Wildcat Well South Of Turkey Excites Chevron, Local Area

Note: By Bill Teeter of the Globe-News Staff Writer in the Sunday addition of The Amarillo Globe-News

The military once used Woodrow Mullin's land as a practice bombing range, but now it's been targeted for a different purpose - oil exploration.

A well called Chevron No. 1 W. W. Mullin has been producing high-quality crude oil since its recent discovery, and Chevron officials hope the well is just the beginning of further activity.

The 5,500-foot-deep well is capable of producing 340 barrels a day, said Chevron U.S.A. Inc. spokesman Santana Gonzalez. Chevron will pump the well at a slower rate to keep from harming the reserve, officials said.

Gonzalez said Friday that the strike, south of Turkey, is a significant find.

"Obviously it's exciting, largely because it is a rank wildcat drilled in an area where you have not had significant oil discoveries," Gonzalez said. "Whether the find will become a major producing zone has yet to be determined," he said.

"Chevron is doing additional work to determine the commercial value of the discovery, we believe it to be encouraging, but there are still a lot of unknowns," he said.

Steve Ruppel, a research scientist with the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas, said the petroleum industry is beginning to look more favorably on oil exploration as economic conditions im-

Local Inn Gaining Wide Recognition

Dale and Dona Smith have been recognized recently by The Plainview Daily Herald and The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Dona's bed and breakfast in their huge two-store home overlooking the Valley of Tears is beginning to get inquiries from nature lovers, rock hounds and history buffs about the creeks and canyons on the ranch and the possibility of just roaming there between bed and breakfast times.

prove, and increased exploration in the Palo Duro Basin is likely.

"What we're seeing is a return to stability," he said. "Most of the companies are seeing stability in prices and maybe even some increase."

The basin, which includes Motley County, has been described as a shallow basin bounded by a number of oil and gas fields. Ruppel said the productivity inside the basin has been the subject of some debate, but the new well could put the argument to rest, bringing in companies which previously would not have considered the basin worth exploring.

Bess McWilliams, county and district clerk for Briscoe county - adjacent to the find in Motley County - said until a year ago, not much had been going on related to the petroleum industry.

"There's a little bit of excitement in every county (around Motley)" she said. "A year ago they were doing nothing - there were no leases being recorded."

Chevron production foreman Jeffrey Taylor said plans call for two more wells in the area near the discovery well, depending on how the well performs.

Amarillo geologist Harold Henslee said the last notable drilling activity near the Motley find came in 1982, as drillers went after their quarry in counties within the basin including Hall, Briscoe, and Donley counties. The drilling rash fizzled after a few months, he said.

The find lies on part of 36,000 acres leased in the last three years by Chevron. Other companies are also operating in the area and Chevron is continuing to lease more land, Gonzalez said.

Henslee said the people in and around Turkey might expect an increase in economic activity in their towns, but the ones who would be most affected by increased activity will be the landowners.

Mullin doesn't see his life changing much, however. Before the oil was found, Mullin said he spent his days as a peanut, cotton and watermelon farmer on the 2,700-acre spread.

The only thing out of the ordinary he ever found on the land were World War II practice bombs full of sand or water dropped by military airmen honing their skills for combat.

"I don't imagine there'll be much difference," he said. "It'll be all the same."

Farmers Union Holds Meeting November 10

Texas Farmers Union full board meeting met in Irving Tx. on November 10.

President Joe Rankin called the meeting to order.

Diane Parish, State director of the Green Thumb program gave her report.

Bob Girard, Director of S.T.E.P. program gave his report on Farmers Union Blue Cross Insurance Program

Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture, Mike Moeller gave a report on what is going on in Texas Agriculture.

Numerous other items were voted on and approved.

National Farmers Union president Cy Carpenter told members there was a national policy to do away with the family farmers. If you don't believe this just remember that the present administration has boldly stated they want to phase out all farm programs. Once you lose a farmer, he won't be back.

Virgil Blakney represented Hall County at this meeting.

Notice

The Annual Birthday calendars published by the Turkey Fire Department have arrived and each person can pick-up their ordered calendar at the Turkey Branch of the Memphis State Bank.

When in the bank don't forget to ask for your new calendar of 1988.

The Singing Farmers of Hart, Texas will be leading the Lord's Acre Service at the First United Methodist Church of Turkey on December 6.

