Quitaque Big "Clean Up" To Ready For "Big Weekend"

Everyone in the community is needed as efforts will be made Saturday in a big city-wide clean up. Workers will meet at the Quitaque Community Center at 9:00 a.m. with hoes, tractors, mowers and other tools in hand to receive an assignment of a clean-up job from the coordinating team.

Quitaque Homecoming is the "Big Weekend" and it is scheduled for the first weekend in August, which is only two weeks away. We want the city to be clean and ready to receive the many visitors who will gather for that occasion.

Do your part and join in the team effort this Saturday, July 14, at 9:00 a.m. There will be some job everyone can do.

Quitaque Fire Department To Sponsor Softball Tournament

Yard-of-the-Month Winner Announced

Lela Mae Hutcheson was singled out as winner of the July "Yard of the Month." This yard has been consistently well kept and attractive and Lela Mae deserves this recognition.

There are many other beautiful yards and gardens in town since the good rains. There has been an abundance of apricots recently and those who have trees have been so good to share with their neighbors. This shows an act of generosity and love that is so evident in Quitaque.

Becoming aware of the things we, as individuals, can do to make this a more beautiful and caring community is the whole purpose of recognizing an outstanding yard each month.

When some teen-age girls recently took on the project of washing downtown windows which had been painted and marked on, this, too, showed pride in the community. It is very heart-warming to see what can be done as the people work toward the common goal of a better community.

The Quitaque Fire Department will sponsor a Softball Tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 13-14-15.

Proceeds will be used to update communication equipment for the Fire Department and Ambulance Service.

Pack 264 Scout News

June 5, Danny, Chad, Jason, Henry, Garrett and Joe Wayne met at the Pinkerton home. The boys made key chains from materials donated by Rita Mullin. Refreshments of ice cream were served.

On June 12, a supper was held at the Church of Christ fellowship hall to honor our fathers.

The boys gathered on the parking lot and played caged tigers. They gathered in a circle and the Scout Promise was led by Jason and the Pledge was led by Chad. Following these activities, we assembled in the fellowship hall.

Kyle Mars gave the welcome. Prayer was given by Billy Pinkerton. The menu was barbecued brisket, potato salad, vegetable salad, tea and homemade ice cream made by the mothers.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bob Smith and Jason, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Berle Calvert and Chad, Mrs. Genevive McNary and Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Don Mills and Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pinkerton, Vera and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Don House and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnhill, Mrs. Beverly Mars, Penni and Kyle, Bobby Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fuston, Joe Wayne and Amanda, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lane and David.

A special thanks to the Church of Christ Elders for the use of the fellowship hall and to our mothers for preparing the food.

June 14, the Pinkerton family attended the Roundtable meeting in Plainview. The meeting was to finalize plans for Day Camp. Homemade ice cream and cake were served for refreshments.

June 25, Danny and Kyle met at the Pinkerton home. They worked on their Home and Traffic Safety Achievement and Working With Tools Achievement. They sawed boards into, nailed nails and screwed screws into boards. In the Safety section, they discussed how to get to a public telephone, how to tell others where the doctor's office, police station and fire station are located. Each boy prepared emergency telephone numbers to stick to their own telephones.

June 29 and 30 at Camp Akela at Plainview.

On June 29 at 7:30 a.m., Danny, Henry and Tommy loaded into the back of the Pinkerton's pickup for the trip to Plainview for Day Camp.

Sixty-eight boys from the Haynes District registered for camp. There were 35 boys in Danny's group and 16 boys in Tommy and Henry's age group. The boys were divided into five groups and each group was given a name, such as Horseshoes, Cowboys, Dukes and Horses.

During the two days, each group had to make a flag, get a yell and get a skit together for campfire.

The first day the boys were taken by Scout bus and cars to Fun Park where they were guests on the water slide and the new ship play area. They returned to Plainview's Boy Scout Hut and each group rotated to crafts, archery, songs and games, nature hike and first aid.

The first aid section for eight-year-olds covered Health and Safety areas in the Wolf Book. The nine- and ten-year-olds worked on CPR and the ABC's of first aid. The nine-year-olds worked on the Protection section of the Bear Book. The First Aid section was taught by Margie Pinkerton. On Saturday, the nine-year-olds worked with the Resusci-Anne manikin from the Turkey Fire Department.

