IOWA PARK LEADER

50¢

Vol. 29 No. 22

IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367

Thursday, February 5, 1998

OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT by the Iowa Park school district was recognized Tuesday night, between two varsity basketball games at the high school gymnasium, with the presentation of a plaque by Ron Preston, director of Region Nine Service Center, to Keith Fisher, chairman of the district's board of trustees. Teachers, administrators and school personnel assembled in the background for the presentation.

Police activity busy, unusual

In an unusual turn of events, two different people who were taken into custody Saturday both later requested to be taken to the hospital.

Christy Marie Bowen, 24, was picked up at 3:06 p.m. on two warrants issued by the county sheriff's department, one for failure to appear in court and the other for public intoxication. Bonds on the two charges amounted to a total of $400.

While being held at the police station to be transported to the county jail, Bowen, reportedly pregnant, began to complain of cramps.

Emergency medical personnel were summoned, and Bowen was transported at 3:26 p.m. to a hospital in Wichita Falls, from which she was later released without being picked up by a sheriff's deputy.

At 3:54 p.m., officers responded to a disturbance at a residence in the 700 block of Rebecca, which resulted in the arrest of Roger Taylor, 42, on a charge of criminal trespass.

Taylor was transported to the county jail at 8:45 p.m. But at 10:10 p.m., jail officials said he began complaining of a knee injury, though not alleging Iowa Park officers had mistreated him.

County officials called for an Iowa Park officer to pick him up and transport him to the hospital for treatment, and he was later released.

Four other arrests were in the week's police report -- though none of them had to be taken to a hospital.

Suzanne Lynn Richardson, 27, was picked up Wednesday up on a county warrant, for failure to comply with regulations after striking another vehicle, with a bond of $106.50.

She was released from custody after signing a promise to appear in court.

Officers stopped a vehicle on US 287 at 12:52 a.m. Sunday which had reportedly been harrasing the driver of another vehicle.

After receiving permission to search the vehicle, what appeared to be a marijuana cigarette was found, and the driver, identified as Clinton Allen Gant, 16, acknowledged ownership.

Gant was arrested on a charge of possession, under two ounces, and transported to the county jail.

Monday afternoon, Marshall Loyd Tucker, 17, was picked up on two outstanding warrants issued locally, for allowing an unlicensed driver to drive and having an expired inspection sticker.

Tucker was released after paying $97.25 toward one of the fines, and signing a promise to appear in court on the other.

Lonnie Dale Loyd, 47, was arrested at 11:25 a.m. Tuesday on a local warrant, capias pro fine failure to obtain liability insurance.

He was released after signing a promise to appear in municipal court.

The owner of a vehicle that was parked overnight in the 700 block of Park Plaza told police Saturday that a window had been broken out.

UIL announces 1998-99 realignment

All the rumors concerning the University Interscholastic League's realignment for the next two years came to an end Monday morning.

That's when the UIL released its information concerning reclassification of schools, depending on high school enrollment, and named the member schools of districts.

There was little change in the makeup of District 5 3A. Jacksboro was moved down to 2A classification and Graham took its place, having been moved back from 4A.

All the other members of the district, Childress, Bowie, Henrietta and Vernon, remained.

Graham took Jacksboro's place in the district two years ago.

The UIL named 212 schools with enrollments ranging from 345 to 779 in Class 3A.

Iowa Park and Vernon, the two schools that have dominated football the past two years, each reported the same enrollment figures -- 678.

The district's smallest member, Henrietta, turned in a figure of 346, which was one student over the minimum for 3A.

Currently, schools with enrollments of 305 to 699, as reported in 1995, make up Division 3A.

Jacksboro was assigned to Dist 10 2A, joining former 3A member Boyd, Gainesville Callisburg, Lindsay, Nocona and Paradise.

At a meeting held by District 5 3A members yesterday, Iowa Park Superintendent Mike Caplinger was elected new district chairman.

Additionally, the 1998 conference football schedule for Iowa Park was set, including:

Oct. 9 - Childress, there

Oct. 16 - Bowie, there

Oct. 23 - Henrietta, here

Oct. 30 - Vernon, there

Nov. 6 - Graham, here

Head Coach Weldon Nelms is to announce the non-conference schedule as soon as that work is completed.