The quartet has been singing together for five years. Preston Upshaw is the lead tenor. His nephew, Freddy Upshaw, sings high tenor. Baritone is sung by Weldon Davis, and his son, Leslie Davis, sings bass. Mrs. Weldon (Gaylia) Davis is accompanist for the group.

The evening's festivities will begin December 6 at 6:00 p.m. with a harvest meal of turkey and all the trimmings. The Singing Farmers will present an hour of music beginning at 7:00. during this time the annual Lord's Acre offering will be received. This offering from labors set apart for the Lord helps support the ongoing work of the church.

The community is cordially invited to enjoy this harvest feast and to hear one of the best groups in gospel music today.

NOTICE

The Cub Scouts will continue their popcorn sells until November 30!

Silverton To Host Activities

Saturday, December 5 is the day of the annual craft show in Silverton where you can buy handmade items from area craftsmen.

There will be baked goods, handmade baskets, all sorts of needle and thread crafts, stuffed animals, chenille bears, wood crafts, ceramics, and many more items too numerous to name.

If you can't find what you want to buy for that special person or what you need for you home here in Quitaque, it isn't far to drive to Silverton and help keep your money in this county. there will be door prizes donated by the craftsmen.

Booths open at 9:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and will be open for "see and sell" in the first building south of the flashing light.

Do You Remember?

FROM THE FILES OF THE TURKEY ENTERPRISE Nov. 27, 1947

The Turkey Turks defeated the Flomot Longhorns last Friday night by a gnat's whisker, and what a ballgame! The score was tied at the end of the contest 0-0, but the Turks had managed a one-penetration advantage, according to report.

There were some 350 fans who braved the adverse weather to see the game.

The game for the most part was played in the middle of the field. There were several punts, interceptions of passes, etc. The ball only crossed the 20 yard line one time in possession of the Turks.

There were a few spots in the game, one was in the last quarter when Turkey punted to Flomot. The safety man tried to catch the punt on about the five yard line, but fumbled the ball.

On the very first play after the punt, Fisher went around his right end and down the sideline, and it looked as though loose for a sure touchdown for the Longhorns, but from somewhere out of the mist Harold Ham, like a comet, and with a perfect tackle tied Fisher's feet into a knot that brought INSTANT RESULTS, better results than could have been anticipated, Fisher hit the ground like a falling star which separated him and the ball.

Tommy Lynn Russell was Johnny-on-the-spot, and covered the ball, which was another break for Turkey in the game.

Had Paul Cruse still been playing for Turkey instead of Flomot,

Turkey would have had a much better chance of winning.

Jimmy Guest went out in the first quarter with a sprained ankle for the Turks. It was a nice clean game on both sides with good hard playing by both teams. The king of athletic contest we are all proud of and the kind we consider worthwhile and expect when we go to see a high school contest.

The Turkey Lions Club met Tuesday noon at the Turkey Methodist Church. The chief idea was advanced by Lion Harry Barnhill, vice president and director of the club throw a real he-man banquet for the football teams of Flomot and Turkey, the boys fathers, the team coaches, superintendents and trustees of (or school board members) of the two schools along with the regular membership of the Turkey Lions Club.

Boy, that means a crowd (and a feed). A board of directors was called by the Boss Lion for Nov. 26 to make all the plans and work out the details for the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lacy are the parents of a son born November 24 at the Stanley Hospital in Matador. The big boy weighed 6 pounds and 13 ounces. He was named Perry Jean.

Proper Cotton Harvest Boosts Seed Prospect

The 1987 cotton crop is shaping up as one of the best on the High Plains in several years.

"Barring unforeseen weather problems, yields of both lint and seed are expected to be good this year," said Dr. James R. Supak, Extension cotton agronomist. "The favorable seed production outlook is important because much of next year's planting seed will have to come from this year's production."

The quality of planting seed is affected by several preharvest, harvest, and post-harvest factors.

The quality and vigor of the seed was determined during the enlargement, filling and maturation phases of plant growth. The best quality planting seed usually comes from fields that were planted early, fruited uniformly, weren't overly stressed for moisture or nutrients, and had 80 percent or more open bolls prior to termination with chemicals or by a freeze. "Frequently, the best yielding fields don't produce the best quality seed. Plants that support large numbers of bolls tend to produce smaller, lighter seed, presumably due to competition for photosynthate."

