Chamber to sponsor tourney

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted Monday to continue sponsorship of the Iowa Park Golf Tournament, which was initiated last year.

Along with the positive vote were the date, place, entry fee and prizes.

Anyone who resides, or is employed full-time, in the Iowa Park school district is eligible.

The tournament, open to the first 90 who enter, will be played the afternoon of Friday, June 5, at La Vista Country Club in Wichita Falls. There will be a 1:30 p.m. shotgun start.

Entry fee will be $20 per entrant, which includes green fee, half cost of a golf cart, and a $4 prize fee.

High school players who are not eligible for prizes will pay a $13 entry fee.

Winners will receive script which can only be redeemed with Iowa Park merchants. There also will be special prizes which will be announced at a later date.

The method of determining the winners will be the same as last year, by using the Callaway handicap system. That system is designed to equalize all players, regardless of their normal scores, age and sex.

In other business Monday, Chamber directors discussed office grounds beautification and, the date of this year's Whoop-T-Do, and success of the recent Chamber-sponsored community-wide garage sale.

President Gene Jordan reminded the board a fund had been collected from donations last fall, and work was to have been done by a contracting firm. But it has not been started.

He received a consensus from the board to contact the firm, giving 10 days in which to begin work, or seek an alternate contractor.

This year's Whoop-T-Do celebration will be Sept. 19. The event always corresponds with homecoming scheduled by Iowa Park High School, Jordan said.

Over 100 maps were handed out to potential shoppers during the community-wide garage sale weekend.

Early voting interest highest in city races

An exceptionally high early voting count has been reported in the May 2 city election.

Early voting in that election, as well as the school's, will end Tuesday.

As of noon Wednesday, 50 early voting ballots had been cast at city hall, and one to be returned by mail was yet undelivered.

There were only 52 early vote ballots counted in last year's city election.

A similar amount of interest has not been indicated in this year's school board election, where only 17 ballots had been cast. There were 37 early votes counted in the 1991 election.

Citizens can cast early voting ballots as late as Tuesday, if requested before the end of office hours.

Early voting poll in the city election is city hall, while the school administration building is the early voting poll for that election.

Two candidates are seeking the post of city mayor. One is incumbent Wayne House, who is completing his first term of office. He is being challenged by Mike Grubbs.

Two alderman positions are on the ballot this year, but only one incumbent is seeking re-election.

Charlie Helms, who has served one term as Place Two council member, has decided to not seek re-election.

Candidates for Helms' Place Two are former alderman Bud Mercer, who is contesting Ira Hambright and Walter Beeman.

Place Four incumbent Johnny Crawford has only one challenger. He is Mike Sellers.

All city office terms are for two years, who has served as chairman of the board two years. He is challenged by Max Henderson.

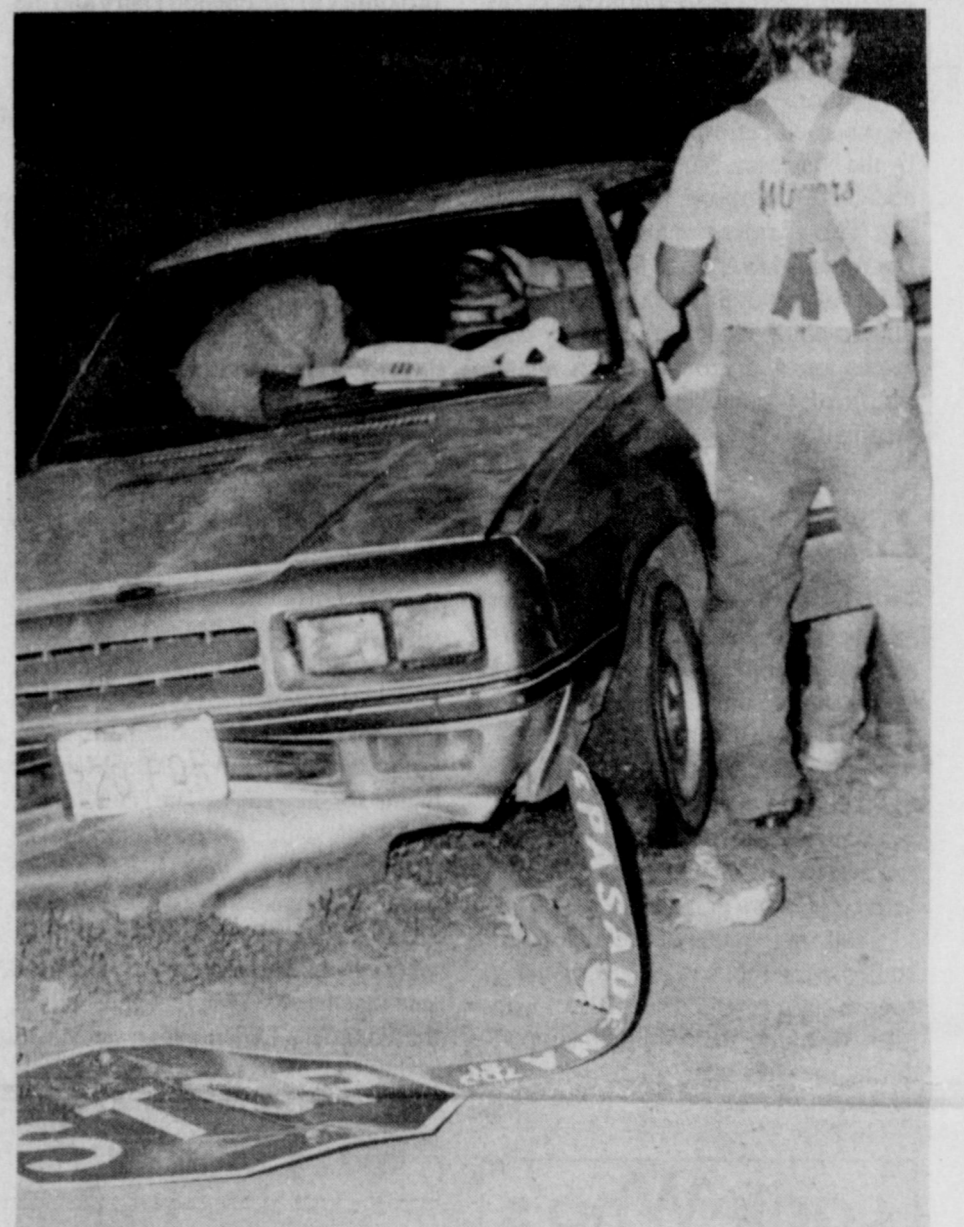

Three candidates are challenging

Place Five incumbent Denny McCarthy years.

Only two places on the school board will be decided May 2.

