Interesting Letters From Boys In Service

The first word in sometime from William Rucker, who writes from Somewhere in the Philippine Islands:

Dear Scott: It has been some time since anyone has heard from me much so I'll try to enlighten my friends in this manner. By checking on your newspapers, you will find certainly some information about the group who had 23 sorties per day for two weeks period.

It's this way—I wasn't as much as scratched but scared so bad that I was shaking so I didn't cast a shadow. You can guess whether I was busy or not. The climate was partly to blame but not altogether. When I was home I took a bit of ribbing about my "bay window", summing up to 190 pounds, but they are not going to comment that way this time because, no "bay window" and only 135 pounds of bone. I can already prepare for the digs of "Did you run out from under your hair?"

I'll explain it now, it was diving for first a gun turret, fox hole, or an engine room hatch, for starters, switches, gear shifts and throttles. Which was first didn't matter.

Must sign off and go on watch. There is one thing I do request, you people at home don't be too confident. Your prayers for all men on any invasion, and letters to cheer us up when it calms enough to have time to think of the ones we love and are paying the enemy off our steps.

Your friend, Will.

From Lt. James W. (Walter) Patrick, somewhere in the Pacific, to the editor:

Dear Mr. Scott: Was it six months or six years ago that I wrote you last? It has been a long time, a very long time, but I shan't apologize. I've moved so many times and so fast in these last few months that at times I've often wondered if I actually belonged to any unit in the army.

I received an October issue of the paper today, my first in a couple of months. However, it's all my fault, but you will note the change in my address.

Since I have been back from Saipan, I've done a lot of nothing. I more or less received a direct commission. You couldn't call it direct because I had to study for one month, but it wasn't hard. I've had my commission the sum total of three weeks so I really haven't gotten away from all of my old habits as an enlisted man. I am second in command of a small unit of men at the present. Aside from my regular duties I'm supply officer, transportation officer, gas officer, censor, and general flunky.

I had high hopes of getting back to the States for a furlough, but that's out now, I guess. I'm detailed to spend three years out here whether I like it or not, and I don't like it!

Best of luck, Patrick.

To his parents Mr. and Mrs. George Owens, from Sgt. Gaston Owens, in France, the first dated January 21:

Dear folks: My letter is really late this time but I have been away for several days, and you could never guess where I've been—England, of all places. I went over on business and had a fairly good trip although I didn't enjoy it as much as some of the other fellows would have. I did get a bit of a break in that I flew over and back as well and I did enjoy the trips each way. The weather turned bad however and I had to stay longer than I had planned and believe me I was plenty glad to get back here. It was just like getting back home when I got back.

I saw a bunch of the boys over there that I came over with from Muroc. It was the first time I had seen them since we arrived in England and we had a good visit of course. What with swapping experiences and all. I was really glad to see them again. Three of them have gotten married in England and they were all three the last ones I would ever have figured on getting married in England.

You hadn't told me about Jim being sick and I'm awfully sorry to hear it. Hope he comes around ok.

We are still having snow. It has snowed a lot since about the first of the year. We have about six inches of snow on the ground now. I guess I've seen more snow over here than I ever saw in my life or at least for the longest period of time.

Well guess I had better quit. Tell Sis to buck up and not worry. Everything will work out ok.

Feb. 2—Dear Folks: It is that time again so 'heah tis'. How are you all at home? Hope you are all well. I'm fine now. I've just gotten over my usual bad winter cold. Hope it is the only one. It wasn't too bad. I mean it didn't last long. I didn't feel so very bad but two days but those two days I really felt bad. I was really glad it didn't last long. We are all taking sulfa drugs now for cold prevention. The army has been having very good luck with it.

We have finally had a break in the weather. It has finally warmed up. The last three days and today "specially have been almost like spring. The snow is almost gone but it is raining a bit out tonight. It is pretty sloppy but not as much as it was in England, thank goodness!

