lined with colorful blooming crepe myrtle. Foliage plants are noted in other areas around the yard.

After the pool was built swimming parties were held for their children and friends.

To one side of the garden room is a connecting guest area that affords a bath, a kitchenette with refrigerator and microwave oven, and a combination living-dining area.

Currently Mrs. Newman is utilizing this as her "sewing" room. "I wish I could say that I can sew, but I can do only enough to upholster furniture. I guess you could say that is my hobby."

Upholstering is what she is doing now. Staci has been living at home but is planning to move to Wichita Falls where she is employed. Her mother is upholstering some furniture for her to move to her apartment.

Newman's primary hobby is farming his 100 acres of land where their home is located. He also likes to hunt and he and one of his sons have a deer lease they make an effort to visit each year.

They now have the fourth generation "Newt" in their family. Newman's father was named Newton and called Newt, as is the attorney. They have a son, Newt III, and he has a son, Newt IV.

Newt III is married to a former Iowa Park girl, Carol Sharp. They live in Coral Springs, Fla. and he is area manager for Linear Products. They have three children.

Another son, Randy, is in construction work in Boston.

The Newmans are members of First Christian Church.

Estelline says if things go as planned she will start playing bridge at the RAC this fall.

Maybe sensational or exciting isn't the way to define Estelline's lifestyle. But, sharing, caring, mother, homemaker, wife, business woman, Hey, isn't that the weaving that forms the tapestry holding together the family and the American way of life? That's interesting and important enough to write about.

WHEN CINDY LOOKS IN THE MIRROR, SHE SEES SOMETHING WE DON'T.

You see a bright and pretty young girl with the whole world at her feet. She sees an ugly, worthless creature with no hope beyond tomorrow. Yet, she puts on a front when she leaves for school only to come home and cry in her room. Is she depressed? Or is it just something all teenagers go through?

Call us, and together we can find the answer. Our staff is trained to evaluate adolescent behavior. We can help you understand what is going on with your teenager, and if necessary, recommend a treatment plan — inpatient or perhaps, outpatient.

But we can not help at all, unless you call. One confidential phone call may set our mind at rest. So call now. And let us help Cindy see things a little more clearly

Youngster attends camp at Kerrville

Holly McGowan, a diabetic youth from Iowa Park, was a camper at the Texas Lions Camp in Kerrville this summer.

Swimming, horseback riding and camping out came between classes focused on teaching insulin-dependent children to manage and understand diabetes.

Sponsored by the Wichita Falls Founders Lions Club, she had the opportunity to fish, study nature, and participate in sporting events.

She is the 10-year-old daughter of Tammie Splawn.

A team of doctors, nurses, and dietitians from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston taught campers about exchange diets, blood sugar level testing, exercise effects upon blood sugar, and how to give their own insulin injections.

The team helps campers to understand the importance and reasons for medical testing.

A well-trained staff supervises each camp activity with a ratio of just three campers to each counselor.

Located on 500 acres of Texas hill country, the camp serves handicapped and diabetic children ages six to 17.

The Texas Lions Camp is a non-profit organization funded by contributors interested in providing challenging, tuition-free programs for handicapped and diabetic individuals.

The remainder of the year, the facility provides instruction through its Texas Education Agency accredited school.

Anyone knowing someone who could benefit from the programs is asked to contact either of the local Lions clubs or the Texas Lions Camp, Box 247, Kerrville, Tx., 78029.

IN SCRIMMAGE

Coach sees 'positive points'

Head Hawk Len Williams will be looking for more of the "positive points" he saw Friday night, when the Hawks take on Olney here tomorrow in the last of their pre-season scrimmages.

Following the JV scrimmage, which is to begin about 6 p.m. in Hawk Stadium, the Mean Green will get their final test before their season opener Sept. 7 against the Burk Burnett Bulldogs.

Again, Williams is asking that fans who want to watch the scrimmage with the Eagles bring at least one bar of bath soap for admission. "This helps save on our athletic budget," me commented.

In their controlled scrimmage Friday with Holliday, Williams said he saw several "real positive points" while watching his players. He listed them as:

* Hawks still remember how to hit; saw some first-time on varsity level who have contact courage.

* Execution-wise -- very few breakdowns on offense except for two fumbled snaps -- pretty rare (at this stage of the season) -- think they're used to the (new) program that's getting established.

* Defensively -- verifies the way we moved the football -- we may be a couple of steps quicker than we were last year.

* Pleased with our conditioning -- haven't overly concentrated on it, but the players appear in good physical condition.

* Most enthusiasm I've seen out of our team.

* Very pleased with the middle of our defense.

* Improvement needed in secondary play.

* Passing game weak -- must run patterns harder.

* Must develop depth in backfield in our running game.

A WINNER -- Mike Benson proudly displays his trophy earned recently at Walters, Okla., when his Volkswagon Beetle was judged best of its class in the "Made In the Shade" contest. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Benson, 108 N. Hawthorn, said he worked every afternoon over an 18-month period on his $700 purchase which he now values at $6,000. He is a junior at Iowa Park High.

SLICK MESS -- A fully-loaded rendering plant truck apparently stopped on the Access Road at Johnson Road early Tuesday morning, and sloshed part of its contents, grease, fat and animal hair, onto the pavement. The slick mess made for dangerous traction, so Police Chief Wayne Parsons summoned a highway department crew to clean it up.

BIKE RIDE REST STOP -- Eventhough FM 368 was designated as the "bail out" route for those unable to complete the 100-mile Hotter 'N Hell ride Saturday, an estimated 500 riders paused at the Tom Burnett Memorial Library rest stop. The stop was sponsored by a Wichita Falls business and its volunteer workers were from both Iowa Park and Wichita Falls. Several local businesses donated food and ice.