Place Four is currently held by Jerry this year. They are Jennifer Stewart, Robert Cook and Carmen Lozipone.

In both the city and school elections, the candidates receiving the most votes will be declared the winners. A clear majority, over 50 percent, is not necessary when more than two candidates are seeking the same position.

EMERGENCY workers prepare Shawn Green for transporting to a Wichita Falls hospital after a one-vehicle accident shortly before midnight Thursday. The high school senior apparently attempted to turn too sharply off Hawthorn onto Pasadena. His injuries were not considered serious.

Leader's first typesetter named Wichita Falls'

Teacher of the Year

By Myrna Smith

From the field of print media, beginning as a typesetter, to a very successful classroom teacher of journalism, Annetta Reusch has earned the recent honor of being selected Teacher of the Year in Wichita Falls secondary schools.

Annetta was chosen for this honor from 38 secondary teachers, grades seven through 12 in the Wichita Falls Independent School District.

She now is in competition for Texas Teacher of the Year title to be selected in October.

"I'm very thrilled and humbled that I was recognized and nominated by my peers for my work," Annetta says. But teaching journalism thrills her. She says she would not want to do anything else.

About the only things to vie with journalism for Annetta's love and attention are her 600 varieties of irises.

And, the array of perfect rainbow colored tall bearded iris now in bloom in her side yards and those that encircle the back yard show that she has shared a little. But, Annetta casually suggests, "Iris thrive on neglect."

She has received numerous awards on her "neglected" exhibits in the iris shows.

Annetta raises roses and some daylilies. Since roses are so much more time consuming, because they are so susceptible to diseases and attract aphids, she has limited her number of rose bushes.

Mrs. Reusch grew up Annetta Hawkins in Quanah and was introduced to iris by her mother, also an iris lover. However, she didn't become interested enough to start raising iris until the latter part of the 70s.

"I've always had an appreciation for flowers and when we moved back to Iowa Park in 1978, I became more interested in raising iris," Annetta said.

She became good friends with the late Bertha McDonald, former Iowa Park school teacher, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brooks, who were well known for their beautiful iris.

Annetta proudly says "When I started raising iris 14 years ago, one of my first beds came from Mrs. McDonald." She has been as successful raising iris as she has been an educator.

MRS. EARNIE REUSCH

Her home decor also attests to her love of the iris. She has paintings of iris on her walls, her bedroom paper has prints of iris, with matching bedspread and bed linens.

Annetta graduated Quanah High School in 1959 as salutatorian and in the fall entered McMurry College as a freshman.

That was where she met her future husband, Earnie, now a teacher of math at Iowa Park High School, who also was a McMurry student.

Before long they were married and Annetta decided to go to work and help Earnie get his degree.

His first job was in Lamesa and Annetta got a job with the Lamesa Daily Reporter. From there they moved to Hamlin where he was coach and she worked for the Hamlin Herald.

Next, Earnie and Annetta moved to Iowa Park in 1969, the same year The Iowa Park Leader started operation here and she was hired as the first typesetter for the newspaper.

The same year Annetta entered Midwestern University as a sophomore. This was the first time they had lived close enough to a college for her to complete work for her degree.

She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Midwestern University in 1973 with a bachelor of science degree in education with a major in English and a minor in journalism.

She also has some graduate hours from Sul Ross State University in Alpine and WFSID Teacher Institute.

In 1972 the couple moved to Andrews and Annetta got her first teaching job. She taught English and journalism at Andrews Middle School. In 1978 they returned to Iowa Park and Annetta taught journalism in the Holiday school system. She has taught at Wichita Falls High School for 11 years.

Annetta has been nominated three times for Texas Journalism Educator of the Year; Texas Press Association nominated her for the Dow Jones National Journalism Teacher of the Year Award, and she has been nominated the UIL sponsors award.

She said, "I am very fortunate to have a husband like Earnie. Thank goodness it has been a cooperative effort throughout our marriage. When he was coaching he was gone all hours when the children were small and I was at home alone until late.

"When I went back to get my degree he helped care for the children. Now, I'm the one who has to be gone until late a lot of times, and he is here alone."

Earnie was selected Teacher of the Year in Iowa Park in 1983.

Annetta's philosophy on teaching is that education is more than just learning knowledge. She believes it is providing the opportunity for success and direction or re-direction as needed to insure the success for every student.

"I believe every student should be taught the responsibility for his own education, with teachers as facilitators, to provide motivation and information and the experiences necessary for the student to achieve that success," Annetta explained.

She added, "I believe that journalism students have that opportunity for hands-on training and knowledge to produce a product."

Annetta has been successful in devising a point evaluation system, where each student is responsible for keeping a record of his accomplishments and failures.

She says "This allows students to see where changes need to be made. It ensures accountability and pride of a job well done. Also I try to impress on them their work is more in view of the public than just in an English class."

Annetta selects her own staff. But, the student must maintain a B in conduct in order to stay in her class. Before she selects her staff they have to fill out a job application and then she interviews them before the final decision is made. This gives the student practical experience of what to expect when they are ready to apply for a job.

Affirming her method of teaching is the feedback she gets from many of her students.

Tool theft is reported

A resident in the 300 block of West Jefferson told police Monday that someone had taken approximately $2,000 worth of tools from his pickup.

But the problem was, according to police, the theft had taken place about nine days earlier, and none of the items was marked for identification.

The owner explained he had left town on a job, and did not have time before leaving to file the complaint.

The case remains under investigation.

Youths, apparently looking for something to do with the Easter eggs other than eating them, began throwing them at one another Sunday.

The mother of at least one of the youths didn't like the idea, and escorted a child to its mother, on Louisa Street.

A heated discussion ensued, police were called, and when they arrived, police said the two mothers appeared about ready to "go to blows," and the youngsters were sitting on the grass watching.

No formal complaint was filed in the incident.

A criminal mischief complaint was filed Tuesday, when it was discovered someone had used a spray paint to put graffiti on the east wall of the Tom Burnett Memorial Library building.

Police cleared a home burglary case Wednesday that was reported in December.

Richard Allen Wright, 25, was charged with stealing a television set and VCR from a home on South Park.

After being taken before Justice of the Peace Bill Robinson, he was placed in Wichita County jail en lieu of a $2,500 bond.

News Briefs

No school again next Monday

Iowa Park students will have their third consecutive four-day school week next week.

No classes will be held Monday, which has been set aside for teacher inservice training.

This week and last, only four days of classes were held. Friday and Monday had been scheduled for "bad weather" days, and since weather did not force closure of schools during the winter, the dates were used for Easter holidays.

One more inservice training date is approved before the end of the school year. That will be on Monday, May 11.

Year's rain total tops 4 inches

Iowa Park received slightly over an inch of precipitation during the past week, according to measurements kept by Virgil Woodfin.

