MR. AND MRS. PETE CLARK

The Pete Clarks To Observe Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Clark are honoring their parents with a reception in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, October 24, 1976 from 3:00 until 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Quitaque Community Center.

Friends of the couple are invited to attend.

The Valley Patriots, behind the 193-yard output of Barry Wheeler, raced past the winless Happy Cowboys here last Friday night, 41-12 before a chilled Homecoming crowd. The Patriots were able to score only once in each of the first two quarters but broke the game open in the second half, scoring three times in the third period and once in the fourth.

The Patriots pulled off a bit of fakery to keep their first scoring drive going. Faced with fourth down and about three yards on the Happy 35 yard line, Valley lined up in punt formation with Lyndall Coch in his usual kicking spot, but the ball was centered instead to Ron Eudy in the blocking spot and Eudy then passed for a first down to Barry Wheeler inside the ten yard line. Three plays later Wheeler scored his first of four TDs, scooting over from two yards out. Eudy kicked the point after with just over four minutes left in the first period.

The second Valley score came about five minutes deep in the second quarter when Eudy hit Kenny Chandler in the end zone with a 20-yard scoring strike.

Wheeler struck paydirt twice in the third period, both on runs of 17 yards and Kirk Proctor picked off a Happy pass and ran it back 35 yards for a TD. Eudy tossed a pass to Chandler for the point after.

In the fourth period Wheeler collected his final TD of the night, this one on a 46 yard scamper. Eudy added the PAT. Happy scored first in the third quarter when Tim Moudy plunged over from one yard out and in the fourth quarter when J. T. Henry ran it in from the three yard line. Both extra point tries failed for the Cowboys.

Wheeler's performance on offense was his biggest night, the 193 yards on 24 carries averaging out to almost 8 1/2 yards per carry and put him in the running for the Amarillo Daily News Class B Player of the Week, although he was nosed out by another player. Darrell Dowd turned in a nice game offensively and defensively, as did Chandler at end, who caught a TD pass and a pass after TD for two points. Randy Woods, who was running at fullback in place of Kenneth Helms, turned in a good performance on offense, almost breaking at least a couple of times right up the middle with both runs picking up about 20 yards each. Eudy connected on 7 of 19 attempts passing and the line blocked pretty good most of the way. On defense, just about every player in the game got a mention on at least one big play, Crump, Patrick, Tiffin, Proctor, Fuston, Ferguson and those already mentioned.

Sherice Price Is Football Queen

Friday, October 15, 1976 culminated a week of homecoming activities for students at Valley High School. Friday night's football game with Happy was the highlight of the week's events.

The Patriot Pep Squad presented a drill routine. The girls marched in formation performing various synchronized steps. Miss Nancy McNabb assisted the girls in preparing for the performance. The cheerleaders, Jena Mullin, Sherice Price, Jill Eudy, Joanie Turner, Laura Fuston and Leslie Pigg, presented an impressive pom-pom routine.

The night's activities also included the presentation of the Patriot Football Sweetheart, Sherice Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Price. She was presented by Ron Eudy. Other candidates were: First runner-up Laura Fuston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fuston. She was escorted by Barry Wheeler. Second runner-up Joanie Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Turner, escorted by Doyle Proctor. Third runner-up Karla Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Meyer, was escorted by Jeff Tiffin. Rex Fuston presented flowers for the candidates, and their escorts gave each girl a traditional kiss.

The Pep Squad presented candidates for "Pep Squad Hero." Barry Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wheeler, was selected "Football Hero." He was presented by Jena Mullin. Ron Eudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Eudy, was first runner-up. He was presented by Leslie Pigg.

Other candidates were Jeff Tiffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Tiffin, presented by Laura Fuston; Jimmy Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Woods, presented by Joanie Turner; Rex Fuston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Fuston, presented by Sherice Price; and Doyle Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Proctor, presented by Jill Eudy.

Donna Brown, president of the Pep Squad, presented the candidates with Patriot statues, and each received a kiss from his escort.

