REDDY'S HELPFUL TIPS

- ★ Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.
- ★ Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
- ★ Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

HAMILTON REUNION

By Mrs. George Settiff
 The J. N. Hamilton family held its annual family reunion June 4, 1977, in the Quitaque Community Center. It was one of the nicest ones we have had. Like some remarked, the reason being, we were all coming back home. There were 37 of the J. N. Hamilton family present. All the children were present except one brother, P. C. Hamilton of Pierre South Dakota.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Hamilton, Granbury, Texas; Ruby Hamilton, Tyler Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, Denton, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hamilton, Floydada, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hamilton, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Settiff, Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Kelt Garrison, Plainview, Mrs. Bobby Rainer and girls, Floydada, Miss Hope Hamilton, Dallas, Texas.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hamilton, Orogrande, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meeks, Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Chipper Garrison and family, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton, Weatherford, Mr. and Mrs. David Settiff and family, Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Kris, Amarillo, Mrs. J. R. Self and son, R. E., Portales New Mexico; were also present. Mrs. Self, 91 is the only living aunt on either side of the J. N. Hamilton family. There is no uncle living. There were several cousins attended.

Several friends stopped by to visit during the day to help the family celebrate, which was greatly appreciated.

The Hamilton family would like to thank people of Quitaque for making it possible for us to come back home. The City of Quitaque is to be commended for furnishing a building for the comfort of families like us to have such a nice day.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Justus and boys, Jeff and Chad, of Lubbock are visiting her parents, the McKays. Melvin is working on the railroad while James May is on vacation.

YOU CAN COUNT ON THIS!

Man has never been without God's love. God has loved us when we were lovable and when we were not. He loved us when we loved him, and when we did not. His love flows above all of man's weaknesses and faults. The one thing we can be sure of today is that God loves us. The heavens declare the glory of God and also his love. The firmament declares his handiwork and his love for man. Love requires proof and God's love is proved by every good and perfect gift which comes down from above. In Scotland a rich man became fond of a fine young boy in the neighborhood. The boy was poor but worked hard and did much for others. The rich man died, but not before creating a trust with the provision that an unidentified check be mailed to this lad each month as long as the funds lasted. There was a note in each envelope with the check saying: "More to come." Each beautiful day we live is God's gift to us with the promise, "More to come."

"Folks need a lot of loving in the morning; The day is all before, with cares beset-- The cares we know, and they that give no warning; For love is God's own antidote for fret."

The Bible says: "For the Father himself loveth you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God." John 16:27

Communion was served to the couple by Valsom Abraham and Unity Candles were presented by Mary Newsom. Recessional song "To God Be the Glory" was sung by Joe Cooley.

The bride was presented by her father and wore a long, sheer white dress with long, full sleeves, fitted bodice featuring narrow bands of white satin ribbon and complimented with her mother's pearls. Her fingertip veil was attached to a small, white satin cap trimmed with seed pearls and french lace. She carried her Bible covered in white satin and French lace, topped with a white orchid.

Mary Newsom, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honor and she wore a full-length yellow dress and a corsage of white daisies.

Paul Trosper served his brother as Best Man. Guests were seated by friends of the couple.

A reception for the newlyweds followed in the Bible Education Building. The wedding cake topped with white doves was served by Chrisi Sousa and punch served by Penny Grissom. Jane Peersol attended the guest register.
