

Judge Orders Officials to Clean Up Jail

By Cliff Avery

Lubbock County Commissioners prepared Tuesday to comply with U.S. Dist. Judge Halbert Woodward's broad injunction which orders the county officials to stop violating county jail inmates' constitutional rights.

With a fine-tooth comb and Dist. Atty. Alton Griffin's legal advice, the commissioners went over Woodward's orders at a called meeting Tuesday morning. The session had been planned to continue work on problems at the county's detention facility, but Woodward's ruling in a class action lawsuit shifted the emphasis of the meeting.

Griffin told the commissioners as he explained the ruling he was "very well satisfied with the findings of the court."

"I think we came out as I felt we should," the silver-haired district attorney, who defended the county officials during the nine-day trial, said, "The order is proper."

Griffin pointed out that some of the requirements of the order have already been complied with—either by commissioners or by Sheriff C.H. Choc Blanchard.

Commissioners literally chose up sides to work through the list of Woodward's requirements.

Commissioners James Lancaster and Coy Biggs -- who sit on the left side of the commissioners table -- will chart the course of the old county detention facility, while Commissioners Alton Bazell and Edgar Chance -- who sit on the right side -- work on a new jail tentatively planned on Avenue G and a parking lot east of the present facility.

Lancaster and Biggs face the most immediate problem as they work with county planner Arnold Maeker on a recreational area for inmates.

Woodward ordered the county officials to furnish him a plan for inmate recreation by Sept. 1, a plan which Griffin indicated would have to be operative by Nov. 15.

According to the language of the holding, the county will have to "insure all inmates of at least three separate one-hour sessions of outdoor exercise, weather permitting."

Meeting late Tuesday, the Left Side Committee, as Biggs and Lancaster will surely be tagged, met with Maeker and indicated that the most feasible site would sit between the present jail and the County Office Building, the old Post Office building.

Lancaster said that the committee first considered building to the east of the jail on Avenue G, but ruled out that option because the recreation yard would have to be moved once construction on a new jail began.

"Regardless of where the facility is," Griffin advised, "It means that every one of the prisoners has to be brought out of the jail three times each week. It will take a very well-organized plan just to move them in and out."

In the order, Woodward said that "Unless the county defendants comply with the terms and provision of the injunctive order, the Lubbock County Jail will no longer be used to hold prisoners."

Woodward did say that the injunction could be modified, but Griffin said that county officials would have to work within the order and prove it unworkable before returning to federal court for modification.

Other aspects of the Woodward order require county commissioners to arrange inspections by the Texas Department of Health Resources—or the U.S. Dept. of Health of the jail, while complying with State laws and according prisoners constitutional rights.

In addition, prisoners must be allowed usual items of personal hygiene, telephone privileges, television sets and radios, reading matter and expanded visitation rights.

Jailers must cease censoring the mail and may inspect mail and packages for contraband only. Woodward ordered Blanchard to stop segregating prisoners on basis of race.

A prisoner may not be punished without an opportunity of receiving a written copy of the charges against him, and he must be able to appear before a three-person board where he has the opportunity to examine and furnish witnesses and present evidence in his own behalf.

In the 28 page opinion, Woodward said that the failure of the county to provide the required number of guards for a full 24-hour period had "resulted in a serious mismanagement of the jail and have in effect permitted the inmates to control the internal functions of the jail in many instances."

What's It Like To Be 100?

By Mrs. Van Tischler

Mrs. Emma Holbrook of Archer City, Texas will be able to tell the whole world on December 24, her 100th birthday, what it's like to be 100. Mrs. Holbrook is the great-grandmother of Mrs. Van Tischler and Mrs. Douglas Rowden, both of Shallowater. The annual Holbrook reunion was held April 24 at Archer City where Mrs. Tischler had a chance to really talk to "Granny." She's still spry and doing great still living alone and caring for herself. She attends church every Sunday possible and still has her small garden from year to year. Most all of Granny's family wonders why they have more gray hair than her. Granny says she has no worries like people today. Last year

Granny's only worry was being hard of hearing, so at the age of 98 she decided she needed a hearing aid. So out came the old needle and she whipped up several homemade quilts to pay for it herself. Granny can now still hear if all her kids are being good! All her kids so far consist of six children, 20 grandchildren, 65 great-grandchildren, and 50 great-great-grandchildren. That's just a rough estimate. A birthday party for Granny to celebrate her 100th is in the making for December, and Granny can't hardly wait. Asked if she thought she could manage 100 candles, Granny said, "Sure." Looking at the happiness in this beautiful woman we can see life is 100% grand.

