Advantages of Home Ownership Listed by Chamber Committee

John B. Barbour and his committee on housing in Iowa Park have discovered some interesting reasons for owning your own home—especially in Iowa Park—and offer them for your information and entertainment, as follows:

Why Own a Home?

ADVENTURE — Involves largest single financial transaction for the average man. . . . roaming around the community to find location suited to individual tastes.

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT — Home owner stops paying rent. . . . must calculate amounts and time of payment of interest, tax, insurance and set aside sums for this purpose. Must save. . . . calls for a planned economy.

EDUCATION — Learns of values and prices, contracts. . . . considers civic affairs, tax bills, street improvements. . . . takes more active part in community affairs.

INDEPENDENCE — Master of his castle. . . . no landlord. . . . does as he wishes to a large extent. Does not have to ask permission to drive a nail in the wall.

PEACE OF MIND — Renter builds nothing with rent payments. . . . the owner builds an equity.

PURPOSE — Stimulant. . . . something to work for. . . . each payment met strengthens confidence in ownership.

SECURITY . . . A renter is insecure. . . . rent may be raised or landlord take possession. Conditions change, but owner has roof over his head when payments are met.

STABILITY — Family becomes a unit. . . . the statement is often made "that man owns his own home. . . . he must be getting ahead."

CITIZENSHIP — A different attitude on social and political problems results when a man is interested in home ownership. . . . he supports no wildcat schemes. . . . he is a liberal.

CREATIVE INSTINCT — Works garden, landscapes. . . . this is a distinct advantage over rented quarters. There the renter takes them as he finds them.

Homes may be financed now with FHA loans. These take approved locations and houses must be built to FHA specifications and be inspected at various stages of construction. This usually insures getting a good job of construction.

One hundred per cent GI loans are now available to veterans who are gainfully employed with on a small closing expense as down payment.

Almost anyone with normal earning power can own a home now if he so desires. Prior to this decade only the well-to-do owned homes while the salaried worker usually paid rent. He had no choice. It was seldom possible for him to accumulate the cash for the purchase of a home or the collateral for a loan.

Wedding of Miss Battle and A. G. Callahan Was Solemnized at Church of God, Friday

In a wedding ceremony characterized by impressive solemnity Miss Lorene Battle became the bride of Avery G. Callahan Friday evening, February 24th at the Church of God. Rev. Ray T. Hill was the officiating minister. The ceremony united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Battle of Iowa Park and the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Callahan of Burr Oak, Kansas.

For the wedding the decorations in the nuptial space featured two tall baskets of pink gladioli which stood on either side of the altar. The choir rail was entwined with greenery and soft illumination was provided by many tall pink candles burning in branched candelabra immediately back of the choir rail.

Music for the wedding was provided by Mrs. Kenneth Battle who offered "Always" as a piano solo during the lighting of the candles. She also accompanied her husband who sang "Because." Mrs. Battle contributed a vocal selection "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" with Miss Sue Brown providing accompaniment. The latter remained at the instrument to play the traditional professional and recessional marches from Lohengrin.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Battle, the bride was a lovely picture in a navy blue light weight wool suit, the coat featuring a scalloped collar in front and back, and the scallop effect was repeated on the pocket space at the waistline. She wore a pink silk blouse and an off-the-face pink felt hat which was ornamented with a pink feather in front. She carried a shoulder corsage of pink carnations atop a white bible.

Miss Joyce Terral was maid of honor for the bride. She was attired in a navy blue gabardine suit with which she wore navy and white accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Gerald Brown attended the groom as best man. Duties of ushering were assumed by Delano Robertson and Jimmy Sheets.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Stegall. Guests were received by the hostess and the bride and groom.

A beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom centered the lace-laid refreshment table, a lovely bouquet of white carnations and the

C of C Directors To Meet Tuesday Night

Directors of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce will meet on Tuesday evening, March 7th at 7:30 at the City Hall.

Fred Parkey, chairman of the Agricultural Committee has called a meeting of the CHICK PROJECT COMMITTEE for Monday evening, March 6th at 6 o'clock at the City Hall.

It is important that all members of the Committee be present to work out a successful plan for expeditious handling of the initial program.

The main business of the committee will be to check the applications to determine who is eligible for birds.

The Chick Committee includes: H. R. Sullivan, W. R. Pastusek, E. E. Voyles, Wayne House, Carl Wash, Chauncey Weiler, and A. L. Reed.

Disciples Doings

The Pilot Lighters class of the Christian church gave their monthly party Tuesday night in the recreation rooms of the church. The event was well attended and the group enjoyed a long evening of 42 and canasta.

Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Barnes. Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. A. L. Ponce Jr., Fred Vealey, Loggie, Jeff Daniels, John B. Barbour, J. R. Woodall, E. L. Hartfield, Edgar Scott, Wayne House, George R. Huckaby, and Burk Scott, A. L. Reed, Catherine Smith and Clayton Baldwin.

Birthday Honored

Following the radio broadcast over KELT at Electra Sunday afternoon by the Church of God, Rev. Ray T. Hill was surprised at a birthday reception by members of the local church of which he is pastor. The reception was given in the Sunday School room, and Rev. Hill received many useful gifts.

Fun and Fellowship to Close Training Union Revival Friday Night

Mrs. Nova Macormic of Fort Worth is directing at BTU study course at the Iowa Park Baptist church this week. She is a former missionary to Mexico and she spoke at the worship hour Sunday evening, bringing interesting firsthand information about the country and people.

She has had an interesting surprise to inaugurate activities each evening. Tuesday night she was dressed in colorful Mexican costume. The Training Union revival had an enrollment of 164 Wednesday night with a period of fun and fellowship after the study.

Miss Cecilia Yeagan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Yeargan, a senior in Austin College, Sherman, is among 55 students who qualified for the dean's honor list in the first semester of this school year. The list is composed of students who have maintained a B average in each of their courses and who otherwise qualify by high standards of conduct.

Voyles Reveals Plans To Surface New Road From V.V. to Kamay

Buck Voyles, county commissioner, said this week that the right of way and fencing are now complete on a Farm to Market road from Valley View to Kamay.

Contracts are expected to be let soon on the surfacing of this 3.25 miles of road and the work is expected to be completed this summer.

The new road will pass the south side of Malabar Farm and the west side of the refinery.

