

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS IS NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Arlington, Texas - The romantic era when explorers and pirates roamed the Lone Star state's Gulf Coast will be celebrated at Six Flags Over Texas with the opening of an all-new Skull Island Saturday, March 26.

Major changes have been made to the island located in the center of the theme park with the addition of a whirling new thrill ride called the Spinnaker and a puppet show staged on a 30-foot pirate ship.

Skull Island is one of the original sections in the Arlington entertainment center which opened in August, 1961.

On one side of the island is the Spinnaker ride, which gives thrill-seekers a fast whirl parallel to the ground and then revolves them upside down. It is a giant, spoked 51-foot wheel with 21 gondolas attached to the "rim."

Two persons board each gondola and are secured inside before the wheel begins spinning on its side at ever increasing speeds until the gondolas are flung outward and riders find themselves whirling parallel to the ground.

Then a massive hydraulic system tilts the wheel on its rim and riders are revolved upside down. The wheel returns to its original position before slowing and stopping.

On the other side of the island, guests will have the opportunity to watch a one-of-a-kind puppet show called "Captain LaFeet's Flagship Follies." The stage for the show is a replica of a 16th century pirate ship, and it is docked in a lagoon across from the audience seated on Skull Island.

Star of the show is Captain LaFeet, whose feet are as big as his pirate's hat. He leads a crew of wacky, nautical characters, including singing and dancing skeletons, mops, swords, buckets and fruitbaskets. In one scene, there are singing and dancing cannonballs led by a banjo-playing character called Wabach.

Movie star puppets pop in and out of gunports. Even the crow on top of the mast is part of the act.

The show is written and produced by John Hardman, who is also creator and puppeteer for the Argyle the Snake Show presented at the theme park.

Behind the scenes in the pirate puppet show, five puppeteers work hand, string and stick puppets from the hull of the ship.

Six Flags General Manager Dan Howells said, "We are excited about the entertainment package we are offering on Skull Island. The pirate show is totally unique and the Spinnaker is one of the most thrilling rides we've ever offered. Our guest surveys indicate people want more thrill rides at Six Flags. We believe the Spinnaker is the perfect answer to this request."

Also, the Texas Chute Out parachute ride will have some added twists this season. Half of the twelve chutes will be attached to stand up, metal baskets that spin riders as they hoisted 175 feet straight up and released for a hair-raising trip down. The remainder of the chutes will take riders up and down on bench-like seats.

There will be other changes made to the park in this season's $2 million expansion program, including the remodeling of the entrance mall area and many changes in the landscape design.

New shows will premiere at the park theaters, including a modern-day minstrel show at the Southern Palace called "Good Times, Good Music, Good Friends!" and a circus-theme show at Good Time Theater called "Big Top Revue."

Six Flags Over Texas has earned the rank of "Granddaddy of regional theme parks" now that it is entering its 17th season. The entertainment center was the first in the nation to combine a historical theme with fun and entertainment.

The idea proved successful from the beginning with large numbers of persons from around the world visiting the park each season.

In 1976, a record-breaking 2.4 million persons visited the park. Some time early this season, park officials will welcome their 30 millionth guest.

Six Flags is open nine months of the year, operating on weekends only in the spring and fall and daily from Memorial Day through Labor Day. During Easter vacation, the theme park will be open daily from April 6-17.

Coffee-Leaf Rust Threatens Supplies

College Station--Coffee leaf rust at rust disease threatens to further decrease coffee supplies-making any "specialized" coffee on the market a bargain, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing specialist, reports.

Easier-to-find bargains in Texas grocery markets currently appear in poultry, dairy, and fresh produce sections-and among canned items, she added.

Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Fryer chicken is one of the better buys at most meat counters-and egg prices have dipped slightly," she noted.

At dairy sections, non-fat dry milk is in heavy supply and American cheese production is up 25 per cent.

At fresh produce sections, potatoes and spinach are plentiful and economical. Other economical choices are broccoli, carrots, collards, mustard, head lettuce and turnips.

In fruit buying, some markets offer fresh pears at attractive prices-and pineapple prices may drop due to a volume increase. Other fruits-including oranges, grapefruit and apples-have moderate prices.

At beef counters, best values generally include ground beef, chuck roasts and steaks-and round, sirloin and T-bone steaks.

