Woman struck by vandal

An Iowa Park woman was hospitalized for head injuries during a vandalism episode last week in the north part of the city.

According to police and individuals involved in the incident, a front window was broken about 11:30 p.m. last Wednesday at the home of Ron L. Henley, 603 W. Manes.

Shortly afterward, a window was broken in the back of Henley's home. There were reports later on in the night that windows to other homes in the neighborhood fell victim to the vandal.

At about 2:45 a.m. Thursday Henley said he was in the front yard of his home talking to Iowa Park police officers.

Mrs. Henley reportedly heard a noise in the back yard and went to the back door to investigate when she was struck on the head.

Mrs. Henley walked back through the house and called out to her husband. She then passed out in the yard, according to reports.

Henley said his wife was taken to Sheppard AFB Regional Hospital for observation. She was in the intensive care unit for several hours, said Henley, a captain stationed at SAFB.

Henley said his wife suffered a wound to the head about an inch wide and six inches long.

Doctors said the woman was lucky not to have suffered a skull fracture in addition to the severe concussion, Henley said.

Henley said from all indications his wife was struck with a club, possibly a blackjack.

Mrs. Henley was released from the base hospital July 1.

According to City Administrator Gene Britton there was an untrue report broadcast by CB radio Thursday night that a Jiffy store here had been robbed and a woman shot.

In other police activity officers were busy Wednesday morning helping clean up a mess created by someone with a can of red spray paint.

Obscene words were painted on the west side of the old Park Hotel and in the street near the hotel.

An outside sign at Beall Auto Parts also was damaged by the paint, and several cars belonging to Bill Bates Chevrolet were sprayed with paint, according to police.

Also last week police received a report from Gary Horridge, 1002 N. Fourth, that the back door to his garage had been pried open.

Police said a portable oxygen bottle, regulator and acetylene regulator valued at $190 were taken in the burglary.

Tractor pull is next week

Contestants from a three-state area will be vying for $5,000 in prize money and trophies Friday and Saturday of next week, when the Wichita County Young Farmers hold their second annual tractor pull.

The event, which has a farm equipment show added to it this year, will be held at the Wichita County Mounted Patrol Arena on FM 369.

Competition is to start at 7:30 p.m. both Friday and Saturday.

Exhibits by farm equipment dealers from throughout the North Texas area will be open free to the public, starting at noon the first day, and from 10 a.m. Saturday.

Admission to the tractor pull, which will feature top pullers from a three-state area as well as local farmers, will be $3.50 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Tickets will be on sale at the gate.

Competition will be open to pullers in three divisions, stock out of the fields, super stock tractors "souped up" and modified, non-factory built "hot rods". There will also be a contest for four-wheel drive pickups.

Council to meet Monday; school board will pass

Two weighty items await city council action Monday night, but there's not enough going on at the time for the school board to meet Tuesday.

When the city council meets at 7 p.m., aldermen will hear a report on the "status of application for sanitary landfill on Buffalo Lake property" and hear a rate increase request from Texas Electric Service Co.

Also on the city's agenda are consultation with auditors for 1977; electrical code ordinance; resolution on electrical permit charges; request for trash pickup at Country Sides Mobile Home Park; and purchase of a mower for the sewer department.

Other items may be added to the agenda prior to tomorrow's required posting date.

City officials are anxiously awaiting information, both locally and from Austin, on their application to locate a sanitary landfill to the southeast of Buffalo Lake dam.

The landfill site now being used by the city is beyond its capacity, and a new site is badly needed to be pressed into operation, according to reports made at earlier meetings of the council. One new site was approved by aldermen, but the land was sold and was no longer available to the city.

Time between the filing of an application and final approval can be lengthy, as long as six months or longer, while studies are made, reports filed and consideration by authorities is given.

Texas Electric Service has already filed notice with the city, requesting a rate increase of almost 25 per cent. There are some indications that the council might follow the action of neighboring Wichita Falls, and table the subject 120 days for study.

The school board for the past few years has not met during July, and according to Supt. Farris Nowell, if a meeting is held before the second Tuesday of August, it will have to be called.

The major delay of board action right now is awaiting the state legislature to go into special session to draft a new education bill. Every school district in the state is having to put off adoption of a budget, waiting to see what will be paid by state and what is needed to be raised through local taxes.

Nowell confirmed that he has "six or seven" teaching positions yet to be filled, including those of head girls and boys basketball coaches at the high school.

However, other than hiring of personnel and the need to adopt a budget, bill paying is the only other topic which would be on the agenda, where the board to meet its regular date next week, Nowell said.

New homes being built

Building permits were issued for two new homes, three storage sheds and one remodeling job, according to a report from the city hall of June construction.

June's total amounted to $60,650, an increase over the $51,139 for May, but far below the $103,888 in permits issued during June of 1976.

For the year, permits have now totaled $496,111. This is above the half-year total of $484,853 last year, but down from 1975's mid-year total of $582,451.

Permits issued during June were:

Swan and Kiser, 209 W. Valley, new residence, $20,000;
Dennis Sorey, 405 E. Washington, storage shed, $350;
Gratan Eiben, 106 West View, storage shed, $1,500;
E.P. Mier, 1208 S. Wall, storage shed, $300;
Roy Hammett, 421 Valley, remodeling, $200;
Rip Smith, No. 8 Surrey, new residence, $38,500.

7 students to receive degrees next week at FFA convention

Nine representatives of the Iowa Park Chapter of Future Farmers of America are to attend the 49th annual state FFA convention in Fort Worth next week, and seven of them are to receive the Lone Star Farmer Degree.

