

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE —

RUTH HILL TEARGAN

It is common knowledge that a Texan never runs out of anything to say because he is always talking about Texas. And it doesn't mean that he is a native Texan either, because Texans by adoption can brag just as long and just as loud as her native sons.

Wherever a Texan goes he can gain an audience as soon as the public becomes conscious that a Texan is present (and that's in 30 seconds flat). Immediately then, the spotlight is relinquished in his favor.

We've talked so much about Texas that at last others are beginning to believe us. For instance, a recent issue of the Reader's Digest carried an article about the fabulous wealth of the Gulf coast area; the Collier's magazine contains an article on Midland and Odessa; the Saturday Evening Post displays on its cover a Peacos theater, and Holiday magazine in its October edition ran three articles and many pages of fascinating pictures, to be followed by the November and December issues, both featuring more of the amazing and exciting qualities of Texas.

Anyone can tell you that Texas has everything, and the best and the biggest and the loudest of them all.

The other day the mid-morning freight train going through Iowa Park was heard quite distinctly in Austin, approximately three hundred miles away. Of course, in Texas that was nothing at all (The writer was talking long-distance).

Now there are places where trains begin blowing long before they reach town, they screech to a standstill, and while doing nothing, continue to let out shrill blasts that make one cringe. With great difficulty they get moving again, blasting away on their whistles, letting off lots of steam, and finally disappear leaving everyone expecting something to really happen.

Then there are our Texas trains that whistle a warning to co-operate or else. They flash into town, get done what is expected of them and continue on their way without fanfare or commotion.

Organizations are a lot like trains. There are some that vote to do certain things, name committees, whistle shrilly about what they are going to do, and then go their way leaving the people expecting things to happen.

Then there are other organizations that whistle a warning that they are on their way, and to the satisfaction of many — get done what is expected of them.

Down through the history of Texas as the most outstanding thing your Chamber of Commerce notes is that Texas men are men of action.

Busby to Open Station Here in October

A new business in a new building will be opened in Iowa Park about the middle of October. Floyd Busby, who is not new at the business nor new to Iowa Park, is building a filling station east on Railroad street in the block known as Denver park. The building will be stucco outside and plastered inside and will have a drive 130 feet long.

Mr. Busby has been a resident in and around Iowa Park for 15 years and until about a year ago operated a filling station and grocery store on the Kamay road in the southeast part of town.

The new business will be a Phillips 66 station and will handle Lee tires and tubes, Phillips batteries and a selected supply of auto accessories.

E. W. Templeman Is Party Honoree when Family Holds Reunion

Honoring E. W. Templeman on his birthday last Friday, Mrs. Templeman entertained their children. Present for the occasion were Tommy and Janice Ruth of the home address; Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Hillman and son Jerry Wayne of Archer City; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson and son Ronnie of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Stricklin of Shreveport, La.

All the family was at home for a reunion dinner Saturday noon, the first time in several years.

Surge Machine Will Milk Dairy Cows at Texas-Oklahoma Fair

Dairymen with cows entered in the Texas-Oklahoma Fair won't have to bother with bringing their own milking equipment to Iowa Park, G. R. McNeil, fair manager, said Tuesday of this week.

Mr. U. D. Speck, who has the agency for Surge milking machines, was in the Fair office this week and made arrangements with McNeil to furnish milking machines for the convenience of Fair exhibitors.

Mr. Speck is making an effort to contact dairymen in this area and get them to show their stock. He reports that the outlook for a good representation is excellent.

Use of the Surge milking machines will be a free service furnished by Mr. Speck.

Presbyterians Begin New Year Sunday With Church Rally

Rally Day in the church and the church school will be observed in the First Presbyterian church of Iowa Park on Sunday, Sept. 26. The goal is 100 per cent attendance.

Sunday will also be Promotion Day when those ready for promotion will be given certificates.

Rally Day marks the beginning of the full schedule of fall and winter activities, also the beginning of Church Loyalty season.

Rally Day emphasis carries out one phase of the five year program of progress of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ketchum have had as guests in their home the past weekend Mrs. Marie Snowden of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moore of Bovina. The Moores stayed here until Tuesday. Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nance of Santa Monica, Calif.

CONFERENCE OPENS FRIDAY NIGHT IN GAME WITH BURK

Iowa Park High School will be hosts to a large aggregation of fans, pep squad and high school band of Burk Burnett high school, not to mention the Burk Bulldog football team this Friday evening at eight o'clock. Burk Burnett will come to town in a desperate mood, gunning for their first win of the season and for the first conference game of either team.

Coaches Pete Wood and C. Lee Brigham do not fear the threatened invasion of our neighbors to the north and east, but they are wary—there's never any telling what Coach Don Short will have cooked up for the wearers of the green to overcome. It is a known fact that Burk has a hunk of man, one Fullback Harrison who weighs about 205 lbs. and who rams the line with all the force of a Gen'l Grant tank. With Harrison as a constant threat, the Hawks are due to have some surprises thrown their way at other spots and other times, the Iowa Park mentors forecast.

However, the boys of Iowa Park are in pretty good physical condition and are confident they can take all Burk has to offer and give more in return in the way of line plunging, stirring the ends, and general razzle dazzle.