He said his rain gauge caught .71 of an inch Thursday, and an additional .35 Tuesday, bringing the week's and month's total to 1.06.

For the year, Iowa Park has now received 4.77 inches of precipitation.

23 Study Club concludes year's activities with Burkburnett tour

The 23 Study Club activities for the current club year were concluded Thursday at a business meeting in the home of Mrs. Erwin F. Soell, followed by the Trails and Tales tour of Burkburnett.

Mrs. John Rentschler, newly elected club president, presided during the business session.

Following the pledge of allegiance an ensemble sang "Texas, Our Texas". Composing the ensemble were Mmes. Joe Singer, Delbert Todd, Keith Aulds and Charles Harrell. Mrs. Jim Medlinger provided piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Rentschler named Mmes. Todd, Singer, Soell, Medlinger and Mrs. Rollin Roberts to serve on the program and yearbook committee during her two-year administration. She also named others to serve on standing committees and on the Texas and General Federation of Women's Clubs departments committees.

Before leaving for the tour in Burkburnett, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mmes. Soell, Singer and C.L. Thompson.

The Trails and Tales of Boomtown USA Tour began at the old Katy depot in Burkburnett. A 20 minute color video presentation was shown on a diagonal screen, using historical footage and still photographs.

Events and forces that came together to make the Burkburnett Boom unique and famous were detailed on the video.

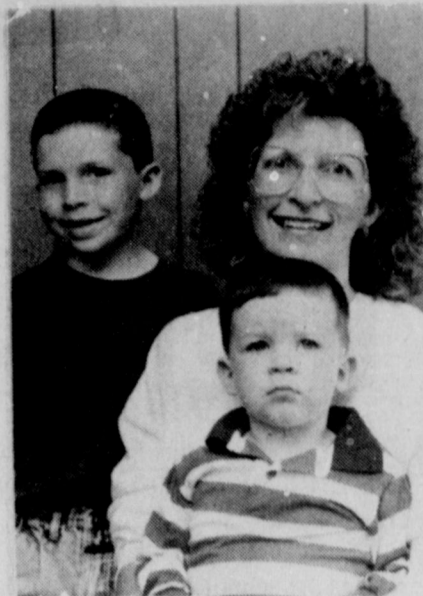

Visitors also viewed exhibits of boomtown and railroad artifacts, photographs and memorabilia at the depot.

Following the video presentation and depot tour, club members boarded a bus where a costumed narrator took them on a mile and three-quarter hour tour.

Included in the tour were stops at the pre-war site of Mabel Gilbert's dugout and springhouse, the monument of the great educational philanthropist, John G. Hardin, the outdoor oil equipment museum, the "Little Home on the Prairie", the restored pioneer Hawkins home that is in close proximity to the Preston Dairy and the Prestons' prestigious home.

Pleasure of the tour was enhanced by the narrator sharing tales, folklore, humorous and fascinating stories of the Red River Valley and the land of the Wichita Indians.

She mentioned Gilbert, Hardin, Simon Peter Hawkins, Monroe Dodson and S. B. Burnett, who named the city. The narrator credited these men with laying the foundation for today's town of Burkburnett.

Mrs. Richard Hicks, Jered and Jeremy

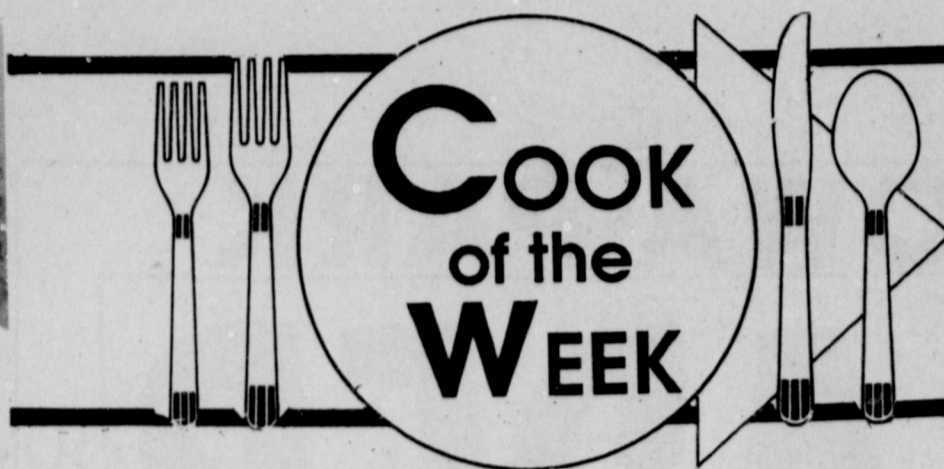

Kathy (Mrs. Richard) Hicks is one of the best-known cooks in Iowa Park. Her beautifully decorated cakes have been admired at wedding receptions, birthday parties, and many other special occasions. Each month she furnishes a cake for the Friendly Door birthday party.

But cake decorating is only one of many talents possessed by this busy wife and mother. Kathy and her husband Richard work together on woodcrafts, and their finished product is popular at area craft shows. She also completed a course in calligraphy and has learned to do scherenschnitte (German for paper cutting).

Kathy and Richard met while they were both working at Cryovac. Richard still works there as a maintenance trainer, but Kathy chose to stay at home after their sons were born.

Their two sons are Jered, an eight-year-old second grader, member of the Cub Scouts and the Oilers baseball team, and two-year-old Jeremy.

Kathy is president of the Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association, committee chairman for Cub Scouts Pack 7, and social chairman for the Adult II Sunday school class at Faith Baptist Church. Richard is a scoutmaster and works with minor league baseball.

The Hicks are very family oriented and enjoy activities that involve their sons, such as working together in their large vegetable garden. Kathy said that a new member, a loveable Collie named Lassie, has been added to their family and the boys enjoy playing with her.

Kathy said that her recipes are quick and simple to make. We noticed that they also feature new food combinations for "old standbys" that will interest the readers.

Tuna and Broccoli

Combine:
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup milk

Then combine:
1 - 10 oz. can drained tuna
10 oz. pkg. frozen broccoli spears (cooked and cut in 1-inch pieces) drained
1/2 can French fried onions

Combine above ingredients, then stir in 3/4 cup soup mixture and divide evenly and put in 6 small flour tortillas. Roll up and place in 9x13 dish.

Stir 1 chopped tomato in remaining soup and pour over tortillas. Bake covered at 350 degrees 35 minutes. Top with remaining onions and bake 5 minutes uncovered.

Enchiladas Verde

1 - 10 oz. pkg. frozen spinach
1 can cream of chicken soup
8 oz. ctn. sour cream
2 Tbsps. chopped green onion
Small can mild green chilies

Mix all of this in sauce pan on low heat. (Spinach thaws as it cooks.)