The convention, to start Wednesday and last through Friday, will be held in the Tarrant County convention center.

Attending will be Mike Jordan, chapter president, Richard Davis, advisor, Tim Kingcade, Randy Marston, Mark Conley, Dick Elliott and Ervin Beisch.

The Lone Star Farmer Degree is the highest degree a student can earn on the state level. To qualify a student must have been on at least five activities above the chapter level and made at least $500 from his project program.

All seven of the recipients were graduated in May.

Kingcade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kingcade, had as his projects program Sow for Pig Production, Pigs for Show and feeder pigs for Pork Production. A four-year vocational agriculture student, he was enrolled in the cooperative program the last two years, working for C.H. Mahler and Son Farms. Kingcade was student chapter advisor two years.

Marston had the same three pork projects as Kingcade, and also was a four-year Vo-Ag student. He worked two years for the 2-J Horse Farm under the cooperative program. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marston, Randy was chapter sentinel last year.

Another two-year cooperative student was Mike Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Jordan. He worked for the Wichita County Water Development District. He served as vice president and president of the chapter. His projects included Steers for Beef Production, Cow for Calf Production, Heifer for Development and Steers for Show.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williams, Greg Williams was a four-year Vo-Ag student and enrolled in the cooperative program his senior year, working for Ebner Brothers in Wichita Falls. His projects included Sow for Pig Production, Feeder Pigs for Pork Production and Pigs for Show.

Working for the Texas A&M Experiment Station his senior year under the cooperative program, Conley was also a four-year Vo-Ag student. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Conley, he had as his projects Cows for Calf Production, Heifers for Development and Steers for Beef Production.

Elliott had sows and pigs, a steer and turkeys as his projects. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elliott, he is planning to enroll at Tarleton State Univ. at Stephenville, where he will work on a degree in agriculture.

Beisch, who had cows and calves as his project through his four years in vocational agriculture, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Beisch, Sr. He was chapter vice president his senior year.

There'll be some new faces, again, in the Iowa Park High gymnasium this fall.

Coaches Mike Billingsley and David Williams have taken positions in the Wichita Falls school system.

Billingsley has accepted the head boys basketball coaching position at Rider High, while Williams will be the girls' varsity basketball coach at Wichita Falls High. Both are AAAA schools.

For the senior Hawk roundballers, Billingsley's replacement will be their fourth coach. They were under Bobby Butler as freshmen, Phil Harmon their sophomore year, and Billingsley last year.

Both Billingsley and Williams submitted their resignations just prior to the cutoff time. Had they waited until July, they could still have resigned, but would have required board action in order to accept another Texas school position.

The coaches held dual positions in local school athletics. Billingsley also served as varsity golf coach, while Williams was girls' track coach.

Mrs. Billingsley will continue to coach and teach in Iowa Park, according to her husband. She already has her contract for the coming year.

IN LIBRARY EXHIBIT

Australian-born artist featured

For a young girl who didn't excel in "reading, writing and 'rithmatic," painting offered a suitable alternative for native Australian artist Mary Palmer.

Mrs. Palmer, who has since become a transplanted Texan, will have her paintings on display during July at the Iowa Park Public Library.

Concentrating on conventional approaches, Mrs. Palmer's showing will include scenes of Australia and Texas and floral reproductions.

She uses oils and water colors with a sprinkling of graphics.

"It's been a hobby all my life," Mrs. Palmer said in an Australian-British accent which she has managed to maintain despite 35 years in the United States.

"I started in water colors because that was the main medium in Australia," she explained.

"I wasn't very good at reading, writing and 'rithmatic," she humored. "I always liked to do things with my hands ... had a grandmother that encouraged me."

Mrs. Palmer's background and love for nature is reflected in her work including animals, landscapes and people.

She was raised on a sheep ranch in the "outback" of southwestern Australia.

Aside from the three cosmopolitan cities - Sidney, Melbourne and Perth - most of Australia was described by Mrs. Palmer as being sparsely populated, even more so than the plains of West Texas.

Mrs. Palmer was educated at a private boarding school, not because of family affluence, but out of geographic necessity. Some of Mrs. Palmer's study peers lived 2,000 miles from the nearest school.

It is understandable why Mrs. Palmer was so impressed by the way

Texans travel.

The fact that almost everyone here has an automobile captured her attention, along with the large numbers of people.

"I love the red oil of Texas," Mrs. Palmer said while discussing her particular interests in recreating Lone Star scenes.

Although there is more color in the Australian landscape, Mrs. Palmer's critics often comment on the fact that she brings out colors in the land here few Texans analyze.

Asked how she became a transplanted Texan, Mrs. Palmer explained she met her husband, M.Sgt. (ret.) Walter B. Palmer, while he was stationed in Australia.

"We're both from the country," Mrs. Palmer said, adding her husband was born near San Angelo.

The couple now resides in a cabin on Lake Kickapoo.

GOD'S PROMISES TO DAVID

READING FOR STUDY - II Samuel 7.

God had selected Abraham to be the father of a special people, a people who were to become God's own nation, the Jews. We will leave the details of the history of the Jews to some later lessons and go on now to the time of another great step in God's plan: The making of God's Covenant with David.

David, called by God from being a shepherd, had many trials and adventures. After God had made him king of the Jews, David built a palace in Jerusalem, and there he lived and reigned.