Connie Sue Boone to Participate As Finalist in Beauty Pageant

Miss Connie Sue Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Boone had quite an honor bestowed upon her recently, when she was selected to participate as a finalist in the 1977 Miss Texas National Teenage Pageant that will be held in Fort Worth on May 27-29 at Texas Christian University.

The pageant will be televised and the Miss Texas National Teenager chosen is the official state finalist to the Miss National Teenager Pageant that will be held in Atlanta, Georgia, on August 5.

The 16-year-old beauty is a junior at Shallowater High School.

New Service Available to Senior Citizens

The senior citizens of the South Plains area have a new service available to them—Homemaker Service! The College of Home Economics at Texas Tech University, through a grant from the Administration on Aging, is promoting this service that will match homemakers wanting jobs with older citizens needing some help and planning services in the following counties: Bailey, Cochran, Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, King, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley, Terry and Yoakum.

West Texans are people who like their independence, and they keep this spirit as they grow older. Most older folk live in their own homes, even though many must live alone. Some older people must live in nursing homes or other institutions because they are too ill or feeble to take care of themselves properly. But, too many are institutionalized solely because they have no alternative. As a result, this new program is designed to study the needs of older people and will attempt to provide them with care in their own homes as an alternative to institutional care.

With relatively little assistance, many older South Plains area residents can remain in their homes, where most prefer to stay, and where it may be less costly than residing in an institutionalized setting. Needs of the older citizenry who remain in home are varied. Some need help with housekeeping and shopping; others need escorted service to stores, doctors, or dentists; some need the assurance that someone

OSHA Field Hearing Set

Lubbock will be the site for a OSHA field hearing next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 10-11, at the South Park Inn and the hearing is of real importance to everyone and they are urged to attend.

The hearing, conducted by OSHA on the cotton dust exposure standard, is expected to attract a large turnout of ginners and other representatives from throughout the southwest and west whose segments of the industry are threatened by the proposed standard.

The regional field hearings are slated to afford those that were unable to attend the Washington hearing held in April the opportunity to present their views orally to OSHA.

Ginners contend that the proposed standard is not appropriate for cotton gins since there is no evidence that a health hazard is caused by cotton dust. Chief among the interest of OSHA is whether gin employees suffer the classic symptoms of byssinosis (chest tightness and low fever following a day or two absence from dust exposure).

Another issue is the availability of doctors and nurses to administer the pre-employment questionnaire that the standard would require in addition to pulmonary testing.

The key provision of the standard would change the present OSHA permissible cotton dust exposure limit from 1,000 micrograms to total dust per cubic meter of air to 200 micrograms of respirable dust per cubic meter of air, based on an 8-hour, time-weighted average.

The OSHA standard is so threatening that every cotton producer in the U.S. should take time to write and send letters of protest to Washington.

Everyone is urged to write to President Carter at the White House, Congressman George Mahon at the House of Representatives and Senators Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower at the U.S. Senate in Washington, D.C.

World Traveler Returns

By Mendi Pair

On March 19, 1977, Mrs. Laverna McMenamy flew to Holland and England, accompanied by her husband, Louis McMenamy and Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Williams. Mrs. McMenamy wanted to learn about those countries so she could teach her students more about them.

While in Holland, she and her husband took tours of fishing villages. Out in the country she saw windmills and dikes. In the city, she visited art museums with beautiful paintings. They saw the largest seaport in the world in Rotterdam. She also visited a flower auction that covered 26 acres! There were tulips, jonquils and many other flowers.