MRS. J. T. BRADLEY OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Taylor took Mrs. J. T. Bradley, mother of Mrs. Taylor, to Anson where she entered the hospital with an infection in a foot. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moss. The doctor let Mrs. Bradley out of the hospital to go to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Moss, Monday, but she has to continue medication and she remained. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor returned home Monday evening.

When Mrs. Bradley got to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Moss, Monday, her granddaughter had baked and decorated a cake for her and the family helped her celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Wassom and children of Odessa spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bailey, weekend before the last.

MRS. J. A. TAYLOR

Story Revue Coming Soon

The Fred Story Revue will be on display November 1, 1976 at the Valley School Gym. Starting at 7:30 p.m. Fred Story will conduct an adventure into the impossible. Highlights of the performance will include "Where does the Duck Go?", "Fantasy in Flowers", the famous "Houdini Trunk" and the mystery of the "Oaken Bucket."

The Story Revue lasts a full evening and during the performance the days of Keller, Thurston, Blackstone and Houdini will return for a brief time. For those disbelieving skeptics, they will be invited on stage to assist in the performance of the famous Houdini Trunk.

Also attend the performance to see Jena Mullin sawed in half. Jena is a senior at Valley School. She is a cheerleader and involved in many other activities at school. She is queen of the Turkey Lions Club. Make plans to attend and see if Jena survives being sawed in half.

A boy from the audience will be beheaded on stage during the evening performance. Seeing the cold steel of the guillotine blade and feeling its sharp edge will convince even the most reluctant observer that there is magic in the air.

The veteran performer of television and stage will bring his talent and mysteries to Valley on November 1, 1976 to thrill young and old alike. Billed as family entertainment, Fred Story and Company promises to baffle the imagination, tickle your funny bone and fill your evening with fantasy.

Tickets for the performance are available from members of the Turkey Lions Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell and daughter, Marilyn, have returned from a four-day trip and foliage tour through the Ozarks. While in the area they attended several Arts and Crafts Shows, one of which had as many as 200 exhibits.

Mrs. S. B. McCracken of Tulia visited her mother, Mrs. Estelle Davidson, Sunday.

SWINE FLU INNOCULATIONS RESUMED IN TEXAS

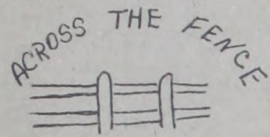

The swine flu immunization program, halted last week due to the deaths of three elderly persons in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania who had received the vaccine, were resumed in Texas Monday of this week.

Dr. Phillip W. Malloy, deputy commissioner for health maintenance, said it was determined the three deaths were not precipitated by the flu vaccine.

"The swine flu vaccine is safe and will not in itself cause heart attacks," Malloy said.

He indicated some persons may have some soreness of the arm or a low grade fever for up to 36 hours after receiving the vaccine. Persons who are sensitive to eggs should not be given the vaccine, he said.

The vaccine is available in our area at the office of Dr. Maxwell in Turkey. Therefore make arrangements to get your shot before the flu season gets here.

You're Never too Old to Learn

Kazoos, ukuleles, recorders and even home made instruments are put to good use by music students at General Development's Cultural Center in Port Charlotte, Fla. Music appreciation is one of the nearly 200 courses offered to Port Charlotte residents at the Cultural Center.

PORT CHARLOTTE, FLA. (ED) — "If you can't find anything to do here, then you're practically dead."

The speaker is Floyd Pfeiffer, an affable, mid-sixty-ish retired Army colonel, whose title in this attractive and booming General Development West Florida community is Director of Port Charlotte's Cultural Center.

The "here" that Pfeiffer is referring to is the Center—affectionately called "PCU" (Port Charlotte University)—by the residents it serves. Offering more than 190 courses for men, women and children, in everything from tap dancing and lip reading to romance languages, pinocle, world affairs and transactional analysis, PCU is education in action.

