Shallowater Girls Participate in Lions Convention in Brownfield Last Week

Two days of excitement and new adventure was experienced recently by two Shallowater High School Senior girls. Ann Boone and Cindy Cowart participated in the 1975 District 2-T2 Lions Club Convention in Brownfield last Friday and Saturday.

Fifty-two young ladies representing their Lion Clubs as Queen were presented in a formal pageant on Friday night in Brownfield's Middle School Auditorium. Mr. Bill McAlister, president of KMCC-TV in Lubbock, was Master of Ceremonies. Each girl was presented to the audience as Mr. McAlister told her name, hobbies and what she is planning for her future education. Ann is the Queen of Redbud Lions Club in Lubbock and Cindy is the Shallowater Lions Club Queen. Following the pageant, the girls and their escorts were guests at the Queen's Ball at the Brownfield Country Club.

Saturday the girls were allowed time to make new friends with girls from neighboring towns and also were treated to the movie 'Airport 75'. Ann's room mate for the weekend was Kenya Brashers of Wellman and Cindy's room mate was Sherri Collins of Ropes.

Both girls report having learned of many wonderful projects the Lions Clubs of Texas are involved in. Examples are the founding and support of Girls Town in Whiteface and the Eye and Kidney Banks which help save lives and blindness of many, many people.

Saturday night, the new District Governor and his Cabinet were installed at the Governor's Banquet held at the Brownfield High School Commons. Mr. Hack Lasater, outgoing District Governor was presented a portable TV and his wife's gift from the District Lions was a beautiful wrist watch. The new Lt. Governor is Mr. William R. (Bill) Hogge and the new Governor is Mr. Jim Johnson of Lubbock. Mr. Milton Elliott of Shallowater will serve in the new Governor's Cabinet. The Lions Club International Governor, Mr. James M. Fowler of Little Rock, Ark. was guest speaker for the Banquet.

The highlight of the two day event was the crowning of the new 1975 District 2-T2 Lions Club Queen by the Reigning Queen, Miss Michelle Jones of Anton. Miss Brashears, Ann's room mate was chosen to this honor. She received a $400.00 scholarship to Texas Tech where she will be attending in the fall. First runner up was Miss Penny Walter of Littlefield and second runner up was Miss Renita Wade from Lubbock's Southwest Club. The judges felt the race was so close, they mentioned two other girls they felt deserved an honor also. They were Miss Donna Jo Cheatham from Plains and Miss Gennalee Ellyson from Loop.

Others from Shallowater attending the affair included Lion Milton Elliott and Mrs. Elliott, Lion Joe Randolph and Mrs. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Boone and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cowart.

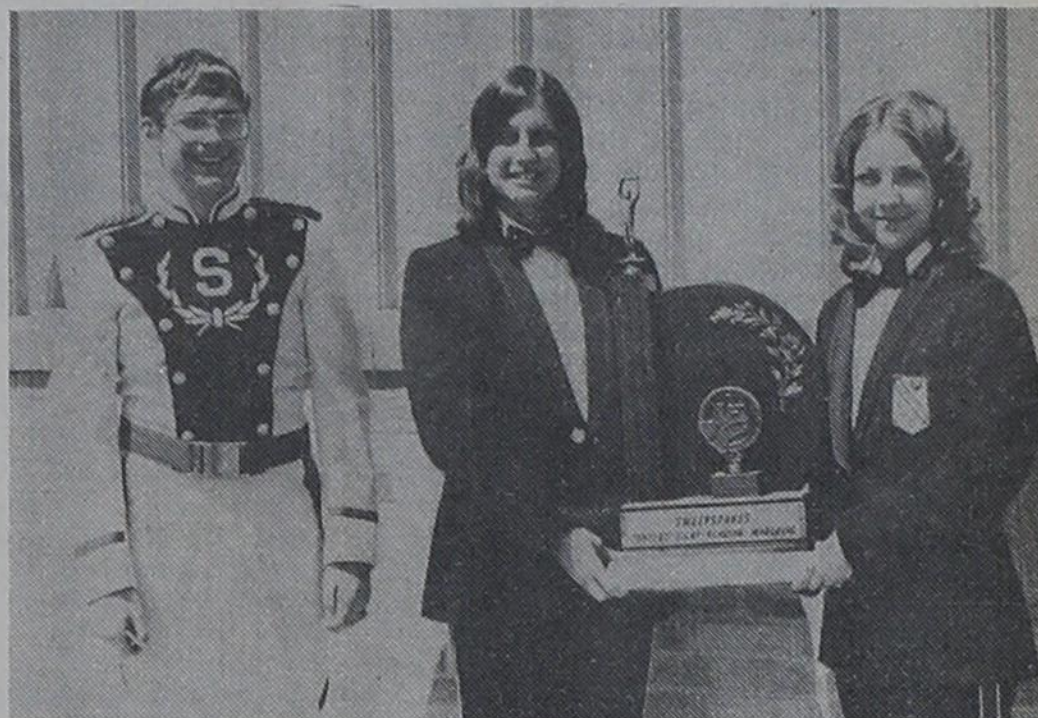

The recipe for success can be measured many, many ways, but all the Shallowater Mustang Band members needed to win Sweepstakes last Tuesday, April 22, in Seagraves, was the eagerness to win and to have an outstanding band director like Mr. Sherman to direct them in winning the first "Sweepstakes Award" in Shallowater School's history.

It was a great and exciting moment for all the 77 members of the band and Mr. Sherman, when the outstanding award was announced.

Shallowater merchants extend their congratulations to all who participated in winning the beautiful trophy that the band received and in showing their appreciation a full signature page with a picture of the Mustang Band is shown elsewhere in this edition, by the local merchants.

Last November the band acquired an excellent (1) rating in Marching contest and Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. the Sweepstakes was completed in the concert and sightreading areas—making three 1's. Mr. Sherman stated that all three judges gave them a first division rating. He also stated that these numbers will be featured in the upcoming Spring Concert scheduled for May 13.

Some comments of the judges were as follows. "This is a good band. You are lucky to have such a sweet and good teacher! A pleasing performance and enjoyable. Congratulations" is the way Dr. Charles Traylor, director of bands at ACC summed his comments up. Mr. Bill Carrice and Mr. Don R. Hayes both started their comments by saying "Nice looking band." "Enjoyed hearing you," is the way both men concluded their comments. The sightreading judge Douglas Fry commented— "This is a good looking group." "This is a nice band—we probably should relax a bit more (that's easy for him to say) you show good training and did a fine job." As is shown by these comments the judges were very pleased with the Mustang Band performance.

Having made the Sweepstakes the band has now earned a trip to compete at the Six Flags Band Festival. They will depart Thursday, May 8 and will return late Friday, May 9.

Other rating for area schools were as follows with concert given first and sightreading given second: Ropes 1,1; Sundown II, I; Loop II, II; Wilson I,I; (Class B) Spur II, I; Plains III, III; Ralls I, I; Shallowater I, I; O'Donnell II, II; New Deal III, II; Crosbyton III, III; Lorenzo II, I; Seagraves I, I (Class A); Abernathy II, I; Denver City II, I; Roosevelt V, IV; Cooper II, III; Post II, I; Frenship II, II; Slaton II, I (Class AA)

The high school band is composed of 19 seniors, 6 juniors, 20 sophomores and 32 freshmen, and the junior high band has a total of 60 students. Jackie Buck is drum major and a senior. Twirlers are Geniese Grawunder, junior; Kim Myers and Sherry Stence, both sophomores and Christi Evans, a freshman. Band officers are Bobby Heinen, president; Debbie Grimes, vice president and Donna Hardin, secretary. Heinen and Miss Hardin are seniors and Miss Grimes is a junior.