Take 12 corn tortillas and dip in hot grease to make soft. Drain on paper towel.

Fill tortillas with grated cheese and chopped green onions. Roll up and place in shallow dish. Top with remaining spinach mixture and cheese. Heat in oven at 350 degrees until cheese is thoroughly melted.

Golden Baked Squash

2 - 10 oz. pkgs. frozen squash
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 tsp. salt

2 Tbsps. minced onion
Place frozen squash in ungreased 1 1/2 qt. casserole dish. Top with butter and salt. Cover and bake 1 hour at 350 degrees. Just before serving, stir in minced onion.

Stove Top Casserole

1 box cornbread dressing
1 can cream of celery soup
1 can chicken
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup water chestnuts (optional)

Saute onion and celery in 2 Tbsps. butter. Fix dressing as directed on box. Mix all ingredients and put in 8x8 casserole dish. Bake at 350 degrees until brown.

Aunt Maurine's

Famous Banana Pudding

1 large box instant vanilla pudding
1 - 9 oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
2 1/2 cups milk
1 can Eagle Brand milk
1 - 8 oz. Cool Whip

Wafers
Bananas

Use 1/2 Cool Whip in filling and 1/2 on top.

Mix 2 1/2 cups milk with pudding as directed on pkg. Mix cream cheese with Eagle Brand milk. Add Cool Whip, then fold in pudding mix.

Put layers of wafers, bananas and pudding mix. Top with Cool Whip and sprinkle with wafer crumbs.

ESA has annual salad supper

The Annual Salad Supper for members, guests, and inactive members of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International was held Tuesday night at the Recreational Activities Center (RAC).

Lela Mercer, chaplain gave the invocation after President Essie Johnson welcomed all the guests and inactive members present.

Before the new officers were installed, Mrs. Johnson gave her retiring speech, and presented her officers with gifts, thanking them for their support during the past year.

New officers installed were: Lela Mercer, president; Mary Lynn Boyd, vice president; Pat Lincoln, treasurer; Denise Henderson, recording secretary, and Essie Johnson, parliamentarian/Jr. past president. Mrs. Mercer's theme for the year will be "Get Ready, Get Set, and Go," with a traffic light as her symbol.

Announcement was made that the District VI meeting will be held this weekend in Dallas. Mary Lynn Boyd said that the next chapter event will be the Founder's Day meeting on May 5 at the RAC. She encouraged all inactive members to attend for a surprise program.

Author is Amity Study Club guest speaker

Bill Neeley was guest speaker for the April 13 meeting of Amity Study Club in the home of Karen McClure. Margaret Denton was co-hostess.

Neeley, author of "Quanah Parker and His People," was introduced by Dorothy Palmer.

His book is the story of the great chief's life told in the context of the battle for Comanche territory.

Neeley also spoke about some of the important people who were involved in Quanah Parker's life. These included Tom Burnett, Charles Goodnight, Andrew Jackson Houston and Cynthia Ann Parker.

He said Quanah Parker is of continuing interest, especially in the southwest region where the Comanches once roamed wild and free.

To continue the program theme, Amber Davis gave the meditation on the history of Cynthia Ann Parker.

She related that Cynthia Ann was part of the large Parker clan which came to Texas in about 1832. Although John Parker had built a stockade fort around their seven houses to provide protection from Indians, a band of Comanches came one day asking for beef and then attacked. They killed most of the people and captured Cynthia Ann and her brother John.

Mrs. Davis continued the story of Cynthia Ann, who was taken to northern Texas. In time she forgot how to speak English. She became Palux and thoroughly Indian in actions and thought.

Chief Peta Nocona chose her for his wife. Their first son was born in the springtime and Cynthia Ann, or Palux, named him Quanah, which meant "fragrant" or "sweet-smelling." Two years later they had a second son and named him Pecos.

Palux later had a little girl that she named Prairie Flower. Chief Nocona was not as proud of his daughter as he was of his two sons.

Texas Rangers later attacked the camp. Among the captives was a woman with blue eyes and her baby. Many came seeking a relative who had been captured. Col. Isaac Parker thought this might be his niece. When Cynthia Ann heard her name, she said: "Cincee Ann. Cincee Ann."

Her family was glad to have her back home, but she was unhappy. She had been "Palux" too long. Most of all she worried about her two sons.

Word came that Chief Nocona and Pecos had died and she did not know where Quanah was. Then when Prairie Flower died, Cynthia Ann Parker had no wish to live.

She never knew that Quanah became a strong Comanche leader, respected by white people and Indians. As a young man, he led his people in a fight for freedom and later helped guide their business affairs on the reservation in Oklahoma.

Quanah did not forget his mother and he advertised in Texas papers to find a picture of her. The Ranger captain who had recaptured Cynthia Ann sent him one. Later a prominent Texan had a oil portrait made from that picture and Quanah gave it a special place in his home, and to honor his mother, he took the last name of Parker.

Roll call was answered by members naming an Indian tribe.

During the business meeting items to be sent to M.D. Anderson were discussed. A special thank you was given to all who helped in the City Wide Clean-up.

A thank you note was read from Carol Venhaus for helping in Project Graduation.

Refreshments were served and a surprise baby shower was given for Valerie Dillard.

THE WINNERS of Friday's Easter Bonnet Contest at the Friendly Door were Ilene McCoy and Arnold Coleman.

Young Optimist Club president

Norma Young was elected president of the Iowa Park Optimist Club Tuesday night. She is the first woman to hold that office in the local club, which was organized in 1973.

Also elected were two vice-presidents, Walter Beeman and Louis Sefcik. New directors are: Lisa Bushfield, Mickey Boulware and Ronnie Miller. Last year's board members who are still serving are Howard Smith, Everett Boulware and Bob Dean.

Future events discussed at the meeting included the Respect for Law Banquet to be held at 7:30 p.m., May 2, at the Optimist Building. The club will sponsor the Tri-Star Baseball on May 2 at the Little League Field, with registration to begin at 10 a.m., and the Bicycle Rodeo beginning at 2 p.m. on May 9, at Wal-Mart.

As I See It . . .

By Bob Hamilton

Did you read or hear about that Easter egg hunt held somewhere in a northeastern state that developed into a full-blown riot last week?

Seems everyone was establishing their pecking order, depending on size. The little tykes were brushed aside by older kids who, in turn, were treated to like action by adults.

They wanted those Easter eggs,

Kappa Delta Phi inducts Blake

Betsy Blake of West Columbia has been inducted into Kappa Delta Phi, an international honor society for education students.

An education major, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne House of Iowa Park.

She was among only 20 students inducted into the University of Houston - Clear Lake's Omicron Kappa chapter of Kappa Delta Phi in a ceremony held April 10.

