Iowa Parkans show support for military

Iowa Parkans are showing their support for the military troops participating in Operation Desert Storm.

A candle light prayer vigil was held at the high school campus Tuesday evening, and Old Glory will be fluttering throughout the city Saturday.

Because of an apparent shortness of notice, concerning the Tuesday evening event, a crowd of only three dozen participated.

Participants ranging from small children to grandparents encircled the flag pole in front of Iowa Park High School holding lighted candles and each in turn offering a prayer for the safety of the servicemen.

Both the American and Texas flags were hoisted at the beginning of the activity.

The vigil was coordinated by Crystal Collins and Melissa Sullivan.

Saturday, the dozens of American flags already being flown daily by homeowners will be augmented by a special activity of the Iowa Park Rotary Club.

Rotarians have for the past several years offered a subscription program to businesses and homeowners in which the organization not only provides the national flag and staff, but puts them out early each official flag-flying day, but also takes them down for storage in the evenings.

There are between 330 and 340 subscribers at the present time, according to Jim Smeaton, one of the club's directors.

As a special salute to the military forces participating in Operation Desert Storm, Rotarians will put out the flags for an unscheduled showing Saturday.

Thus, more than 400 flags are expected to be on exhibit in the city that day.

Fewer candidates than seats

With less than three weeks until the deadlines for filing in the May 4 city and school elections, there are positions without any candidates.

Both the city council and school board have three terms that expire this spring, and thus far, only three candidates have filed.

Wendall House and Sherri Kennedy have both filed for re-election to the school board. The third trustee, John Sibley, has stated he will not be a candidate again this year.

The Leader incorrectly said in last week's edition that the term of Denny McCarthy was expiring. Supt. Glen Mitchell denied that, explaining House's name had been omitted from the list of trustees whose terms expire.

Only one city alderman candidate has thus far filed, incumbent Virgil Woodfin.

Alderman Diane Robnett confirmed Monday night she would not seek re-election, and Johnny Coker, the dean of the council in terms of years served, has not yet indicated his intentions.

Candidates have until Mar. 20 to file an application to be on the May 4 election ballot.

Applications for the city council election can be obtained at city hall, while trustee applications can be picked up at the school administration building.

Council okays work plan on RAC project

The city council Monday night approved a proposal to advertise for additional construction inside the Recreational Activities Center, and joining a group of other governmental entities in applying for a state-mandated "storm water discharge permit."

Participating in the meeting, though his official starting date to begin work is not until Monday, was Gary Jones, the new city administrator.

Bids will be sought to complete the exterior walls, as well as wall studs and metal doors for the rooms.

Mayor Wayne House explained he wanted to "keep the project moving so the building can be used."

A contract leasing the structure to the non-profit RAC board, which has already been revised twice, was again revised by the city's attorney and given to board members for consideration.

Mike Price, public works director, proposed the city join in an effort by the Texas Municipal League in filing a joint storm water discharge permit.

The state has identified four areas where municipal equipment is either stored or serviced as requiring the permits.

In filing a joint application, Price said the city would apparently save money, using information he learned while attending a TML meeting last week.

A two-phase program, Price said the first phase would cost $500 for each of the four identified sites.

The council also approved a proposal to have the city's dozer engine undergo an overhaul, at a cost of $3,200.

He explained the tractor continues to operate adequately, but is consuming a gallon of motor oil daily.

The public works department was instructed to make a study and return to the council with recommendations on which roads entering the city were in need of being marked with both city limit and speed limit signs.

Aldermen were told a case had been dismissed recently in municipal court when the judge said a lack of signs on West Smith was confusing to motorists, as to what the speeds should be.

Condition and progress reports were given to the council on the landfill, waterline looping in the northwest part of the city, water line and paving on East Cash, water plant bed construction, equipment being purchased and the sewer treatment plant.

Price told the council his department was about ready to advertise for bids to apply a clay liner on a new landfill pit and said the work should be completed by May 1.

Work is to begin this week on the Subscription offer ending

A money-saving subscription promotion the Leader has advertised during the entire month of February will end today.

Effective Friday, the annual subscription prices will be: $13 in Wichita County; $15 elsewhere in Texas, and $18 elsewhere in the United States.

Renewals and one-year subscription renewals received in the office by 5 p.m. today, or postmarked Feb. 28, will be accepted at the old rate.

The new rates were forced when the rate for second class postage was increased on an average of 23 percent this month. Other increases over the past several years have been absorbed by the paper.

Because this issue carries a date-line of Feb. 28, the newsstand price will remain 30-cents.

However, beginning with the Mar. 7 issue, the new single copy price will be 50-cents.

Man arrested here Thursday

Iowa Park police arrested a suspect here Thursday evening who was wanted for stealing a motorcycle in Clay County.

Charles Clark, 19, was taken into custody at 11:24 p.m. in the Allsup's parking lot, and impounded the motorcycle he had with him.

A computer check on the motorcycle's license plate determined a warrant had been issued by the Clay County Sheriff's office charging Clark with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

ARSON BLAMED - Iowa Park volunteer firemen battle Sunday evening fire that gutted the Lone Star Truck Stop, FM 369 and US 287. County arson investigator David Duke said Monday the blaze was intentionally set, pointing out there was no forced entry indicated and numerous points of ignition found in the station office and entrance. All volunteer departments in the county except Electra were called in to assist in battling the blaze.

Annual Project Show two nights next week

Judging of the annual Iowa Park 4-H and FFA Project Show will get underway at 6 p.m. Tuesday in the school show barn on East Ruby, and continue the following Thursday.

The show traditionally serves as a prelude to the annual Wichita County Junior Livestock Show at the 4-H Barn in Wichita Falls.

First-night judging will include rabbits and horses, followed at 6:30 by goats; 7:00 sheep, and cattle at 9:00.

