Terrapin Race Just One Feature of Huge Trades Day Aug. 6

Iowa Park merchants are making their chief project for 1949 the establishment and development of Trades Day here. Every effort is being made to stimulate growth in this special attraction through good buying for the event and then passing on these special bargains to the consumers.

The first Trades Day was on April 5 and ever since then there has been a Trades Day on the first Saturday in each month.

Though various minor entertainment features have been offered from time to time in an effort to attract people to Iowa Park, the chief attraction has been and will always be the offering of new merchandise at the best possible prices.

There is definite evidence that the town is growing in trades interest, say the merchants. More and more people are coming to shop in Iowa Park, and are finding that their needs can be supplied without a hot and tiresome trip to neighboring towns.

Merchants who realize that competition is getting keener with each passing day, are really getting serious about Iowa Park's Trades Day.

Trades Day in August falls on the 6th, and will be featured by a Terrapin Race, to which all the surrounding area are invited. All the contestants have to do is catch a terrapin and bring him or her to the race. Entry blanks will be available on the day of the race.

Prizes offered by the merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce start with $7.50 first and $5 second. Then there will be other awards in many different categories such as the largest terrapin, the smallest, the ugliest, the most human acting, the third fastest and so on. If you think your terrapin is the superlative in any of the terrapin characteristics, bring him along and point out these most desirable qualities. It's very likely there will be a prize waiting for you at one of the stores co-operating in Trades Day.

"Terrapin races are so unpredictable that they are sure to attract great interest. A terrapin that has never before been in such a race has as much chance of catching first money as the most highly trained racing terrapin. The most ignorant looking terrapin you can find might prove to have more intelligence than a college trained shell backed quadruped.

Catch a terrapin, if you're fast enough, and bring him with you to Trades Day in Iowa Park, August 6. If you don't win a prize, you can prize the great fun and the bargains found in stores of the Friendly Town.

Announcement is being made this week by Dr. Gordon G. Clark, president of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, of the appointment of W. M. H. Smith, Electra, general manager of KELL, as chairman of the fair radio publicity committee.

Co-chairmen of this committee are C. E. Claugh, KWPT; Boyd Kelly, KTRN; and Bill Hood, KPDX.

Smith will also be assisted by Miss Myrtle Russell, William C. Wood and Bill F. Lindsey, all of KELL; and Leon Rogers, manager of the Electra Chamber of Commerce.

Plans are now being worked out for programs to be broadcast direct from the fair grounds throughout the week of the fair. Tentative time for these programs is 10:00 a.m. each day.

Construction of a sound booth at the rear of the fair auditorium will start immediately. Smith will make an announcement soon concerning the various types of programs which will be presented free for fair patrons and broadcast over the Electra and Wichita Falls stations.

The Presbyterian Radio Hour on WFAA, Dallas at 7:30 each Sunday morning will feature Dr. James I. McCord, Austin Theological seminary, on July 31. His subject will be "The Genius of Protestantism."

On August 7 at the same hour and station, Dr. Vernon S. Broyles, pastor of the North Avenue Presbyterian church, Atlanta, Ga., will speak on "The Church the Hope of the World."

New Parking Rules Explained by Mayor

In calling attention to the new traffic regulations, Curtis Sewell this week stressed especially the need for better and more thoughtful use of the business block on Cash Street.

In times past the congestion of double parking on both sides of the street has made for a real traffic hazard. The city council, in enacting Ordinance No. 130 felt compelled to eliminate the hazard. Hereafter car drivers must leave someone in the machine when they get out to transact a purchase, and even then the limit of five minutes double parking will be enforced. On no occasions are drivers to double park downtown and leave their cars unattended.

Delivery men may still make calls on the business houses if the nature of their product does not allow them to use alley entrances.

Although the ordinance set out a penalty for violation of its provisions, the mayor is mainly interested in securing the co-operation of motor vehicle operators in solving the traffic problems, rather than securing fines from those who break the law.

Deputy Jones has been handling the situation in a very courteous and efficient manner in the short time he has been city marshal for Iowa Park. Now armed with the authority which the new ordinance gives him, he feels sure that all drivers will co-operate 100 per cent to make parking in Iowa Park a pleasure instead of a nuisance.

