IOWA PARK LEADER ⁵⁰ Cents

Vol. 22, No. 41

IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367

Thursday, June 27, 1991

THE FIRST of a series of swimming lessons offered by Iowa Park Bicentennial Swimming pool was begun with a large group of enthusiastic youngsters Monday morning. Instructing the session are Linda and Melody Gray and Greg Steger.

County Education District slates meeting to organize

The organizational meeting of the Wichita County Educational District has been called for 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 26, at McNeil Junior High School in Wichita Falls.

The County Education District (CED) was created, along with almost 200 others across the state, by the Texas legislature in its recent session.

The legislation mandated one representative from each school district in the CED to be appointed. Iowa Park's board of trustees elected Keith Fisher.

First order of business is the administering of the oath of office to the board members. Rep. John Hirschi, of the 82st District, will be the administering officer.

Immediately afterward, the CED officers, including chairman, vice-chairman and recording secretary, will be elected.

The board is to adopt a resolution calling for a special Aug. 10 election to decide if Wichita County taxpayers want the CED to recognize homestead exemptions and whether they want all tangible personal property, such as automobiles, placed on the tax rolls.

The special election corresponds with a state-wide voting on two proposed state constitutional amendments.

Other topics on the CED's agenda include: administration of the CED; tax collections/distribution responsibilities; depository contracts; official request for appraisal rolls from the county appraisal district, and request for tax collections data from component districts, which includes Iowa Park, Wichita Falls, Burkburnett, Electra and City View.

Each CED, according to the legislative act, is to set a county-wide tax rate no lower than 72 cents. That is not to include each local district's bond retirement obligations.

From the base amount, it will be determined an equalized tax rate for the county district.

Prior to adjournment, a resolution is to be acted on setting the location, date and time for future CED board meetings.

In each of the CEDs over the state, the district's largest component district, as determined by average student attendance, is to be the host district.

Trustees to meet Thursday

A called meeting of the Iowa Park school board will feature budget work and reports from the Districtwide Educational Improvement Council.

Budget and setting of personnel salaries for the 1991-92 school year will be one of the board's most pressing topics on the agenda.

While all but two professional positions have been filled -- speech and school nurse are yet to be hired -- none of their contracts have the blanks where their salaries are filled in as yet.

Trustees, as in several times in the past when the legislature was still in session and working on issues that could effect state and local funding, approved the contracts without setting salaries.

The product of the Districtwide Educational Improvement Council to be presented to the board includes

City action designed for economic growth

The city council Monday night took the first step toward a program designed to attract greater business investment and creation of additional employment for the community.

The first of required public hearings which will lead to establishment of an enterprise zone and designating a reinvestment zone was held.

That was followed by adoption of an ordinance to establish the zone.

Final public hearings and adoption of an ordinance for the annexation of two tracts of land into the city were also held and approved.

The tracts are at 1211 North Bell Road and 401 E. Diamond. In both cases, owners of the properties petitioned annexation, as required by the city charter.

Several of the agenda items on which aldermen took action related to the Recreational Activities Center.

One was accepting the lowest of two bids, $6,622.50 submitted by Indeco Sales Co., for the purchase of 150 chairs, 20 tables, three table trucks and three chair dollies. Delivery is expected in four to six weeks.

Two items related to development of the RAC's parking area: authorizing the city administrator to advertise for bids for curb and gutter, with an option of concrete surface construction; and the other approving a possible change order with Zack Burkett Co. for over-laying the parking area with asphalt.

Approval also was given for an additional $150 payment to a contractor for carpet at the RAC, caused by a mistake in measurements provided during the bidding process.

Administrator Gary Jones also was authorized to make a final payment to O.L.D. Co. for painting of the ground storage tanks, in the amount of $642.73.

While no action was taken on a number of other topics, discussions were held on a request for major work on a portion of Texas Street; a possible increase in the state tax on landfill by 50-cents a ton; increased requirements at the landfill in the future including the installation of monitoring wells, and the council's scheduled budget study meeting scheduled July 15.

By a split vote, the council approved a change in the city's ordinance governing fireworks in the city, deleting two key words "possession" and "transport."

For the past two years, it has been unlawful to have fireworks anywhere in the city.

The dissenting vote on the change was cast by Alderman Bob Hamilton.

An unanimous vote of the council, however, approved the setting off of fireworks at Lake Iowa Park on "one day only," July 4, 1991.

Any other time it is illegal to set off fireworks anywhere inside the city limits.