We moved our offices today and I'm a bit tired tonight. I think I will go into the moving business after the war. I think I would be pretty good at it. We certainly have gotten our share of it in France.

Glen Miller's band is just now on. It is here in France. It is really a good band and we all enjoy hearing it so much. We hear it almost every night. We heard an "All Time Command Performance" tonight, which was made up of the best spots of a number of past programs. It was really good. I don't know how we would get along without our radios. Guess we would sit here and twiddle our thumbs. We get pretty good receptions most of the time. Jerry horns in quite a bit—he has some powerful stations and drowns the others out once in a while.

They have a propoganda program that we hear almost each night. It is sent to us in English of course but the stuff he throws at us is so silly no one could possibly swallow it. But they do play good music. They have a good band (Bruno is the bandleader's name) and they play good American jive.

Our mail situation is all messed up again. I haven't had a letter from any of you in about ten or twelve days. That is unusual too. I very seldom go quite that long without at least one letter from some of you.

The news is encouraging, isn't it? I try to keep myself from getting over enthusiastic but it is hard to do. The Germans say the Russians are only 35 miles away from Berlin. Of course the war will not be over by any means when Berlin is taken but it will be a big step in that direction. I hope the people in the States don't get too hepped up over the good news and let up on war production because we need all they can put out.

Guess this will have to be all for this time. Hope Sis is feeling better. Good night to you all. All my love, Gaston.

Frequently we hear comments about the loyalty of Japanese who are citizens of the United States, whether American-born, naturalized or whatnot. Following is a letter from a Japanese young man, born and reared in the Hawaiian Islands, trained in the United States and now a soldier in the U. S. Army in Europe fighting the Germans.

The letter is to Henton Manley who was in the same outfit with the youth, Pfc. Toshi Yoshida, when they took their training in Arkansas. The handwriting is a little difficult to read, but the letter (Continued On Page 3.)

A BOOK FROM A BROKEN HOME

By Rev. E. B. Thompson

The second of the eighth century prophets was Hosea, who lived a few years after Amos. He too was a protestant spirit and cried out against the same sins that had engaged Amos' attention. However life was far from kind to Hosea, and tragedy soon came to his home. His loved wife Gomer, deserted him, and went into a life of sin. Out of the struggle with himself which followed this incident, he changed his whole outlook, disposition and message.

As was true of all early prophets, Hosea related every experience to God in some way. His first sermons were hard and caustic. To illustrate what he wanted to teach, he named his children names that pronounced God's anger against the sinful people! His first son was named Jezreel—which meant "God sows". Hosea said he was trying to show how God was sowing destruction for the rebel people! The second child, a baby girl, he called Loruhamah—"Without pity", and said God would be without pity in His judgement of sin! The third baby, another son, was named Loammī—"Not my people," and the prophet reached the bottom of despair, shouting that God no longer claimed or cared for Israel!

It was at this point in his career that his own tragedy came. With it came the great change in his message. For, lo, he found that he did not hate Gomer for her sin, but loved her still! Thus he came to see that God might even forgive Israel. He bought his fallen wife, and re-established his home. In those days we hear the same prophet who was once stern and angry saying for his God, "I will betroth you to me forever. . . . In loving kindness."

And so it was, that the first sermon on forgiveness was recorded and sent on its long flight across the years. We have it today in the example and prayer of Jesus, as bright as the splendor of a noon-day sun. But it began long ago and far away, in the soul of a heart-broken prophet who wrote—a book from a broken home.

George Boyles Is Wounded In Action

A message from the war department to Mrs. Willie Lou Boyles was received last Friday, telling her that her son Pfc. George Boyles, 19 years old, infantryman, was slightly wounded in action on Feb. 4th, in France. The message stated that his hospital address, and details would follow, and the hospital address was included in the message, but no details.

George entered service in January last year and was sent overseas in Nov. 1944. The last letter his mother received from him, he said he was in Belgium. However, the war department said he received the wounds in France.

