LOCAL TEAMS OPEN BASKETBALL SEASON WITH TWO WINS OVER FLOMOT HIGH SCHOOL

A new basketball season got underway here Tuesday night when the local High School teams took on the teams from Flomot.

The Pantherettes won the opener, 37-22 and then defending district champion Panthers clouted the Longhorns 106-28, in one of the highest totals ever run up by any team on the local hardwoods.

Janice Dudley popped the nets for 22 points to lead the Pantherettes to victory. Sharon Bailey canned a pair of field goals for 4 points Morzetta Vines, Judy Colvin and Chlonez Woods each chipped in with 2 points.

Jimmy Mayfield has been laid low with a bug and did not play.

Coach Roberts reports that the Panthers looked pretty good in the season opener. He regretted running up such a high score against our neighbors, but he played all the squad and you don't tell a team to just quit.

The Panthers were hitting well, dunking a 56% average as a team on their field goal shooting—in fact, their field goal shooting was better than the free throw average, dropping in only half their free shots.

Sammy Johnston led the scoring parade with 23 points; Jim Saul was runner-up with 15 points; Bob Morrison, a newcomer to the squad looked good as he scored a 14 point total; James Starkey hit for 13 points; Monk and Phelps each scored 11; A. B. Lyles hit for 10 points; and Jack Johnson made 9 points. Bob Saul saw action in the game but did not score. Cappy Wise was felled by a virus and could not play.

Next Tuesday night the two local teams will probably find out where they will stack up in this year's basketball race, since they journey over to Hedley to tackle an always tough team there. Last year the local teams did not fare very well against Hedley and they will want to avenge those losses. The teams would appreciate a bunch of fans going along with them to Hedley.

The following is the schedule for the Quitaque Panthers and Pantherettes as it now stands at the present time. Coach Jim Roberts hopes to be able to fill some of the open dates later on.

Lions Club Has Good Meeting Monday

(By G. R. Colvin) The Quitaque Lions Club had a Jim Dandy good meeting Monday night. There was lots of doings. In the regular order of business was an excellent meal of fried chicken, which was enjoyed by all except Lion Berryhill, who was too busy gripping to enjoy it.

Immediately following the meal a program on soil testing was presented by Briscoe County Agent Clarence Kerns in which he pointed out the necessity of testing the soil in order to apply fertilizer in the right amounts for the most economical return, and that there would be an effort to establish a soil testing program in this county for the next crop year.

The next thing on the program was Boss Lion Jimmy Davidson extolling the actions of the Directors at their morning meeting. There will be a "42" Tournament and Bake Sale sponsored by the Club to be held at a future date. Every Lion in the Club must bake a cake. To head up this enterprise will be a committee composed of Paul Bailey, Bud Bailey, Leroy Hamilton, and Glenn Sanders. If you will be real still, it is possible already to detect an aroma of culinary art emanating from that group.

One other item of business attended to was the announcement that the local Club was giving $25 to the new Eye Bank that is being started in this county.

Blood type cards have been returned and Bill Griffin and James Brunson have been detailed to make lists of the blood types here in Quitaque. Several of the lists will be available.

Another real gone committee came out of the Monday morning Directors meeting. This committee, composed of G. R. Colvin, "Fish" Wilson, O. R. Stark, and James Roberts, is to work up a play to be presented soon. That group, I am sure will have a few Oscars.

At last it happened. The long-standing civil debate between the Stark Pet Farm and the Berryhill Manicuring Service has been settled, to the satisfaction of most everyone.

It seems that Berryhill owed the Stark Pet Farm for services rendered by animals of the pet farm, and at the same time the Stark Pet Farm owed Berryhill Manicuring Service for services rendered by Berryhill and for complications resulting from the contact with the animals of the pet farm in rendering such services; namely an overdose of fleas to self and family.

After Kangaroo Court was held, which consisted of reading charges against each defendant and pronouncing the sentence, Stark Pet Farm was ordered to pay Berryhill Manicuring Service 25 cents, which went into the Kitty Fund. In addition, each was fined 25 cents.

IN-SERVICE TRAINING FOR TEACHERS

Supt. Johnny Mason announces that an In-Service training for faculty members will be held on the last Wednesday of each month.

On the days that these meetings are held, the buses will run at 2:30 and parents can look for their children home an hour or so earlier on these days.