There will be a very important Band Booster meeting at 6:30, May 5 at the band hall. It will be to discuss the final plans for the trip to Six Flags and all parents are urged to attend.

A new band hall to house the band students is nearing completion and plans are being made to move into the new structure in the very near future.

Pre-School Day Planned

All children who will be 5 years old by September 1, 1975 are invited to attend a "Pre-School Day" planned at the Shallowater Elementary School on Friday, May 2, 1975.

The children who will be 5 years old will attend a Kindergarten class and take part in the activities they will be doing next year. The children presently in Kindergarten and children who will be 6 years old by September 1, 1975 and did not attend our Kindergarten this year will attend a first grade class.

A parent should accompany their child and bring the child's birth certificate or baptismal certificate and their immunization record.

Immunization shots will be given at the school to all pre-school children who have not had their shots or who are needing booster shots. Required immunizations for pre-school children are D.P.T., Polio and the Rubeola and Rubella measles shots.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will conclude at 11:00 a.m. Children and parents are welcome to eat lunch in the cafeteria. The price for the lunch is 50 cents each.

Shallowater Co-op Gin Annual Membership Meeting Held Saturday

The annual membership meeting of the Shallowater Cooperative Gin Company was held at noon Saturday in the school cafeteria with approximately 265 persons attending the annual event.

The invocation was given by Howard G. Preston and the welcome by Doyce Middlebrook. Of special interest to the group was the presentation of a style show by the local FHA girls under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Kenneth Harrison. The girls modeled "all cotton" garments they had made. Narrator was Miss Judy Waller and the pianist was Laura Walker.

The models entered the stage through an archway, decorated with lovely spring flowers, flanked by an artificial peach tree in full bloom.

The speakers table featured a beautiful arrangement of blue carnations and red gladiolus, compliments of the First State Bank of Shallowater.

The food was catered to the affair by the Shallowater Restaurant. The decorating and serving was furnished by the Shallowater PTA. Cotton boll decals were presented to all the visitors and cottonseed cookies were served.

Dr. W.E. Black, speaker, was introduced by Doyce Middlebrook and presented a very informative speech to the group. Howard G. Preston and Bill Burgett were re-elected as directors, at the meet.

Carey D. Gooch is gin manager, Donald Becknell is plant superintendent and the bookkeeper is Walter Barbee.

Blairs Grocery and Station Will Open Next Monday

The opening of Blair's Grocery and Service Station on the Clovis Highway (formerly Hobgood Grocery) is being announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blair. Opening will be Monday May 5.

Opening hours Monday through Saturday will be 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

The firm will handle Conoco products, Marigold milk, all types of groceries, tobacco, blocked and crushed ice.

The Blairs invite everyone to come in for friendly service and reasonable prices where your business will be greatly appreciated.

The store will be operated by Mrs. Blair and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rocky Blair and other members of the family when needed.

The Blairs have been residents of the Shallowater community for many years and are engaged in farming.

REMEMBERING...

WASH DAY

Mama got up earlier than usual on those mornings. There were many things to get done on the day of the week known as "wash day". First, she chopped the mesquite wood to build a fire under the big black pot to heat the wash water. A week's accumulation of clothes had to be sorted. Big piles of clothes would be all over the living room floor. Water had to be drawn from the well to fill the pot.

The washing usually took place outside. Some folks had a shed or building to wash in and others did their washing on the back porch. We did ours out under a big tree. The water in the pot was heated to boiling, dipped out with a bucket, and poured into the No. 2 wash tub. Clothes were placed in the tub to soak for a few minutes. Sometimes they were put into the pot on the fire to boil if they were real dirty.