Cook of the Week

The Birthday Club

Recipes this week belong to members of a unique group, the Birthday Club, which started in Iowa Park on Dec. 14, 1977.

On that day, Betty Smith was working at the TG&Y store in Iowa Park when two friends, Vickie Hodson and Anita Moore, stopped by at lunchtime. They gave Betty a carnation in a bud vase and said they were taking her out to lunch, and this became the first meeting of the Birthday Club.

"Since then, some members have dropped out and new friends added, but it still means the 'birthday girl' is taken to lunch at a local restaurant, with balloons, gifts, and a lot of fun," Betty said.

Vickie Hodson and Betty Smith are still with the group. Other members include: Marge Dorner, Susan Ralston, Amanda Williams, Aulga Robb, Linda Reed and Sherrie Williams.

Betty Smith and her husband, Larry, moved to Iowa Park in June, 1977, when he retired from the Air Force.

She worked at TG&Y and Wal-Mart, and now does sewing crafts. Larry works at Lockheed on Sheppard Air Force Base as a hydraulic mechanic.

They have two sons, Gary and Charles, and a daughter, Christine.

Gary is owner of CarSmith Body Shop, and his wife, Sheryl, is office manager at Pistocco in Wichita Falls. They have two children, AJ, 12, and Garrett, three.

Charles works for a veterinarian and at Michael's in Wichita Falls. He is attending Midwestern State Univ., majoring in art.

Christine works at Penneys and is also a student at MSU. She has a nine-year-old daughter, Autumn.

Vickie Hodson has lived in Iowa Park all of her life and is a graduate of Iowa Park High School. She is the daughter of Margie and R.B. Faulkner. Her dad was the manager of Parker's Food Store, and later Piggley Wiggley.

Her husband, Michael, refinishes furniture, and Vickie works as custodian at Faith Baptist Church. For many years, she has cleaned house for local senior citizens.

She is a member of Faith Baptist Church.

The Hodson's have five children and three, soon to be four, grandchildren.

Troy works for Channel 3 TV in Wichita Falls. He and his wife, Laura, have a nine-year-old son, and an eight-year-old daughter, Emily, who is engaged to be married, lives in Lubbock and works as an RN at a Lubbock hospital. Julie (Mrs. David) Dietrichson is a third grade teacher at Bradford. She and her husband have a two-year-old daughter, Olivia. Francie (Mrs. Mike) Blevins works at Wal-Mart, and is expecting her first child in April. The Hodson's youngest daughter Holly is a junior at Iowa Park High School.

Susan Ralston is also a lifelong resident of Iowa Park. A 1976 graduate of Iowa Park High School, Susan said she earned money to buy her first bicycle by selling subscriptions to the Iowa Park Leader. Her parents are Bob and Ann Harper.

Susan's husband, Terry, is employed at Wilson Office Supply in Wichita Falls.

After working for the City of Iowa Park in the water treatment plant, Susan went to work in water treatment at Cryovac and has been there 17 years.

Susan has been a member of the Texas Water Utilities Association 19 years. For relaxation, she and her husband enjoy gardening.

Linda Reed said she moved to Electra as a small child, attended Harrold School, and married a cowboy from Triangle Ranch.

Her husband was one of the Pony Express riders in 1938, and was the youngest rider of the group. The ride was sponsored by Enid Justin of Nocona Boot Factory. He was also the Marlboro Man, appearing on TV for several years.

They had four sons, and Linda said she was kept busy raising them and cooking for the cowboys when they were rounding up cattle.

After her husband's death, Linda moved to Iowa Park, where she has worked in day care and at the local Wal-Mart store.

She enjoys working on crafts.

Aulga Robb has lived in the Electra area since she was a small child, and also attended school at Harrold.

Her late husband was a foreman for Texaco. She has one son and three grandchildren.

Aulga is a member of the Presbyterian Church, Home Extension Club, and Arts and Crafts. She is a volunteer for Hospice of Wichita Falls and the Electra Nursing Center, where she helps with Wednesday Bingo. For 33 years, she has been chairperson of the kitchen committee for her church's bazaar.

Aulga's favorite activities are being with her grandchildren, and working on crafts.

