Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leslie Wittig

Burns - Wittig Rites Are Read

Making their first home in Norwalk following their wedding in the First Baptist Church, Norwalk, and an extended honeymoon in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leslie Wittig.

The bride, the former Miss Patricia Coleen Burns, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Burns, 10902 Van Ruiten Street, Norwalk. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Wittig, 11823 Excelsior Drive, Norwalk.

A lattice-work arch and arrangements of green and white gladioli and pink and white mums and carnations decorated the altar for the candlelight ceremony read by the Rev. Dr. W. C. Bryant.

BRIDE WEARS SATIN

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis and baby's breath centered with a removable white orchid corsage. Her white satin gown was fashioned in princess lines and had long fitted sleeves and a V-neckline. Scalloped gallow lace edged the neckline, skirt and chapel train that was also appliqued with white lace butterflies. A crown of seed pearls and borealis held in place her mantilla-length veil.

For "something old" the bride wore a cameo necklace that belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. John T. Rogers, and her "something borrowed" was her mother's handkerchief. She also wore a blue garter and for luck she carried two pennies and a sixpence, a gift from Mrs. Dona Wheeler.

Attending the bride as matron of honor, Mrs. Beth Vollmer wore an empire - style gown of pink crepe with full chiffon sleeves. Her matching veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and borealis.

The bridesmaids, Miss Joan Burns, sister of the bride; Mrs. Peggy Horan, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Candice Wittig, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were dressed like the matron of honor in lime green with matching headpieces. They each carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations and baby's breath.

Walton Wittig performed the duties of best man for his brother, and seating the guests were ushers, John and Jim Burns, brothers of the bride, and Robert Horan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

MUSICAL SELECTIONS

John Walker, Los Alamitos, sang the theme from "Love Story," "Wedding Prayer" and "You Must Have Faith." He was accompanied by Miss Candice Carley, Norwalk.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom each wore a pink orchid corsage. Mrs. Milton Smith, grandmother of the bridegroom, had a corsage of carnations.

The upstairs reception hall at the church was the setting for the reception where the wedding cake, decorated by the bride's mother, was cut and served. After the traditional toast by the best man and the throwing of the bridal bouquet and blue garter, the reception moved to the home of the bride's parents for a buffet dinner.

Mrs. Georgetta George, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book, and accepting the wedding gifts was Miss Vicki Lybarger.

The bride was graduated from Norwalk High School in 1969 and Cerritos College in 1971. She is now employed as a registered nurse at St. Francis Hospital, Lynwood. A 1964 graduate of Excelsior High School, Wittig is employed by Certified Grocers, General Merchandise Division, Vernon.