Most of the enterprise zone adopted by the council is to the north of the city. However, it does include areas south of US 287, as well as the Cryovac plant. Additional areas may be included in the future.

Following a lengthy presentation and discussion on health care insurance for employees and dependents, the council decided to approve a proposal submitted by Security Life Insurance Co., the current carrier.

Other proposals were submitted by Texas Municipal League and Blue Cross/Blue Shield.

Because the employees' new coverage requires a larger out-of-pocket expenditure, in case of hospitalization, aldermen approved increasing the city's share, to $740 on a $2,000 claim. The share has been $250.

The policy change was determined necessary due to a 26-percent increase in premiums, should the current policy be renewed, it was explained.

Headstone found at lake

A city employee discovered a headstone standing on the northwest shore of Lake Iowa Park Friday afternoon.

The headstone reportedly was for a Wichita Falls man's grave who died and was buried at Highland Cemetery in 1984.

However, a cemetery spokesman said, after inspecting the grave site, there apparently had never been a headstone placed there.

Because the cemetery is not inside the city limits, the case was turned over to the county sheriff's office.

Police investigated a criminal mischief case Saturday at Christ the King Catholic Church, where a portion of a stained glass window was broken out.

The window was located on the north side of the building, according to the report.

When an officer stopped a vehicle at 3:30 a.m. Saturday near the post office, it was determined the two occurred.

Leader issue printed early

This week's issue of the Iowa Park Leader, as well as next week's, is being printed on Tuesday instead of the usual Wednesday.

However, both issues will carry their regular Thursday datelines.

Because of the early printing dates, the paper's advertising and news deadlines have been moved up one day.

The July 4th issue deadline for regular display advertising (with border) is 4 p.m. Monday, July 1. Deadline for classified advertising is 12-noon Tuesday.

The early printing date this week was necessary to allow some of the staff to attend the annual summer convention of the Texas Press Association, which is in Corpus Christi.

Next week's early printing is due to the July 4th postal holiday. The Leader has always observed a policy of printing early when there is no postal service on the Thursday publication date.

Mrs. Tim McWhorter and Zachary

Although her time is pretty well dominated by eight-month-old son, Zachary, Carrie (Mrs. Tim) McWhorter enjoys watching movies, and she likes to cook.

Carrie and Tim, who have been married four years in August, met in Wichita Falls while she was working at Skaggs Alpha Beta and he was employed by Falls Distributing.

Carrie grew up in Oklahoma City where she graduated from high school. She was employed by Skaggs Alpha Beta in that city before moving to Burkburnett, where her grandparents live, five years ago.

Tim is a 1981 graduate of Iowa Park High School, and the couple enjoyed attending his class' 10-year reunion last weekend. He is employed at The Battery Center in Wichita Falls. The couple has lived in Iowa Park two years. Carrie said that she and Tim like to go camping, and are planning some more trips when Zachary is old enough.

The recipes Carrie submitted are family favorites. She said her favorite is Taco Salad and Tim likes Lasagne and Hamburger Quiche.

Taco Salad

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1/2 medium onion
- 14 1/2 oz. can tomato juice
- 1 can ranch style beans w/juice
- 1 tsp. garlic salt
- Small Pkg. Fritos corn chips
- 1 head chopped lettuce
- 2-3 diced tomatoes
- Shredded Cheddar cheese

Brown ground beef and onion together, drain. Add tomato juice, can of beans and garlic salt. Simmer until thick, about 25 minutes. Serve on a bed of lettuce, tomatoes, Fritos and cheese.

Pork Fried Rice

- 2/3 cup uncooked rice
- 3 Tbsp. cooking oil
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 1/2 cup boiling water
- 1 boullion cube
- 1 medium onion (chopped)
- 2 stalks celery (chopped)
- 1 cup diced, cooked pork

Cook rice in hot oil until golden brown. Add salt, water, boullion cube. Cover and cook 20 minutes. Add rest of ingredients and 1/4 cup more water if necessary. Cover tightly, cook 10 minutes more. Makes four servings.

Lasagne

- 1 pkg. lasagne noodles
- 1 lb. cottage cheese
- 8 oz. Mozzarella cheese
- 8 oz. American cheese
- 2 lbs. ground beef
- Parmesan cheese
- Small amount tomato sauce

Sauce

- 2 - 8 oz. cans tomato sauce
- 1 1/4 cup tomato juice
- 1 tsp. oregano
- 2-2 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
- 1 1/4 tsp. dry parsley
- 2 Tbsp. onion flakes
- 1/4 tsp. black pepper
- 1 tsp. crumbled bay leaves

Cook noodles until tender. Brown ground beef and drain. Add sauce ingredients. Simmer 10-15 minutes.

