Charla Barnett Is Bob Wills Queen For Annual Celebration

CHARLA BARNETT
1986 Bob Wills Queen

The Bob Wills Foundation has named Charla Barnett as the Bob Wills Day Queen for the 15th Annual Celebration of Turkey's famous son. Miss Barnett is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson and makes her home with them during the school year. She will graduate from Clarendon College Friday and will reign as queen and ride on the Queen's float in the Saturday parade down Turkey's Main Street at 10:30 a.m. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Barnett of Boerne, Texas, and her sisters, Kimberly and Stacey, will be on hand along with her grandparents to watch the parade and take in the other festivities.

Arville Setliff, publicity chairman, says accommodating the dancing throngs this year will be a lot easier with the partition between the old school gymnasium and auditorium torn down to allow more dancing in the Bob Wills Center.

"We've put in more exits so those leaving won't have to go through where they are still coming in," he said. "Folks may be dancing in the stands as they have in the past, but there will be twice the space on the floor."

"We've reserved rooms for the original band for the 2:30 program on the old football field plus 25 or 30 others. The local hotel is reserved, and we have 31 rooms out of town already booked."

Mrs. Betty Wills and Dr. Charles Townsend, Wills' biographer, will again serve as parade marshals.

Past proceeds from the yearly honor to Turkey's most famous son purchased the old Turkey school buildings which are used for the celebration and also house the city hall, senior citizens center, justice of the peace office, library and Bob Wills Museum. Occupants pay no rent, only the utilities.

Funds have also paid for land which became Bob Wills Park, with the 16-ton marble monument that holds the Bob Wills legend around the base and is topped by a fiddle standing 26 feet above the ground.

"We also helped buy fire trucks and ambulances and donated to the cemetery fund," he concluded.

As Bob Barker says, "Come on down!"—to Turkey, that is, for the celebration.

Crowd Enjoyed Monday At Lake Mackenzie

A good crowd of people enjoyed the Texas Sesquicentennial holiday at Lake Mackenzie Monday, according to Park Superintendent Emmett Tomlin.

The water depth at the dam is holding constant at 113 feet, and the water temperature at a four foot depth is 60°.

"It seems like the larger crappie have moved into deeper water. A lot of small crappie are still being caught using minnows," Tomlin said.

Ron Love of Tulia caught a nice six pound fifteen ounce walleye on a silver and black crank bait up Cope Creek Saturday morning.

"I saw several nice bass caught by Jack Metcalf of Amarillo who was using a plastic worm," Tomlin added.

Fishing is slow for the hybrid stripers.

YOUR DISTRICT COURT AND ITS DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

CRIMINAL JURISDICTION: The District Court has a reputation of being lenient on repeat offenders. In Briscoe County alone all of the criminals coming before the Court in the last several years were handed either probated or deferred sentences even on repeat offenders. Very little consideration is given to the rights of the victims of a crime. My experience as County Attorney of Dickens County for the past 9 years has taught me that a speedy trial and jail time has been a deterrent to repeat offenders.

CIVIL LITIGATION: Justice delayed is often justice denied. I will make certain that civil cases are moved promptly to trial. I will spend the time necessary to study the case before it comes to trial and during trial. Errors which can be avoided by study and research are inexcusable. I will work to make certain such errors are prevented.

Mrs. Patterson

Nuevo Study Club

Mrs. Roy Patterson was hostess to the Nuevo Study Club Thursday, April 17, in the home of Nadine Baisden. The president, Mrs. Paul Robertson, conducted a short business session. It was voted to go to Amarillo for the last meeting of the year on May 8 to tour the home of Don and Sybil Harrington. It was also decided to have a program topic for the club year beginning in September, the Texas Trails.

Mrs. Patterson gave a program in keeping with the Sesquicentennial year, using an article from "Texas Celebrates 150 Years," a special publication. She told something about 18 women who had been outstanding in their field of endeavor in the last 150 years. Among those mentioned were Jane Long, called the mother of Texas; Suzanne Dickinson, who bought the Alamo in 1904 and was instrumental in having it restored; Cynthia Ann Parker, who was captured by the Indians and was married to a Comanche war chief; Annie Webb Blanton, the first woman elected to a state office, that of State Supt. of Public Instruction in 1918; Sarah T. Hughes, the first woman appointed a state judge; and Barbara Jordan, the first black woman to serve in the state senate since Reconstruction.