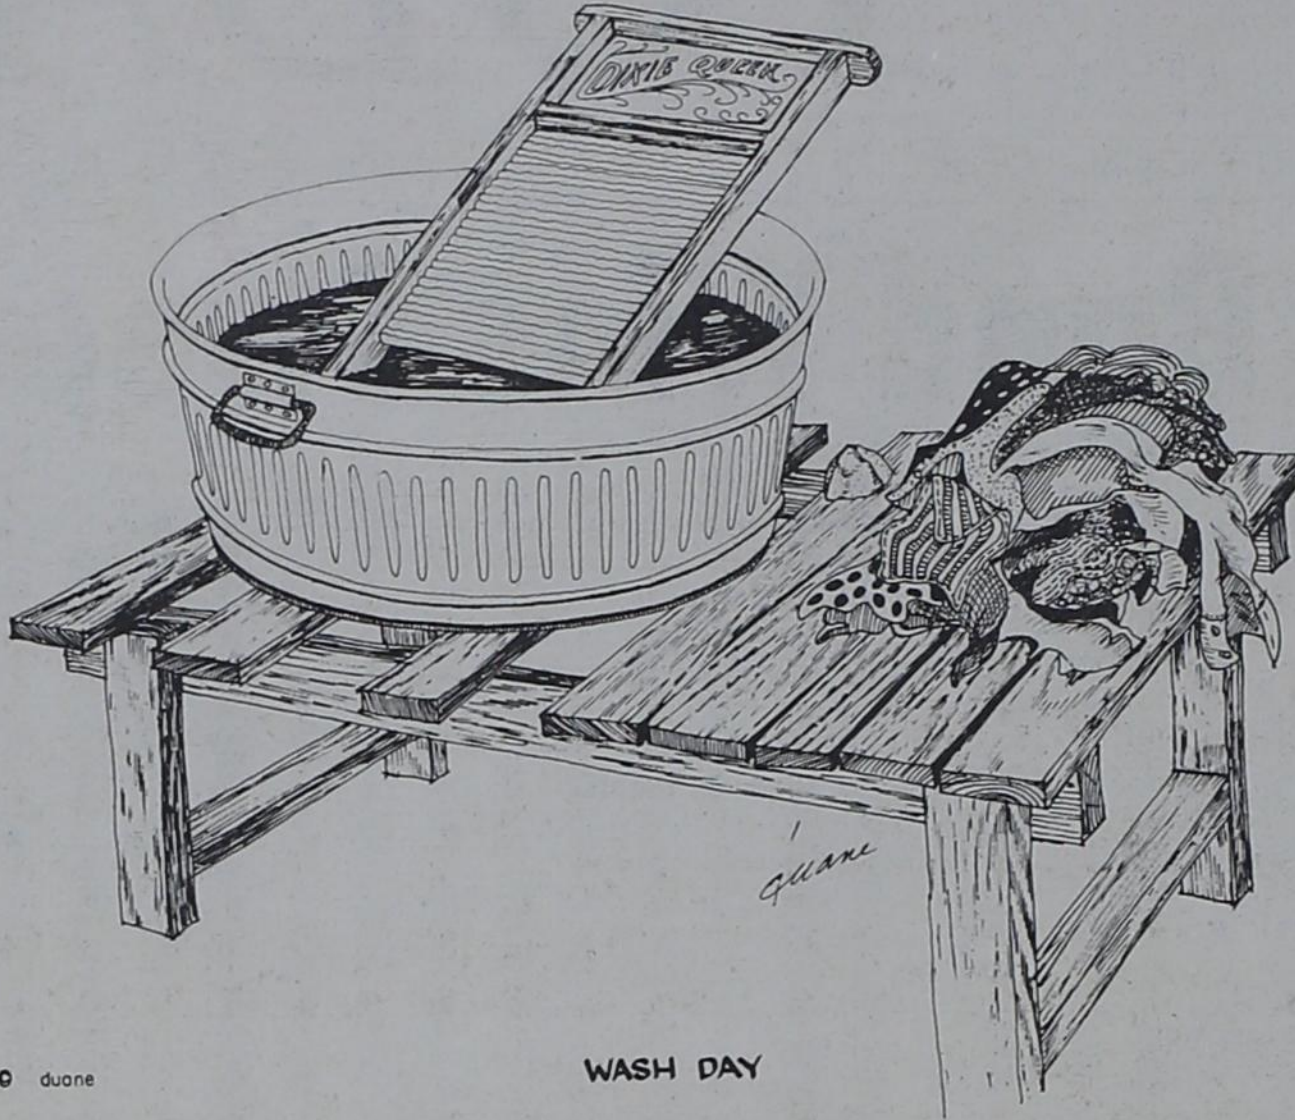

A wash board, also called a rub board, was placed in the tub with the clothes. Our board had ridges of metal but some were made entirely of wood. A recessed tray at the top of the board held the soap. Clothes were rubbed alternately with lye soap

(We made our own lye soap just as most folks did but that's another story.) and hot water, up and down over the ridges of the wash board, turned many times and rubbed, rubbed, rubbed. The clothes were wrangled (now called rinsed) out in clean water, wrung out by hand, and hung on the line to dry.

It was really not hard work, all things considered, except on those days when it was freezing cold, raining, or coming a sandstorm, which was the rule more than the exception. I don't understand it but somehow Mama did all her washing on those days, as well as cook three meals from scratch and do all her other usual chores. She even found time to read us a bedtime story.

Lubbock Urban Transportation Study Report Released Earlier this Week

According to Mr. George C. Wall, Jr., District Engineer, Texas Highway Department, the latest edition of the Lubbock Urban Transportation Study has just been received from the printers and will be released this week.

The updated transportation plan presented in this report was prepared jointly by the Texas Highway Department and local city and county governments. Projected traffic needs, as developed from detailed analysis of factors affecting transportation requirements, form the basis for this plan recommended as a guide for future development and improvements. Since transportation planning is a continuing process, revisions will be made in order to meet changing needs.

No attempt is made to assign responsibilities for financing of the various improvements.

The locations of the proposed facilities shown on future systems represent general routes only. Detailed studies will be necessary

Recollections of Texans Requested

As part of a bicentennial effort, the Governor's Committee on prior to determination of the exact locations of these facilities.

This study, projected through 1990, includes all of Lubbock County in the Study Area, with the Intensive Study Area consisting of The City of Lubbock and the surrounding area that is anticipated to be urbanized by 1990.

Copies of this study will be available at Lubbock Christian College, Texas Tech University, and the George and Helen Mahon Libraries. Additional copies of this study (Volume 3 of the Lubbock Urban Transportation Plan) may be purchased at Texas Highway Department Headquarters, 601 Slaton Highway, Lubbock, Texas.

Aging is seeking elderly people who have interesting stories to tell about growing up in Texas. They might be persons who are knowledgeable in old-time skills or handicrafts—a blacksmith, a glass-blower, a bootmaker, a cooper. Or they might be persons who were involved in building Texas' industries—lumber, oil, cotton, cattle, etc. The only requirements are that they are at least 60 years old and grew up in Texas.

Between 60 and 100 people will be selected to interview on tape. Feature stories will be written and released to local newspapers. The tapes will become part of an oral history collection. The stories and photographs will be compiled into a bicentennial booklet. From the interviews, the committee will select about a dozen to feature in a 30 minute film.

They would like to include people from all parts of the state, from all walks of life, and from as varied backgrounds as possible. Therefore they are really depending on leads from people all over the state.

If our readers know of anyone from this area, contact the paper or write to: Governor's Committee on Aging, Bicentennial Project, P.O. Box 12786, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

New VA Pamphlet Available

A new edition of a basic Veterans Administration pamphlet, "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents" (IS-1 Fact Sheet), has been distributed to the agency's field offices. The current edition, which has 55 pages, reflects latest changes in VA benefits programs, including medical care, pension, disability compensation, GI home loans, life insurance, burial benefits and GI Bill, vocational rehabilitation and dependents' educational assistance.

Benefits administered by other federal agencies also are covered. These include Labor Department job-finding assistance, Civil Service job preference, Small Business Administration loans and military exchange and commissary store privileges.

The "IS-1 Fact Sheet" features a handy timetable indicating time limits on applying for benefits, and it contains a list of offices to which applications should be sent. Addresses of all VA facilities, including hospitals and drug abuse treatment centers, are also listed.

Copies are available for 75 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20420.

The following events, selected by the Texas Tourist Development Agency, are but a few of the many excellent recreational opportunities offered by communities across the state. A more complete listing of Texas events may be obtained free of charge by writing TTDA, Box 12008, Austin 78711.

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

Coming up Saturday are two events worthy of note. First, in the afternoon, the Kentucky Derby will be run. That night Texas Tech will wind up spring football drills.

Thanks to TV, you can be at the Derby. There hasn't, so far, been the usual amount of ballyhoo. Really, though, not much is needed. You can bet that the field will be outstanding and that this great event will be exciting.

As for spring training closing, unfortunately I haven't been able to see a single practice. All I know is what I'm told by people who have seen the Raiders work. And they speak in glowing terms of what has been accomplished.

Obviously, there has been a lot of contact. Just as obviously, the squad is in good shape, despite the injuries. Indeed, the latter probably are due more to hard work than anything else.

Rodney Allison apparently has come to the front as a quarterback to put pressure on Tommy Duniven. And, to avoid that dangerous game of "Who's No. 1?" next fall, hopefully one will be more impressive than the other Saturday.

At any rate, with two and possibly three signal callers, the Raiders have fine depth. They also have fine depth in the running back positions with a host of experienced runners.

The defense well may be ahead of the offense this spring. The defense has gained experience, for one thing, while injuries have hurt a relatively experienced offensive line, reducing it to something of a question mark.

There's one thing, though, that is encouraging. The injuries in the spring should heal by fall, giving Tech a lot of good offensive linemen. It should be an interesting game.

Still, spring games are a lot like kissing your sister. Generally, defenses are plain vanilla and about the only thing that can be learned is individual ability.

Steve Sloan hasn't said too much, so far, on his general observations regarding the strength and weakness of this, his first Tech eleven. Possibly, an evaluation will be forthcoming after this game. It will be interesting to learn his thoughts on how he sees the 1975 Raiders.

You have to give Gerald Myers credit. He isn't taking on a lot of patsies next fall with the Raider cagers. Tech opens with Kansas State and then it's off to the races.