Requirements for initiation include junior class standing with a grade point average of 3.7 or graduate status with a grade point average of 3.5 on a four-point scale and a recommendation from a professor.

many of which reportedly had prizes involved.

Well, it didn't get that bad here. But there reportedly were several complaints lodged after one of the local hunts for the public, that adults were assisting their children too vigorously.

It was said the adults were doing the egg finding for their small children, apparently in fear they would be left out completely.

I understand, but have not verified, that there will be one less hunt offered to the public here next year.

That's a shame.

And I'm not sure, since I wasn't there, that it was all the parents' fault. It could possibly have been the way the ground rules were or were not established before the hunt got underway.

That hunt turned riot was about the worst story I've heard concerning an Easter egg hunt since the early 1940s.

Council to study changes

The city council will consider making a change in its workers' compensation program, when it meets at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

At least six alternatives are being considered, including self-insuring. All are being studied as possible cost-saving measures.

Aldermen heard a proposal at their last meeting from a staff member of Wichita Falls, which included allowing that city's department administer the program, for a fee.

Also considered will be the city's possibly providing its own medical insurance for employees.

Formal action is expected to be taken on an ordinance which would establish a general agriculture zone on a nine-acre tract of land in the south part of town which was recently annexed into the city.

A resolution also will be considered, concerning a "Municipal Water Pollution Prevention Environmental Audit" which was presented at the last meeting to the council.

Two proclamations are to be read by Mayor Wayne House. One is recognizing May 1-7 as "Respect for Law

I was living in Hereford at the time, and the community itself sponsored an egg hunt in the city's park for youth.

This particular year, the merchants, trying to make the event even bigger and better, agreed to sponsor cash prizes for a certain number of marked eggs.

The Boy Scouts had always handled the chore of hiding the eggs in that big park. And they did it that particular year.

The problem wasn't apparent until the following week, however.

Seems the majority of prize eggs, which had to be presented to the various sponsoring businesses, showed up in the hands of Boy Scouts.

That was definitely not an indictment of Boy Scouts in Hereford. But of a small hand full. Scouts continued to flourish in that community through the years, but not with a certain hand full who had claimed Easter egg prizes.

Week," and the other would set aside May 8 as "State National Bank Week," in observance of the firm's 60th anniversary.

Mrs. Waldrop is published

Melinda Waldrop has just had original poetry published in "In A Different Light," a treasury of today's poetry compiled by The National Library of Poetry.

The poem is entitled "Joining" and the main subject is conformity.

The National Library of Poetry seeks to discover and encourage poets like Mrs. Waldrop by sponsoring contests that are open to the public and by publishing poems in widely distributed hardback volumes.

Mrs. Waldrop has been writing for many years and her favorite subjects and ideas are as varied as each day of life.

Teacher is recognized in Irving.

She graduated with a Bachelor of Journalism from the University of Texas at Austin and went to work in New York for a national pharmacy publication for several years.

An excerpt from her letter reads, "Throughout each segment of my career, starting in that first journalism class, Mrs. Reusch has provided the knowledge, experience and support that I needed."

"Although not all of her students have made journalism their chosen profession, I can guarantee that they all leave with a better understanding of the written word, and an increased confidence in their abilities to participate as communicators in everyday life."

"Mrs. Reusch not only believes in the importance of fair and accurate reporting, she believes in people. That belief has helped me withstand some disappointing days, as well as celebrate the good times."

Annetta is in charge of publishing the student newspaper, The Coyote News. The paper is camera ready when it goes to the printer. She has 17 or 18 students publishing it monthly. They spend one hour a day on the newspaper and two hours on the school annual. One class is a lab class. She now is teaching photography in one class.

In addition to these, her students do a lot of printing for the schools, such as programs for choir concerts, tickets, and brochures. "I let the students do all of this for their experience and to teach them composition and how to use the computer."

Annetta says she does not have the discipline problems some of the other teachers do. "I am very fortunate to have the kids I have. I love my job. It is hard to teach when your efforts are not appreciated and one thing I have is a lot of good, positive feedback from my students."

She says the biggest problem she has is not to become too involved with the students, who come from such varied backgrounds.

"For instance, I have one student whose mother is an alcoholic. The student works on a full time job, while going to school, just to help financially and the mother gives her child no encouragement at all. I would bring that one home with me in a minute if I could."

Annetta is now on level three of the career ladder. Since 1984 the school has had different ranks of evaluation and she has reached that level.

Mrs. Reusch serves on the TEA Textbook Committee for Journalism textbooks, and the Wichita Falls Advisory Committee for Instructional Programs. She has served on the Textbook Selection Committee for Wichita Falls and on the Communications Committee and Positive Action Committee.

She has conducted teacher training sessions on using the MacIntosh in Journalism; Using the Newspaper in the Classroom, and one on Photography for Taylor Publishing Co.

She has served as state secretary of the Association of Texas Professional Educators, vice chairman of Texas Education Agency Committee to study open enrollment in Texas, as president of ATPE Wichita Falls Local; president of ATPE, Region IX, chairman of the ATPE State Membership Committee, chairman of ATPE State Educational Policy and Curriculum Committee; has served as faculty president and UIL director, chairman of the Teacher Benefit Committee and is a member of the Texas Association of Journalism Educators.

Annetta is a member of the Amity Study Club of Iowa Park and has served as General Federation of Women's Clubs Project Chairman for the Prevention of Child Abuse. She has served on the Advisory Committee of the WF Teen Communication Theatre STAGE.

She is an active member of First United Methodist Church where she teaches an adult Sunday School class, sings in the choir and is in charge of the Sunday School department. She also serves on the Administrative Board.

She is an active member of the Benson Iris Society, serves as an officer, and is chairman of the Iris Show to be held Saturday.

Their children are Capt. Ronnie Reusch who is stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky. He served in the Gulf War. Capt. Reusch graduated West Point in 1984 and while stationed in Germany, he was married to a special girl he met in the States.

Annetta and Earnie attended their wedding in Germany and were there to see the Berlin Wall about two months before it came down.

Their daughter, Roxa, lives in Dallas and is a production assistant. Both she and her brother are graduates of Iowa Park High School.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Dell; two sons, Jack of Wichita Falls and Jimmy of Iowa Park; seven grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Faith Baptist to conduct family conference

Faith Baptist Church will hold its first annual family "How To" Conference Saturday, May 2. The conference will help show families "how to" deal with different issues it faces in the 90s. Beginning at 4 p.m., everyone will meet in the church sanctuary. From 4 to 6:30 p.m. everyone will attend three seminars of 45 minutes each.

The first seminar is entitled, "How to Listen to God in Today's World". It will be taught by Dr. Tim Russell, pastor of First Baptist Church in Burkburnett.