For transportation the Dutch ride bikes, but they also have small cars and canal boats. In Amsterdam there are 86 canals!

Some common Dutch foods are cheese, ham, lamb, peas, carrots, and potatoes. They drink black coffee and hot tea.

In Holland, the people wear wooden shoes only for working. Things are expensive in Holland, but are somewhat cheaper in England. The people are very friendly in Holland and very clean. They wash the sidewalks every morning. All the houses look alike.

Since the McMenamys couldn't use American money they had to have it converted to filders in Holland, and to shillings and pounds in England.

England had beautiful cathedrals which were built in the 15th and 16th centuries. The McMenamys rode red double decker buses and saw the changing of the guards in front of the Queen's palace. They saw Shakespeare's home, London Bridge, British museums, and an English play.

Mrs. McMenamy said her trip was very interesting and she would love to go again. She returned on March 27 with wooden shoes, a Dutch doll, beautiful Delft pottery, and a native costume from Holland.

Birthday Party Honors Mullins Girl

Little Heather Mullins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Mullins of 4317 64th St. in Lubbock was honored with a party on her first birthday Saturday night, April 30, from 7:30 to 9:00 in her home.

Heather is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davy Sanders of 603 7th St. in Shallowater and is extra special to them because she is their very first, and only grandchild.

Twenty-two guests were present to help Heather celebrate her birthday and enjoy the Raggedy Ann theme that was carried out in decorations. The cake was decorated in multi-color in the form of Raggedy Ann. Punch was served with the cake and favors, carrying out the birthday theme, was enjoyed.

There was plenty of pictures made, and bet that Dad-do Davy and Nan-an Sue just happen to have their camera handy, for every cute little move, that Heather made.

Memories will be stored for years to come in the Sanders home of that precious granddaughter, on her very first birthday, plus many, many more.

In addition to providing a much needed service to the aged, a second major objective of the program is in providing a new career opportunity for displaced, underemployed homemakers. Homemakers, who have had a number of years experience in managing a home, will be preferred. These sensitive, alert, trained paraprofessionals serve not only the physical needs of older persons, but also the psychological and social needs. The Homemaker Service Aides' competencies transfer horizontally to basic levels of occupations in nursing, social service, social work, and child care. In this way the Aides to the older citizenry have access to multiple roles on the career lattice.

Jail . . .

"The sheriff and his deputies have not been in full control and supervision of the jail" as required by state law, the federal judge wrote. "The commissioners court has not provided a safe and suitable jail for Lubbock County.

Although Woodward chronicled most of the inmate testimony regarding beatings by both inmates and jailers, kangaroo courts, and homosexual attacks, Griffin told commissioners that he had not tried to rebut the evidence, because it would have been "a swearing match."

"All that could have been done was to put a deputy on the stand and testify that that was not the way it happened."

While Woodward ordered the county to pay $15,000 for the inmate's attorney fees and court costs—which Griffin said would probably amount to as much as $5,000—the district attorney said that he was pleased that the judge had found the county had not acted in bad faith. That absolved commissioners from paying money damages to the inmates.

I heard that the Coop Gin Supper was a huge success ... good food and plenty of fish and lots of nice door prizes and plenty of fun and fellowship. We are proud to have Mr. and Mrs. Ike Bennett and children in our community and wish them lots of success in their new job.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Rice visited their son Jerry Rice in Nebraska last week. They reported that it was a beautiful drive this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deleon of Lubbock (formerly Jane Valdez) have purchased a new brick home on 58th and Indiana this week. Jane is employed by H.E.W. of Lubbock and John is manager of Webb Auto Supply Stores. Jane grew up in our community and is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Valdez.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo White, formerly of Plains, Texas, have purchased a new brick home in Littlefield, Texas. Mrs. White is a sister to Wayland Nelson of County Line. Mr. White was formerly the county agent of Plains until he recently retired. Mr. and Mrs. White are the parents of Mrs. Donnie Shafer of our community.

