District's building needs on trustees' agenda tonite

School trustees will review recommendations for basic facility needs in the district, and possibly make a decision on which architectural firm to use for the project at their regular meeting this evening.

The board will also call a trustee election, along with designating polling places and appointing election judges. The terms of Jeff Warns and Dennis Younger are due to expire in May.

A decision will be made on quotes for completion of the addition to the high school parking lot.

The third draft of the 1998-99 school calendar, which has been reviewed by several committees, will be presented to the board to look over and suggest any changes, if necessary.

The calendar is scheduled to be adopted at the March board meeting.

Two "Learn and Serve" grants, applied for by Sheila Gholson, junior high school teacher, will be discussed. One of the matching grants is for use in the school's 100th anniversary celebration, and the other would be used for an on-line internet hook-up to Mrs. Gholson's classroom.

Other items to be acted on by board members include:

- Contract renewal for campus principals, counselor, and directors
- Gifted-Talented policy book
- Participation in the Global Learning and Observations to Benefit the Environment (GLOBE) program for sixth-grade students in the 1998-99 school year

Police search for shooter

A newly-formed organization, Families Unlimited, will hold its first meeting Thursday, March 26, in the fellowship hall of First Methodist Church.

Tom Medley, a member of the The Dallas Morning News, will be the special speaker for the evening. He will introduce his unique brand of humor into a story with a moral.

The group of Families Unlimited exists to help bring families together as a system for one another, to share skills which will build on family strength, and to provide information about ways to overcome specific needs a family might be encountering.

The meetings will be fun, short (one hour) and informational. Free childcare will be provided for children in fifth grade, and new freshmen will be served.

Because of a lack of a central facility, the session will be held at local churches, although the meeting itself is not church-related.

All parents as well as those who work with children are encouraged to attend.

On this beautiful day, I have the opportunity to vote on measures that will have a significant impact on the lives of those in our community. I urge you to consider the following:

1. Support the budget that includes increased funding for education and healthcare.
2. Vote for the implementation of a comprehensive transportation plan.
3. Oppose any measures that would negatively impact our environment.

I believe that by working together, we can create a stronger and more prosperous community for all.

Thank you for your consideration.

In Loving Memory of my Mother,
Mamie Sims
November 22, 1917 - February 17, 1989
It has been 25 years since I lost my Mother, but working at INS Nursing Home has brought me closer to her again, as I see many of her dear friends from day to day. We often share memories together about her and I just want to say I have the most loving and wonderful Mother, who loved me with all her heart. She will NEVER be forgotten and will live on in the eyes of her children and grandchildren. She was one of a kind and was always there for me, even though I was a real steiniger at times! To her I dedicate these few words:

Mother I Miss You
It is me, or have I decided myself
I thought I heard you call my name
Out in the pouring rain
I really thought
I thought I saw your face
But after a second look
I saw I made a mistake

I miss you
And nights just isn’t with you here with me
So we can laugh and talk again
I never saw you
But I’ll just kiss you and send it on the wind
‘Cause you know I plan to see you again

So much I wanted to show you
So much I wanted to give
I thought our time would be much longer
Missing my best friend

Mother I miss you
And nights just isn’t with you here with me
So we can laugh and talk again
I miss you
But I’ll just kiss you and send it on the wind
‘Cause you know I plan to see you again

“Co-written by Dalia and John Tesh”

I would just like to say, there will be no other who will ever truly take the place of my dear Mother. I loved her with all of my heart and she will be with me always in my thoughts.
