ANNIVERSARY OF THE G.I. BILL

Twentieth anniversary of the G.I. Bill were considering their foodstuffs in a broad-minded effort to win the South Pacific campaign. Two million military personnel were a part of 72,000,000 American G.I.'s, of whom 3,000,000 were entering the service through the coast defense. This was the last of the 'Great Depression.'

The GI Bill of Rights was a major event in the history of our country. It provided for a system of education and training that was designed to help those who had served in the armed forces to readjust to civilian life. The GI Bill was a formal program of peacetime production that was established in 1944.

In the fall of 1944, the GI Bill was introduced as a means of helping veterans return to civilian life. The GI Bill was designed to help veterans with the costs of education and training, and it was one of the first programs to be established as a result of the GI Bill of Rights.
