New Garbage Truck Arrival Expected Soon

September fifteenth is the expected delivery date for Shallowater's new side loading, canister type garbage disposal unit.

Large containers will be placed in alleys throughout Shallowater for the collection of garbage. Because of the width of the new side-loading truck, it will be necessary for all objects that might block passage of the truck, to be removed from the alleys.

The city of Shallowater asks for the cooperation of all its citizens in removing any objects that are illegally in the alleys, such as garbage cans and building materials.

Senator Hance to Speak Thursday

State Senator Kent Hance will speak at the League of Women Voters General meeting on Thursday, September 11th at the Pioneer Natural Gas Building, 1500 Broadway. Meeting starts at 11:45 a.m. A lunch catered by Vann's will be served at a cost of $2.95. Tax Collector/Assessor Russell Hardin will be at the meeting to deputize voter registrants.

BISCUIT AND BOILED COFFEE—Bobby Allen, cowboy for the Pitchfork Ranch, stops for a biscuit and coffee on a special visit to the Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech University. The chuckwagon is a part of the scenery at the center which eventually will be landscaped to conform historically to the structures which have been brought from throughout the state to give visitors an experience of the past. In the background are, left, the Masterson JY Bunkhouse and the Harrell House of Scurry County. Each denotes a different stage in the development of ranching in the American West. The Ranching Heritage Center's official opening is set for July 3, 4 and 5, 1976, as a part of America's Bicentennial celebration. (Tech Photo)

September 17 is Citizenship Day. It marks the beginning of Constitution Week, a time for study and reflection on the events that led to the signing of the U.S. Constitution in 1787.

Among the many Americans observing Citizenship Day and Constitution Week will be 368,000 young people from 9 to 19 in the national 4-H citizenship program. Under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service, these 4-Hers take part in year-round activities intended to increase their interest, understanding and knowledge of the rights and duties of American citizenship.

4-H members learn by doing to fulfill their responsibilities as citizens of the community, county, state and nation. They show concern for the welfare of others through participation in service projects and meaningful involvement in civic organizations.

Shallowater Lions Club Meeting Held Here Last Thursday

September 11th at 8 p.m. at the Shallowater Restaurant is the time and place set for a very special Lions Club meeting.

James R. "Jim" Johnson, Lions International Governor of District 2-T2, will be joined by Tom Butcher, the Deputy District Governor, and Joe Felcher, the zone chairman, for an official visit to the Shallowater Lions Club.

Johnson, 35, has been active in Lionism since he was charter secretary-treasurer of the Lubbock Redbud Lions Club in 1969. Since then he has sponsored 16 new Lions and been active on the District Cabinet as either a member or officer for six years.

A current member of the Redbud Club, he has served his Club as charter secretary-treasurer, second vice president, first vice president and president.

Johnson has long been active in the Lions' Youth Exchange Program and even was awarded the Top Ten YEP chairman's recognition of Lionism.

Johnson is in his seventh year of perfect attendance, is a master key member, has attended and participated in every Cabinet meeting and District Convention since 1969, and has organized and extended the first L.E.O. Club in the district.

He has worked in all areas of Lionism, with more emphasis on youth activity and international relations.

A Lubbock accountant, the adopted Texan is married and has two children.

The meeting has also been designated as "Ladies Night" and promises to be a good one.

American Issues Forum Scheduled Next Thursday

The American Issues Forum is the national program for the Bicentennial developed under the auspices of the National Endowment for the Humanities with sponsorship from the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. Suggested in 1973 by Walter Cronkite, the Forum has evolved into a calendar of issues for discussion to be implemented on a nationwide scale. The American Issues Forum invites the entire population to examine issues critical to our American society.

Co-sponsored by Lubbock City-County Library and Lubbock Jaycees, the topic to be presented on September 11, 1975 is "A Nation of Nations". The meeting will be held at the Lubbock City-County Library from 7 to 9 p.m. on that date.