The second seminar will be "How to Get Out of Debt and Stay Out", which will be taught by Tommy Key of Texas Realty in Iowa Park.

The final seminar will be "How to Improve Communication in Your Marriage", which will be taught by Dr. Greg Ammons, pastor of the church.

Each seminar will be taught in an informative, yet non-threatening way. No one will be embarrassed in any manner or called upon unwillingly.

While adults are in one of these three seminars, the youth (grades seven through twelve) will have seminars of their own.

Mike Gallant, Minister of Music/Youth at Faith Baptist, will teach both seminars for the youth. The first is entitled, "Watch Out, I'm 16 and Have My Driver's License". The second seminar is called, "Help! My Parents Just Turned 40!"

There also will be activities for children grades K-6 throughout the afternoon. In addition, a nursery will be provided free of charge for the conference. Those who will have children in the nursery are ask to send a sack lunch for your child for supper.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. all conference participants will be fed a meal in the church's fellowship hall. After the meal, entertainment will be provided by the CIA (Christians In Action), which is the drama team of Faith Baptist Church. The meal and entertainment will conclude at 8 p.m.

Price for the entire conference is $3 for adults and $2 for children 12 years and under. Any child under the age of two will be free of charge.

The public is invited to attend this informative, fun-filled day. If you are interested in more details or registration, call the church office, 592-2716.

Pastor Appreciation Day

Ole and Darla Olds

Rev. Ole Olds, pastor of the Lakeview Church of God, located at North Victoria and Expressway, will be honored by the congregation on April 26. The day has been designated Pastor Appreciation Sunday.

The theme for the day will be Honoring God's Shepherd. The event is to give recognition to Reverend Ole Olds for outstanding service to the community as a pastor and leader. The minister came to Iowa Park in 1983 and since that time has earned the respect of the community as a dedicated leader.

A warm invitation is extended to you and your loved ones to join the Lakeview family in a service of fellowship and praise in honor of our Pastor. We look forward to sharing this happy occasion with you.

Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples of the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

TWO GREAT GIFTS: PARDON AND SELF-RESPECT!
 A minor character in the Civil War, Ross McIntyre, was afraid in the heat of the battle. In the midst of the battle, he showed himself to be a coward. President Abraham Lincoln sympathized with the young man and gave him a full pardon. In the letter the President wrote, he was offered a pardon if he would honorably serve from that day forward. In the very last battle of the war, in the midst of the battle, lay a dead man, Ross McIntyre. When the letter was found upon this man, efforts were made to save it and it is now on display in our nation's capital. The President had given this man back his self-respect.
 In the New Testament we find Barnabas giving back John Mark his self-respect. We find him believing in John Mark to take him on another missionary journey. You can almost hear Paul state, "He's not going with us; he is not dependable!" Barnabas is still wanting to give this young man another opportunity to prove himself. He desires to give the quitter another chance. Paul and Barnabas go their separate ways, both doing much good in the kingdom of God. (Acts 15:36-39). Barnabas believed in John Mark and later Paul recognizes John Mark has matured and is a vessel of honor. He asks for John Mark knowing he is useful in the ministry. (2 Timothy 4:11).
 Truly how blessed one is when he gives one another opportunity to prove himself, forgiving him for previous failures, and giving back a sense of self-respect and self-worth. Jesus Christ gave the opportunity for salvation to some people in his day others thought were unimportant. Every soul is important in the sight of God. More than anything else, God wants all men to be saved and come to a knowledge of the truth, extending pardon and letting each know no soul is unimportant for whom Jesus died. (1 Timothy 2:4)

First half showdown Friday at Graham

Irregardless of the outcome of Wednesday's delayed game between the Hawks and Bowie, Friday will be the first half showdown between the two bullies of Dist. 4-AAA baseball.

That's when the Hawks travel to Graham to take on the state-ranked Steers.

The Iowa Park-Bowie contest that was scheduled to be played here Tuesday was postponed because of showers that morning.

Coach Daryl Frazier said, about two hours before Tuesday's game was set to get underway, "The field is just too wet. We'll have to re-schedule."

But it wasn't too wet at Graham, where the Steers bested Breckenridge by a 13-3 margin. The game was called after the sixth inning on the 10-run rule.

That took the Graham record to 16-2-1, and no losses against conference opponents thus far.

The Hawks haven't seen action, other than working out, since Tuesday of last week. All district teams took off last weekend for the 4-AAA track meet.

Despite being ranked fifth among Class AAA teams in the state, Frazier says he doesn't fear the Steers. In fact, he points out his opinion that Graham hasn't played the caliber of teams his Hawks have met, while compiling their respectable 14-4 record.

Iowa Park's players know well the makeup and talent of Graham. Every one of them saw action last year against the Steers, when they defeated Graham 1-0 and 6-2 enroute to claiming the district title.

Both contests were pitched by now-senior Hawk hurler J'Bill Merrick.

The Graham game is scheduled to get underway at 4:30 p.m., as are all district games.

Iowa Park will next play Tuesday, at Vernon, to start the second half of district play.

CHARLES JOLLY has been selected to play in the June 6 Greenbelt Bowl at Childress. The two-year starting Hawk lineman said he is to report for workouts on June 2.

Four netters going to Odessa

Both Iowa Park tennis teams placed second in the Dist. 4-AAA tournament held last week in Wichita Falls, and two doubles teams qualified to advance to the regional meet.

Vernon won both girls' and boys' divisions, scoring 40 and 45 points, respectively. Iowa Park was second, with both teams scoring 15 points. Bowie was third in the girls' division, with five points.

Advancing to the April 29-30 regional meet in Odessa were Iowa Park's two top doubles teams: Brandon Negri and Chad Featherston, and Dani Goin and Desiree Vos.

Playing in the finals against Vernon's John Stafford and Robin Brownlow, Negri and Featherston were edged in a sudden death playoff 8-6 in the first set, and 6-4 in the second.

Goin and Vos lost 6-1, 6-4 in their title bout with Tracy Slosser and Christi Close of Vernon.

Singles players from both Iowa Park boys' and girls' teams finished third and fourth.

Chasti Hrcirik was third and Kristen Bauer fourth in the girls' division, as were David Warren and Charles Bradberry, respectively, in the boys'.

Hrcirik defeated Bauer 6-3, 6-1 for third place, and Warren edged Bradberry 6-4, 6-4, also for third.

Placing fourth in boys' doubles also were Jason Stevens and John Padgett, who lost a tight match 4-6, 7-5, 6-4 to John Willingham and Kyle Rainwater of Vernon.

In junior varsity competition, the doubles team of Dustin Tanmankera and Dwayne Gruber placed second, as did Brad Payton in boys' singles, while Julie James was fourth in girls' singles.

