Other improvements for Turkey include a street paving project that was completed last year; the sidewalks on the north side of Main Street have been redone, and a new housing development is located in the northeast part of Turkey.

Former Quitaque Resident Named Manager of PCCA

C. L. Boggs has been named general manager of Plains Cotton Cooperative Association (PCCA), one of the largest marketers of cotton in the U. S.

He succeeds Dan Davis, who resigned last month after 22 years as executive head of PCCA. Davis is forming his own company and said he will develop an electronic marketing service for the independent cotton sector in the southwest.

PCCA is handling upward of one-million bales of cotton this year for over 20,000 producers in Texas and Oklahoma who use the association's electronic marketing service "Telcot."

Additionally the association is marketing about 300,000 bales to world-wide points for American Cotton Growers (ACG), another farmer-owned enterprise whose 3,000 producers also own and operate a denim manufacturing plant at Littlefield.

Boggs served for 11 years as assistant general manager of PCCA prior to becoming general manager of ACG last September.

Based on actions taken by the boards of PCCA and ACG, he will manage both associations.

A native of Quitaque, Boggs joined the PCCA staff as office manager in 1965 and became assistant general manager in the following year. He served the cotton cooperative sector in Texas for nine years as a Certified Public Accountant before moving into cooperative management.

"Boggs has been an integral part of the cooperative management structure in the southwest for many years," said L. C. Un-and giving a building to use for a "bull" pen. The bleachers are to be painted benches built, the back stops and bull pen to be painted, etc. There will be jobs for everyone who will work.

The Leagues met Wednesday night to organize and elect officers. A report will be given in next week's Tribune.

The City Council is also building three permanent trash containers community spirit of working together. A couple visiting in Quitaque Wednesday morning stated it the drug store that we didn't know how lucky we are to live in a small town where everyone is your friend. We take these things for granted at times. Let us keep this in mind and give our support in money, time and encouragement.

TURKEY LIONS INSTALL NEW SLATE OF OFFICERS

The Turkey Lions Club held its regular meeting and installation of new officers Tuesday at noon at the Big "T" Restaurant. The meeting was opened by Boss Lion J. T. Mullin. Lion Jack Lacy led the Pledge of Allegiance and Lion Melvin Clinton gave the invocation.

Lion Jimmy Ross then introduced the officers for the next year and then officially installed them. Officers for next year are Keith Green, Boss Lion; David Setliff, Secretary-Treasurer; Preston Jouett, First Vice President; Jerry Landry, Second Vice President; Byron Young, Third Vice President; J. T. Mullin, Lion Tamer; Jay Eudy, Tail Twister, and Linda Coker, Sweetheart.

The directors are Homer Hawkins, Joe Fuston, Leroy Stone and Elroy Wisian.

Boss Lion Green presented some of the programs that the Lion Club will undertake for the Turkey community this next year.

Lion J. T. Mullin expressed appreciation to the retiring Sweetheart, Jill Eudy, and recognized the good work done by his officers during his year as Boss Lion.

The meeting was closed by the new Boss Lion, Keith Green.

"We The Women" Hear Program On Folsom Site

by Lynnette Barefield
Mildred Hulsey and Beth Turner prepared the meal for "We The Women's" regular noon luncheon this past Monday. Twenty-nine ladies were in attendance to hear the program on the Folsom Site at Caprock Canyons State Park.

Jackie Carpenter and Dona Smith, hostesses for this month, provided a patriotic setting of red, white and blue for the tables.

Two new residents of the community, Wilma Smith and Becca Gruhlkey, were guests.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $381.78 on July 1.

QUITAQUE METHODIST YOUTH TO HOLD YOUTH ROUND-UP

The Methodist Youth of Quitaque will hold their second Round-Up of the summer. The first one was attended by approximately twenty youth and sponsors. All enjoyed singing, homemade ice cream and the fellowship that followed.

Phil and Jenny McClendon will be sharing with the group, and there will be more food, singing and fellowship. The group will calendars for 1978-79 have arrived and are now on sale for $2.50 each. The calendars date from September 1978 through August 1979, and include school and community activities, as well as birth days and anniversaries of the residents of the Quitaque area.

Mary Stark announced the winner of the Yard of the Month award for July. The home of A. B. and Marie Ramsey in south Quitaque is always well-groomed and they well deserve this honor.

"We The Women" remind everyone that they are collecting aluminum cans for recycling. A trailer is parked on the O. E. Chandler lot on Main Street for the purpose of collecting aluminum cans. Please join in the effort to help beautify Quitaque and earn some money for community projects.

Fairy McWilliams presented an outstanding program on artifacts she has collected, including pieces from the Folsom Site near Lake Theo north of Quitaque. This site which Mrs. McWilliams found, has been dated at 9,000-10,000 B.C.