Iowa Park fans will again be treated to the loud speaker reporting of Al Reed who will be assisted in spotting the players by Harrell Cagle and a team member from Burk Burnett. Our own drum and bugle corps will parade between halves, as will the band from Burk Burnett. Pep will be high and Superintendent Bradford has made arrangements to forestall any unpleasant incidents such as occurred among the fans at the Henrietta game last week.

Approximately fifty enjoyed the occasion. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Miller, other chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Short, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Blalock, Mrs. Ray Herrington, Miss Annette Short, Richard Hill and R. A. Williams.

Sandwiches and cold drinks were served and the men enjoyed a short fellowship period.

Senior Mothers To Plan Fair Booth

Plans were made at a meeting Tuesday morning of this week for the senior class booth at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair which starts in Iowa Park on October 4.

Gathering with Mr. Bradford and the senior teacher sponsors were the senior mothers.

Final plans will be made when all mothers of students in the senior class meet at the high school building Friday morning at 9:00. All mothers are urged to be present and help put over this project.

Funds derived from the senior booth will be used next spring to finance the annual trip of the class to Carlsbad Caverns and Old Mexico.

★ PEP SQUAD

Our pep squad is doing fine. At least we, the girls, think so. We had a pep rally in front of the school Friday, before the Henrietta game. It went off nicely except for one little remark. We were yelling our lungs out about we can beat them E A S Y easy and someone said, and I quote: "If it will be so easy you play 'em." Well, I guess and hope it was all in fun and any way the boys did a very good job of playing the game themselves. No matter what they say I really believe they like to know we are yelling for them. Mr. Woods does, I'm sure.

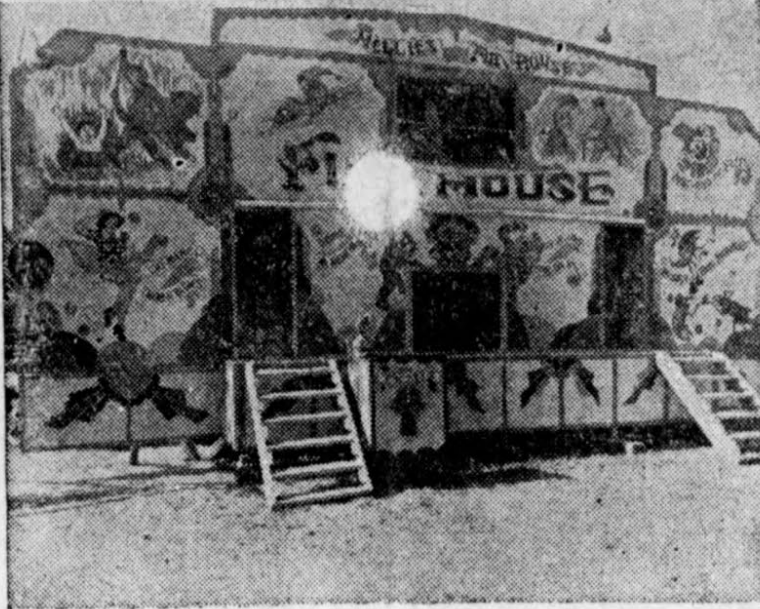

We have our pep squad practices on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. We march, about face, right face and a little bit of everything. You can always tell a pep squad girl — they have as little pep as anybody.

Our cheer leaders have a few new yell, so at the games when you have a spare minute watch them. They are really good.

That's all for this week. — Pep squad reporter.

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS — The Fun House, one of the features of the Victory Exposition shows appearing in Iowa Park during the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, starting Monday, October 4.

Hayride and Picnic Enjoyed by Fifty

Tall cottonwood trees reaching in graceful splendor toward the moonlit sky combined effectively with the low spreading trees, the leaves of which reflected the first touch of the autumn season, to provide a perfect setting for a wiener roast Monday evening. The outing site was on the George Lewis farm, and those enjoying the affair were pupils, teachers and guests of the Intermediate Sunday school department of the Iowa Park Baptist church. The odor of a log fire wafting upon the air and the generous sprinkling of leaves upon the ground, were additional reminders that fall was just two days off.

Preceding the wiener roast the young people enjoyed a hayride to the outing grounds. Jim Miller drove the tractor which drew the hayride trailer. Mrs. Miller, superintendent of the department, chaperoned the group. The teachers and adults went ahead to have the fire in readiness.

Approximately fifty enjoyed the occasion. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Miller, other chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Short, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Blalock, Mrs. Ray Herrington, Miss Annette Short, Richard Hill and R. A. Williams.

Sandwiches and cold drinks were served and the men enjoyed a short fellowship period.

Thirty-eight Men Are At Safety Meeting

A talk on accident prevention by J. B. Barbour Jr. was the highlight of a safety meeting of personnel of the John B. Barbour Trucking company on Monday of this week. The session was held in the old barn of the trucking firm and attracted 38 attendants. Discussions of personal injuries and property damage were guided by John B. Barbour and J. C. Horn.

Sandwiches and cold drinks were served and the men enjoyed a short fellowship period.