The choir alcove has been overhauled for both beauty and comfort. The ceiling, which was flat, has been arched and a new lighting arrangement installed. The arch over choir and rostrum has been trimmed with ornamental woodwork. Louvered doors were installed in either side for ventilation. The vestibule floors have been covered with asphalt tile.

Plans call for new floor covering for aisles, choir and pulpit to be laid in the near future. A new heating system consisting of floor furnaces has been purchased and will be installed before winter. The crowning effect of the interior change is the large semi-Gothic cathedral glass window which is being installed behind the pulpit, replacing the two small windows formerly occupying that space.

The First Presbyterian church was organized in Iowa Park in 1890 with 11 charter members. Several ministers served the church from time to time until Dr. E. S. Lowrance was called here in 1907. He served the congregation most faithfully for 33 years. Following his retirement in 1940 the Rev. Will Fred Galbraith served for about three years.

The present minister, the Rev. O. E. Smith, was called here in 1929, at Yale, Okla. He came to Iowa Park from Yale with his parents in 1943. After his parents moved to Saint Jo in 1946, Dick remained here, staying with Mrs. E. J. Shook and Mr. and Mrs. Will Detlefs until his graduation from high school in 1948.

He was employed with the S. W. Bell Telephone company as a lineman and was with that company in Bartlesville, Okla., at the time of his death.

Dick was very popular with his classmates and was highly regarded by his teachers and the superintendent. One teacher said of him, "He was always jolly and anxious to cheer others." Another said, "He was one of the finest and most courteous boys I've ever had the pleasure of teaching. I never knew of his being disrespectful in any way to teachers or classmates."

Young Heilman is survived by his parents, two sisters Mrs. Naoma Cates, Wichita Falls, and Mrs. E. W. Krebs, Bristow, Okla., and a grandfather, Charles Heilman of Drumright, Okla. He was engaged to marry Miss Leta Quintana of Bartlesville.

Miss Jane Gaunt visited in McKinney last week with friends with whom she took training in Dallas. Foundation was laid Monday for a new home which Roy Stegall is building here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Craft of Houston, Mrs. Jessie Craft and daughter Kay of Odessa are visitors in the J. W. Craft home.

Strength of Presbyterian Church Program Reflected in Improved Condition of Building

Work is nearing completion this week on an extensive program of improvement to the First Presbyterian church of Iowa Park. Beginning several months ago on the exterior, the entrances were remodeled, a new roof put on the entire building, and all outside woodwork was repaired and painted. The greatest change in the appearance of the building was made by the addition of a spire, which is traditionally the most distinguishing characteristic of a church structure. About 200 cubic yards of fill dirt and topsoil have been moved in to buttress the foundation and level up the grounds.

The interior of the sanctuary has been remodeled and completely redecorated. The floors have been sanded and varnished along with all the woodwork. Walls and ceiling have been painted. The plain glass windows have been replaced with stained glass. The choir alcove has been overhauled for both beauty and comfort. The ceiling, which was flat, has been arched and a new lighting arrangement installed. The arch over choir and rostrum has been trimmed with ornamental woodwork. Louvered doors were installed in either side for ventilation. The vestibule floors have been covered with asphalt tile.

Plans call for new floor covering for aisles, choir and pulpit to be laid in the near future. A new heating system consisting of floor furnaces has been purchased and will be installed before winter. The crowning effect of the interior change is the large semi-Gothic cathedral glass window which is being installed behind the pulpit, replacing the two small windows formerly occupying that space.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Craft of Houston, Mrs. Jessie Craft and daughter Kay of Odessa are visitors in the J. W. Craft home.

Dick Heilman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Heilman of Saint Jo, was killed last Sunday night when a motorcycle which he and Joe David Holt of Tulsa were riding crashed head-on with an automobile at a curve three miles west of Rolla, Mo., on Highway 66. Both were killed instantly.

New Rural Truck Sought By Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Dept.

Plans were made at a meeting of Iowa Park Volunteer Firemen last Monday night to finance the purchase of an additional fire truck. The one now in use is good and does a fine job, say the firemen, but is so large and heavily loaded that it cannot get to distant rural fires as soon as it should.