This work will be done at state expense and the highway will then become a part of the state system of roadways, thus releasing that much of the district's roads from maintenance by the county commissioner and his workers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swartz and children spent the week end in the home of Mrs. Swartz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hartfield.

Roy Henson who has been working at Odessa has been transferred to Colorado Springs, Texas, by Lane Wells.

Chick Project Entries To Close Saturday

Interest has leaped high like a forest fire this week among boys and girls who plan to enter the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce Chick Project. With the deadline only a few days off, many applications have been taken home to be studied and signed by parents and returned by the deadline, Saturday, March 4.

Application forms are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, Park Feed Store, Iowa Park Gin and the Valley View Schools. Several changes have been made in the application form, suggested by George O. Stodghill, manager of Poultry Husbandry at the Wichita Falls State Hospital.

Important emphasis is placed on the vaccination of birds at about 10 weeks old for chicken pox—a disease which plagued some of the chicks last year. This vaccination, according to authorities, is simple to give and can be done by any boy or girl large enough to raise chickens.

The report form has also been greatly simplified, consisting of a chart that can be easily understood and when filled out will furnish a complete record of the progress of the chicks.

Young contestants are urged to begin now to prepare their brooder house for the young chicks which will be ready for distribution in from four to five weeks.

Contestants are urged to use their best efforts to raise as many chicks as possible, to keep them free from disease and parasites and to give them a good starter feed until they are 12 weeks old.

The sponsor's responsibility to the sponsor is also emphasized, consisting of an agreement to visit and report to him at least every two weeks; to exhibit four hens and two cockerels in the Junior Poultry Show in the Fall. (and These birds are to become the property of the Sponsor.)

New Managers Take Over Helton Hotel

Mrs. Lillie B. Richards who has been manager of the Helton Hotel will leave Sunday for Hondo, Texas, where she will accept a similar position with the Dixie Dude Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Palmer of Edmond, Okla., will take over the management of the hotel for Mrs. A. C. Henson. They will serve regular meals during the week and on Sundays. Mrs. Henson invites all of her old friends as well as new ones to come over for their meals.

Attendance at all functions of the churches of Iowa Park is expected to be greatly enlarged this month. Ministers, members and friends are enthusiastically availing themselves of the opportunity offered to cooperate with other localities of the county in a concentrated campaign to have all friends of the churches "March to Church in March."

The Lions club, as the only civic service organization, voted Tuesday to co-operate in fostering the campaign. To help the men remember to attend church, the club's sweethearts, Mrs. Brownie Tanner and Mrs. Harriett Coppock, volunteered to phone each man on Saturdays.

Although the churches are not planning anything special for the month, there are many who feel the call to make the pre-Easter Sundays a time when they really want to attend worship services. Below are listed announcements of some of the churches of Iowa Park.

Church of Christ

Boyd Taylor, minister, announces that the evening service will start at 7:45 beginning Sunday, March 5. Worshipers are asked to remember the new time.

"Faith" will be the Sunday morning sermon topic chosen by Mr. Taylor.

The Bible class is taught each Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 by the minister. Books of the Old Testament are being studied at present. Mid-week services on Wednesday evening also begin at 7:45.

First Baptist Church

Sermon subjects announced by Rev. James N. Easterwood for next Sunday are "The Prophet's Cloak" in the morning worship service; "Receiving Salvation" in the evening.

Circles of the Women's Missionary Society will meet Monday afternoon as follows: Blanche Groves with Mrs. Carl McKinnon at 2 p.m.

Sallee-Morgan with Mrs. Everett Sewell at 2:30 p.m.

Ruth at the church at 2:30 p.m.

Beginners and Primary Sunbeam bands meet at the church Monday afternoon at 3:30. The Royal Ambassadors at 4:30; Junior Girls Auxiliaries at 4:00 and the YWA at 7:15.

The Men's Brotherhood will hold the regular monthly meeting at 7:30 Monday night.

Filing for City Jobs Closes Saturday Noon

Five candidates have filed for positions on the ballot in the city election which will be held April 4th.

The deadline for filing is Saturday noon.

Miss Dosia Smith has filed for re-election to the office of city secretary. A. L. Reed so far is the unopposed candidate for the mayor's office to succeed Curtis Sewell who has served Iowa Park as mayor for four years.

M. L. Smith has filed for re-election on the city council. R. A. Tanner and Fenton Dale whose terms expire, are not seeking re-election.

Alan W. Berry and Richard Hill have filed for the places that Tanner and Dale now hold. The terms of Earle L. Denny and Charlie Metz will expire in 1951.

Church of God To Be Host at Convention

Rev. Ray T. Hill has announced that the Iowa Park Church of God Convention will be held in Iowa Park March 3-4 on Friday night at 7:30 the group will assemble in the high school auditorium where Rev. E. O. Kerce of Weatherford, state overseer, will be the guest speaker. Rev. Hill is the district overseer. The public is invited.

Special to the Iowa Park Herald
PORT WORTH—Rev. John Lindsay, assistant dean of Texas Wesleyan College, will be in Iowa Park within the next two weeks to interview students interested in attending TWC.

Hour of Prayer on Wednesday is regularly scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

First Methodist Church

The revival will start Friday, March 3 and continue through the 12th, according to Rev. Kirk Beard, pastor. Rev. Dan Robinson of Malvern, Ark., a former pastor of the local church, will conduct the services. Rollins Woodall of Iowa Park will direct the singing.

Friday there will be a fellowship supper for the Youth department of the church, followed by a period of recreation and worship under direction of Mr. Robinson.

Saturday evening another supper will be served to the young people. Following a period of recreation there will be a worship service in the sanctuary for everyone.

The regular morning and night services will take place on Sunday. Beginning Monday morning, breakfast will be served Monday through Friday at 6:30 to the men of the church. The meal will be followed by a devotional period which will be concluded by 7:30.

The evening services start at 7:30. There will be no morning services except the breakfasts.

Special music at the revival services will add greatly to the interest. One young man from Sheppard Air Force Base who is a member of Mr. Robinson's church in Arkansas will contribute special vocal numbers.

Mrs. M. L. Smith is chairman of the serving committee for the youth suppers. Assisting her will be Mrs. Carl Sullivan and Mrs. Herman Mahler. Chickens in the baskets will be served Friday, a plate lunch Saturday and a salad plate Sunday.