The Purple Heart medal awarded to Pfc. Boyles was received by his mother Monday of this week. His father, Elliott Boyles was proudly showing it to friends around town.

Popular Couple Are Married In El Paso

Marriage vows were exchanged Wednesday evening, February 14, in the pastor's study of the First Baptist Church, at El Paso, by Sgt. Weldon Starkey and Miss Mildred Coker.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Coker of Turkey, chose for her wedding, a dress of white jersey with black accessories. She wore a small black hat trimmed with red roses and her corsage was red roses.

Sgt. Starkey is the son of Grady Starkey of Quitaque. He returned in December of last year from nearly three years overseas service in the southwest Pacific.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Quitaque High School and Weldon attended Wayland college. The bride graduated with the class of 1940, took a postgraduate course here and was employed for about two years at the Pioneer Pharmacy until she went to Wichita Falls to enter civil service employment at Sheppard Field.

Both are among the most popular young people of Quitaque and a host of friends in the community extend them congratulations and best wishes.

Homer Morris Home To Attend OCS

S-Sgt. Homer Morris came in Saturday night on a 10-day "delay enroute" visit with his mother, Mrs. Jeff Morris, his sister Mrs. Dick Hooks and other relatives and friends here.

His brother Ernest Morris and family came in from San Antonio early in the week for a visit with him. He will leave Friday for a short visit with his sister Mrs. Hollis Reavis and family in Childress before reporting to Fort Benning.

Homer is enroute to Fort Benning, Ga., to enter officers candidate school. For the past 2 years (and 2 days) he has been serving overseas as athletic director at an army air forces base. He served for 9 months on the Gold Coast of Africa and the rest of the period in Cairo. We are indebted to Homer for some of the most interesting letters we have been privileged to publish in the Post.

WEEK END BIBLE MEETING AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

A preaching series will be conducted at the Quitaque Church of Christ this week end, with Marshall Davis of Roswell, N. M. doing the preaching. The services, beginning about 8 o'clock will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday night. Everyone is invited to hear him.

Bro. Davis has an outstanding record as an excellent speaker and his record speaks for itself. Going to Roswell about eight years ago he assumed leadership of a church with about 50 members, many of them uninterested and indifferent. He now leads three churches in Roswell, with a membership of more than a thousand.

Clem Woods and family have moved back to Quitaque to the Jake Honea place, north of town. Mrs. Woods is still teaching at Flo-met, and staying with her parents there when the weather is 'oo bad to come in.

Persons & Sons Are Modernizing Store

Persons & Sons have been doing some "modernizing" at their store this week, installing bins for repair parts for International Harvester machines and equipment—Farmall tractors, etc.—making a complete parts department.

The factory approved card index system is being set up, listing all parts and part numbers, making it easier to keep tab on repair parts they have on hand as well as affording quick knowledge of depletion of their stock of any particular part so the shortage may be filled in and ready for their customers when needed.

The rear of the store has been devoted exclusively to this new department, which not only is a great convenience but enhances the appearance of the store's interior.

A large sign with wooden letters in "relief" are to be placed across the front of this department—in the Farmall color combination of red and black.

The parts bins are finished in white or cream, trimmed in black. It will look like a different store when all of the work on the new department is finished.

Persons & sons are reopening their tractor repair shop with Errol Van Meter as mechanic. In fact this shop already is open, in its usual location, in the rear of the Persons building occupied by the Gulf Station.

Special Speaker At Methodist Church

Maj. Alan Harvey Brooks, retired Morale Officer, who saw service in both World War I and II, and who returned a few months ago from twenty months in the South Pacific, spoke to an interested and inspired audience at the Methodist church last Thursday evening. The program was part of the current Crusade for Christ movement being sponsored by the church.