Scheduled speakers are: Dr. Harry A. Jebson Jr., assistant professor of history, director urban studies, Texas Tech University; Dr. Chester Alwyn Barr, associate professor of history, director ethnic studies, Texas Tech University; J. Evetts Haley, historical, who resides in Canyon, Texas, and is a popular local figure.

The national 4-H citizenship program was established in 1948 to honor Thomas E. Wilson, founder of Wilson and Company meat packers and Wilson Sporting Goods Company. Wilson, nationally renowned for his support of 4-H, was one of the founders of the National 4-H Service Committee and served as its president from 1924 to 1958.

In 1973, friends of Kenneth H. Anderson established a scholarship fund to recognize his many years of service to 4-H. Anderson is associate director of the Service Committee and has served the organization for 37 years.

Awards for 4-Hers who excel in citizenship activities are donated through the Service Committee in memory of Thomas E. Wilson and by friends of Kenneth H. Anderson. Award winners are selected by the Extension Service on the basis of their accomplishments in 4-H and civic projects.

This year, six outstanding 4-Hers will receive expense paid trips to the 54th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 30 - Dec. 4 in Chicago, and college scholarships of $800. During the congress, the high-ranking boy and girl will be presented with silver trays in the name of the President of the United States.

Banner Bold and Beautiful, a Fawcett Gold Medal book, was released last month. A prolific writer, Mrs. Barron has published several novels.

Extensive historical research into the history of Texas provides the background which the author has put to expert use. Mrs. Barron traveled throughout the South and Southwest, collecting information about the land and its people; information that helped create the rich, romantic and authentic atmosphere of Banner Bold and Beautiful.

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

Dan Irons, the fine young Texas Tech tackle, and his dad, former Tech center Ed Irons, walked into church Sunday and I swear the right side of the sanctuary tilted. And, when Mike Keeney joined them shortly afterwards, there was no question of it.

The three of them would make a good front line, possibly as big as anything the Raiders used to boast back in the days when Marshall Gettys was a 180-pound scourage at tackle.

Dan, his dad and I had walked to the church from the parking lot and I had kidded Dan about the wind sprints.

"Nine hundred yards!" he exclaimed with a shake of his head. "And on top of all of that other."

The "other" was two hours of scrimmage, that was about as hard hitting as you'd want to see. When the squad lined up and began those goal to goal sprints, it looked like slow motion.

"They'll be the best conditioned squad in the conference," Ed said with a grin, "but that's the fourth quarter. That's when games are won or lost."

It was a good scrimmage last Saturday and the Raiders, despite two-a-days, showed signs of being sharp. There were spots that they didn't look good, where more work needs to be done, but Steve Sloan and staff must have been pleased overall.

The running of Cliff Hoskins, Rufus Myers and Billy Taylor was strong, while Tommy Dunning and Rodney Allison at quarterback moved the clubs well, and threw pretty well, too.

Defensively, there were some bright spots and, at times, the offense wasn't able to move. Ecomet Burley, of course, had a good day, but there were others who stood out.

One of the things I liked the most was the way the Raiders were using the pass. The passing game was intelligent, shorter passes and more a part of the offense than in the past, when too often it seemed as though everyone knew the pass was coming.

Ricky Bates made one tremendous reception and there were a number of good catches made by receivers. All in all, the passing attack, as used Saturday, was reassuring.

Last year Lawrence Williams caught 27 of the 65 passes attempted by Tech—and most of them were long passes. It became a little ridiculous in 1974, because Williams most of the time was double covered and other receivers were ignored.

Obviously, that situation won't exist this season.

All in all, the scrimmage was reassuring. The squad has this week in which to get some of the kinks out, rest a little and polish the offense, while setting the defense.

Next week the Raiders will have all week to put it together and seriously prepare for Florida State. It looks from here as though the Raiders were ahead of progress at this point a year ago and things are beginning to take shape.

Neither Baltimore nor Kansas City has been able to gain on Boston and Oakland respectively, Los Angeles has runaway with its division and the Phils, Cards and Mets stumble just enough to allow Pittsburgh room to breathe.