Classes to be judged Thursday are poultry, starting at 7 p.m., and swine at 8.

Lambs, goats and steers are to be weighed in at 6 p.m. Monday. Swine weighing will begin at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

The show is managed by the Wichita County Young Farmers, with help from the FFA Booster Club.

Broilers and turkeys will be the first classes judged at the county show, starting at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Mar. 8.

Saturday judging will include farm shop projects, rabbits, sheep and swine. To be judged Sunday are dairy goats, steers, heifers and horses.

The premium sale will be held Monday evening, starting at 7.

News Briefs

No classes Friday, Monday

Iowa Park schools will not hold classes Friday and Monday, Supt. Glen Mitchell confirmed this week.

The school schedules two "bad weather" days each year, and when no classes are cancelled because of weather conditions, those days become holidays.

Classes will be dismissed at the regular times Thursday, Mitchell said, and resume Tuesday morning.

City to observe holiday

All city offices, as well as the sanitary landfill, will be closed Friday in observance of Texas Independence Day.

All trash roll-outs normally picked up on Fridays will be collected this afternoon, according to Mike Price, public works director.

Use of gold in artwork told by Mrs. Metz

The home of Mrs. Warren McDonald in Wichita Falls was setting for the meeting of 23 Study Club Thursday afternoon. Co-hostesses were Mrs. D.O. James and Mrs. Riley Thompson.

Two outstanding features of the education program planned for the meeting were "Thar's Gold in Them Thar Hills" by Mrs. C.L. Metz, and a slide and narration presentation of "A Look At the Wichita Falls State Hospital," by Jamie Henderson, director of Volunteer Services and Public Education at the hospital.

Mrs. Charles Harrell, program leader, produced interesting continuity in the program by adapting each phase to either live, feel, absorb or listen.

Mrs. Joe Singer chose "Beginning of a New Day" for theme of the meditation to introduce the program.

Parker Fort at Groesbeck, built in 1834 by the Quannah Parker families, was described by Mrs. Thompson for the Texas Trivia feature.

Mrs. Metz, widely known for her skill in production of aesthetic objects, particularly in the field of china painting, explained the use of gold in china painting and displayed some of the most treasured pieces of her hand work.

She said that the kiln, so necessary in china painting, was discovered by accident in 200 B.C. in the valley of the Tigris, Euphrates and Nile Rivers, and that China was the first place where porcelain could be found. She said that Europe developed its own china later.

According to Mrs. Metz, when gold was first added to china painting, one had to be an apprentice before he could add it because of the intricacy in applying it.

She continued by saying that the price of gold has risen since she started painting with it in 1950, comparing the $6.50 she paid then to its price of $100 today.

As Mrs. Metz displayed a necklace, jars, vases, pictures, brooch, geisha girl, plates, bowls and other pieces, she explained techniques of gold flaking, pinwork, etching, enamel and agate etching. One of the novelties of the display was a plate picturing "the goose that lays the golden eggs."

Prior to the film, "Beyond the Bricks," that shows what happens for a day in a patient's stay at Wichita Falls State Hospital, Mrs. Henderson discussed changes that have been made since it was established in 1917 by an Act of Congress of Texas State Legislature.

She explained that it is one of eight state hospitals in Texas and serves a 52-county area. In the beginning, there were a thousand or more people served for mental illness, and now the average daily census is about 490.

She said the population began to decline when the Milieu Therapy and the Unit System were adopted. The average length of stay for a patient is now between 35 to 60 days.

Mrs. Henderson emphasized the importance of the Volunteer Services Department, one of the support services at the hospital. It is staffed by paid employees who channel community resources to meet needs of patients which the state may, or may not, supply.

She said a wide variety of challenging and fulfilling placement opportunities are available for volunteers.

Mrs. Henderson closed her presentation by reminding her listeners that there are many other ways to render service to patients at the hospital.

She included in these ways such things as presenting programs, contributing refreshments, grooming aids, jewelry, instant coffee and tea, giving clothes and accessories to the fashion shop, etc.

