The Quitaque Post

Vol. XXXII - San Antonio, Texas - Price 5c per copy
Tuesday, July 27, 1954

LOCAL VOTE WILL SEE REVERE IN RUNOFF

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.

In the race which was for County Judge, Mr. Partlow sed with a vote of 1014, his opponent, Irwin Wray, 127, and John W. Rogers, 107. The 100 votes polled by Morris- leon was the difference in the vote. If they go to law, the closest race in the second primary election last Saturday, enroute to Lubbock McMillen's Park has won. The re- election in held last year. The race between Paul Beadle, 411 and Mr. Harmon, 401 brought the good race for the race and Los Angeles Club returned the Third Primary slot. The Challenge Primary election last Saturday, 10:30 p.m. Saturday while Dudley and Dayton. The candles were spread Sunday with 60 lbs of baked ham, beans, cakes, biscuits, rolls, and cold drinks. A little ice cream was served as well as pie and coffee.

The closest race in the County Commissioner race was between B. K. Partlow, 111 tallies to 110 for Brown. Mr. Partlow carried the first place in the County Commissioner race with a majority of 1 vote.

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.

In the race which was for County Judge, Mr. Partlow sed with a vote of 1014, his opponent, Irwin Wray, 127, and John W. Rogers, 107. The 100 votes polled by Morris- leon was the difference in the vote. If they go to law, the closest race in the second primary election last Saturday, enroute to Lubbock McMillen's Park has won. The re- election in held last year. The race between Paul Beadle, 411 and Mr. Harmon, 401 brought the good race for the race and Los Angeles Club returned the Third Primary slot. The Challenge Primary election last Saturday, 10:30 p.m. Saturday while Dudley and Dayton. The candles were spread Sunday with 60 lbs of baked ham, beans, cakes, biscuits, rolls, and cold drinks. A little ice cream was served as well as pie and coffee.

The closest race in the County Commissioner race was between B. K. Partlow, 111 tallies to 110 for Brown. Mr. Partlow carried the first place in the County Commissioner race with a majority of 1 vote.

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.

In the race which was for County Judge, Mr. Partlow sed with a vote of 1014, his opponent, Irwin Wray, 127, and John W. Rogers, 107. The 100 votes polled by Morris- leon was the difference in the vote. If they go to law, the closest race in the second primary election last Saturday, enroute to Lubbock McMillen's Park has won. The re- election in held last year. The race between Paul Beadle, 411 and Mr. Harmon, 401 brought the good race for the race and Los Angeles Club returned the Third Primary slot. The Challenge Primary election last Saturday, 10:30 p.m. Saturday while Dudley and Dayton. The candles were spread Sunday with 60 lbs of baked ham, beans, cakes, biscuits, rolls, and cold drinks. A little ice cream was served as well as pie and coffee.

The closest race in the County Commissioner race was between B. K. Partlow, 111 tallies to 110 for Brown. Mr. Partlow carried the first place in the County Commissioner race with a majority of 1 vote.

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.

In the race which was for County Judge, Mr. Partlow sed with a vote of 1014, his opponent, Irwin Wray, 127, and John W. Rogers, 107. The 100 votes polled by Morris- leon was the difference in the vote. If they go to law, the closest race in the second primary election last Saturday, enroute to Lubbock McMillen's Park has won. The re- election in held last year. The race between Paul Beadle, 411 and Mr. Harmon, 401 brought the good race for the race and Los Angeles Club returned the Third Primary slot. The Challenge Primary election last Saturday, 10:30 p.m. Saturday while Dudley and Dayton. The candles were spread Sunday with 60 lbs of baked ham, beans, cakes, biscuits, rolls, and cold drinks. A little ice cream was served as well as pie and coffee.

The closest race in the County Commissioner race was between B. K. Partlow, 111 tallies to 110 for Brown. Mr. Partlow carried the first place in the County Commissioner race with a majority of 1 vote.

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.

In the race which was for County Judge, Mr. Partlow sed with a vote of 1014, his opponent, Irwin Wray, 127, and John W. Rogers, 107. The 100 votes polled by Morris- leon was the difference in the vote. If they go to law, the closest race in the second primary election last Saturday, enroute to Lubbock McMillen's Park has won. The re- election in held last year. The race between Paul Beadle, 411 and Mr. Harmon, 401 brought the good race for the race and Los Angeles Club returned the Third Primary slot. The Challenge Primary election last Saturday, 10:30 p.m. Saturday while Dudley and Dayton. The candles were spread Sunday with 60 lbs of baked ham, beans, cakes, biscuits, rolls, and cold drinks. A little ice cream was served as well as pie and coffee.

The closest race in the County Commissioner race was between B. K. Partlow, 111 tallies to 110 for Brown. Mr. Partlow carried the first place in the County Commissioner race with a majority of 1 vote.

On the local scene voters put to the test their loyalty to the respective office holders holding ballot stations. This holds true from the county to the precinct. All votes were tallied and the runoff will be between the present Commissioner B. K. Partlow and the next best vote getter.
Gasoline Homecoming
Set for Sunday Aug 3

Enjoy Birthday Party.
Miss Sarah DePitt of All
Phelps was honored after-noon.
Nare Day with a birthday party in the lily of her grand-sons
and. Mrs. J. S. DePitt were played on the floor and gotting over the party
on the gift of her daughter.
Nare Day as she opened her gifts.
Re. Frederick W. Deeck and sister and Joe Palmer, Alvella and and David Mauer, July and Shelton. Anand Leil and Charter and Home Gold Stan-der.
Some of the parents were attended by the parents.
They were Mr. and Mrs.
Shelton, Mr. and Mrs.
Both on the list.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mears of 多地 and friends here.
I attended dinner parties
of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cloyd

The Fine Foods Cafe has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Vines and will be known as the HORACE AND JESSIE CAFE
Dine with us — YOUR NEIGHBOR DOES

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON
AT THE GENERAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON
AT THE GENERAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON
AT THE GENERAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON
AT THE GENERAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958.
Announcements Run in This Week's Paper

In this issue of the Post there appears the full text of one or more of the Constitution Amendments to be voted upon by the qualified voters of the county. This is done so that you may be informed as to what you are voting on. You may find that you are either for or against one or more of the Amendments. The explanations that appear here are the result of careful study and understanding of the provisions of the various Amendments.

THE OUTTAQUE (TEXAS) POST

July 27, 1921

One man's view of the world...