Tech opened the Coliseum against K State and Tex Winter, so it's appropriate to play the Wildcats in the opener of a season in which it is hoped that the Raiders will finish first. And the addition of Houston is going to make it interesting.

Many have said, for a long time, that when Houston started playing for the title, things would be different. I agree. It's going to add another tough game.

As for the Cougar dominating, consider this. Tech beat Houston in an NCAA consolation regional game. Tech beat Houston in Houston a year ago, here in Lubbock this past season. And Texas beat Houston in an NCAA regional game.

Good friends are not easy to come by and when you lose one, the pain is even greater. Thus, there is a void in my feelings as I write this. And I couldn't look myself in the mirror in the morning if I didn't pay tribute to Bishop Keeling.

Bishop was such a friend, for many, many years. He was a car dealer in Levelland and you never were surprised when you saw "Keeling, Levelland," metal decals on cars anywhere in the U.S.

I remember going to the All Star game in Washington in 1956. As I drove up to Griffith Stadium, there in front of me was a car with Virginia tags and "Keeling, Levelland," on the back.

Bishop was a Tech graduate and remained both loyal and faithful to his school. He was quietly active in Red Raider Club activities. And he always was intensely interested in Raider athletics. He stayed on top of them through me and many others.

But most of all, Bishop Keeling was an unusual man. A handshake was all that he asked in making a deal. That was all it took on the first car I bought—and I didn't have the money at the time. And, when I finally paid him, proudly, he raised an eyebrow and asked, in all sincerity, "can you spare this?"

I never heard Bishop bad mouth anyone. He'd listen, nod—but he'd make no downgrading comment, no matter how controversial something might be.

It wasn't that Bishop was afraid to take a stand. Ask him an opinion and he'd give it to you and not flinch. And he was fiercely loyal to his friends, right or wrong.

No, men like Bishop Keeling don't come along our way often enough. I shall miss him. That quick smile and the warmth that radiated from him make him unforgettable. I will still look forward to going to Levelland, but it never will be the same without his being there to visit. Truly, he was a man.

Catfish Hunter finally won a game, but the troubles he has been having were almost predictable. It's a little difficult to have the same intensity and drive when you know that you are a multimillionaire.

Hunter probably thought he was trying just as hard, but the edge wasn't there. He may still come out of it and have a 20 game season. But don't bet on it. There's nothing like hunger to serve as the greatest impetus to success.

Responsible Leadership?

For about the past four decades it has been the thrust of the federal government to grant greater privileges to organized labor.

But at the same time, there has been a great lag in requiring labor to assume any responsibilities for the national economic health commensurate with the privileges granted.

A case in point is the recent publicity given to the closure of a number of steel mills due to an over-supply of steel.

The long heralded coal strike made all users of steel, as well as wholesalers of steel, apprehensive of future supplies, as obviously without coal, steel cannot be made.

The reason for the glut of steel at present is therefore quite simple. Steel users laid in heavy inventories both from domestic sources and imports.

So now, at a time when there is already enough unemployment, steel workers are being laid off, and in time this will mean probably that some coal mines will shut down until American steel production gets back into normal production.

Independent business people of the nation, through the National Federation of Independent Business, have supported legislation introduced from time to time that would require Congressmen on introducing new legislation to attach documents estimating the probable cost of such legislation.

It is perhaps time that labor leaders be placed under some type of restriction which would require an estimate of the over all cost of a strike, the loss of income to the strikers, and the loss of jobs that will result, both while the strike goes on, and during the aftermath as is now affecting employment in the steel mills.

This is not to be inferred as a post facto judgment as to whether or not the demands of the coal miners were justified. In view of the conditions under which they work, the danger to health and life, and comparative pay scales in other occupations, it would appear they had some grievances.

But while labor leaders are always talking about labor solidarity, there seems little consideration for what will happen to other workers if one union goes out on strike. While it may not be so important to labor leaders that the economy proceed without upsets, the stability of the economy is of vital importance to the workers. Thus, it would seem logical that all labor leaders work out procedures whereby one group cannot throw other groups out of work. If the labor hierarchy do not recognize their responsibility for the economic health of the nation, at some time in the future, perhaps the distant future, public pressures will force government to take restrictive measures which would be damaging to the social fabric of the nation.

Compliment someone and you'll get smiles for a week.

Party Line

Visiting this week in the home of the W.M. Horton's is their daughter, Mrs. Steve Briggs and son of Kerrville.

Spending the weekend in College Station with their daughter, Barbara and Thomas O'Jibway, were Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Moseby.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Danny Parrack and boys Sunday through Tuesday was the Pete Collazo family from Wichita Falls.

Mrs. R.W. Woodruff was hostess at a noon luncheon Tuesday at the Country Cupboard in Hale Center for Gloria Grawunder of Shallowater, and Mesdames Betty McNeil, Helen Price, Betty Bennett and Nell Peal, all of Lubbock.

Weekend guests in the Newman Lusk home were Becky Burchard, Hosuton; Mrs. John Burchard; Austin; Sue Borgfield of Berkley, New Jersey; Mrs. Jimmie Davis and Susan of Dallas; and Mrs. Claude Wilson of Jacksonville.

Helping Todd Pool celebrate his 8th birthday with a skating party were: Dell Pool, Robert Terry, Kevin and Keith Lester, Woody Hamm, Wayne White, Lupe Trevino, Bryan Jungman, Shannon Bartlett and Mary Jordan, Ellen Jordan and Eddy Jordan from Anton.

Weekend guests in the home of Mrs. J.P. Hutton was her son and wife, the J.P. Hutton's from Balingier.

George Blackmon was admitted to Methodist Hospital Monday for tests.

A.C. Wages is still a patient in West Texas Hospital and will undergo surgery as soon as possible.

8th Street Birthday Club Meets Here

The party room at the First State Bank was the scene for the monthly meeting of the 8th Street Birthday Club with sixteen ladies present on Monday, April 21.

Honored guests with April birthdays were Mrs. Onetta Elliott and Mrs. Bertha Hardy.

The tables were centered with lovely decorated green candles, using a green theme in other decor. Mrs. Corene McCauley was hostess assisted by Mrs. Ozella Chestnut.

United Methodist Women Meet

Ten members of the United Methodist Women's group met Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the church parlor for their regular meeting.

Mrs. C.M. Thomas, president called the meeting to order with roll call answered by naming a book in the Old Testament, and the opening prayer was led by Mrs. B.H. Thomas, Jr.

A very impressive devotional on the "Power of Sight" was presented by Mrs. Barbara Chandler and the second session of study on the book of Jonah was given by Mrs. Louis McMenamy, who also led the group in the closing prayer before adjourning.

Family "Get Together" Held

The home of Mrs. Bertha Hardy was the gathering place for a family get together Sunday afternoon with a very enjoyable evening of visiting and having refreshments by those attending.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hardy and M.L. Hardy, Dimmitt; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Houser, Lubbock; Mrs. Hugh Ragland and Mrs. U.L. Moreland, both of Abernathy; and Mrs. Ruby Coffman of Lubbock.

Those attending from Shallowater were Jessie Lee Vance, Turk Vance, Scotty Moreland and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Wright.

All were cousins except Mrs. Hardy, an aunt and M.L. Hardy who was an uncle of the group.