Back of both military experiences, Maj. Brooks has a rich missionary background, having gone to Australia with his father in 1913, and having toured at that time the islands of that vicinity, hunting for missing missionaries from the British Missionary Society, and worked for a time in the planting of coconut groves. His message was revealing, inspiring and sincere. Those attending the service express appreciation for the privilege and invite the speaker to come again some time.

Maj. Brooks, a Methodist minister, is pastor of the Methodist church at Higgins, Texas, and is speaking most every week night this month in the interest of the Crusade Movement.

He was returned to the States, after having suffered injuries in a crash landing somewhere in the South Pacific Theatre of action.

Baptist Hour Speaker

Dr. M. T. Rankin, for many months an internee in a Japanese prison camp and twenty-three years a missionary to the Orient will be the Baptist Hour speaker next Sunday morning, Feb. 25th, and will be heard over an independent network of 36 stations, reaching from the Nation's Capitol to the states of the far southwest, it is announced.

Dr. Rankin spent seven years as Mission Secretary for the entire Orient and since he is now executive secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of Southern Baptist Convention, having been elected to this position since his repatriation, he is peculiarly qualified to discuss the subject assigned to him Sharing Christ With the Nations.

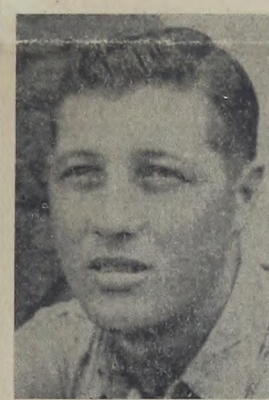

The music in the Baptist Hour programs is by the Baptist Hour Choir under the direction of John D. Hoffman, with George L. Hamrick at the organ, and makes a substantial contribution to the programs.

The Baptist Hour program may be heard in Texas over stations KPRC, Houston, WFAA, Dallas and KGNC, Amarillo.

The John Luther Garners have bought the Shot Miller home, and moved there last week.

Pfc. J. R. Butler, Jr., is recovering in a hospital in England from severe wounds received in action. Butler who went overseas the latter part of March, 1944, was wounded June 14, in France and returned to England for hospitalization. He recovered and rejoined his unit and was sent again into combat, being wounded the second time on Nov. 10, in France. He was again returned to an English hospital for treatment.

Marine Sgt. Carmon Bass, "Mad-Sam" as he has been dubbed by his Marine buddies, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bass of Quitaque. Carmon is possibly in the Philippines now. Recently he asked for the address of Pfc. Robert Hamilton, saying that he thought he was in the same location as Robert and wanted to look him up. Robert is in the Mariannas, but Carmon "travels fast" and his folks judge from his later letters that he is now in the Philippines.

In a war department notice received by his wife, the former Miss Lanelle Woods, his wounds were described as "shell fragment wounds in region of right ear and fractured jaw." He also received "injuries to both his legs, but reported to his wife that he could "walk as good as he ever could."

J. R. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Butler, Sr., living south of Gasoline.

BROTHERS, NEPHEW HAVE HAPPY REUNION IN PACIFIC

A happy reunion was held last week in the Marianna Islands when Sgt. Kelly Tipps, radar mechanic in the air corps, arrived at his base overseas.

Sgt. Tipps had the address of his nephew, Marine Pfc. Robert Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Hamilton, and Mrs. Tipps here received a letter from him Monday stating that he and Robert had enjoyed a visit together, and that his brother, Lt. Robert Nolan (Rel) Tipps of the Marines, was planning to visit Robert also. Lt. Tipps, as far as the family is aware, did not know that his brother was in the Mariannas, so the reunion of the two brothers and nephew will be a happy surprise. It will be the first time that the brothers have been together in four years.

Carmon is making "Marine history" with his Browning Automatic rifle, which a Marine headquarters release states "has spelled nothing but trouble for Jap snipers."