Cripliver Has Crowd On His Side When TEXAS Is Topic

With "Texas" as his topic and speaking to a bunch of Texans, native and adopted, Frank Crippliver of Wichita Falls, made a big hit at luncheon last Tuesday when the Iowa Park Lions met to roar and growl some more. Frank didn't need an introduction but he was sponsored, howbeit reluctantly, by D. O. Smith, Lion in charge of the day's program.

Starting with the size of Texas, Lion Crippliver began leveling down on what Texas has to be proud of and would be going yet if one o'clock didn't come around so regularly.

Not content with all the visiting speaker had to say, Lion M. C. Yeargan had to put in his two bit's worth by pointing out that Texas had been discovered by some three or four national magazines and was being currently featured by them, on the covers of two and in lead articles and series of articles by others. The fact that Mrs. Yeargan was a visitor at this week's meeting apparently had no power to suppress Mr. Yeargan's enthusiasm for Texas' favorite subject.

Biggest surprise to most members was Mr. Crippliver's statement that El Paso is the mining capital of the world, and he had facts and figures to prove it!

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Duke and Lou Ann took Miss Carolyn Duke to Denton, Sunday, where she is enrolled in North Texas State college.

Mr. Leroy Nichols and his mother Mrs. Hattie Nichols received an announcement of the coming marriage of her niece Miss Katie Lee Moore, daughter of Clifford B. Moore to Clarence Marley of Wichita Falls. The wedding will be in October.

★ KAMAY NEWS Valley View WSCS Studies about Hawaii

Monday noon the Valley View Methodist Annex was the scene of a beautiful and interesting luncheon planned around the five dependencies of the United States: Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Panama Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands.

The room and table gave one the feeling of visiting these places with grass skirts, leis, figurines, shells, coins, colored glass fish balls used to float fishing nets. The table with flowers, fruits and vegetables to represent different places completed the atmosphere of arctic and tropical climates. Place cards with the menu and program printed inside were shaped to represent Eskimo igloos.

Mrs. G. C. House, secretary of missionary education, presented the speakers during the meal. Each wore a lei to represent Hawaii, the study stressed at this meeting.

Mrs. Rex Wilkes of Little Rock, Ark., gave an interesting and informative study of the islands and their inhabitants.

Mrs. Bill Wade presented The Cross on Tabu with a background of Hawaiian music.

Mrs. Kenneth Guiley gave The Pastor of Tarawa and the more modern Hawaii.

Mrs. Clark Harrell gave the devotional, closing with the Lord's prayer.

Mrs. Doris Miller gave the invocation for the luncheon.

Menu for the luncheon listed Virginia Island fruit cup, creamed salmon a la Alaska, Puerto Rican yam puffs, Alaskan salad, U.S. rolls, Hawaiian fruit cake, beverage of Panama Canal Zone.

Group singing of Aloha and America was led by Mrs. Roy Layke accompanied by Mrs. Paul Coppock. Mrs. Swan Reeves registered each member and guest. There were 36 women present.

Everyone will look forward to our next study of our neighbors across the blue, which will be in two weeks. Come join us, won't you?

HAWKS PROVE TOO STRONG FOR HENS

Iowa Park closed out pre-conference schedule at Henrietta last Friday, taking the measure of that team by a score of 13 to 12. Although outclassing the Hens at most every phase of play, fumbles kept the Hawks from piling up a large score.

Defensive work of the team was especially good, and but for two lapses would have resulted in shutting out the opposition without a score.

Henrietta broke the scoring ice when a fumbled punt was recovered near the Iowa Park goal line, from where Henrietta circled the Hawk left end for a score.

Iowa Park then dug in for some real ball carrying and pushed across two touchdowns. The most beautiful run of the season to date was made by Jackie Banks, who took off from our own 15 or thereabouts and went the distance, aided by a few downfield blocks. Our first conversion attempt was successful and provided the winning point.

Don Paul Lemons lugged the ball into pay dirt for Iowa Park's first touchdown.

A pass thrown in the late minutes by Henrietta was caught almost on the ground and gave Henrietta a second touchdown opportunity. The try for point was blocked as Iowa Park fans — seemingly hundreds of them — held their separate and collective breaths.

★ JUNIOR NEWS

We are real juniors now and happy as can be. We have had our first class meeting and elected officers and room mothers for our junior year of '49. Our officers are as follows:

Jerry Cope, president.
Don Paul Lemons, vice-president.
Katie Merle Sumrall, secretary.
Virginia Pattney, treasurer.
Betty Perry, reporter.

Room mothers are Mesdames Joe Cope, L. B. Lovell, L. C. Perry, J. L. Worrell and Chauncey Weiler.

Teacher sponsors are Miss Howard and Miss Linton.

It hasn't taken us long to be convinced that if a year of geometry makes one eligible to be a senior one certainly deserves it. (That is if you pass.) We know now what's the matter with the seniors. It's already driven us half crazy.

Oh yes, we are also having a little trouble concentrating on history. Not that it's dull, it's just that when we read history our minds are on other things, or at least that is the way our teacher explains it!

Please don't get me wrong, we are really very pleased with our classes, even a little happy about geometry and history. I guess it's because it's all a part of being a junior.

We are planning on a very wonderful and successful year.

The Junior Reporter.

New Man at Famous, Wife To Open Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Smith of Bowie are new residents of Iowa Park. Mr. Smith will be connected with the Famous store as salesman in the men's wear department. He has made selling men's clothing a lifetime work.