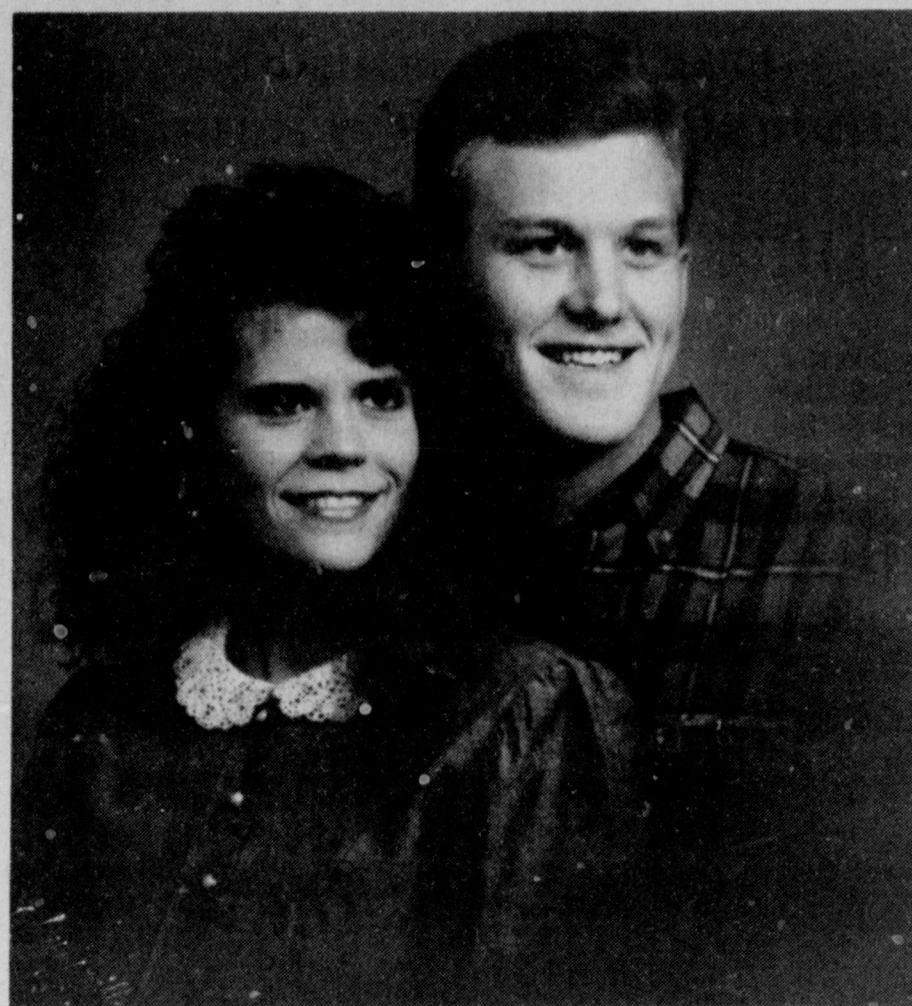

Mrs. Jim Medlinger presided during the business when Mrs. Jack Reynolds was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. Singer, Arbor Day planting chairman, announced that the Bradford tree which had been purchased would be planted on the Chamber of Commerce grounds.

Members discussed future projects and voted to contribute $25 to RAC. Duties were assigned for the Santa Rosa District meeting which will be held at First United Methodist Church in Iowa Park March 16.

The next meeting, March 21, will be Guest Day at First Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Medlinger, Singer, John Clapp, Travis Smith, Homer Blalock and Miss Frances Park serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Tillery

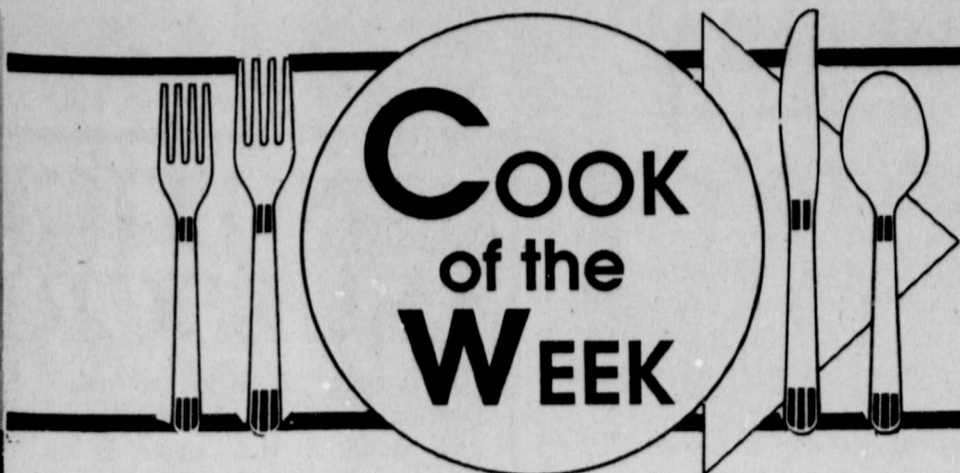

"Mama thought I should have a needle in one hand and a frying pan in the other," said Sue (Mrs. Charles) Tillery as she laughingly described the source of her interest in needlework and cooking.

Sue, well known for her needlework, made over 60 costume pieces for the Santa House in Wichita Falls last December. She also likes to do white work (fine embroidery) and tatting. She has made several Bible markers. One was displayed in the Historical Society Museum in conjunction with the Quilt Show in Wichita Falls, and she gave two others to Eastern Star members Juanita Pendergrass and Janice Latimer. Currently she is embroidering a funeral pall for the First Christian Church.

Sue was born in Vernon and grew up in Electra, Kamay and Wichita Falls. She is a graduate of Hirschi High School, where she received the Who's Who award in Cooking, and attended Midwestern State Univ. She has worked as a layout artist for Gibson's in Wichita Falls and did alterations locally for City Cleaners, but now she prefers to stay at home and be a housewife.

Sue is an active member of the Embroiderer's Guild of America, Wichita County Historical Society where she is wardrobe mistress for Santa House, and Eastern Star. She and her husband are members of First Christian Church.

Her husband, Charles, who is retired from the Air Force, is an instructor in air cargo at Sheppard Air Force Base, and is active in the Masonic Lodge here. He is also a history major at MSU, and is past president of the Historical Society, Phi Alpha Theta.

They have three grown children, Debbie King of Pensacola, Fla., Jackie Tillery and David Britt, both of Oklahoma City, and two grandchildren.

Sue brought a sample of her "Split Second Cookies" to the Leader office, and we know first-hand that they are good. Charles' favorites are "Oat Bran Muffins" and the "Diabetic Barbecue Sauce."

Split Second Cookies

2 cups flour
2/3 cup sugar
2 tsp. baking powder
1 egg
3/4 cup oleo
2 or 3 tsp. vanilla
Jam or preserves of your choice
Sift dry ingredients together into bowl. Blend in egg, oleo, and vanilla. Divide mixture into quarters; shape into logs. Make a ditch the length of the log in each. Fill indentation with jam or preserves. Bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Cut into 1/2 inch bars.

A quick and easy take-along or "company's coming" snack.

Diabetic Barbecue Sauce

3 - 8 oz. cans tomato sauce
1 small bottle Worcestershire sauce
1/4 tsp. garlic powder
1/2 pound butter
2 tsp. brown sugar substitute
1 tsp. dry mustard
2 Tbsp. vinegar
2 Tbsp. lemon juice
1/8 tsp. red pepper
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. seasoned pepper
Simmer all ingredients for a minimum of 30 minutes.

This is good with smoked brisket or polish sausage.