Use 9x11 pan to layer ground beef and sauce, noodles, American cheese, Mozzarella cheese and cottage cheese. Repeat layers until all ingredients are used. Pour tomato sauce over top. Bake in 350 degree oven 1 to 1 1/2 hours. Cover while baking until last 15 minutes.

Baked Alaska Fudge Pie

- 1 pre-baked 9-inch pastry shell
- 3/4 cup fudge sundae topping
- 1 1/2 quarts (6 cups) softened vanilla or chocolate ice cream
- 3 egg whites
- 1/8 tsp. cream of tartar
- 1/4 cup sugar

Additional fudge topping for garnish

Chill pastry shell thoroughly. Spread fudge topping on bottom of shell.

Place ice cream into large bowl and beat with electric mixer or spoon until softened. Spread evenly over bottom of shell. Place in freezer while preparing meringue.

Whip egg whites in mixer bowl until frothy. Add cream of tartar and continue beating until almost stiff. Add sugar 1 Tbsp. at a time and continue beating until stiff and glossy.

Spread meringue over ice cream layer in pie shell, spreading completely to the edges of the shell to seal well.

Brown in 450 degree oven for 3 to 4 minutes or until meringue is lightly browned. Drizzle top with additional fudge topping. Place in freezer until ready to serve or serve immediately.

Easy Hamburger Quiche

- 1 unbaked pie shell
- 1/2 lb. hamburger
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup milk (canned milk makes it creamier)
- 2 eggs
- 1 Tbsp. corn starch (or 2 Tbsp. flour)
- 1 1/2 cups shredded cheese
- 1/2 cup chopped onion (or 1/4 - 1/2 tsp. onion powder)

Brown meat in skillet and drain. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Blend next four ingredients until smooth. Stir in meat, cheese, onion. Turn into pie shell. Bake 35 to 40 minutes (until golden brown and knife inserted into center comes out clean). Let stand about 5 minutes.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the families who came and brought ice cream to our Family Night on the 17th. We all had our fill of many flavors of ice cream and our residents have not stopped talking about it.

I also would like to thank the ladies of Faith Baptist Church for bringing the fathers of our nursing home a surprise for Father's Day.

There will be a good time for all on July 13 with the "Just Friends" band making an appearance at our nursing home. They play all types of country music from Hank Thompson to Garth Brooks. Come and join us at 2 p.m.

As it has been for the last several years we are blessed with a group of talented people who visit us the last Monday of the month. They started playing for us because of some of their loved ones being in the nursing home, but continued to bless us with their talent even after their loved ones were no longer with us. We feel so grateful to them and their selfless giving of their time.

Our Bingo winners for the last couple of weeks have been Floyd Bloodworth, Sis Pendergrass, Dicie Taylor, Troy Robinson, Cora Lewis, Jessie Johnson, Marion Gray, Eltha Kirkpatrick, Roberta Spears and Loree Dunegan.

We would like to welcome Oleta (Sis) Pendergrass to our nursing home. We are proud to have her with us.

We lost two dear residents in the past few weeks, Ruth Wilson and Irma Stone. Both of these ladies were very "special" ladies. We will miss them greatly.

We wish a speedy recovery to Loree Dunegan who has been in the hospital and is now back with us.

As I See It. . .

By Bob Hamilton

With all the unemployment news in the papers these days, it's no wonder a lot of effort is being made to create more jobs.

I'm not sure I go along with one theory being advanced in Washington D.C. these days, of creating jobs on public works projects with the use of tax dollars.

I know it worked fairly well back in the 1930s, but things today are not nearly as they were then.

It seems very few looking for an opportunity ever think about developing a business. I admire those who do. That's what made this country as great as it is.

There are those who say they don't have an opportunity. That may be, if they don't take advantage of situations, which is what entrepreneurship is all about.

A couple of fellows have seen opportunity in all these new programs designed to protect the environment. One lives here in Iowa Park, and the other is down at McGregor, just west of Waco.

The local man is George Roy, who has developed a business of buying discarded aluminum cans and bottles, and then reselling them to other buyers. His key card is being local, instead of those who have the items having to travel to Wichita Falls.

The McGregor man saw opportunity in developing a piece of equipment to cut up discarded vehicle tires.