When David thought about the way in which God blessed him, and then thought about the Ark of God which was still kept in a tent, he wanted to build a fine Temple at Jerusalem in which the Ark could be kept. (The Ark was a special chest containing the Ten Commandments, and having a cover known as the Mercy Seat, upon which God's glory shone. It was kept in a special tent called the Tabernacle. The Jews worshipped God only at the Tabernacle.)

David told Nathan, the prophet of God, what he wanted to do. Nathan told David to go ahead; but that night God spoke to Nathan, giving a special message for David.

GOD'S MESSAGE TO DAVID

Turn again to II Samuel 7. The most important part of God's message to David is in vv. 12-16.

Here God promises David a son (again we get that Jewish word, "seed," which means a son, or descendant).

He says of this promised son, "He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom FOREVER."

This was to happen after David's death, for it was to be "When thy days are fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers."

MORE ABOUT THE SON OF DAVID

Now David had a son called Solomon, who reigned after him in Jerusalem. But he was made king while David was still alive. And, of course, he did not reign for ever.

This promised son was to be a very special person, for God says of him (v. 14), "I will be his father and he shall be My son."

Turn to the first chapter of Luke. Here we read of an angel coming to a young woman - one of King David's descendants - and telling her that she would have a son.

This son was to be born, not through an earthly father, as all other children are, but through the power of God; for the young woman, whose name was Mary, was told (Luke 1, v. 35),

"The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

The angel also told Mary (Luke 1, vv. 32-33),

"He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David; And He shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of His kingdom there shall be no end."

Now we can see how the promise which God made to David was fulfilled when Jesus Christ was born.

1. God was His Father.
  2. He was to reign for ever.
- You probably have noticed how similar the promises to David are to the promises to Abraham. Christ's birth fulfilled them both as we see by going on to vv. 72-73 of Luke 1.

THE KING OF THE JEWS

Jesus was born to be a King. The wise men, when they came to worship Him, asked, "Where is He that is born King of the Jews?"

When Jesus was captured and taken before Pilate to be tried, Pilate said to Him, "Art thou the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered,

"Thou sayest it." (Mark 15, v. 2). That is the Jewish way of saying, "Yes, I certainly am."

As we have already seen, Jesus will come back to this earth to be King of the Jews, and to reign on David's throne.

Hastings-Stevens nuptials recited Saturday afternoon

Guests who witnessed the recitation of nuptial vows Saturday afternoon at First United Methodist Church by Miss Judy Anne Hastings and Jimmy Don Stevens received invitations that will forever be cherished by guests and bride and groom as one of the sweetest memories of the occasion.

The handiwork of the groom's father, a well known artist, the front cover of the invitations featured a black and white sketch of an old-fashioned wedding where a bride and groom were pictured with the minister in a setting with a cross the focal point of interest.

Welcome!

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fred Hastings and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stevens.

The white lace-covered bride's book was placed on a podium centered with a cross in the church foyer. Wedding guests were directed to sign the bride's book with a white feathered pen by Miss Darla Low of Dallas, cousin of the bride.

A musical setting was provided by Miss Penny McKay, pianist, and Coy Lee, vocalist, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" before the ceremony and "We've Only Just Begun" for the recessional. Miss McKay furnished accompaniment and played the traditional processional.

The Rev. Roger Deerinwater, pastor of First Baptist Church at Goree, was officiant for the double-ring ceremony performed at two o'clock. The altar decorations featured two handsome arrangements of white gladioli, multi-colored carnations and emerald greenery and seven-branched candelabra accented with white bows holding tall white candles.

As the bride was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage, she paused by her mother to present her with a pink sweetheart rose and she bestowed the same gesture of love upon the groom's mother following the ceremony.

The bride wore a formal gown of white Chantilly lace over peau de soie accentuating her youthful beauty. The bodice was highlighted with an unlined scalloped yoke dotted with pearls and sequins and full sheer sleeves cuffed at the wrists. The A-line skirt was distinguished at floor level with double ruffles that flowed into a brush train. She wore a lace-framed chapel mantilla of bridal illusion.

The Lady Gay style bridal bouquet was fashioned of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis, gypsophila, pastel-colored carnations and English ivy. The "something old" addition to her costume was a strand of pearls belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence Shook. She continued tradition by wearing the popular blue garter and a penny in her shoe. The "something borrowed" was not a part of the bride's costume, rather it was a white Bible borrowed from Mrs. Robert Hawthorne for the ring bearer to carry the rings on.

The bridal attendants wore dainty flocked voile gowns in shades of pink, blue, yellow and green. Their long dresses were styled with low necklines, short flared sleeves and high empire waists. Each carried a nosegay of mixed carnations with the color of her gown emphasized.

Mrs. John Clubb of Houston, the matron of honor, wore pink and Miss Carey Dale Roberts, maid of honor, wore blue. Bridesmaids, who were Miss Donna Cole of San Antonio, cousin of the bride, and Miss Laura Neeley who wore yellow and green, respectively.

Miss DeLayne Davis, the flower girl, wore a pink frock to match the gown worn by the matron of honor.

Robert Wayne Hastings, brother of the bride, carried the rings on a white Bible.

For his wedding, the groom chose an all-white tuxedo. His attendants wore white dinner jackets and shirts with black pants.

Jack Stevens served his son as best man. Participating as groomsmen were Wayne Schroeder, Ray Cook and Shane Kimbrow. Greg Hastings and Joe Stevens, brothers of the bride and groom, assumed duties of ushering and seating guests and they also lit the candles in the nuptial area.