Amanda Williams and her husband, Mitch, are both graduates of Iowa Park High School. She moved here from Avery in 1984.

Amanda is a hairdresser and works at Morning Star and IHS. Mitch is employed at Amron in Burkburnett. They have just completed building a new home at Kamay.

They have two children, Nikki, four, and Blake, 11 months. A son, Joshua, died July 28, 1993.

Marge Dorner was born and grew up in Iowa Park. She and her husband, Edward, who retired from the Air Force in 1985, moved back to Iowa Park in 1982.

Marge is a homemaker and a member of the Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association. Edward is employed at Wichita Falls State Hospital.

They have two children, both of whom are graduates of Iowa Park High School.

Their daughter, Kerri Vajnar teaches at City View Junior High. She and her husband, Jason, live in Iowa Park.

Their son, Edward Jr., and his wife, Shannon, have a one-year-old son, Alex.

Marge's hobbies are her grandson, crafts, and she babysits dogs for her daughter and sister while they are at work.

Sherrie Williams said when she moved to Iowa Park in 1990, she was not very outgoing, and didn't get out of the house a lot.

Vickie Hodson, a neighbor at the time, invited Sherrie to go with her to several Birthday Club parties, but she always declined. Sherrie said that one day, Vickie insisted she go, and that's all it took. "One party with those ladies and I was hooked!" she said.

Sherrie started working for the Iowa Park Leader last October, and her husband, Floyd, works at Sheppard Air Force Base.

They have two children. Rena is a 1997 graduate of Iowa Park High School. She and her husband, Travis Bever, live in Iowa Park. Bobby is a senior at IPHS.

Sherrie is a member of the Academic Booster Club.

As I See It...

By Bob Hamilton

I don't feel I'm alone when I say that I'm about to get fed up with all the state, national and international news reports these days.

The news media is really having a ball with court reports concerning a military academy student killing a girl friend, the death sentence of a convicted woman, whether the president had an affair with an aide, and the possibility of our military bombing another country.

And let's not forget to mention El Nino and all the storms on our east and west coasts.

Had they come one at a time, I wouldn't be so turned off and overwhelmed. But all of this at one time has assigned me to one of two channels on our cable television, and neither of them have earth-shattering reports.

They're like watching the grass grow, which is more entertaining than I find the major news reports.

Does this sound unlikely, for someone who's life has been in the newspaper business?

Possibly so. Or maybe there's been so much of it in my lifetime that I've heard about all the exciting news reports I want.

Gosh, even my favorite pastime, golf, is in the news nowadays. Just playing the game is fine, but when a golfer has to justify riding in a cart ought not to be of major news value.

Who was it, who once made the statement, "Stop the world, and let me get off!"

The way things are going, that doesn't sound like a bad idea.

Big bunch Houston-bound

As has been the case in years past, Iowa Park will be well represented in the show ring when the Houston Livestock Show begins Feb. 20 and ends Mar. 8.

A total of 42 youths from here will be exhibiting their FFA and 4-H projects during the event.

Included will be 35 members of the Iowa Park FFA chapter, and nine of the 164-H members from Wichita County also are Iowa Park and Kamay youths.

Representing approximately 930 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show will have close to 15,000 entries this year, according to a news release.

They will be competing during the second week of the livestock competition.

The local FFA members will have a total of 40 entries in the show, while 11 animals entered are by local 4-H members.

Top animals in each category are eligible for their individual market auctions. Last year, junior market auction sales totaled $4,636,124.

Crystal Vernon, 15-year-old 4-

H member from Iowa Park, will be competing in the annual calf scramble Feb. 22.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vernon will be scrambling for one of 360 calves to be awarded at the show.

Each of the students who catches a calf is awarded a $1,000 certificate, donated by an individual or a company, to purchase a registered beef or dairy heifer.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The next meeting of the IPGHS will be Saturday, at 2 p.m. at the Tom Burnett Memorial Library. Members and guests are urged to attend.

Deryl Latray from Metro Photo will give a program on scanners. He will show how to go from picture to scanner to computer. This information will be of great interest to those who have a scanner or are planning to get one. This will be a good time to learn and ask questions.