Men responsible for the breakfasts to be served throughout the revival are D. O. Smith, Curtis Sewell and Fred Thompson.

Presbyterian Church

Rev. M. C. Yeargan, pastor, has announced his sermon topic for Sunday morning to be "Forward March."

Church of God

Rev. Ray T. Hill, pastor, will use "Love of God" as his Sunday morning sermon topic.

Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:00 radio station KELT, Electra, will broadcast a program of the Iowa Park church. Theme of the program will be "Followers of God."

"True Worshipers" will be the evening sermon subject of Mr. Hill.

Puppet Act Was Hit Of Lions Minstrel

In the Lions Club minstrel last Thursday and Friday the puppets proved to be one of the most successful features. It was through an oversight that they were not given special recognition in last week's write up. The girls who put over the show were Betty Perry, Maryanne Gilmore, Katy Merle Sumrall, Paula Ralston, Barbara Entekin, Lynn Lovell, Sally Easterwood and Barbara Butts.

Valley View Cagers Win Fourth at Dallas

After defeating Prairie Valley and Byers to get into the semi-finals of the basketball regionals at Southern Methodist university last week, the Valley View Warriors bowed to Sil-dell for the top honors of division three. This defeat threw the team into a playoff with Duncanville, resulting in Valley View's taking fourth place.

Each region represented in the tournament has sixteen teams participating and the winner of each region goes to the state finals being held this week at the University of Texas, Austin.

Clark C. Wilkes, superintendent, announced this week that district 24-B will have a girls volleyball tournament this spring at the time of the boys track meet. These sports events will be held at Lockett on April 15.

On March 17, Valley View will play host to members of district 24-B at an invitational tennis tournament.

SENIOR NEWS

Well—here we are. Back with some of the gospel truths about things that have been happening around this "chere" school.

Abacadabra! We're really getting classy as magicians lately. We can make our arms fly off, tables rise and talk to us, and lift people up by our little fingers.

Walter Spruiell has a new Chevrolet. Boy—is it a beaut. As the ad says, "Ask the MAN who owns one." Mary Wolf seems to be enjoying riding in it—uhh Mary?

Eddy Lee is sporting the most magnificent diamond engagement ring this side of hog heaven. It has a one-half carat in the center plus 18 smaller ones surrounding it. Brother—is she a proud gal. Ray Stubbs is the lucky boy.

Speaking of proud people, Billy Joe is really proud of his new wife Maryanne. They surprised us all by secretly slipping one by us—well, almost all of us, anyway.

Two weeks from today—you'll be hearing more about the All-Sports Banquet. It's gonna be a hepped-up affair this year. Co-captains for next year will be announced for football, basketball and volleyball.

Lynn Lovell is carrying around some new blue glasses. They are real glamorous and look swell on you Lynn. More power to you in trying to catch a certain Sr. boy.

Those Sr. girls! Seems as if they are fond of slumbering. They were entertained by another slumber party Friday night at Venita Tate's—The things that went on! Table talking (gossip) Canasta playing, and cribbage were really in demand that night. About 1:30 male company appeared. Don had mixed his dates in his lil ole black book. Don didn't you know it was strictly a girls' affair. Peg, you didn't invite him secretly did you?

Incidentally speaking of this pretty weather we have been having, Peg and Pug have been slammung those tennis balls lately. Pug, somehow, managed to get a new racket. If they seem to be losing weight blame it on Mr. (Bill) Cook, who is making them run completely around the grade school playground every day. Coach, you are now considered "hard boiled."

Did any of you see those cute lil four-leaf clovers the Srs. were sportin' Wednesday. Those were compliments of the Sr. party Tuesday night. We had tons of fun. You really should see some of our girls play basketball—barefoot that is. That's the reason some bright Sr. yelled "Oh girls, your corns are showing." But this didn't bother our ladylike Sr. girls. By the way—what were you girls doing in the "little boys' room." Shame!

Babs, what are you doing with a last year's Sr. ring? It sure looks neat though. Maybe someday you can be lucky as Eddy, Pug and Peg F. and change it for a diamond.

Betty, Maryanne, Paula and Katy Merle make the cutest Negroes. They looked real fancy in the minstrel the other night. Seems like a pretty good idea for in-between-acts at the next class play.

See ya,
Pat & Franklin

Talented Airmen

Bride Is Honored With Miscellaneous Shower

The dainty colors of yellow and blue were given emphasis in the decorations for a post nuptial shower given Saturday evening to honor Mrs. Billy Joe Harrington, the former Miss La Verne Walters. The home of Mrs. O. A. Schwalbe was the scene of the party with Mesdames Loyd E. Bell, Clyde Walkup, Albert Johnson and J. D. Padgett sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Schwalbe.

The refreshment table which was laid with lace featured a large glistening gold heart which was finished with a double ruffle of blue net. Diagonally across the heart was a wide band of blue satin ribbon which displayed the names "La Verne and Billy Joe" in gold letters. The dainty napkins repeated the heart motif, and the attractive cake squares were decorated with gold wedding bells with blue tie knots.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Johnson presided at the refreshment table throughout the evening. Signatures of the guests were received by Mrs. Kenneth Washington, sister of the honoree.

The soft shades of various pot plants were observed in the decorations for the party rooms.

Piano selections offered by Miss Hazel Crites were supplemented with appropriate recorded music to provide entertainment.

Fifty guests called between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Sam Hill attended a luncheon in Wichita Falls Saturday given for chapter CA of PEO. Special guest was Mrs. W. M. King of Denton, Texas, president of the PEO Sisterhood.

Texas Day Program Brings 23 Study Club Interesting State Facts

A special Texas Day program which was unique in the presentation of unusually diversified and interesting facts about the Lone Star state was enjoyed Thursday by members of the 23 Study Club who assembled at the home of Mrs. Herman Mitchell with Mrs. R. A. Tanner sharing hostess duties. Mrs. Earle Denny was program chairman for the afternoon.

Through addresses by Mrs. John B. Barbour and Mrs. Sam Hill the versatility of Texas became an apparent note.

