

Low Prices Offered for 1977 Cotton Crop

Matt Gonzales was presented this plaque at Monday nights City Council meeting for his 10 years of service. The plaque reads "Presented to Matt Gonzales in appreciation for 10 years of service 1967-1977. We the people of Shallowater extend to you our deep appreciation." The presentation was made by Mayor Joe Cox on behalf of the council members and townspeople.

Athletic Booster Club News

by Dale Jackson

Many parents and booster club members were present for the weekly athletic booster club meeting Tuesday night in the high school auditorium.

Alternate president, Bob Dopson, called the meeting to order and turned the program over to Coach Joe Tubb who introduced the individual players who participate on the Mustang junior varsity football team.

The JV holds a current season record of 3 wins and 3 losses. Coach Derrith Welch introduced players from the 7th and 8th grade teams. The 7th grade Ponies have a fine record of 5-1.

The 8th grade is 0-8 thus far. A game film of the 41-0 thrashing by Seagraves was quickly shown.

School Superintendent Charles Hohertz passed out copies of the new football schedule for the 1978-79 season. The Mustangs will be picking up 6 new opponents for next year in the likes of Sudan, Hart, Springlake-Earth, Forsan, and Anton. The Mustangs should compete very well in this schedule next year.

The Mustangs challenge the Plains Cowboys this coming Friday night at Todd Field at 7:30 and "Fearless Fredricks" picks for this game is Shallowater 28, Plains 13. Go Mustangs.

Commendation

Chief of Police Paul Carter, has appointed patrolman John Simmons to the rank of Sgt. Simmons who has been with the police department for around 6 months was security guard for Methodist Hospital prior to taking this position.

He recently was given a letter of commendation for his participation in apprehending a criminal long sought by peace officers in the area as well as in South Texas. The letter reads:

COMMENDATION
For honest and faithful service in apprehending a criminal long sought by this area as well as south Texas peace officers.

Sergeant John Simmons

October 19, 1977

Paul Carter
Chief of Police

Attest:
Joe Cox, Mayor
City of Shallowater

Simmons is to be congratulated for his service rendered to the police department since he has been employed.

Girl Scouts Go Backpacking

The Caprock Girl Scout Council will sponsor its first backpack trip of this school year on October 22 and 23.

More than thirty Cadette and Senior "Texas Trekker" Girl Scouts will meet on a private ranch near Post, Texas for a map and compass session prior to the two-day trip.

Each girl will furnish her own backpack, tent, stove, food, sleeping bag and personal equipment. Most of the light weight equipment is especially designed for this kind of activity. Participants have been briefed on out-of-door skills as well as first aid for fatigue, exposure and hypothermia during special training sessions.

Adults attending will be Miss Lavica Strother, trip director; Miss Sherry Peel, Miss Sharon Washburn, and Miss Diane Gray.

Girls represent the towns of Wolfforth, Shallowater, Crosbyton, Floydada, Plainview, Leveland and Lubbock.

Low prices being offered for the huge 1977 cotton crop have prompted farmer-elected Directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. to call for a 1978 cotton set-aside requirement equal to that expected for feed grains.

The action came at an October 12 meeting in Lubbock. The Board also instructed its staff and officers to seek a "cottonseed target price" or some other workable means to alleviate depressed cottonseed prices.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has declared a 20 percent set-aside on wheat in 1978 and talk is that a 10 percent to 15 percent set-aside will be announced for feed grains. All regulations of the 1978 farm program have not been developed but it has been made clear that producers who fail to comply with set-aside requirements in effect on any crop will be ineligible for loans or payments on all crops.

The set-aside requirement on wheat, for example, means a farmer who plants 100 acres of wheat in 1978 will have to set aside and devote to conserving uses 20 percent of that amount, or 20 acres of his "normal cropland acreage." Otherwise he would be declared out of compliance on all program crops. However, if he plants no wheat in 1978 he will have no set-aside requirement.