On Saturday, we met at 1:00 p.m. Tommy carried his red pigeon for show and tell. He turned Red loose to fly home but she didn't arrive home until Sunday.

At 1:15 p.m. the boys went swimming at the American Legion Pool until 3:00 p.m. All the boys and leaders wore their camp shirts into the pool.

On Saturday each group went on a hike to the airport and were able to go into several aircraft there. They went to crafts, B-B guns and first aid. At 5:30 parents arrived with picnic suppers and a large outdoor picnic was held in the park. After supper the boys and parents in groups had a tug of war which was called after the rope broke landing everyone who was participating at that time on the ground. This included Henry, Billy, Margie and Tommy.

At campfire the camp leaders were introduced. The boys presented their flags, yells and skits. Following the campfire each boy received a camp patch and a Coke Is It mug.

We appreciated the Lions Club's sponsoring Henry to the camp. All the boys had an enjoyable time.

Hightower Reaffirms Belief In Eventual School Prayer Passage

Congressman Jack Hightower today reaffirmed his belief that the school prayer amendment issue was not dead but would be brought up again and ultimately passed in Congress.

"I was hoping the House would take up the amendment this year, but it was defeated in the Senate, so it probably won't come up again until next year when I hope we can pass it in both houses," Hightower said. "Early this year, I signed a discharge petition to force it out of committee and to the House floor for a vote."

Because House committees have all jurisdiction over proposed legislation, only a "discharge petition" signed by 218 Members can force a bill out of committee and up for a vote in the full House. Once either the House or Senate defeats a bill, that bill is not generally brought up in the other body during that session when it would face defeat again.

"We must have a good, solid, well-written constitutional amendment to restore public school prayer," Hightower said.

"The first wealth is health."
 Ralph Waldo Emerson

"I don't want anyone to force a student to say a particular prayer, but I think the people of this district and the nation want it clearly reaffirmed that voluntary prayer in school is constitutional," Hightower explained. "If we keep the pressure on, we'll pass it eventually, and that's what I plan to do," he emphasized.

Hightower also noted that he had voted for the so-called "Equal Access" bill that failed to pass the House on May 15 by only eleven votes. The bill was promoted by Hightower and others to assure that student religious groups in public high schools could not be denied the same rights given non-religious groups to meet on school grounds. "That's another important issue that we'll bring up again and ultimately pass," Hightower said.

Hall County Tax Assessor-Collector Resigns Office

Jo Carmen, Hall County Tax Assessor-Collector, resigned her office effective July 6, 1984, according to Hall County Judge James E. Chappell.

The Hall County Commissioners Court met Monday, July 2, and selected Nell Rita Godfrey as the interim Tax Assessor-Collector to fill Mrs. Carmen's unexpired term which ends December 31, 1984.

Mrs. Godfrey, who has worked in the County Tax Office for the past ten years, will assume the duties effective July 9, 1984, or as soon as bonding is completed.

Judge Chappell explained that the Commissioners' Court action as one to facilitate the keeping of the office open.

Patsy Jarrell, who won the Democratic Primary race for the office, according to Judge Chappell, was not available for appointment until after the first of August.

"Our Commissioners were advised by the State not to close the office for a month, and to keep it open we had to have a bonded Tax Assessor-Collector on duty," Judge Chappell said.

Mrs. Carmen will be moving to Amarillo where she has accepted a position with the City of Amarillo to be an Accounts Supervisor in the Municipal Court System.

Mrs. Carmen has worked 34 years in the Hall County Tax Office, and has served the past 12 years as the County Tax Assessor-Collector.

"I was appointed to that office on November 17, 1971 to fill out Mrs. Anderson's term," Mrs. Carmen said.

"In Amarillo I will be close to my kids," Mrs. Carmen added, "but I will really miss everyone here and I want to say how much I appreciate all the kindness shown over the years."

Mr. and Mrs. Odis Reagan, Mrs. Elaine Harmon and children, John David and Dee Dee, Mrs. Stan Price and children, Chastity, Crystal and Chris, all drove to Hereford and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Randy Clay and daughter, Tiffany.