The next meeting of "We The Women" will be at Monday noon August 7, in the Quitaque Community Center.

MR. AND MRS. WESLEY R. PROCTOR

Taylor - Proctor Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Proctor Thursday, June 19, in the First Baptist Chapel in Childress. Reverend Tommy Sims officiating the double-ring ritual at six-thirty o'clock.

The bride is the former Miss Randi Gay Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyal Taylor, who moved that weekend to reside in Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proctor, jr., of Childress are the parents of the bridegroom.

Nuptial decorations included a gold arch candelabrum holding cathedral tapers and entwined with English ivy and centered with a large white satin bow. Ivy also decorated the prie dieu and satin bows marked the aisle.

Mrs. Jack Burrus was organist and Burl Bumpas was vocalist for the wedding music. Special selections were "The Wedding Prayer" and "We've Only Just Begun."

Mr. Taylor presented his daughter in marriage and during the procession she gave her mother a rose. Her gown of candlelight organza over taffeta had a Victorian neckline of Belgian lace trimmed by Venice lace accented by seed pearls. The empire bodice was accented with re-embroidered Alecon lace and pearls and the bishop sleeves were cuffed with deep lace. Her A-line skirt of sheer lace appliqued organza, was complimented by a sheer organza chapel train gathered and clasped at the back with a satin bow and was richly appliqued with lace. Her chapel veil of illusion was trimmed with Venice lace and pearls and held by a re-embroidered Alecon lace cap.

In observing tradition, she wore a gold locket belonging to Mrs. Proctor and which was an heirloom from her grandmother. Her bouquet was a colonial arrangement of Sonjo roses, apricot carnations and gypsophilla surrounding a corsage of roses tied with apricot streamers.

Miss Gwen Proctor, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Miss Karen Kindle was bridesmaid. Their gowns of peach were trimmed with white lace and were worn with white portrait hats. Each carried a long-stemmed white rose.

Young Stephanie Taylor, sister of the bride, was gowned similarly to the attendants and carried a white basket of rose petals. Vernon Crain was best man and groomsmen were Russell Hayes and Kevin Taylor, brother of the bride. Guests were seated by Steve Halford and Danny Lane.

Candles were lighted by Miss Valerie Lathram, in a gown of floral print over peach. Mrs. Taylor was present in a yellow gown, and Mrs. Proctor wore an off-white gown. Their corsages were of apricot carnations and Sonja roses.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Harmon drove to Ralls Thursday night last week to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pony Langdon, Kim and Kevin. Mrs. Harmon was celebrating her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Lorene Rogers of Vernon and Mr. and Mrs. Barry Smith of Amarillo were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Williams over the weekend. Mrs. Rogers returned her mother, Mrs. W. A. Majors, to her home in Turkey after she had made an extended visit in Vernon in her daughter's home.

During the recession, the bridal couple paused for her to present a rose to his mother.

RECEPTION

Guests were received in the fellowship hall of the church and were registered by Miss Jimi Hackler at a table that was appointed with Sonja roses.

The bride's table was covered with white and the centerpiece was an arrangement of peach carnations and gypsophilla. The four-tiered cake of white was decorated with peach roses and green leaves and held a miniature bridal couple on top. The bridegroom's table was laid with a peach cloth and had a centerpiece duplicating that of the bride's table. His cake was a chocolate confection.

Misses Debbie Reynolds and Gaye Williams served punch and Miss Michelle Bolkenstyn and Mrs. Danny Lane served cakes. Assisting were Mmes. Truit Bell, Weldon Hayes and Pete Bolkenstyn.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Proctor and sons, Mrs. Doyle Hanna and Delane, all of Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Dolan Hanna and Latricia, Groom; Paul Hawkins and children, Vernon, and Miss Jimi Hackler of Rockport.

TO LIVE IN TURKEY

After returning from the wedding trip, the couple is residing near Turkey, where he is engaged in farming. For traveling, the bride changed into a peach and white pantsuit and wore the corsage lifted from her bouquet.

She will be a junior in high school next fall and plans to enroll at Estelline. He is a graduate of Childress High School and had one year at Vernon Junior College.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor, jr., were hosts for a dinner on the evening before the wedding and entertained at the Chaparral Restaurant in Childress.

They used a centerpiece of apricot carnations and gypsophilla at the places of honor, and garlands of ivy and crystal votive cups along the length of the T-shaped table.

The honored couple exchanged gifts, diamond earrings for her and a watch for him; and presented gifts to their attendants, engraved charms for the women and a necklace for the flowergirl; money clips for the best man and groomsmen; engraved dogtags for the junior groomsmen, Kevin Taylor, and cologne for the ushers.

PRE-NUPITAL COURTESIES

On June 17 the bride-to-be was complimented at a shower given in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church. On June 24, she was honoree at a spinster party given by Miss Gwen Proctor in her home. On June 27, Miss Michelle Bolkenstyn was hostess for a lingerie shower in Miss Taylor's home.