In pork buying, good values appear in pork loin roasts and chops and sliced quarter-loin. Smoked ham portions and picnics have moderate prices, too.

Among canned items, economy buys are tuna, luncheon meats, peaches, fruit cocktail, peanut butter and corn. Also, rice is a featured item.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Corned beef-usually in a vacuum-sealed wrapper with cooking instructions-is boneless and provides three to four servings per pound.

Prevent Staph Infections

COLLEGE STATION--Careful food handling can prevent foodborne staph (staphylococcus) infections, Marilyn Haggard, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension, The Texas A&M University System, says.

In the kitchen, these infections can spread through coughs, sneezes, cuts and boils-and they form toxins in such foods as cream pies, ham, meats and fish, sandwich fillings, dairy products and custard-filled foods.

"The key is preventing the formation of toxin, because heat kills staph but not the toxin," she explained.

"In the kitchen, to help keep staph out of food, keep yourself, especially your hands, clean, and do not handle foods if your hands have open cuts or boils.

"Catch sneezes and coughs with a disposable tissue, then wash hands before handling foods again. To keep toxin from forming, refrigerate foods made with eggs, meat and milk, and always refrigerate leftovers quickly."

Revue Based On Humorous Writings

"The Thurber Carnival", a musical revue based on the humorous writings of James Thurber, will be presented in the Frank Phillips College auditorium at 8 p.m. on April 14 and 15, under the direction of John Banvard, FPC speech and drama instructor.

Music for the revue will be furnished by a jazz band under the direction of Mrs. Verne Wisdom, Panhandle.

The program will consist of the dramatizing of several of Thurber's short stories, including "The Wolf at the Door", "The Unicorn in the Garden", "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty", and "If Grant had been Drinking at Appomattox."

Tickets, at $2 for adults and $1 for students and children, may be purchased in advance at the College Book-store, or at the door upon attendance. FPC students will be admitted with presentation of ID cards.

Statue of limitations.

One thing Americans didn't need back in 1776 was a statue of King George III. What they did need was ammunition. So on the evening of July 9, 1776, a crowd gathered and toppled the four-thousand-pound statue. Then, adding insult to injury, they melted it down to manufacture exactly 42,088 bullets. That was one way Americans took care of their country's needs. Today, over 9½ million Americans take care of their country's needs, and their own, by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Whether bought through the Payroll Savings Plan, or regularly where you save, Bonds add up fast to take care of all your needs. Education, retirement, travel, whatever.

So buy U.S. Savings Bonds. There's no limit to what you can save.

Take stock in America.

200 years at the same location.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

RURAL PEOPLE DESERVE QUALITY HEALTH CARE

People who choose to live in rural or sparsely-populated areas deserve the same quality of health care as their big-city neighbors. The problem is that not enough physicians and other health providers want to live in rural areas.

The problem concerns the entire health services system, both the public and the private sectors. For a number of years, the medical profession in Texas, through the Texas Medical Association, has looked for ways to encourage young doctors to locate their practices in small towns where they can serve the surrounding country.

According to Dr. Ed Schmidt, the past president of the Texas Medical Association, practicing medicine in outlying areas offers several advantages: "short travel time between places, no smog, no traffic problem, relative freedom from crime, a wholesome atmosphere" are some of the examples he cites.

On the other hand, Dr. Schmidt recognizes that most young doctors are not attracted to rural practice. He explains, "Some doctors feel that they may not be able to cope with the situation, since they've been trained in an academic environment with a large amount of backup from big hospitals and medical centers. They don't feel comfortable" in a more isolated environment," he says.

It's also true, according to the medical association, that doctors in rural areas work harder, often for longer hours, and generally have lower earnings than their big-city counterparts. Furthermore, the doctors—and their spouses—often miss the social life, entertainment, and other amenities of a metropolitan environment.

Dr. Mario Ramirez, who has based his practice in remote Rome for the past quarter of a century, knows first-hand the problems of both poverty and rural areas. Until recently he was not the only physician in the area, but he operated his own hospital—the only one in the South Texas county. Now there's a new hospital in Rio Grande City, but there is still a shortage of skilled medical personnel.