Stan Price was at Lake Mackenzie trying to help find the body of a young man who drowned there Saturday afternoon.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Taylor over the weekend from Friday until Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moss of Anson and her sister, Mrs. Leslie Beard of San Angelo. On Sunday, the visitors drove to Flomot to attend the Flomot Homecoming. They attended church services and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Taylor joined them for the noon meal. They report it was a delicious catered meal.

with a handful of Bible students and today is conducting ministerial and preaching activity in 205 lands with 2,600,000 now associated worldwide."

He said the convention is scheduled this year at the Amarillo Civic Center with a projected attendance of 5,500 persons expected.

"This is indicative of the tremendous growth in recent years," he concluded.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO HAVE SUMMER DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York has revealed completion of plans for a series of 119 district conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses during the summer of 1984.

Stanley Weigel, official spokesman, said 65 separate sites will be utilized for the annual meetings. A total of more than 1,150,000 persons are expected to attend the conventions in the United States.

Many delegates from this area will be attending various conventions in the United States. One of the 65 cities selected is Amarillo, where the Civic Center Coliseum will host delegates July 19-22.

The theme for the 1984 conventions is "Kingdom Increase" and much of the program content will center on the growth of the religious movement in recent years.

"Jehovah's Witnesses are marking a centennial this year," one delegate said. "The movement started one hundred years ago

TIPS FOR BUILDING YOUR CHARCOAL FIRE

Your success at grillside will depend in large part, on a good fire—one of the size required for the food to be cooked. The following are general guidelines for building a fire with charcoal briquets. Because grills vary, be sure to read and follow manufacturer's instructions.

Place the grill away from buildings, trees, dry grass and shrubs. A draft is necessary but do check wind direction so smoke will not interfere with activities.

Pile briquets in a pyramid in center of the grill base that has been lined with heavy duty aluminum foil and covered with a shallow layer of gravel or vermiculite. The number of briquets needed will depend on the size of the grill and the amount of food to be cooked.

About 20 to 30 minutes before you plan to begin cooking, start the fire with an electric starter placed on the briquets; or a liquid starter poured over them, then ignited; or kindling of crushed paper or dry wood, ignited under briquets.

The fire is ready when coals are covered with ash and glowing in the center. For grill-top cooking, spread coals in a layer so heat will be distributed evenly. They may be just touching or up to an inch apart. Place the grid over the coals and you're ready to begin cooking. For rotisserie cooking, place a drip pan under the rotisserie rod and arrange coals around the drip pan.

In the old days, when falconry was in favor, first class birds were sold to European kings for the equivalent of thousands of dollars a bird.

Lowrey-Smith Vows Exchanged In Formal Ceremony

MRS. JOE KIRK SMITH

Miss Angela Beth Lowrey exchanged double-ring wedding vows with Joe Kirk Smith at three o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Silverton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jerry Miller, pastor, before a brass arch candelabra flanked by brass candelabra holding French orchid candles, accented with greenery and bows. Boston ferns and arrangements of silk orchid roses, azaleas, dogwood, gloxinias and mums also decorated the church altar. Orchid bows marked the pews.

The couple's memory candle was placed on an antique wash stand which had belonged to the bride's great-great-grandparents.

As the bride entered to be married, she presented a rose to her mother, and as she left the altar after the ceremony, she presented a rose to her husband's mother.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lowrey of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edd Smith of Quitaque.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white organza dress with sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and chapel-length train. The gown and train were trimmed with Alencon re-embroidered lace with pearl beading. Her illusion veiling was attached to a picture hat covered with Chantilly lace and pearl beading.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, daisies, baby's breath and pom-pom mums atop a lace-covered Bible.

To carry out bridal tradition, she placed pennies in her shoes minted in the years of birth of herself and the bridegroom. She carried a Bible carried by her mother in her own wedding as something old, chose her wedding ensemble and a pearl drop necklace as something new, borrowed pearl and diamond earrings from her sister and mother, and added a blue garter made by the groom's maternal grandmother.

Serving her friend as maid of honor was Miss Jeni Denton of San Angelo. Miss Shavonne Lowrey of Silverton, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Their floor-length gowns were of orchid moire taffeta designed with wrap bodices, puffed sleeves and fabric roses. They carried lace fans with French orchid and white peonies and greenery showered with orchid ribbon streamers.

Flower girl was Traci Wynn of Booker, Texas, cousin of the bride. She wore an orchid taffeta floor-length dress fashioned with puffed sleeves and carried a lace basket.