Mrs. Smith will open a portrait studio at 105 Park. She has had 15 years experience in this work and comes here highly recommended for her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith said this week that they prefer a small friendly town and Iowa Park's reputation had brought them here. They are both members of the Methodist church. Mr. Smith was a steward in the church at Greenville for 10 years.

Frank Wendt Lauds Farm Bureau at Meet

"Farm Bureau has the most constructive program in the way of legislation and the largest numbers in membership to make that program work of any group organized in the interest of agriculture," said Frank Wendt, Wilbarger county extension service agent, as he talked to officials of the Wichita county Farm Bureau in their meeting last week on the lawn at the Methodist church in Iowa Park. County President George A. Lewis introduced the speaker and presided during the session.

Wendt reminded the group that Farm Bureau was new, that it has not yet scratched the surface so far as its possibilities for good are concerned, and that its inclusion of so many small groups in its membership, such as the fruit growers, the cotton farmers, or the dairymen, all welded into one organization, gave promise of a power for good in the future.

Max Carpenter, Wichita county agent, commended the Farm Bureau on its intensive efforts to maintain support prices for commodities. T. J. Pace, county organization chairman, followed with an urgent appeal for everyone present to invite others to the district three meeting in Wichita Falls on October 1, when more such information will be forthcoming and workers will be inspired to participate in the fall round-up.

The Sewell Scholarship Fund, which is used for polo research, was presented by Mrs. George Lewis, president of the Associated Women, and the group voted to send an offering from the county treasury.

District three director, Loys D. Barbour, outlined the program for the district meeting and the state meeting at San Antonio in November, when resolutions will be drafted to be sent to the American Farm Bureau Federation, from which will be formulated the policies of the national organization. He emphasized the fact that local groups must get their resolutions in to the Texas Farm Bureau before the opening of the state convention. In this way it is the man on the farm or on the ranch who really says what shall be the program of endeavor of the Farm Bureau.

Changes in requirements of Blue Cross enrollment were explained by Mrs. H. L. Hines, group representative for Wichita county Farm Bureau members. After April 1, 1949, there will be only one enrollment period during the year, instead of four as has been allowed previously, though the Blue Cross members may continue to make their payments on the quarterly basis, or by the year, if they choose.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minick and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evert of Burk Burnett; Max Carpenter of Wichita Falls; Frank Wendt of Vernon; Edd Hennig of route one, Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. M. L. Hines, John Wesley, T. J. Pace and Mr. and Mrs. Loys Barbour of Iowa Park.

T-O FAIR ENTRANTS ARE PILING IN; ALL PLANS WORKING OK

If ever a man was busy, real busy, he probably looked like a slow motion picture compared with the gyrations of one G. R. McNeil, secretary-manager of the 1948 edition of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair.

Everywhere G. R. goes he is in a long lope, quarter horses go too slow, for this man with a hundred thousand things to attend to and not enough hours in the day to get them all done.

But, when the Fair opens on Monday, October 4, somehow he will have done them and everything will be in readiness for a glorious six days and nights in Iowa Park.

The Victory Exposition Shows are showing in Altus the week preceding our Fair and will be on hand with new rides, new shows, new ways to entertain the expected hundred thousand visitors to our mammoth exposition.

Nineteen community exhibits are already arranged for and, with late registrations, will be set up, decorated and prettied for viewing.

Two countywide exhibits will be here, one from Clay and the other from Wichita county.

Senior class and junior class students, sponsors and room mothers are rapidly completing all their plans to serve hamburgers, drinks and other foods to starving and thirsty patrons.

The Amvets will have their booth running at full capacity, and other organizations will go all out to make the fair an enjoyable treat.

Quarter horses from far and near will be on display in the new barns and in the arena and on the racing track.

Dairymen of this area are choosing their entrants and preparing for one of the best displays of fine Holsteins and Jerseys ever brought to the Texas-Oklahoma Fair.

Herds of the very best strains in Texas and Oklahoma will draw thousands of open-eyed visitors to see what their steaks and roasts look like on the hoof.

Industrial and oil field exhibits have been arranged for and will be in place by opening day.

Two of the most interesting divisions are the women's exhibit and the 4-H clubs. These are always well attended and worth seeing and the 1948 show will be no exception, according to Mac, who assures us that they both will have full representation.

Weeds and grass on the Fair grounds are being brought under control and if all interested citizens will just wish hard enough we can get a nice soaking rain just ahead of the annual extravaganza—then all can enjoy the six days of being hosts to the largest crowds in history.

Business Women To Have Own Circle

Women-of-the-Church met at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening for supper and an inspirational address by Mrs. J. M. Shepard of Dallas, president of the Women of the Church of Dallas presbytery.

Purpose of the meeting was to organize a Business Women's circle, and prospective members heard an interesting discussion on the set-up and objectives of such an organization.

Mrs. Gale Lowrance, president of the local Women of the Church, appointed Mrs. Tom Covington as temporary chairman. The first meeting of the Presbyterian business women was set for Wednesday, Sept. 22.