The interest in family genealogy and history is growing and we are looking forward to the expansion of the genealogy resources at the new Wichita Falls library. The Kemp Library has offered the genealogist a great deal of information and now with the Prothro Genealogy Research Center adding computers, CD's and WWW to explore on the internet, we will find it much easier to search for our family genealogy close to home.

Vikki Shea is to be thanked for such a fine job on the IPGHS Newsletter. Members are reminded your contributions are needed for future editions, deadline for March issue is near so bring your items to the meeting Saturday.

The book "Happy Birthday Iowa Park" compilation of the Iowa Park Leader centennial edition is still available at the Tom Burnett Library. Call Charlene Parks, Shirley Banks or Marita Holdsworth for your copy. Cost $25 includes tax.

Interested in becoming a member? Yearly dues are $10 individual or $15 for family. Interesting programs, short business meetings, a social time with other family genealogists plus receive a newsletter four times a year.

Card of Thanks

First responders, Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department, Fire Chief and other members responding at 10:30 p.m. on Feb. 1 to 1100 W. Louisa.

We want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the immediate response to the aide of our mother.

Thank you for the expertise and the professional way you handled and conducted a life and death emergency situation.

We were told by the ambulance attendant that had it not been for your quick response and efforts, of applying the intubation tube before they arrived, the results could have been fatal.

This is not the first time, but approximately three years ago a similar situation occurred and the response and efforts were life-saving then.

Sometimes people are taken for granted. These family members feel that it should be known that Iowa Park is very lucky to have not only professional and trained individuals such as these, but also caring and loving individuals.

You are appreciated and well thought of.

IHS NEWS

By P.J. Berry

Well, by the time you read this, I will have already served my "jail time" for Jerry's Kids. I hope everyone has given generously to the MDA. It is a worth while cause and is tax deductible. If you haven't made a donation, don't forget them. We never know when it may strike someone we love.

The residents have been busy making their Valentine sacks to put outside their door. We got so many cards from employees, volunteers, and children at Christmas, we decided we'd be prepared for Valentine's. It is also fun, keeps us busy, and looks pretty for Valentine's Day.

If you haven't already voted for your favorites for our annual King and Queen contest to be announced at our Valentine's Day party on Feb. 13, be sure to do so as soon as possible!

The ballot boxes are at each nurses station. The winners will represent our nursing home at the annual picnic in May at Lucy Park, to compete against the other Kings and Queens in the North Central Texas area for the "Area" title.

This is an annual event, that most of you in Iowa Park are not familiar with, because of the fact they have not always had a van to take residents to this, they usually didn't go to the one in Wichita Falls. It is held in conjunction with National Nursing Home Week in May, starting on Mother's Day.

We will be having special events going on all during that week at the nursing home and the picnic is our grand finale.

The residents will compete in dominoes, 42, crafts, spelling, basketball throws, discus throw, softball toss, Tee-shirt decorating, walks, wheelchair races, and banner competition. Our biggest thing, besides the King and Queen contest, is the overall spirit award to the nursing home with the loudest volunteers and the most spirit. For this we will be needing to have our friends and neighbors to help us out that day. The residents can win trophies or ribbons for first thru third places in the events.

There will be different age categories. This is a very big event with nearly 500 nursing home residents and volunteers participating.

If you would like to help us out in some way, we can sure use the help. We have to start early, so we can have our tee-shirts decorated, our banner made, food planned for the picnic, and our strategy planned, on how to beat the larger nursing homes. It sure is great to have homemade goodies for a picnic.

As a Hawk fan, I know this town has lots of spirit for our youngsters. It would really be nice to see you rally for our Seniors at the nursing home picnic also. We will have a ball and will feed all our volunteers who go with us. "Okay, Carlton, I know you are reading this, so you might as well volunteer."

We will also be needing all of the local youth to come by to volunteer their talents that week for our residents, be it singing, dancing, or whatever, be sure to come by that week in May.

SHOP IOWA PARK FIRST!

Special Thanks to All Occasions Florist and the Gloryland singers, Joyce and Carl Hallum, as well as my husband for remembering me on Activity Directors Day.

Again, Becky Bates, of Dollar General, has been so gracious to donate several items to the residents, for different bingo games and just for the fun of it. She is a real sweetheart and the residents really appreciate her thoughtfulness.