Cody Garrison of Canyon, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Seating the guests were Frank Lowrey of Silverton, brother of the bride; Carter Trew of Canadian, brother-in-law of the groom; Walt Garrison of Canyon, cousin of the bride, and Rodney Carpenter of Quitaque.

Serving as best man was Shane Smith of Wheelock, cousin of the bride. Groomsman was Derrell Johnson of Matador.

Mrs. Anne Davidson was pianist, and accompanied Darrell Reynolds and Jan Reynolds Williams as they sang. The traditional wedding marches, "You and I" and "Truly" were the selections used.

The bride's mother chose a turquoise crepe street-length dress with tucked bodice and wrap-skirt for the wedding. The groom's mother wore a dusty rose crepe street-length dress with tucked bodice and gathered skirt. They added corsages of white roses.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a Quaker lace cloth over orchid, and held the bride's bouquet, orchid punch, mints and mixed nuts, orchid and grey napkins bearing the couple's names and the wedding date, and the wedding cake which was made in three tiers with orchid and purple daisies and roses cascading down the sides. It was topped with the miniature bride and groom that was used on the bride's parents' wedding cake.

The groom's table was covered with a grey cloth, and held a red velvet cake made in the shape of a Case tractor, iced tea, which was served from a hand-painted enamel bucket, nuts and mints.

Wheels Turn For Children's Lives

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is proud to announce that Mrs. Joy Loper has been named to lead the 1984 Fall Bike-A-Thon in Quitaque.

Clifford Damstrom, St. Jude Director of the Southwest Region, stated that "we are extremely proud to find such a dedicated person for this very important job."

"St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the largest and one of the leading childhood cancer research centers in the world and it is the first research center dedicated exclusively to the research and conquest of catastrophic diseases of children, such as cancer and other life-destroying diseases," Damstrom stated.

"When St. Jude accepted its first patient in 1962, the survival rate for children diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia was less than 5%. Today, the disease-free survival figure for children has grown to over 50%. Cancer treatment procedures that originated at St. Jude are now being used to treat children throughout the United States and in other parts of the world. Such progress has brought world-wide acclaim to St. Jude."

"Children come to St. Jude for one purpose: A CHANCE TO LIVE!" Damstrom stated. St. Jude's dramatic progress has been made possible primarily by volunteer contributions raised through events such as the Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon. Danny Thomas, who founded St. Jude Children's Research Hospital because of a vow, stated its purpose clearly: "To wipe catastrophic diseases of children from the face of the earth."

"Since Thomas opened the research center in 1962, his dream of conquering cancer and other diseases that destroy our children has been brought closer to reality," stated Damstrom. "Thomas is still extremely active in pursuing this goal, and he inspires all of us in this cause."

Details of the Bike Ride will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Conner and girls were in Petersburg Sunday where he spoke at both services at the Church of Christ. They were guests for lunch with the Larry Adrians and spent the afternoon with them.

Lucretia Johnson of Vernon spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson. She came to attend the Flomot Homecoming. She also visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James May, in Quitaque.

Devlin Stone of El Paso is making an extended visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stone. After visiting here, his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Jay Stone, Devlin and Shondra visited her parents in Dimmitt and on their return left Devlin to visit awhile in Turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irby, Judson and Jennifer of Fort Worth came Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reddell Irby. They left Tuesday to return home.

Mrs. Ruth McKay returned home Wednesday of last week after an enjoyable visit with her children and grandson in Dallas and Fort Worth and in South Texas with friends.

Olene Edwards accompanied Jewel Tucker and Mrs. Lee Maupin back to Portales, New Mexico to attend the Owens family reunion weekend before last. It was held at the Senior Citizens building there.

She visited J. R. and Berneta Davis, who brought her home on Monday of last week.

While in Portales, they took her to visit some of the sites she remembered as a child. She recalled that the University of Portales sets on the plot of ground where her family, the H. K. Owens, lived in a dugout in 1889.

Her brother, Reuben Owens, was the first baby born at Portales in 1900. She recalled also that the family moved to Fort Sumner in 1907 and she and several of her brothers and sisters were born there. She said that there were five boys and five girls in the family who came to the Turkey area in a covered wagon in 1919. Mrs. Edwards reported they had a wonderful time at the reunion.