The hostess served a refreshment plate of chocolate pie, cheese spread, crackers, olives, juice and coffee.

Guests in the Wendell Farley home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Farley and children of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Farley and children and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wellman and children of Quitaque joined them. On Saturday, the boys took Larry's boat and went to Lake Mackenzie for a ride. They took the children out to Lake Theo for a ride Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Wayne Morrison and Cari of Lubbock spent a long weekend in Quitaque visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murry Morrison, and Joe. The children were taking the Texas Independence Day holiday Monday.

To The Voters Of Briscoe, Dickens, Floyd (110th Judicial District of Texas)

George Miller, the present District Judge, has in his paid political advertisements represented himself to the voters as being fair, qualified, capable and experienced. We ask that you consider the representations made by George Miller in such advertisements with the injustices inflicted on the people by his erroneous rulings and by his other conduct.

The people of Texas, in the State Constitution and through laws passed by the legislature, provided for the establishment of a set of rules to govern the conduct of Judges. Judges are expected to obey these rules which are found in what is known as the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Canon 5 D. of the Code of Judicial Conduct provides that a Judge should not serve as executor of an estate except for a member of his family and that he should not serve even for a member of his family if it is likely he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or if the estate becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the Court in which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

In violation of this rule, on February 5, 1981, Judge George W. Miller appeared in the County Court and applied for probate of the handwritten will of W. A. Massie, Deceased.

Mr. W. A. Massie was not related to George Miller either by blood or by marriage.

This handwritten will was patterned after a draft of a proposed will which Judge Miller, in his own handwriting, had prepared for Mr. Massie in 1971. George W. Miller wrote himself into this proposed will as Independent Executor without bond.

Prior to the time of the application for probate by Judge Miller, Mrs. W. A. Massie had applied for and received letters of administration on the grounds that Mr. Massie left no will. She was represented at this time by attorney, Kenneth Bain.

After Judge Miller came up with the handwritten will, he employed attorney, Kenneth Bain, to represent him. Mrs. Massie had to employ other lawyers.

The will of W. A. Massie provides: "I hereby constitute and appoint George W. Miller of Floydada, Texas, Independent Executor without bond of this my last will, and direct no action be had in County Court other than probating, appraisement and list of claims." Several of Mr. Massie's relatives filed suit for a construction (interpretation) of the will and for part of the estate.

In spite of this clear direction in the will, Judge Miller did not remove the lawsuit from County Court to District Court which he could have done and was obligated to do. The County Judge could have also sent the case to District Court in order that the will could be construed (interpreted) by a Judge who was a lawyer, familiar with the complicated rules of will construction, but the County Judge was not advised by either George Miller or the County Attorney representing George Miller that failure to transfer the lawsuit to District Court was a violation of the valid directions of Mr. Massie's will.

If the suit had been removed to District Court (in accordance with the provisions of the will) then Judge Miller would have been disqualified, a District Judge would have to be called in from another District with the result that another District Judge would have discovered that Judge Miller was serving as executor of an estate and would have taken whatever action he considered appropriate in light of Judge Miller's violation of the rules of judicial conduct.

Judge Miller paid out of the Estate directly to the lawyer for one group of relatives the sum of $110,000.00 for division among the lawyers and plaintiffs in a compromise and settlement agreement and it was agreed that the County Judge would construe the will in accordance with Judge Miller's theory. This action was taken in the County Court regardless of the fact that the will of W. A. Massie provided: "And direct that no further action be had in County Court other than probating, appraisement and list of claims."

The County Court records show that Judge Miller served as executor from February 16, 1981, to December 9, 1985, which amounts to approximately one-half of the time that he has occupied the office of District Judge. He has paid himself as executor a commission of thousands upon thousands of dollars out of the Massie Estate. During the period of administration he has played the roles of witness, litigant in an adversary proceeding, district judge, proponent of a will, lawyer, and employer of the County Attorney who had previously represented Mrs. W. A. Massie in the same case.