Both their fledging businesses basically are benefiting landfills by cutting down on the volume being dumped into the burial pits, as well as their particular pocketbooks.

Roy, who's well-known locally as a grocer, hit on the idea and has opened the Iowa Park Recycling Center. He is using a vacant lot, at Bank and Pacific, next to his home.

Though he admittedly isn't setting the woods afire, or overloading his bank account with deposits, Roy is looking down the road with two purposes in mind: a potential of earning, and helping cut down on tonnage at the landfill.

He offers very competitive prices for the cans and bottles, especially when one takes into account a seller would have to make a 30-mile-plus drive to Wichita Falls to find a buyer.

Though he's only been open a few weeks, he's already saved well over a ton of material from going into our city's landfill.

Complete tires are not permitted to be put in any landfill in the state. They cause problems. They can, however, be put in landfills when cut into as few as four equal pieces, I understand.

That's where the McGregor man got his idea. He was without work, but had some shop equipment and a desire to do something.

So, he designed and built his own tire-slicing rig. His outlay was about $1,000, since he already had some of the necessary parts such as steel and hydraulic pumps.

It didn't take long for him to get busy, as businesses around McGregor and Waco were frantically looking for a means of disposing of used tires.

I don't know yet how busy he is, after having read about a month ago of the man in the McGregor Mirror, but I'll bet he's got all he can handle.

As is the case of most successful businesses, someone had to come up with an idea, recognizing a need and opportunity, and then get busy.

Very few ever get ahead by waiting for something to just come their way.

Defends Carrier

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

A West Texas clothopper such as you calling Steve Carrier a "hick" is like the pot calling the kettle black.

Since I am a native "hick" from Fisher County, I have followed Steve's career very closely, as I did his dad's career in the legislature. I've never known either to be anyone's "political hack."

No wonder you are defending Ken Towery . . . you both spout the same type of garbage.

Sincerely,
Joe L. Galloway

Wants maiden names

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

My father-in-law, Wayne Short, subscribes to your paper and passes it along to us. We read it from front to back and enjoy every issue.

My husband graduated from Iowa Park High School and is always interested in what happens to friends from his school days. He has noticed women's names in your obituaries whose married names are given but not their maiden names. Since he moved away from the Iowa Park area before many of his friends married, he is left wondering if some of the women who have passed away could be ones that he knew. Is there some reason for not publishing their maiden names?

If you could encourage families to list the maiden names of deceased females, we would greatly appreciate it.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Donald W. Short

AREA OIL & GAS NEWS

Two developmental wells are planned by Landrum West, Inc., in the Wichita Regular Field, two miles west of Burkburnett.

The wells will be known as the Nos. 5 and 6 "L." Both will seek production at total depths of 850 feet. Location is in a 70-acre lease in the Oscar Farish Survey A-383.

A new producer has been brought on line in the Wichita Regular Field, with Bohner Oil Co., as the operator.

Located three miles north of Kamay, the well is in a 40-acre lease in the Moses F. Roberts Survey A-246. It is designated as the No. 1 Kemp and Allen "S."

The well pumped 38 barrels of oil per day, plus 38,000 CF gas. It bottomed at 1,840 feet and will produce from a perforated interval in the Gunsight Formation, 1,644 to 1,646 feet into the hole.

At a location six miles north of Iowa Park, Exmoor Oil and Minerals, Inc., has finalized a new oil producer in the Wichita Regular Field.

The well is designated as the No. 185 Ruyle Unit "E," pumping oil at the rate of 16 barrels per day.

Location is in a 441-acre lease in the SP RR Co., Survey A-437. Bottomed at 1,750 feet, the well will produce from perforations in the Lower Gunsight Formation, 1,640 to 1,660 feet into the wellbore.

Joe McDonald of Burkburnett has revealed plans to drill a 1,900-ft. developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field. The operator has 155 acres leased, with drillsite in the Hezekiah Balch Survey A-26, and has designated the venture as the No. 24 Hodges "B." Drillsite is four miles southwest of Iowa Park.

The Wichita Regular Field gained a new producer when Exmoor Oil and Minerals, Inc., completed the No. 187 Ruyle Unit "E," six miles north of Iowa Park.

The well indicated ability to pump 16 barrels of oil per day. It was taken to a 1,750-ft. bottom and will produce from a set of perforations, 1,524 to 1,554 feet into the wellbore.

The operation is in a 441-acre lease in the SP RR Co., Survey A-437.