Perry to play arena football

Former Hawk standout Charles Perry has a summer job. He's signed to play arena football with the Dallas Texans.

The Texas Tech Univ. graduate was to be playing now, in a new professional spring league that had been formed. But that was postponed until 1993, due to internal league problems, he explained.

The only things that will be familiar to Perry this summer are the name of the contest, football, and the coach.

He's never even seen indoor arena football played.

And he has been told he will be going both offensively, but in the unfamiliar positions of center and nose guard.

But his invitation came from his former Red Raider line coach John Paul Jones, who was recently named as head of the Texans, a club that was formed about four years ago.

The regular season is to wind up in early August, and playoffs completed before September.

9 tracksters qualify for region

Iowa Park qualified six individuals and one relay team for the Region One track and field meet May 1-2 in Odessa.

Four of the individuals and the relay were Lady Hawks, who placed third in the final team standings of Friday's Dist. 4-AAA meet in Vernon.

The other two were Hawks, who compiled only 15 total points and finished last among conference teams.

But, looking at a brighter future, both the Lady Hawk and Hawk Junior Varsity teams outscored all the other schools in their respective divisions.

To qualify for the region, an individual or relay team must place first or second in the district meet.

Jennifer Ricks won the discus with a personal best of 112-10 1/2.

Brandi Catlin was second in the 3200-meter run, 13:34.70; Christie Welch second in the 800-meter run, 2:22.59, and Marcy McCarthy placed second in the 300-meter hurdles, 49.41.

The Lady Hawks' 1600-meter relay team placed second behind Breckenridge, but a photograph had to be used to decide whether Iowa Park or Bowie crossed the finish line first.

Iowa Park's Welch was judged to have crossed the line just ahead of Bowie's runner, and was given a time of 4:10.95. Bowie was clocked in 4:10.96.

The first three legs of the team were run by Dee Ann Warren, Cheri Halady and Gina Inman.

The two Hawks qualifying to advance to region both placed second in field events.

Joel McIlroy had a 19-11 1/2 in the long jump, and Scott Byrd 12-0 in the pole vault.

McIlroy also was third in the triple jump, 40-11 1/2, and fourth in the high jump, 6-0.

Byrd was forced to use a shorter pole when he cleared his best height, having broken his preferred pole on an earlier jump.

Byrd and McIlroy joined with Mike Brewer and Don Ellis to place fifth in the 400-meter relay, which was timed in 44.71.

Other Lady Hawks contributing to the 92 points earned by the team included:

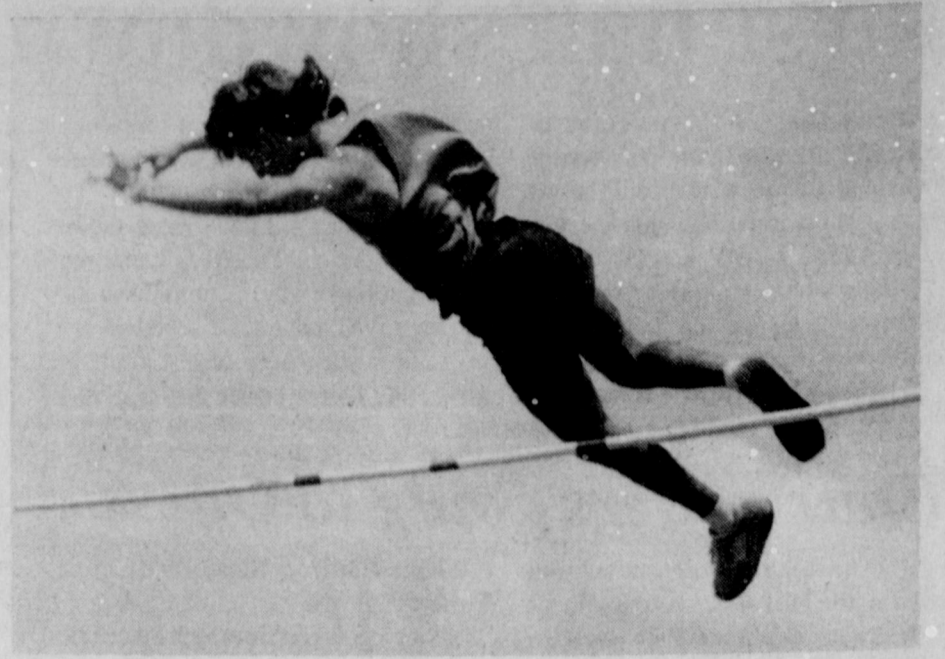

100m Hurdles - 3. Marcy McCarthy, 16.51; 5. Mandy Threet, 16.91.
300m Hurdles - 6. Gina Inman, 51.84.
400m Dash - 3. Dee Ann Warren, 63.97.
High Jump - 3. (tie) Gina Inman, 4-3.
Shot Putt - Jennifer Ricks, 31-6.
Long Jump - 4. Mandy Threet, 15-4; 5. Dee Ann Warren, 14-10.
800m Relay - 4. (Inman, Lychelle Monday, Halady, Welch), 1:51.64.
400m Relay - 5. (McCarthy, Monday, Halady, Threet), 53.41.

Both Breckenridge teams won their respective divisions.

The girls amassed 160 to runner-up Graham's 116. After Iowa Park, 92, Vernon had 87, Bowie 66 and Bridgeport 61.

In the boys' division, the Bucks amassed 197 points, followed by Graham, 108, Vernon, 98; Bowie, 83, Bridgeport, 17, and Iowa Park, 15.

The Lady Hawk JV earned 160 points, three less than the Hawk JV's 163.

SCOTT BYRD EASILY CLEARS POLE VAULT BAR

Individual results from the Hawk JV were not available.

Lady Hawk JV points were earned by:

400m Relay - 1. (Lori Kyle, Lisa Halady, Christie Catlin, Jayne Roberts), 55.54.
800m Relay - 1. (Kyle, Halady, Catlin, Nikki Williams), 1:59.33.
1600m Relay - 1. (Kyle, Halady, Catlin, Roberts), 4:43.52.
3200m Run - 1. Diane Voisinet, 15:01.20.
1600m Run - 1. Voisinet, 7:32.40.
100m Dash - 1. Williams, 13.98.
200m Dash - 1. Williams, 28.84.

100m Hurdles - 1. Roberts, 17.58.
Shot Putt - 1. Jodi Young, 28-5 1/2.
Discus - 1. Catlin, 81-2; 3. Young, 74-3.
Long Jump - 1. Roberts, 14-10; 4. Kyle, 13-2.
Triple Jump - 1. Roberts, 30-2.

The Lady Hawk regional qualifiers will run in a qualifiers' meet Friday at Breckenridge, where the events are to begin at 2:30 p.m.