We would like to welcome our newest resident Floy Hampton to IHS. We are very happy to have her with us. Be sure to stop by and meet her.

Mike Merrill will be here at 1:30 p.m., next Wednesday to delight the residents with his vocal talents. He has become quite a regular with the residents. When he becomes famous, we sure will miss his monthly visits.

Don't forget that our Valentine's Day party is on Friday the 13th, anyone wishing to volunteer to help us make cupcakes for the party, your help will be appreciated. If you get a chance to come by, we'd love to have you.

Until next week, think about helping us with the nursing home picnic and helping us cheer the residents on to beat the other area towns! God Bless You All.

School records fall in first meet

The Iowa Park boys and girls powerlifting teams traveled to Celina this week for the first meet of the season.

Despite not taking all of his experienced lifters, head coach Steve Stewart was more than pleased with the outcome following a fourth-place finish by the girls and an eighth place finish by the boys.

"I was real pleased with our showing," Stewart said. "I didn't take a lot of my experienced lifters, but the ones I took did a good job of competing. It gave some of our younger lifters a taste of what goes on at a meet and it served as good experience for them."

In the girls division, Iowa Park finished fourth, thanks in part to Lisa Nichols, who finished first in the 105-lb. class.

Nichols set three new school records in the meet. She squatted 200 lbs., benched 90 lbs. and deadlifted 180 lbs. for a total of 470.

"Lisa is going to be one of my best lifters," Stewart added. "Coach Hodges got her to come out and she wins her first meet. I was real pleased with the way she lifted."

Also placing second was Sarah Kasper, who lifted in the 198-lb. class. Kasper finished with a 705 total which included a 280 squat, a 115 bench and a 310 deadlift. Kaylee Baumer finished third in the 97-lb. class with a total of 335.

Others competing in the girls' division included: Tara Godwin, 4th in the 105's with a total of 375; Sara Nelms, 6th in the 114's with a total of 300; Kristy Landers, 4th in the 148's with a total of 515; Amanda Shaffer, 6th in the 148's with a total of 490; and Brittany Taylor, 5th in the 165's with a total of 470.

The boys were led by Richard McCann, who finished first in the 242-lb. division with a total of 1485. McCann set four new school records, breaking two of his own that he set last season. McCann was also named as the Outstanding Lifter of the Meet.

"Richard has worked hard all year long," said Stewart. "He finished sixth at the State Meet last season and just missed a medal by 10 pounds. He's definitely a contender to win it all this year. He's already made a lot of noise in the Region with his total here."

Josh Arrington also placed well for Iowa Park finishing third in the 275-lb. class with a total of 1215.

"Josh bumped up a class this year," Stewart said. "He moved from the 242's to the 275's and finished third. He was on of the lightest lifters in his division. He missed a squat that would have pushed his total up some, which would have helped him."

Toby Catlin finished seventh in the 165-lb. class, only because he couldn't make the weigh in at 148.

Catlin missed the weigh in by a single pound, forcing him into the higher weight class. His total of 1000 would have won his division.

Other lifters included: Robert McCann, 6th in the 123's with a total of 540; Travis Wagner, in the 132's with a total of 635; Trey Goodwin, Michael Leal and Anthony St. James all in the 165's with totals of 730, 655 and 795; Chris McGee in the 181's with a total of 645; and Russell Duggins in the 220's with a total of 790.

The next meet will be in Frisco this Saturday.

Girls' JV drops pair

The JV Lady Hawks suffered a pair of district losses this week, snapping their three-game winning streak.

Iowa Park fell to Bowie on the road on Friday night, 43-27, then lost at home to Childress on Tuesday night 40-29.

In the Bowie game, Iowa Park trailed by only one after the first period before a 13-6 second quarter left them on the wrong side of a 16-8 halftime score. Bowie won the final two quarters 12-9 and 15-10 to post the 43-27 win. Audrey Wells led Iowa Park in scoring with six points followed by Lacy Wells and Brandi Parker with five points.

In Tuesday night's game, Iowa Park and Childress were locked in a close game until the fourth quarter, as the Lady Bobcats outscored Iowa Park 19-10 in the final period to take a 40-29 win. Amanda Reed led Iowa Park with seven points followed by Amanda Sheppard with six, Krysha Hoover and Parker each finished with five points.