WATERMELON TIME IS FUN TIME

"Nature's Treat, Nutritious, Delicious and Sweet" is a slogan for the Texas Watermelon Association. The sweet, juicy, red fruit is a favorite of many people at this time of year. Watermelons have been cultivated by man for more than 4,000 years.

One of the nice things about watermelons is that they are low in calories and full of health-giving nutrients, including Vitamin A, calcium and ascorbic acid. One 4"x8" wedge has only 115 calories. An average watermelon is about 92% water and 8% natural sugar, which makes it an unsurpassed summer thirst quencher. Watermelons are usually the cheapest fruit per pound that you can buy. When selecting watermelons look for a firm, symmetrical shape. Although there are no positive methods for selecting watermelons, several outward signs can be used as a guide to ripeness and quality. Mature melons have a velvety bloom—a dull rather than a shiny surface. The underside of the ripe melon is yellowish in color, beginning to turn from a white or pale green to light yellow. The basic outside color of a watermelon usually ranges from a deep solid green to a gray, depending on variety. Also sweetness is largely dependent on variety, not appearance.

Major production areas in Texas for watermelons are South Texas, the Winter Garden area, Falfurrias-Hebbronville and DeLeon, and some production occurs in the Panhandle around the Silverton area. Quitaque area.

Currently watermelon supply is adequate and quality is average to good. The majority of watermelons are smaller than in years past due to dry weather conditions during the spring and early summer.

Watermelons—nature's treat, are sold in supermarkets, farmer's markets, roadside stands and from trucks parked on busy street corners. Current prices in Amarillo and area supermarkets range from $1.99 - $2.49 for a 19 pound melon to $3.98 for a 25 pound melon. Watermelon prices usually drop after the Fourth of July, which is the peak season for watermelons.

Since summer fruits and vegetables are a short-lived luxury—indulge in those juicy, mouth-watering Texas watermelons!

Pesticide chemicals more important than the product's name

COLLEGE STATION — Garden enthusiasts combatting insects this summer should look for the active chemical when buying pesticides rather than the product's name, says a Texas A&M University entomologist.

"You'll be better off looking for the active ingredients you want," said Dr. Rodney Holloway, "because products often contain the same ingredients but are sold by different companies which use their own marketing formula and charge different prices. The amount you pay doesn't always indicate how much pesticide you are buying."

In many cases different pesticides can be used in the same situation, he added. Diazinon, malathion, Sevin and Dursban are the most popular insecticides and will kill fleas, mites, aphids and cockroaches inside and outside the house, Holloway said. Chlordane is limited by the Environmental Protection Agency for termite control only.

Some children will tell you that their favorite subject in school is recess—leisure and playtime. Adults are no different. We all look forward to and need vacation time. Webster defines vacation as "a scheduled period during which activity is suspended." "A period of exemption from work granted to an employee for rest and relaxation." "A period spent away from home or business in travel or recreation." Since children are out of school and the hot humid days make concentration difficult, the summertime is the most popular season for vacationers. While vacations to other states and far away places are fun and exciting, we have many adventurous and educational activities, for the entire family to enjoy, here in our own backyard—Texas!

Various agricultural industries and crops provide excellent opportunities for children, as well as adults, to increase their knowledge of the importance of agriculture in this state. Pick-your-own type operations are a good example. Located throughout the state, farmers and producers, allow consumers to pick their own fruits and vegetables. Activities such as this provide children with a better understanding of the origins of the food they eat. Another added bonus is that the fruits and vegetables in Texas are tree and vine ripened, thereby providing more flavor.

Pick-your-own peaches usually cost between $5.00 and $10.00 per bushel, already picked between $10.00 and $15.00. If your household is small, take a friend, relative or neighbor along and divide the cost and peaches.

Those succulent, golden Texas peaches with the rosy blush, are currently available for picking in the Texas Hill Country. They will be at peak season the first to middle of July. The clingstone peach varieties are currently available in the High Plains around the Hedley, Clarendon and Wheeler areas. The freestone varieties will be available beginning in mid-July.

Blueberries—a relatively new fruit crop, is in bloom in East Texas. Currently the acres of blueberries in East Texas number between 250-300. The rich sandy acid soil in East Texas is practically the only area in the state where blueberries can be grown. Although it will be several years before blueberries from Texas will be available for statewide consumption, between June 15 and July 31, pick-your-own operations for Texas blueberries and in some places, blackberries, will abound. The East Texas area is also noted for its Tyler roses and historic homes.