We're in the dog days of baseball and the challengers have not been able to put together a hot streak. There still is time, but it's running out. It looks like the Red Sox vs. the A's and the Cincinnati Reds vs. the Pirates in the playoffs.

I want to wish E.C. Leslie the best. The assistant school superintendent and former Hubber second baseman, underwent open heart surgery Wednesday morning.

Les is in Methodist Hospital and I know that he'd like to hear from his many friends. He's had quite a seige, but I'm told that this really was a blessing. He's supposed to be as good as ever when the operation and recuperation period is over.

Recently he had pains in his chest and was put in the hospital for heart attack. Later examinations showed no damage to the heart, but a closing condition in the main artery, which led to the pains. So, they were to perform a by-pass operation.

Les is typical, in a way, of the former players who stayed in Lubbock. Although he went from player to Ph.D. and school administrator, the former ball players who stayed in Lubbock have become good citizens and made great contributions here.

Red fish in West Texas? Kelly, you've got to be kidding. Red fish, a popular dinner entree, is a saltwater fish. Just where in West Texas do you find saltwater?

To be exact, at old Hamlin Lake, for one, and Red Bluff, just south of Carlsbad Caverns in Texas, for another. The Parks and Wildlife Dept. stocked Red Bluff some time ago and two weeks ago stocked old Hamlin Lake with thousands of fingerlings.

Red Bluff has produced catches of up to 50 pounds and old Hamlin Lake is thought to be, in time, equal in good fishing. A test of the lake's salinity shows 13,000 parts per million, which is about four times as high as the ocean.

So, fishermen don't have to make the long trek to the Gulf Coast for a good sea fish, unless they just want to get away. It sounds promising.

*****

The Roundup—There was no mistaking the big guy, it was Jerry Walker, former great Tech tackle. Jerry, who spends most of his time on the road, was coming in to see the Raider grid scrimmage . . . Another familiar face, a halfback I hadn't seen in a long time, was M.C. Northam. He was one of the more exciting halfbacks.

REMEMBERING...

By BILL D. BROOKS

SELLING STUFF

It seemed like such a good deal. The ad in the comic book said it was just what everyone needed. The product would "sell itself." All you had to do was sell twelve cans of Cloverine Salve and you could have one of several exciting, wonderful "gifts." I tore out the coupon and scrawled in all the information (my mother had to sign it), dropped it in the mail and, with eager anticipation, looked forward to the day when the merchandise would come.

I made plans on how I would show the product to people and I made a list of sure-to-buy customers. I visualized selling everything the first day and having to re-order many times. I selected what gift I would receive first and was certain I would have them all before I was through.

When my order came I quickly set out on my way to the homes of people on my list. City kids have a definite advantage over country kids when it comes to selling stuff door-to-door. The main reason being that in the city doors are lots closer together. I was a country boy and the first person on my list lived more than half a mile away. That wasn't going to bother me.