On our trip to Graham, Texas, we visited our godchildren and their family Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ledbetter and Scarlett and Patricia. They live on a ranch three miles from Graham and have a canyon and caves with a river (creek) in front. It is a beautiful place to stay awhile and enjoy the peace and quiet. It is kinda' hard for us to keep up the pace of two teenagers 14 and 16 ... The bluebonnets are beautiful on the highways this time of yer. We also attended the reunion of the Pioneer and Old Settlers Reunion in Pilot Point, Texas, where my Mom and Dad were raised and grew up. They have the reunion in the Community Building and spread eight banquet tables with food of all kinds. The former judge of Denton who is in his 90's makes the welcoming address and prayer. It was a most memorable occasion. It meets the first Sunday in May every year.

We had a wonderful fellowship and lots of laughs at the County Line Community Club meeting Tuesday with Pam Connell and Mary Ruth Manley as hostesses. They had a has been party where you were supposed to dress as something you had been in the past. Bobby Embry brought her bell and dressed like a school teacher and Alta Embry was the dunce or teacher's pet and answered all the questions correctly like ... what is a circle and Alta answered a circle is a square with the corners chopped off. Sharon Coffee (our newest member) dressed as a little girl, pig tails and freckles and bobby sox and shorts. Fay Pope of Abernathy came as a fisherwoman with her lifesaving jackets on and a rod and reel with a big fish dangling on it. Mary Ruth Manley who makes cakes and pies daily for the public, came dressed in her bakers cap and big white apron and her bowl and spoon. She won first prize and Fay Pope won second. Pam Connell had her sister from Oklahoma visiting as our guest and she had her to recite poems she had learned as a girl. She gave three poems each 15 minutes long and never made a bobble. Fantastic memory for a youngster in her 70's. Mary Ruth Manley and Pam served jam cake and punch to the group. Pictures were taken of the group to be put in our newly acquired scrap book.

Don't forget to come to our all day quilting Tuesday May 3, and bring a sack lunch. Don't say I don't know how to quilt ... cause we don't either and we will teach you. We have lots of fun anyway. So see you Tuesday.

Notice to Pet Owners

Pet owners in the community are reminded they must have their animals vaccinated for rabies.

Dr. Duvivant will be in the Fire Station at the City Hall in Shallowater on Saturday, May 14, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. for the purpose of vaccinating the animals.

Pets must be immunized for the rabies every year.

Bridal Shower Honors Grissom

The Newman Lusk home was the scene of a bridal shower, Saturday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. for Miss Linda Kay Grissom, bride-elect of Andrew Swift, Jr.

The honoree's chosen colors of yellow, orange and white were carried out in decorations. The serving table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of yellow and white iris, enhanced with baby's breath, arranged in a lovely silver footed bowl, by Mrs. R.W. Woodruff, who also grew the flowers.

Before the shower began, a circle was formed by the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Grissom, other special guests and the hostesses and Cindy Lusk led the group in prayer.

Delicious orange punch, and cookies decorated in the bride-elect's colors were enjoyed by those attending. Miss Grissom was the recipient of 73 gifts from those who registered during the calling hours and those who sent gifts.

Special guests were Mrs. Grissom, the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Eula Thompson of Dallas, her aunt, Mrs. Quinton King, and cousins Tascha and Tesha King, all of Dallas.

Hostesses were Mmes. J. U. Cone, Gerald Clifton, A.C. Henderson, Jack Kassahn, J.C. Kulm, Ed Lawson, Harry Leonard, Doyle McKennon, James McMenamy, Louis McMenamy, Kenneth Shropshire, Wayne Starch, M.J. Williams, R.W. Woodruff, W.C. Vaughan and Newman Lusk.

The hostess gift was a Sunbeam Deluxe Mixmaster in harvest gold.

The trouble with luck is that it often disappears when you need it most.