F.T. Johnson, Jr., has plugged and abandoned an unsuccessful developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field, 10 miles northeast of Electra. The well was spudded May 6 and was drilled to total depth of 1,560 feet. It was known as the No. 13 Dickey and McGann and was located in a 180-acre lease in the TE&L Survey A-289.

The No. 2 Cato "B" has been finalized by Tommy Swanson Oil Co. It is a developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field. Drillsite is six miles southeast of Electra. Location is in a 186-acre lease in the HT&B RR Co., Survey A-131.

Daily potential of five barrels of oil, plus 40 barrels of water was posted with the Railroad Commission. The well went to a 2,000-ft., bottom, and production will be from perforations in the Cisco Formation, 1,760 to 1,770 feet into the hole.

L and J Oil Co., has given up on its efforts to make a producer out of the No. 58 T.J. Cole in the Wichita Regular Field. Location was three miles south of Iowa Park. Spudded in 1990, the well probed to a dry bottom at 800 feet. It was located in an 875-acre lease in the John McCool Survey A-192.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN - Just a few weeks ago, the Legislature, dominated by Democrats, wrote a $5 billion check it can't cover for a sumptuous banquet of state services.

Now, Capitol halls are filled with very nervous state officials and agency heads wondering if they'll be there when dinner (state spending) is served.

Why? Last week, two top private sector Democrats, advising Gov. Ann Richards on how to cover that check, rattled lawmakers statewide with a proposal to raise an additional $11.5 billion.

Former Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and premier Democratic Party financier Jess Hay want her task force to vote on a package of personal and corporate taxes and a modest tax on aviation fuel.

A Texas family earning $35,000 a year would pay an extra $1,500 in state taxes, an increase of 68 percent, analysts say.

Some lawmakers, particularly House members, believe the proposal is a political suicide plan, and that's why they are nervous.

Slashing Alternatives

Politically, a more desirable route is to reduce spending; that's intimidating to Democrats in the Legislature who, led by Hobby, celebrated the 1980s with massive expenditures.

How massive were they? Billions! Tax hikes one after another: the issue is the largest and most credible in the Texas Republican Party arsenal.

But Democrats like Richards and Comptroller John Sharp know it, and they know they can defuse that issue with some good-looking spending cuts next month.

No Sacred Cows

That's why state bureaucrats are nervous, their jobs are on the line in July, when lawmakers meet in special session to write the budget.

A new law will abolish all state agencies at year's end, except those given extended life in the budget this summer.

Education Overhaul Eyed

Education experts last week confirmed that the new school finance reform law will cost $370 million more than lawmakers had estimated for the next two years, primarily because of a substantial drop in property values statewide.

Meanwhile, Sharp's plan to call for a complete overhaul of the Texas Education Agency could backfire by sparking morale problems that may cause many of the department's best people to quit, said Tom Anderson, interim commissioner.

Sources who have seen a draft of the plan said Sharp will recommend the 1,100-person agency be dismantled and rebuilt under new Education Commissioner Lionel "Skip" Meno, who takes office July 1.

Democrats' Quandary

Texas Democrats are in a quandary.

Likely, they will balance the budget with a combination of new taxes and new spending cuts.

The taxes are certain to alienate more middle-class voters, while the cuts, if they do them wrong, will enrage their own lower class supporters.

Then, having done that, Democrats must seek re-election in 1992 against a Republican ticket led by a Texan in the White House.

Workers' Comp Defectors

If the budget cuts work, then Democrats will fare better than expected, but who can predict how those budget chips will fall?

After all, lawmakers thought they had licked the workers' compensation insurance problem, but a Valley judge ruled with labor and struck it down.

Last week, State Board of Insurance chairman Claire Koriath, a trial lawyer appointed by Richards, warned that some 2,600 Texas employers dropped the coverage in April and May, making a total of 8,000 defections since September.

Koriath called the situation scary, "a dangerous trend." Others say it reflects the business sector's lack of faith that the reform bill will reduce the skyrocketing cost of coverage.

Redistricting Suits

Gov. Richards let the Legislature's redistricting plan become law without her signature, prompting civil and minority rights groups and the Texas Republican Party to file law suits to strike it down.

She said if U.S. Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher approves new census figures, the Legislature will meet in special session to update the plan.

Other Highlights

State Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutchison said that even talking about an income tax has hurt Texas. She said such a levy would slow the economic recovery, scare away prospective businesses and strip the state of a key advantage in competition for new jobs.

The U.S. Senate passed an amendment to its five-year transportation bill that would give Texas $1 in road money for every $1 in gasoline taxes it sends to the National Highway Trust Fund, the first time Texas has broken even since the program was launched in 1956.