The first meeting will be held next Wednesday, October 25.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY HOMECOMING ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

The warmest of welcomes was bestowed upon every guest present Sunday as the First Baptist Church of Quitaque came to the half-way mark in its first century of existence. Former and present members joined hands and hearts as they celebrated this great occasion in the life of the church.

Everyone present wore name tags because fifty years is a long time to be expected to put a name to a face that has not been seen for perhaps that many years. The registrars were busy, enjoying the occasion, and meeting new people. As the people entered the sanctuary, soft music was heard being played by Mrs. A. E. Gragson at the piano and Peggy Stevens at the organ.

Recognition of visitors was given by the pastor, Rev. Bob Beck. A responsive reading, "Rededicating a Church", was read by the congregation. A number of appropriate hymns were sung by the congregation, led by George Owens. The morning message was brought by J. Lowell Ponder of Dallas.

Immediately following the benediction after the morning services, the congregation assembled in the basement of the church for a bountiful feast prepared by the Quitaque ladies. Everyone present went back to the tables for second helpings and there was enough food left over to feed the crowd again. After the meal a period of visiting and fellowship was enjoyed by everyone.

About 2 o'clock the group assembled in the sanctuary again for two hours of varied program numbers. A trio composed of Mrs. Bob Beck, Mrs. Roy Burgess of Snyder, and Mrs. A. E. Gragson, presented a special in song. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Bedwell of Sunray, who was pianist for the church here for many years before moving to Sunray.

Several former pastors spoke for a few minutes to the audience, relating some of the experiences during their ministry here. Mary Johnnie Askey of Arizona, a missionary to the Navajo and Ute Indians, showed slides picturing her work, and also relating some very interesting events about her work among the Indians.

The day was a priceless experience, for instance, the widow of the church's first pastor, Mrs. Jim Hunt, recalled those early days in 1911 when six Baptists organized the first Baptist Church in Quitaque. This most honored guest now residing in Brownwood, Texas, is one of two living charter members of the First Baptist Church of Quitaque. The other is Mrs. J. J. Breaker of Amarillo. Rose Hunt has been what the ideal pastor's wife should be: gracious, sacrificing and magnifying her husband's ministry.

The date October 15, 1911 will never be forgotten—many of those who were present for this Golden Anniversary of the church will not be present for the Centennial, but there are some who will and they are looking forward to that year of 2011 and know that they can look back on another 50 grand years in the service of the Lord.

The church committees wish to express their thanks to the nice people of Quitaque for their thoughtfulness and the time given in preparation for this Anniversary—and again say thanks for every thing you did to help us make this a day to be long remembered. May we be of service to you at all times.

The membership of First Baptist Church is very grateful to all the friends and merchants who sent the lovely flowers for the Golden Anniversary Homecoming.

On your right on entering the vestibule of the church was a lovely arrangement of large orchids and small white mums, brown and orchid colored cat-tails, and variegated artificial ivy leaves in an old-fashioned gold and white picture frame. This was a gift from Douglas Flower shop in Silverton. To the left was an unusual arrangement of bronze and yellow mums, cascading from a rattan cornucopia. This was a gift from Quitaque business friends. Down front on the communion table in the sanctuary was a gorgeous arrangement of yellow mums with a white ribbon on which "50 Golden Years" was printed in Gold. This was a gift from the church. To the left of the communion table were arrangements of the little red church house, a gift of the Briscoe County News; a white tiered cake with a miniature church on top was the gift of the Methodist church here; a lovely bouquet of red roses was a gift of Mrs. A. E. Boyd of Marshall, Texas. Mrs. Boyd is the widow of A. E. Boyn, a former Superintendent of Schools here.

There was a quaint floral arrangement from Paymaster Gin. It was an old spinning wheel, yellow mums, white cotton bolls and a tiny bale of cotton. The novel arrangement of Panhandle Compress was bronze mums and multi-colored cotton bolls of blue, pink, yellow and natural white and also a small bale of cotton.

Three flower gifts were in memoriam. These were from the Persons children in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Persons; the Overstreet children and their mother, in memory of their father and husband, Mr. H. S. Overstreet; and the Lee children, in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher T. Lee.

There were many other lovely bouquets and pot plants which were setting on the choir rails. In the basement serving area, yellow dahlias and marigold centered the tables and the piano and other vantage points were centered with bouquets of various colored flowers, real and artificial.