The bride's mother wore a pink orchid with her pink double knit dress trimmed in white and the groom's mother wore a yellow orchid to accent her off-white dress trimmed in brown and white.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is a student at Midwestern State University and he is working at Wilson Mfg. Co. They are now at home in Wichita Falls following a wedding trip to Fort Worth, Dallas and San Antonio, the bride traveling in a beige jersey knit dress.

In high school, the new Mrs. Stevens was a three-year member of the varsity tennis team and pep squad, serving as mascot the last year. She belonged to FHA four years serving as an officer three years. She was also a Thespian and a member of girls choir.

The groom was a member of varsity football and track teams four years, baseball team three years and also played basketball. He was president of Student Council and class favorite two years, and class favorite two years.

After the wedding ceremony, the bride's parents honored the couple at a reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. They were assisted by Miss Susan Miller, Miss Lisa Stone, Mrs. Greg Hastings, Mrs. Gerald Stone and Mrs. Frank Ashby.

Focal points of interest in the reception room were the lace covered tables. The bride's table was draped with lace over yellow and a pink underlay on the groom's table was topped with lace.

Two-branched crystal candelabra holding yellow candles centered the bride's table. The three-tiered white cake was raised with one set of dividers and frosted with pastel roses to create the effect of a summer rose garden. On the top tier a miniature bride and groom were shown under a wedding bell as they passed through a luxuriant arch of lilies of the valley. The punch service was in crystal to match other appointments.

A nature bouquet consisting of pink bachelor buttons, baby's breath and earth tone leaves centered the groom's table which also held a basket of pink, blue, yellow and green net wheat bags stressing an ecology theme. The table decorations were completed with a chocolate cake topped with "Jim - Judy, July 2, 1977" in white icing.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Low and Travis and Mr. and Mrs. Margie Hartzell from Melbourne, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole from San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Veal Clayton from Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Roberts from Jacksboro.

Berardi-Sargent wedding vows read

Honeymooning in Colorado are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rhea Sargent who were married Saturday morning at Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church in Wichita Falls. The Rev. William J. Aaron, associate pastor, and Dale Foster, minister of Faith Village Church of Christ, officiated for the double-ring service.

The bride is the former Miss Cynthia Ann Berardi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Berardi of Wichita Falls, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sargent of Iowa Park.

Mary Ann Detrick, organist, played the traditional musical selections for the 10 o'clock nuptial vows recited at an altar decorated with bouquets of blue silk flowers, candelabra and greenery.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She was attired in a formal gown of white organza made empire style trimmed with exquisite Venise lace and satin. The low neckline was traced with seed pearls and pearl buttons and loops added interest to the front of the bodice. The skirt was finished with a deep hemline flounce.

The bride's illusion veil edged in seed pearls fell softly from a headpiece of lace and pearls. She carried a cluster of white orchids and feathered carnations.

Miss Debbie Eichman was maid of honor and Miss Renee Berardi, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore matching long gowns of blue crepe with capes edged in white lace. They wore baby's breath in their hair and carried long stemmed white carnations and baby's breath.

Pamela Kaye Berardi, sister of the bride, was flower girl and Timothy Berardi, her brother, was ring bearer. She wore a long blue crepe dress accented with a white eyelet inset on the front of the bodice and flared sleeves. He wore a dark blue tuxedo like the masculine participants in the wedding wore.

The groom, wearing an all-white tuxedo, was attended by his brother, Mike Sargent of Garland, as best man and Billy Sargent of Iowa Park, another brother, as groomsmen.

William Berardi and George Berardi, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The bride's parents hosted a buffet luncheon in the Parish Hall following the wedding. A separate white lace-covered table held the five-tiered wedding cake iced in the traditional manner with draped garlands, shell borders and cascades of blue flowers, and topped with a bride and groom to continue tradition.

Assistants at the reception were Miss Charisse

Carter-Pitcock marriage rites performed Friday

The double-ring exchange of wedding vows by Miss Lisa Carter and David Pitcock was an event of Friday evening at Faith Baptist Church. The Rev. Bill Campbell, pastor, was the officiant for the seven o'clock nuptials.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mark Carter of St. Petersburg, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pitcock of Iowa Park.

The couple repeated their vows in a setting dominated by a central arch graced with flowering dogwood and blue satin bows flanked by seven-branched Swedish steel candelabra filled with votive candles. Potted greenery formed the background for the arch. A large cross hanging above the baptistry back of the nuptial space enhanced the spiritual atmosphere.

Mrs. Sheldon Brown, pianist, presented a medley of prelude selections, the longtime favorite wedding marches and played "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction to the ceremony. Included in her selections were "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing", "Friendly Persuasion", "April Love", "With One More Look at You", "Hawaiian Wedding Song", "Speak Softly Love", "Twelfth of Never", "Love Story" and "Nadia's Theme".

The bride was presented in marriage by her grandfather, John Harper, of Wichita Falls. She wore a long white satin and Chantilly lace gown, the lace forming the deep-cuffed bishop sleeves and was repeated in a ruffled yoke and overlay for the wedding band collar. The skirt was accented with a wide hemline flounce headed with a lace ruffle. The bride's tiered illusion veil fell to waistlength from a Juliet cap dotted with seed pearls.

Completing her costume, the bride carried a lace-covered Bible topped with a colonial bouquet of blue daisies, white pixie carnations, gypsophila with trailing blue streamers.