The booming institution grew out of the recognition by General Development that people who bought homes and property in Port Charlotte should have more to do than take care of their gardens or go fishing. Education should be an on-going process, the community planners reasoned, and so PCU began to grow.

Started sixteen years ago in 1961, when General Development instituted several adult education courses under the banner of Port Charlotte University, the Most blankets—wool, thermal, fiber blend, or electric—are machine washable, but check the care label first to be sure.

—Measure the blanket before washing so it can be stretched to original dimensions later.

—Pretreat spots and stains with liquid detergent or a paste made of granulated detergent and water.

—Fill washer with warm water and add detergent. Agitate briefly, to dissolve detergent. Stop the machine.

—Add blanket, distributing it loosely and evenly around agitator.

—Let blanket soak for 10-15 minutes.

—Start the machine and advance dial slowly to end of wash cycle so that blanket will not be agitated and wash water will drain out.

—Spin for about 11 minutes.

—Set dial for rinse cycle. Use a warm or cold rinse and allow washer to complete the rest of the cycle automatically. A fabric softener added to the final rinse will make the blanket fluffier and more stain-free.

Drying blankets is also easy:

—Set dryer at high setting. Tumble blanket about 10 minutes.

—Check and remove from dryer while still damp to avoid shrinkage.

—Stretch it to original dimensions and lay flat or over two parallel lines to finish drying.

—For man-made fibers, use the permanent-press cycle. These blankets can be dried completely but should be removed immediately from the dryer to prevent wrinkling.

—For finishing - up touches, brush blankets gently to restore

Four Accidents Reported Last Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Briscoe County during the month of September 1976, according to Sergeant J. R. Smith, Highway Patrol supervisor for this area.

These crashes resulted in one person injured, but fortunately in no deaths.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1976 shows a total of 17 accidents resulting in five persons injured but no deaths.

Veterans May Miss Dividend Checks

Many veterans retired from military service and paying premiums for U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) or National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) from monthly retirements checks may be missing annual dividend checks, the Veterans Administration reported today.

The VA insurance center at Philadelphia reported there are several thousand military retirees who each month pay insurance premiums by allotment from their retired pay.

In some cases the monthly deduction becomes so routine the veterans fail to notify the VA when there is a change of address. This is particularly true, a spokesman said, when a retiree's check is sent to a banking institution.

Annual dividends paid on USGLI and NSLI policies often result in some checks being returned to the VA for lack of a current address, the spokesman said.

Military retirees paying their GI insurance premiums by allotment should send changes of address, with policy number to the Veterans Administration Center, P. O. Box 8079, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19101.

A HOMECOMING REUNION FOR FIVE SCHOOL FRIENDS

Mrs. Woodie (Mildred Arnold) Lambert of Muleshoe was hostess for a Homecoming Reunion for four of her school friends, Mrs. Beryl (Ina Lee Coleman) Blacksher of Forestville, California; Mrs. Jack (Dorothy Nell Lyles) Hutchinson of Dickens; Mrs. Floyd (Juanita Roden) Blake of Plainview, and Mrs. Shine (Margaret Lisenby) Stephens of Turkey.

This was the first time all five had been together in about 30 years. The day was enjoyed by all in reminiscing over old times and talking over what their old Turkey School friends are now doing.

The day was ended by calling Woodie from work to make the five together in pictures.

Ina Lee, Juanita and Margaret were the only ones to have grandchildren to talk about: Lee has four granddaughters and one grandson, Juanita has three grandsons, Margaret has four grandsons and two granddaughters. Ina Lee returned to Plainview with Margaret and Juanita to visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Bray, before coming to Turkey where she is visiting with old friends. Beryl Blacksher and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Castleberry will arrive Thursday of this week to join Ina Lee for a visit here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Shine Stephens and their daughter, Cheryl and children, Stacy, Dan and Jana have just returned from a four-day tour through Red River, Toas, and Santa Fe to see the foliage in the area.