"If there is a set-aside on feed grains and no set-aside on cotton," commented J.D. Smith of Sudan, a Director and former PCG President, "there will be a danger that some farmers will plant all cotton and no feed grains in order to utilize their total acreage."

This additional acreage in cotton, Smith reasons, could lead to a surplus cotton supply at the end of 1978 as burdensome as the current feed grain surplus.

Should USDA unexpectedly decide against a feed grain set-aside, PCG will not push for a cotton set-aside. The thinking of the PCG Board is that if set-aside requirements are the same for both crops, each will compete for land on factors other than the desire to avoid complying with set-aside regulations.

Producer returns on cottonseed this year aren't enough to cover ginning charges, a situation made even more dismal by lint prices often below production costs.

Government cottonseed price supports, effectuated through loans on cottonseed products, have been tried and found wanting in the past. If instituted now at a level high enough to help producers, most agree that cottonseed meal and oil would be priced out of the market and wind up in government stocks.

PCG therefore will urge USDA to devise a more direct approach to support prices. Discussed were two possibilities, a target price for cottonseed similar to that in effect for cotton lint, or a program that would operate in the same manner as the current price support system for wool.

Joe Brown Joins TSA Network

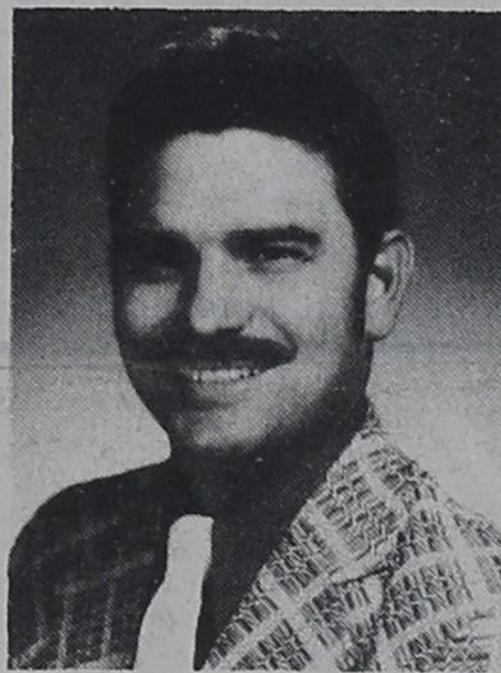

The Texas State Network has announced that Joe Brown has been named Farm and Ranch Director of its Texas State Agricultural Network. Brown will join the organization this month and begin work on plans for an expanded farm broadcasting schedule on the network.

Brown will begin his daily broadcast on the state-wide wired network on November 14th.

He will replace Murray Cox as voice of the Lone Star Farm and Ranch Show when Cox retires in December. The Lone Star Farm and Ranch Show now runs on 75 Texas radio stations.

Brown comes to Texas State Agricultural Network from KDAV radio in Lubbock where he has been Farm Director since 1972.

He is active in the National Association of Farm Broadcasters and is South Central Regional vice-president of that organization.

Texas State Agricultural Network joins Continental News Service, Servicio Informativo En Espanol, and the Dallas Cowboy Radio Network in operating out of the Ft. Worth offices of the Texas State Network.

All are owned by Swanson Broadcasting of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

KELLY'S HEROES

by Joe Kelly

While Texas Tech takes a well deserved—and needed—week off, the rest of the conference breezes merrily along. There are three games, with the most interesting the SMU at A&M clash.

The Red Raiders prepared for their two-week layoff by flexing their muscles ever so slightly against Rice—and picking up more distressing injuries in the process. Stricken, particularly, were Mike Mock, Greg Mahoney and Willie Stephens.

The big question, though, is being muttered by every Tech fan—can Rodney Allison come back? Only Allison and his team of doctors knows for certain and we'll have to wait to find out.