The Texas Supreme Court decided it will hear the case of two state prison inmates suing the state because televisions in their cellblocks are too loud. Lower courts dismissed the case as frivolous.

New state laws affect businesses

"Texas employers and employees alike need to be aware of the various amendments made to laws affecting them during the last Texas legislative session," said Mary Scott Nabers, Commissioner at the Texas Employment Commission.

"Some are welcome changes, while a failure to be aware of others could have very negative consequences," she said.

The Texas Unemployment Compensation Act was amended such that an individual who leaves work due to a medically verified illness of the worker's minor child will not be disqualified from benefits, provided no alternative care was available and the employer would not allow a reasonable amount of time off. The employer's account can be protected from a chargeback in such a situation but employers need to follow up to assure they receive tax account protection.

Another amendment to the Act makes an individual eligible for benefits if the worker resigns partial employment to accept other employment that the claimant reasonably believes will increase his weekly wage. The latter change will not become effective until Sept. 1. A company's tax rate can also be protected in such cases as this but employers should request the protection.

An amendment to the Act was also passed which provides that findings and conclusions made in connection with claims for unemployment benefits may not be used in other proceedings and actions.

Three other amendments served to exclude from coverage under the Act certain services: those performed by an individual at a trade market for a wholesaler of sales representative of a wholesaler or manufacturer of consumer goods under a written contract; service of product demonstrators if the service is performed under a written contract; and services performed for a courier or delivery service.

"The services named here are all subject to a number of conditions specified in the law if they are to be excluded, so any employer contemplating a change in the current designation of its workers is well advised to find out the details from the Commission's tax department," says Commissioner Nabers.

The Texas Payday Law has been amended to give the TEC authority to require under certain circumstances that an employer file a bond or other security to assure performance of obligations under the Payday Law.

Another matter of interest to employers is an addition to the Texas Minimum Wage Law which requires employers to begin listing the reasons for any pay deductions on the earnings statement companies must furnish to employees at the end of a pay period. "It must be explained to workers why any amount is deducted from a paycheck," Commissioner Nabers said.

THE DRIVER of this demolished automobile, Cherri Lynn Owens, 30, of Iowa Park, received a broken ankle and minor bruises and abrasions in a one-vehicle accident Sunday evening on FM 367 between Bell and Peterson roads. DPS Trooper Mike Denk credited her seat belt with possibly saving her life. Impact of the west-bound car not only broke one highline pole off at the ground, but snapped another just east, shown above the car. She was transported by ambulance to a Wichita Falls hospital after being attended by the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department's emergency response team.

Social services needs are studied

A report on the Needs Assessment Survey in the Wichita Falls Area was previewed Thursday for the sponsoring organizations and numerous agencies providing social services in the community.

The Assessment was completed by the MSU Bureau of Business and Government Research and was sponsored through funding from the Burk Burnett ISD, the City of Wichita Falls, Junior League of Wichita Falls, Libra Foundation, Nortex Regional Planning Commission, the Wichita County Government, the Wichita Falls ISD, and the United Way of Greater Wichita Falls.

The concept of a health and human services needs assessment started more than a half dozen years ago, when concerned citizens in the community decided a clearer picture was needed of the community's needs.

In May 1988, the Bureau published Greater Wichita Falls in the 1990s, which analyzed various social, economic, and demographic trends in the community.

In the spring of 1989, discussions began about the needs assessment. When financial support was secured, the Bureau of Business and Government Research was able to begin implementation.

The survey was conducted by telephone, mail and on-site visits. It was determined that the appropriate sample size for the county needed to be a minimum of 1,050 completed surveys. This was divided by the population in each of the county's ZIP codes to assure adequate representation from each ZIP code.

The primary survey question focused on the interviewee's perception of how serious they felt the needs for services in each of 60 categories were. The survey also asked why people may not take advantage of the services provided and then requested some demographic information about the interviewee.

The top 10 needs perceived by the residents of Wichita County to be very serious or serious included the following:

Creation of new jobs was ranked highest (89.5%). This was followed closely by drug and alcohol-related questions: drug and alcohol abuse treatment for youth (second with 88.3%); drug and alcohol abuse prevention for youths (third, with 84.2%), and drug and alcohol abuse prevention for adults (fifth with 83.8%).

The next two highest are related to household violence: the sixth was child protective services (83.7%) and the seventh was services for victims of rape and domestic assault (82.5%).