Bobcats put stop to Hawks' streak

The Iowa Park Hawks finished the first half of the district schedule with a three-game winning streak after they traveled to Bowie Friday night and handed the Jackrabbits an 18-point loss on their home court.

The win gave the Hawks the momentum they would need as the second half of district got underway Tuesday night at home against Childress, which finished second in the first half to Vernon.

But after the dust had settled Tuesday night, it was the Bobcats with the momentum after they escaped with a 74-66 win.

In Friday night's game against Bowie, the Hawks came out on fire, hitting on 6-of-9 shots from the floor in the opening period. Sophomore guard Ryan Huff led the way with seven of his 12 points in the first 3:30 of the game. Iowa Park jumped on top 14-5 with 3:14 left in the first and looked to be on the way to a big first quarter, only to see Bowie run off the final nine points of the period to tie the game at 14-14 heading into the second quarter.

Iowa Park opened the second quarter with a 13-2 run of its own to open up an 11-point lead at 27-16 with 4:26 left in the first half. Colby Bobbitt had five points in the run, Chad Wright had four, Todd Yeager and Jonathan Horton each added two points in the run. Bowie managed to trim the lead to 35-29 at the half.

The Hawks quickly pushed the lead back up to 14, thanks to the play of Yeager and Wright as the duo combined for all 11 of Iowa Park's points in an 11-3 run to start the third quarter. Wright had six while Yeager had five in the run. Iowa Park maintained the 11-point cushion throughout the remainder of the third quarter holding a 55-44 lead.

Only once in the fourth quarter did Bowie ever cut the lead under 10 as the Hawks continued to play tough basketball. Iowa Park's biggest lead was at 20 with 1:10 remaining.

Iowa Park placed four players in double figures with Wright leading the way with 24. Horton finished with 21 followed by Huff with 12 and Yeager with 10.

The win moved Iowa Park to 3-2 in the first half of district play while Bowie fell to 2-3.

In Tuesday night's game against Childress, Iowa Park had its chances to pull off a big win, but came up short as the Hawks missed several easy shots in close that could have made the game much closer down the stretch.

The game was closely contested throughout as the two teams exchanged the lead 12 times in the first half.

The game was tied five times in the first quarter before the Bobcats ran off the final four points of the period to take a 19-15 lead after the first period.

Iowa Park re-gained the advantage at 22-21 with 5:16 left in the half on a layup by Horton, who finished with 16 points in the game, 10 in the second period alone. The two teams battled back and forth with Iowa Park clinging to a 37-35 halftime lead.

An 18-8 third quarter gave Childress a 53-45 lead heading into the final period of play as the Bobcats scored most of their points in the period either off fast break opportunities or inside.

The Childress lead grew to 15 at 64-49 with 4:28 before the Hawks mounted their comeback attempt. An 11-1 run by Iowa Park cut the lead to five at 65-60 with 2:32 remaining, but the Hawks couldn't manage to get any closer as the Bobcats made 5-of-6 free throws down the stretch to hold on to the win.

Yeager finished with 23 points to lead all scorers followed by Horton with 16, Jon Thomas with 11, Bobbitt with eight and Wright with six.

Childress got a balanced scoring attack, placing four starters in double figures led by Matt Maddison's 21. Michael Davis finished with 16 followed by Ryan Miller with 15 and Willie Thomas with 14.

The Hawks will travel to Vernon Friday night and try and knock off the Lions, who surprised everyone by winning the first half of district with a 5-0 record.

JV Hawks on 10-win streak

After a 6-4 start to the season, the JV Hawks have quietly run off a nice 10-game winning streak. And along the way, Iowa Park has improved to 16-4 overall and remains perfect at 6-0 in district play after a pair of wins this week.

Iowa Park opened the week by beating Bowie on the road 58-44. The Hawks won all four quarters against the Jackrabbits, winning the first 10-9, the second 17-9, the third 15-14 and the final 16-12. Chase Wright led the Hawks in scoring with 17 points followed by Ross Dillard and Jeff Duerson, who each finished with 10.