Mothers Day is Special Occasion

There's nothing like flowers to express your love to someone dear to your heart, and with "Mother's Day" just around the corner, May 11, to be exact, what better way to convey the message, than by sending flowers to that special person.

Billye's Flower and Gift Shoppe on the Clovis Highway, located in the former Higginbotham Bartlett Lumber building is equipped to handle any floral arrangement you may desire, whether it be beautiful red roses or a lovely corsage, for any occasion, call Wayne or Billy Groce at 832-4389 and place your order. You will receive courteous greetings and your business is always appreciated.

Both are experienced in handling that special order to perfection, and deliveries are free.

The shop also carries a big variety of jewelry, greeting cards, figurines and terrariums, plus various other items, too numerous to mention.

The firm has been in operation for four years formerly occupying the building next to the post office.

So remember, flowers for any occasion is a lovely thought, drop by Billye's Flowers and Gift Shoppe, place your order and visit with two friendly people and help Shallowater to grow, by trading with your hometown merchants.

Especially remember Mother's Day, May 11.

It's comparatively easy to find an excuse for not doing what you don't want to do.

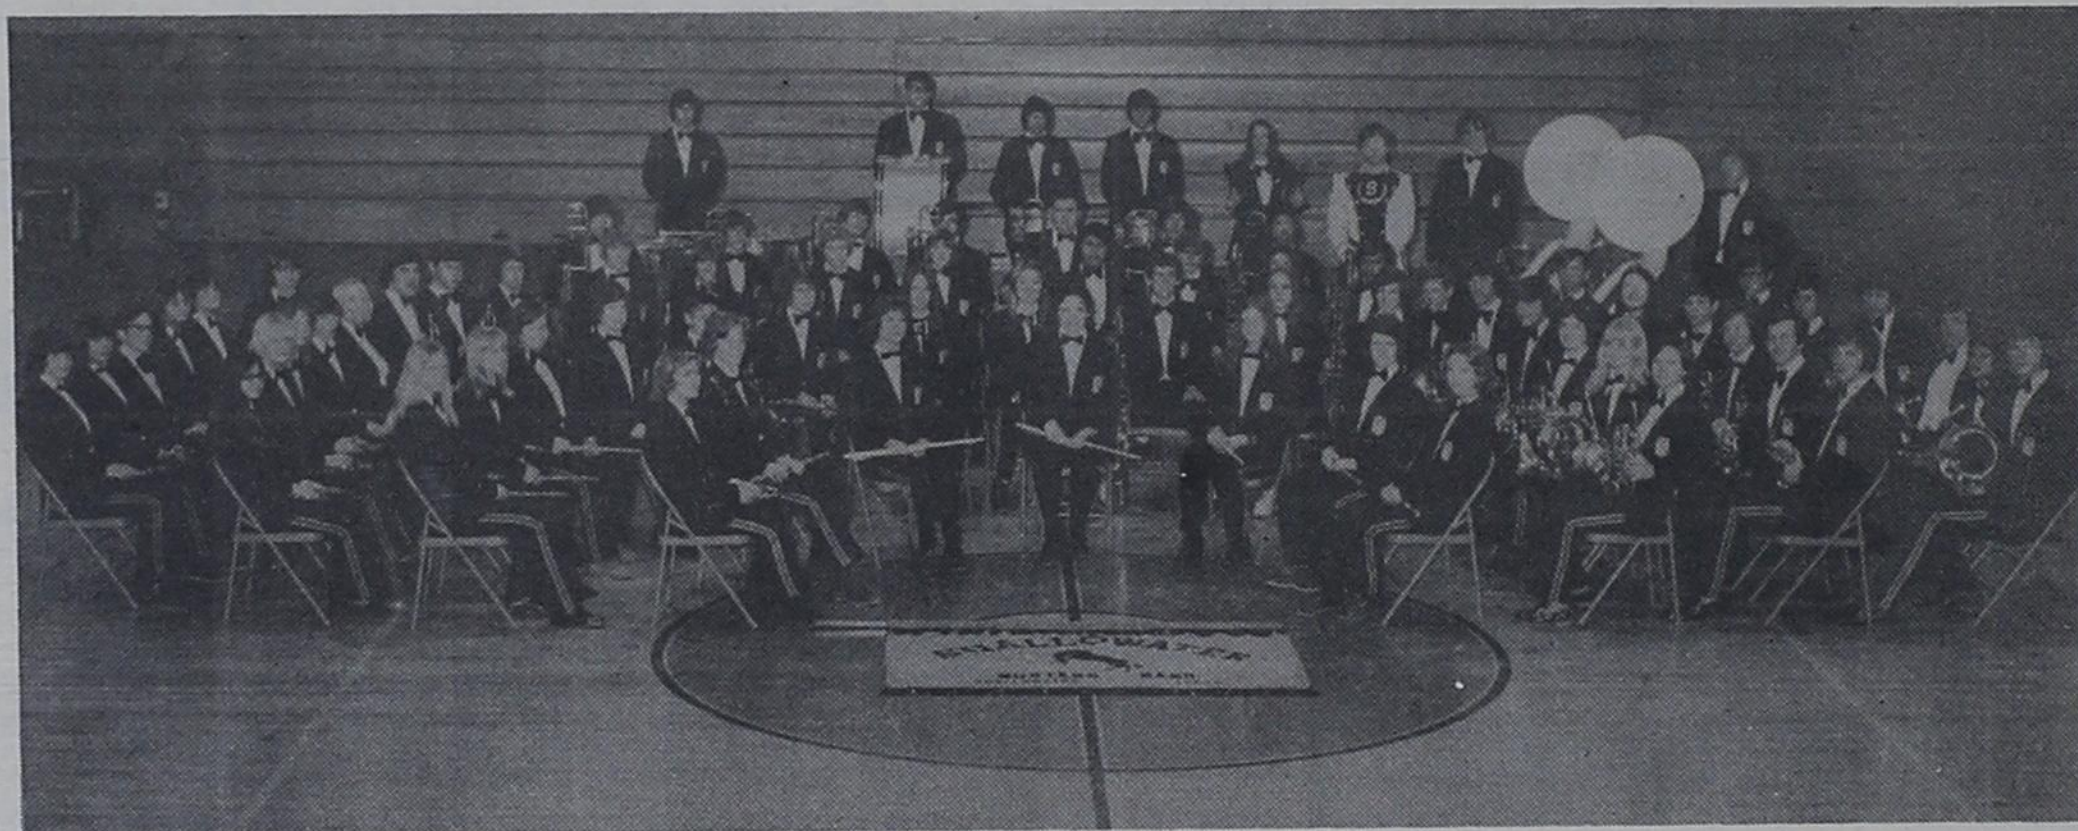

There were many wise men in earlier days but who reads what they wrote?

Bridal Shower in Don Enger Home Saturday Honors Miss Becky Burchard

The lovely home of Mrs. Don Enger was the scene of a bridal shower Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. honoring Miss Becky Burchard, bride-elect of Mansell Lusk.

The serving table was laid with a beautiful white lace cloth, centered with a beautiful arrangement of daisy and bronze mums.

The bride-elect's chosen colors were carried out in decorations and refreshments of lemon sherbert punch, yellow and gold mints and cookies iced in yellow and gold were served to the 86 persons who called or sent gifts.

