HALL COUNTY TO HAVE 4-H ACHIEVEMENT BANQUET SATURDAY

Plans have been completed for the seventh annual Hall County 4-H Achievement Awards Banquet, according to an announcement by Buddy C. Logsdon, Hall County Extension Agent.

The banquet will be held Saturday, November 2, 1985, at 6:30 p.m. at the Memphis Community Center.

"This is the time of year that we pause to recognize the outstanding work of our Hall County 4-H youth. The program will be highlighted by announcing the winners of over 40 special awards and the naming of the Hall County Gold Star Award winners for 1985. This is the highest award that may be presented on the county level," Logsdon said.

There will be a covered dish meal. "We have a very special treat for everyone this year," Logsdon said. "The Clarendon College Western Band will be on hand to perform as our special program. Featured singer will be Earl Broesch, a former 4-H member from Lockney. Earl has recently released a new record that he wrote and the title of this record is 'No Pass, No Play.'"

Special guests and friends of 4-H are encouraged to attend.

Because the calendar was changed during George Washington's lifetime, his birthday was originally on February 11, 1732.

MR. AND MRS. TIM WASHINGTON

Miss Chadwick Becomes Bride of Tim Washington in October

Miss Stachia Chadwick, daughter of Buster Chadwick of Quitaque and the late Sue Chadwick, became the bride of Tim Washington in a church ceremony Friday, October 4, 1985, at 6:00 o'clock in the evening at the Quitaque Church of Christ.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Seab Washington of Flomot.

Minister Elgin Conner performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar featuring arched candelabra flanked by a spiral candelabra covered with greenery and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length Mori Lee gown with stand-up neckline trimmed with Alencon lace and simulated pearls. The yoke was trimmed with Schiffli embroidered lace and simulated pearls and the fitted bodice was trimmed with Alencon lace and simulated pearls. The Juliet sleeves were of chiffon accented with embroidered lace and simulated pearls. The Basque waistline dropped to a full pickup skirt trimmed with Alencon lace and extended into a cathedral train. She wore a hat covered with Alencon lace trimmed with simulated pearls and sequins to which was attached in back a waist-length veil of illusion.

She carried a bouquet of cascading tiny ivory rosebuds and red roses with the bride's parents' wedding rings tied in its center.

For the traditional something old, the bride enclosed her parents' wedding rings. Something new was her wedding gown. She borrowed diamond earrings from the groom's mother, and something blue was the garter made by her good friend, Ma McFall.

The maid of honor was Candy Jones of Lubbock. She wore a floor-length gown of navy taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice accented by a sweetheart neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves. The sash was of grey ribbon.

Debra Davis of Memphis was bridesmaid. She wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor.

Miss Alisa Woods of Plainview was her aunt's flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown styled on the order of those worn by the bridal attendants.

Zant Woods of Plainview, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Angie Clay of Lubbock and Billy Neal Shannon of Flomot.

Brent Brown of Quitaque was best man, and groomsman was Glen Calvert of Flomot.

Ushers were Glen Calvert and Billy Neal Shannon, both of Flomot.

Mrs. Ross Herrington accompanied Vanessa and Steve Jennings of Combes, Texas, aunt and uncle of the bride, as they sang, "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do" and "And It Seems I've Always Loved You."

RECEPTION

A reception was held at the Quitaque Community Center immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with an ecru crocheted cloth with blue underlay. The centerpiece was designed of blue and grey silk flowers and was flanked by hurricane candle holders. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with navy roses and was served with punch. Miss Melody Cruse served at the bride's table.

The groom's table was covered with an ecru cloth and was centered with a tool set. A German chocolate cake and coffee were served by Miss Lori Clay of Lubbock.

Miss Angie Clay registered the guests.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Flomot Community Center.

The bride finished Valley High School and attended Clarendon College.

The groom finished Motley County High School and attended Clarendon College.

The couple is at home in Quitaque where both are employed.

TURKEY SENIOR CITIZENS CHANGE MEETING HOUR

There were 25 present for the Tuesday night meeting on October 22. The president, Guy Smith, called the group to order and Oval Cogdill gave the invocation before the meal. As a surprise to him, the group then sang "Happy Birthday" to Oval.

After the supper, everyone played table games until time to go home.

MRS. WALKER HOSTS NUEVO STUDY CLUB

Mrs. Willis Walker was hostess to the Nuevo Study Club on Thursday, October 24, at 4:00 p.m. Mrs. Paul Robertson, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. George Setliff told the club members she had received a card from Mrs. Sadie Vardy of Lubbock, a former member of the club, and she had sent greetings to everyone.

It was announced that the gifts for the Vernon Center would be brought to the next meeting, November 14, at the home of Mrs. Paul Meacham.