Dr. Ramirez believes that the best solution is to help young people from the rural areas obtain an education in medicine. Hopefully, after they receive their education, they'll return to their hometowns to practice among the people they know best. This approach has been used with some success, but it's inherently a slow process—and the young doctors don't always want to go back home once they've spent a few years in the bright lights of the big town.

According to Dr. Schmidt, science and technology are beginning to help rural physicians provide better care, and to end the feeling of isolation. New devices such as remote telemetry, closed-circuit television, and computers can be used to give the rural practitioner access to expert consultants and other sources of vital information

FARM BILL

Hearings on extension of the farm bill concluded with the testimony of Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland presenting the administration's proposals. Words used in Committee to describe their positions were conservative, timid, weak and pallid. The best that can be said was disappointing.

The announced target and loan prices on wheat are considerably below cost of production figures for our area. The target was $2.60 a bushel and the loan stayed at $2.25.

The inside rumors are that Secretary Bergland carried a much more attractive proposal to the even if it's thousands of miles of paraprofessional medical personnel, such as physician's assistants and paramedics, helps to relieve the rural doctor's burdensome caseload.

Public health in Texas has made great strides in its effort to provide better service to people in the countryside. Although there are full-time local health departments in only about 75 of the state's 254 counties, the local agencies now serve roughly 80 percent of the population.

Six years ago, the first ten Public Health Regions was established. This fall, the last two regional offices will be open for business. According to Dr. Fratis L. Duff, Director of the Texas Department of Health Resources, the whole purpose of the regional program is to "form the coordinated and integrated regional staff capable of providing comprehensive public health services" to the rural areas that don't have access to a local health department.

Dr. Duff says, "The public health regions have demonstrated that public health services can be provided to all citizens of the state in an efficient and economical manner, even in the sparsely populated rural counties with very limited fiscal resources."

The goal for both the private and the public sectors of the health care system is the same: to ensure that every citizen in Texas has access to the services he or she needs, no matter where people choose to live.

cabinet meeting and was voted down. It is reported that he then appealed directly to President Carter. The President, the Secretary of the Treasury Blumenthal, and Bert Lance, OMB Director, all conferred and listened to Bergland and the presented farm bill was the result.

I want to balance the budget just as much as the President does. It is my fear, however, that an economic depression in agriculture will spread and soon cripple the entire country.

COMMON SITUUS PICKETING
There is some good news in Washington. Common Situs Picketing was defeated in the House by ten votes. The bill is dead for the session and I feel confident that Section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act, "right-to-work," is safe for this Congress at least.

I hope this more responsible mood by Congress can prevail on other issues.

ENERGY
The Government Operations Committee on which I serve has been doing quite a bit of work concerning new sources of energy. The hard winter, short natural gas supplies, and increasing prices have brought the entire nation's attention to focus on our energy problems.

For the past several years Southwestern Public Service Company has worked to establish preliminary plans for the construction of a helium-cooled breeder reactor in our area, north of Amarillo.

I have been asked by my Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Environment, Energy and Natural Resources to go with him while Congress is recessed for Easter to view one of the only breeder reactors in operation in the world. It is located 17 miles north of Avignon, France.

Questions on the nuclear waste management safety and the viability of nuclear breeder reactors have been major issues both before our subcommittee and to constituents of the 13th Congressional District.

Decisions made by Congress on the nuclear energy question during this session of Congress will have long range effects in energy and on the quality of life in the United States for generations to come.

CONTROLLING FEDERAL AGENCIES

I am pleased President Carter is holding firm in his policy to require agencies to project economic impact statements along with any new regulations they propose. The costs to taxpayers and the public must become a part of the consideration as agencies establish rules for business and industry.

The Environmental Protection Agency and the Occupational Safety and Health Standards people have both complained about the amount of time and effort involved in preparing economic statements. It often gives a person a new perspective to place the shoe on the other foot.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE BUDGET

President Carter seems to be committed to a balanced budget by 1981, although we did not expect any instant success. It is important that we keep our priorities in line and not get in trouble by cutting the wrong areas.

I feel very strongly that the cuts in agriculture will end up costing the country a lot more than we save in the long run.

The defense of our country is another area that it would be unwise to make drastic cuts. There is waste both in the administration of Agriculture and Defense that can provide savings without curtailing vital functions of the agencies.