"Where possible, avoid catching seed from late-planted or non-uniform fields that obviously failed to reach maturity, or from fields prematurely terminated with harvest-aid chemicals, Supak said.

As a rule, the sooner a field is harvested after reaching maturity and being properly conditioned, the better the yield and quality of both lint and seed.

All plant components - lint, seed, burs, stems - must be dry before harvest. Studies have shown that for proper field storage and ginning, the moisture content of stripped cotton should be 8 to 12 percent.

Sticks and green bolls often add to the moisture content of stripped cotton. Supak said the use of strippers equipped with narrow paddles, and inch in width, will help reduce the levels of foreign matter in harvested cotton.

Stripped cotton with a moisture content of 12 percent or less can be modulated without incurring loss in lint or seed quality.

Producers should give the delinter as much information about the seed as possible, Skupak said. "For example, if the seed came from a field that produced low micronaire fiber, let the delinter know what could have caused the problem: thin stand, late watering, or whatever. Possible heating problems during field storage should always be brought to the delinter's attention," Supak added.

The Quitaque EMS held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, November 17, 1987, from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Fire Hall.

David Brunson presented a program on "Shock and I.V. Therapy." New business was discussed and runs for the month of October were reviewed.

Present were Kathy Taylor, Arnold Castillo, Walt Rice, Diane and David Brunson, Judy Barrett, and Jimmy Davidson.

Next meeting will be December 15, at the Fire Hall from 6 to 9 p.m. Judy Barrett will be instructor for the December meeting.

Of ambulance runs made in October, two were to Amarillo, and four to Lockney.

Total volunteer man hours for October amounted to 68 hours and 42 minutes.

Turkey Locals

Mrs. Fern Mullin is a patient at the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview this week with an infection. Other patients there from Turkey are Guy Smith and Otho Stubbs.

Dennis Hillmer of San Antonio spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Eudy.

Cleo Green of Slaton had lunch with Lewis and Mozelle Eudy Sunday.

Vera Guest and Mozelle Eudy were in Plainview last Tuesday.

Opal Moore of Broadview, New Mex. visited at Flomot with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Degan and at Quitaque and Turkey with other relatives.

Visitors in the Josh Smith home recently were his sister, Mrs. Joy McClung of Denton, a niece, Frances Nicholes of Maryland. Josh's children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bob Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lacy and Mr. and Mrs. Harve Williams of Canyon joined their relatives for a visit in their father's home.

Charles G. Black has authorized the Valley Tribune this week to announce that he will be seeking the office of Hall County Sheriff, subject to the 1988 Democratic Party Primary election in March.

Mr. Black has lived in Hall County for the past 13 years. He is 41 years old, married and has one daughter. His wife, Patsy, is employed with Hall - Donley Farm Bureau and their daughter, Tracie, lives in Amarillo where she attended Amarillo College.

Mr. Black served as a police officer for the City of Memphis for 1 1/2 years and served as a private investigator for 2 years in the Dallas - Fort Worth areas. He is a Vietnam Veteran. He is currently self-employed.

Mr. Black stated, "If elected to this office I will devote 100 percent of my time to the people of Hall County. I will do my best to handle the problems of the people of Hall County in a very professional manner. I plan to meet with the citizens of Hall County to discuss with them the candidacy for the office I seek. I would appreciate your support and vote in the upcoming election on March 8, 1988."

Thank You,
 Charles Black

presenting:
The Marvelously Versatile Mushroom

Mushrooms are one of the most versatile foods available. Depending on variety, mushrooms can be eaten raw, baked, fried, sauteed, stuffed, broiled, grilled, creamed, pickled, poached or marinated.

Recently, branded mushrooms, such as Campbell's Fresh mushrooms, are springing up in many supermarket produce sections. Campbell, a company with more than 30 years of mushroom growing experience, offers consumers consistently high quality mushrooms year-round.