Oat Bran Muffins

2 cups Oat Bran
1 tsp. brown sugar substitute
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup milk (skim is lowest in fat)
1 egg (or 1/4 cup egg substitute)
2 packets of Equal or other sweetener
1/4 cup nuts (optional)
1/4 cup raisins (optional)
2 Tbsp. vegetable oil
Combine all ingredients in order given. Bake 15 to 17 minutes (in paper lined muffin tin) in 425 degree oven. Freezes well.

Cheese Twists

1 cup flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cayenne pepper
5 Tbsp. butter
4 oz. grated Cheddar cheese
2 Tbsp. ice water
1 tsp. lemon juice
Combine all ingredients. Roll thin. Cut into strips 1/2"x5". Twist gently, placing on a greased cookie sheet. Bake 10-12 minutes at 400 degrees. Store in air tight container.

A nice change of pace from chips.

Flower arranging highlights meeting

Members of the Iowa Park Garden Club were given a demonstration on flower arranging at a meeting Friday morning at TU Electric Reddy Room.

Mrs. Judy Purser, owner of Holliday Floral, instructed the group by making several arrangements, using different shaped pieces of driftwood. As she worked on each arrangement she gave tips on various techniques to use while attaching silk flowers, moss, or dried mediums to the wood. She also discussed how to arrange flowers on the wood to achieve a focal point of interest.

After the demonstration, Mrs. Purser drew names for the arrangements which she had made. The winners were Mrs. Charles Seets, Gladys James, Norma Fortner, Robert Illingworth and Jim Gilmore. Mrs. Purser also furnished an arrangement of fresh spring flowers in a white wicker basket for the officers' table.

Mrs. Gene Young presented the thought for the day entitled "A Senior Citizen Chuckle."

Members answered roll call by naming the president of the United States who was in office when they were born. Presidents from Theodore Roosevelt to Dwight D. Eisenhower were represented by the members' birth dates.

During the business session, in which Mrs. John Clapp presided, members voted to help with the Food Drive in March. All of the non-perishable goods collected at local grocery stores will stay in Iowa Park and help replenish the local Food Party.

Mrs. Vern Mikkelson, corresponding secretary, announced that memorials had been made to the club in memory of the late Grace Hughes, a life member.

Mrs. Charles Seets, whose son is serving with the military in the Persian Gulf, asked members to remember her family during this time of war. The hostesses, Mrs. Gladys James and Mrs. Charlette Kennedy, decorated the serving table in a patriotic theme, using red, white and blue colors in the serving pieces and a fresh flower arrangement.

Nineteen members were in attendance.

THEME: Our Response to the Lord's Call

Week IV - DECISION March 3-9 - The love that God extends to us through Jesus in various ways calls for a personal decision, a deepening of our baptismal commitment in the Body of Christ. God has freed us from selfishness and sin, but asks us to make a choice. God invites us in the depth of our heart to make a decision to be his friend, to let him be the most important person in our life. God wishes to be our Lord and Saviour.

THE POWER OF CHOICE

Several years ago, a young Englishman named Henry Fawcett went with his father on a hunting trip. While hunting the father's shotgun accidentally discharged, permanently blinding Henry in both eyes. At the time of the accident, Henry was a bright ambitious twenty year old man with a brilliant future. Henry was bitter at first and gave up hope that he would ever be a useful productive citizen.

Henry dearly loved his dad and realized his father was heartbroken over what he had done to his son. For dad's sake, Henry pretended he was still interested in life. An amazing thing happened! A spirit of despair was transformed into a spirit of optimism. Henry Fawcett was elected to Parliament, appointed to become the postmaster general of England, and instigated many improvements in the telegraph and postal systems.

The book of Proverbs points to the wisdom and the importance of how we react to events, especially words of correction or discipline. This book of wisdom shows the results of the choices that are made in life. "He is on the path of life who heeds instruction, but he who forsakes reproof will be honored. A man who hardens his neck after much reproof will suddenly be broken beyond remedy." (Proverbs 10:17; 13:18; 29:1).

How we choose to react to life and all of life's events make all the difference! One must continue to go forward with a positive outlook even when it seems we become bogged down, seemingly hopelessly stuck.

We must continue to expect the best. All of us know the heartaches of pain, sorrow, defeat, and disappointment. The difference between victory and defeat is our reaction! It is not the things that happen to us that make or break us. It is our mental reaction to those things that count!

The well is designated as the No. 12 Lochridge Unit and is situated in a 206-acre lease in the Louise Netherly Survey A-240. It carries authority for 4,500 feet of hole making.

The No. 14 Prothro "B" has been written off as a dry hole in the Wichita Regular Field by Victory Oil Inc. five miles northwest of Burkburnett. It was spudded on Nov. 23 and went to total depth of 1,687 feet with no commercial prospects.

Pumping seven barrels of 40-gravity oil per day, the No. 10 Foster "S" has been completed in the Wichita Regular Field, about eight miles west of Burkburnett.

It is an exploration venture of Jeffers and Bolinger Inc.

It was drilled to a 1,900-ft. bottom and will produce from Fusselman Formation perforations, 1,770 to 1,775 feet into the wellbore.

Atapco Inc., has plugged and abandoned an ill-fated developmental try in the Wichita Regular Field four miles west of Burkburnett. It was known as the No. 118 Reilly "A" and was spudded on Nov. 26. It bottomed dry at a depth of 1,750 feet.

David F. Crutcher, independent from Wichita Falls, has filed for permit to drill the No. 1 Zipson in the Wilbarger Regular Field 10 miles south of Vernon.

With total hole projected to 2,350 feet, it is in a 40-acre unit in the H&TCRR Survey A-790. Location is 330 feet from the south line and 2,970 feet from the west line of Section 84.