Luncheon Honors Beverly Pair

Miss Beverly Pair, senior student at Shallowater High School was honored with a dinner party in the Gold Room at Hemphill-Wells on Tuesday, April 26, at 7:00 p.m. by her cousin, Mrs. Garland Boozer, Jr.

Special guests were her mother, Mrs. Sue Pair, and sister, Maureen, her grandmother, Mrs. O.W. Pair, and aunts, Mrs. Cleo Vaughan and Mrs. Butch Pair and a cousin, Mrs. Tim Spence.

The tables were decorated with lovely spring tulips.

Study Club Meets

The Shallowater Study Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. Woodruff. There were 16 members present. Each one answered roll call by telling how they relaxed. Lemon fruit freeze and coffee were served to the group.

Goals of Beef Research and Information Program to be Set

What are the goals and purposes of the proposed beef research and information programs?

If eligible livestock producers vote in favor of the beef checkoff program this spring, it is designed to allow the establishment of projects for advertising, promotion, education, producer and consumer information with respect to use of cattle, beef and beef products, says Tom Simmons, Lubbock County Beef Referendum Chairman and Ken D. Cook, Lubbock County Extension Agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Similarly, the program would allow for the establishment and conducting of research, market development projects and studies with respect to production, growing, sale, processing and distribution, marketing or utilization of cattle, beef and beef products.

The program also would include development and expansion of foreign markets.

The checkoff is designed as a self-help program, where the producer would be contributing 3/10 of one per cent of the sales of his cattle. For example, for a producer to contribute $100 to the program, sales from his cattle would need to be $33,333 annually.

Nearly $40 million would be generated in the program's first year of operation, based on the assessment rate as outlined in the proposed program. The program would be administered by a Beef Board of not more than 68 members from eligible producer organizations of each state or geographical area. Texas should have a representation of about seven members on the Beef Board, to help determine how the checkoff monies would be spent.

Meat Consumption Really Not High

Many consumers in America are constantly bombarded with the statistics of their daily diets. One of the most prominent figures is how much beef and other meat is being eaten by the American household.

Dr. Ed Uvacek, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, notes that total meat consumed per person in the U.S. during 1976 was about 129 pounds, an all-time high. Most meat consumption figures, however, include the total weight of the slaughtered carcass, not what actually ends up next to the mashed potatoes.

"Since meat is trimmed of excess waste and is cooked before it is eaten, more than half of the weight is actually lost," Uvacek points out. "The wholesale weight, therefore, greatly exaggerates the consumption figure."

"Actually, Americans consumed about two ounces of cooked beef daily last year," explains the Texas A&M University System specialist.

"With lamb, veal and pork included on the same basis, the new total consumption figure adds up to just under three ounces of red meat daily — or about 67 pounds a year. That's a far cry from the 129-pound figure," contends Uvacek, "and really isn't very much."

The best way to become financially independent is to learn how to say "no" to yourself and start a savings plan.

Mrs. Boswell to Lead Bellringers

Mrs. Darrell Boswell of Shallowater will lead Bellringer workers in a house-to-house drive during May, Mental Health Month.

"Proceeds will benefit the Mental Health Association in Texas," said Shirley K. Camfield, state President of the voluntary citizens' association.

As a non-governmental agency the association can and does speak for the consumer — the person who needs professional help for an emotional disturbance.

"The association is a moving force to get services established where there are none. It also serves as a monitoring agency to see that treatment services are doing what they were set up to do," said Camfield.

The Mental Health Association strongly promotes more community-based care as well as more research into the causes of mental illness.

Seeking to prevent mental health problems through education, the association, in cooperation with the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Early Childhood Development Division, sends out the newsletter series "Pierre the Pelican" to first-time parents in the state.

The 28-part series, in English and Spanish, is mailed periodically and deals with the emotional and mental development of children while giving helpful hints to parents.

Additionally, the association offers literature to the public on a variety of topics including depression, alcoholism, and positive mental health concepts. For free information write to the Mental Health Association in Texas, 103 Lantern Lane, Austin, Texas 78731.