Lovely corsages were presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. John Burchard of Austin and the groom to be's mother, Mrs. Newman Lusk.

The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts, including Poppytrail pottery in sculptured daisy pattern, and Oneida stainless steel in the Shelly pattern. The hostess gift was a set of Club Aluminum in Harvest gold.

Rays of Hope

by Pat Stanton

Psalm 37 is a writing from David that lists definite and simple steps toward peace. This passage gives a cycle of peace and it also shows why people get out of the cycle of peace.

The first word of verse one tells why and how most people lose their peace of mind. This verse says "Fret not thyself because of evildoers." So many tend to live each day caught up in all the evil in the world. This is all that they want to talk about. When you meet on the street most folks share all the latest bad news rather than telling of the good things. The New Testament writers said that it is even a shame to talk of the evil deeds done in darkness.

We, who are followers of the Master, are admonished to be "the light" of the world and not the "givers of gloom." Many may wonder why they have no peace or joy. They should check the things that they are continually listening to. (This next statement is just a helpful hint). If you watch the "soap stories" on TV all day, you definitely lose your Christian joy and peace. For you see, your mind becomes filled with the hate, loneliness, adultery, self-pity, etc. that is on every program at some point. The writer of Psalm 37 lists several words and helps toward being at peace in mind and heart. He suggest that we do these things: trust God, be delighted with God, commit our way to God, rest in Him, cease from anger, forsake wrath, don't do any evil, be meek and you will have an abundance of peace. These thoughts are taken from the first eleven verses. Read the rest of the chapter for divine guidance toward peace. Verse 37 is a key verse in the writing.

Out of town guests included Mrs. John Burchard of Austin, Mrs. Jimmie Davis and Susan of Dallas, Mrs. Claude Wilson of Jacksonville, Mrs. Bill Daffern of Lubbock and Sue Borgfield of Berkley, New Jersey.

Assisting Mrs. Enger in hostess duties were Mesdames Doyle McKennon, Babe Warren, Kenneth Grissom, M.J. Williams, Kenneth Shropshire, L.L. Lindsey, Harry Leonard, G.W. Gates Jr., Donald Martin, H.R. Curry, Effie Lee Middlebrook, Louis McMenamy, and B.H. Thomas Jr.

Lingerie Shower

A lingerie shower honoring Miss Becky Burchard, bride elect of Mansell Lusk was given Saturday morning from 10 to 12 noon in the State Savings and Loan building in Lubbock.

Hostesses were Gail Botsford and Carol Graham. Lovely daisy corsages were presented the honoree and mother, Mrs. John Burchard and Mrs. Newman Lusk.

Sixteen persons were served refreshments of mints, nuts, nut bread, cookies, punch and cake from a table carrying out decorations of daisies.

Shallowater PTA Meets

The Shallowater PTA will meet Thursday May 1, 1975 in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

There will be installation of officers, life membership will be given and Major Joseph Hickox will speak on the Soviet Union.

Shower Honors Debra Gates

Miss Debra Gates, bride-elect of Melvin Salley, will be honored with a come and go bridal shower Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Leroy Grawunder home at 1102 15th St.

Special guests will be the honoree and mothers, Mrs. G.W. Gates, Jr. and Mrs. Homer Salley of Coahoma.

The Greatest Of Them All

Written by Band Students
 WOW! FANTASTIC! SUPER! and FANTABULOUS! Not even these words can express the excitement of the seventy odd Mustang Band Members when we heard that we had made SWEEPSTAKES.

Never in the history of the Shallowater Mustang Band has such a fete been accomplished. Tension was in the air Tuesday, April 22, as we loaded on the bus for our trip to Seagraves. As we arrived, very few people had anything to say—all we could think about was SWEEPSTAKES!

As we filed onto the stage there was silence, and as we played our first notes everyone trembled. We went into the sightreading room not knowing how we had done in concert and listened carefully as Mr. Sherman explained the song we all knew we had to play well the first time, because we only had one chance in sightreading. Mr. Sherman really showed how nervous he was when he dropped a music stand on the judges foot and tripped up the platform. (Not many people can do that!) Since we were the last band to play they were waiting on us to announce the ratings. We filed into the auditorium and nervously awaited our fate. The announcer started to tell the ratings and when he came to Ralls, who had played right before us—he paused and said something to this effect "I always like to announce the ratings because I like to hear a sweepstakes band yell," (we assumed Ralls had made Sweepstakes because their rating was to be announced next) "but I've never heard two Sweepstakes bands yell at once—Ralls and Shallowater!" The roof raised off the walls at least two feet as we all shouted and cried. It was an experience never to be forgotten and to be treasured by all.

There is another side to the story, though, and that is Mr. Sherman. Undoubtedly he spent many sleepless nights trying to arrange the best possible music for the band. The band is his life and he would do anything for "his kids". Mr. Sherman is the greatest band director a school could have. At all times he strives to do what is best. He is the type persons that is truly concerned about all of "his kids". He is backed by a wonderful wife that is as much a part of the Mustang Band as anybody.

The day of contest he assured us that he knew we could make it if we would only do our best. He never loses faith in the band he evidently loves so much. He was so nervous he could hardly hold his baton to direct us. As we waited to hear our ratings, Mr. Sherman stood nervously at the back of the auditorium. When we heard "the news" he threw his music folder up in the air, and I'm sure the man that was hit on the top of the head knew very well that we had made SWEEPSTAKES! Mr. and Mrs. Sherman were the happiest people in the world, in fact, we all thought we were in heaven. The greatest man in the world to the band is Mr. Rusty Sherman. He should be congratulated and held in high respect by the entire community. The band has certainly done our best, but without Mr. Sherman we would be nowhere.

For the seniors of 1975 he is really special because he gave to us the victory that we had been striving to obtain for five years, and he could not have given it to us at any better time—our senior year. The seniors are grateful to the entire band for doing their best to help make this the most special year Shallowater has ever had!

So, if you see Mr. Sherman, tell him how much you appreciate what he has done, and come hear that SWEEPSTAKES BAND OF 1975 play in the Spring Concert May 13.

Carelessness is a great killer in the home and on the highway.

People would be healthier if they had a mind for it.

Cruse Family in Services at Anton

The Singing Joe Cruse Family in now engaged in a community wide Crusade thru May 2 at the Anton School Auditorium at 7:30 each evening.

The Cruse Family have travelled widely through the United States conducting religious campaigns. Joe Cruse, Jr., head of the family, is an ordained Baptist minister. He is a former jet fighter pilot veterans of the Korean conflict. He is a graduate of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, Texas where he played fullback on the varsity football team. Before entering full-time evangelism, he pastored churches for fifteen years.

All the members of his family form the singing group. They are his wife, Jancy, mother of the five children, Joe III, Karen, Janie, John and Cindy.

Clark Stone, Anton teenager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Le Stone, joined the Cruse Family last October 9 playing percussion instruments. Miss Becky Breiden, Freer, Texas, is the pianist.

The public is invited to attend the Crusade services in Anton thru Friday night.