Others who sent flowers were, Agnes' Cafe, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Theron Crass, Silverton; The Jake Merrells; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson; Roberson Dry Goods; J. B. Baird; Rice City Goods; The Quitaque Tribune; Buck's "66" Service; Bill Griffin and Ralph Roberts; Grundy Variety Store; Farmers Co-op Gin, City Cafe; Gulf Oil Corp., (Bill Woods.)

Following is a list of the out-of-town guests who were here for the Homecoming. The list may be incomplete due to the fact that the guests were not registered. Mary Ollie Persons, Gladys Stroup, Frankie Hawkins, Mrs. E. K. Dunavant, Clara Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Hill and girls, Mrs. M. L. McNabb and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barbee and family, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hutsell, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephens, and Mrs. Girtha Mae Vaughan, Silverton; Rev. and Mrs. J. Lowell Ponder, Dallas; Mrs. Jerrell Gaddy and daughters of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Bogan and family, Denton; Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bogan and family, Big Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gilbert and family of Big Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burgess and Sue Ann, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bedwell, Sunray; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Driver, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Childress; Mrs. Don Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Persons and son, Plainview; the Rev. and Mrs. Taylor Smith and his mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rush and Mrs. Elzada Bird, Levelland; Mary Johnnie Askey, Window Rock, Ariz.; Donna Yates, Big Spring; Rev. J. O. Tidwell, Hobbs, N. M.; Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Draper, Plainview; Mrs. Doris Wise Kitchens, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Graham, Durango, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Don King, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Noman Hamilton, Carlsbad, N. M.; Mrs. Opal Broxson, Sunray; Mr. and Mrs. Bill King, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mrs. Pearl Martin, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Reeves, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hulet, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cross, Paducah; and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McDonald, Floydada.

(We wish to thank Mrs. Scott Bolton and Mary Ellen McCracken for furnishing us with the above news on the Homecoming. The Owens' were not able to be present at the Anniversary Homecoming Sunday except for a few minutes Sunday afternoon. We appreciate very much the help given us by Mrs. Bolton and Miss McCracken.)

Bob said he hoped that everybody in the community would list their birthdays, anniversaries, etc., and emphasized that surveys show that a person will receive about 16 times as many remembrances (card, gifts, telephone calls etc.) on their birthday, or anniversary, if it is listed on the calendar than they ordinarily would. He said that many people don't "remember" their friends and neighbors — even relatives — on these important dates because they do not know the date. The calendar will supply that information.

The Chairman also pointed out this calendar will probably be more prominently displayed in homes and businesses than all others combined because it is all 'local', of, and about, local people.

The calendar will contain an emblem of the Q.H.S. Panther. Also on the calendar will be the meeting dates of civic clubs and other groups as well as the Panther basketball schedule.

The members of the Panther Club have volunteered to collect the listings, advertising and perform the other tasks to provide the community with these beautiful "all local" calendars, and will begin this task early next week.

- Ginning Report -

The gins are running around the clock as the weather has been near perfect for cotton harvest for the past two weeks. The two local gins report that almost 1800 bales had been ginned early Wednesday morning. Some strippers are already at work in our area, with more to be ready soon. Most of the cotton is reported to be turning out pretty good, in spite of the fact that we have had no rain to speak of since early August.

HIGHWAY PATROL REPORT FOR MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

The Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Briscoe County during the month of September, according to Sgt. D. R. Dowdy, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person injured and a property damage of $15,780.00

The rural traffic accident summary for Briscoe County from January through September of 1961 shows a total of 13 crashes. As a result of these crashes there was one person killed and 6 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $21,050.00

"Shorter days and longer nights spell disaster on the streets and highways", Sgt. Dowdy said. "Next time you turn on your headlights, glance at your watch and see how much earlier you are using your lights than you did only a week ago. And, as times moves on during the next three months, carlights will be needed earlier day by day."

No matter what anyone may tell you as to how good a driver he is after dark, you had better take it with a grain of salt, because no human sees as clearly or as well after dark as he does in the daylight. Some people may see better than others, and some may not be bothered too much by bright lights in traffic; but, if they will be honest with you, they will admit that they do not consistently employ the same driving tactics after dark as they do in the daylight. The veteran Highway Patrol Supervisor added that night driving is different; therefore, it calls for a driving technique very different from that used in the daytime.