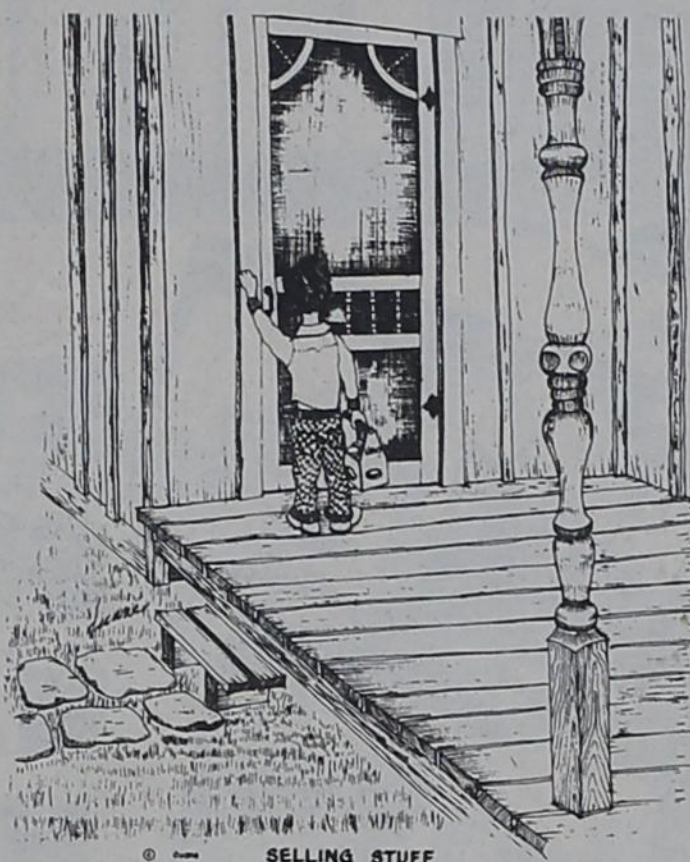

I arrived at the Taggarts shortly, out of breath, knocked on the door, ready to present my wares. Mrs. Taggart opened the door, smiled, said "no, thank you," and shut the door. It all happened so fast, I just stood there. After a while I walked slowly away, not really certain it had happened at all. "Oh, well, what's one person more or less, there are lots more on my list." I made my way to the Jalma's place next and it must have been that Mrs. Jalma had taken lessons from Mrs. Taggart because she used exactly the same words.

After walking for miles that day, I determined that not everyone needed all-purpose salve. In fact, not one person on my list needed it. On the way home I had to pass by old man Cantrell's. I didn't have him on my list because he was mean and gruff and didn't like kids coming around his place. I decided to stop there anyway. To my surprise, he said he had been needing some of that salve and he bought two cans of the stuff!

After that my aunt bought one can, just to help out and the other nine cans — well, my dad bought them. He said he would buy them only with the strict understanding that I never clip another coupon from a comic book.

I learned some valuable lessons from the experience which, in a small way, made it a worthwhile venture. I learned you cannot predict what people will need, want or buy. I learned that few things are free, that some type of work is involved anytime there is some type of worthwhile gain. And I learned, though I already suspected it, that my dad was a swell guy.

Big Green Machine Is Starting to Roll

The 1975-76 Ropes Eagles, under the coaching staff of Bill Shaha, Don Parker and Bobby Faught, will put to power their hard work and determination to win come Friday night when they take on the Shallowater Mustangs at 7:30 p.m. in Ropesville.

The "mean green" has really worked hard these past few weeks and it has really shown. The Eagles are really determined to come out on top this year and I hope the community will come out and help back that "Eagle Spirit!"

There will also be a pep rally at 3:00 Friday afternoon in the high school gym. Everyone is invited. Let's show the Eagles we're backing them all the way!

Rays of Hope

by Pat Stanton
DO NOT BLAME GOD

When heartache and problems sweep over your life, do not blame God. Do not lash out at your only hope.