They took the cast off last week. Saturday night he prowled the sidelines in street clothes. He'll probably work on conditioning this week and maybe, just maybe, he'll be able to go fullsteam next Monday. It won't give him much time to get ready for Texas.

Fortunately, the Raiders had Mark Johnson and he has been progressing. He did a good job against Rice, his best output in the three games in which he's played. And Tres Adami, injured ankle and all, has done what was expected of him.

Still and all, with due respects, neither is quite an Allison yet. Johnson could be, because he has the quickness. He does need work on his passing, but that will come.

As for the Rice game, it turned into just about what was expected. The Raiders ground out a large of yardage on the ground, where Rice is weakest, and the Owls passed, where Tech has been something less than brilliant.

When the Owls tried to run, they were effectively stopped by Tech defenders. And Tech did pick off three passes, while giving the Owls the rollout and little more.

There was some muttering in the pressbox about play selection on both sides. The thing to remember is that sports writers aren't paid to coach and coaches aren't paid to be sports writers. With all due respects to journalism major Polk Robison, neither could do well at the other's tasks.

There were those who thought Rice ought to stay with its passing. Others thought Tech ought to stay in its running game. As a matter of fact, both teams did a little of both.

The Raiders, who appeared fired up, moved the ball initially, but had trouble putting points on the board. Two field goals were all they had to show for early sorties until Johnson took the Raiders on a brilliant 98-yard parade.

Still, the expected onslaught and deluge didn't come and Rice narrowed the margin to 14-7 early in the third quarter. That touchdown appeared to nettle the Raiders, who came to life.

Tech struck back for three touchdowns in rapidfire order. In the process they looked like the team everyone knew was there and for which they had been waiting. After that, Coach Steve Sloan was a gracious host and used reserves, giving them good experience.

It wasn't, except for the third quarter, a particularly impressive performance. Still, look at the record. Tech now has won three successive games without Allison, two of them on the road.

The Raiders are halfway through their schedule. They have a 5-1 record, and there aren't too many schools with a better mark. The only loss was to an A&M team that still must be faced by Arkansas, Texas and Houston.

Baylor almost pulled the upset of the year when it handed the Aggies a big lead and them almost took it away at the end. And SMU's defeat of Houston, coming from far back, was a real shocker.

You can't, of course, count any team out in any game in this conference. Even Rice is capable of beating someone when least expected, although I admit it is highly improbable. Still, a lot stranger things have happened. The race certainly is far from over.

E.J. Holub still has the magic that made him a hero to thousands, particularly the kids. I watched him as he progressed from the field and through the sidelines to the west stands.

The kids called to him and several seemed to be asking for his autograph. He stopped to talk to one fan, shook hands and carried on a long talk. Then, as the game kicked off, he proceeded. He presumably sat in the VIP and never got to the pressbox.

He cut a fine figure, standing arrow straight with his western hat pulled low over his eyes. He was escorted by a young lady and he stepped forward proudly when he was introduced.

You almost didn't notice the hand crutches that he used—and you wished that you didn't, because you remember when he was a scourge in both college and pro football. His knees were bad then, but not as bad as they are now, even. And he keeps going on that ranch in Oklahoma, a ranch on which he seems to have found peace.

The memories flood back. There was longtime sports authority Furman Bisher saying that of all the All Americans there in New York, Holub was the only one who looked like an All American.

There was the team doctor who said, in answer to a direct question: "He might finish the season, or one lick and he might never walk on that leg again."

And much, much more. I hope he has found peace and contentment. He richly deserves the good life. He paid his dues.

Texas Tech Rodeo

IT'S ALL IN THE DRAW, Rodeo and poker are a lot alike.

To win in either one of these two games of chance it takes a good draw. The difference is, in poker all you lose is money. In rodeo you could lose your life.