Nearly all drivers know right from wrong in traffic, but some of them just hate to have to make a decision.

Spook's Soiree Calls For Special K Confection

"An' all of us other children when the supper-things is done, We set around the kitchen fire and had the mostest fun A-list'n'g to the witch-tales 'at Annie tells about 'An' the Gobble-uns 'at gits you ef you don't watch out!"

As James Whitcomb Riley described in his poem, "Little Orphan Annie," children enjoy hearing stories of witches, goblins, and ghosts. Part of the fun in celebrating Halloween is creating a ghostly atmosphere.

Another pleasure is interesting refreshments. A tasty sweet treat to serve guests is Special K Crunchy Clusters, prepared with crisp high-protein cereal, Special K, covered with a peanut butter candy syrup. These wholesome and nourishing confections will disappear fast, so plan on making up several batches. Accompany Crunchy Clusters with cinnamon-spiced cider.

CRUNCHY CLUSTERS

1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup corn syrup
 4 cups Kellogg's Special K (ready-to-eat high protein cereal)
 1/4 cup peanut butter
 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
 Combine sugar and corn syrup in medium-sized saucepan. Bring to boiling point and cook, stirring constantly, until sugar is completely dissolved. Remove from heat. Stir in peanut butter and vanilla. Add Special K, stirring until well-coated. Quickly drop by teaspoonfuls onto waxed paper or buttered baking sheets. Let stand in cool place to harden.
 Yield: about 40 confections, 1 1/2 inches in diameter

FINAL REUNION FOR EXES OF SETH WARD COLLEGE

Plainview — Come October 21, the curtain will be rung down on the series of reunions of students of historic Seth Ward College, and its predecessor, Central Plains College. The last reunion was eight years ago.

Again, at Plainview, ex-students, any living faculty members and patrons hope to hold a final reunion. It was 45 years ago that the college closed its doors, following two devastating fires. Its records and assets became a part of Stamford College, and with it, of McMurry College at Abilene, all of which were sponsored by the Methodist Churches of the area.

The reunion will start at the Hilton Hotel as the people gather from far and near, and will continue informally until the dinner at 7:00 P. M.

The former Lula Belle Rushing of Canyon sparked the final roundup. "Can't we have just one more reunion?" she asked.

With Franklin Blocksom of Plainview as chairman, Beulah Duensing as vice-chairman, the exes started digging up invitation lists, and have discussed the last roundup at three meetings.

Paul Bryan, Plainview City Clerk, assisting in publicity, learns that attendance is indicated from a number of towns of the West Texas area.

"Plainview extends a cordial invitation" local ex-Seth Ward Warders advise. "Hope all the ex-students, faculty and friends of the group will be here."

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY RECEIVES SAFE DRIVERS AWARD
National honors for an outstanding safe driving performance have been won again by the employees of the West Texas Utilities Company in the Public Utilities Group 1 Division of the 30th National Fleet Safety Contest conducted by the National Safety Council.

Group 1, in which West Texas Utilities Company was the second place winner, was composed of the motor vehicle fleets of 40 major American utility companies. In this group, which was the largest in the contest, the vehicles of each of the competing fleets operated 175,000 miles or more per month during the year ending June 30, 1961.

West Texas Utilities Company was the first place winner in the 1960 contest.

The WTU fleet averaged 323 vehicles and more than 330 drivers. They were awarded second place at ceremonies held in Chicago on Oct. 19, as part of the 49th National Safety Congress, annual convention of the Council.

The award is based on the employee's safe driving record for the period from July, 1960 through June 1961. During that period, WTU employees operated 5,227,938 miles with a rate of .23 of an accident per 100,000 miles of operation.

All accidents were counted in the contest except those occurring when a company vehicle was properly parked. Winners were determined after inspection of their records by an auditor appointed by the National Fleet Safety Contest Committee.

"Credit for this national recognition in safe driving goes to our employees who operate the company vehicles," stated Cal Young, WTU President. "This is an honor of which we are very proud."

"We feel strongly that driving safely on our streets, roads and highways is one of our responsibilities to the people we serve. Ours is a service organization, and certainly the safe operation of the large number of automobiles, pickups and trucks which we operate in 50 counties is as much our responsibility as is good electric service to our customers."