In discussing the natural recreational resources of Texas Mrs. John B. Barbour subdivided her talk into four parts to include the Gulf coast, the mountainous Trans-Pecos area, the big eastern and southern Edwards Plateau, and the east Texas forest belt which has four national forests and the big thicket. Prefacing her talk with remarks about Texas Independence Day and bits of the colorful history of the state she continued with an interesting discussion of places of scenic importance.

Outstanding among those mentioned were the Guadalupe mountain, which is the highest peak in the U. S. east of the Rockies; the Big Bend park, the first national park created in Texas in which the Federation helped to complete the project. She discussed the cave area south and east of San Antonio and the canyons, dwelling on the exciting beauty of Santa Elena. It was brought out in her talk that 80,000-900 tons of guano, a commercial fertilizer was found in Devil's Sink Hole last year. Other points of interest stressed by Mrs. Barbour were the navigable seaport up the Sabine river at Orange, the yachting base at Corpus Christi which is reputed to be the largest in the world and the Battleship Texas which has been made into a natural shrine at Port Arthur.

"Texas Manufacturing Industries" was the topic for discussion by Mrs. Sam Hill. Introducing her talk she pictured Texas as a land of promise in industries because of the raw products that can be developed. She mentioned oil and natural gas as the chief raw products reminding club members of the many chemicals and synthetic products derived from gas. The agricultural and forest sources from which plastic is derived and the minerals for light metals which constitute the basic requirements for the chemical and steel industries were highlights of the address. Concluding, the speaker said, "the most significant fact about Texas industries is the loyal American born industrial and agricultural labor."

Under the direction of Mrs. O. R. Owens the Girls Glee Club of the high school contributed songs by Texas composers for the fine arts part of the program. The girls who sang are members of the junior class and included Misses Ann Ralston, Elga Ann Denny, Bobby Grusen-dorf, Patsy Mitchell, Eva Nell Clements, Norma Shook, Mary Ellen Far-ris, Lou Ann Duke, Eva Jane Wat-son with Miss Barbara Butts furnishing piano accompaniment.

The selections were "Prayer" by David Guion, "Rain in the River" Oscar Fox and a trio number "Hills of Home."

Members present were Mesdames C. Birk, Fred Widmoyer, C. J. Simpson, May Turner, C. W. Coppock, Florence Sherwood, H. W. Weaver, James Easterwood, Carroll Duke, Sam Hill, L. E. Brooks, James Sew-ell, R. R. Brubaker, Gayle Park, Charlie Metz, King Abernathy, Rickey Abernathy, C. E. Birk, John B. Barbour, Earle Denny and Homer Blalock.

Our Valley View Friends

By Mrs. Roy Lakey
Several people in our community, Iowa Park and Wichita Falls are reading the Herald, for they said they had been missing my column (such as it is). Made me feel good, also put me to thinking how much we could send in if the many little things we do in Valley View, Kamay and Kadane Corner were sent in. I do not have a nose for news but I'll send anything you neighbors send me that would interest those from here who like to keep up with their friends' reports on.
I'm thankful to report cold and flu victims are most all well again. I didn't realize how many were ailing until I went to the Park Clinic and saw what looked like a VV, Kamay and Kadane Corner conference. I was sure I was in the wrong place. Herman Mitchell was one Parkan there. He had been waiting a good while and said, "There are so many of you folks, you Parkans can't get to see the Doc." I was back a week later and none from here was there. I'm glad all seem better.

It looks like wrecks are becoming common things out here. Mrs. Kenneth Dervell and two of her children Sylvia and Roger were hospitalized after being hit by a man trying to mix liquor and driving. Christine has a broken ankle and the children have head injuries. All are home now, so what looked bad turned out not so serious. They have much to be thankful for, but the car was badly damaged.
Mrs. Clark Harrell was on her way to church Sunday and a car stopped in front of her so suddenly she hit it. No one was hurt but her car was caved in at radiator and a fender was damaged.
Speaking of wrecks, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Bridges have returned from Ft. Worth and report that Mrs. Bridges seems to be slowly improving. He too seems better since his heart attack.
Mrs. Cecil Hanes' mother died at Commerce last Tuesday. The entire community joins in offering sincere sympathy to one who has made so many friends since coming here. Mrs. Hanes is a wonderful first grade teacher. Her husband is high school principal.

Charlie Slaughter died of a heart attack Monday. He has been a carpenter and grocery man for a number of years at Kamay. Our sympathy goes to Lurea and her mother.
Mrs. E. E. Jeter has been ill at her home and is much improved.
Mrs. Ralph McKinnlay and Mrs. Roy Lakey were recent luncheon guests of Mrs. Paul Coppock and attended the style show at the Woman's Forum.
Mrs. J. F. McKinnlay is visiting her son Ralph and family.
The W.S.C.S. luncheon was another success last Tuesday. The ladies will meet Monday at the church at 9:30 a.m. to quilt for some of our institutions and homes. All are to bring a paper sack lunch.
Monday the society met in the home of Mrs. Belva Jones. Mrs. C. Adams shared hostess duties. Mrs. Harrell had charge of the program with Mrs. G. C. House and Mrs. Lakey giving parts. The subject was "The World Must Learn to Read."
Mrs. Mattie Hodges has been visiting her son in San Antonio the past weeks.
Mrs. Lissa W. Martin of Little Rock, Ark., was a recent visitor in the Roy Lakey home.
Several VVs saw the Lions minstrel last week. It was a joyful success. The specials were indeed good.

Bro. Barnes sounded professional. If you missed it you failed to see a good show, we think.
Mr. and Mrs. Neal Mikeworth and small son visited the Leroy Lakeys one night last week. Had a steak fry. (Can you imagine that in February? But peach blossoms are out, so guess spring is around the corner.)
Mrs. O. D. Childers and Miss Shirley Snow drove to Denton last week end for a visit with Bud Childers and Bill Snow, students at NTSC.
Mrs. Leslie Carnes and son Phillip returned home from Oklahoma City the day the leopard escaped. Mrs. Carnes says she's glad, for the thing would have found Phillip for sure.
Mrs. Clark Wilkes and Mrs. Lakey attended the organ concert at First Church last Friday night. The band concert at Midwestern university was good too. We should be proud of our local university for such a wonderful band. Take the family next time and see for yourself.
Mrs. O. H. Buzbee has returned from Dallas and Fort Worth after a visit with her daughters and their families.
Mr. and Mrs. Swan Reaves, Mr. and Mrs. Doss Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Carnes, Mrs. Clark Wilkes drove to Dallas, Saturday where our basketball boys were playing at SMU. The boys did fine until their third game, which they lost.
Men's fellowship met at the Methodist church Monday night with Chick Haley as speaker. Forty-two was played afterward.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snow are grandparents of a baby boy born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Snow in Wichita Falls.