Mrs. R. C. Green gave a program taken from the magazine, "Texas Highways," concerning the ranching part of the Texas Tech Museum. She gave the History of Ranching as it is depicted at the museum. The article was entitled, "From Adobe House to Victorian Mansion—from Trail Drives to Railroad Shipping." She said there are 24 buildings there and most of them have been moved there from many parts of Texas and restored to look as much like the original as possible. She showed pictures with her talk.

The hostess served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and tiny pumpkins made of cream cheese, crackers, chips, hot tea and coffee to eight members.

TIME MANAGEMENT

SEASONAL ADJUSTMENTS

In an effort to gain better control of their time, people often make daily or weekly schedules, only to be frustrated when so many things come up that were not in the original schedule.

"We sometimes make unrealistic schedules, but often the problem is simply forgetting to make seasonal adjustments," says Mary Clayton Nance, a resource management specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Before giving up on a time schedule, she recommends checking to see if you have made allowances for seasonal activities. If you plan to clean the house every Saturday, but spend fall Saturdays going to football games, you need a revised plan for the season.

TIME MANAGEMENT

SEASONAL ADJUSTMENTS

In an effort to gain better control of their time, people often make daily or weekly schedules, only to be frustrated when so many things come up that were not in the original schedule.

"We sometimes make unrealistic schedules, but often the problem is simply forgetting to make seasonal adjustments," says Mary Clayton Nance, a resource management specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Before giving up on a time schedule, she recommends checking to see if you have made allowances for seasonal activities. If you plan to clean the house every Saturday, but spend fall Saturdays going to football games, you need a revised plan for the season.

Prizes Awarded To Fishing Contest Winners

The Fishing Contest sponsored by the Quitaque Chamber of Commerce ended on October 15, and winners in each category were announced, and prizes were awarded for the winning catches.

Several Quitaque merchants donated prizes for the Fishing Contest this year.

A Plano tackle box was donated by Caprock Home Center, and it was awarded to V. G. Wood for the largest perch, which weighed one pound one ounce, and was caught early in the summer at Cottonwood Lake.

Joey Barefield ended up with the largest crappie this year, and it tipped the scales at an even two pounds, and was caught at Lake Theo. Valley Farm Store donated a floating fish basket to the crappie winner.

The bass lead changed hands a number of times during the summer, but Gary Powell's seven pound four ounce bass caught at Birdwell's Lake finally topped all entries. The First National Bank donated an Ambassador fishing reel for the largest bass.

The winner for the largest catfish entry went to Emmett Tomlin, with his fourteen pound catfish landed at Lake Mackenzie. Griffin Oil Company donated a Pro Bass fishing rod, and it was awarded for the largest catfish.

Visitors in the E. L. Hill home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Rod Hill, Bobby and Chris of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Weatherly, Jess, Lex and Debra Widener, and Wiley and Lynn Davis, all of Memphis.

Excessive Rainfall Causes Erosion Problems in Valley

Rain this year has been anything but average, with accumulations, from January 1 till the present, of over 38 inches in the valley area. The above-average moisture is apparent when looking at the good crops, but the soil is showing its own signs of the extra moisture.

Many terraces have over-topped. What starts out to be a small problem ends up being a big one. It starts as the water cuts a small hole in the terrace. Then in just a little while you've got big breaks. Once one terrace breaks over, the odds are pretty good that the rest of them will break also.

When terraces are farmed, eventually they are plowed down. In this condition they can't store the rainfall received.

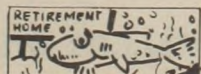

Now is a good time to start thinking about the repair work needed on your terraces. Not only should breaks be patched, but terraces should be built up to prevent future problems with breakage. Each terrace should have an end block about 1/2 the height of the terrace. It will cost from $5-$10 a plowed acre to build up these terraces with a breaking plow, a blade or other tool to an effective height. This means more water storage and less fertile top soil loss to produce next year's crop.

Mrs. Allie Rumph from Roswell, New Mexico and Jack Reed from Arlington, Texas visited Mrs. Solon Owens on Tuesday of last week; also her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Smith. The Smiths returned Saturday to their home in Miami, Florida.

Keith Price and a friend from Amarillo visited Stacy and Lacy Price Sunday. They were all dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Price spent a few days in Dallas at Market doing holiday and winter buying for the store.

Chlorene Melton and Billie Pierce were in Silverton Saturday night to attend a Halloween ceremony held at the grade school to crown a Halloween King and Queen. Mrs. Melton's grandson, Justin McFall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McFall, was the candidate from his room.