CAPT. RUCKER HAWKINS TRAINING FOR OVERSEAS DUTY

Army Air Field, Casper, Wyo.—Capt. William Rucker Hawkins, son of W. P. Hawkins of Quitaque, is a pilot on a B-24 heavy bombardment crew now in its final stage of training at the Army Air Field, Casper, Wyo.

Following completion of his training, he and his crew will be sent overseas to a combat area where they will help take up the fight against the enemy.

O. C. LOVE RECEIVES OVERSEAS PROMOTION TO STAFF SGT.

O. C. Love, serving with an anti-aircraft unit in Belgium, has been promoted from the rank of corporal to staff sergeant, according to information received by his wife this week.

Sgt. Love entered the service in February, 1942 and received his basic training at Camp Wallace, Galveston, Texas. He went overseas in March, 1944 and is now in Belgium. The letter telling of his promotion was dated January 15.

BROTHER-IN-LAW KILLED IN ACTION IN BELGIUM

Pierce White received a message Saturday from his sister telling him that her husband Pvt. James Lester Jones had been killed in action on Feb. 1 while serving with an infantry division in Belgium. Entering service less than a year ago, Pvt. Jones had been overseas only about two weeks when he was killed. He was 35 years old. Surviving besides his wife are his parents and two sisters, all living in Whitesbur, Ga. An infant daughter, the first child of the couple who had been married about 12 years, was born last October, but lived only a short time.

JOHN J. WOODS IN FRANCE

Mrs. P. O. Woods heard last week from her son Cpl. John J. Woods, telling her that he was in France. The letter was dated Feb. 5. John J. said that the places he saw when he first landed in France were so terribly damaged that he did not think it possible to be any worse, but that where he now was, there was absolutely nothing left standing.

HOG MEN—

We have had and are having quite a bit of Enteric Enteritis in shoats and hogs, which is a fatal and costly disease, but can be handled if you start in time.

The symptoms of Enteritis and Cholera are very similar and it requires quite a bit of hog sense to tell which is which, also to treat either one.

It's also common to have both at the same time.

If you have hog troubles and we can assist you in knowing how to handle them, we will be glad to do so.

Very Truly,

PIONEER PHARMACY
C. R. Badgett
Registered Pharmacist

A son was born February 13th at the Plainview hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Reeves of Kress. The boy was named Charles Michael, and he weighed six pounds, 15 and a half ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Owens of Quitaque and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Reeves who moved from here to Kress about three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Messimer and W. L. moved last week to Silverton. Bill has been working in the county agriculture office there for several years, so they moved there when a house became available so that their daughter Mrs. Jack Bradley, might have the home place here, when the house she was occupying sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Gibson of Quitaque and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rivers and son of Turkey returned Sunday from a week end visit with their brother Pfc. Truman Gibson, recently returned from overseas, who is receiving treatment at the government hospital at McKinney. Pfc. Gibson was getting along fine, they reported.

Letters From the Boys

ter is interesting due to the fact that it comes from a Japanese.

Manley says Toshi is about five feet tall, or less, and was lots of fun while they were in training together. His spelling and phraseology are printed as in the letter:

Dear Henton: I am very sorry for not writing to you for such a long time. Maybe you have been doing a lot of traveling too. I have done a lot since we parted about three years ago. Maybe I have to do more before this is over with yet. I did always wanted to travel but not the way I am doing these days. It is a lot of fun at times though. I bet you didn't have too much places to go and enjoy yourself in the Pacific. But at least you have been to Hawaii and did enjoy a few months there.

Say don't tell me that you are out of the army now and are at home. If that is the case you are sure lucky. I hope I am able to see you again some day. How does it feel to be home again? I bet it is good to be home after all these years. How long have you been home already?