Mrs. Shine Stephens spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Floyd Blake in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gene Gilmore of Clovis and Mr. and Mrs. Craig Gilmore and children of Amarillo were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gilmore.

Jack Hightower believes in action . . . not empty words

When the voters of the 13th District sent Jack Hightower to Congress two years ago he pledged to represent all of them fairly and honestly. He promised to work full-time at the job. HE HAS KEPT THOSE PROMISES.

HERE IS WHAT THOSE WHO KNOW JACK HIGHTOWER'S RECORD SAY ABOUT HIS EFFECTIVENESS

"... as one of the original co-sponsors, I again thank you for your splendid contribution which has brought about this most needed improvement in the estate tax law..."
Omar Burleson, Member of Congress

"... your tremendous job on the floor and prior to the passage of H.R. 8410, the amendments to the Packers and Stockyards Act, are most deeply appreciated. It certainly was apparent to the people in the gallery and elsewhere that you know the subject matter well and handled the situation beautifully..."
C. W. McMillan, Executive Vice-President, American National Cattleman's Assn.

"... this award (Guardian of Small Business) is intended to acknowledge your efforts to protect small, independent businessmen and women and to maintain an economic environment in which they can grow and prosper. It is also based on the outstanding voting record you compiled on small business issues during the 94th Congress."
Wilson S. Johnson, president, National Federation of Independent Business

"... Price better think twice before he spends more money for a big campaign because as it stands now he's going to be fighting a losing battle if he tosses his hat in the ring... Hightower has read his constituency well, and he's doing exactly what his voters want him to do, but he's also spent a session learning the ropes and he's shown he's a better independent thinker..."
Carroll Wilson, columnist, Canyon News, Jan. 18, 1976

"... one of Jack Hightower's primary legislative projects has become the law of the land... it was H.R. 8410, an amendment to the Packers and Stockyards Act which Hightower co-sponsored in the House, and he was the author of its principal provision—prompt payment..."
Joe Brown, farm editor, Wichita Falls Record-News, Sept. 16, 1976

"... thank you for your support of the Beef Research and Information Act, and especially for your fine statement on the House floor... the people are well aware of your leadership and your untiring efforts to help the cattle industry..."
O. J. Barron, chairman, Beef Development Task Force

"... Of the 75 first-year Democrats, he is something of an anomaly—the most conservative of an outspokenly liberal group, one of the most careful and quiet of a largely shoot-from-the-hip crowd... Almost everyone on the Hill knows about Jack Hightower... the Congressman who votes his conscience, represents his district by organic instinct, but is capable of rising above parochial considerations when national interests are at stake. If that weren't enough, he lives a Spartan existence in a one-room efficiency apartment, sleeps on a couch that unfolds into a bed, washes his own socks, and drives an old car to work. The same qualities that made him an influential state senator for ten years—scrupulous honesty and an appetite for hard work—have served him well in Washington, but these alone do not explain the high regard in which he's held. In a town overpopulated by small people with large egos, it is a relief to find one for whom the reverse is true..."
Texas Monthly, May, 1976

That's the kind of Congressman Jack Hightower has been since he took his oath in January 1975. It's why he has earned the respect of his colleagues and the confidence of people throughout this district... from both political parties. Jack Hightower, Democrat, has earned a second term. Vote November 2.

BANNED IN ARGENTINA

Freedom of worship has been denied the Christian society of Jehovah's Witnesses and their 604 congregations throughout Argentina, by Decree Number 1867 signed by Jorge Rafael Videla, President of Argentina, under date of August 31, 1976. According to Carl Tidwell, presiding overseer of the Quitaque Congregation, the branch offices of the society and all meeting places have been closed. Publishing and distributing Bibles and Bible literature is forbidden.

Mr. Tidwell noted a communication received from world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Brooklyn, New York, was considered by the Quitaque Congregation. "We were shocked and surprised at this move by the Argentine government," he said.