Following are tips from Campbell's Fresh to help make the most of your mushrooms:

- Choosing—To get consistent quality, look for Campbell's Fresh mushrooms. They're all-natural, unwashed mushrooms picked and packed with care.
- Storing—Store mushrooms in the refrigerator in their original Campbell's Fresh package with the overwrap removed and covered with a damp paper towel.
- Washing—Gently wash or wipe with a damp cloth only those mushrooms you intend to use right away.
- Serving—Mushrooms can be sliced raw into salads, sauteed in butter or olive oil with fresh herbs, added to pizza or frozen vegetables, skewered on shish kabobs, or used in any number of imaginative dishes.

For a free copy of a new leaflet featuring microwave recipes using Campbell's Fresh mushrooms write to: Campbell's Fresh Presents The Microwavable Mushroom, P.O. Box 4236, Monticello, MN 55365.

Clever Decorations & Gifts

You can make clever crafts for every season by following the simple instructions in a new booklet, free from Renuzit® Adjustable Air Freshener.

You can be ready for the holidays with 22 clever ideas for decorations which make inexpensive yet attractive and useful gifts. They're available free, in a beautiful new booklet "Crafts For All Seasons, And Holidays Too."

Innovative crafts designer, Cindy Groom Harry, has created the decorative items for the makers of Renuzit® Adjustable Air Freshener, using plastic parts from the air freshener's packaging as the base for the adorable figures and animals.

The 22 delightful designs range from a winter snowman and Santa to an Easter bunny, a June bride, a Halloween witch and Thanksgiving pilgrim. There are also crafts for special occasions such as a birthday child with cake and a diapered baby for a unique shower gift.

Designer Harry, who teaches art in an Iowa public school, says both children and adults will enjoy making these crafts. She used only craft supplies readily available from craft departments and specialty stores, such as craft paint, foam balls, pom poms, ribbon and lace. Patterns are provided and the booklet is completely illustrated.

WORD FROM WASHINGTON

White House Historical Association Offers Ornament

Here's good news out of our nation's capitol. Once again, the White House Historical Association is offering copies of a new Christmas ornament designed for the President's tree.

This year's ornament, in 24k gold finish and red and green enamel, shows the great north doorway of the White House decorated for the holiday season with wreaths and poinsettias. It commemorates the presidency of John Quincy Adams, who was an enthusiastic gardener and an early advocate of forestry.

The sale of these ornaments—this is the seventh in the series—helps to pay for historical furnishings and art objects which become a part of the permanent White House Collection.

The ornament comes in a velour-lined gift package with a brochure about President Adams, and costs $9.75, postage included. It may be ordered from the White House Historical Association, Department 3030, Washington, D.C. 20042.

Bob Hope Heads National Anti-Drug Crusade

The newly formed Hope For A Drug-Free America Foundation, a movement headed by entertainer Bob Hope, has started a nationwide series of meetings in major U.S. cities seeking to unify the resources of Corporate America for an all-out offensive against drug abuse.

Future meetings scheduled between now and April are set for New York City, Boston, Chicago, Washington DC, Atlanta, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Thus far, meetings have been held in St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Dallas.

On January 30, 10 pm EST, the night before the Super Bowl, a one-hour TV special to introduce the Bob Hope Foundation to some 30 million TV households on the cable USA NETWORK will be held in San Diego. Scheduled to appear in the "tribute to Bob Hope" will be Charlton Heston, Jimmy Stewart, Reba McIntire and the "Up With People" group. Also a key part of the TV special will be the announcement of the NFL "PLAYERS OF THE YEAR" and a special award to ten of the U.S. Astronauts that walked on the moon.

"Hope For A Drug-Free America is a coalition of leading citizens, corporations and foundations united to marshal the resources of the nation and bring their might to bear on the epidemic of drug abuse that threatens the health and character of our people," explained Vic Maitland, Vice-Chairman of the Foundation.

Included on the Foundation's board are interim president John F. Lehman, Jr., Walter Cronkite, Henry Kissinger and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale. The Corporate committee consists of Lamar Hunt, Lee Iacocca, Allen Neuharth and Paul Orfilla.

Lending their support as members of the Sports Committee are Sports Commissioners Peter Ueberroth, Pete Rozelle, David Stern and John Ziegler, Jr. Comprising the Statesmen Committee are Richard M. Nixon, Dennis DeConcini, Jack Kemp, Martha Layne Collins and Tom Bradley.

The Arts Committee includes: Charlton Heston, Grant Tinker and Jimmy Stewart.