The supper committee included Mrs. B. L. Burgoyne, chairman, Mrs. King Abernathy, Mrs. Chester McManus, Miss Clara Lowrance, Mrs. T. A. Ulrich and Mrs. L. Shelton. Flower committee was Mrs. Gayle Park; reception committee, Mrs. May Turner and Mrs. C. E. Birk.

Miss Cecilia Yeargan made the small folders with a replica of the local church building on their covers which were placed at each plate.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minick and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evert of Burk Burnett; Max Carpenter of Wichita Falls; Frank Wendt of Vernon; Edd Hennig of route one, Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. M. L. Hines, John Wesley, T. J. Pace and Mr. and Mrs. Loys Barbour of Iowa Park.

Mrs. Horsley Talks of Hawaiian Customs

"The Land of Hawaii as I Experienced It," was the theme of what proved to be a most interesting and enlightening talk given by Mrs. Marguerite Ralston Horsley to members of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, Monday afternoon, as she told of her year's residence in the islands. She was introduced by Mrs. Arch Hughes, leader for the day, as the group met for their second lesson on "Our Geographical Frontiers."

Mrs. Horsley described the features of certain islands. One is devoted exclusively to the growing of pineapple, another to sugar cane, and still another is inhabited by goats, because the volcanic formations made it a rock island. Four congregations of Christians — Methodist, Congregational, Baptist and Episcopal — attended the services at the church where she worshipped, ministers taking Sundays about, serving in the pulpit, and people of the various creeds and colors participating.

During the question and answer period which followed, entered into heartily by the women present, Mrs. Horsley revealed that the girls of Hawaii are beautiful, that they mature early and are beginning to be "old" at twenty; and that the music the Hawaiians enjoy is beautiful. She said their dancing is graceful, slow, rhythmic and lovely, and only as others have commercialized it does it become the least bit suggestive or vulgar.

Following the devotional period conducted by Mrs. Hughes, featured by the thought that "In Christ there is no East or West," Mrs. Joe Bell offered prayer. Mrs. C. J. Simpson told of the beginning of the missionary movement in Hawaii, leading up to the fact that today the Catholic church is still the strongest in point of numbers in the land and that there are many of the Mormon faith.

Mrs. S. L. Denny gave the prayer of dismissal. Those present were Mesdames Herman Mahler, Kirk Beard, Richey Abernathy, Hugh Thompson, Dan Sunday, W. E. Stockton, James Sewell, Miles Thompson, L. C. Perry, L. A. Teal, C. W. Coppock, Arch Hughes, M. L. Smith, Roxie Hall, B. O. Gilstrap, Neil Johnson, W. A. Litchfield, T. J. Pace, E. B. Taylor, Carl Sullivan, Joe Bell, S. L. Denny, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Horsley.

Illinois Is Land of Slogans Expressing Local Interest

From its southern tip to its northern boundary, Illinois is a land of slogans. Beginning at the southern edge of the state, in Alexander county, the tourist on a 1,500-mile circuit of Illinois will encounter almost as many slogans as there are counties and cities. Passing through "The Gateway of the South," better known as Cairo, the traveler will meet in turn "The Trade Center of Egypt" (Herrin), "The Home of the White Squirrel" (Olney) and "The Sweet Corn Capital of the World" (Hoopeston).

From Zion to Galena across northern Illinois, the slogan-way is paved with "The Milk Center of the World" (Harvard), "The Best Little Town on Earth" (Polio) and "The Switzerland of America" (Galena).

In a southerly direction, Sterling-Rock Falls is known as "The Heart of American Hardware," Moline as "The Farm Implement Center of the World," Petersburg is "The Heart of the Lincoln Country" while Springfield is simply "The Capital City." Shelbyville and Mount Vernon, however, are verbal opposites; the former "The Queen City," the latter "King City of Egypt."

That slogans may change with a new generation fits the case of Berwyn. "The City of Homes," dictated by an ordinance prohibiting industry within the area, has given way to a recent and determined "Going Places." Buckley in central Illinois decided on "Home of the Dutch Masters" as its dual tribute to a large number of German descendants living there and to the repeated success of its baseball team. Joliet, however, attributes its community nickname to the high school band and expectations of being a "City of Champions" for many years to come.

Hawaii, Chain of Islands, Extends for 1,500 Miles

Many mainlanders visualize Hawaii as one island, forgetting momentarily their Pacific geography. As a matter of fact, the Hawaiian archipelago is a cluster of islands. The entire chain extends 1,500 miles diagonally across the Pacific, from tiny Ocean Island on the northwest to the Island of Hawaii on the southeast; but the eight islands of the main group are encompassed in a distance of 400 miles, with a combined land area of about 6,400 miles.

Semi-tropical, the islands lie just below the northern limits of the Tropic of Cancer. The five principal islands of scenic interest to the visitor are Oahu (site of Honolulu), Kauai, Maui, Hawaii and Molokai. All different, these five islands present a variety of attractions unparalleled in the world. All have been highly developed, especially agriculturally. Comfortable resorts and good roads have brought many unspoiled beauty spots within convenient range of visitors in the last few years.

Oahu's points of interest are by no means limited to Honolulu, although city and suburbs alone hold varied attractions.