BIKE RIDE RESIDUE -- Empty plastic bottles and cardboard cartons littered the intersection of Brogdon Road and FM 368 Tuesday morning, four days after the area was used for a rest stop for the Hotter 'N Hell bike ride. Residents were complaining the mess should have been cleaned.

SUMMER YOUTH THEATRE

The 1990 Summer Youth Theatre presented it's version of Peter Pan last Friday evening to a capacity crowd. After the show, cast members were presented certificates of excellence and were treated to a pizza party at Ken's on Monday afternoon. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who participated and all those who volunteered to help. Special thanks to Shannon Honkomp for all her time and effort as assistant director.

BACK TO SCHOOL

The Library Storytime schedules will change next week to coincide with back to school hours. Classes will be offered for 4-6 year olds on Tuesdays from 10-10:30 a.m. and Thursdays from 1-1:30 p.m. Classes for 2-3 year olds will be held on Fridays from 9:30-10. Registration sheets for each class are posted in the children's room at the Library, or you may call 592-4981 for further information.

HOTTER 'N HELL HUNDRED

The Library lawn was used as a rest stop during the annual bike race with excellent results. The rest stop was sponsored by Target Stores and operated by volunteers of the store and volunteer citizens of Iowa Park. Approximately 500 bikers stopped at the rest stop to receive fresh water, cold towels, fruit, and friendly words of encouragement. Spectators and workers at the rest stop were entertained during the morning hours by a bluegrass band, the Rockin' Hawkettes drill team, and Cayce Gauthier, dancer of Studio KG. Lunch for the volunteers was donated by Ken's Pizza and Golden Fried Chicken, and additional ice was donated by the Iowa Park Dairy Queen. As a worker, I was especially proud to hear many bikers comment that the Iowa Park stop was the best one on the route. All who were involved in making this a successful project are to be commended for their hard work and spirited efforts. Special thanks to Floyd Williams, Sherrie McDaniels, and Jessalea Jones for their consideration and cooperation in behalf of the Library.

The Iowa Park Alumni Association met in the home of Lela Mercer to discuss plans for the annual Alumni Banquet and homecoming activities.

Jo Patterson presented a draft of the letter being sent to ex-students, and it was announced that the alumni would be set up at the Friendly Door on Saturday, Oct. 13, during the Whoop-T-Do.

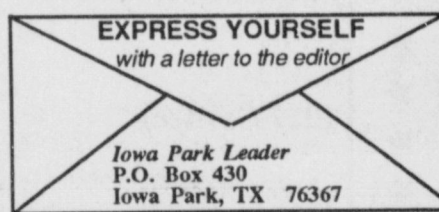

The banquet will begin at 7 p.m. that evening in the high school cafeteria. The graduating classes of years ending in "0" will be honored. The meal will be prepared by the MuleSkinners, and the price is $8.00 for those who have pre-registered, and $10 at the door.

Denise Henderson is chairman of the decoration committee, with the association furnishing the supplies for the decorations.

There will be registration tables set up at the homecoming football game where ex-students can register, and a Coming Home Queen will be selected.

Joni Whitis is chairman for organization's entry in the Homecoming Parade.

Ex-students who wish to volunteer to help with the decorations, or manning the registration tables at the football game, can do so by contacting a member of the board: Jo Patterson, Lela Mercer, Ladelle Jordon, Denise Henderson, Lisa Ezzell, Joni Whitis, or Patsy Cope.

Peach tree care explained to Evening Lions Club

Virgil Woodfin gave a program on starting a peach orchard in the fall Tuesday for the Evening Lions Club. He was introduced by Lee Pelz.

Woodfin advised those who were interested in planting peach trees in the fall to select trees that were three or four feet tall and to plant at least three varieties the first year, then add another variety each year. He said the winter varieties that do well in this area are: Ranger (his favorite), Red Globe, Red Skin, Loring and Jefferson, all freestone peaches, and Scentinal, a cling peach.

Woodfin warned about the danger of the peach tree bore and told how to spray the trunk of the tree each year to keep it out. He said if bores were already in the tree to apply PDB crystals around the trunk of the tree in the fall, then get rid of the crystals in the spring. He also discussed the damage of the scale insect that works on the bark of the trees, and again advised spraying the trees after the leaves have fallen off and again in the spring.

The program closed with a long question and answer period which attested to the interest club members had in peach tree planting and the care of the trees.

Jerry Pruett presided during the business. Frank Higginbotham was introduced as a new member. Gordon Griffith presented Sam Hunter with a 30-year membership pin and Gordon Callahan with a 10-year pin.

C.L. Thompson, chairman of Zone 4-A which has seven clubs, discussed briefly the possibility of the clubs in the zone sponsoring a telethon or an auction next spring for a new project.

Wheat Expo slated Friday

The third annual Wichita County Wheat Expo will be held Friday at Sikes Senter Mall in Wichita Falls.

Judging of more than 200 entries will begin at 10 a.m. by Al Alexander, area Extension agronomist from Vernon. He will evaluate the wheat on characteristics such as test weight, color, amount of weed seed present and shriveled and broken kernels.

Entries have come from several adjoining counties including Wilbarger, Knox, Baylor, Archer and Clay.

Rick Cowser new manager at Ken's

Rick Cowser assumed management of Ken's Pizza Tuesday morning, replacing Dale Price.

Cowser, a native of Laverne, Okla., has recently completed the company's management training program at Yucon.

He said he will move his wife and four-month-old son to Iowa Park this week.
