MORE DISHES AT THE POST OFFICE

Please folks, call at The Post office (that doesn't mean the place where you get your mail) for the dishes that have been left at the Taylor home and at the Anderson home when they lost loved ones recently. The Post is making quite a nice collection of dishes that no one seems to want. We keep them in the window for a month or so, and then if no one calls for them, we divide them out among ourselves. So if your dishes turn up some time at a community picnic or something and you wonder where they have been—well they've most likely been around.

APPLING RESIGNS

Don Appling, who joined the Quitaque school faculty this year as 6th grade teacher, has resigned and accepted a position in the Brownfield schools. Until a man can be secured to fill the vacancy, Mrs. H. W. Cross will substitute in this place.

The Eastern Star Chapter, who sponsored the Western supper and 42 party last Thursday night at the school house, was very well pleased with the results of their efforts. They cleared $116.01.

The menu included roast beef, beans, salads, candied yams and pies. After the hearty meal the forty-two tables were set up and several rounds were enjoyed, then the cakes were "walked," and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by the large crowd.

The proceeds of the affair will be contributed to the hospital fund.

Motley County Pioneer Buried Last Thursday

MATADOR TRIBUNE—One of Motley county's most beloved pioneers is dead. Mrs. A. L. Barton, 79, died late Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25, at Traweek hospital, following an illness of approximately two months, which originated through an attack of ptomaine poisoning while she was visiting her son, Johnnie Seay, near Duran, N. M., September 2. Mrs. Barton had been a resident of Motley county for approximately half a century.

Altho she had endured her share of the hardships, privations and uncertainties of a new country, Mrs. Barton possessed a cheerful personality which endured to the last of her active life. She loved people and activity.

During the lifetime of her husband, A. L. Barton, deceased May 3, 1921, the big Barton ranch house in the Barton community 16 miles north of Matador was the scene of many pioneer parties and dances. It was not unusual for cowboys and their girls to dance throughout a long winter night. One of the musicians who used to play for the dances was John Wills and his son Jim Bob Wills, who later reached fame and fortune under the name of Bob Wills. Mrs. Barton was hostess to the cowboy, the neighbor and the pioneer.

Addie Missouri Bishop was born in Limestone County, Texas, Nov. 27, 1871, where she attained womanhood. At about the age of 16 she was married to Albert Seay and to this union three children were born, one of whom survives. He is Johnnie Seay of Duran, N. M. Mr. Seay died in Limestone county and the young widow moved to Quitaque, Texas, about 1899. At that time the community was composed of only one commercial building, Jago's store.

About 1900 she met the manager of the old "F" ranch, A. L. Barton. They were married May 1, 1903 and to this union four children were born, all of whom survive. They are Mrs. J. N. Scrivner of Plainview; Dick Barton of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Pat King of Crosbyton and Wilson Barton of Matador.

Other survivors include six step-children; Wilburn and John Barton, both of Flomot; Alfred and Charlie Barton, both of Matador; Clayton Barton of Bertham and Mrs. E. S. McClarty of Galveston, 31 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 26 at the Matador Methodist church with Rev. E. O. Ellis of the Plainview Primitive Baptist church officiating. Arrangements were under direction of McDonald Funeral home. Pallbearers were J. W. Pritchett, Tom Berryman, Curtis Graham, J. R. Whitworth, Floyd Henderson and Bill Pipkin. Interment was in East Mound cemetery, Matador.

BETTER PLAN NOW

FOR 1951 COTTON CROP

The present world situation and weather conditions over much of the cotton producing areas of the nation can have a strong bearing on the 1951 cotton crop in the United States. World conditions have materially increased the demand for cotton and weather conditions are very unfavorable at this time so far as the production of high quality planting seed for 1951 are concerned.

According to Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton work specialist of Texas A. & M. College, the seed situation is so bad that steps must be taken immediately to prevent an actual shortage of the better adopted varieties of planting seed for next year.

He says too much moisture at harvest time materially affects the keeping qualities of cotton seed. When seed that is high in moisture and free fatty acids is stored, heating occurs and this causes seed losses as well as poor germination. He says there is practically nothing that can be done to take care of the free fatty acid problem but that good storage facilities and the proper handling of the stored seed will help some and will hold the damage that can be caused by too much moisture to a minimum.

Elliott says that all reports indicate that the demands for cotton will remain high.

The Alton Johnsons, accompanied by R. E. Hardberger, Jr., and Mrs. Jim Tunnell drove Sunday to Lubbock where they were met by the Price Colwells of Big Spring, and all enjoyed a picnic at the park, and Mrs. Tunnell accompanied the Colwells home for a few days visit.