Carbon Monoxide Liberation

It is not always easy to tell when an appliance is liberating carbon monoxide through incomplete combustion, but certain things may well be regarded as warnings. Any odor (which does not come from grease, varnish or other material about the flame to which the odor can be definitely ascribed) is a cause for suspicion. Of course, carbon monoxide has no odor; but when any odorous substance is liberated from the flame it is pretty safe to assume that carbon monoxide is liberated, too. The usual odor accompanying the liberation of carbon monoxide is slightly irritating to the membranes of the nose but is not particularly unpleasant when not too strong. Many people will identify the odor at once as that given off by a plumber's or tinner's gasoline torch. It has no resemblance to the odor of the unburned gas. Unfortunately the absence of any odor is not a positive indication that carbon monoxide is not being liberated, even in dangerous quantity.

Foreign Trade Zones

With the opening of Foreign Trade Zone No. 3 at San Francisco the United States for the first time has a "free port" area on each coast, Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico and Pacific. Foreign Trade Zone 1, at the Port of New York, first beckoned import business to piers at Stapleton, Staten Island, in 1937. Function of the zones is to provide space under federal supervision at thresholds to the country where dutiable imports may be stored and processed to a limited degree, duty free, pending the importer's decision on what to do with them. Manufacturing and exhibiting in American foreign-trade zones is forbidden. But imports may be regraded, cleaned and otherwise "manipulated" and repackaged for shipment.

America's Meat Prospects

Amount of meat that will be available to the American consumer during the next few years remains a question mark. The peak in per capita supply was reached last year. The records show that there were 155 pounds of pork, beef, veal, lamb and mutton for each person in this country during 1947. That figure compares to 138 pounds per person for the five-year average from 1935-39 and a probable per capita total of 144 pounds this year. Just how much meat will be available depends on hog production during the next few years.

Uncle Sam Says

Can you keep on the "up" side of life's see-saw? The bumps come when you are on the "down" side and they aren't funny. For most of these bumps are financial ones and they hurt, unless you cushion the shock. Millions of Americans have discovered the safe, automatic pillow against financial bumps. That pillow is U.S. Savings Bonds. By allotting only $2.50 a week, you will accumulate $1440.84 in ten years. There are two convenient methods for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank.

Mary-Martha Circle Installs Officers

The Mary-Martha circle of the Iowa Park Baptist church held an important business session Monday when the following circle officers were installed: Co-chairmen, Mrs. H. I. Tatom and Mrs. M. L. Brubaker; Bible, Mrs. Donald Hill; benevolence, Mrs. E. J. Jenkins; missions, Mrs. E. A. Jones and Mrs. Roy Smith; mission study, Mrs. Jim Miller; stewardship, Mrs. Virgil Woodfin; secretary, Mrs. P. A. Blaylock, who led the closing devotional.

Mrs. J. T. West taught the Bible lesson for the Ruth circle at the home of Mrs. Herman Mitchell, who presided. Prayers were led by Mrs. Curtis Hill, Mrs. James Easterwood and Mrs. J. C. Searl. It was voted to hold no meeting during Fair week. Present were Mesdames Carroll Duke, Ralph Stone, Earle Denney, J. C. Searl, J. T. West, Lila Traylor, O. M. Jones, Curtis Hill, James Easterwood, Charles Metz, R. R. Brubaker and Herman Mitchell.

Mrs. Sam Hill taught the mission lesson Monday when the Sallee-Morgan circle met with Mrs. Addie Harris with Mrs. J. A. Berg presiding. Mrs. Ada Curry led the opening devotional. Those present were Mesdames Ada Curry, Fleetwood Bell, L. N. Lechridge, Sam Hill, Sam Ferguson, Aaron Brubaker, J. A. Berg, U. G. Farmer, Harris and Linda Jo Thompson.

All women of the church are invited and urged to attend an important all day meeting at the Baptist church Monday. The annual Mary Hill Davis week of prayer for state missions will begin with a program of the Sallee-Morgan circle at 2:00 p.m. preceded by the mission program at 10:00 a.m. by the Mary-Martha circle. A luncheon will be served at noon. The hours for the week's program will be announced at the business meeting, including installation of new officers during the day.

N. E. Guthrie Surprise Party Is Enjoyable

Guests from Fort Worth were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bennett and son Tommy; and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ferguson and son Robert. They were here for six o'clock dinner and then the surprise came with it ends coming in. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nance of Santa Monica, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Linden Moore of Bovina were at the party.

Other guests were Jack Brown of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Ruth Kirkland and daughter Jo; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Chandler and daughter Mareta; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ketchum; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ketchum and son Bobby; H. M. Mulkey; Mrs. Della Sims and Mrs. Janice Patterson.

Forty-two was played and Mr. Guthrie received many lovely gifts. Sandwiches, coffee and birthday cake were served. Mrs. S. E. Ketchum, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Sims were hostesses of the surprise party.

The D. O. Jameses have a lovely new bathroom, fixtures bought at Bradford's Hardware. Also inlaid linoleum and congo-wall. The living room where the family spends a great deal of time is floored with inlaid linoleum from Barney Bradford's.

SENIOR NEWS

Maybe our junior year wasn't entirely wasted because Jimmy Miller and Jerry Rogers are quite smart in bookkeeping. Jimmy Miller slept one whole period behind his book and Jerry, when asked what was a general journal, replied: "Someone you have to salute." After a vigorous response we settled back to our studies.