Wilbarger County's North King Field will see more developmental drilling when the No. 5 Andrews "L" is spudded about 10 miles south of Vernon. It will be a 1,999-ft. test in a 76-acre lease, H&TCRR Survey A-708. Landrum West Inc., of Burkburnett is the operator. Location is 150 feet from the south line and 150 feet from the west line of the lease.

Ed Spragins, independent operator from Wichita Falls, is preparing to make hole for the No. 1 Berry, a projected 7,200-ft. test in the Wilbarger Regular Field.

Location is about four miles north-northeast of Tolbert in a 640-acre lease in the H&TCRR Survey A-844. Drill site is 660 feet from the north line and 1,980 feet from the east line of Section 8.

Carrying permit for 3,500-ft. maximum hole, the No. 1 Waggoner "A" is scheduled for spudding in the Wilbarger Regular Field eight miles south of Vernon.

The operation will be in a 320-acre unit in the H&TCRR Survey Section 103 Black 14. It is located 450 feet from the north line and 1,920 feet from the east line of Section 103.

S. M. Ferguson Jr., has plugged and abandoned a Hardeman County wildcat 7.5 miles south of Chillicothe. Designated as the No. 7 Boucher, it was spudded on Dec. 8 and went to total depth of 8,200 feet with no commercial shows.

Pumping 16 barrels of oil per day, the No. 1 Munger "G" has been brought on line in the Wichita Regular Field by Singleton Production Co.

Location is about one-half mile northeast of Kamay. The well will produce from a set of perforations at 1,233 to 1,234 feet into the hole after bottoming at 1,338.

Water production totaled 80 barrels daily. Oil tested at 39-gravity.

The No. 5 Lewis "A" has been plugged and abandoned in the Wichita Regular Field about one mile south of Kamay. It was spudded on Oct. 1 and was taken to total depth of 1,810 feet with no commercial shows. W.D. Vestal Oil Co. was the operator.

Plug-and-abandon orders have been issued for the No. 14 Perkins and Cullum in the Wichita Regular Field, three miles north of Holliday. Spudded on Nov. 1, it probed to a dry bottom at 1,862-ft. TD.

Operating out of Midland, Rainbow Petroleum Management Inc., has driven stake for the No. 17 Birk in the Wichita Regular Field, about five miles northwest of Burkburnett. The 1,800-ft. test is in a 113-acre lease, F. Huseman Survey A-93.

A new pool wildcat bid has been written off as a dry hole in Hardeman County, two miles south-southwest of Quanah.

The venture was known as the No. 1 Thompson-Sawyer Library "B" and was located near existing pay in the Blight Field. With Trio Operating as the operator, it was spudded on Sept. 26 and probed to a dry bottom at 8,550-ft. TD.

Dallas-based Kuehne Oil has driven stake for two developmental ventures in the Johnson Field, Foard County. The wells are designated as the No. 70 and No. 71 L.K. Johnson. They carry permit for 4,600 and 4,300-ft TD, respectively. Both wells are in a 9,724-acre lease assembly in the SPRR Survey A-841 and A-85, 16 and 15 miles southeast of Crowell, respectively.

The No. 70 is 700 feet from the north line and 2,500 feet from the west line of Section 36 Block L. The No. 71 is 2,585 feet from the north line and 990 feet from the west line of Section 38 Block L.

Gunn Oil Co. has hung the dry hole sign on the No. 14 Burnett Triangle in the Triangle Headquarters Field, Foard County, 17 miles northwest of Crowell. Spudded Aug. 23, it probed to a dry bottom at 5,850 feet in the SPRR Survey A-522. It has been plugged and abandoned.

The No. 9 Nora Machie "F" is scheduled for spudding in the Wichita Regular Field about four miles northwest of Holliday. It will be a 2,000-ft. operation with drillsite in a 52-acre lease, Louise Netherly Survey A-240. B&R Oilfield Service Co. of Holliday will be the operator.

Take your pick from beef's skinniest six

Beef's Skinniest Six promotion is coming soon to a grocery store near you, according to the Texas Beef Industry Council.

Beginning in February, the meat market in grocery stores will provide detailed information on beef's Skinniest Six cuts of beef -- round tip, top loin (strip), top round, eye round, tenderloin and top sirloin.

The group is called the Skinniest Six because three-ounce, trimmed, cooked portions of any of these cuts have less than 180 calories and are low in fat and cholesterol.

Leanness is not a fad. According to Dr. Paul Saltman, a nutrition expert and author, high-fat diets threaten human health in many ways.

For instance, fat contributes to obesity, a condition Saltman calls "the biggest nutrition disease in America." The National Center for Human Statistics estimates that as many as 30 percent of adult men and 39 percent of adult women are obese.

"Major life-threatening diseases are associated with overweight," Saltman said. "But obesity is just one factor that contributes to illness. Nevertheless, weight plays a major role in adult-onset diabetes, and is a risk factor for hypertension, coronary heart disease, and several forms of cancer."

Health organizations such as the American Heart Association, American Cancer Society, and American Dietetic Association strongly recommend that Americans watch their weight. One way for Americans to achieve weight control, according to these health organizations, is through a balanced and varied diet that includes lean red meat.

That also brings agreement from nutrition experts like Saltman.

"All foods in a supermarket have redeeming virtue," Saltman said. "What makes food good or bad is volume, balance and interaction. What you eat matters less than how much you eat, when you eat it and what other foods you are also eating. And by depriving yourself of roast beef, lamb chops and the like, for example, you risk deficiencies in iron, zinc and other essential nutrients."

The Skinniest Six are great red meat choices because they combine low calories, fat and cholesterol with nutrition, flavor and eating enjoyment. As an added bonus, all six cuts offer convenience. Skinniest Six cuts can be prepared in less than 20 minutes.

Displays and handouts that include nutritional and cooking instructions will be up in supermarkets and grocery stores across Texas by February. The information will tell consumers how to select and prepare these good-for-you cuts.