I haven't been over here too long. Long enough. About five months. We were in Italy and came to France. Saw my first action in France. Some of my friends have seen action in Italy too. You may have read about it. These days we are taking life easy. Not bad if we could stay this way for some time. I don't mind staying like this for the duration. Yes, I am up in the hills again and right in the middle of the snow. No skiing here though. Too much rock and not enough snow here. Not like in Camp Hale, Colo. At times I sure wish I had those mountain boots but they are too clumsy. I don't know how many times I have to fall down and slide. We have a hard time stopping once we do slide. It is a wonder I don't have sore butt. Maybe some day I will have, then poor me won't be able to sit down any where. Having a sore butt right now trying to write you a letter. You know, no soft seat to sit on.

I have told you a few things of myself, now how about you life? Tell me of the things you have enjoy while you were in the Pacific or the things you are enjoying now

Dedicated to his son Pvt. J. R. Butler, Jr., who was twice wounded in action in France, by his father J. R. Butler, Sr.:

Just a little soldier boy, brave and true,
Just fighting to save me and you.
I was fighting in the Third Army, which you all knew,
I was just fighting to save me and you.
I was fighting with Patton, and we were fighting brave and true.
We were just fighting to save me and you.
They shot me down and bombed me, too,
For they were afraid I would come to.
My fighting might be in vain
But I promise they won't come back again.
We just have one job to do
Just whip the Germans and come back to you.
Just a little soldier boy,
I will be with you,
When the roses bloom again.

and what do you have to do these days. I will be waiting for a letter from you again. I know letters takes a long time to reach you from me. I may write again some time when I do have a news or in the mood. I know you are wondering if I did get your letter and if I did write to you. Well, I am doing my best. At least I have tried. I did change my address a lot of times and your letter did reach me finally. By the looks of the envelope your letter did try to follow me all over the country. The next one you could write direct to me. Look for my address on the envelope.

Good luck and take care—for today this is it. So till again.
Always,
Toshi.

Tuesday Is Instruction Day At Turkey Field

The regular day for flying instructions at Turkey has been changed from Friday to Tuesday, Lewis Eudy stated Wednesday. This was done so that in case of bad weather on the appointed day, the instructor may come some other day later in the week.

His time is taken up elsewhere for instruction on Saturday, and with the big class and growing interest in Turkey, Instructor Haag

Tire Inspection Records Affect New Tire Claims

Failure of commercial motor vehicle operators to comply with regulations requiring periodic tire inspections will adversely affect the claims of these operators for new tires, Lubbock district manager of the ODT announced.

The ODT official warned truck, bus and taxicab operators that General Order ODT 214 requires all commercial motor vehicle operators to have their tires checked after each 5,000 miles of operation or after every six months of operation if operated less than 5,000 miles.

Office of price administration action lifting this requirement for passenger car tires in no way affects compliance of commercial motor vehicle operators with ODT tire inspection requirements, it was pointed out. Inspection may be made by any agency designated by OPA.

Truck, bus and taxicab operators were also informed that ODT representatives on tire rationing panels are giving close consideration to records of regular tire inspection in making recommendations for new tires.

Seniors Are Practising To Present Play

Have you noticed any change in the seniors? Well, they're putting on their Sunday manners so they can be little men and women in the senior play, which will be presented in about four weeks. The name of the play is "Keep Your Fingers Crossed" and the seniors are hoping that they will get the backing and support of everyone. Don't let them down.

Speaking of differences, have you heard of the basketball girls team beating Roaring Springs and ordering their new jackets? Yes, sir, and they're white with black leather trim, and the girls are sure proud of them.

Have you noticed—Costo's good looks? Hope's manner? Elizabeth's nice disposition? Juanita's basketball playing? Foster's desire to be a nurse? Patsy's voice, that's really becoming audible? Evelyn's desire to help people? Gene's conceited ways? Bruce's desire to sing "Fire Ball Mail" and "Those Swinging Doors"?

Jackie's increasing politeness? Lela Faye's new odd ways? Shug's smallness? Myrtle's new hair style? Jimmie's sweet temper? Allen's shyness, and R. D.'s handsome physique.