We ask that you consider the conduct of a judge who apparently being dissatisfied with his $60,000.00 salary plus the large retirement benefits, chose to enrich himself with extrajudicial activities which were in violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Canon 3A of the Code of Judicial Conduct states, "A Judge should be patient, dignified and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers and others with whom he deals in his official capacity."

We ask that you compare this rule with the manner in which Judge Miller dealt with a witness in Cause No. 1974 in Motley County, Texas, on November 12, 1985.

This was an uncontested divorce case. The husband was being questioned by a lawyer, Mr. Arnett, concerning a box spring and mattress which had been destroyed in a tornado.

The following is a partial transcript prepared by the Court reporter:

Question: Are you using that at this time?
Answer: Using what? The box springs and mattress?

Question: And the bed.
Answer: I've got — I went and bought me another —

Judge Miller: Mr. Wilson, —
Answer: — Box —

Judge Miller: — You keep your mouth shut and your voice down, you understand? This is a Court of Law. Now, you try to answer the questions without arguing.

The witness, who was told by Judge Miller to "shut his mouth", is a government teacher in the Matador School system. What can he tell his government students about the patience and courtesy of District Judge Miller of the 110th Judicial District?

Judge George W. Miller has been mailing out letters to some of the voters of the District in which he boasts of his fairness, experience, capabilities and responsibilities.

In view of these representations we ask you to look at what the Judges on the appellate courts of this state had to say about his erroneous rulings while they were trying to straighten out his errors and correct the injustices of his erroneous rulings as shown in the cases described below. Some of the cases were tried inside this district and others were tried outside the district.

In each of the cases listed below Judge Miller has committed one or more of the following described reversible errors:

Failed to properly instruct the jury; rendered decisions when there was no evidence to support his judgment, ignore erroneous judgement; substituted his own award the title to own under unlawful foreclosure proceedings; failed to grant a temporary injunction to stop unlawful foreclosure proceeding clear abuse of discretion had no jurisdiction to grant an injunction to keep a candidate's name on the ballot when the candidate was not eligible under the law to run for office; entered an order ejecting a land owner from the land when the land had been unlawfully submitted the proper issues to the jury; made erroneous rulings on matters of law; and entered a judgement which was supported by the jury verdict.

In the case of The Baker, reported in Southwestern Reporter 580, page 611. Judge Miller was appointed to provide for the removal of the Sheriff of Potter County from office. The amended petition filed by the State was not even verified by sworn affidavit as the law requires. There even have jurisdiction to remove the Sheriff of Potter County from office. Judge Miller went ahead and permitted the selection of a jury and wasted the cost of the time and caused the Sheriff to endure a trial the law clearly prohibited conducting.

The jury ruled in favor of the Sheriff and Judge Miller entered a take the case to the Court of Civil Appeals reversed Judge Miller's judgment and dismissed the case against the Sheriff. Judge Miller did not have jurisdiction to hear the case because the amended petition for removal was not sworn to by any person.

Judge Miller should have read Article 5977 of the Texas Statutes which reads in part, "... the petition shall in every instance be sworn to at or before the filing of the petition."

In the case State of Texas v. Fortenberry, 579 S.W. 2d 482, a murder case tried in Hale County, Texas, on a charge of venereal disease from Motley County, the defendant was tried by the Sheriff of Motley County, Texas. The Judge found the defendant guilty and assessed the death penalty, but the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and sent the case back for another trial. This trial cost Motley County approximately $24,000.00, of which the County was required to pay a grant from the State of approximately $52,000.00. The County did not have the money to try the defendant again, resulting in a plea bargain agreement in which the defendant received a sentence less than the sentence given by the Court of Criminal Appeals for sending the case back for a new trial was that JUDGE MILLER DID NOT PROPERLY INSTRUCT THE JURY.