A Small Town Pastor Looks To The Future

The following interesting story about a former pastor of Quitaque Methodist church has appeared in a number of daily papers and several periodicals. Rev. Yeats was pastor here for several years, beginning in 1928.

Roby—When E. L. Yeats, a farm boy began preaching he was only 18, but already he was thinking in term of security.

He had seen retired ministers living off charity in their twilight years.

Young Yeats decided then that he would never become an "old, worn-out preacher with nowhere to go."

In reaching for security, it was natural for the young minister to turn back to the farm.

And now, at 60, Rev. Mr. Yeats has a small farm that he thinks will support him comfortably when he steps down from the pulpit.

He bought the first 16 acres of the farm a half-mile southeast of here 23 years ago.

During the lean years of the early 1930s he kept up payments on the land and kept three children in school on his country minister's pay. He still isn't sure how he managed it.

Then in 1940 Rev. Mr. Yeats bought 66 more acres. Now he has the entire 82 acres in paying shape.

First he had 2,500 wild China trees cleared from his original creek bottom land. Then he set out more than 100 pecan trees.

Last year they bore more than 4,000 pounds of nuts, bringing in the neighborhood of $1,600.

Then he began setting out fruit trees. He harvested 200 bushels of peaches from the 72 trees last year. He has more than 100 other trees, including persimmon, cherry, apple, pear, fig and plum.

At the same time, he began building his headquarters of the future. First he erected a tile double garage, which is used as a cabin until the main house is built.

He's put on a veneer of some of the rocks he and his friends have collected. They range from a fragment of Texas' first Methodist church to a chunk of marble from the Taj Mahal and represent 42 states, 21 foreign countries.

The minister plans to start building his main house—of white rock, not the souvenir type—a year before his retirement.

Since 1940, he's also put in a lot of time improving his new acreage. "When I bought it, I'd do well to get a sixth to a fourth of a bale of cotton an acre," he said.

"This year I figure to get 12 bales off my 18 acres if the bugs don't hurt too much."

"He's put new life into the land by continued—and intelligent—use of legumes.

He plants 60 acres—all his cultivated acreage—in wheat and hairy vetch every fall.

And he puts a third of it in summer legumes, too. Last year he tried Chinese red peas and crotalaria.

Since then he's become something of a crotalaria fanatic.

Just 75 days after he planted it, he turned under 4½ tons of plant life per acre, he figured.

"Cows won't eat it," he confided. "But they say it's the best legume ever found."

Next year he'll put out 20 acres of it.

Rev. Mr. Yeats, who holds a pastorate in Baird and can visit his farm only a day or so a week, believes his fruit and pecans will be his top cash crops.

After harvest, he sacks his pecans, puts them in his car and heads toward Lubbock, selling them on the way.

"Never have gotten all the way to Lubbock," he smiled. "They're always gone before I can get there."

The minister, through penny-pinching, sacrifice and hard work, has been able to put aside his fear of being worn out, and broke and with no place to go.

As a matter of fact, if pressed he will admit he sort of looks forward to retiring.

"Will he be able to make a comfortable living off his little farm? "Bet your life," he says without hesitation. "I could right now."

News From The Briscoe County PMA Office

Farmers of Briscoe county on November 16, and 18, will have an opportunity to elect the committeemen who will administer the Agricultural Conservation Program, price support, acreage allotment, marketing quota and other production programs in 1951.

At these elections farmers will be voting for three members of a community committee and a delegate to the county convention where a county committee will be elected.

According to J. E. Wheelock, chairman of the Briscoe county committee no farmer who is eligible to vote should pass up the opportunity to "voice" his choice of the three farmers in his community best qualified to administer farm programs in 1951.

The following dates and places have been set for elections for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention and community committeemen:

November 16, 1950—F Community, Antelope School House.

November 18, 1950—A, C, & E Communities, PMA Office at Silverton.

November 18, 1950—B & D Communities, City Hall at Quitaque.

The polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. We want to

SPEECH CLASSES ARE TEMPORARILY DISCONTINUED

Mrs. J. B. Baird announced this week that she would not resume her speech classes until after Christmas, due to the illness of her son Tommy.

Tommy Baird had polio in the summer but made a nice recovery and started back to school this fall. He was not as strong, however as it was thought, so Tommy has discontinued his studies until the next term. He has been back in the hospital at Vernon for treatment and this week is visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Long at Matador.

Until Tommy is well and strong again, his mother will devote her time to him, and announcement will be made later when the speech classes will be resumed.

Let's Face Facts!

- The Panhandle needs a Congressman who will STICK — and who will STAND UP for his district—
- It is only through seniority and experience that he can give the Panhandle the representation it needs — and MUST HAVE, if all our interests are to be protected.
- Our all-important agriculture, our industrial development, the Canadian River dam, our rightful place in the Defense Program . . . a stabilized economy and a future offering continued prosperity — all of these DEMAND that we send to Washington as our Congressman. Any other approach is to ignore our own self-interests and to sleep on our rights. It is time to WAKE UP, and to be realistic.