Cowboys aren't allowed to pick any animal they want to compete on, just like a card player can't pick his cards. Each animal used in rodeo competition is drawn for by the rodeo judges before the rodeo begins. After the animals are drawn, the cowboys then find out what they have to compete on, and they plan their strategy, just like a poker player when he sees his cards. Only in rodeo there can be no bluffing.

Don't miss the action and suspense at the Texas Tech Intercollegiate Rodeo on October 26-29. Performances start at 7:30 p.m. at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

Reduce Halloween Dangers

COLLEGE STATION — Many Halloween accidents occur when excited children dart from between cars, oblivious to traffic, or walk on dark roadway shoulders with their vision and movement severely restricted by face masks and cumbersome costumes.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service urges parents to consider these child-savers:

- Map out a route for your children, marking stops at only those homes where you know the residents.
- Review pedestrian rules of safety with the children.
- Tell the children to cross the street only at authorized crosswalks and never between parked cars.

—Remind them to look in all directions before crossing the street and to watch for and obey all traffic lights.

—Instruct them to use sidewalks and not streets for walking from house to house, and remind them always to wait on the curb—not in the street—until the street is clear to cross.

—Make sure the children are easily visible to motorists; select a light-colored costume and generously apply reflective tape to the back, front and sides; decorate the trick-or-treat bag with reflective tape, and give a flashlight to at least one of the children.

—Even better, encourage children to do their trick-or-treating during the daylight hours.

—Make sure costumes fit children properly and do not restrict their movements or vision; remember that makeup will not impair the child's field of vision as masks often do.

—Always try to have an adult near the children throughout the evening to serve both as a guide and a quieting influence.

—As an alternative to random trick-or-treating, consider joining other neighbors in staging a Halloween party where each family is responsible for a Halloween game and prizes.

A little extra time devoted to safety instruction before all the little goblins go out can make for a more enjoyable Halloween evening, says the Extension Service.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

It was an "arty" weekend, to say the least. With two major art exhibitions, paintings and sculpture, being exhibited Sunday afternoon, with the artists themselves present in person to greet their public, you'd have thought it was Dallas or Houston and not just little old Metro Lubbock!

The major preview showing was, of course, at the Regency Gallery out on Broadway, that attractive and beguiling studio home, that is hosted by the gifted architect-designer Don Kittrell. Don gave the honors to a lady who is so well known for her painting, her enamels on copper, her multitudinous talent that her show became a major event when it was simply announced.

She is Mona Pierce, wheel-chaired and looking as fit as she has ever done, presiding with a crammed audience of fellow artists and friends who have known and admired her work down through these many years.

I have known Mona Pierce for more than 20 years, in good times and bad, and I am proud to say that on my walls are two wonderful examples of her work, her gift to me. I wouldn't trade them for the worlds.

I had not seen Mona Pierce since she gave up her charming home and studio in the Avenues and moved to John Knox Village. I did have contact with her when a selection of her work was hung in Sutphen's Place Restaurant downtown, in the Green Building.

So, Sunday was reunion time out on Broadway. I do love Mrs. Pierce, and deeply so, and it was a delight to see her holding court with most of the town's big-wigs and art lovers. I only hope that she sold a good many of her wonderful works, for the proof of the artist lies, let's face it, in the cash register. If you don't know the expertise and the skill, the heartwarming and rewarding work that have come from the incredibly talented Mona Pierce hands, then take a few moments and go by the Regency Gallery on Broadway and see for yourself. The show will continue for weeks and there is no admission charge. You may well wind up with a Pierce on your walls, such as I, and you will have made a stunning and delightful investment.

The other art show that moved me into action was the "sextette" blockbuster that the Baker Gallery of Fine Arts hosted also on Sunday. It was indeed a "sextette" for six Colorado artists unveiled some stunning work in both sculpture and painting and leading the parade was a lady whose talents have long been known in these parts. She may call herself now a "Colorado artist" but you and I know that Glenna Goodacre is a home town girl and as long as she practices her superb skill she'll still be a part of us.