Because of conflicts with other activities, neither McIlroy nor Byrd will see competition until they travel to Odessa.

Two golfers among top 20

Two members of the Hawk golf team finished among the top 20 medalists of Dist. 4-AAA play.

Skip Drissel was tied for 16th and Chris Campbell tied for 18th place, when the three-round play results were compiled.

Graham and Bridgeport boys' and girls' teams finished first and second.

This was the first season Iowa Park has fielded a boys' golf team in several years, and the first time ever for a girls' team.

The boys' first team placed fifth and second team 10th, while the girls' second team was sixth and first team seventh.

Play was held on three different courses on three different days, at Breckenridge, Bridgeport and Bowie.

Drissel's three rounds were 89, 90 and 86, for 265, to share 16th place with Brian Blackman of Breckenridge.

Campbell had a total of 266 by shooting 86, 91 and 89. He was tied with Clint Wolfe of Bridgeport.

Team scores for the boys' first team were 356, 367, 353 - 1,076. The second team shot 460, 501, 431 - 1,392.

Iowa Park was the only school to field two girls' teams.

The second team shot 460, 501, 430 - 1,391, while the first team scores included 484, 461, 486 - 1,431.

In winning the boys' team title, Graham shot 319, 312, 312 - 942. The girls shot 362, 355, 365 - 1,082.

The two division medalists qualify for regional play.

Graham's Marcus Jones led boys' scoring with 72, 71, 71 - 214, so his score with his team at region will also be considered for medalists play. Patrick Pattison of Vernon was second low, shooting 81, 79, 79 - 239.

Medalist in the girls' division was Leanne Jones of Graham, who shot 79, 77, 90 - 248. Runner up, Bridgeport's Renee Lawrence, shot 89, 81, 86 - 256.

Athletic Boosters to meet Monday

A meeting of the Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club has been set for 7 p.m. Monday in the high school field house.

Plans are to be finalized for the spring athletic banquet, as well as proposed projects for the 1992 football season.

MOPPING UP - Iowa Park firemen carry a ventilating fan into a home at 403 S. Victoria, after extinguishing a fire in its attic Tuesday afternoon.

Ministry for multi-family housing studied

Eight members of the Thelma Smith Baptist Women of First Baptist Church met at the church Monday evening for the bi-monthly meeting.

During the business meeting, directed by Mrs. V.I. Woodfin, Mrs. Carl McKinnon led the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day, and members planned the menu for the noon meal they will be responsible for furnishing and serving the revival team one day during the spring revival April 26 - May 1.

Mrs. Eleanor Bell reviewed the second division of "No Small Sacrifice," a home mission study book that deals with church planting in urban America. She introduced it with a brief review of the first section on "New Life for Transitional Communities" in the Washington D.C./Arlington Va. area.

The topic for the study of the evening was "A Ministry for Multi-housing Families" in Houston, Texas, fourth largest in the United States, where it is estimated that about half of the 1.8 million people live in multihousing. The ministry of Barbara Oden, who works as director of multihousing missions for the Union Baptist Association highlighted the review. Interest was enhanced through testimonies of other workers in nine different apartment complexes.

Quoting Barbara Oden, Mrs. Bell said that starting a church in a multihousing community is as simple as finding a manager who will say yes, as difficult as finding leaders who are willing to work, and residents to attend. Steps to start the work included:

Jewelry making is program topic

Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association members voted to participate in Project Graduation during the business meeting conducted by Kathy Hicks, president.

The program, presented by Cindy Haddock, was on jewelry making.

Door prize was a rag basket provided by Cathy Price and won by Gail McIlroy.

Members are to bring an item to next month's meeting to be used for Project Graduation.

Next month's program, will be making a twist paper rabbit planter. Those wishing to make one must notify Adell Marlar so a kit can be reserved for you. Cost will be around $8.50.

select a place that is open for ministry range, visit the manager of the apartments, enlist volunteers, sponsor a dedication service, train volunteers, survey the community, advertise, then begin the ministry.

Iris show Saturday

The Benson Iris Society will present "Rainbow Fever", the annual Iris show Saturday at First United Methodist Church.

The Benson Iris Society represents Area 12, Region 17 of the American Iris Society.

Entries will be accepted from 7 to 11 a.m., with judging of the exhibits scheduled from 11:10 to 12:45.

The show will be open to the public from 1 to 6 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Beautiful specimen of all types of irises grown in this area will be exhibited. There also will be artistic design displayed.

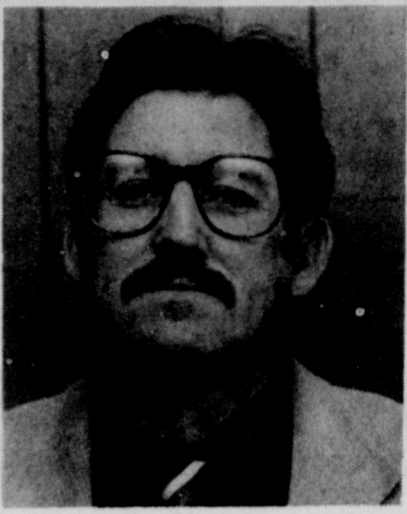

Local soloist to be featured

Donna Gibson Brinlee, Midwestern State Univ. senior and Iowa Park High School graduate, will be featured soprano soloist at the MSU Choirs spring concert.

The concert will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday at First Presbyterian Church in Wichita Falls. Highlighting the spring concert will be new work by John Rutter and wedding music by an American composer.

Mrs. Brinlee is music associate at Lamar Baptist Church. A multi-talented performer, she has appeared in a number of area musical productions as an instrumentalist as well as a singer.

OFFICE OPENED - Dr. James Edwards was joined by directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon for a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The optometrist had an office in Iowa Park several years, before moving to Wichita Falls. He recently returned, and is located at 900 West Highway.

Assembly of God to host revival

Revival services will begin Sunday morning at First Assembly of God with Evangelist Paul and Elaine Grigsby of Malvern, Ark. The revival will continue nightly at 7 through Wednesday.

Special music and singing will be presented in each of the services by the evangelist and his wife.

In addition to their pastoral work, the Grigsbys have ministered in Panama, El Salvador, Greece, Venezuela, Mexico City, and Israel (The Land of the Bible).

The Grigsbys have 11 cassettes of their music and singing that can be purchased at the revival crusade services.

The church is located at 200 S. Yosemite. The pastor, Rev. Charles LeRoy Hensley extends an invitation to one or all of these services.

Card of Thanks

I want to thank the two men, Barker and Williams, who came to render aid to my brother, M.L. Frie. He never got the chance to tell you. It spared him a few days on earth but I know now he is in a better and peaceful place.

His sister,
Mildred Bolin
