New Life for the New Year

by Claude McDonald, Iowa Park Christian Church

Oh, precious child made in the image of God,
We thank you for reminding us
As we stand before the opening gates of a New Year
That the gift of life is dear when given to Him.

A Miracle you are
Equipped with hands to hold and tongue to speak
With eyes to see and ears to hear . . .
A baby today—a father yourself—in a few short years!

But you are even so much more!
You are Soul to love and be loved
Spirit to know the Truth and be Free
And Will to give back to Him who gave it to thee.

As we look upon your tiny form
We envy you for your opportunity of untainted days.
Ours have been so filled with regrets,
Yet—your presence here gives us hope.

We are reminded that 'Tis bread lies
Not only a New Year with glorious days to be filled
With life and happiness and work to do
But with forgiveness and the chance for us, too, to grow.

The Babe's birth we just celebrated with evergreens and God's Special Gift to man, has changed it all. bows,
So we look to a New Year with joy
Expecting miracles of love even as you, dear baby boy!

In the most perfect sense of the word Thomas Aaron Hoffman was a miracle when born seven weeks ago to Thomas and Linda Hoffman, 1125 W. Louisa. Having been asked to write something about the Herald's New Year Baby for 1971, the author of the above visited for a few minutes in the home.

Mother had gone shopping and Dad had been commissioned with the responsibility of diaper changing and bottle feeding. I got in on both, and was thereby reminded in a first-hand way of memories dating back 18 years and more.

Thank God for children and especially newborn babes, for truly they do symbolize for us that in God we are all children and each new day we are given the opportunity to be born again in the Spirit as we ask forgiveness and give back our lives to Christ our Lord.

Although this child's first name is Thomas he will be called Aaron, his father declares. And many believe that each of us will daily find our strength in Christ in 1971, and receive life abundantly as we are willing to lose our lives in serving others in His Name.

Publisher's Note: We intended to print Thomas Aaron Hoffman's picture with this inspiring introduction by the Rev. Mr. McDonald, but the pictures of the youngster did not turn out well enough to make reproduction feasible. Claude says he is beautiful. His parents are well pleased. We'll just have to wait and get a better print of the youngster at another time. Forgive, please.

Good Friends, Jolly Times

For those of a sentimental nature, a custom observed each year by Harrel and Peggie Sullivan will be appealing. This will be the 18th time that 14 or more couples have gathered in their home on the evening of Dec. 31 to watch the Old Year out and the New Year come in.

Beginning with 7:30 p.m. they gather for a sandwich snack, continue with games and various kinds of entertainment, and about 11:30 have a period of devotion with singing, prayer and a talk.

Then, in order to assure a year of prosperity for all, they all eat black-eyed peas cooked in a great big pot.

Some present at the first year's observance have died, others have moved away and some have attended intermittently; but eight or ten couples have been present each time, or have not missed more than one year.

Included in that group are Mrs. Ruby Caldwell, Messrs. & Mmes. W. B. Shook, Ralph Beall, W. I. Lynn, W. D. Vesta, B. L. Bradford, Orange Lester.

HAPPY NEW YEAR GREETINGS TO ALL

Most people do not realize the great advantages they have by the banding together of folk into communities.

In the olden days a man and his mate established residence in a cave or in a tent. There they multiplied into a tribe with the older ones directing the lives and affairs of the offspring.

Things now are different. By the simple fact that a person is a citizen or a resident of Iowa Park, he is encompassed by the way of life here.

Firemen, volunteer neighbors, protect the whole community and outlying property from the disaster of uncontrolled conflagration.

Police protect his person from harm and his property from theft and molestation.

Water and sewer and garbage hauling are provided at reasonable cost. Electric power and gas supply are brought into his home and place of business under a contract of mutual benefit to him and the utility company.

At a fair price, the resident of Our Town can talk to any other person in the whole world—if he knows that person's name and address. He can write a letter to or address a package to anybody in the world and get either to the addressee post-haste.

We have made a list of some of the folk here whose principal interest it is to serve his fellow-citizens. Many of these kindly disposed persons do their service for no pay whatsoever. They have a way of making their own living and throw in unselfishly the bit for which we commend them.

Our readers will want to think of hundreds we are not including in the following list:

'Tis The Season To Drive Friendly

Certainly, the holiday time of year is "the season to be jolly." It is also the season to DRIVE FRIENDLY.

DRIVING FRIENDLY is a state-of mind in which we maintain a friendly driving attitude toward others. As such, it is also an expression of the spirit of the holidays.

So this holiday season we can DRIVE FRIENDLY by obeying traffic laws. We can DRIVE FRIENDLY by planning travel to avoid rushing. And we can DRIVE FRIENDLY by not driving and drinking.

Our streets and highways provide a convenient and pleasant means for all of us to join loved ones and friends during the holiday season. If we DRIVE FRIENDLY, the happiness of the season can be preserved for all of us.