We welcome nine new families into our community. All are transfers of the Phillips plant.
An old landmark has been torn down. The house at Cook's Corner. I heard that Mr. Cook fell from the roof while working and was injured to such an extent that friends came and finished tearing the house down.
W. F. Byrd has not been feeling up to par lately.
There! You know everything I do now. Hope it brings you up to date on our goings on.
The mother kangaroo was itchy. Couldn't understand why she kept scratching her tummy until it hurt. Finally the light dawned and she reached into her pouch and pulled out two little youngsters. Angriely she wacked their heads together.
"There," she said "That'll teach you two to eat crackers in bed!"
"Have you ever had a miniature cocktail?"
"No. Wazzat?"
"One drink and in a miniature out."
Wile, England — This is a fish story. While fishing on a bank of the river Derwent, Samuel William Rose, 25, witnessed an airplane crash on the opposite side of the river. He stripped and swam 100 yards across the flooded river; ripped off a wing of the wrecked plane to release the pilot and a passenger; made first-aid splints from pieces of a fence; trotted one and one-half miles in his underwear to get an ambulance; helped the ambulance men get the two injured men to a hospital. Then he went back to his fishing — his catch—three perch.

Sacred Jewish Torah Loaned Sheppard By Mississippi Base

A Torah, the most sacred religious possession of the Jewish people, has been loaned permanently to this base by Keesler Air Force Base. It arrived here last Tuesday.
The Torah is a scroll of the five books of Moses written in hand on a parchment. Reading the Torah is a part of the Sabbath Morning Services conducted by the Jewish Faith.
This particular Torah was furnished to Keesler Air Force Base during the war period by the National Jewish Welfare Board of the Army and Navy Committee. Recently, a similar type board of the cities of New Orleans and Mobile made a permanent loan of a Torah to Keesler Air Force Base. Officials of Keesler in turn made a permanent loan of the Torah which was furnished them during the war, to this base.
It was flown in a B-25 from Keesler Air Force Base to here and delivered by Chaplain Kalman Levitan, Jewish Chaplain of that base, to officials of Sheppard.
Primarily this Torah is to be used for conducting of Sabbath Morning Service for Jewish personnel of this base. Heretofore, this type of Service could not be conducted for the lack of the presence of this scroll.

Regular Sabbath Morning Services are now to be conducted at this base, according to Chaplain Zuseha Freedman.

Presbyterian News

The women of the Presbyterian church met at the church Tuesday morning for the inspirational meeting which is observed each fourth Monday. The president, Mrs. Gale Lowrance, called the meeting to order after which Mrs. Gayle Park was in charge of the program which opened with the Lord's prayer being repeated in unison. The theme of the program was "Take Home Pay," and stewardship was stressed by the leader in her introductory talk. Continuing, Rev. M. C. Yeargan emphasized the three points of sovereignty, system and sacrifice. After the singing of the hymn "Take My Life," Rev. Yeargan closed the program with prayer.
During the period devoted to business the annual reports of Mrs. C. E. Birk secretary of spiritual life and enrichment and Mrs. K. P. Abernathy, secretary of foreign missions were completed for mailing.
Those attending were Mesdames C. Birk, J. B. Rideour, Fred Myers, Gale Lowrance, C. E. Birk, John Clapp, Gayle Park, King Abernathy, Miss Clara Lowrance and Rev. Yeargan.

Sheppard's Flight Line — A Big Place

THIS IS THE FLIGHT LINE at Sheppard Air Force Base, or as much of it as could be encompassed in one picture. The little planes in the foreground are special visitors from Goodfellow Air Force Base, San Angelo. Twenty-five aviation cadets swooped down to pay a surprise visit to the base and its prize exhibit, the B-36 Superbomber. The B-36 is the sky giant in the immediate background, the first plane in the middle row, towering over everything else. Led by Maj. Alec. B. Streete, Goodfellow training officer who piloted a B-25 light bomber, the cadets landed on the flight line in T-6 "Texan" single-engine training planes, then toured the base under guidance of First Lt. Quentin O. Ball, a training branch director. Sheppard claims to have a sample of every plane currently being used by the Air Force. Many of them can be seen in this photograph, lined up on the big concrete apron where they can be studied by students of the Air Force's biggest aircraft and engine school.

seek men who inspire trust and esteem

Four thousand years ago, practitioners of the healing arts were impelled to organize in order to shield the public from the impostures of quacks and charlatans. Similar organizations have been carried along the current of history to the present day. Today the great national associations of physicians, pharmacists, dentists, and nurses work separately and harmoniously to keep educational standards high, the impostors out.
You cannot exercise too great care in securing the advice of those whose ethical concepts inspire trust and esteem. When ill, consult a registered Doctor of Medicine. If medication is needed, bring your prescription to us.

Learn How To Live

Samuel Butler once said "Living is like trying to play a violin solo while at the same time learning to play the violin." Learning how to live is a great challenge. The answer is not found completely in the security of a career or a job or in assurance of an old age pension. A former high school athlete recently came to his chaplain confused and disheartened. He said, "It's no use, I can't study, I have no interest in anything. I see no point in life."
That airman had lost perspective and had no objective—he had bumped into life and temporarily was beaten down and his spirit was broken.
Recently General Dwight D. Eisenhower made this significant statement, "The Spirit of man is more important than mere physical strength and the spiritual fiber of a nation than its wealth."
There are great opportunities in life for the man who has a right attitude toward God, toward his fellowmen and who is honest with himself. To quote Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, "Too many Americans are today seeking security through external protections rather than through inner fortifications of the spiritual life."
Security of heart and life comes through faith in God and confidence in one's way of life.