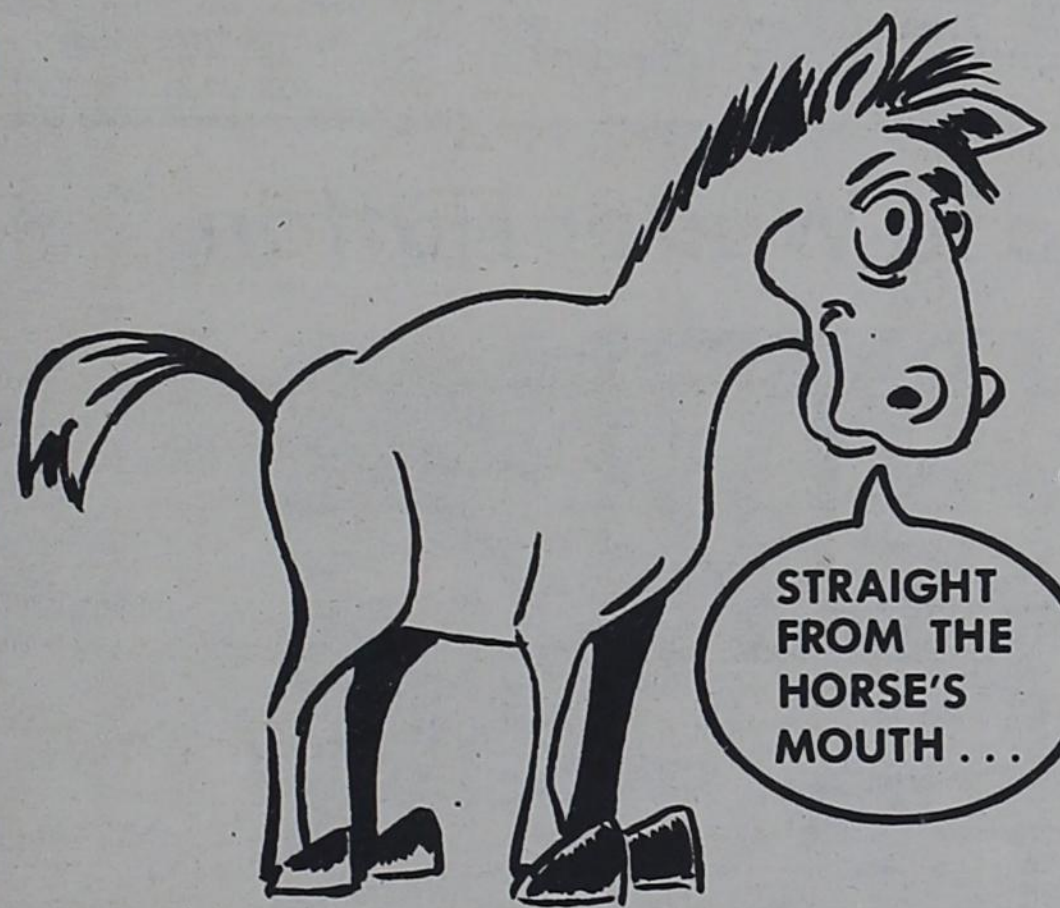

The Bible states that in all of Job's suffering and loss, he did not sin with his lips (Job 2:10). His wife urged him to curse God and die, but Job did not yield to his lower nature. Job kept his faith, he hung on tightly. That was his victory and he recovered from all his losses.

When you receive a loss, do not strike out at your only source of strength.

National Honor Society News

The NHS is having their first meeting of the year at the Party Room of the Shallowater First State Bank. The meeting will begin at 7:00 p.m. on September 8th.

If you are not coming, please inform Mrs. Kulm before the meeting.

Football Spotlights

by Kim McMenamy

The football spotlights this week are two seniors, Billy Dixon and Ray Jackson.

Billy plays fullback and linebacker. He is an even 6 feet tall and weighs 170 pounds. As you can surely see, Billy is the perfect size to mash heads on the field. Billy says that he really likes to hit hard and make his opponent hurt. With guys like Billy on the team, the Mustangs should do well this year.

Ray is a newcomer to Shallowater. Last year he played football for, and went to, Odessa Permian High School. Ray says he really likes small towns and enjoys it here. Ray plays quarterback on offense and safety on defense. He does a good job at both. Ray weighs 150 pounds, likes lots of contact and he is one of those hard hitting Mustangs.

F.H.A. Officers

by Geree Green

The president of Future Homemakers of America this year is Caran Conner. Other officers are: Laura Walker, vice president; Allison Terry, secretary; Susie DeAnda, treasurer; Anita Alvarado, reporter; Susan Heinen, parliamentarian; Sherry Stence, historian; Connie Boone, song leader; Jeanye Hunter, Impact and Encounter chairman; and Geniese Grawunder, Projects Money Chairman.

The F.H.A. members stay involved in all kinds of projects throughout the year. Most of these are centered around the Sweetheart Banquet. F.H.A. members in the past have always turned out a terrific banquet but their ultimate goal for each year is a better Sweetheart Banquet.