More Street Paving Underway In Quitaque

The City of Quitaque, which already can probably boast of more paved streets than any community of comparable size in the state, is in the process of adding even more paving to the city.

Already underway is the paving of the three sides of the city park area. Wilson Street, which runs along the north side of the park is paved but the west side, the south side and the east side are unpaved. That is being taken care of now. More paving is also scheduled for the north part of town where some new housing is being built. Curb and gutter work will be done in that area also.

More paving is being considered for other parts of town, also, but just how much is not known at the present.

Monday night the Quitaque City Council met and among other items of business taken care of was the approval of repair of the lighting system at the east park where kid baseball is played. All the lights have been knocked out and some of the wiring is down and this will all be repaired for a baseball tournament which is to be held there soon.

Several new homes are in the process of being constructed. These belong to the Gordon Rothsells, the Leroy Hamiltons and the Mike Austons. Other homes in town have been repainted and redone.

FORMER RESIDENT CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Charlie Gowin was delightfully surprised with a birthday party on her 74th birthday anniversary on Thursday, July 6. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Ronnie (Linda) Hughes, in conspiracy with Mrs. E. E. Berry, had all the guests present in Linda's home and Mrs. Berry brought Mrs. Gowin to the party.

Those present were Mmes. S. C. Brown, N. B. Herrington, Cora Gragson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Persons, Quitaque; Mmes. Bertha Rhoderick, Mae Tension, Blanche Newman, Anna Belle Tipton and Maud McJimsey, Silverton; Mrs. Jean Rowell and Mrs. E. E. Berry, Tulia, and the honoree and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gowin.

Mrs. Hughes served homemade ice cream, home baked cake, coffee and tea to the guests.

FIRE CALL ANSWERED

The Turkey Firefighters were called out to the Claude Robison place about 3:00 a.m. Monday for a fire that had destroyed a shed and quite an area of pasture land. The Robison place is located in the Bridle Bit Area.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of Baldwin Park, California were in Turkey for the Buffalo Flat Reunion held Sunday at the Bob Willis Center. They have remained in Turkey this week visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mullin, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Setliff and Robert of Plainview visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Self in Turkey Saturday.

Miss Pauline Gilmore has moved to the apartment in Mrs. Reona Holcomb's home on South Main in Turkey.

Craig Proctor of Amarillo is spending the summer at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith spent a week visiting with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Paul Smith, at Arlington.

McKAY FAMILY TO HAVE REUNION SATURDAY

The family of the late Nathaniel McKay, sr. will have a reunion Saturday, July 15, from 1:00 until 5:00 p.m. There will be four generations from six states, Texas, Colorado, Connecticut, Washington and California. Friends of the McKay family are cordially invited.

This will be the first reunion for the McKay family, residents of Turkey for 38 years.

Mrs. Gene (Fredia) Fuston of the Turkey First United Methodist Church will be attending the School of Christian Missions for the Northwest Texas Conference at Texas Tech University in Lubbock. The theme for this mid-week school scheduled July 19-21 will be "Alive in Community." There will also be a week-end school July 21-23 for those who will not be able to attend the

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Farley and granddaughter, April Farley, have recently returned home from a two-week vacation trip. They visited his brothers in Farmington, New Mexico and his sister and family, the Lingos, in Aztec, New Mexico, then visited a cousin in Durango, Colorado. They drove through more of Colorado sightseeing, returning by Farmington enroute home. They report a very good trip.

Guests in the Denver Anderson home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henshaw of Seymour, Mrs. Genelle Bourland of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Standefor of Plainview and Mrs. Ginger Foster and son, Shannon, of Hereford. Mmes. Anderson, Henshaw and Bourland are sisters, and Mr. Standefor is their brother. Mrs. Foster is the Anderson's daughter.

CLEVE WALKUP

ELECTRICAL WORKSHOP TO BE JULY 17-18-19-20

There will be an electrical workshop at the Valley Vocational Agriculture Department on July 17-18-19-20, starting at 8:00 p.m. The course will be taught by Cleve Walkup from Texas A&M.

Mr. Walkup was graduated from Kirkland High School near Childress in 1941. He has been at Texas A&M since July 1967.

During the course students will be taught basic electrical wiring techniques. Everyone will wire circuits to include duplex outlets, switches and light fixtures. The course will cover wire sizes, safety with electricity, fundamentals of electrical wiring and the making of a test lamp for each student.

The course is open to everyone. Some women have already enrolled and more are expected. Mark the calendar and join the class. It will be enjoyable and most useful.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Gragson of Las Vegas, Nevada spent the weekend with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gragson, in Quitaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woods of Bakersfield, California stopped in Quitaque Monday for a short visit. They are former residents of Quitaque.