HARRY P. HENDERSON
Chaplain (Capt.) USAF

The thin worn out woman had her husband in court. "Judge," she said, "he's cruel. He's a hypocrite and just before every meal he turns me into a canary and makes me eat bird seed."
"Is that true?" the judge asked.
"Your honor," said the husband, "she a lucky woman. I could just as easily turn into a sparrow and then she'd have to go out and hunt her own food."
"Hiya, toots. How's about cutting a rug?"
"Sorry Junior, your not my type of man."
"What is your type of man?"
"The other kind."
"What other kind?"
"Any other kind."

WHITE HOUSE SOON GETS TEN NEW ARMORED CARS
Detroit — The White House soon will take delivery of 10 new armored cars, nine limousines and one convertible, all equipped with special bodies and heavily armored. One limousine and the convertible will have special running boards for the Secret Service agents who protect the President.
Each car has bullet-proof glass throughout.

CAPTAIN JON HEARD, Sheppard Purchasing and Contracting Officer, checks through a pile of bid invitations, which were sent to prospective contractors Tuesday. Bidding will begin on an extensive contract for plumbing items, building and electrical supplies, refrigeration and air conditioning. All these are included in the master plan for the rehabilitation of the base into a permanent installation. Joan Wheeler, contract specialist, aids Captain Heard while Cpl. William Goodman, in background, assembles pages of the bid invitation.

WHILE 4800 AIRMEN, in parade formation, watched on, Colonel Thomas W. Harris, Commanding Officer of the 3750th Technical Training Group, pinned Air Medals on the proud chests of 17 Sheppard men. Receiving his medal is S-Sgt. Robert R. Martin of the 3383rd Training Squadron. Others decorated were: 1st Lt. G. D. Thurman, S-Sgt. J. J. Chandri, Cpl. L. R. Neilard, T-Sgt. F. W. Bennett, T-Sgt. N. L. Bonham, T-Sgt. R. Gault, T-Sgt. C. D. Gray, T-Sgt. J. W. Henryes, T-Sgt. W. L. Maughan, T-Sgt. B. E. Nicholson, T-Sgt. J. F. Langenbach, S-Sgt. C. E. Harper, Sgt. H. L. Boyd, Sgt. J. W. Cuff, Sgt. Hilites!

New York — Elevator cabs now can be operated by simply commanding them to go "up" or "down" in either English or French.
In a recent demonstration uncanny alertness was shown by modern elevator controls, according to the publication Product Engineering. Ordered up and down by voice commands, the cab in the model hoistway rose to the sounds of "going up" or "monter," and descended to the calls "down please" or "descendre."

San Francisco — Mrs. Fannie Heller, a steeplejack (or steeplejill), has given up her profession because of injuries sustained when she slipped getting out of the bathtub.

Port Huron, Mich. — George McCallom recently complained to a doctor of fluttering noises in his head. The doctor examined him and in one of his ears found a moth and four eggs.

Memphis, Tenn. — Theater manager John Graber sent out a hurry call for a hacksaw. A four-year-old boy, obviously destined to be a movie critic, had fallen asleep during the picture and gotten his head caught under the arm rest. The seat had to be sawed apart to set him loose.

Los Angeles — A small white dog belonging to six-year-old Roy Henderson bit: (1) the truant officer, (2) the school principal, (3) the dog catcher, (4) the owner of a hot-dog stand.

Norfolk, Va. — A sea-going taxicab and the Coast Guard combined resources here to rescue a ferryboat in distress.
The ferry Hampton Roads, while crossing the body of water of the same name, ran aground in a fog.
Lacking a ship's radio, the captain, Ben Liverman, searched his autodeck for a radio-equipped taxicab. Luckily, he found a Newport News cab parked on the forward apron.
The cab driver, Delmar Ham, radioed his office, which informed the Coast Guard. He also radioed the names of the 20-odd passengers and his company notified their families that they were safe.

The Coast Guard removed the passengers the following morning while the ferry was soon re-floated.
Baltimore — He told the judge he'd just fallen off the truck and wasn't trying to escape. Of course the fact that escaped prisoner William O. Gardner neglected to telephone his absence during the 76 days he was at large from the Maryland Penitentiary was apparently an oversight. Circuit Court Judge Robert France was skeptical—even if the truck didn't stop to pick up Gardner while he was working outside the prison walls. The judge added a year to the four-year sentence the 27-year-old convicted burglar was serving.

SPORT Short's

Iowa City — Leonard Raffensperger, one of Iowa's home grown products, has started his new job as the university's head football coach. He replaces Dr. Eddie Anderson, who moves to Holy Cross. Raffensperger moved up from coach of the Iowa U. frosh to the $10,000 a year post.
Ann Arbor, Mich. — Hazen (Kik) Cuyler, one of the top-ranking baseball stars of his day, is dead. He passed away of a heart ailment in an ambulance taking him from his home in Harrisville, Mich., to the hospital. In his 16 years in the majors Cuyler played for the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds. He was 50 years old.

Warrants now held by Air Force non-commissioned officers of the first four grades will be replaced by "certificates of appointment," on or about April 1. Warrants will be reserved for warrant officers. The non-commissioned officer warrants now effective in the Air Force are War Department forms. The new certificates are Defense Department forms, bearing the Air Force seal. The new certificates will show the same date of rank as shown on the present warrants.
Combined strength of the Armed Forces of January 31 was 1,512,000, a drop of 38,400 from the 1,551,300 combined strength shown on December 31, 1949. Total recruitment for January was approximately 32,366, as compared with 44,000 for December.
The Defense Department Personnel Policy Board will conduct a survey of opinion in the Services regarding the proposed withdrawal of Dependents' medical care.
Operation of the Career Compensation Act will add $338,560,000 to the Armed Forces payroll during the present fiscal year.

Under a new Air Force policy, Reserve officers scheduled for separation under the economy program, may be retained longer than the previously prescribed 60 days, if the mission of the officer's command would be handicapped by his loss, or if the officer or a dependent is hospitalized.
The Army has formed tentative plans for publication and "limited distribution" of a promotion list showing the standing of all Regular officers. Present plans are to publish the list about May 1, and to include it in the next edition of the Army Register.
The First Marine Division will hold its third annual convention and reunion at Washington next August 4 to 6.

If you have children in school or going to be then do them and yourself a favor by writing box 3055, Oklahoma City and ask the Okla. Aviation Comm. to send you the releases they mailed this writer regarding Air Age Education. That field will spread as fast as the Canasta fad once parents see the advantage of having aviation subjects filtered into the child's work from the lowest grade through the greatest institution. It is worth more than the post card it will cost you, and then there will be a certain amount of satisfaction in saying you know a little about what is in the wind for the present and coming generations.