With a smaller truck, loaded with 323 gallons of water, equipped with a small pump and a short hose, the firemen can reach a rural blaze in short order and possibly have a fire under control when the larger truck reaches the scene. The present truck carries water and long hose to be used in taking water from stock tanks, irrigation ditches or cisterns, with the necessary large pressure pump, and is therefore too heavy and unwieldy for many of the fast drives to country homes, barns and pastures.

Many farmers of the surrounding territory have expressed willingness to help finance the new small truck. In order to make more complete plans, the firemen and a selected guest list from surrounding farms and homes will meet on the lawn of the W. A. George home Friday night at 8:00 for a watermelon feed. There more definite plans will be worked out for financing this improvement to Iowa Park's rural fire service.

The Iowa Park boys have made runs almost to Wichita Falls, more than half way to Electra, and as far out as Kamay, and the citizens of the outlying districts appreciate the importance of this new move to speed their first arrival on the scene of a fire.

Chaplain H. P. Henderson performed the ceremonies at 8 pm last evening before a group of select guests. After the wedding, a reception was held at Service Club No. 1 where Hostess Mrs. Ann Waggoner had previously arranged the affair.

Maid of Honor was Mrs. Thomas Glenn, the bride's sister-in-law. Sergeant Carlton H. Dorman was best man. Ushers were Corporals Richard C. Peckman and Richard C. Moulton.

Early in August, the wedded pair plan to visit the groom's home in Pennsylvania during a 30 day furlough.

Plans have been made by L. E. Brooks, president of the district Brotherhood of Baptist men, for the attendance of at least 400 men at the first District 11 Brotherhood Roundup at Vernon, Thursday and Friday, July 28 and 29.

Eleven counties containing six Baptist associations are included in the eleventh district. The roundup is being held at the District 11 camp ground on the outskirts of Vernon.

The encampment will be closed with luncheon Friday in the dining hall of the camp.

Speakers for the session, which leaders hope to establish as an annual feature of the district program, will be Art Wright, lay leader from Muskogee, Okla., and L. H. Tapscott, state Brotherhood secretary from Dallas.

Recreational activities during the outing will be in charge of Fred Parkey of Iowa Park. R. H. Dilday of Wichita Falls will direct musical entertainment with Dave Cole Bridgers of Iowa Park as pianist.

Mrs. A. C. Henson has been returned to her home at 121 West Daisy, following a severe illness which began with a stroke on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown and son Jimmy of Bryan are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gard this week.

Mrs. Ada Curry and daughter Mrs. Dorothy Thompson are visiting relatives in Oklahoma this week.

COOPER CLUB ENTERTAINS VALLEY FARMS WOMEN

The Cooper Home Demonstration club entertained members of the Wichita Valley club on Monday, July 25, with a covered dish luncheon. After a delicious meal, sing songs and contests were enjoyed.

Those attending from the Valley Farms were Mesdames W. G. Partney, F. D. Stermer, Ray Thompson, Lee Trigg, Fred Lewis.

Water Rights Request Goes to State Capitol

Plans are going forward from day to day which will eventually pan out for Iowa Park to have water, soft, potable water, the kind you can drink without a chaser. That's what Iowa Park wants and the voters of Iowa Park are willing to pay for it.

Application was made this week with the powers that be in Austin for water impounding rights, one more step in the move to get the water rolling. According to Al Reed, secretary of the water board, the granting of the water rights is as good as accomplished, but there will be a formal hearing on September 12. Another item to be arranged is an election of the townspeople as to whether they want the city council to buy water from the water control board. This too is more or less of a legal formality, but it takes time, and each item in the list must be done properly or the deal could be so snarled up with legal errors that the project would have to be abandoned.

Another deal is the actual issuing of the bonds which were voted on July 1. And eventually will come the letting of contracts, and the construction of the water system and repairs to existing sewer facilities.

The water board is working at the job and asks the continued support and encouragement of all Iowa Park in this important undertaking.