Benton's been hunting the friend who betrayed him yesterday by revealing his real name. In case you are wondering, it's Elbert Lewis. I don't blame him for trying to keep it a secret.

Lucy Lee enjoyed the Hardin college game Saturday night, very much. After it was over, she didn't even know the score. What occupied your mind, Lucy? It couldn't have been the game.

Mrs. Howard has a new method for catching the football players after the game. We're gonna try it next time and see if it really will work. Although we'll all have to stick together. (In more ways than one.)

RALLY DAY SET FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Those "See You in Church Sunday" stickers which may be seen about Our Town are reminders to all, regardless of denomination or no church affiliation, that the congregations of the community are awake to the privilege and the responsibility that are theirs, and that they are beginning a new year of religious activity, just as do the schools and organizations, with the fall season. Christians the world around are facing new and tremendous tasks and they are realizing that the need for united Christ-like endeavor is greater than ever before.

It is estimated that 50 per cent of the members of the average church seldom or never attend the church services. It is as important to reclaim these inactive members for Christ and to real participation in the program of religion as it is to secure new members.

September 26 has been designated as Rally Day in many churches. In the local Methodist church it is called "Widen the Circle Day," and church school classes are busy contacting absentee members and seeing prospective members.

World Wide Communion Sunday, October 3, will be observed by all Christians around the world. Millions of people of different races, creeds, and lands will join in prayer and consecration. Christians of all communions on every continent will remember our Lord's passion and death. May every church forget denominational differences, nationalism, jealousies, hatred and war, as they gather around the Lord's table.

Your pastor, your Sunday school superintendent and your teacher will extend to you a welcome. Let everyone attend the church of his choice on World Communion Day, October 3.

We hope to — See you in church Sunday.

Local Draft Work Closed with 198 Men

Boys in this area who become 18 years of age from time to time will not register in Iowa Park, but must go to the Wichita county draft board at 919 1/2 Scott street in Wichita Falls, according to Al Reed, who has been in charge of registration here.

During the regular registration period when Iowa Park boys signed up here, 198 were registered at the city hall under the supervision of Miss Doria Smith and Mrs. M. C. Yeagan.

In announcing the change Mr. Reed stressed the fact that men who are reaching 18 have but five days in which to comply with the federal draft regulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sawyer lifted the first shovelful of dirt this week for a new home they are building at 321 East Washington.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Nicest Compliment I've Had

One of the nicest comments I've received about this column was from an editor in the Middle West I called on. And while I don't like to give myself orchids, I think it illustrates a point.

"Joe," he said, "it so happens I don't agree with everything you say, but I always like to run your column. Because it gets down to earth and talks about the right to disagree. And it only asks for tolerance towards the other person's point of view."

He went on to explain, by way of illustration, that he never had happened to have a taste for a beer. But that when I spoke of the first to enjoy a moderate beverage like beer, well, he was right there with me!

And from where I sit, that's the important thing: not whether you share another person's tastes or point of view—but whether you recognize his right to exercise a free choice in a free land.

Woodall Named As Board Chairman

The official board of the Iowa Park Christian church met Wednesday evening for re-organization, following re-election of the old board last Sunday. Bill Sawyer was an additional member named by the congregation at the morning worship hour.

Officers named by the board to serve during the next church year are Rollins Woodall, chairman; George R. Huckaby, vice-chairman;

John B. Barbour, treasurer; Vernon Loveall, secretary; and Mrs. E. E. Wallis, financial secretary.

A. L. Reed was named superintendent of the church school with Bill Sawyer as his assistant.

The need of junior deacons was brought before the board by its retiring chairman, Dr. T. M. Clark, and work toward selection and enlistment of the young workers will be done in the immediate future.

BILLY RAY BANKS REBURIED IN HOME TOWN CEMETERY

Reburial services were held Friday, September 10, at the Cobb cemetery for Private Billy Ray Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Banks of Iowa Park. The body of Private Banks returned home four years after he had given his life in battle for his country, being killed in action on August 1, 1944, in the grim battle of the Bulge.

His body was escorted homeward by Cpl. Percy S. Deviney of the U. S. Army. After the arrival in Thornton the remains, in a flag draped casket, was brought to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. N. H. Banks, until the service at the cemetery, where Brother J. C. Tate, minister of the Wichita Falls Church of Christ, officiated. An impressive service recalling the highlights of the short life of Billy Ray was before a huge crowd and manifested by beautiful floral tributes.

Billy Ray was a native of Thornton, having been born there April 7, 1925. At the age of 9 he moved with his parents to Iowa Park where he attended school and graduated in 1942. It was during these years that he gained the love and esteem of all his teachers and friends. He was voted the most handsome and also the most representative boy of the school and lettered in football for two years.

He entered the service in November, 1943, receiving his training at Ft. Sill, Okla. In April of 1944 he went overseas and the following August was killed in action.

In addition to his parents, Billy Ray is survived by two brothers, Jack and Jimmie, and two grandmothers, Mrs. N. H. Banks of Thornton and Mrs. J. L. Fenner of Wilmington, Calif.