Sit back, grit your teeth and read. Two more students have groped their way through the ozone on solo flights. Such ordeals you never saw in your life. Each made three good landings after three take offs, naturally. Raymond L. Lewis and Roy L. Spradlin are the two Sheppard base students that did the unforgettable act. Both guys are foreigners having come from some eastern state, but that handicap is not causing them too much difficulty in Texas it seems. Sunday 26th was the date.

That old saying "come early to avoid the rush" has been proven in an exaggerated way. Several planes, pilots, and passengers took off last Sunday a.m. for a landing strip on an island in a lake known as Costello island. The event was to be a flight breakfast. Turned out they were one week early. If they can wait that long for another breakfast they will return Sunday March 5th and hope some of you other gazers will join in that interesting trip. It is around 60 miles south of Wichita Falls.

Would like to talk with Herman Barrow again after he returned from a director's meeting in Dallas. Barrow lives in Electra, Texas, and is one of the Texas Private Pilot Assn. directors. They had a gathering in Dallas. He stopped by for gas on his way down. R. L. Bowen is president of the organization and Geo. Haddaway is secretary. Barrow would like to see some Flying Farmer activity around here, and he is not alone in that desire. Oklahoma has a good interest and we might as well get it going in this neck of the woods.

Talk about interest you haven't seen the like of interest we are seeing manifested in CAP meetings at Sheppard on Thursday nights in building 101. Last meeting, Feb. 23rd was a thriller. Over 50 were there. Johnnie Adams, radio technical for two Wichita Falls broadcasting stations introduced H. B. Blankenship, Wichita Falls business man who in turn thrilled the group in more statements than one. It is possible and probable that two Cub L-4s will be on hand to fly. He mentioned that the commanding officer at Sheppard can get in one hour's notice some AT-6s to fly on search missions when pilots are available and checked out and their membership is up to par. His next thrilling statement was along the lines we have previously said was needed and could be gotten and that was women interest. While you're reading this we will be remembering the visit of Mrs. Blankenship and 12 lady friends at the March 2nd meeting. Interest will not be lacking now. Come out and enjoy yourselves. No one is barred whether they know a thing about flying or not.

We're plugging for and going on record as predicting that the job will be accomplished, in seeing and hearing a 15 minute aviation news broadcast over a Wichita Falls station. Air Scouts, CAP, Sheppard Air Force Base, Flying Farmers, pilots, plane owners, average citizens, Air Age Education, information about farming from the air and many, many advantages could be gained from such an undertaking. The firm near here that sees the wisdom of sponsoring such a program from the youth movement standpoint and the good it will do for aviation, is going to reap more returns from their advertising than you could ever imagine.

We will be a part of it some time, watch and see. They have a deal like that in Oklahoma City. We have one in Clinton, Okla.

Visitors Section—Barrow has been mentioned, Jack Owen and Orie Lebus II from Cynthia, Ky., were in a Navion. Maybe you have been there and know the fellows. F. L. Bruegel, Sheppard AFB, signed the book. G. M. Wallace, Decatur, Ala., is here in his Ercoupe. E. A. Jackson of Dallas was in. We will see a lot of him if our plans work out. He insures airplanes and makes adjustments on crackups. We will bid on them for repairing.

We have remembered all these years what a lecturer told us back

★ JUNIOR NEWS

Well—March is here. Guess we'll have to get used to all this wind. The tennis players especially.

Everyone will be staying home after Thursday. We get our report cards. And to think Wilma Lee was going to get to have a little get-together if she passed geometry. While on the subject of Wilma Lee—did I say she was a man-hater. No I didn't say that. Tweren't me.

Mary Ella finally came back to school Monday. With that new look too. I think some of the rest of us had better get sick.

Page has been getting such valuable letters lately that he has to keep them locked in a steel box. We just love little sisters any way, don't you Page.

Notes have really been going around in the study halls lately. A new method of not talking I guess.

Kenneth really thinks he's smart because he finally persuaded Mr. Beene to raise his history grade. Was pretty smart don't you think?

Every time Sandra goes to Wichita, she goes by Zales. Wonder what the big idea is. Speaking of Sandra . . . they just nearly didn't have a fender left Sunday afternoon with that wild Teal on the loose. She cruised up beside them and came to a stop. That was all right too, there was a whole inch between them.

There was more ditch'em Sunday afternoon. Still say "Fords" are the best. Charlene finally found what she was looking for that afternoon too. Wonder what it was?

Dorothy just loves to see the same show twice. She just loves to go in on Sunday afternoon when it's so nice and dark.

Over heard—Wish I had a Senior boy fellar. The Jr. girls aren't doing so bad at that.

Some of the Jr. girls are pretty tricky in getting out of school. They are going to sing at the Study Club Thursday afternoon. They are also going to sing in chapel Thursday morning. Aren't we proud of them?

Eva Nell is pretty slick when she eats. How she does it I dunno. I never could get by with it.

Anne was really on the ball Monday at noon. The Jrs. played the Seniors and they won of course. She really played tho.

James is the bright one. He thinks his shadow is his truest friend. Wonder how he ever thought of that.

Well if this doesn't make sense, don't think anything about it. I don't either.

—Wanda

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hill went to Whitesboro Sunday to visit their mothers Mrs. Lula Hill and Mrs. A. J. Scheid and other relatives. They returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starr of Denton were here Tuesday visiting their daughter, Mrs. Keith Blalock, who returned home with them for several days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe of Marlin visited his mother, Mrs. Ruby Monroe over the week end.

Mrs. Otis Golden and Mrs. Gerogie Bearden of Kermit spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Hartfield.

Mrs. Viola Blair of Ft. Worth visited her brother J. D. Padgett and family last week end.

Uncle Sam Says

Flag Day, June 14, holds significance for every American. Under the waving Stars and Stripes each citizen knows that he still possesses the most cherished of all ambitions—freedom and opportunity. He also knows he can retain these just so long as our country is economically sound, and he knows, too, that one of the most effective methods ever devised to keep it strong is an investment in U. S. Savings Bonds. Your purchase of Savings Bonds strengthens not only your own economy but your country's as well. If you are not now enrolled for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank, now is your BIG CHANCE to start.