Pick-your-own operations are not the only place in Texas to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables. Through the efforts of the Texas Department of Agriculture's Direct Marketing Program and Commissioner Jim Hightower, in 1983 farmers markets were established in Sherman-Denison, Tyler, Vernon and Waco. Additional farmers markets will open this summer in various areas of the state. Farmers markets offer vacationers and consumers a chance to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables, along with other agricultural products, directly from the farmer or producer. When consumers purchase items from a farmers market, they know they are buying high quality vine or tree ripened, flavorful fruits and vegetables. Imagine tomatoes and carrots with fresh-from-the-garden flavor! Roadside stands, orchards and farmers markets provide families with the opportunity to visit with the farmer about the production and growing process of his commodity. This can be a valuable learning experience for urban oriented children.

The Texas wine and grape industry offers vacationers a chance to tour vineyards and wineries and learn about the state's most recent developing agricultural industries. Texas currently has thirteen wineries located throughout the state with a fourteenth to start production in July. Some of the wineries are open for tours by appointment only, others are open to the public Monday-Saturday.

A summer-long journey or a weekend excursion, the opportunities to explore, learn and enjoy await vacationers in Texas!

For additional information on pick-your-own operations, farmers markets, vineyard tours or other agricultural opportunities for vacationers, contact the Texas Department of Agriculture, 5501 West I-40, Suite C, Amarillo, Texas 79106.

Josephine L. Smith, 61, died Tuesday, July 3, in Plainview after a long illness.

Services were held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday in Trinity United Methodist Church with the Rev. Tommy Ewing, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Plainview Cemetery by Lemons Funeral Home.

She was born in Silvertown and attended school there until she was twelve. She moved with her family to the Finney Switch community and was graduated from Plainview High School in 1943. She worked for Woolworth's from 1943 until she retired in 1972. In 1972, she moved to Perryton to become manager of Woolworth's, and she moved to Amarillo in 1975 to become division manager of Woolworth's. She moved back to Plainview after her retirement.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church.

Survivors include two brothers, Albert Smith of Hobart, Oklahoma and Marvin Smith of Pecos; one sister, Mrs. Dick (Mary Kay) Lundquist of Plainview.

Miss Smith was a cousin of Lillian White. Her mother was a sister to Lillian's father.

The Smith family lived a mile south of the Valley Tribune editor when she was a very young girl, but the families have remained friends over the years. Jo was critically ill in Central Plains Hospital when the editor's son, Dwain Henderson of Silvertown, underwent major surgery in April.

MRS. JOHN SHARP

Mrs. John Sharp of Stephenville, a former resident of Turkey, died June 3, 1984. Her sister, Mrs. Helen Sanders informed the Valley Tribune of her death.

Mrs. Sharp fell April 17 and broke a hip. She had seemingly recovered from the fall and was up and walking with the help of a walker, Mrs. Sanders reports, when she suffered a heart attack and died. She was buried June 5, with memorial services held at Lacy Funeral Home at 11:00 a.m. She was buried in Garden of Memories beside her late husband, John Sharp, who preceded her in death on April 26, 1976.

Mrs. Sanders, one niece and three nephews are her only survivors. Mrs. Sanders reports she lived with the Sharps in Turkey for several years. (The Sharps lived there thirty years.) Mrs. Sanders still has friends in Turkey, she says, but it has been over fifty years since she left there.

WATER SAVING TIPS

The water levels in many reservoirs in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce service area are at the lowest levels experienced in a decade or more. There is ample water in most to continue to provide for the needs of the people for several more months. However, it would be wise for residents of the area to begin practicing conservation to extend the life of the current supply should the drought conditions continue for several more months, according to WTCC Water Committee Chairman A. Wayne Wyatt.

During periods of extended drought, water use by city residents increases largely because of increased outdoor use. Water conservation can be practiced while providing adequate water for healthy yards, flowers, shrubs and trees.