Dates Set for Beef Referendum

HOUSTON — Tentative dates for the national Beef Referendum, in which all cattlemen will have an opportunity to vote on a self-help program, have just been announced by the USDA. The dates are June 6-17 for registration and July 5-15 for voting.

"Cattle industry leaders have been waiting three years for these dates," says J.D. Sartwelle of Houston, who is chairman of the Texas Beef Development Taskforce. "That's how long we have been working to get a self-help program aimed at stabilizing and improving the beef market."

The program, known as the Beef Research and Information Act, was put together by cattle industry leaders and approved by Congress last year. If approved by two-thirds of the cattlemen voting, it will authorize a uniform collection of 3/10 of 1 percent of the value on each animal sold.

This rate will raise $30 million to $40 million a year for beef research, promotion, consumer education and foreign market development, according to Sartwelle. The funds will be administered by a 68-member Beef Board, comprised of cattlemen nominated by existing cattlemen's organizations.

"We have just begun an extensive educational program, aimed at reaching every cattleman in Texas," says Sartwelle. "In addition to the 60-member Texas Beef Development Taskforce, representing beef and dairy organizations throughout the state, we have a county Taskforce in each of Texas' 254 counties. We're all working to explain the merits of the program to cattlemen and encourage them to register and vote. Helping to spearhead the educational effort is the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, plus other cattlemen's organizations and general farm organizations."

A similar effort is underway throughout the United States. "Never has there been such a concerted effort among cattlemen to help themselves," continues Sartwelle. "Over 80 state and national beef and dairy organizations have endorsed the plan, plus a number of general farm organizations."

To vote in the Beef Referendum, producers must first register at the local ASCS office and certify that they have owned cattle at some time during the past 12 months. Then they may return, after a two-week waiting period, to vote at the ASCS office. Absentee forms will be available, upon request, for producers who prefer to register and vote by mail.

Gymnastics In Shallowater

by Suzie De Anda

Mendi Pair and Robin Lesly went to Briercroft Gymnastics Academy over the weekend to place in the Intermediate gymnastics event. Miss Pair placed fourth and Miss Lesly, pictured here, placed seventh.

These fifth graders should be congratulated on doing a fine job on representing Shallowater gymnastics.

The next contest will be for Beginners on May 14. We wish them good luck.

Senior Spotlight

by Claudett Lamb

The Senior for this week is Michael De Wayne Menton. Mr. and Mrs. Judge Menton are the parents of this fine senior. Mike was born December 8, 1958 to become a sagittarius.

Mike's favorite class is study hall because there he has a chance to catch-up on lost sleep. Favorite things for Mike cover most all boys' lists. They are money, cars, and girls. His hobbies are basketball, boxing, swimming and pool. Mike is a member of Speed Equipment World and Carlisle Pool Shark Club.

Mike's favorite thing about this year is knowing it's his last and taking part in senior banquets for the last time. He is planning to work after graduation and save his money so that someday he'll move away from Lubbock. To make this money, the only job Mike has in mind right now is trucking and maybe, just maybe, the National Guards.

Good Luck in whatever you decide to do!

Registration Set For Kindergarten

All children who are residents of the Shallowater Independent School District and will be 5 years old by September 1, 1977, are eligible to attend kindergarten next year.

These children and their parents are invited to attend a pre-school day on Friday, May 13, 1977 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at the Shallowater Elementary School. Parents need to bring their child's birth certificate and immunization record.

NJHS News

by Suzie De Anda

The NJHS will have their banquet on May 6th at the Big Texan Steak Ranch. The purpose of the banquet will be to install the new NJHS officers for 77-78 year. The new officers are Debie De Anda — President, Robin McMenamy — Vice-President, Sherisa Rolling — Secretary, and Shelbi McKinney — Treasurer.

The NJHS did a fine job in earning the money for the banquet. Their play, "Easy As Pie," was a very fine and amusing play. The actors and actresses were very convincing in their portrayal of young mischievous characters. Mrs. Hohertz and Mrs. Hopson did a good job in directing the play.