Glenna now devotes much of her work to the forwarding of woman's role in life and it is reflected stunningly in both her sculptures and her paintings. I do urge you to drop by Bakers, 13th and Ave. L, and see for yourself. The other artists were all there Sunday, James Disney, Ed Jagman, Ray Knaub, William Napier, and Ms. Goodacre, all save Ramon Kelley, A.W.S., who was among the missing.

Lubbock has come a long, long way (baby!) in this promotion of the arts and one has only to drop into the Baker Gallery or the Regency and see Mrs. Pierce's work, to know that we hold no candle to anyone. In the art, theater, music or cultural field in the whole. Let downstate look to their own laurels. We bask in ours.

This upcoming weekend is the time for the Civic Lubbock, Inc. presentation of the beloved musical "South Pacific." It is directed by Ric Brame, who gave us the unforgettable "West Side Story" this summer. It will be presented at the Memorial Civic Center Theatre at 6:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, with hot Polynesian hos d'ouevres serves in the fountain area. I know Roberto Silvano stars in the role of the aging, romantic "Some Enchanted Evening" planter, but no other information has been forthcoming and you'll have to call the Civic Center Box Office, 765-9441, to find out the rest. I do know the tab is $10, $9.50, $7 and $6. It should be an event to remember.

I'm up to my ears in working a drill press by day, rewriting a book by a Sherman, Texas "Kansas City Jazz" in the early days and am pleased as punch to announce that the time, my Golden Years, has finally arrived. With the sad death of Bing Crosby, added to Ethel Waters, Joan Crawford, Maria Callas and Zero Mostel this year, all friends, the powers-that-are have decided that the time has come for my writing of my autobiography. Honest! It'll be called, thanks to the Lubbock Theatre Centre's recent musical "Kiss Me, Kate," by Cole Porter, and what a good title it will be—"The Life That Late I Led."

This one is going to tell all, so anyone in the vicinity of 8th and J, and around the ramparts might start making plans for an evacuatio to the higher ground before the flash flood starts. 'Cause, it will, believe me.

I went out to the Fox Complex Sunday night to catch the preview of the new comedy, "Oh, God!" which stars George Burns as the Lord and John Denver in his first starring movie role. Denver is lost in the shuffle, Burns is offensive as God, and I should have followed my basic instincts which tole me to stay away in the first place. There are some things I do not hold with. Flippancy with the Diety is one of them.

There's a good, thoughtful all-black film also at the Fox called "A Piece of the Action." It has Sidney Poitier, Bill Cosby and James Earl Jones, heading the list. You'll find it entertaining and amusing, with a little heart thrown in this time, too.

That about winds this report. We'll keep you posted and you keep us posted, too. We may have lost Times West temporarily, but we still have West Texas Times and that is what it is all about, right?

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

3 ways energy can be saved in the home.

1 By improving the thermal integrity of the structure itself; by adding insulation, installing double glazed windows, reducing hot and cold air infiltration.

2 By installing efficient energy-saving systems and appliances.

3 By adopting wise use habits.

EFFICIENT USE OF FUEL RESOURCES.

The heat pump uses electricity efficiently because it can deliver as much as two units of heat for every one heat unit of electricity it uses during the heating season. The heat pump makes efficient use of fuel resources because it uses electricity for heating and cooling, and thus allows use of the nation's more plentiful fuels like coal. Southwestern Public Service is now reducing its dependence on natural gas as a fuel and is building plants that use coal to make electricity. Using fuels like coal preserves the nation's scarce petroleum resources for other uses. The heat pump saves electricity . . . and saves you money.

It's the electric savings machine!

Boswell Home Host To Sorority Pledges

The Darrell Boswell home bustled with excitement Friday night and early Saturday morning when the Boswell's daughter, Melanie and fifty-four of her classmates from Lubbock Christian College gathered in the Boswell home to spend the night. The occasion was initiation week for Theta Roe Sorority and all the girls were new pledges of the sorority.