In addition, many grocery stores will be highlighting the Skinniest Six cuts with special on-package "20 minute/20 calorie" stickers and through low calorie/low fat sections.

The promotion helps kick off National Heart Month in February and will extend through part of National Nutrition Month in March.

Now that you know what Skinniest Six cuts to choose, here are some easy ways to convert those cuts into healthy, satisfying, delicious dishes:

- MANSION BARBECUE SPICE MIX

1/2 tspn. cayenne pepper
- Mix all ingredients together and rub on lean beef cuts like tenderloin, top sirloin and top loin (strip). Grill or broil 3-4 inches from heat 10-15 minutes (medium-rare).

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN - Lawmakers moved two emergency issues forward last week when the Senate approved a school funding reform plan and a House committee passed the proposed lottery amendment.

Other lawmakers filed proposals to reform the insurance industry.

In the Senate, Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, steered his proposed constitutional amendment (plus a statute bill as a safety net in case voters reject it) past the unanimous GOP opposition, causing sponsors to ponder what House Republicans will do this week.

Democrats are eager to comply with a court order which cuts off state revenues to all school districts on April 1 if a reform measure is not approved by then.

GOP Gatekeepers

But if House Republicans also vote as a bloc, the proposed amendment will fail for lack of two-thirds support.

Whether they have the inclination or the strength to impose bloc politics, the House will get a test vote this week when the lottery amendment comes to the floor.

In a session dominated by Democrats, Republicans have only one ace in the hole: enough votes to stop any attempt to change the constitution.

Ordinarily, this big stick would not see much action, but as fate would have it, the Legislature faces a number of Democrat-designed priority issues requiring amendments to change the Texas Constitution.

Insurance Reform

Insurance Committee chairman, Rep. Eddie Cavazos, D-Corpus Christi, is sponsoring an industry reform plan which would change the way policy rates are set in Texas.

The bill will end the practice of using insurance companies' data on losses and premiums to determine rates for auto and property insurance.

Gov. Ann Richards said insurance companies collaborate in this process to set rates, a charge denied by industry spokesmen.

New Minority Seats

African-Americans in Dallas and Hispanics in Houston are floating names by the dozens to run for congressional seats expected to be drawn in those cities.

In the process, some Anglo Democrats, U.S. Rep. Mike Andrews, D-Houston, for one, are being more openly discussed by them as possible casualties of re-districting trade-offs.

In several areas around the state, Republicans have a regional population boom to make their case for a new seat, while minorities argue that past discrimination makes them due.

What's becoming apparent in many of these cases is that to satisfy both claims, an Anglo Democrat might be paired of minority Democrat precincts at one end and fattened with GOP precincts on the other.

Some Republicans are indirectly supplying census data to minority groups, a wooing to make one ponder if the GOP plans to widely back more minority candidates for new seats, not only in these cities but for legislative and judicial seats statewide.

Game of "Footsie"

Top Democrats see this as an obvious game of footsie laced with treachery; they generally assume minorities will choose from the slate of Democratic candidates.

Likely as that is, as minorities begin to win more offices, it will not last forever, and perhaps a few professionals realized the future may be closer than they imagined last week.

Houston city councilman, Ben Reyes, a former House member, shocked an Hispanic audience when he told them, "The best friend that minorities have is the Republican party" when seeking political help to draw minority districts.

No, they're not, argued Texas Democratic Party chief Ed Martin: "Minority leadership knows that Republicans don't give a hoot about minority districts."

Then Texas Republican Party chairman Fred Meyer retorted: "(Anglo) Democrats have always held the pen that redraws political lines. Ask an African-American or Hispanic if they have gotten the best representation as a result."

■ When some of the 30 women lawmakers asked her for a "women only" party at the Governor's Mansion, Richards suggested a slumber party and is working out a date.

PRESENTATION of a copy of the Texas Declaration of Independence and a portrait of the Alamo was made Tuesday at Iowa Park Junior High School, courtesy of the Summerlee Foundation in memory of a Daughter of the Republic of Texas, Annie Lee Warren Roberts, and Summerfield Griffith Roberts, a Son of the Republic of Texas. Posing with them are John Knoblock, teacher, Penny Bradberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bradberry and a seventh generation native Texan, and Randy Lovelady, school principal. The Rebecca Jane Fischer Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas in Wichita Falls was responsible for the donation.

Monthly gospel singings to begin Saturday night

The Church of God, 601 E. Cash, will have its first monthly Gospel Singings Saturday at 7 p.m. The Gambills from Buchanan, Ga., will be featured in a special night of southern gospel music to usher in the monthly series. Various styles of gospel music will be presented the first Saturday night of every month at the Church of God. According to L. Edward Prince, church pastor, each singing promises to feature outstanding talent and spirited singing. He said, "Our objective is not so much to bring in big name entertainers, but to bring in sincere, talented, and dedicated people who love to sing and worship." Singings will begin at 7 p.m. and they will all be on a free-will offering basis, so everyone can feel welcome to attend. More information may be obtained by calling Prince at 592-4348 or 592-5316.

Hawk Relays set Saturday

At least 40 teams are expected to compete Saturday in the annual Iowa Park Lions Club Hawk Relays.

The meet is traditionally the earliest, or at least one of the earliest, high school regulation track meets of the season.

There will be three divisions for both boys and girls teams.

The 3200-meter run, girls' running event preliminaries and boys' field events are all slated to get underway at 8:30 a.m. in Hawk Stadium.

As the running preliminaries for the girls is completed, they will start for the boys, and the girls will then begin their field events.

All preliminaries will be run against time, with the seven best times (six in the hurdle events) qualifying for the afternoon finals.

The finals are to begin at 2:30 p.m.

Admission will be charged at the gate, to defray expenses of the awards.

A meeting will be held at 7 this evening in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church for all volunteers who will be working at the meet.