I was glad that the President put back in his budget the $5.6 million for the Great Plains Conservation Program that President Ford had cut. This along with the emergency drought relief proposal President Carter has ordered should provide some relief. A good wet spring and summer would do a lot more.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

I am involved in over 40 legislative proposals that I am either sponsoring or co-sponsoring. Amendments to the farm bill, an extensive reworking of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, and Farmers Home Administration expansion are some of the bills that are still in the drafting stage.

There is so much that needs to be accomplished at the federal level, it is hard to decide where to place your energy. Introducing a bill does no good if you cannot get it through the Congress.

AGRICULTURE

Good news involved the confirmation of John White as the Deputy Secretary of Agriculture. Sub-cabinet appointments have been slow and there is much work waiting on these people. John White has been welcomed in Washington and we feel Texas agriculture will have a stronger voice in the administration with him there.

The Emergency Wheat Graze-out legislation failed to pass the House Agriculture Committee. The legislation would have provided some help to farmers and ranchers now, instead of down the road.

There is a favorable climate in Congress for agricultural research. I have co-sponsored H. R. 4863 with Congressman Thornton of Arkansas that will provide additional funds to develop every aspect of agriculture from plants and animals to marketing and production.

VOTES

I voted against legislation that halted the importation of Rhodesian chrome. I feel that trade can do more for world peace than all of the political games put together.

Cold war.

It was bad enough we had to fight the British for our freedom. But on top of that, we had to fight the weather, too.

Because winter at Valley Forge meant snow, ice, and freezing temperatures. All serious enemies to a makeshift army without proper clothing, not nearly enough food, and short on ammunition.

It was an army long on courage, but short on money.

And then the money came. Some $27,000,000 from the pockets of new Americans.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cloyd

Stewart And Cloyd Vows Exchanged

The First Baptist Church provided the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Kimberly Stewart and Richard Cloyd. The Rev. Melvin Clinton performed the candlelight double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart of Turkey and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cloyd of Flomot.

Attendants for the bride were Neta Landry, maid of honor; Cindy Lane and Dianna Johnson. Sandy Price was flower girl. Danny Stewart served as best man. Hal Fuston and Willie Joutett were groomsmen and served as ushers.

The bride wore a formal length wedding dress made of white satin and chantilly lace. It had a scoop neck, long sleeves and a fitted waist line trimmed with seed pearls. Her veil was waist length made of sheer net and chantilly lace. She carried a nosegay of white daisies.

The attendants wore formal length dresses made of blue polyester crepe trimmed in white lace. Each wore a white hat accented with blue ties, and carried a bouquet of daisies.

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. The three-tiered wedding cake decorated with blue roses served as the centerpiece. Appointments of blue crystal and silver were used.

Friday night the rehearsal dinner was served at the Big T Restaurant in Turkey.

After a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in Amarillo.

Feds To Hold Migratory Game Bird Hearings

Officials at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service are inviting public comment on preliminary hunting regulations for ducks, geese, doves and other migratory game birds.

Federal proposals include seasons, daily bag limits and shooting hours for certain species. Officials at the U. S. F. W. S. say no major changes from last year's rules are being proposed.

Public comments are invited through May 18. They should be addressed to the Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D.C. 20240.

Two public hearings on the proposals are scheduled for June 21 and August 2 in Washington.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife officials already have attended meetings of the Central Flyway Council, of which Texas is a member, and made recommendations pertaining to migratory game bird hunting in the state.

Dr. Hal Irby, P&WD migratory game bird program director, said the department has asked deletion of federal rules which name specific counties in Texas where white-winged doves may be hunted.

"We would like the prerogative to say where whitewings may be hunted in Texas," said Irby. "Of course, most hunting will continue to be limited to the Lower Rio Grande Valley but the possibility might arise in the future for white-wing hunting in areas other than those counties bordering the Rio Grande."

According to federal officials, waterfowl hunting framework for the Central Flyway remains much the same - from Oct. 1, 1977, through Jan. 22, 1978. P&WD officials had requested the framework be extended until the end of January 1978.

No changes are proposed in shooting hours for the upcoming seasons.

Trophy Animals Are A Bonus

There are many reasons sportsmen take to the field in pursuit of big game animals and a huge horn or antler adds spice to the hunt.