Judge Miller presided over the case of Bankers Commercial Life Insurance Company vs. Merrell, Case No. 563, page 691, of the Southwestern Reporter 2d Series. This was a case in which the Plaintiff sought to recover a claim from the insurance company under a policy which provided for additional payments in the event of death resulting from injuries sustained while operating or driving a "private passenger automobile". The insurance policy excluded coverage of "any truck". It was undisputed that the deceased was in a pickup at the time of the fatal accident.

his judgment, ignored the jury verdict and substituted his own erroneous judgement; awarded the title to a loan company under unlawful foreclosure proceedings; failed to grant a temporary injunction to stop unlawful foreclosure proceedings when such failure was a clear abuse of discretion; tried a case when he had no jurisdiction to try it for the reason that petitions were not verified by sworn affidavit as required by law; failed to place an injunction to keep a candidate's name from being placed on the ballot when the candidate was not eligible under the law to run for office; entered an order ejecting a land owner from his land when the land had been unlawfully foreclosed upon; failed to submit the proper issues to the jury; made erroneous rulings on matters of law; and enter a judgement which was not supported by the jury verdict.

In the case of The State of Texas vs. T. L. Baker, reported in Volume 580, page 611, Southwestern Reporter 2d Series, Judge Miller was appointed to preside over this case in Amarillo, Potter County. This was a suit to remove the Sheriff of Potter County from office. The amended petition for removal filed by the State was not even verified by sworn affidavit as the law requires. Therefor Judge Miller did not even have jurisdiction to try the case. In spite of this Judge Miller went ahead and permitted the selection of a jury and proceeded to try the case, wasted the cost of the trial, wasted the jury's time and caused the Sheriff to endure a trial the law clearly prohibited Judge Miller from conducting.

The jury ruled in favor of the Sheriff and Judge Miller entered a take nothing judgment. The State appealed and the Court of Civil Appeals reversed Judge Miller's judgment and dismissed the case against the Sheriff and ruled that Judge Miller did not have jurisdiction to hear the case because the amended petition for removal was not sworn to by any person.

Judge Miller should have read Article 5977 of the Texas Statutes which reads in part, "... the petition shall in every instance be sworn to at or before the filing of the petition".

In the case State of Texas vs. Fortenberry, 579 S.W. 2d 482, a murder was tried in Hale County, Texas, on a charge of murder from Motley County, the defendant was tried by the Sheriff of Motley County, Texas. The jury found the defendant guilty and assessed the death penalty, but the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and sent the case back for another trial. This trial cost Motley County approximately $100,000.00, of which the County was required to grant from the State of approximately $52,000.00. The County did not have the money to try the defendant again, resulting in a plea bargain agreement in which the defendant received a lesser sentence than the sentence given by the Court of Criminal Appeals for the reason given by the Court of Criminal Appeals for sending the case back for a new trial was that JUDGE MILLER DID NOT PROPERLY INSTRUCT THE JURY.

Judge Miller presided over the case of Bankers Commercial Life Insurance Company vs. Merrell, Volume 563, page 691, of the Southwestern Reporter 2d Series.

This was a case in which the Plaintiff sought to recover a claim from an insurance company under a policy which provided for additional death benefits in the event of death resulting from an injury, operating or injuries sustained while driving a "private passenger automobile". The insurance policy excluded coverage of "any... truck". It was undisputed that the deceased was in a pickup at the time of the fatal accident.

In order of judgment to be rendered for the plaintiff it would have been necessary to determine that a "pickup" is a "private passenger automobile".

Judge Miller ruled in favor of the Plaintiff. The Defendant insurance company appealed. The Court of Civil Appeals used a whole paragraph in their opinion to point out to Judge Miller that a "pickup" means a "pickup truck" and that a "pickup truck" is a small light "truck" with an open back, used for light hauling" and not a "private passenger automobile", and reversed Judge Miller's erroneous judgment.

In the case of Garcia vs. Rutledge presided over by Judge Miller in Lamb County, Texas, reported in Volume 649, page 307 of the Southwestern Reporter 2d Series, Mr. Garcia sued Frank's Truck and Tractor Co. claiming in his suit that the repair company had not repaired the truck as it had agreed to do, but instead kept the truck and would not return it to Mr. Garcia. The case was tried before a jury and the jury found for Mr. Garcia. In spite of the finding for Mr. Garcia by the Jury, Judge Miller entered a judgment for the truck repair company.