The WTU employees safety activities are directed by Doyle Gray, Safety Engineer, and George Clerk, Jr., manager of the company's Insurance and Safety Department.

Gray accepted the awards for the employees at a luncheon in the LaSalle Hotel's grand ballroom. More than 600 safety experts from the nation's motor transportation industry attended the luncheon.

In presenting the awards, K. K. Halbrooks, Director of Accident Prevention Division, National Automobile Transporters Association, congratulated the winners and other participants on steadily improving their safety performance.

The combined average rate of 1.25 accidents per 100,000 vehicle miles was down 2 percent during the contest period from the previous rate, and was the lowest in the 30-year history of the contest.

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

WHEN AND WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

The major conflict between the two primary ideologies concerned with the government of man, to wit, democracy on the one hand against communism on the other, began during the lifetime of most of us. It has continued unabated, has reached some high points and some low points, but the chasm between these two ideologies has never been bridged, even temporarily. The actual conflict began in the month of October, 1917, with the October Revolution. It was at that time the word "Bolshevik" first found common use. It was used with reference to the mobs that stormed the Petrograd Winter Palace which housed the alleged parliamentary government of Alexander Kerensky. Kerensky and Prince Lvov had taken over in March of 1917, the date on which the Czarist government had collapsed. Our embassy in Russia had confidently advised our government that the collapse of the Czarist regime and the rise to power of enlightened new leaders such as Prince Lvov and Alexander Kerensky would open the door to democratizing Russian institutions along the lines of our Constitutional form of government. Subsequent events proved that our embassy at that time was looking only at the surface and had little, if any, knowledge of what was going on beneath the surface. The explosion came only a few months later as history now records. Alexander Kerensky managed to flee the Petrograd Winter Palace in a caravan allegedly led by a car and a chauffeur commandeered from the American Embassy. It was at that time that Lenin and Trotsky took over, and the gulf between our philosophies of the government of man and the philosophies now being pursued in the Soviet Union joined in the battle for the minds of men. It was at that time that Red Russia threatened to leave the war against the Kaiser's Germany—a time just as we had gotten into it. It was at that time that Lenin and Trotsky threatened to substitute for the war of nations, a war of classes to be pursued and activated both without and within the confines of other countries, including America. These were the elements that resulted in a total breakdown in the relations between Russia and

THE QUITAQUE TRIBUNE — Thursday, October 19, 1961

America—two peoples who had been friendly and cordial for more than a century, although situated on opposite sides of the globe.

It must also be remembered that this was the time when the United States, a relatively young nation, found itself as the newcomer in great-power politics. Many historians have argued that our country was unduly handicapped because of the manner in which we had been choosing our representatives to foreign countries. It is their contention that the choice was from the ranks of deserving campaign contributors, political pensioners, an occasional hungry intellectual seeking a paid-for existence overseas, or a ne'er-do-well playboy able to finance his own activities as a representative of this country. I think that history will record that there were a number of instances which would confirm these allegations. Whether or not that practice and its limited continuation in subsequent years is the basic cause of the continuing mutual fears and suspicions between the government of this country and the USSR, is debatable. However, I would point out to those who are seeking a whipping boy for the strained relations that have persistently existed, that the makeup of the ambassadors would have made little difference. The cold bare fact is that the gulf between the two ideologies of governments involved cannot be bridged diplomatically or otherwise so long as the enslavement of the mind and body of man continues as one of the pillars of the communist philosophy, or so long as freedom and dignity of the individual remain a pillar supporting the form of government to which we subscribe. Perhaps a number of rough spots could have been avoided had our diplomatic policies been in the hands of seasoned, experienced and educated diplomats. Certainly, we should make every effort to know and understand what is going on in the rest of the world and try to assign to the trouble spots men of great experience and knowledge in international matters. In order to do this, it will be necessary to cease the assignment to foreign posts of men qualified only by their friendship with the administration in power in this country. We should begin now to build a diplomatic corps that will be open to all citizens of this country willing and able to qualify themselves to serve in that capacity. Legislation is presently pending that would commence this operation, and I sincerely hope it passes.

Whatever may be done, we must recognize that this conflict that began in October, 1917, will continue until the USSR abandons its policy of enslavement or this country abandons the guarantee of freedom spelled out in the Constitution, the latter of which will never occur.