The group gathered in the Boswell home around 11 p.m. after going to the Dalton Potter hog farm, where a part of their pledges were performed, (such as talking to the hogs, singing to them and also singing to Dalton). Potter remarked that their place had never had that much excitement before, and knowing Dalton he had as much fun if not more than the girls did.

Melanie is a senior student at LCC.

Methodist Women Meet

The United Methodist Women of Shallowater met Monday evening, October 10th, in the church parlor. The meeting was called to order with prayer by the vice president, Mrs. B.H. Thomas, Jr. Roll was answered by reading a Bible verse containing the word, "mind." A short business meeting followed.

The devotional, "As a Man Thinketh," was brought by Mrs. Bobby Blackburn.

The program, "I'm Talking to You, Am I Listening," by Hilda Lee Dial was led by Mrs. B.H. Thomas, Jr. The program was most unusual, thought provoking, as well as humorous.

Mrs. Alice McMenamy closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. M.J. Williams was hostess with eleven members attending.

The next regular meeting will be October 24th.

The people of the world won't agree unanimously. What we must learn to do is to disagree harmoniously.

Shallowater Study Club Meets

The Shallowater Study Club met Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 in the home of Mrs. Carey Gooch and enjoyed refreshments before going to Littlefield where they toured the denim plant there. This was the first time a public group had the opportunity to tour the plant.

Fourteen members and two guests, Mrs. Garland Stokes and Mrs. Doyle Williams, enjoyed refreshments and the two guests and eleven of the members went on to Littlefield.

The next meeting will be at

John Knox Village with Mrs. Bert Sinclair as hostess. The group will enjoy a talk on retirement age and the program will be "Alive and past 65."

Extension Update

by Georgia Doherty

Lubbock County Extension Agent RECYCLE GARMENTS

If you are as concerned as I am about the cost of clothes this fall, you'll do everything you can to save money.

Keeping a wardrobe fashionable doesn't mean replacing it every season. Small changes and minor additions can update many items in a wardrobe for a "now" look.

One fashionable winter look is the coordinated suit and shawl. To a solid color or tweed suit, add a plaid. To a plaid suit, add a solid color shawl. Simply fringe the edges of a big square and drape it around the shoulders.

Ribbons are an inexpensive means of updating, too. Wear one as a bow at the neck of a soft shirt to add "pizazz". Use wide grosgrain for a belt with dresses or skirts.

Also, combine ribbon and braid to add rows of color and lengthen a skirt at the same time.

To give jackets and coats new life, add braid to them. Outline the lapels, edges, and pockets for an updated look or to hid frayed edges.

For blouses and shirts, use lightweight trim.

Replace worn turtleneck tops with cowl-collar tops. Convert the turtleneck into a vest by cutting out the sleeves and reshaping the neckline. Finish the edges by adding strips cut from the sleeves or with lightweight braid.

CALCIUM/PHOSPHORUS AND HEALTH

Calcium and phosphorus are important to health. Many of us don't eat the foods which provide the amounts of these minerals that we need.

Strong bones and teeth aren't the only reasons we need these nutrients. An imbalance in the amount of these two minerals in the body can lead to osteoporosis, a loss of total skeletal bone mass.

Phosphorous helps us to use the energy from foods and other chemical reactions in our body. But of the two minerals, calcium is the critical one.

Calcium helps the heart, muscles and nerves to function properly and coagulate blood during bleeding. Two little calcium in the diet means that the body removes calcium from bones to supply other body needs, and that is a serious condition.

The best source of calcium are milk and milk products such as cheese, yogurt and ice cream. Lesser sources of calcium are dark green leafy vegetables and dried fruits.

Phosphorous is found in more foods than calcium is. It is found mainly in protein-rich foods such as meats, fish, poultry, organ meats, eggs, cheese and milk.