At that time, copies of rules will be distributed to the volunteers, and those who have not been assigned responsibilities will receive designates areas in which to work.

Anyone wishing to do volunteer work at the meet is asked to attend the meeting, according to Derrell Monday, meet director.

The scratch meet will be held at 8 a.m. in the high school cafeteria. It is open not only to the coaches, but also to the volunteer workers. Coffee, orange juice and rolls will be served, and official caps will be distributed to workers.

GARY GREEN broke both his personal bests in the shot put and discus Friday in the Bulldog Relays at Burkburnett. He won the shot put with a 53-10, almost four feet better than his district meet toss last year, and his 154-3 in the discus was almost six feet farther than he had in the same meet. His efforts led the Hawks to seventh place in the Relays. Below, Erica Knight hands off to Dee Ann Warren in the sprint relay. The Lady Hawks placed sixth in the meet.

Tennis team ties for 5th

Iowa Park's tennis team tied with Amarillo Palo Duro for fifth place in a tournament last weekend at Vernon.

Canyon won first, Vernon second, Burkburnett third, Amarillo Caprock fourth, Hirschi seventh and Graham eighth.

The team is to compete this weekend in the Cowtown Tournament at Fort Worth, according to Coach Dick Wineinger.

Local results of the Vernon meet included:

Girls Singles - Chasti Hrcirik, 7th.
Girls Doubles - Jennifer Stanford and Chrystal Camp, 11th; Desiree Vos and Kristen Bauer, 13th.

Boys Doubles - Eric Smith and Aaron Smith, 6th; Jason Stevens and John Padgett, 10th.

Boys Singles - Brandon Negri, 6th; Chad Featherston, 11th.

SPORTS
Shorts

Decatur's girls made it to the first round of the Region Two tournament, but were too short for fourth-ranked Winnsboro. Decatur's tallest girl is 5-9, the same height as Winnsboro's point guard, shortest player on the squad. Decatur lost 58-46. Winnsboro went on to win region.

Speaking of girls' basketball, there is a hotbed up in the Panhandle. Like, for instance, the rivalry between Happy and Nazareth, two schools only 19 miles apart. Nazareth beat Happy 41-32 Saturday for the Region One Class A title -- not an uncommon event. But Happy did manage a win over Nazareth earlier in the season, 28-26, on a last-second shot. That was Nazareth's first district loss to a district opponent in 18 years!

Teams needed for tournament

Teams are being sought to participate in an indoor volleyball tournament Saturday, Mar. 9, in the junior high school gymnasium.

Proceeds from the meet will benefit the funding of construction at the Recreational Activities Center.

Six-person coed teams are to participate, and entry fee is $60 per team.

All sand volleyball teams are being encouraged to enter.

Information about playing times and other details can be obtained by contacting Billy Gilmore at 592-2098.

But Iowa Park came roaring back with 11 of their own in the following four innings to post their lone victory of the season. The Hawks were shut out 5-0 Tuesday by Hirschi, and have a 1-2 record when they host Wichita Falls High at 4 p.m. Friday. 4-H Club News

The March meeting of Iowa Park 4-H Club will be Wednesday, March 6 at Iowa Park RAC, 304 E. Texas. This is a very important meeting as non-animal projects will be taken up to enter in the Wichita County Project Show.

The club will have a project show and award ribbons for all entries. Mrs. Linda Mott, who is in charge of the show will accept entries.

Don't forget, you need an entry form and $1 fee for each project entered.

Program for the March meeting will be presented by Mrs. Elaine Ennis, members of the Puppy People 4-H Club, and their dogs.

They will show routines they have taught their dogs. Mrs. Ennis will also tell about the State 4-H Dog Show to be held in Wichita Falls this summer.

Mrs. Pat Raby will make final arrangements for the Iowa Park Livestock Show concession stand and Paul Panter will sign up people to work our club's shift at the Wichita County Livestock Show concession stand.

Gene Jordan will present the schedule for the Iowa Park and Wichita County Livestock Shows.

Ron Blagg will conduct a photography project Friday at 4 p.m. We will meet at the Dairy Queen at Windthorst Road exit in Wichita Falls. He will take 4-H'ers out to make pictures of the sunset.

Those 4-H'ers who have cameras should bring them. Those who do not have cameras can take photos on Ron's camera. Photos will be developed in time to be entered in the project show.

He presented a program for the Iowa Park 4-H Club in November and showed his photos of lightning, stars, sunsets and sunrises.

Members of the Iowa Park 4-H Club will man the phones Sunday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. for the MDA Telethon. All 4-H'ers wishing to take part should contact club president, Jennifer Panter.

To make money to present to the telethon, the club will hold a car wash Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Walmart.

The Iowa Park 4-H Club would like to thank Wesley Davis, Denise Henderson, and Aquilla Carrila-Miranda for their leadership for the leather craft, "stiffy bow," and ceramic projects that club members enjoyed.

On Sunday, in preparation for the livestock shows, a lamb shearing "party" will be held at 2 p.m. at 205 Cindy in Pleasant Valley Estates.

It's not too late to buy a ticket from the Wichita County Adult Leaders Association for the drawing for a brand new pickup truck. Mark Raby and Ron Barnes have tickets for the Iowa Park Club.

For additional information on any of these events contact Dee Decker, 592-9850.

State collects local school data

The crew from BETA was in town last week, and they wanted to know everything about the Iowa Park school system.

As far as one local school official is concerned, it's all part of a long-range plan to take over the system.

The Texas Education Agency has embarked on a state-wide inventory of school facilities and educational technology.

It's all required by law, as enacted under Senate Bills 1019 and 650 passed by the 71st Legislature.

The Building and Educational Technology Assessment, or BETA project, involves teams visiting each of the approximately 1,200 districts across the state to collect the information.

Assistant Superintendent Robert Palmer believes the project is a prelude to the state's takeover of public education in Texas.