• A Democrat

IT TAKES AFFIRMATIVE THINKING AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO GET THINGS DONE IN CONGRESS!

• WALTER ROGERS, our Democratic nominee, is mature, able and well-qualified. He offers balance and stability and is pledged to fight for all the interests of our district.

He offers the Panhandle CONSTRUCTIVE leadership.

• Let's quit wasting time!

VOTE FOR WALTER ROGERS

(Political Advertisement Paid for by Democrats of the Panhandle)

WALTER ROGERS IS FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Affirmative thinking and affirmative action is needed to get things done in congress, Walter Rogers of Pampa, Democratic nominee for congress said in a radio address over KGNC in Amarillo.

Rogers said there are many things about the government that he doesn't like, but that these things must be remedied by affirmative action in accordance with laws rather than by a campaign of criticism.

The candidate said he favored and pledged affirmative action on building up the United Nations; promotion of the Marshall Plan; the reciprocal trade agreement; aiding the countries of western Europe that oppose communism; a policy of a world-wide free press; and complete maintenance of our military strength; continuous and vigorous enforcing of laws against subversive activities; expanded aid to the blind and other handicapped persons.

Establishment of a national science foundation; a permanent system of flexible price supports for agricultural products; an intensified soil conservation program; an extended crop insurance program; continued expansion of rural electrification; a research program to improve agricultural practices; promotion of small business; expanded reclamation projects; conservation of natural resources, legislation to return the tidelands to Texas and removal of tax inequities resulting in a better ratio between individual and corporation taxes.

Rogers speaks Friday at 7 p. m. over KGNC in Amarillo.

HAY RIDE AND SUPPER FOR BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE HAY RIDE

The Young People of the Baptist Church with some of their friends went on a Hay Ride Monday night with their Superintendent, Mrs. Scott Bolton. They went out north of town, then west a few miles, then to the home of their teacher Mrs. Jimmie Baird.

A number of new games (new to them) were played—Then time to eat. All stood around a big fire and ate all they could hold. Refreshments consisted of tuna sandwiches, cheese sandwiches iced pop, ice cream and home baked brownies.

More games were played, then all sat around the big fire, telling ghost stories.

Mrs. Baird started the ghost story about three people who could inherit the large plantation if any one of these people would spend one day and night in this haunted place. Gordon Riley lacked three hours inheriting it, but James Baird stuck it out with dead people in his bed.

All left thanking Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Bolton for the good time, and hoped to have another party soon. Good Night—Ghosts.

BAPTIST WOMEN PUT STUDY INTO ACTION

The Baptist WMU met Monday afternoon at the church for a mission study. Mrs. Ray Persons led the devotional, which was the responsive reading of James 2:14-22.

With Mrs. Ray Riley directing the study, the first lesson from the home mission study "Community Missions" was given. This is a study on the factors which comprise missionary work in the local community, such as visiting the sick; aiding the need etc. The book emphasizes the importance of Christian workers taking part in all community activities with the goal of establishing the impact of Christian ideals upon non-Christian conditions—providing the force of Christian living directed against evil influences, and illustrating the positive active force of the church for righteousness and justice, friendliness and helpfulness in the community life.

Following the lesson the class divided into pairs and groups to visit the sick and shut-ins. There were eight women and the pastor present.

The next meeting will be a business meeting at the church on Monday afternoon. All women of the church are urged to take part in the work of the WMU.

COTTON PICKING AND THE SCHOOL PROBLEM

Dallas Morning News — School authorities in West Texas have acted very sensibly to close the schools until the cotton picking emergency is over. Ballinger is the latest to dismiss public school students for this purpose. A total of 3,100 pupils in all have been released in Runnels County, including five centers other than Ballinger.

A federal law would seem to be the sword of Damocles that hangs over any school board failing to make a shutdown in such a crisis.

That law states that no children under sixteen may work while school is in session. A great number of youngsters in this age group are urgently needed to help out in the cotton fields, and there is no other way to avoid wholesale prosecutions in federal court. The law is silly, nonetheless, as its inflexibility in the face of community-wide disaster shows it to be. It would be far better if Washington lawmakers would keep their hands out of the school affairs of our states and counties. As a matter of fact there is a Texas law that more wisely covers this same situation. It merely requires at least 175 days of schooling each year. Failure to do so lops off state aid and accreditation. As explained by State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar, the state law allows schools to be shut down for any purpose, but the time thus lost at reading, writing and arithmetic must be made up later. This in line with the principle that the schools were made for the children, not the children for the schools.