4-H Happenings

Approximately 100 4-H'ers will participate in the annual 4-H Food Show on Saturday, October 29. The public is invited to participate in the tasting tea at 2:45 p.m. and remain for the awards program. All food show activities will be held in the Home Economics Building on the Texas Tech campus.

Girls Athletics Start FCA

by Robin Truelock

The high school basketball team started a girls FCA, Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The first meeting was Oct. 6. The new leader is Mrs. Debbie Martin, a resident of Shallowater. She is married to Steve Martin and they have a one-year-old daughter named Aaron.

There will be two meetings a month. Twenty-six girls attended the meeting and officers were elected. The officers are: Captain, Cindy Jackson; Co-captain, Terri Stanton; Secretary, Robin Truelock; and Treasurer, Donna Evans.

All the girls are excited about this new organization and we hope it is a real success. We invite all the high school basketball girls to participate and grow closer to the Lord.

Football Spotlight

by Terri Stanton

21! 72! 51! You will find these numbers running for a touchdown and tackling their opponent, face down into the dirt.

The #21, is worn by 6'0", 160 lbs., Lane Giles. Lane's key role throughout the game is catching the ball; his position for the team is receiver. Lane unfortunately will not be playing anymore this year. He separated his shoulder from his collar bone. Lane will be missed greatly by the team, but we hope he will recover very soon from his injury.

Robin Krebbs wears the #72 proudly. Robin isn't very hard to see on the field killing his opponents with all 200 lbs., and standing at 5'10". Tackling is Robin's job the entire game and when he hits his opponent they really know they've been hit!

Our last football star is Roddy Thomas. Roddy is 5'9", 185 lbs. Center is Roddy's key role. When you hear the word "Hike" Roddy springs into action and everyone else follows him. Roddy is a very hard hitter and the team relies on him greatly.

The Fighting Mustangs will face Plains this Friday here in Shallowater. Everyone come out at 7:30 and watch the Mustangs run over the Cowgirls!

Eagles Soar Over JV

by Cindy Jackson

The Mustangs met defeat against the Seagraves Eagles. In the first half it looked as if the Mustangs were on a road to victory, but the second half ended like a haunted football story, where the bad guys came out victorious.

In the first quarter the Eagles were nested on cloud nine. It was 12-0 in their favor.

The Mustangs galloped back in the second quarter. Robert Sanders spirled a quick pass to Norbie Anaya to make it 12-6. While the Eagles were in their next, Robert Sanders threw a bomb to Huey Wooten to make the score 12-12.

The second half the Eagles pecked away and the Mustangs met defeat. The final score was 29-12.

Overalls in the Halls

by Cindy Jackson

Friday, October 14, was declared "Overalls Day." This was an effort to spread school spirit—to prove that we are the best over-all.

Many different fashions appeared. The baggy look, the tight and tugging look, and of course, the short and sassy, followed by the tall and slender.

We appreciate all who wore their overalls. We still have the positive outlook—that we are best over-all.

Eagles Held

Mustangs Scoreless

by Robin Truelock

Last Friday night the Shallowater Mustangs met the Seagraves Eagles at Seagraves. Seagraves is ranked #1 in the state. The Mustangs knew it was going to be a tuff game, so they went out on the field giving it all they had. The game ended Seagraves 41, Shallowater 0.

The Mustangs had five first downs and 90 yards total offense. Rod Warren did a great job punting under pressure. Injuries limited the Mustangs power. Lane Giles missed the game because of a previous separated shoulder, Neal Luck was put out of the game with a broken nose, and Stacy Hohenberger suffered a hip pointer.

Coach Wolski remarked that they are looking forward to playing Plains and hope the wounded will be able to play in this weeks game against Plains.

Come and see the Mustang make a come back and stomp the Cowboys. The game is here Oct. 21.

Junior High Splits

by Terri Stanton

The junior high football teams made an even trade with Seagraves Thursday night. The 7th grade plucked the Eagles clean, 30-0. Kevin Taylor had a great night, running for four touchdowns, plus four extra points. Joe Servin added 1 extra point for the Ponies.