Hidden in the Bible was a white linen heirloom handkerchief, which originally belonged to the groom's great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Bertha Garrett. It was loaned to her by the groom's mother for the "something borrowed" accessory. She wore a gold locket for "something old", the blue garter and slipped a penny dated the year of her birth in her slipper.

Miss Darla Pitcock, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She was attired in a peacock blue crepe gown designed with a high inset at the waistline and sleeves formed of double ruffles. She carried a single white carnation with cascading blue silk ribbons. Miss Lori Carter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a light blue flocked crepe gown styled with empire waist, double ruffles forming the sleeves and a self-sash that fell in streamers in the back. She, too, carried a white carnation tied with ribbons to match her gown.

Cliff Pitcock served as best man for his brother and Rick Kennedy of Haskell, the groom's cousin, was groomsman. Duties of ushering were assigned to Bruce Rohrbaugh and Mark Guffey of Anson.

The groom was attired in an ice blue tuxedo with white ruffled shirt and his attendants wore navy blue tuxedos with ice blue shirts. Mothers of the bride and groom wore white carnation corsages with their long gowns. Mrs. Carter wore a light blue crepe dress trimmed with embroidered lace at the square neckline and around the empire waistline. Mrs. Pitcock wore an aqua double knit gown with a beaded waist topped with a chiffon capelet bodice.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was draped with a delicate white lace cloth over blue and attractively skirted with ruffled peau de soie. Centering the table was the three-tiered bride's cake decorated with cascades of frosting blue and white roses with two sets of Grecian pillars separating the layers. A worthy addition to the confection was the top ornament formed of white satin bells finished with simulated pearls against a familiar heart traced with ribbons and lilies of the valley.

Further appointing the table was a white nine-votive cup candelabrum holding blue daisies and white pixie carnations, the crystal punch service and napkins imprinted in gold with the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date.

The groom's table was laid with a tasseled blue and white checked cloth and held the chocolate cake and silver coffee service.

Guests registered in the church foyer before the wedding at a table covered with white lace and linen squares. Mrs. Mary Bludnick presided at the bride's book.

Reception assistants were Misses Camin Kennedy, Sarah White, Julie Popejoy, Mrs. Jodie Kennedy and Mrs. Sheldon Brown. White crepe rice bags were passed out by Kelly Carter.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at El Babo's Restaurant.

Both the bride and groom attended Iowa Park High School. She is employed at Sonic Drive-In and he works for Taco Village. They will live in Wichita Falls. They went to Six Flags at Ft. Worth on their wedding trip.

Grandparents of the groom who attended the wedding were Mrs. Cora Donnell and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thorn of Anson. Mr. and Mrs. John Harper the bride's grandparents and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Harper, all of Wichita Falls were present.

Others attending from out of town were Messrs. and Mrs. W.C. Pitcock, Terry Shaffer, Terry Lee and Chris of Abilene; Carey and Wayne Rick of Houston, Mrs. Pat Guffey of Anson, Miss Renita Aldridge of Breckenridge, Mrs. Diana Wilkerson, Paula and Darra of Clinton, Fla.

The project which was one of expansion entailed work on the main floor to provide a sanctuary to seat 300 people, offices and class rooms.

Included in the group from Iowa Park who spent part of their vacation and paid their own way were Messrs. and Mrs. Harry Moore, C.A. Hicks, W.G. Partney, Charlie Heacox, Ken Hines, Kathy, Terry and Lori, John C. Cummings and Patricia, Wayne Williams, Virgil Woodfin, Mrs. Edna Lemond and Mrs. R.A. Williams.

Hardy, Ark., 617 miles from Iowa Park, is a town of 1,000 people with an outreach of 5,000 people in three resort towns. Three years ago, the First Baptist Church had a membership of 32, then it started to grow and today it has a membership of 200 with an average attendance of 170. The need for larger facilities became apparent with the growth, so plans for expansion were drawn up.

Realizing that they would need outside help to enlarge the building, the thoughts of members turned to Builders for Christ who participate in summer church building projects. The two Southern Baptist churches in Iowa Park are well known throughout the Southern Baptist Convention for their part in helping to construct or expand church buildings for the past eight summers, and C.A. Hicks is well known for his valuable advice in preliminary planning and construction. He was contacted, and seeing a real opportunity for Christian service he encouraged others from Iowa Park to participate in the project.

During the week, the builders erected the frames, inner walls, put the trusses up and did a lot of work on the platform, choir loft and baptistry for the 160 ft. by 42 ft. floor. They also did the decking and part of the insulation work.

The women of the group prepared the noon and evening meals in a school cafeteria eight miles away from the building site. A church bus was provided for men at the camp grounds to get to and from work and to the school cafeteria for their meals. John Cummings from Iowa Park drove the bus. This arrangement also made it possible for the women to have access to their cars when they needed to be at the cafeteria helping to prepare the meals.

A large number of local Builders for Christ will take part in a church building project at Creed, Colo. during July.

Mr. Bob Hamilton
Publisher
IOWA PARK LEADER
Iowa Park, Texas 76367

Dear Bob:

The purpose of this open letter is to offer sincere congratulations to you on being elected president of Texas Press Association for the coming year.