Shower Is Compliment For Recent Bride

The home of Mrs. Bill McGann at Folley was the scene of a delightful bridal shower Wednesday, October 25, complimenting Mrs. Richard Nail, nee Miss Janella Jones of Flomot. Assisting with the hostess duties were Mrs. Harrison George, Mrs. H. V. Cromer, Mrs. Herb Martin, Mrs. Harry Folley, Mrs. Wade Martin and Mrs. Cora Folley.

Lovely arrangements of white and deep red dahlias were used for decoration throughout the reception rooms, and the centerpiece for the refreshment table was the crystal punch bowl surrounded by white dahlias and pink roses. The table was covered with a hand-crocheted cloth, and the table decorations included a miniature bride and groom, and white and rose napkins ensigned in gold with "Richard and Jane."

Lime sherbet and individual cake squares were served to the many friends who registered. Out-of-town guests were present from Plainview, Paducah, Matador, Roaring Springs and Silvertown.

Among the many lovely gifts received were a set of silverware, a set of china, a set of Fostoria crystal, a Martha Washington bedspread, blankets, a toaster, waffle irons, sandwich grill and a Sun-beam mixmaster, as well as many other appreciated articles.

The best way to be satisfied with your lot is to build a house on it.

COLORED MAN IS INJURED IN WRECK SATURDAY AFT.

Dooley Wilkins, colored man about 60 years old, was seriously injured late Saturday afternoon, when his car, an old model Ford (or Chevrolet) collided with the new GMC pickup driven by Doyle Barham of Flomot, on the highway about 1/2 mile east of Quitaque.

The car driven by Wilkins entered the highway from the road leading south at Preston Woods home, and crashed into the pickup driven by Mr. Barham.

Wilkins was thrown from the car, and was unconscious when lifted from the pavement and brought to the doctor's office at Quitaque. In the car with him were another colored man and two boys, none of whom were hurt very much.

Mr. Barham was accompanied by his wife and her two sons, Winfred Lee and Doyle Walker. All of them were bruised and shaken and Mrs. Barham received a bad cut on the leg and head, but none were seriously injured. The radiator on the pickup was crushed and the front right fender was smashed flat against the wheel. Damages to the pickup were estimated at about $200. The colored man's car was badly wrecked.

Wilkins was taken to the Plainview sanitarium Saturday night and was reported this week to have a fractured skull and in pretty serious condition.

There'd be less pedestrian patients, if there were more patient pedestrians.

GULL SAYS VOTE YOUR MAN — NOT THE PARTY

Persons who participated in the Democratic primaries have every right to vote for Republican Congressman Ben Guill in the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 7, and their ballots will not be thrown out, Mickey Ledrick, Pampa businessman and chairman of the district-wide organization of Democrats for Ben Guill, declared this week.

"This is a general election, not a party primary," Ledrick pointed out. "Every citizen of the 18th Congressional District who paid his or her poll tax can vote for the candidate of his choice, with full assurance that his vote will be counted."

He explained that the State Supreme Court has held repeatedly that no voter is legally or morally bound by the "so-called Democratic pledge."

"I am a Democrat," Ledrick said, "and so are thousands of Panhandle men and women who are supporting Congressman Guill in his re-election campaign. We aren't bad Democrats — we're just mad Democrats who don't like what has been going on in Washington.

"We are Democrats who saw Ben Guill go to Washington five months ago and start right to work for the Panhandle. As a member of the House Agriculture Committee, as a World War II veteran and a fearless fighter against bureaucracy, we feel Ben Guill can do the best job for the Panhandle."

Ledrick said Democrats for Ben Guill Committee have been organized in each of the 28 counties in the district.

QUEEN IS CROWNED AT SCHOOL HALLOWE'EN FETE

The Hallowe'en Carnival at the school house attracted quite a crowd, as it does every year. We didn't learn the exact amount of the proceeds, which will go to the athletic fund, but it was around $300.

The highlight of the evening was the Coronation Ceremony when the winning candidate for the high school and her escort and the winners in the grade school were crowned Queen and Princess of the carnival, respectively.

The senior candidate, Miss Glenna Boyles was the Queen and her escort was Junior Sperry. The fifth grade candidate was chosen princess for the grade school, Miss Laurine Whittington, and her escort was Verlon Hamilton.

In listing the candidates in the Post last week, the eighth grade candidate, Miss Wanda Sperry and her escort Robert Gragson were omitted. All of the candidates were escorted to the stage for the coronation ceremony and the girls looked very sweet and pretty, and the boys looked like mighty fine examples of young Americans. The queen was entertained with a program which included readings by Peggy Grundy and Patricia Van Meter, and songs by Willie and Robert Gragson.