SGT. JAMES WITMER WEDS IOWA PARK GIRL AT HOSPITAL CHAPEL

Last night in the Hospital Chapel Miss Frances Ann Glenn became the wife of Sergeant James B. Witmer of the Base Legal Office. The bride is from near Iowa Park.

Chaplain H. P. Henderson performed the ceremonies at 8 pm last evening before a group of select guests. After the wedding, a reception was held at Service Club No. 1 where Hostess Mrs. Ann Waggoner had previously arranged the affair.

Maid of Honor was Mrs. Thomas Glenn, the bride's sister-in-law. Sergeant Carlton H. Dorman was best man. Ushers were Corporals Richard C. Peckman and Richard C. Moulton.

School District Vote On August 5 To Have Important Effect Here

The election on August 5 to be held in the W. F. George High School building of Iowa Park is as important an event to the entire community as anything scheduled for the entire year, is the opinion of the school board and of others who have the interests of our youth at heart. On that day the taxpayers of the entire Independent School District as presently enlarged will vote on three important matters.

First and foremost is the ballot calling for issuance of $65,000 in bonds for additions to the school property. Two first grade rooms are needed, a band room and vocational building are on the list, and a storage garage for the school buses.

In an attempt to consolidate all the indebtedness of the school district, one question to be voted on will make the entire district responsible for these separate debts.

The Gilmer-Aikin minimum standards program is responsible for the third item on the school election. In order to meet these requirements and receive the benefits of the program, Iowa Park school district needs to raise only about $21,000 to get about $60,000 worth of educational program. In order to raise the $21,000 the local tax rate will have to be around $1.35 per $100.

Friends of the school have no fear that the measures will be defeated, but they do want a large representative vote to be polled so that it will strengthen the school authorities and make them know their efforts are appreciated and approved.

August 18 will be an exciting day for the young people who are taking part in drama in the recreational program of Iowa Park's summer project. Two one-act plays will be presented for public entertainment on that date.

"Tobacco Alley, a mountain scene depicting the feud and fightin' Tullivers and Tuters, has all the earmarks of a good comedy that will keep everyone laughing from the beginning to the end of the play.

Buddy Answers an Ad, the second skit, is a comedy of an entirely different type but it is equally as funny as Tobacco Alley. The troubles Buddy encounters because of his mania for answering ads will hardly leave the audience breathing space between laughs. Buddy's real name is Buddy too, so it shouldn't be hard to guess who is playing that part.

Mrs. Homer Blalock and Miss Carolyn Duke are directing these plays. They are expecting the young actors and actresses to give an excellent performance to a large audience. The entertainment is free.

The Baxter Cleaners is well known in Iowa Park, Mrs. Baxter having been a resident. Her son Charles Miller is interested in the C. M. Miller Lumber company of Iowa Park.

They joined Dr. Spruiell in the Mexican capital where he has been working since June 22. Dr. Spruiell received his degree in veterinary surgery this spring and immediately began his work with the B.A.I. in Mexico.

Horn Resigns Job With John B. Barbour Trucking Company

J. C. Horn, operations manager for the John B. Barbour Trucking company, has resigned his connection with the Barbour firm effective July 21, according to an announcement of the trucking company this week.

Mr. Horn has been in an important position with Barbour for several years and is president of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce. Plans being made by Mr. Horn are not yet ready to be announced.

The duties of operations manager will be divided between Rollins Woodall, traffic manager, and Bud Mays, field forman. Both men have long service records with the trucking company.

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE —

RUTH HILL YEARGAN

Among the things that impressed us on class at the Southwestern Chamber of Commerce Managers Institute in Dallas last week was this statement: "In your eagerness do not forget the value of the things to bring new things into your town, you already have. Make the most of what you have."

Perhaps one of the greatest human failings is taking for granted the things we have. It is a pretty popular pastime to look at what the other fellow has and wish we had it, too.

But sometimes while we are looking admiringly and covetously over the fence at what some other town has, another town is looking over the fence eyeing something they consider a wonderful asset and wondering just how they can get it.