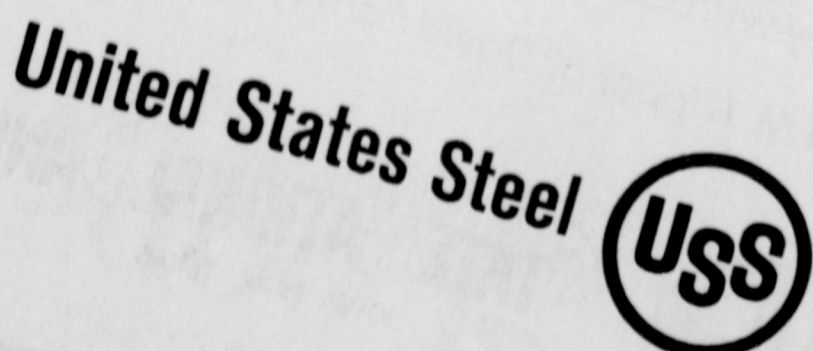

Through this public message in The Leader, your friends at U. S. Steel hope to call special attention in your own hometown to the fine recognition that you have brought to both Iowa Park and The Leader by being chosen by your fellow newspaper people over Texas for this important office.

We at U. S. Steel -- like others in the business community of Texas -- believe very strongly in our American private enterprise system, and we feel that one of the important safeguards of that system is a strong and free press. That is why we have always taken great interest in Texas Press Association and its dedication to keeping our state's press both strong and free.

That, too, is why we are proud to salute you personally as TPA's leader for 1977-78, and to thank you for the fine job you are doing for the Texas press and for the people of Texas.

Sincerely yours,

D. Sloan Hill

As I See It. . . .

by BOB HAMILTON

I usually stay with one topic each week in this column, but so many things have come up lately on which I'd like to comment, I'll just make this a "pot shot" run this week.

Let's hear some more from all those souls who lambasted singer Anita Bryant for her stand against homosexuals. I'm sure the queers are to be praised for their individuality, especially with the latest news out of California, where dozens of young boys are suspected of having been murdered by a couple of "gay guys". Bless their hearts. They contribute so much to society!

Well, our legislators are to get together again next week, to take care of the education bill. They're doing in special (expensive) session what should have been the first item on the agenda during the past regular session.

Everybody is blaming everybody, but it's the people "everybody" represent who pay the bill and suffer from delay.

There was not a more far-reaching, everybody-touching topic on the regular session agenda than the education bill. To my thinking, nothing else should have been taken up before that bill was decided and passed on.

The entire legislature and leadership got an "F" on that subject.

Roses and praise to Mr. and Mrs. Don Daugherty, for carrying on the old tradition of anvil shooting on July 4th.

The pair goes to a lot of trouble, and some expense, each Fourth, and they share the fun by actively inviting everyone to the big shoot.

It's a bang you shouldn't miss.

And speaking of big bangs, some more roses to Sheppard AFB. The base's July 4th fireworks display has probably brought more pleasure and enjoyment to the public than anything else in this part of the country.

Not only is it great to watch, but it saves parents money and worry.

U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger of New Braunfels will make an airport stop in Wichita Falls at 1 p.m. tomorrow. He's announced he will seek the Democratic party candidacy to run against Sen. John Tower next year.

We had a chance to visit with him over lunch while attending the Texas

Press Association convention recently at Galveston. He's an impressive man, in appearance, background, education, personality and as a speaker.

There are those who say he has the public attraction of John Kennedy.

Isn't it funny? Houston, largest city in the state and one of the largest in the nation and world, has been trying for year to get someone elected to a major political office.

They finally succeeded, State Supreme Court Justice Don Yarbrough.

And, sure enough, he turns out to be a rascal, just like all us smaller town folks figured would come out of that city.

Worth Quoting

The real difference between regulated and unregulated natural gas was spotlighted this week in the Permian Basin.

Some of our neighboring cities were officially notified of a quota-penalty system for gas consumption that goes into effect July 1st.

Kermit, Denver City, and Dumas are among the cities faced with the drastic curtailment of gas supplies because they are served by El Paso Natural Gas, an interstate carrier. It serves to point up the argument that we've made here in the past about Texans paying more for gas but able to get it while Yankees are paying less but can't get it.

As an interstate carrier, El Paso Natural Gas has been under federal regulations as to what it can pay producers for gas. Pioneer Natural Gas Company is an intrastate carrier - it serves customers located within the confines of the state border and is not regulated as to the price it can pay producers for gas. As a result of federal price controls, El Paso has not been able to buy any of the new gas discovered in Texas in recent months.

On the other hand, by paying the going rate, Pioneer has been able to consistently add to its gas reserves.

El Paso has charged a lower price for its gas than has Pioneer. But Pioneer has plenty of gas and El Paso doesn't.

It all came home to roost this past week.

Because El Paso has not been able to sign up any new gas contracts, it is limited in the amount of gas it can sell. So cities were notified that beginning July 1st, they will be placed on a quota penalty system.

The quota is based on usage of 1973-74, a year that featured an unusually warm winter. If the individual home uses more gas than he used in 1973-74, then he must pay a penalty for the overage.

And the price of the overage is a stiff $5.00 per thousand cubic feet. During a hard winter, it means that the average homeowner paying a $30.00 gas bill would suddenly be socked with a $100 or $125 gas bill.

But even more important, the quota penalty system severely limits the growth of any of the El Paso-served communities in that any new customers simply help to trigger the penalty clause.

Andrews is fortunate that its gas supply comes from an intrastate carrier like Pioneer whose higher prices reflect the contracts it has signed for new gas.

In the present gas rate hearing before the city council now, it appears that the average gate price billed by Pioneer to Andrews Gas Company was $1.24 per mcf in recent months which is about 40 cents under the going rate in Texas.