Tuesday night's game wasn't so easy as the Hawks had to rally to keep their winning streak alive. Iowa Park trailed 12-9 after the first period, but came back to knot the score at 22-22 at the half. Childress jumped on top 40-33 after three periods after winning the third quarter 18-11. Iowa Park won the game with a 22-13 fourth-quarter run to edge the Bobcats 55-53.

Wright again led Iowa Park in scoring with 11 points followed by Chris Simmons with nine, Tyler Pulley, Aaron Duran and Dillard all finished with eight points.

Iowa Park will look to keep its winning streak alive this Friday night when the Hawks travel to Vernon to take on the Lions.

Frosh drop 2

The freshman Hawks ran into a couple of tough teams this week as Iowa Park dropped both of its games falling to Bowie on Friday night and to Childress at home on Tuesday.

In the Bowie game, Iowa Park led 11-8 after the first quarter before the Rabbits took over. Bowie outscored Iowa Park 12-5 in the second quarter to take a 20-16 halftime lead. The advantage grew to 40-24 after three periods after a 20-8 run by Bowie in the third quarter. Bowie won the fourth quarter 10-9 to make the final 50-33.

In Tuesday's game against Childress, Iowa Park again led after the first quarter, this time 13-8 and continued to lead at the half at 25-24 only to see the Bobcats come out in the second half and outscore Iowa Park 13-2 in the third quarter and 12-9 in the fourth to take the 49-36 win.

Lady Hawks split outings

The Iowa Park Lady Hawks split their two games this week by beating Childress by 31 at home Tuesday night to snap a two-game skid. Earlier in the week, Iowa Park lost on the road to Bowie.

In Friday night's game at Bowie, Iowa Park played with the seventh-ranked Lady Rabbits for three quarters, but a 13-3 second period proved to be the difference between the two teams.

Iowa Park outscored Bowie 12-11 in the opening quarter, thanks in part to a pair of three-point bombs by Randi Nelms. The junior guard finished the game with nine points, all coming from outside the three-point stripe. Wendy Bridwell finished the first period with four points.

The game was decided in the second quarter as Bowie held Iowa Park to only three points on 1-of-10 shooting from the floor while the Lady Rabbits hit on 4-of-9 shots from the field and 4-of-5 from the foul line for 13 points. Iowa Park finally got on the board with 3:18 left in the half on a free throw by Sarah Shook and got its only field goal on a layup by Bridwell with 2:28 remaining. To make matters worse, Iowa Park turned the ball over nine times in the period.

In the third quarter, the Lady Hawks cut the lead to six, at 22-28, following Nelms' third three-pointer and a layup by Alisha Clements, only to see Bowie push the margin back to nine at 35-26 after three quarters.

A 5-2 run to start the final period cut the lead to 37-31 as Iowa Park's hopes stayed alive. The Lady Hawks cut the advantage to only five with 55 seconds remaining on a 10-footer by Shook to make the score 40-35. But the Lady Rabbits made their free throws down the stretch to seal the victory. Bowie made 7-of-9 free throws in the fourth quarter.

The loss left Iowa Park at 0-2 to start the second half while Bowie improved to 2-0.

In Tuesday's game against Childress, the Lady Hawks took control early and coasted to the 61-30 win.

Iowa Park started the game as cold as ice from the floor as the Lady Hawks made only 2-of-13 shots from the floor in the first period. But they made up for it by making 8-of-14 free throws to take a 12-6 lead after the first eight minutes of play. Bridwell scored six of her game-high 20 points in the first four minutes of play before picking up her second foul.

In the second quarter, Iowa Park's cold shooting continued, but the Lady Hawks' lead still grew to 17 at the half. Iowa Park finished the period 3-of-13 from the floor, but again stayed alive at the free throw line by making 11-of-14. Bridwell added eight points in the period while Clements finished the second quarter with four of her 11 points. For the half, Iowa Park shot only 5-of-30 from the floor but still led by 17.