F.H.A. needs all of our support so let's give it to them.

Parking Lot Opens

by Anita Alvarado

The parking lot that was started last fall has now been completed. This parking lot may be used by the students and faculty. It has been paved and graveled. The new parking lot will be used for basketball games and football games. It has been announced that no more parking will be allowed in front of the high school building. There is plenty of room now with our new parking lot for everyone to park.

We would like to express our feelings by saying that we are very proud of our new parking lot.

Pep Squad Officers

Senior Spotlight

by Sue Wall

In this, our first weeks Senior Spotlight, we feature two of the senior girls, Anita Alvarado and Kim Young.

Anita is 17 and her zodiac sign is Virgo. Like many Virgos, she enjoys swimming, tennis, and volleyball. She is reporter in F.H.A., a member of the pep squad, and is on the newspaper staff. She plans to work after graduation and a comment she offered about this school year is, "It's a good year, so far."

Kim Young fills the other half of our spotlight this week. Kim is a 17 year old Aquarian and has many hobbies. A few of these are basketball, track, tennis, and boys. After graduation, she plans to go to Texas Tech and major in drama or music. Kim is active in many clubs at school and a few of these are F.H.A., band, and she is president of the National Honor Society.

Her comment on school is, "Since this is the most important year, I'm going to do my best to make it the best year I've ever had."

Band Readies for First Performance

by Geniese Grawunder

The Mustang Band is ready and raring to go for the first football game this Friday. The band has been working hard since school started to get the first half-time show ready.

For some of the band members, the work started even earlier. During the summer, the Mustang twirlers, Geniese Grawunder, Kim Myers, Sherry Stence, Tammy Medlock, Jamie Myers, and Drum Major George Parsley, attended Texas Tech Band Camp. The twirlers and George spent from 3 to 5 hours each day of the two-week camp in twirling or drum majoring classes. A twirling contest was held after the first week of camp, and the Mustang twirlers captured 2nd place out of 20 lines that participated.

Mr. Rusty Sherman, the band director, has been working hard arranging music and designing shows for the '75 half-time season. Some of his own musical arrangements that will be used for the shows include, "You Won't See Me", "I'll Fly Away", and the currently popular, "Love Will Keep Us Together." The Mustang Band's half-time shows will feature diamond drills, pinwheels, and other difficult drills, throughout the season.

If you are outside between 11:30 and 12:30, you're sure to hear the Mustang Band practicing for their next spectacular performance. Come to the Ropes game Friday night to see what the Mustang Band has planned for '75.

Eletelephony

by Laura Elizabeth Richards

Once there was an elephant, Who tried to use the telephant— No! No! I mean an elephone Who tried to use the telephone— (Dear me! I am not certain quite That even now I've got it right). Howe'er it was, he got his trunk Entangled in the telephunk; The more he tried to get it free, The louder buzzed the telephee— (I fear I'd better drop the song of elephop and telephong!)

Attention Students!

by Laura Walker

Have you ever forgotten to check your supply of paper before going to the store and the next day discover that you have only two clean sheets to do an all discussion history test on, or became frustrated in English because your pen has run out of ink?

Well, the D.E. Club can help solve your problem. There will be a school store opening for students to purchase school supplies. Pens, pencils, paper, crayons, notebooks, etc., may be bought in the D.E. room, located just north of the elementary school. The store will be open from 8:00 to 8:15 and from 12:15 to 1:00.

Mustangs On The Road

by Chris Hutchings

Last Friday the Shallowater Mustangs headed down to Wilson Mustangs. At the beginning of the game, the Shallowater Mustangs looked very strong. Throughout the game they looked stronger. Even though the final score was 2-1 in favor of Shallowater, Coach Ed Wolski stated that we need a lot of ironing out.

Friday, Sept. 5, the Mustangs will be traveling to Ropesville. The game is at 8 p.m. It is the first game of the season and the Mustangs would like everyone to go to the game and boost them to a good start.
