OBITUARY

Walter Kelly

Graveside services for Walter R. Kelly, 86, of Turkey were at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, March 21, 1992 at Resthaven Cemetery in Quitaque.

Officiating was the Rev. Melvin Clinton, pastor of First Baptist Church in Turkey, assisted by the Rev. Steve Ulrey, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Quitaque.

Arrangements were under direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors in Quitaque.

Kelly died Thursday morning in Lockney General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Fort Huachuca, Arizona, and moved to Briscoe County at an early age. He owned Quitaque Sand and Gravel for many years. He was an avid fisherman and was a violin maker.

He was preceded in death by two wives, Mae Apperson Kelly and Ruby Melton Kelly.

Survivors include three daughters, Christina Griffin of Odessa, Vernie Mullin of Turkey and Ruby Dean Cone of Amarillo; a son, Joe Dale Melton of Merkel; a brother, Ernest of Richardson; two sisters, Isabell Brown of Kerrville and Gloria Perrin of Colorado; 16 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to the Lions Club Crippled Children's Hospital in Kerrville.

Palbearers were O. R. Stark, James Brunson, Jimmy Davidson, Deloy Myers, Elgin Conner, Buster Chadwick.

Honorary pallbearers were Allen Matthews, Jake Merrell, and H.E. Mullin.

Joe Frank Taylor

Joe Frank Taylor died March 9, 1992, at the age of 43. He is survived by his mother, Haney Margaret Taylor in Mesquite. His daddy died May 9, 1988. Joe Frank was buried in the Quitaque Cemetery on the Frank Wise lot.

His grandparents in Quitaque were Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wise.

He grew up in Mesquite, Texas, and attended Mesquite High School. He was student Editor of the Mesquite High School Monitor (student's paper). The Dallas Times Herald of Dallas, presented him the "Outstanding Staffer Award".

He was also presented with the "National Merit Scholarship Award" in 1966. "Only 2 per cent of gradu-

Taylor Swimmer Of The Year

Jack Taylor, grandson of Dick Taylor has been named the Male Junior College Swimmer of the Year for 1992.

Jack is a freshman at Indian River College in Florida on a swim scholarship. He graduated from Littleton High School in Littleton, Colorado, where he became the #1 All-Time Top Ten Swimmer in 1991. To be number one, Jack had to surpass all former Littleton swimmers, some of whom were members of the 1982 World Games Team.

Dick Taylor drove to Panhandle on Friday, March 13 and met Barbara and Dan Duncan and their daughter, Dorsey. Saturday morning they all drove to Oklahoma City to Oklahoma City Junior College where Jack was attending a swim meet. There the group met James and Ginny Taylor, Jack's parents.

At this meet, Jack set a new National Junior College Athletic Association Record in both the 500 yard Freestyle and the 1650 yard Freestyle. Jack was also less than one second from the 200 yard Butterfly event record.

 That night after the meet, Jack was presented the Male Junior College Swimmer of the Year Award. Dick Taylor returned to Quitaque the following day.

ON THE QT

Bob and Lee Hays of Camarillo, California visited in the home of their daughter and family, Linda and Randy Stark, Amy and Amber, this past week.

Those attending funeral services in Lubbock Wednesday March 18 for Alma Monk from Quitaque were Ralph and Hattie Lois Carter, Floye McCracken, Wayne and Lina Whittington, Johnnie and Murry Morrison, Cloie and Leroy Hamilton, Ruby Mae Woods, Dalsie Monk and Maynard "Fish" Wilson.

Grady Tyler is to have surgery Friday, March 28, 1992 at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

While in college he was parliamentarian of Talons, a service fraternity, also a reporter for Phi Eta Sigma, a national fraternity. He received a Masters Degree in Texas University in Austin, majoring in Professional Accounting.

When he was growing up, he toured all the states in the U. S. with his parents. It really helped his knowledge of the world.

He will be missed by many friends he had.