U.S. Treasury Department

June 17, 1775, 174 years ago, our forefathers fought a great battle for freedom and opportunity at Bunker Hill. Each one of you realizes that to maintain the freedom and opportunity for which they fought you must be ever vigilant in doing your share. One of the country's greatest assets is a sound economy which you can help to uphold. Your government is providing the opportunity through the U. S. Savings Bonds program. If not already enrolled for the safe, automatic way of purchasing Savings Bonds, the great Opportunity Drive, now in progress, is your own individual opportunity.

Nuptial Shower For Mrs. Gragg Featured Colorful Decorations

The parlor of the Presbyterian Church was attractively graced with flowers and candles in the pastel shades for a lovely nuptial shower given complimentary to Mrs. William Lee Gragg, the former Miss Betty Carol Abernathy, Monday evening, as Mrs. R. A. Tanner sounded the familiar notes of appropriate music on the electric organ to provide a delightful background many friends of the honoree called between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 o'clock.

The hostess list for the party included Mesdames Gale Lowrance, John W. Clapp, A. H. Estes, Lowell D. Short, Leslie Clapp, C. E. Birk, Gayle Park, Locke Lowrance, J. B. Ridenour, Tom Covington, Gene Lowrance and R. E. Van Horn.

Color and beauty were artfully intermingled in the decorations for the refreshment table which was covered with a lace cloth over pink and caught up in the front with a blue and pink satin bow ornamented with a pink carnation. The lovely centerpiece featured white snapdragons, pink Carnations, orchids, yellow acacia and a blue flanking positions were blue and pink apers in two branch criptal holders. The names "Betty-Bill" appeared on the dainty heart shaped cakes and on the pink napkins. Favors were colorful shower parasols. Back of the table the shadow box held a beautiful arrangement of pink and orchid tulips interspersed with greenery and acacia. Tall white candles glower in silver holders to add dignity to the setting.

During the evening Mrs. Short and Mrs. Covington registered guests as they arrived.

For the occasion, the honoree wore a rose and black brocaded tafeta dress which was styled rounded neckline finished with a wide fold of the material a tight bodice and full skirt. To complement the frock she wore a white Carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Gragg were united in rites performed at San Antonio recently. They will make their home in Waco for the next years while he studies law at Baylor University.

Mrs. Mike Thomas of Three Rivers, Texas, mother of Mrs. E. L. Scott, is visiting in their home this week.

★ BAPTIST W.M.S.

Under the leadership of Mrs. James N. Easterwood, program and W.M.S. observed the Annie Armstrong Day of prayer for Home Missions Monday. The programs of the morning were given by the Mary Martha and Ruth Circles. Mrs. Jim Miller was leader for the first such which described the work of the board and the needs among the peoples of Virginia, North Carolina, Missouri, California, Kansas, Oregon and Washington.

Those taking part were Mesdames O. A. Schwalbe, Roy Smith, Mrs. Jack Blaylock, Nelson Johnson, Taylor George gave an interesting discussion of the work in South Carolina Kentucky Maryland, Louisiana and Cuba.

The theme song "The Church's One Foundation," and the various verses were sung at different times in the program by Mrs. Joe Chandler.

Emphasis was placed on prayer throughout the entire day with the members engaging in season of prayer and private prayer.

The third prayer was presented by the Blanche Groves Circle after lunch. Mrs. T. M. Thaxton served as leader and gave the devotional which expressed thanksgiving for the home missions work since 1845. Other states discussed were "Alabama and Arizona" by Mrs. Carl McKinnon, "Texas, Panama and Canal Zone," by Mrs. L. E. Brooks; Georgia by Mrs. A. A. Birdwell. The four women then presented a playlet to close the program.

Mrs. Everett Sewell was leader for the final program which was given by the Sallee Morgan Circle. Mrs. James N. Easterwood spoke on "The District of Columbia." Mrs. Joe Chandler presented "Missions in Oklahoma" and Mrs. Sam Hills topic was "Plea for Mission Workers."

The closing meditation was directed by Mrs. J. A. Berg.

In addition to those already included Mesdames Floyd White, Earle Denny, R. R. Brubaker, F. W. Bell, E. W. Sumrall, Avery Hooten, O. N. Jones, Lula Traylor, Wayne Short, T. T. Thigpen, Carroll Duke Tom Reed, Jim Crowden, Homer Blalock, Nova MacCormic, Charlie Mitz, Jack Blalock.

• Methodist WSCS

A birthday luncheon honoring the Women of the Methodist WSCS who have had birthdays during the past 3 months was a highlight of the regular meeting Monday.

The most attractive feature of the luncheon table was the huge birthday cake baked by Mrs. Herman Mahler for the honored guests. Mrs. Scott Morris, chairman of the committee was assigned with plans Mesdames J. W. George, W. E. Stockton, Hugh Thompson, D. O. Smith and Neil Johnson.

For the program of the day Mrs. China B. Smith continued the teaching of "Women of Scripture." To introduce her remarks she read scripture verses on wisdom from Proverbs and brought out that wisdom and femininity are closely related because of the common characteristics which they possess. A splendid kaper on "Jezebel," and Mrs. Smith discussed Phoebe, the first women deaconess.

During the business meeting plans were made to serve the young people on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Two Iowa Park Girls Join TWC Sorority

In a colorful ceremony at the Ft. Worth Colonial Club Sat. night, Feb. 18th Miss Betty Jo Hatten and Miss Patsy Gay, students at Texas Wesleyan College with 13 others were formally presented as new members of Dekka sorority.

Wearing white formals and carrying arm bouquets of white gardenias the Dekka pledges promaded through a flowered arch to the center of the floor to meet their escorts.

To carry out the club colors of black and white the old members of the club wore black formals to contrast with the white worn by the honorees.

Membership in the sorority is based on personality and scholastic rating.

Mrs. Gay's escort was Mas Dowler and Miss Hatten was escorted Raymond Hines Jr. Both girls have been elected to offices in the sorority recently.

A. J. Henson of Odessa came last Friday and stayed until Sunday with his mother, Mrs. A. C. Henson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jackson and son David of Thalia, Texas, visited Miss Clara Lowrance Sunday.
