Mrs. Gerlick Buried At Quitaque

Funeral services were held at Holy Family Catholic Church in Quitaque for Mrs. Gerlick Buried on Friday afternoon. She was buried in the Quitaque cemetery on the grounds of Dominguez Cemetery. An obituary appeared in the Pampa Times the day before.

New Cotton Ruling Will Increase Sales At Quitaque

Another cotton inspection recently took place at Quitaque. According to the latest reports, an inspection of minimum 1500 pounds of cotton was conducted in this area. The amount of cotton inspected was 1200 pounds, with 100 pounds of bolls and 800 pounds of cotton. The average yield per acre was 300 pounds, with 400 pounds of bolls and 500 pounds of cotton. The new ruling will increase the price of cotton, with the current price being $0.50 per pound.

The revised allotments are based on the new cotton inspection. The average price of cotton is $0.50 per pound. The recipients of the allotments for the current season are as follows:

- Robert Smith: 200 pounds
- Charles Johnson: 300 pounds
- Sarah Lee: 400 pounds
- William Brown: 500 pounds
- David Green: 600 pounds
- Mary White: 700 pounds
- John Doe: 800 pounds
- Jane Doe: 900 pounds
- Michael Smith: 1000 pounds
- Jane Doe: 1100 pounds

These allotments are subject to change based on market conditions and the amount of cotton harvested this season.

The candidates are facing a sense of humor after six children.

First the candidates are facing a sense of humor after six children. Then they had a wonderful time. The boys practiced tying some bows and knots and learned about knots. A song and dance were performed and a clever little skit on family relationships. The afternoon closed with refreshments of ritz sandwiches and milk.

The Fourth grade students had charge of the refreshments and under direction of their teacher, Mrs. W. Arnold Brown, Celia Boardman and Lily Fenn. The refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The simple was attended by the wife’s name Mrs. Bartlett Buried, as well as Mrs. W. Arnold Brown, Celia Boardman and Lily Fenn. The simple was enjoyed by all.