To recognize these trophy white-tailed and mule deer, antelope and aoudad taken in the Panhandle during the hunting season, the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce will award an Uncle Henry Pro-hunter knife to the individual bagging the largest antlered or horned game animal. All state game wardens have the necessary entry forms and will measure and record all game animal entries.

Deadlines for aoudad is December - and deer is December 15. The contest is for the Panhandle regulatory district.

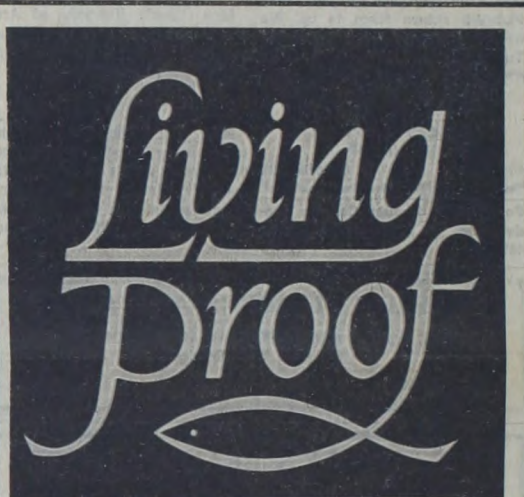

Coin sets will be awarded to second and third place winners and the top trophy hunter receives the knife for each category in late December.

More information is available from your local game warden or Leroy Tillery, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, Amarillo Building, Amarillo, Texas 79101.

"Now Your Electric Service Bill Gives You Even More Information"

Fuel Adjustment Cost Will be Shown As A Separate Item.

The fuel charge you have been paying is now shown as a separate item on your bill from WTU. The money from this charge is used for ONLY ONE PURPOSE - TO PAY THE INCREASED PRICE OF FUELS needed to produce your electricity. None of this money is used for profits or for any other expenses.

Your electric service bill will be similar to the one shown here with base rate and fuel cost charges included among the separately listed items. We've prepared a line-by-line guide to explain these items in your bill.

If you need more detailed information, please contact your local WTU office.

LINE ONE is the base rate portion of the monthly bill. It also shows amount of kilowatt hours used.

LINE TWO shows the fuel adjustment separately. The fuel adjustment has been part of the rate since 1959, but until now has been included as part of the base rate on your bill. The six-digit number shown (017076) is the fuel adjustment factor. This factor reflects the difference between the price of fuel this month and the price in 1959.

This adjustment factor is then multiplied by the number of kilowatt hours used by you, the individual customer. Example: 017076 x 562 = $9.60

LINE THREE shows any charges for other electric services, which on this bill includes a Guard-Lite.

LINE FOUR shows the amount of SALES TAX remitted to the STATE.

LINE FIVE indicates your total bill for electric service.

We The Women Enjoy Luncheon

The regular monthly luncheon for We The Women was held on April 4, 1977. The ladies enjoyed a delicious meal surrounded by decorative mementos of Easter.

After the meal, the business meeting began with several items being discussed. Among these were various efforts in continuing the beautification project now underway. The ladies also discussed the possible restoration of an old building as a city museum.

Upon completion of the discussion, groups and committees were organized to begin action on the projects. Having thus begun several useful projects, the ladies departed with a feeling of accomplishment slightly mingled with a strong sense of responsibility in their duty to complete them.

Ralph Carter returned home Wednesday from Central Plains Hospital in Plainview after having surgery Monday. He went back for the removal of stitches Monday and the doctor gave him a good report.

Farmers Union Fly-In Comments On Trip To Washington

BY VIRGIL BLAKNEY

We think our trip to Washington was very successful. On Monday after we were there, President Carter noted increase in support levels for 1977, according to a newsletter we received. We talked to Agriculture Department heads and had better response than on previous trips.

Guests in the James Lynn Kimbell home in Turkey for Easter dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brunson, Bobby Ivan and Connie, of Edmondson; Mr. and Mrs. David Setliff, Bruce, Doug, Craig, Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace, Randy, Melissa and Donita; Mr. and Mrs. James Kimbell; Mr. and Mrs. Ike Smith, Quitaque; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thrasher, Turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mabry, Belinda, Cindy and Jeff, of Tulla and a friend, Keith Gentry of Lubbock, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Kimbell in Quitaque Saturday night.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Barrett, Danny and Judy for Easter dinner and egg hunt Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Farley and Danny; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ramsey, Quitaque; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jameson, Kevin and Michelle, Claytonville; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ramsey, Brian, Amy and Kayla, Silverton; and Jana Boyles, and the hosts.