Among the many relatives and friends attending the funeral service were Mr. and Mrs. James Fenner and Mrs. Mildred Lambert of Iowa Park.

Bids Are Requested For Post Office Lease

E. E. Wallis, postmaster, is receiving bids for lease of post-office quarters for Iowa Park. The present lease expires soon and if not renewed will necessitate a move.

Floor space of about 1600 square feet is needed. Important considerations are a reasonably central location, good daylight, and accessibility to rear or side entrance for mails.

The post office department reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to negotiate further for better terms, or to endeavor either before or after the closing date (October 15) to secure offers on other suitable properties.

Interested property owners can obtain further information from Mr. Wallis at the post office.

Miss Jane Gauntt Graduates, to Start Work in Philadelphia

Iowa Park friends are justly proud to hear that Miss Jane Gauntt, one of their own hometown girls, has made good, completing the post-graduate course in surgery at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, Md., on September 20. After 1 she will be the registered nurse for Dr. Royall Moore, bone specialist, in Temple university hospital at Philadelphia.

Jane is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Gauntt and granddaughter of Mrs. S. L. Denny.

She received her R.N. at Methodist hospital in Dallas, worked for some time in surgery at Wichita general in Wichita Falls, then entered Johns Hopkins for specialized training. She was asked to remain there after graduation but chose the work in Philadelphia.

During the time intervening between graduation and October 1, Miss Gauntt is the guest of Mrs. Frank Rothhoff, the former Miss Genevieve Ellis, who now lives in Buffalo, New York.

Nomads of Avrudaka Meet in Iowa Park

The Nomads of Avrudaka consisting of members from Wichita Falls, Electra and Iowa Park met Friday night, Sept. 17 in regular monthly session at the K. P. hall in Iowa Park with Rani Millie B. Smith of Electra presiding. Other officers present were Princess Jewel Evans, Treasurer Lorraine Ackerman, Second Warder Fannye Riley of Wichita Falls, Rishi Vida Adkins, Scribe Hilda Music, First Warder Cora Youree of Electra, Pundita Mary Butcher, Saman Lillie Butcher of Iowa Park. June Ford and Lu Huffman of Electra acted as Purohita and Rajah for the evening.

The next regular meeting will be at the Pioneer Lodge hall in Wichita Falls.

At the close of the evening lovely refreshments were served to approximately 20 members by the Iowa Park members.

Mrs. C. R. Baldwin left Sunday evening for a few days visit in Clarendon and Amarillo.

Mrs. O. E. Owens has been called to Buffalo, Mo., to be with her mother Mrs. Veta Greenwood, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hines are attending this week a meeting of the North Texas Conference of the Methodist church. Mr. Hines will represent the Iowa Park church as a member of the board of stewards and Mrs. Hines is interested in the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Going with the Iowa Park folk were Mrs. C. W. Monroe of Electra and Mrs. Fred Sehman of Wichita Falls. There are 31 churches in this district.

Guests in the Cecil Brown home over the weekend were W. M. Hooper, Mrs. Brown's brother, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wooten and family of Lubbock.

W. B. Roling of Odessa is visiting his brother Tony and Mrs. Roling.

Mrs. D. O. James attended the school of instruction for PTA officials held in Wichita Falls last week. It was an all-day affair with luncheon served at the health unit.

George Grundy, who works with Owens-Brumley in Wichita Falls, visited with his parents Tuesday.

Uncle Sam Says

Do you know the best way to assure your children a fine education? Possibly right now you are picturing them in a college cap and gown. But you must realize these will represent the entire cost of a college education. You need not wait until they enter college to start paying for it. Start now on the safe, sure-saving way with U.S. Savings Bonds. In ten years you'll have $4 to spend for every $3 you put in. There are two automatic ways for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds, your firm's Payroll Savings Plan, or, if self-employed, your bank's Bond-a-Month Plan.

Railways and Unions Disagree on Wages

Negotiations between representatives of the nation's railroads and the heads of 16 nonoperating unions over wages, a 5-day work week and penalty pay for all work on weekends and holidays collapsed last week.

No progress has been made toward a settlement since the carrier-union talks began on Sept. 8, a carrier spokesman said. Daniel P. Loomis, chairman of the western committee and spokesman for the carriers, said the demands of the workers were "too extravagant and unrealistic to warrant any prospect of a settlement through collective bargaining. We will have to let this matter take its course under the Railway Labor Act."

The 16 unions represent about one million railroad employees. They include such classifications as shopmen, maintenance workers, clerks and telegraphers. Negotiations are continuing on the wage demands of the five operating unions, representing about 300,000 engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen.

Mock Ceremony Held by Pythian Sisters

The Pythian Sisters of Romona Temple held the regular Monday night meeting this week with the help of Noreen temple of Electra.

After the business was concluded and presentation of the flag, a mock initiation was held with Viola Jinkins of Electra as candidate.

The floor work by the degree staff and ritualistic work was exemplified by both temples, due to the loyal work of each person connected with the order.

We welcome our friends to our temple and invite new members. We welcome you, Noreen temple, and appreciate your help.

Fifteen sisters were present from the Electra temple. They were Grace Thomas, Ethel Brown, Louella Barrow, Faye Waggoner, Flora Chaney, Mary Fowler, Lela Stroud.