The Court of Civil Appeals said that, "reinstatement of the Jury Verdict is required and judgment must be rendered in accordance with the jury verdict." Thus the Court of Appeals reversed Judge Miller's decision and awarded the plaintiff damages of $3,892.98 plus attorneys fees of $2,500.00.

The case of Moore Ag Credit vs. Lovell, (Cause No. 2313, District Court, Briscoe County, Texas), concerned a loan company (Moore Ag Credit) unlawfully foreclosing on a landowner's land in Briscoe County. The case was tried before a Briscoe County jury in March, 1984, and the jury found that the substitute trustee who sold the property for the loan company was not timely appointed and also found that the loan company did not act fairly with the landowner. Despite the jury's findings, George Miller erroneously awarded title and possession of the land to the foreclosing loan company. The Court of Appeals reversed Judge Miller's ruling and sent the case back for another trial. The reason given for the reversal of Judge Miller's judgment was that the Trustee for the loan company was not appointed (as found by Briscoe County Jury) the required 21 days before the foreclosure sale, the loan company did not act with fairness and impartiality in the conduct of the sale, as found by the Briscoe County Jury, and the Trustee's Deed and the foreclosure proceedings were void as a matter of law. This unlawful foreclosure was conducted in July, 1982, and the Supreme Court in January, 1986, affirmed the Court of Civil Appeals finding that Judge Miller's judgment was incorrect, thus reversing and remanding the case back for a new trial. As a result of George Miller's incorrect ruling on a matter of law, the landowner has been unlawfully deprived of the title to and the use of his property for almost four years, the Jury's time was wasted, the Court expenses were wasted, and an estimated $100,000.00 in attorney fees of the litigants was wasted because Judge Miller did not study and understand the laws of this case.

The case Dhanani Investments, Inc. vs. Second Masterbilt Homes, Inc., is reported in Volume 650, page 220, of Southwestern Reporter 2d Series. In this case from Fort Worth, Texas, Judge Miller erroneously denied an application for injunction to prevent the loan company accelerating the debt and foreclosing on the property of the plaintiff.

The Plaintiff appealed and the Court of Civil Appeals reversed Judge Miller's judgment and granted the injunction for the reason that the facts showed that the loan company did not have the right to accelerate the debt.

Judge Miller clearly abused his discretion in this case because the rule of law is clear that trial judges shall not be reversed for failure to grant an injunction unless there is a CLEAR ABUSE OF DISCRETION.

In the case of Lemons vs. Wylie, a 1978 case reported in Volume 563, page 882, of the Southwestern Reporter 2d Series, Mr. Lemons brought a suit against Oscar Wylie, the Democratic Chairman of Castro County, to enjoin him from placing the name of Jimmy Davis on the ballot. Mr. Lemons alleged in his petition that Mr. Davis was not eligible to have his name placed on the ballot since he had not been a resident of Castro County for the six months period required by law.

Judge Miller dismissed the suit claiming he did not have jurisdiction. The Court of Civil Appeals held that Judge Miller erred in dismissing the cause for lack of jurisdiction and the Court of Appeals entered a judgment stopping the placing of the name of Jimmy Davis on the ballot as he was not qualified to seek office since he had not been a resident of Castro County for the time required by law.

In the case Harrison vs. Parker, 620 S.W. 2d 102, the Plaintiff, represented by David Cave, sought to recover her share of her Mother's estate. Judge Miller incorrectly ruled the woman could not assert her claim because it was barred by the statute of limitations. The woman's small share of the estate amounted only to about $1,200.00, and she was not able to pay a large fee to appeal the case and correct the injustice inflicted upon her by Judge Miller. However, her attorney, DAVID CAVE, was determined to correct this injustice and carried the case to the Court of Appeals, which reversed Judge Miller's decision, saying in part, "the implied findings that the Plaintiff's claim was barred by the statute of limitations was unsupported."

The Texas Supreme Court upheld the Court of Appeals, and the case was remanded back to the trial court so the woman could assert her claim, which was thereafter settled and finally paid to her.