Bradley Chadwick, 20 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Chadwick of Amarillo, underwent major surgery in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo Monday morning. His grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Ramsey, states he came through fine and was scheduled to go home Tuesday.

"LIVING PROOF" INVOLVING CAPROCK AREA BAPTISTS

"LIVING PROOF", an unparalleled $1.5 million media evangelism campaign featuring testimonies by well known personalities such as Houston Oiler Billy "White Shoes" Johnson; actor Dean Jones; former militant Eldridge Cleaver; country and western super stars Jeannie C. Riley and Connie Smith; successful businessman Allan Mayer of Oscar Mayer Company; Miss Teenage America, Rebecca Ann Reid; Rosargentina Pinel, Consul General of the Republic of Honduras; former band leader Paulino Bernal; and Antonio Mendoza of the U. S. Office of Equal Employment who have experienced changed lives through commitment to Jesus Christ is being funded by Texas Baptists.

Large numbers of professions of faith have marked the first wave of media saturation and revival meetings since the campaign began February 21 in North Texas. According to a recent issue of The Baptist Standard, many persons have responded to the "living proof" testimonies by writing to Box 1000, Dallas, Texas 75221. The primary response, however, is expected to come from local Baptist churches and people who have experienced "LIVING PROOF".

West Texas saturation began March 28, and churches in the area are in the process of holding revivals to climax the campaign. In the Caprock area, Baptist Churches scheduling revival meetings in connection with campaign include: First Baptist Church in Quitaque, phone 455-1286; and First Baptist Church in Flomot, phone 469-5375.

port levels for 1977, according to a newsletter we received. We talked to Agriculture Department heads and had better response than on previous trips.

We enjoyed our hour with Under Secretary of Agriculture, John White, and he was sure glad to see us. He says we would have a better farm program than was proposed. Most all congressmen and senators said the same thing White said, because this is only a proposal and hasn't gone through Congress yet.

In our all-day meeting with our very capable Washington staff, consisting of Assistant President Victor R. E. Reuben Johnson, Bob Lewis, Robert Mullin, Ruth Keibel and Linda Siderius and two other staff members, we were informed more on farm programs. Congressman Jack Hightower addressed the six state delegation at our luncheon. The Congressman said, "When one commodity is in trouble, all commodities are in trouble."

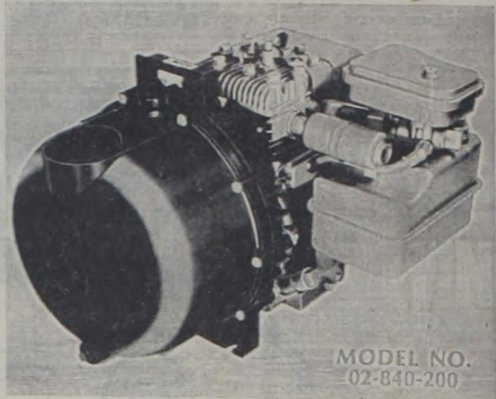

Congressman Hightower and six other Congressmen had introduced supplemental views, saying that prices were too low and farmers could not survive at current levels. Both Democrats and Republicans pledged themselves that farmers would at least receive cost of production.

These seven congressmen say according to land acquisition, value for land at the minimum prices for wheat should be target prices at $3.15 for 1977 and $3.34 for 1978. Wheat loan rates-$2.86 for 1977 and $3.03 for 1978. This is an improvement over the present program.

Everyone we visited told us they were glad to have our Farmers Union views, from President of the United States, all the way down, to know that Farmers Union was there and that we were very disappointed in the farm program that had been introduced. We told them we thought it was the same as the Butz bill with broken promises. We told them we thought we could get a better bill through Congress if we would lobby for it, so that is what we did. We introduced a one-year emergency farm bill, and have two or three congressmen sponsors for it, and this bill will give administration another year to work on a better farm program if passed.