AIDS education was perceived to be a very serious or serious need by 80.5% of the respondents. The ninth was law enforcement services (78.8%), followed by shelters and counseling for runaways (77.1%).

With regard to barriers to services provided by various organizations, the lack of information about service is considered to be the highest as a very serious barrier in receiving services.

On the other hand, inconvenient hours and people's dislike for services were perceived to be relatively less serious with 36.1% and 24.9% respectively of the respondents ranking them to be either very serious or serious.

The United Way of Greater Wichita Falls, together with the other sponsors feel that the Needs Assessment provides a wealth of information about the county's health and human service needs.

The sponsors have only begun to analyze the data to better understand its implications community program planning.

The United Way of Greater Wichita Falls plans to work with the other sponsoring organizations as well as the many social service agencies in the community to use the results of this survey, together with information from previous studies as well as the 1990 Census, to identify and address community needs.

Tips On Dental Health

RICHARD CARVER, D.D.S.

TMI SYNDROME

People that have this problem know it as a real pain. If you are having pain or tenderness around your head, neck, shoulders or back, you may be suffering from temporomandibular syndrome. It is believed that as many as 60 million people suffer from this at one time or another. It is most common among women aged 20-40.

The temporomandibular joint connects the lower jaw to the skull and is located just in front of the ears. The joint and five pairs of muscles enables your jaw to move when you talk, chew or swallow. Anything that interferes so that these muscles and the joint can not work properly together causes problems such as:

- headaches and neckaches
- difficulty in opening the mouth
- ringing in the ears
- dull aching pain near the ear

The causes of TMI syndrome appear to be varied and are not entirely understood. It can be caused by such things as aging, a blow to the head or jaw, arthritis, or opening the jaw so wide as to injure the cartilage. Probably the most common cause is a poor bite caused by loss of teeth and clenching or grinding the teeth when under stress.

Treatments may involve reshaping of certain teeth, bite plates and sometimes surgery, among other types of treatment.

TF magazine puts Hawks in fourth

The magazine, Texas Football, hit the rack this week at K&K Food Store (at $5.95 per), with the preseason prediction that Iowa Park will finish fourth in Dist. 4-AAA.

Vernon, Breckenridge and Graham are figured to be the finishing order of the conference at season's end, with Bowie and Bridgeport following behind the Hawks.

"The 1990 Hawks dipped from 7-3 two years ago, but Coach (Lucky) Gamble looks for improvement in his first season at the helm. With 15 starters back and only four lettermen lost, Iowa Park is an experienced team that will rely on the game-breaking talents of players like (Greg) Steger and (Robert) Denton."

Navasota, with linemen weighing 290, 280, 220, 240 and 245, is picked to replace Vernon as the state champion.

Second place prediction went to Gladewater, followed in order by Cuero, Vernon, Fairfield, Sinton, Southlake Carroll, Gilmer, Springtown and Newton.

About the defending champs, TF said, "It's going to be difficult for the Lions to top last year's championship season. Several all-state players are gone, but some possible all-state talent returns in Ham and Favors, two reasons why veteran Coach (Leo) Brittain likes the look of his defense. Tradition is worth a lot, but Brittain admits his team must overcome a lack of size and experience."

Breckenridge got the nod for the second playoff slot from 4-AAA because, "First-year Coach (Jerry) Taylor brings a winning legacy to the Buckaroos. But graduation cost Breckenridge heavily. Taylor, who led Odessa High to the AAAAA playoffs last season, will be depending on relatively untested players to get this team back to the playoffs."

Graham got its third-place preseason guess because, "The Steers were one of the district's surprise teams last year, missing out on a second-place finish by losing to Breckenridge in the final game. (Toby) Dollar threw for 720 yards and (Paul) Alvarez rushed for 210. (Trent) Shifflett was the all-district kicker, and (J.T.) Pratt earned district Sophomore of the Year honors."

Comments about Bowie were: "The Jackrabbits will require immediate help from last year's JV to contend for a playoff spot, believes Coach (Leonard) Carey. (Trace) Morris is a definite keeper after rushing for 1,150 yards last year. (Chad) Upshaw must come through at QB after missing most of last year with an injury. (Eric) Crawford, (Shawn) Blaylock and (Jeff) Treadway provide excellent strength at LB."

Rounding out the district is Bridgeport, about whom TF stated, "Better depth and greater experience might help the Bulls bounce back. Running behind (Larry) Jennings, an all-district performer, (Anthony) Sillett, (Matt) Allen, (Edwin) Evers and (Robert) Jones could have big years."