Noted drug authority Dr. Forest S. Tennant Jr. serves as chairman of the Foundation's Scientific Advisory Committee. Dr. Tennant heads a group of the nation's leading scholars and practitioners in drug dependence, prevention and treatment.

The goal of the Foundation is to raise $100 million for its clearing house funding in the battle against illegal drugs. For more information, write: Hope For A Drug-Free America Foundation, P.O. Box 91668, Los Angeles, CA 90009-8554

Did you know you can turn your hand into a turkey? All you have to do is follow these directions.

Here's what you need:

- 4 pieces of 7 x 7" construction paper, each a different color
- small piece of red construction paper
- black pen or pencil
- paper fastener
- scissors
- hole punch

Here's what you do:

- Place your hand on one of the large pieces of construction paper. Spread out your fingers and thumb. Trace around your hand with a pen or pencil, and then cut out the hand you've drawn.
- Make three more hands from the other large pieces of construction paper.
- Cut the thumb from each paper hand as shown in drawing 1.
- Using patterns A and B, cut out a beak and beard and two feet.
- Glue the beak and beard to one of the thumbs as shown.
- Glue the feet to the paper hand that you want to be on top when you finish the turkey.
- Stack the hands and thumbs as shown in drawing 2. Mark the place you need a hole on the thumbs and punch a hole. Do the same for the hands.
- Fasten the thumbs and hands with a paper fastener.
- Fan out your turkey's feathers and let it "strut its stuff."

Bake Ahead For Delicious Holiday Mornings

The holiday season: a time to spend with friends and family—recollecting the past, anticipating the future, exchanging gifts, singing carols and, of course, enjoying delicious homemade taste treats!

2 cups flour
3 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup (8 oz.) glaze diced fruit and peel
1 egg, lightly beaten
1 cup buttermilk
4 tablespoons butter, melted

To prepare streusel, combine brown sugar, flour and cinnamon. Stir to mix. Add butter; mix with pastry blender or cut, scissor-fashion, with two dinner knives until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Set aside while preparing muffins. In mixing bowl combine flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Stir in glaze diced fruit and peel. Add egg, buttermilk and butter. Stir just until moistened. Fill greased muffin cups 2/3 full. Evenly sprinkle streusel over muffin batter. Bake in preheated 425-degree oven about 20 minutes until topping is browned and crisp. Serve warm, or place in plastic bag and wrap with aluminum foil. Can be refrigerated or frozen up to 2 months. Makes 1 dozen muffins.

SHINE FOR THE HOLIDAYS

If the big game is tonight and you're having a houseful of people afterwards, why not make a party sub that's sure to please the heartiest of appetites? It's easy with the help of the Oster Meat/Food Slicer.

First, make a Braided French Bread Round loaf to make a base for the sandwich. Top this easy-to-make round roll with your choice of meats, cheeses and vegetables. And, don't forget the special mustard dressing.

Round out this after-game snack with a big bowl of popcorn, mugs of steaming hot chocolate and fresh fruit. Teens and adults alike will enjoy the party.

Try this delicious Party Sub Sandwich developed in the Oster Test Kitchens.

PARTY SUB SANDWICH
Braided French Bread Round, cut in half (see recipe below)
Lettuce leaves
1/2 lb cooked turkey breast
1/2 lb American cheese
Tomatoes
1/2 lb pastrami
1/2 lb Monterey Jack Cheese
1/2 lb boiled ham
1 green pepper, cored
Mustard Dressing (see recipe below)

Arrange lettuce on bottom half of bread. Spread 1/2 cup of Mustard Dressing on top of lettuce. Slice remaining ingredients on Oster "Deli-Cut" Meat/Food Slicer. Thickness can vary according to preference.

Layer sliced items evenly in the order listed. Spread remaining 1/2 cup of Mustard Dressing on top half of bread. Cut into desired portions.

Yield: 6-8 servings

BRAIDED FRENCH BREAD ROUND
(Circular French Bread Rounds may be purchased or prepared using frozen bread dough.)

1 32-ounce package frozen white bread dough
1 egg, beaten

Thaw frozen bread dough in refrigerator overnight. Divide contents of bag into three equal portions. Roll each portion into a three-foot long rope. Braid the three ropes and form into a circle, pinching the two ends together to seal.