The Superintendent's Corner

by Wilburn Leeper

The idea of four-year-old children attending school is not new. In fact, for many years, children have been afforded this educational opportunity and it has proved to be a good learning experience. Until now, however, only children whose parents could afford to enroll their children in private schools reaped the benefits of four-year-old programs. It is now a requirement in Texas for all schools to offer a pre-kindergarten for children who are four years old if eligibility requirements are met.

Not all children in Texas are eligible to participate in the state-mandated pre-kindergarten program. Eligibility standards are inclusive of children who are unable to speak or comprehend the English language and those children from families whose income is at or below subsistence level. According to the provisions regarding the ability to understand the English language, the school district must administer a home language survey to determine eligibility. The language survey must include screening children by using various test methods. The provision referring to family income level qualifies the child to the program if they also qualify for free or reduced-price lunches.

Valley School is not offering the class this year because schools are not required to implement the program if fewer than fifteen children are identified as eligible. An earlier survey showed that only seven children in the school district met the eligibility criteria.

The law requiring the program provides that the Commissioner of Education may waive the requirement for implementation if the school is unable to provide classroom space. This provision is not intended to be an "out" to escape program implementation. The waiver is conditional upon the presentation of a plan to the Commissioner dedicated to acquiring necessary classroom space. Requests for a waiver may be granted for one semester only and then must be resubmitted at the beginning of each semester until plans are carried out. School districts may be granted waivers to delay program implementation for a maximum of three years and then will be expected to fully implement pre-kindergarten classes.

The Valley School science laboratory was completely renovated last summer with new furniture, equipment, supplies and changes in room structure. This was somewhat of a major project which called for additional plumbing, wiring and refinishing. All the old furniture was discarded and was replaced with new fixtures and furniture. A new wall was installed to separate the classroom area from laboratory facilities and an additional doorway was installed exiting from the lab into the hallway.

Mr. Coker and his science classes find it real nice to work and study in lab facilities such as are now available at Valley.

The Valley Booster Club has a very active and functioning organization this year. The club meets every Tuesday evening to carry on business, share refreshments, and view films from recent football games. This supporter of Valley School activities has been actively involved in financially supporting activity needs and has contributed over $2000 to purchase a foul board for the basketball scoreboard and sonicator to treat muscle injuries. To raise funds, the club is selling booster caps and will run the concession stand during two basketball tournaments. If necessary, the club will sponsor a volleyball tournament next spring. The school administration, coaches and students appreciate the efforts of the Booster Club.

HAMNER'S NEPHEW HAS FATAL ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Horace McDonald spent the weekend in Lubbock visiting their children, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Hilbers in Idalou and their families. Lynn McDonald is working in Mississippi and he is home for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim T. Witcher left Friday for their home in Shafter, California after visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Taylor, for two weeks. Mrs. Taylor is still confined to her bed in a body cast resulting from a fall several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carter visited Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hedrick and boys in Canyon Saturday.

COTTON BOARD ACCEPTS NEW BUDGET PROPOSAL

The Cotton Board charged with administering Cotton Incorporated's research and promotion program has accepted and sent to the Secretary of Agriculture for approval an $18.5 million budget for 1986, up just over two percent from the $18.1 million budget in 1985.

The budget, funded by a voluntary producer assessment of $1.00 per bale plus six-tenths of one percent of bale value, was adopted at the Board's 19th annual meeting in September at South Padre Island, Texas. Although the Cotton Board has only 19 cotton grower members and 19 alternates, the meeting was attended by over 100 producers and industry leaders.

Board members from the High Plains are Ray Joe Riley of Hart, a past president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and S. M. True of Plainview, president of the Texas Farm Bureau. Another Texan, Tommy Funk of Harlingen, was named chairman of the Cotton Board at the Padre Island meeting. Funk succeeds Glen Stevens of Fresno, California.

For 1986, 65 percent of the budget, $12.03 million, will be directed toward U. S. promotion and overseas technical assistance to mills that buy U. S. cotton, with 26 percent or $4.81 million going for research. This compares to Cotton Incorporated's 1985 budget which allocated 60 percent and 28 percent, respectively, for comparable activities.

The shift in emphasis reflects continuing efforts to control costs, a realignment of operations and a reallocation of limited resources into research and promotion areas which offer the greatest opportunities, Stevens said.

CI is trying "to match grower needs and priorities," he continued, explaining that an expansion of market development is needed "to help move this huge crop through to the consumer."

Stressing that cotton continues to enjoy strong consumer demand, CI President Bob Boslet said cotton's market share of all fibers excluding carpets totals 41 percent in the first six months of 1985 compared to 40 percent in 1984, 39 percent in 1983, and only 34 percent 10 years ago in 1975.

"This budget will allow us to move ahead with our highly successful research and promotion projects and will help keep cotton's gains on target," Boslet said.