In the case Northcutt vs. Jarrett, 585 S.W. 2d 874, the Plaintiff attempted to set aside an agreed property settlement in a divorce case presided over by the late Honorable L.D. Ratliff in 1971. Judge George Miller, after failing to properly instruct the jury, made an erroneous redistribution of the property which had the effect of setting aside the judgment made by Judge Ratliff. The Texas Supreme Court reversed Judge Miller's judgment and allowed Judge Ratliff's judgment to stand. The Supreme Court said, in effect, that Judge Miller did not submit the proper issues to the jury and that the jury's findings therefore did not support the judgment entered by Judge Miller. As a result of this error, the jury's time, the money of the parties, and the expenses of operating the court were totally wasted, with nothing having been accomplished.

Texans Urged to Take Extra Care in the Sun

The American Cancer Society (ACS) has some words of warning for Texans looking forward to spending time outdoors during the long days of summer.

If you fry now, you may pay later, the Society cautions, because every exposure to the sun ages and damages skin. Skin cancer is the most serious form of "payment" for sun worshippers. More than 400,000 new cases of skin cancer will be diagnosed this year. While the vast majority are highly curable, the problem itself is largely preventable by exercising good sense and taking simple precautions.

"Young people, especially, are unaware of the cumulative amount of damage they are getting when they get too much sun," said Linda N. White, R.N., Houston, Chairman of the ACS Texas Division skin cancer program development committee. "They think because nothing happens this year, or in five years, that everything's okay."

"Also, a lot of people are unaware of the damage done other than skin cancer... wrinkles, drying out, the aging process," Ms. White added.

"Geographically, skin cancer is more prevalent in the Sun Belt, and because we are in the Sun Belt, people are at higher risk," Ms. White said.

Also at higher risk for developing skin cancer are people with lightly-pigmented skin, people who work or spend a great deal of recreational time outdoors and workers exposed to coal tar, pitch, creosote, arsenic compounds or radium. As with many other cancers, risk increases with age.

Because skin cancer occurs more frequently than any other type of cancer, it is important to recognize its warning signals: a sore that does not heal; any unusual skin condition, especially a change in the size or color of a mole or other darkly pigmented growth or spot.

To reduce the risk of damage from too much sun, the Society advises Texans to:

- *cover up—wear hats and protective clothing;
- *use sunscreens—apply sunscreen at least an hour before going into the sun and again after swimming or perspiring heavily;
- *avoid the midday sun—between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. the sun's ultraviolet rays (the ones that do the damage) are strongest;
- *don't use indoor sun lamps or tanning pills.

In addition to taking precautions in the sun, the Society recommends monthly skin self-exams to note any changes in moles, blemishes or birthmarks.

For more information, contact your local American Cancer Society office.

We had a fantastic response to the Extension study group meeting last Thursday with 43 county leaders attending to identify county concerns.

The home economics task force is developing a survey for county families to determine what kind of educational programs and services you need. I hope you will take the time to respond to this when you receive it.

I was excited about the way the Silvertown and Quitaque community leaders worked together in the community development task force meeting. I heard several comments like, "It's time we all worked together for the good of the whole county and both communities."

We have so many great leaders and talented people in Briscoe County that it would be a waste of valuable resources not to work together to share each one's expertise with others for the benefit of the WHOLE.

Developing the leadership we have and training and motivating new leaders to get involved to help MAKE THE MOST OF WHAT WE HAVE were top priority concerns. This group also discussed assessing and publicizing the county's assets and making the communities more attractive to those who

I hope we will begin focusing on what we HAVE and not what we DON'T HAVE to make us all more proud of BRISCOE COUNTY!

Turkey UMW Met Monday For Second Study Session

The Turkey United Methodist Women met Monday in the church chapel for the second session of the current study, "Caring for God's Earth," taught by Marcella Patterson. Program topic was Water—the Most Essential Resource. Scriptures used were Isaiah 35:6, 7 and Psalm 104:10-13, read by Virginia Degan. Nadine Baisden gave an article from New World Outlook entitled Stewards of Earth's Water. She brought out the fact that "We must treat fresh water in a much more responsible manner if we want to have enough for all to use."