4-H'ers Converge in Lubbock Saturday for District Roundup

Nearly 400 South Plains 4-H Club members will converge in Lubbock Saturday, May 3, for the third and final round of district eliminations contests. Winners and runners-up will represent Extension District 2 in state 4-H Roundup at College Station in June, according to District Extension Agents Billy C. Gunter and Catherine Crawford.

By far the largest of district eliminations events, this round includes 27 different contests. Those entering have already won in county competition. District winners will compete against top finishers from the other 12 Texas Agricultural Extension Service districts in the state.

The number of youths from the 20 county area of District 2 also includes juniors, who'll be competing for the top four spots in that division in each of the 27 contests. Winners in junior competition will receive honor ribbons. However, no junior will compete in Roundup, which is restricted to seniors.

Already, two rounds of district competition have been staged. About 250 4-H youths vied for honors in the 4-H Food Show in March, and another 135 competed in judging contests which were held Saturday. Winners from those events will join this Saturday's winners as this district's delegation to 4-H Roundup.

The center of activity will be on the campus of Texas Tech University.

An awards program, which is open to the public, will be at 1:30 in the Texas Tech University Center ballroom.

Dr. Anson Bertrand will welcome the contestants and Bob Carthel of Pioneer Natural Gas will present ribbons to winners.

Installation ceremonies for the 1975-76 slate of officers of the District 2 4-H Council will precede awards activities.

Assisting in the all-day event will be county Extension agents, subject-matter specialists from the district Extension office in Lubbock and members of District 4-H Council.

In all, between 750 and 800 youths from across the South Plains will have competed at the district level after this Saturday's contests are over. In county contests this year, an estimated 4,000 South Plains 4-H'ers representing about 500 4-H clubs competed. The mammoth undertaking is led by county Extension agents, adult leaders and 4-H councils. Competition is designed to aid the youths in developing their skills, leadership capabilities and citizenship potential.

Engagement Announced

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Vennetta Farris to Rodney Lee Jackson is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Farris.

Jackson is the son of Robert Earl Jackson of 1401 West 25th in Plainview and is stationed in Berlin, Germany.

The future bride is a graduate of Shallowater High School and is employed at Retail Merchants. Jackson graduated from Plainview High School.

The couple plans a June wedding.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday in Shallowater for Mrs. Opal Vaughn

Funeral services for Mrs. Opal Vaughn, 57, of the Shallowater community, were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the First United Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. Max Browning officiating, assisted by former pastor, Rev. Cecil Tune.

Burial was in the City of Lubbock Cemetery, directed by Sanders Funeral Home of Lubbock.

Mrs. Vaughn died at 11:45 p.m. Monday in Methodist Hospital following an extended illness. A Shallowater resident for 41 years, Ms. Vaughn was a native of Alabama.

She was employed at the local post office from 1949 until she retired in 1973, due to ill health.

Opal was a member of the First United Methodist Church and a faithful member and worker in the United Methodist Women's Guild. The members dedicated the present yearbook to Opal for her diligent work throughout the years of membership. She was one of the first members of the Shallowater Wesleyan Service Guild, serving as president in 1952 and served faithfully on other offices and committees. Her devotion and attendance to the Guild was a great inspiration to all the members.

A poem, especially written for Opal by Mrs. V.T. Brady expresses Opal's life as a devoted friend, mother and wife, who lived life to its fullest. She will be deeply missed by all who came in contact with her down through the years.

A sister, Mrs. Varina Putman preceded her in death, a short time ago.

She was married to Luther Vaughn on December 5, 1945. Survivors include her husband; two sons, Luther Jr. of the home and Jack Bell of Corpus Christi; a daughter, Mrs. Judy Sims of Goldthwaite; a sister, Mrs. Julia Vaughn of Shallowater; three

Mrs. Brady's poem follows:
Here I Am Oh, God!

Here I am, Oh God,
Little I have power to do, or ordain,
Teach me to walk where Jesus
trode,
What I desire, I cannot always attain.

Give me Grace my afflictions to understand,
Keep me from worry and only contentment see,
I praise your Holy name, You hold
my hand,
You are always near to ever comfort me.

Let me be wise to draw from Thee
each day,
The lessons Thou art minded to teach me.

Give me strength to bear what comes my way,
And a stout heart to cast my cares
on Thee.

My sufferings are not worthy to be compared,
To the glories to be revealed in me.

In Christ I have believed and shared,
Now in His hope, eternal joy I see.

Thou art my Father, so I am not afraid,
Thy spirit stirs within my inmost room.

Because Thy Son for all my wrongs have paid,
I know that all is well, and life will bloom.

MIGHTY MUSTANG SHALLOWATER SCHOOLS

Pam Jammers, Elvis And Jerry Lee Lewis

by Caran Conner

Our school was presented two "music" assemblies this week. The "Pan-Jammers" from Dunbar, and our own Jr. High Choir.

Tuesday, April 22, during fifth period, eleven of Dunbar's students presented a very good program. They are selected from the Acappella Choir. Their name is a derivity of their school mascot, Panthers, and because they like to get together and just sing, jamming. Their program was mainly popular tunes with a few nostalgia.

Our Jr. High Choir gave us a very enjoyable program on Thursday. As the stage opened we were taken back to the late '50's with "Pops Sweet Shoppe". It looked almost authentic; girls in bobby socks and loafers or oxfords, rolled up Levis, big pony tails and beautiful scarfs tied around them. The guys had slicked back hair, straight legged jeans, and motorcycle jackets.

Mike Hamersley sang the first solo, it was "Teen Angel", the or guy was so heartbroken he could hardly look at the audience (had to hold back the tears).

Kyle Bedingfield felt like running off to the circus when his girl gave all her presents back, right there in front of everyone, (wonder if it was planned).

"Where the Boys Are" was dedicated to all the freshmen girls, and sung by Valeria Morgan, who put a desire in all the little "fishes" to want one of their very own.

The Choir was very considerate and picked out a song to dedicate to all the "lovers" of the school. The song was very appropriate and entitled, "I Love How You Love Me."

Elvis Presley (alias Barry Randolph) warmed all of our hearts by singing "Love Me Tender" and played his guitar well.

Also on the program was the great Jerry Lee Lewis (alias Terry Franklin), was really shaking those ivory keys while girls were standing around. He sang and played the favorite song of "Whole Lot of Shaking Going On."

Last they gave a tribute to Buddy Holly a famous singer and a good ole' Lubbockite.

As the curtain fell, we were back in the '70's.

6th Graders Make Invitation

The two 6th grade classes recently have been studying many of the different fields in journalism. So, on Friday, April 25th they invited Janie Serna, Caran Conner, and Anita Alvarado to visit their class in order to receive information about the school paper.

Mrs. Bunch introduced the speakers and after this, Janie explained what feature writing was all about, and later spoke on editorials. Caran Conner explained newswriting and headlines, and Anita Alvarado spoke about the things our staff does and then about the several careers offered in the journalism field.

After the explaining, a question session was held. On behalf of the journalism staff we would like to thank Mrs. Bunch, Mrs. Smith and all the sixth graders for having Janie, Caran and Anita over to their room. We enjoyed it, and we hope that what they discussed will be of aid to everyone.

Thanks again.

Regional Tennis

by Alex Grice

Last Friday, April 25, Coach Mike Williamson took two Shallowater Mustang tennis teams to the regional event. The regional meet was held at Texas Tech University. The two teams were Don Grimes and Bobby Reeves, and Daryl Morris and Alex Grice.