Fourteen states were represented in the 279 C of C managers and dignitaries who were enrolled in the Institute. We are definitely pleased at the number of people from other states who looked at our identification badge and said: "IOWA PARK! That's where you have the TEXAS-OKLAHOMA FAIR." And then they went on to tell how they were visiting someone in Wichita County and spent an evening at the Fair, or how they were going through this part of the country and took time out to attend it. And then there were others both in and out of the state of Texas who said they had heard of the BE-FAIR in the little town, and were still looking forward to coming to it.

Surprise was expressed at the number of people who attend the Fair, and the distance many of them came year after year. They spoke of the success of the Old Timers Day and of the Hereford and Palominos and the exhibits on display.

They spoke of the cooperation it must take among all people of the community to put over a big deal. And invariably they spoke of how immensely proud IOWA PARK must be of their FAIR.

Coming home we thought of what Iowa Park would be without the Fair. We thought of the glamour Iowa Park would lose, of the publicity our town would never get but for the Fair, of the visitors we would never see, were it not for the Fair and of the feeling of pride and achievement we could never have without putting forth every effort to make the Fair a success.

And then we got to thinking of towns that frankly said they'd be glad to have it. And we decided that if it was so good that other towns were casting envious glances across the fence, wanting so much what we had, we'd better follow a certain top-ranking C of C man's advice "...not forget the value of the things we already have. We'd make the most of what we have."

For The Ladies:
A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

"Mother," I says, "the only diet I would ever recommend to anyone is simply moderation. I wouldn't trust any of those get-thin-quick diets. Simply cut down on desserts, bread, butter, sweets and fats—but when you do, even do your cutting down moderately."

From where I sit, moderation is the watchword. Moderation with food, with smoking or with the enjoyment of a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. Actually, moderation adds to the enjoyment of just about anything.

Most Farm Accidents Are Preventable, Say 4-H Club Leaders

This week has been set aside as National Farm Safety Week all over the country and all people living on farms have been requested to observe this period. 4-H club members have been directed to seek out and eradicate all the sources of farm injuries caused by faulty machinery and improper methods of using farm tools.

Nearly all accidents can be prevented, say the National Safety Council leaders. Not only do accidents cost money, but time as well. No one wants to get hurt, and it only takes a short time to survey your farm and make a list of the accident hazards you find. After making this list, go and remove the hazards, thus reducing the chances of accidents' taking place.

Again the old saying, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, holds true. Wichita county 4-H club members should be very active at all times helping the people find and remove hazards that may cause accidents.

Broken ladder rungs, upturned nails in boards, broken porch steps, weak boards in floors, broken glass, and garden tools left lying around the yard are some of the common things that invite accidents. Other things that may cause serious injuries are electric wires with poor insulation, power takeoffs on tractors without shields, uncovered well and blind entrances to highways.

Listed are only a few of the hazards around the farm home that may cause accidents. There are dozens of other things that will be found when a safety survey is held. Let's all get together and make make Wichita county farms safe places to live and work and grow, says Bill Palmeyer, assistant county agent in charge of 4-H work.

Driving Licenses May Be Renewed Easily,

Under a temporary order by the director of the Texas department of public safety, drivers may now secure renewals on expired Texas driving licenses without the inconvenience of taking examinations. The new program will work as follows: If you have a license that was issued since January 1, 1944, you may secure a renewal by mail from the department of public safety, without examination. If you have a license that was issued prior to January 1, 1944, you may renew by presenting the old license to a drivers license examiner in your locality and executing an original application. License in the latter case will also be issued without an examination.

Vacationers Return

Mrs. Tirzah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites have returned from a three weeks vacation trip to California. They visited Mrs. Portis' son James O. On your vacation trip...
stop for an afternoon at Baytown

If your vacation leads you down our way, you'll find a visit to Humble's Baytown refinery a highlight of your trip. It is one of the great oil refineries in the world, processing about 200,000 barrels of crude oil daily into such diverse products as gasoline and asphalt, motor oils and insecticides.

Tours of the refinery start at 2:00 p.m. every day. First, you find out what you're going to see; then you're taken on a comfortable bus tour of the plant with a guide to tell you what goes on. The children are welcome.

A visit to Baytown will give you a glimpse of the results of scientific research by the oil industry; for unless you see a modern refinery, you'd never suspect that it can break up crude oil molecules and reconstruct them into other molecules of wider service to you in your daily life . . . A visit to Baytown will show you how the petroleum industry supplies many of the necessities of modern living, and how energetically the industry works to supply them.