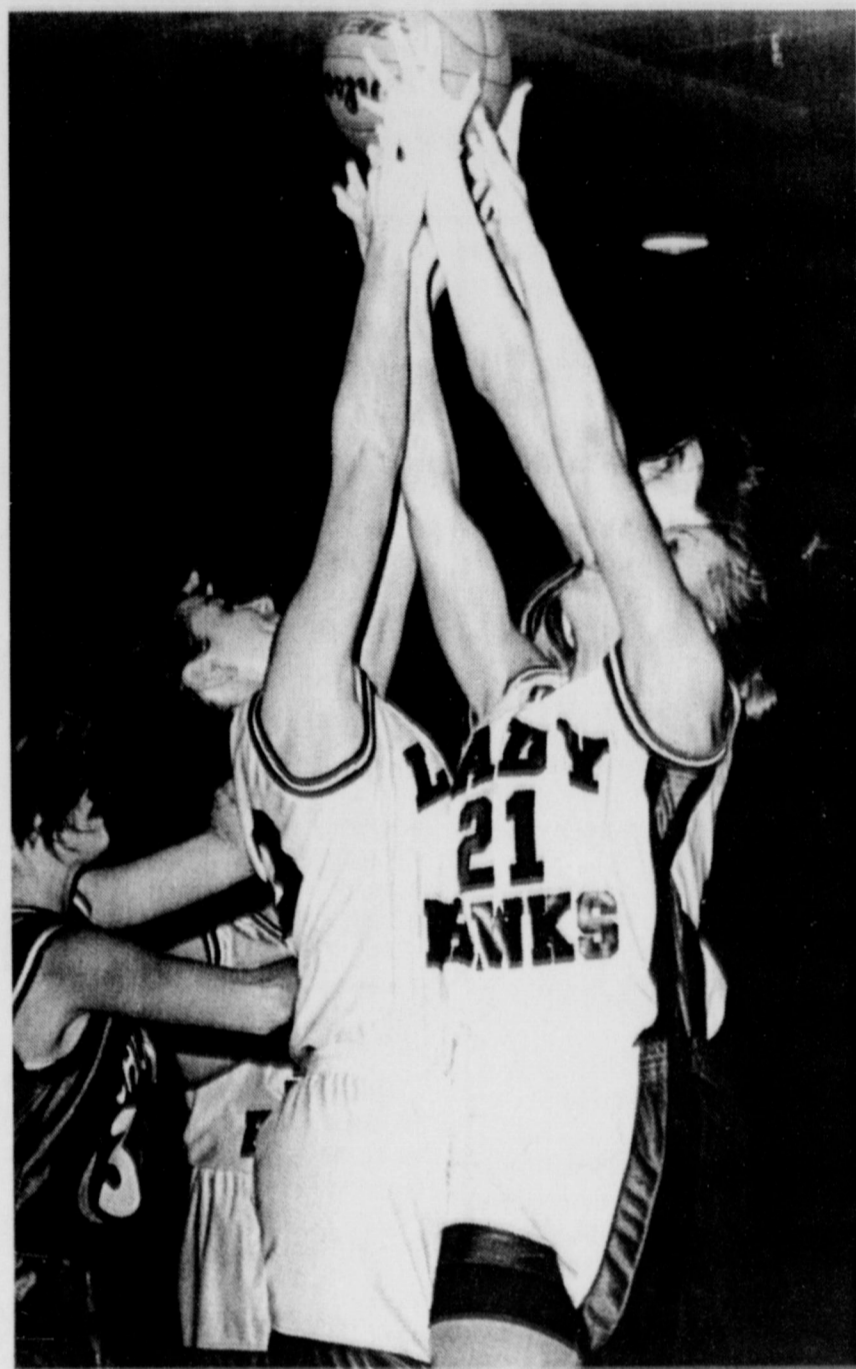

The game really got out of reach in the third quarter when the Lady Hawks finally got hot from the floor. Iowa Park made three of its first four shots from the floor to start the second half, all three-pointers, two by Nelms and the other by Bridwell to push the lead to 24 at 39-15 with 5:52 left in the third. In all, Iowa Park finished the third quarter 9-of-16 from the floor. Nelms finished the period with eight of her 13 points while Clements added four.

After a 15-footer by Sharla Hughes made the score 43-17, with 4:30 left in the third, Iowa Park finished the quarter with an 8-2 run to make it 51-19 heading into the final period.

The lead grew to 56-19 before Childress ever got on the board in the fourth quarter as the Lady Hawks cruised to the easy win. Joining Bridwell in double figures were Nelms with 13, and Clements with 11 followed by Shook with six and LeAnn Jordan with five.