Mustangs At Regional

by Steven Wilson

The Mustangs took the trip to Odessa for the Regional Track Meet this past week. Clay Dixon, Angel Maldonado, and Rod Warren competed in the track meet. Clay Dixon competed in the pole vault while Angel Maldonado competed in the mile run. Rod Warren competed in the Discus event.

None of these young men placed in the first six places, but they gave everything they had in an attempt to win their event. These young men should be commended for their hard work. They did their best and that is what counts.

Athletic Banquet

by Claudett Lamb

This coming week will bring, for some, a very exciting, well-earned banquet. What banquet is this? Its the Athletic Banquet to be given May 9th. It will give tribute to athletes of Shallowater High School for participating in sports like basketball, football, track, tennis, golf, and volleyball. The Varsity members of each team will get special awards. The banquet will be catered by Hill Top Barbeque.

Our speaker for the banquet will be Bob Wright, Public Relations and Recruiting Coordinator for Texas A&M University. Bob Wright joined the Texas A&M staff in June, 1972, as recruiting coordinator and director of public relation for the Athletic Department.

Born Dec. 8, 1925, in Brownwood, Texas, Wright was an all-regional quarterback at Ballinger, Tex., High School. He was graduated in 1943 and entered military service. Following service, he played for two years at Howard Payne College in Brownwood where he received his bachelor's degree in 1949 and his master's degree in 1958.

He started coaching in 1949 as an assistant at Olney, Texas. Then he was an assistant at Brownwood High for five years and at Howard Payne for four years. He became head coach at Ballinger in 1960 and had a 40-12 record for five years. He moved to Cleburne where his teams were 21-10 for three years. From 1968-72, Wright was Assistant Executive Secretary for the Texas High School Coaches Association.