For throughout the United States, oil refineries like Baytown work night and day to supply you with petroleum products of continuously improved quality and continuously increased diversity.

If you can't visit Baytown in person, ask for a copy of this book; address your request to:

300 4H BOYS ELIGIBLE FOR CAMP AT FERKINS COME AUG. 12-13

Approximately 300 Wichita County 4H club boys will receive cards this week notifying them they are eligible to attend the summer camp for Wichita County 4H boys. As soon as these cards are received, the boys should take down the information on the card, place the card in an envelope, and return it to Bill Pallemyer, 304 Federal Building, Wichita Falls, Texas. This will enable the camp leaders to provide food for all attending.

This camp is free to all 4H club members with their records up to date. Boys will be picked up at 1:30 pm Friday, Aug. 12 at the following places: Court House-Wichita Falls, City Hall-Burkburnett, High school-Electra, High school-Iowa Park.

★ Soil Conservation

Irrigation engineering topographical maps are now in process of being made on the Wymore Downing farm east of Wichita Falls and the John Humphrey farm east of the Diversion Lake. It is necessary that these maps be made to determine the location of irrigation laterals, high and lows to be cut or filled, directions to run borders, etc. A map of this kind gives the elevation picture of the land and this is necessary to know before planning an irrigation system.

Terraces are now in process of construction on the farm of Arnold Holtz east of Clara. C. H. Thompson of Burkburnett is constructing the terraces with an elevating tractor. Terraces will soon be constructed on another farm of Holtz near Red River and also on the farms of Harvey Ramming, C. Birk Estate and the Van Lesley's farm.

Approximately 3000 feet of diversion terraces have been constructed on the A. E. Bailey farm southwest of Iowa Park the past week. These diversion terraces direct pasture water from cultivated fields. Since a diversion terrace has a large drainage area it is necessary that it be larger than ordinary field terraces. The terrace lines were run by the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District.

The construction of irrigation and field roads are now in process of construction on the Rufus King and the Malabar farm.

Leval borders are in process of construction on the W. T. Ryan farm of the Valley Farm. This work is being done by the county maintainer of Commissioner E. E. Voyles. The land being bordered will be planted to alfalfa this fall.

Latest reports from Bryan are that Jim Barbour, eight-year-old son of Loys Barbour, who was injured there by an automobile Monday night, is recovering and should be released from the hospital soon.

The youngster had accompanied his parents to Bryan where they were attending a Farm Bureau Institute at College Station. Jim was crossing the street in Bryan about 10:30 p.m. Monday when an automobile struck him down, injuring him internally about the chest, with possible kidney injuries.

The grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barbour of Iowa Park have not yet received definite word as to when the family will be able to return here to their home.

Pfc. Angus McCormick and Pfc. Elwood Tyner of St. Pauls, N. C. were recent guests in the home of Miss Clara Lowrance. Mr. McCormick's mother and Miss Lowrance taught school together in North Carolina many years ago.

AMERICA AT PLAY

VACATION! They've picked time and place, and they've planned and saved for months. Now they're off!

That's the American way—the way of free choice—so familiar we take it for granted. A man picks his job, leaves it freely for a better one. He chooses the town he'll work in, the house where he'll live. He saves or spends as he wishes, with only his income and his wife to dictate to him.

It's not that way everywhere. In some countries, the government puts a man in a city, a house, a job, with no choice in the matter. He can't quit, leave town or move around the corner without permission. If he gets a vacation, he is told where and when to go. The government runs everything, the people nothing.

That's what happens when a free people turn over their responsibilities to their government. They also turn over their freedom of choice. Socialism is the result. How does Socialism happen? Not overnight. It is woven slowly, a thread at a time, into the bonds of slavery. Little by little the government assumes powers other than governing—until it finally assumes all power.

In this country, the government has already entered the electric light and power business—and is aiming at medicine, steel, railroads, and other industries. That is how Socialism got its start in other countries. Talk to your friends and neighbors and see how they feel about this creeping Socialism that threatens your way of life.