Mrs. Patterson said, "The earth is about two-thirds water, but less than three percent of this is fresh water! Much of the world's fresh water is undrinkable. There is also the problem of distribution; some areas have too much and others not enough."

To close the meeting, the group sang a song written especially for the study, "Let's Take Care of God's Good Earth" sung to the tune of "Jesus Loves Me." Kathleen Green accompanied at the piano.

During the business session plans were made for the rummage sales to be held the first two Saturdays in May in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mark Davis and children of Levelland visited recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Davis. They celebrated the boys' birthdays and had a real nice weekend, Mrs. Davis said.

During the construction of the Hoover Dam, concrete had to be poured continually for two years.

The Agents will be assisted by Dr. Martha Cook, Extension 4-H Specialist in Lubbock. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Pioneer Room of the First State Bank in Silvertown.

This workshop is of the utmost importance because all 4-H recognition and competition accomplishments are based on accomplishments recorded in the book over several years. This means that each youngster needs to begin recording his or her activities, no matter what age they are.

4-Hers competing for the $5,000.00 per year Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo are invited to attend.

NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE REQUEST AND STATEMENT OF INTENT

Based upon a test year ending June 30, 1985 the increases requested over test year revenues is $2,296,831.00 or 19.62%. Much of this increase is to offset increases in the cost of wholesale power purchased by the utility from Southwestern Public Service Company.

The changes are applicable to all areas and all customers served by the Utility. The classes and numbers of Utility customers affected are as follows:

Farm & Home	2,811
Commercial	22
Irrigation	4,477
Large Power	3
Special Large Power	1
Cotton Gins	1
Wind Generation	1
Lighting	1

The Utility intends to change its service rules and regulations including rules relating to obtaining service, line extension and line extension charges, the provision of electric service, service fees, and discontinuance of service.

Implementation of the proposed changes is subject to approval by the appropriate regulatory authority. A statement of intent including the proposed revision of tariff and schedules and statement specifying in detail each proposed change is available at the general office of the Utility located at 401 S.W. 2nd Street, Tulia, Texas.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. 4-H Leader, Parent Recordbook Workshop Planned April 24

The Briscoe County Extension Agents will be conducting a 4-H Recordbook Workshop on April 24, designed for 4-H leaders and parents. The Agents will be assisted by Dr. Martha Couch, Extension 4-H Specialist in Lubbock. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Pioneer Room at First State Bank in Silverton.

This workshop is of the utmost importance because all 4-H'er recognition and competition for scholarships is based on accomplishments recorded in the book over several years. This means that each youngster needs to begin recording his or her 4-H activities, no matter what age they are.

4-H'ers competing for the $8,000.00 per year Houston Livestock Show scholarships must present a top-quality recordbook in the spring of their senior year. A total of 50 Houston scholarships are awarded each year and an additional $7 scholarships are awarded by several other sponsors. These scholarships will total $1,785,750.00 to be awarded to Texas 4-H'ers in 1986.

The County Extension Office urges all 4-H leaders and parents who are interested in helping Briscoe County 4-H'ers plan and prepare their recordbooks for competition to attend this very important workshop. For more information, contact the County Extension Office, 823-2343.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
Perhaps you are wondering why John R. (Randy) Hollums, the District Attorney for the 110th Judicial District, is taking sides in the race for District Judge.

As an attorney and officeholder, I feel that I cannot sit by and allow half-truths and false innuendos to be printed in political advertisements by Attorney Cave and his committee without replying.

David Cave is a young attorney whom I had hoped would run a fair campaign based on the real facts and issues. I have been severely disappointed in the manner in which he has slanted and misrepresented issues.

Although each item in Mr. Cave's advertisements might be capable of similar analysis, I will undertake to answer only two items which directly pertain to my office.

The first item to be corrected is the statement regarding Fortenberry vs. State, 579 SW2 482.