Because it is unregulated, Pioneer has been able to add to its reserves so Andrews is not faced with strict, limited growth or penalty clauses like our neighboring cities. It costs us more but at least we can get it when we need it without triggering a $5.00 per mcf penalty.

We're certainly not crowing over the plight of Kermit or Denver City. We sympathize with their situation but we're comforted by the fact that Andrews is not faced with a similar plight.

New member on board

L.A. Berend of Windthorst has been appointed to replace Robert Russell on the board of directors for Region IX Education Service Center. Russell resigned from the board with a year left in his term to join the Archer City School Board. The seven-member board appointed Berend after area superintendents nominated the 63-year-old rancher and owner of Berend Bros. Feed Stores. The superintendents were asked to nominate an outstanding citizen for service on the board.

"I hope to be of some help to the board and I appreciate the fact that the members think I'm capable of serving," Berend said.

In addition to presently serving on the Windthorst City Council and the Archer County School Board, the lifelong resident of Windthorst was president of the Windthorst School Board for two years and served on the school board for 10 years.

"Mr. Berend's years of experience in dealing with matters of public interest will provide the Region IX Education Service Center Board with additional insight," James Irl Montgomery, board president said.

The board includes Montgomery from Wichita Falls, James Kunkel from Olney, J.H. Jones, Jr. from Vernon, Hinds Clark from Nocona, Fred Parkey from Iowa Park and Hunter Jones from Wichita Falls. Dr. H.M. Fullerton is executive director.

Region IX is one of 20 Texas education service centers working with schools and communities.

The new schedules will result in a 23.63 percent increase in the adjusted gross revenue of the company.

Pair make honor roll

Dr. Miles Anderson, vice-president for academic affairs, at North Texas State University, has named 1,387 students to the spring semester honor roll.

Some 348 students earned all "A's" to make the 4.0 honor list, and 1,039 achieved the 3.5 listing, which includes those students whose grade average is midway between an "A" and a "B."

Iowa Park students listed on the 3.5 honor roll at NTSU were: Carla Elizabeth Murphy, the daughter of Lt. Col. Stuart T. Murphy, Route 2; and George L. Teel, the son of L.W. Teel, 1511 Rita.

Hot dogs can be frozen for up to two months.

"All of us at Texas Electric get electric bills too, and they're up. That's why I'm trying to use less!"

"My electric bills have gone up like everyone's.

Of course, working for Texas Electric, I'm more aware of how expensive new plants are and how high fuel is. But that won't solve my problem at home.

That's why I'm checking the weatherstripping around all my doors and the caulking around the windows.

I mean I could feel air under the door and I'm paying for it. So I put storm doors on and that really made a difference.

Gives me four inches of dead air. And that's a lot better than nothing."

Electricity. You count on it today. We're working to keep it that way.

Representing more than 77,000 members of the Texas FHA Association, she will be among approximately 1,500 delegates throughout the nation attending the four-day conference.

Theme of the conference is "Leadership '77 - Explore Roles, Set Goals." The objective is "To experience techniques for decision-making and assuming leadership roles as a homemaker/wage-earner." Through a combination of general sessions and small group workshops, delegates will focus on discovering and developing the leadership skills within themselves that are useful to them now as well as in the future.

Kathy is the 1977-1978 Area IV Secretary. Her advisor, Miss Linda Ayres, is also going to the national conference as an area sponsor.

City seeking hazard reports

Citizens of Iowa Park will soon have an opportunity to report on driving hazards in Iowa Park according to Gene Britton, city administrator. About 2,200 of the "Hazard Report Forms" will be mailed to utility customers during the July billing cycle.

The Iowa Park Citizens Traffic Safety Council and City of Iowa Park are anxious to use the eyes of Iowa Park citizens in helping to correct hazards on the city streets. A similar program launched last year in Wichita Falls has been very effective and has resulted in the correction of virtually hundreds of hazards in Wichita Falls according to Bob Draper, regional traffic safety coordinator.

Citizens receiving the forms in their utility bills during July are encouraged to fill in the cards, citing any hazard and return the cards either through the mail or drop them by city hall when they pay their utility bills. Additional hazard reports forms will be available at city hall for the reporting of additional hazards.

teaching adults simple housekeeping and simple cooking. Her hobbies include crocheting, creative stitching, reading and a cosmetic based on alvevera, a healing plant.

The Markees have two sons, Donald and Leroy, both of San Angelo. They have a granddaughter, Christy, two and a half years old. Her father, Lester Chapman, who will celebrate his 87th birthday July 18, lives with them.

Since the Rev. Markee has a wheat flour allergy, she has learned to center her cooking around recipes for food that he can eat.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Clyde Markee

Most every cook has a specialty that people bubble over, and Mrs. Clyde Markee's must be her Brown Sugar Oatmeal Rolls. They sound very versatile and can be formed into dinner, crescent or cinnamon rolls, thus providing either the bread or dessert for a meal.

Cottage cheese is one of the main ingredients in a salad that Mrs. Markee shares with us. The origin of cheese goes back into antiquity and it is thought possible that Arabians probably took canteens of milk along on their desert travels after the cow was domesticated. The constant motion of the camels could have caused the milk to form curds and become the world's first cottage cheese, according to some who have traced the history of cottage cheese.

Of course, cottage cheese-making is a lot more scientific today and many people have formed the habit of eating it because it has fewer calories than any standard variety of cheese, yet it is rich in protein, calcium and vitamins.