Predictions for Dist. 9-AA has Olney finishing first, Holliday second, and Electra, Quanah, Archer City and Seymour rounding out the order.

Beef Eaters' Pizza wins '91 Texas Beef Cook-off

An easy-to-prepare pizza made with one pound of sirloin steak won the 1991 Texas Beef Cook-Off at Kerrville for Mary Meyers of Mexia April 26.

She created the recipe she calls "Beef Eaters' Pizza" specifically for the Texas Beef Cook-Off. Her goal was to combine flavorful ingredients in a single dish that would appeal to large families. She and her husband, Allen, a 1990 cook-off finalist, have four children and 12 grandchildren.

"I wanted to enter a recipe that was easy to prepare, and something the whole family could enjoy," Mrs. Meyers said. "We like steaks and roasts, but a big family often has to look toward less expensive cuts and make them stretch farther. This recipe does that and gives them plenty of meat."

The recipe calls for marinating the sirloin for one hour. While it is marinating, fresh vegetables are prepared and the ingredients are combined on top of a packaged pizza shell. The cooking time is 10 minutes.

She said a key ingredient that complements the sirloin in her pizza is two ounces of crumbled Roquefort cheese. She borrowed the idea from recipes for more expensive cuts like beef tenderloin that include a side sauce made from Roquefort cheese.

Mrs. Meyers' first prize dish won her $3,000 and honor of representing Texas in the National Beef Cook-Off Sept. 22-24 in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Second place and $2,000 in the Texas Beef Cook-Off went to Gina Romero-Jimenez of Austin for her "Marinated Beef with Tomato-Jicama Chutney."

Third place and $1,000 went to Beverly Sebastian of Fort Worth. Her recipe was "Jalapeno-Glazed Beef Sirloin."

The Texas Beef Cook-Off was sponsored by Texas Cattle Women in cooperation with the Texas Beef Industry Council.

Beef Eaters' Pizza

- 1 pound sirloin, cut one-eighth inch by two inch pieces
- One-fourth tsp. salt
- One-fourth tsp. freshly ground pepper
- 1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
- 1 Tbsp. peanut oil, for searing
- 2 garlic pods, crushed
- 1 Roma tomato, thinly sliced
- 6 oz. fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 2 scallions, thinly sliced
- 1 small green, red or yellow pepper, seeded and thinly sliced
- One-fourth cup beef bouillon
- 3 Tbsp. dry Madeira wine
- 2 oz. creamy Roquefort cheese
- 4 Tbsp. unsalted butter
- 1 Tbsp. fresh parsley, chopped
- 12-inch thick pizza shell (can use ready-to-eat shell)

Combine salt, pepper, vegetable oil and marinate sirloin for one hour. Heat peanut oil in heavy skillet, brown crushed garlic and remove. Sear meat and vegetables in garlic flavored oil. Remove and reserve. Deglaze skillet with bouillon and Madeira, reduce to half and remove from heat. Return meat and vegetables to liquid and combine and allow to soak.

Beat Roquefort cheese and butter in small bowl until smooth. Spread half over pizza shell. Spoon meat and vegetable mixture over bottom of pizza and cover with remaining cheese and butter mixture. Bake according to pizza shell instructions. Four servings.

Drillsite has been staked for the No. 8 Guggisberg, a 1,999-ft. developmental well in the Wilbarger Regular Field. The operation will be located four and a half miles south of Lockett in a 200-acre lease in the W.A. McKinney Survey A-3. The operator is Kingdom Resources Corp.

Hardeman County's Kadane Cato Field will see developmental action when the No. 3 Glenn Cato is spudded six miles south of Medicine Mounds. Carrying permit for 7,839-ft. maximum drilling depth, the well is in a 609-acre lease in the H&TC RR Co., Survey A-1408.

Two developmental wells are planned by L and J Oil Co., of Wichita Falls in the Wichita Regular Field, two miles north of Kamay.

The wells will be known as the No. 7 S. H. McCarty "D" and the No. 9 S. H. McCarty "L." They carry permits for 1,900 and 1,890-ft. tests, respectively.

Both wells are in a 20-acre lease, with the No. 7 in the W. R. Eaves Survey A-447 and the No. 9 in the Samuel O. Fowler Survey A-78.

Located 12 miles northeast of Electra, the well is in an 80-acre lease in the HT&B RR Co., Survey A-474. It is designated as the No. 28 G. Heiserman.