Contrary to David Cave's insinuation, the fact is that Judge Miller acted in a reasonable and proper fashion in finding that the charge to the jury was not required. The decision to not give a particular jury charge in Fortenberry vs. State, was made by Judge Miller after hearing argument by both the State and the defendant's attorneys. The State, represented by myself and Tom Hamilton, the former District Attorney in Hale County, had consulted with two attorneys in Austin in regard to the propriety of the defense's requested charge. The two individuals conferred with were Jim Vollers, who was at that time the State's Attorney of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and Mike McCormick, who is presently serving on the Court of Criminal Appeals. All of the four attorneys agreed that under the present (at that time) state of the law, the charge was not required and the State argued against the requested charge being given. Judge Miller ruled in favor of the State.

If Judge Miller had ordered the requested charge to be given the jury, I am of the opinion that the jury would have found the defendant not guilty of capital murder and might not even have imposed the life sentence that Fortenberry is presently serving. The Court of Criminal Appeals created new law when it reversed the case and Fortenberry vs. State has been cited by the Court ever since as the first case under the new rule of law.

It would be nice if I could believe that David Cave ran his advertisement while ignorant of the true facts in this case, but David Cave had knowledge of the above facts. I informed him of the true facts several weeks before the misleading advertisement appeared in the area newspapers. I submit that this is an example of the "anything to win morality."

The second item to be corrected is the manner in which the District Attorney's office assists with the Grand Jury. The record shows that this District has OPEN GRAND JURIES. Mr. Cave's advertisement implies that "many cases of alleged criminal activity do not get to the point of being considered by the grand juries of the respective counties." I have, throughout the ten plus years of being District Attorney in this district, always conducted open grand juries. That is, any person who felt that a crime had been committed was allowed to appear and testify before the Grand Jury. Mr. Cave is well aware of that fact in that he personally attended and helped conduct most of the grand juries in Dickens County during that period. Mr. Cave accepted or refused most of the criminal complaints received in Dickens County during this period (the first step for most Grand Jury cases). He, of all people, knows or should know, that certain legal elements must be met before a case can be successfully prosecuted or an indictment returned by a Grand Jury. To present a case to the Grand Jury before all the elements are provable is often a waste of the Grand Jury's and the Court's time.

David Cave knows and has followed the above precepts in his own actions before the Grand Jury of Dickens County. So why imply that the present system is not working? It must be the "anything to win morality" again.

I hope that the voters will realize that allegations made in the last few weeks of the campaign cannot be properly responded to and should be taken with a grain of salt.

It hurts me personally to see David Cave slinging mud in the District Judge Campaign. I had hoped the race would be run with fairness by both candidates, but it appears that only one, George Miller, cares about the dignity of that office.

Sincerely,
John R. (Randy) Hollums
District Attorney for the 110th Judicial District

Conservation Reserve Program to be Discussed Friday

Farmers interested in the Conservation Reserve Program will have a chance to question top USDA officials on Friday. The meetings will include ASCS and SCS officials from Washington, D. C. and Texas, and are intended to provide information to local farmers on how the program has been administered. Discussion will include bid amounts and why they were accepted or rejected.

Those in attendance will be given a chance to ask questions about the program and give their input for future handling of the program.

Two meetings are scheduled. The first meeting will be in Lubbock at 9:00 a.m. The second will be in Amarillo at 3:00 p.m. at the A&M Center just south of the Veteran's Hospital.

Interested farmers are urged to attend. For more information, contact the Soil Conservation Service Office in Silverton at 823-2320.

CARDS OF THANKS

A big Texas "thanks" to all the ladies in Turkey for their help on the Sesquicentennial quilt. Those who made blocks, sewed and quilted, made donations and gave of their time and support. Again I say "thank you" and may God bless each of you.
Marjorie Bell

We want to thank Billie and Maurice Fuston for the use of their building and for their help on the Sesquicentennial float. Thanks to all who helped in any way and gave support in making the float.
Sybil Young and Marjorie Bell

I am very thankful for the love you have shown me, the cards, food, calls, flowers and your concern, but especially for your prayers. Turkey folks are the finest in the world.
Wren Vinyard

I want to express my thanks to everyone who was so very kind and thoughtful while I was in the hospital, and since I've been home, and for all the cards, flowers, food and visits.
May God bless each and every one.
Dovie Wheeler