The other side of the trade unwillingly, went to Seagraves 8th grade. The game was very close all the way. The Ponies Ruben Washington scored three touchdowns and 2 extra points. The Ponies fought hard all the way but, Seagraves barely won 36-22.

Thursday the 7th and 8th will face Plains, there. Everyone come and support the Ponies to another victory!

Junior High Honor Roll

8th Grade

Yellers for the Year

by Tony Heinen

This year's pep squad officers are: President, Barbara Thomas; Secretary-Treasurer, Dee Ann Cobb; Reporters, Lisa Gates and Reyna Jackson.

The representatives are: Senior, Robin Truelock; Junior, Robin Boswell; Sophomore, Shannon Martin; Freshman, Irma Duenez.

We thank the pep squad for all the hard work and effort that they have put forth each week.

They are responsible for making signs, decorating the halls, selling ribbons, and yelling the Mustangs to a victory.

Senior Spotlight

by Donna Evans

This week we are featuring two fantastic seniors, Clay Dixon and Sam Bohner.

Clay Dixon is the proud son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Joe Reed. He was born July 2, 1959, which makes him a Moon Child.

Clay has been going to school at Shallowater for many years. He has been in many activities representing Shallowater. He plays football for the Mustangs and is one of the captains. He plays basketball and he was selected by coaches to be second team All District last year. He also participates in track. He went to Regional in Pole Vault. In addition to athletics, Clay was elected as a runner-up for the Beast.

This year, the senior class voted Clay as president. He is a member of FFA.

Clay has many hobbies that he enjoys. He likes to water ski, snow ski, hunt, being mean. His favorite hobby of all: pumping gas at the Texaco. He also has other things that he enjoys. He loves to eat and his favorite food happens to be steak. Most of all he enjoys being with his girlfriend, Kim.

Clay's favorite subject is none other than athletics. He enjoys playing all the different types of sports; but, most of all he likes the competition.

Clay plans to attend Tech after graduating but isn't sure what he is going to major in, but whatever type of field he chooses, he wants it to make him rich.

Clay doesn't have much to say about this year or what he likes best about it. He did make one comment about this year. He said, "It's not too good, but could be better."

Sam Bohner is the astounding, bright son of Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Bohner. He arrived on February 17, 1960.

Sam has two favorite subjects that he enjoys the most. They are Government and Accounting. For this intelligent Sam, these are his two best classes. They are enjoyable for him and he makes good grades in these classes.

Sam has many interesting hobbies that he enjoys. He enjoys reading, but not your average, plain, dull stories. Exciting Science Fiction books are what he picks. He enjoys watching television and good movies. He also enjoys driving the car around town and getting into trouble with his friends. Bowling is also a favorite past time.

Sam is a very good person to have attending Shallowater High. He has held the position of vice president of the student council for the year 1976-77.

Sam has planned to move to Levelland, find a good paying job, and attend South Plains College. He plans to major in computer programming.

Even though Sam hasn't gone to Shallowater High for a long time, he has become a very well known person and a very good student.

I asked Sam what he liked about this year and he said, "It is the best year because I am graduating with the greatest class ever."

New Members for NJHS

The NJHS announced 12 new candidates to be inducted at 7:30 p.m., October 24 in the high school auditorium. They are:

8th graders, Tammy Yeager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yeager; and Troy Johnson.

7th graders, Rod Burgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byran Burgett; Debbie Dennington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dennington; Debra Dirickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ness; Rhonda Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Ellis; Harry Feldman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feldman; Bobby Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Freeman; Joey Hickox, son of Col and Mrs. Joseph Hickox; Keith Lostroh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lostroh; Tim Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Short; Jackie Whaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Whaley.

Selections are made by the faculty based on scholarship, citizenship, service, leadership, and character.