"The goal of the project is to create a base-line inventory of specified facility and technology elements to support TEA and legislative decision making on educational funding and the development of standards," Lynn M. Moak, deputy commissioner for research and development, said in a letter to all superintendents of the state.

Not only does the study include the numbers of buildings included in a district, and their conditions, but down to such details as how many electrical outlets are in each room and what kinds of equipment are in a school's inventory.

To conduct the state-wide study, the TEA hired 3DI, Inc., of Houston, and the firm's representatives hire local students to assist. All work is done in the afternoons and evenings.

Iowa Park's study was completed

Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Besides the measurements of all buildings and parking spaces, the inventory includes such items as types of computers, modems, printers, scanners, microwave dish receivers, video cameras, televisions and fax machines are on each campus.

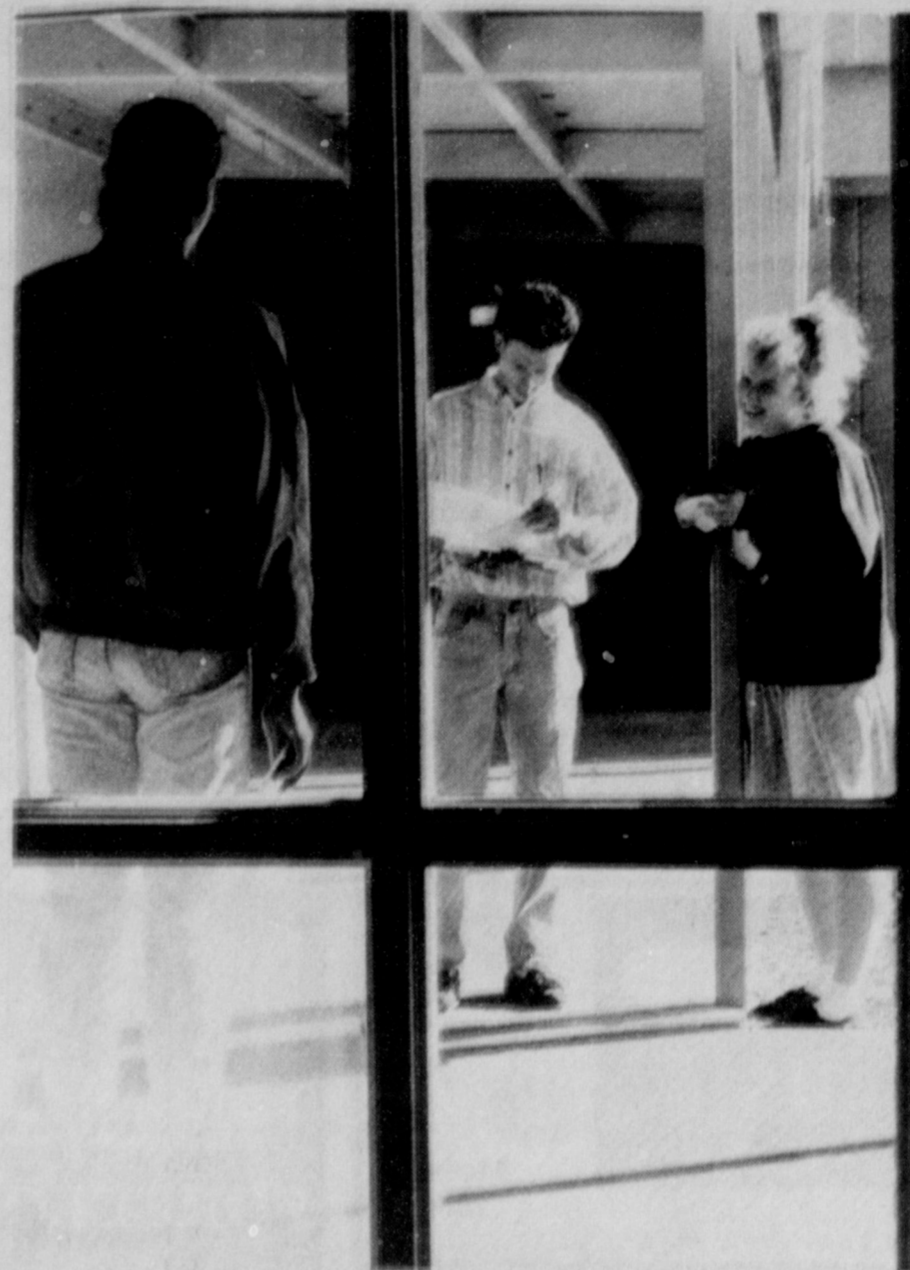

Even the type of finish floors have, as well as numbers of drinking fountains, toilet fixtures, sinks, showers and even gas jets are in each room.

BETA project teams started out with a group of 82 "representative" school districts with a concentration on poor and rapid growth districts, and all other districts are to follow.

"The point to keep in mind," Moak wrote, "is that this will be an initial mechanism for developing a vehicle for funding school facility improvements with state funds.

"Specifically, this information may well be utilized in distribution of state funding beginning as early as the 1991-92 school year."

Besides being contracted to conduct the inventory, 3DI also was awarded a contract for the development of an automated database to store and maintain the data collected.

Sasha was studying to get into college.

Now she's majoring in Lamaze Class.

We'd like to talk to you about a growing problem. Teen pregnancy. Last year, over one million teenage girls became pregnant and this year over one million more will join the ranks.

Like Sasha, most of these girls will be forced to drop out of school and few of them will get the opportunity to return. Instead, they'll face a competitive job market with limited education and skills, not to mention an extra mouth to feed.

For Sasha and her baby, the road ahead will be a hard one. But, Sasha's future could have been so much brighter.

If you're a parent, take the time to talk to your daughters and sons about sex and love. Find out what they feel. What they know. What they don't know. Because what they don't know can hurt them. Education is our best protection.