Don and Bobby played a team from Canadian. The Mustangs were defeated in the first round. Then Daryl and Alex played a team from Crosbyton and won their opening round. They then played a team from Aspermont. The team from Aspermont bested Daryl and Alex. Both Mustang tennis teams were proud to represent the school in the event.

Countdown

Lately at SHS, we the seniors of 1975, have been counting and recounting the days left for us to bid our school goodbye.

On May 16, we shall depart, but we shall return on the 22nd in order to receive our long awaited diplomas.

If on any day you are interested in knowing how many days the seniors have left, walk into Mr. Kenneth Grissom's room, glance at the board, and in a square box in the corner, will appear the number of days left.

Many responsibilities await us in the near future, but we shall never forget the responsibilities we had at SHS.

After Friday, May 2, only ten more days till everyone relaxes (especially the teachers.)

An Interview With An Ant

by E. Don Williamson, 6th Grade

We asked a red ant that lives near Shallowater, Texas what he thinks of life and his reply was, "I would rather live in houses like humans than in the ground." He thought life was real shakey because anteaters and people ran him out of his homes.

The ant's name is "Rover Bitebug" and weighs as much as 1/10 and six long legs, plus built in stinger and red armor.

He had lived near Lubbock, Texas until a farmer plowed his home up. That is when he moved under a house in Shallowater. That is where an anteater ran him off. He now lives in a zoo in West Texas.

Regional Qualifiers

by Charles Krebs

The Mustang Tracksters regional qualifiers traveled to Tech on April 25th and 26th to compete for a chance to go to the state meet in Austin. Sadly enough, the outcome wasn't what was expected or hoped for, with neither the 440 yard relay or the mile relay reaching the finals.

The ones that did run in the finals placed as follows; Don Grimes placed 4th in the 880 yard dash, Jon Gates placed 5th in the discus and Kim McMenemy placed 15th in the mile run.

This ends the season for the tracksters.

Cheerleading Tryouts

Several girls will be trying out for cheerleader, in junior high. Well, they are sixth graders this year, but next year they will be seventh graders. We wish them all the luck. Those trying out are: Kim Medlock, Brandy Giles, Mickey Bohner, Sandra Stewart, Seena Conner, Judy McBride, Mari Sproles, Melissa Baynes, Thelma Menton, Kay Bedingfield, Cindy Baker, Vickie Pettiet, Cathy Hohertz, Dianne Dupler, Ema Martinez and Irma Duenez.

Only two girls from the group of hopefuls will be chosen. They will be lucky girls from the look of the competition.

Poems

These poems were written by a third grade student by the name of Weena Smith. Weena is in Mrs. McMenemy's class. She is a very talented young lady. All she does is sit down at her desk and begins to write what comes to her mind.

Halloween

by Weena Smith

Black and white and a big yellow moon,
The witch will be after you pretty soon.
Cats and ghosts don't scare me so much,
Because I don't believe in that silly such.

Texas

by Weena Smith

Texas is a state,
It's really quite great.
The wind blows very hard.
It blows into my yard.

Spring Day

by Weena Smith

It is a beautiful day,
The birds are singing.
The flowers are gay.
You can surely tell,
Summer's on its way.

Formal and Informal Gathering

April 29 marked the day of a formal and informal gathering in the high school auditorium. It was the Awards Assembly for the students of our junior high system.

The junior high teachers presented the awards. Those receiving awards and recognition were:

Jana Hayslip and Andy Blackmon, band awards; Lisa Gates and Pete Alvarado, 7th grade sportsmanship awards; Carol Grimes and Robin Krebs, 8th grade sportsmanship awards. LaDonna Pair and Clay Lusk, Most Athletic girl and boy; Terri Stanton and Rodney Jackson,

LCC Student Teacher

This week we would like to recognize Mr. Damon Richards. Mr. Richards is from Roswell, New Mexico.

He attended Lubbock Christian College on a combination basketball and baseball scholarship.

Mr. Richards is a member of student senate and Tomo Daehi social club. He was selected fighting Chapparral in 1973-74.

He is becoming a teacher in order to assist youngsters in their development into responsible adult and would enjoy coaching basketball and football at a high school. The coming year he'll be a graduate assistant working toward a masters in Physical Education.

Mr. Richards plans to be a married man this summer.

He comments "I've enjoyed teaching at Shallowater because it is the school's philosophy to develop the child in areas other than academic achievements."

Fire Prevention Demonstration Held At Shallowater High School Recently

Anything will burn and nothing is fireproof. This fact was brought out by Ben Bullard, Assistant Safety Director for the Texas Farm Bureau, Waco, in a graphic animated fire prevention demonstration held April 15 at Shallowater High School Auditorium.

The three things needed to start a fire—air, fuel and heat, brightly illuminated as Bullard plugged in the parts of his fire triangle board, causing the flashing "F-I-R-E" sign. He defined fire control as he removed, (one at a time), the three parts.

As part of a discussion on fire control and the classes of fire, Bullard demonstrated taking away air by smothering the flame of a candle; smothering the flame of a kitchen fire (pot of burning grease - class B) and taking away the air or oxygen of another class B fire, a burning gasoline rag.

The audience also witnessed the burning of steel (steel wool); the loud shotgun-like explosion of one drop of gasoline and they saw the wiring burn inside the wall and in the attic of Bullard's model house (class C).

With each sequence of animated and actual fire hazard of the various classes both inside and outside the house and around the farm, Bullard gave applicable prevention and control suggestions. For fire control, Bullard pointed out that many fires in the home, vehicles, equipment and other buildings can be extinguished while in the incipient stage; provided you have a U/L approved extinguisher of the correct size and type. "Recharge each portable extinguisher after each use", he added.

This very educational fire program was brought to Shallowater under the sponsorship of the Farm Bureau. Chris Hutchin assisted Bullard as Junior Fire Marshall.

Shallowater School Board Meets

The Shallowater Independent School District Board met in regular session on April 14, 1975.

Members present were: Jay Stanton, president; Donald Martin, secretary; Melvin Stewart, Ronnie Elliott, Walter Hutton, Butch Pair and Newman Lusk. Also Supt. Charles Hohertz.

Jay Stanton was elected president by acclamation. Melvin Stewart was elected vice president by acclamation and Donald Martin was elected secretary by acclamation.

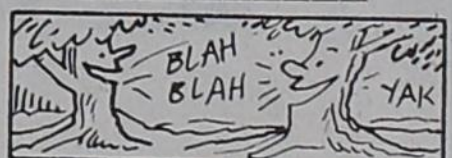

The Board approved the transferring of money from building fund to repair the roof of the high school building.

The Board approved to exempt school employees from the $100 transfer fee for their children. They also approved to raise all transfer fees to $150 per family per year.

The school calendar was approved as presented, and the Board approved the purchase of a new John Deere mower.

At a called meeting on April 21st the Board approved employment of Eddie Wolski as head football coach for 1975-76.

The Board approved 11 month contracts for Don Morris, elementary principal; and Randy Barnes, junior high principal. The Board also approved for the school to have a summer recreation program for two months.

Both Alexander the Great and Marco Polo spoke of two marvelous trees in India which could speak Indian and Greek!