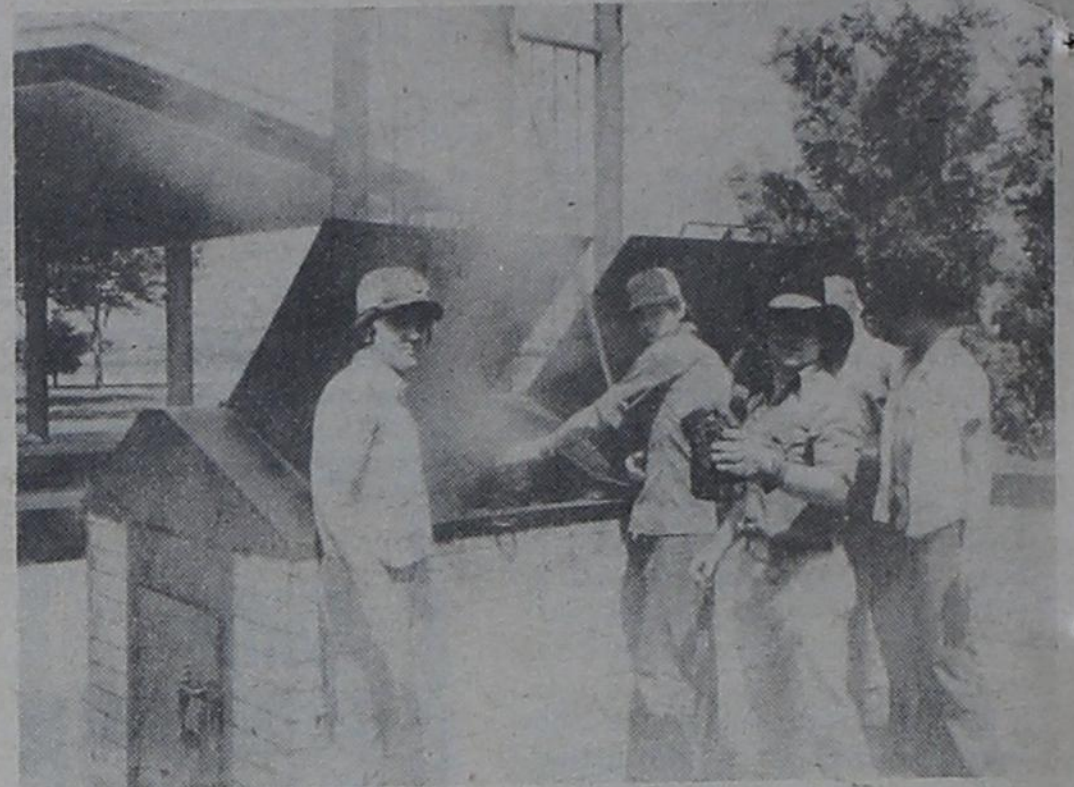

Wright and his wife Tylene have three children, son Robert Jr., 24, and daughters Nilah, 21 and Jaime, 17.

If you would like to come to the banquet you are welcome. Tickets may be purchased from any Booster Club Member or Mrs. Cowart in the Superintendent's office. These tickets are $2.00 for children and $3.50 for adults. Come and give these Athletes the encouragement they deserve for their accomplishments.

Thomas Jefferson, the U.S. president, was a redhead.

Banquet & Food Make Successful Treat

Saturday night, April 30, 1977, in the High School Cafeteria, the Shallowater FFA had their annual FFA Parent-Member Banquet.

The banquet was very enjoyable for the parents and special guest.

Special awards were awarded to members in our FFA chapter. Those receiving awards were:

Swine Production — Mike Hamersley; Sheep Production — Ricky Barron; Poultry Production

— Roy Cason; Dairy Cattle — Barry Randolph; Beef Production — Mike Hamersley; and Crop Production — Ricky Barron.

Also, Livestock Production — Barry Randolph; Rabbit Production — Kyle Bedingfield; Star Greenhand — Scott Penny; Star Chapter Farmer — Barry Randolph.

The meal consisted of: Brisket, Lamb, Potato Salad, Beans, Rolls, Salad, and Tea. The meal was cooked by the Shallowater FFA members.

Concert — II; Sightreading — I

by Alison Terry

A lack of cooperation and discipline in the Mustang Band seemed to be the cause for a lower rating at concert contest.

A divided band fell to a Division II last Tuesday as they performed their concert numbers before three judges. Although one of the three judges gave the Mustang Band a Division I, the other two recorded a "II" on the rating sheet. Therefore, the band received a Division II.

Sightreading brought out the talents of the band. A number was played which none of the band members had ever seen. Needless to say, the sound of the Mustang Band flowed easily throughout the piece. The judge was overwhelmed with the band's sightreading ability and chalked up a Division I in their favor.

Senior Spectacular

by Gloria Lara

This week's Senior Spectacular is Beverly Pair. She is the daughter of Mrs. Sue Pair. They reside at 1005 8th Street here in Shallowater. Beverly was born on that lucky day of June 11, 1959.

Beverly has many favorite things, but in school she has only one favorite subject and that is Psychology-Sociology. She likes this class because she can express her feelings on classmates and on school. Beverly's other favorite things are MEN, mexican food, and baby kittens. Aside from favorite things she has many interesting hobbies they include playing basketball, water skiing, skate-boarding, dancing, trying to play tennis, reading, and last but not least, laughing at funny matter.

Beverly is very active in school, as well as outside of school. In school she is a member of these clubs: Pep Squad, NHS, Annual Staff, and Student Council. She holds these offices in school this year, and they are Senior Representative of Pep Squad, Secretary of NHS, Ads manager of Annual Staff, and treasurer of Student Council. In other achievements in and out of school she has received Lions Queen, Basketball Queen, 2nd Team All District, Regional Qualifier Track in the 440 dash and mile relay, Regional Qualifier in Ready Writing, and Basketball Captain.

When Beverly was asked what she enjoyed most about her Senior year, she said athletics and just being a Senior. After graduation she plans to attend Tech in the fall. The career she plans to achieve is a high school teacher; but, she is really not certain yet. The last comment she has about her Senior year is she hopes that school would hurry up and end now that athletics has ended so everyone can truly say that she is a "has been."