The following hints have been compiled to help guide residents in water use outside the home with minimum waste:

1. Water your lawn early in the morning during the hot months. Much water used on the lawn can simply evaporate between the sprinkler and the grass.
2. Use a sprinkler that produces drops of water rather than a fine mist, to avoid evaporation.
3. If you use a soaker hose, turn it so the holes are on the bottom, again to avoid evaporation.
4. Water slowly for better absorption, and never on windy days.
5. Forget about watering the streets or walks or driveways. They won't grow a thing.
6. Condition the soil with compost before planting flower beds so that water will soak in rather than running off.
7. Fertilize lawns at least twice a year for root stimulation. Grass with good root systems makes better use of less water.
8. Learn how to know when your grass needs watering. If it has turned a dull grey-green and when footprints remain visible as you walk across it, it's time to water.

9. Don't water too frequently. Too much water can overload the soil so that air cannot get to the roots, and can encourage plant diseases.

10. Don't over-water. Soil can absorb only so much moisture and the rest simply runs off. A timer will help, and either your kitchen timer or an alarm clock will do. An inch-and-a-half of water applied once a week will keep most Texas grasses alive and happy.

11. Automatic sprinkler systems should be operated only when the demand on your town's water supply is lowest. Set the system to operate between four and six a.m.

12. Don't scalp your lawn during hot weather. Taller grass holds moisture better. Cut grass fairly often, so that only 1/2 to 3/4 inch is trimmed off. This will produce a better looking lawn.

13. If small areas in your yard need more frequent watering (those near walks or driveways or in especially hot, sunny spots), hand water with the hose in those areas.

14. Never "sweep" your walks or driveways with the hose. Use a broom or rake.

15. When washing the car, use a bucket of soapy water and use the hose only for rinsing.

Remember that saving water also saves energy. About 50 percent of the water used in a home is hot water. Providing energy to fuel your hot water heater is a major drain on your utility bill. By saving water, you save energy and money at the same time.

A&M study shows overhead fans help save on utility bills

COLLEGE STATION — The use of overhead fans could save residents of the Southwest up to 30 percent on their annual utility bills, the preliminary results of a Texas A&M University study show.

Researchers Larry Degelman, professor of architecture and of environmental design, and graduate students Syd Spain say the study is the first to look at actual energy savings due to the use of fans in the Southwest.

"Fans are a big hope for saving energy in hot months," Degelman said. "They could have the biggest impact on saving cooling energy since natural lighting."

The full study will examine the effects of the conventional ceiling fans and a system similar to the "whole house" or attic fan which draws air from the outside through the house and then exhausts the air into the attic and the outside.

The first city to be illuminated by gas lights was Baltimore, in 1817.

SELECTING PROPER

EQUIPMENT FOR

COOKING OUTDOORS

There's a large assortment of grills—charcoal, gas and electric —from which to choose. So let cooking experience, prospective use and budget be your shopping guide.

(a) Braziers: The simplest models of this most popular grill style have shallow firebowls set on three or four legs. More elaborate braziers have half-hoods, covers, electric rotisseries and wheels. They may have adjustable grids and draft doors for temperature control.

(b) Hibachis: Usually made of cast iron, these Oriental-inspired grills vary greatly in size. They are most often used for hors d'oeuvres and small-scale barbe-cuing on patio, porch, even indoors.

(c) Cooking Kettles: Sometimes described as large Dutch ovens on legs, these grills can be used for broiling or to cook large cuts of meat by indirect heat with minimum watching. They can be used year around, even on damp and windy days. Some units have thermometers in the hood and rotisserie attachments.

(d) Gas Grills: Fast starts and quick heat control are the main advantages of these year-around cooking units that are fueled with natural or bottled gas. If stationary, gas can be piped in underground; if mobile, gas is provided in a portable tank.
Depending on type, gas is fed into burners under a bed of ceramic briquets or infra-red units in the lid of the grill. A work surface is attached to some of these grills.

(e) Electric Grills: Another year-around cooking unit that requires no charcoal, the electric grill offers a range of temperature selection and usually better heat control making it unnecessary to raise or lower the grill.
Many have rotisseries.

(f) Camp Stoves: These include one, two or three burner units fueled with gasoline in detachable, refillable tanks. These collapsible, portable stoves are compact, lightweight and easy to transport and use.

(g) Stationary barbecue fireplaces: Made of brick or brick and field stone, these are permanent structures built in individual backyards or public picnic areas.