Place on greased cookie sheet. Cover with a towel and let rise for 1 1/2 hours or until doubled.

Remove towel and bake at 350° F for five minutes. Brush top with beaten egg. Return to oven and continue baking 20-25 minutes until crust is golden brown.

Cool on wire rack before slicing.

MUSTARD DRESSING

1 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
2 teaspoons prepared mustard

Combine and spread on sandwiches.
Yield: 1 cup

SIMPLY WONDERFUL!

Artichokes: Nutritious And Delicious

Artichoke Sour Cream Soy Dip about 1-1/4 cups.

2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 tablespoon garlic wine vinegar
1/2 teaspoon curry powder

Combine all ingredients and chill in refrigerator for one hour or more to allow flavors to blend. Makes Tip—Artichokes may be served hot or cold. To eat, pull off outer petals one at a time, dip base of petal into sauce, and pull through teeth to remove soft, pulpy portion of petal.

Caprock Comments

By Oochum

Today is Thanksgiving Day and a time when we should all really give thought to all of the things we should be thankful for. Maybe try comparing our present status with those of our founding fathers as they met on the first Thanksgiving at Plymouth Rock. Wonder how we would react if we had to face the same circumstance...They valued their new Freedom enough to furnish us with an everlasting Holiday...Do we ever stop to think what that means to us? Thank God for being born in America!

Remember the good ole day when we used to kill time by working!

The reason they have a hot-line between Washington and Moscow is that the teenagers have all the rest of the lines tied up!

Sign in a pet store...If you're looking for a real unusual pet, see our Miss Mortimer!

A golf ball, leaves the clubhead at 135-MPH...Just slightly faster than the golfer leaves the office 3/4.

Diplomacy is the same as saying "Nice-Doggie" until you have time to pick up a brick!

Why is a girl, who is terrified by a mouse, not even hesitate to get in a car with a wolf!

"Darling, I missed you so very much" said the beautiful girl...So she took aim and fired again!

Spring, they say is when the young man's fancy turns to the same thing that the girl has been thinking about all Winter!

Just about the time a woman thinks her work is all done, she becomes a grandmother!

If you believe what all the Presidential candidates say about each other, it seems hard to vote for anybody!

You're an old timer if you can remember when the "Sky was the limit"!

Remember when the miracle drugs were castor-oil and camphor!

They say that Love is the same as it was in the stone age, except that clubs have turned to diamonds!

They now have a new non-tobacco cigarette which has two advantages...It gets rid of those irritating tars and nicotine as well as those awful tobacco taxes!

It's time of the year when, if you get all wrapped up in your own self, you may catch a terrible bad cold!

A batchelor is described as a man with no buttons on his shirt and no hands in his pocket!

Then there was this guy so crooked that the wool he pulled over your eyes was 50% cotton!

The parachute jumper was relating some of his horrible experiences, "Why, one time I came down on a sign that said keep-off-the-grass"!

Caprock Pete says thirteen is an unlucky number to have dinner together, especially if yhou have to pick up the check!

That's -30- for this time, remember... A job used to be the first thing you went steady with!

TDPS Warns Holiday Drivers

Major V. J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety at Lubbock, said, "More people on Texas highways will mean more exposure to accidents this Thanksgiving holiday. Usually alcoholic beverages are consumed in large quantities during the holidays and many intoxicated individuals will attempt to drive a motor vehicle." The Major reminds the motoring public that the intoxicated driver is one of the highest danger factors on the roadway confronting the Texas motorist.

"Much of this needless highway slaughter could be prevented with the use of a seat belt. Its use is only a habit and probably the best habit anyone can have. Besides being a good habit, it's the law!" Major Cawthon said.

In the past Thanksgivings, people tend to increase their speed to make up lost time. It is a known fact that you can't make up time with excessive speed. In the end, there is always a loser. Be a winner this Thanksgiving and remember, the next mile you drive is the most dangerous mile you will ever drive.

The Texas Department of Public Safety wishes the Texas motorist a good safe and bountiful Thanksgiving, this 1987. Remember, if you leave late, plan on arriving late!

Scientists say the blue color of the sea is due to the reflection of the sky.

During the Middle Ages, the year began at various dates in different times and places. In England it was not until 1751 that January was restored to its place as first month, as it had been during the Roman era.
