Silverton Man Killed

The mytery was solved this week of the picture of the group of young army men which had been vocational agriculture instructor, on the window of the office of The Post for some time. The picture was sent to Quitaque through error, it was intended for the Silverton newspaper, and some ladies from Silverton noticed it on the window, recognized it, and gave the following information to the Prominent in the picture was the likeness of Lt. James L. Webb, Jr., of Silverton who was killed in a plane which crashed in a storm over Japan on June 16. Lt. Webb was the son of J. L. Webb of Silverton, owner of the Silverton Clay Products. The young man re-enlisted in the army air corps last Fall, and was sent to Japan for overseas duty. For about three years prior to his re-enlistment he was associated in the business with his father at Silverton.

The States for burial and the family has been notified of its arrival in San Francisco, Burial will be in Austin. Besides the parents, Lt. Inome economics this year, and a Webb is survived by his wife and teacher for this department can become an important part of the school work, and fill a need in the community.

Quitaque school will also offer the school work, and fill a need in the community.

All women of the church are urged to plan to attend the WSCS Seminar which will be held Thurs-day, Aug. 4 at the San Jacinto day, Aug. 4 at the San Jacinto Methodist Church, in Amarillo. The sessions will begin at 9:30 a.m., and there will be courses on all phases of the work of the church.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR TWO

About thirty children gathered Wednesday afternoon at the Hobby Heath home to help celebrate two birthdays, Carolyn Heath's eighth, and Linda Kay Gillespie's fourth. Games were played for awhile and kodak pictures were made.

Refreshments were sandwiches and punch and two big pretty birthday cakes. One cake had eight candles and the other had four, and after singing "Happy Birthdag", there was lots of puffing and blowing to blow out the candles. Jelly bean candles were favors.

While the Scheids were waiting in front of the theatre one evening for the show to start, Mrs. Annie Badgett joined them, and young Mark greeted her happily. All the youngsters love Miss Annie, and she loves them, so when Mark asked her for a hug and kiss, tall, portly Miss Annie leaned over and hugged him. And Mark turned away singing happily, "You can have her, I don't want her, she's too fat for me."