Tidwell reported, "In ordering 'the activity of the religious association . . . prohibited in the whole territory of the nation,' the decree issued by President Videla stated that 'freedom of worship consecrated by Articles 14 and 20 of the National Constitution of course finds itself limited in the sense that the religious ideas should not imply the violations of laws or an attempt against public order, national security, morale or good customs.'"

"According to a bill passed by the Argentine Congress in 1949," Mr. Tidwell explained, "all religious groups except the Catholic Church were required to register with the Department of Cults of the Ministry of Foreign Relations. Registry of Jehovah's Witnesses was denied and in August 1950 our work was officially proscribed."

"For five years following this proscription, close surveillance of Jehovah's Witnesses was maintained, but with the fall of the Peron government in 1955, pressure began to ease somewhat and the following year a national public assembly was held attended by over 5,000 persons."

"In 1957, however, another national assembly was interrupted by the police who invoked the Public Meeting Edict of the Chief of Police. This abridgement of the freedom of worship and of meeting guaranteed by the Constitution was challenged by Jehovah's Witnesses, and on March 14, 1958, the sentence of the Chief of Police was revoked and eight articles of the Public Meeting Edict were declared illegal and unconstitutional."

Following another change in government in 1958, Tidwell said, a number of appeals were made to various government officials and agencies to have the ban against the Christian activity of Jehovah's Witnesses lifted, but despite favorable responses from several officials, the government responded negatively in 1959.

Despite the de jure proscription of the work, however, de facto acceptance continued, two public assemblies being held that same year. In the years that followed a new building housing branch offices and a printing plant of the society of Jehovah's Witnesses was built and later enlarged and many new meeting places or Kingdom Halls were constructed. During the last 25 years, the preaching work of Jehovah's Witnesses was well received by people all over Argentina, the active number of Witnesses growing from 1,416 in 1950 to 31,140 in 1975.

"With this background of favorable activity and the response our work has received among the people of Argentina," Mr. Tidwell said concerning President Videla's decree of August 31, 1976, "we find it difficult to understand why this action should be taken after 26 years, when obviously no attempt has been made by these Christians against public order, national security, morale or good customs," as stated by President Videla in his decree. Obviously the position of Jehovah's Witnesses is misunderstood. It is our hope that liberty will soon be restored to Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina."

The American Quest

First came the convictions . . . solid rock-like convictions . . . about man and his rights . . . convictions about God and the gifts with which He generously blessed mankind. Then, came a search to implement these convictions; the result was our Declaration of Independence.

American liberty like America itself had its beginning in the quest for spiritual identity. In the wilderness itself the pilgrim fathers searched and labored to build a civilization based on their religious convictions. They probed their minds and hearts and discovered that they shared a common vision of "one nation under God." Again, the Declaration was the inspired result.

If our third century is to be one of "independence," like the two that have preceded it, all of us must continue this quest, and maintain this eternal vigilance of faith and religious commitment.

Eliminate Texas right to work laws?

Carter says yes.
Ford says no.
What do you say?
Say it on Nov. 2nd.
Vote for President Ford.

Where was the voice of our Congressman?

Where was our voice when the liberal majority in Congress increased their own expense to the taxpayer a staggering 30% the past year? (He voted for this!)

We need a strong, vigorous voice in Washington to represent our point of view.

We need Bob Price back in Congress.

Paid for by Return Bob Price To Congress Committee, P.O. Box 2476, Pampa, Texas 79065, Harold Barrett, Chairman, Malcolm E. Hinkle, Treasurer.

If I Were President

by Mrs. Pigg's Third Grade Class
If I were president, I would have prices cut down. I would keep parks clean. I would help the poor people by giving them food and money. I would help the farmer. I would be on television to tell the people about what is happening in the country. I would give the poor people two hundred dollars. I would help keep the school yard clean. I would help the people that are sick and in the hospitals. I would say, "Please people, keep America clean." Use money for playground equipment. I would give money to kids who were sick or handicapped. I would help the old people. I would tell everyone to stop speeding. I would cut down on the gasoline prices. I would love everyone and care for them.