Mrs. Markee and her husband, who is minister of First Christian Church, have been in Iowa Park only a few weeks. The former Leann Chapman, she was graduated from El Dorado, Kansas High School. She attended junior college at El Dorado and later attended Phillips University at Enid, Okla.

The couple moved to Texas in 1967 and the Rev. Markee has pastored churches at Belton, San Angelo, Gruver and Lubbock, pastoring Bethany Christian Church for two and a half soft dough. Let rise until doubled; punch down and knead. Form into dinner, crescent or cinnamon rolls. Let rise about 2 1/2 hours. Bake 20 to 25 minutes at 375°. Makes 4 to 5 dozen rolls.

Note: 1 pkg. yeast may be used but rolls take longer to rise.

QUICK COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD

- 1 pkg. (3 oz.) gelatin, any flavor
  - 1 small carton cottage cheese
  - 1 medium size carton Cool Whip
- Mix undissolved gelatin and cottage cheese, add Cool Whip and blend in thoroughly. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

NO BAKE COOKIES

- 2 cups sugar
  - 1/4 cup cocoa
  - 1/2 cup milk
  - 1/2 cup peanut butter
  - 1 stick oleo
  - 2 t vanilla
- Combine first five ingredients and bring to a boil, stirring constantly for about 10 minutes. Add vanilla, 3 1/2 cups oatmeal and 1 cup miniature marshmallows. Mix thoroughly and drop by teaspoonsful on wax paper. Makes 4 to 5 dozen cookies.

HAMBURGER PIE

- 2 lbs. hamburger
  - 1 small can tomato sauce
  - 1 can green beans (drained)
  - 1/2 cup chopped onion or celery (optional)
  - 3 to 4 cups mashed potatoes
  - 4 slices American cheese
  - Salt and pepper to taste
- Brown hamburger and celery or onion. Add tomato sauce, green beans and seasoning and let simmer 10 to 15 minutes. Pour mixture into serving dish and spread mashed potatoes over top (instant potatoes may be used if desired). Top with diced cheese and cover until cheese melts.

OVERNIGHT CHOICE SALAD

- 1 cup pineapple juice
  - 2 T cornstarch
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 2 eggs
- Cook until thick, stirring frequently. Cool and pour over:
- 1 cup drained crushed pineapple
  - 1 cup miniature marshmallows
  - 1/2 cup diced American cheese
  - 1/2 cup nuts
- Let set overnight or at least for several hours.

DAY TO REMEMBER -- Last Friday will go down as a day to remember when a blustery cold front sent temperatures plummeting on the first day of July. At other locations in the area, the mercury dropped to 68 degrees when the chilly rain swept through the Iowa Park area.

First Christian pastor to be installed

Installation service for the Rev. Clyde Markee will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. at First Christian Church.

The Rev. James S. Oglesby, associate executive minister of the Christian Churches in the Southwest, with offices in Fort Worth, will bring the installation sermon and the Rev. Aaron Barker of Bowie will give the charge.

The Rev. Bill Campbell, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, will represent the Ministerial Alliance. Assisting with the service will be the Rev. Robert Ewing, pastor of Park Place Christian Church, and the Rev. John T. Muir, pastor of First Christian Church in Wichita Falls, Miss Lisa Watson, Karen Andersen and Billy Andersen.

Mrs. W.G. Steele will serve as organist and Mrs. Johnny Cole will present a vocal solo.

Rev. Markee was born on a farm in Butter County, Kansas. He attended school at Potwin, Kansas.

Before entering the ministry, he was engaged in general farming and cattle raising. He left the farm in 1960 to attend Phillips University at Enid, Okla., following his decision to enter the ministry. He received a B.A. degree in 1966 and attended the graduate seminary at the university during 1966-67.

While attending the university, Rev. Markee held two student pastorates, one at First Christian Church at Howard, Kansas and the other at Marshall Christian, Marshall, Okla.

He accepted a call by First Christian Church in Iowa Park March 27, 1977 and officially began his ministry May 15. Before coming to Iowa Park, he had held full-time pastorates at First Christian Church, Gruver, Lakeview Christian Church at San Angelo, First Christian Church at Belton and Bethany Christian Church at Lubbock.

Rev. Markee and Leann Chapman were married August 24, 1950. He describes his wife as a dedicated minister's wife and devoted mother who kept up a clerical or secretarial career as a co-bread winner while he was in school and during a period of almost two years when he was ill and had surgery.

They have two sons, Donald and Leroy, both of San Angelo. Donald is employed by Ethicon as a computer programmer and Leroy is employed by International Harvester in outside parts sales. They have a granddaughter, Christy, and Mrs.

Markee's father, Lester Chapman, lives with them. A reception will follow the installation service. The public is invited.

5 students attend camp

Five Iowa Park students were among 199 attending a drum majoring leadership camp at the University of Texas at Arlington recently.

They were Deanne Patterson, Eric Birk, Darlene Mahler, Chris Lester and Lynette Flick.

Students from throughout Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana attended the week-long session which focused on attitude and leadership. "It's more a leadership camp than anything else," said Bob Copeland, coordinator of the camp and director at Arlington's Lamar High School.

"I hope they'll really know what they're doing and be able to carry out and do what the drum major is supposed to do when they go back to their schools," he commented. "We try to teach them something that they'll have for the rest of their lives."

Sessions on jazz bands, twirling, percussion, cheer-leading choir, drill team leadership and marching band also are being conducted this summer at the University, located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.
