Turks-Silverton Owls In Season Opener

The Turkey Turks go to Silverton Friday night to kick off a brand new football season. The Turks start the new season under new head coach George Scott, who came to Turkey from Gruver. He formerly was basketball coach at Flomot, and is therefore no stranger to the area. He is Flomot Coach V. V. Scott's brother.

The Turks lost several starters to graduation and this year's team will be lighter and less experienced so it is a bit uncertain as just what to expect in this first outing against the Class A Owls. Last year Silverton won 32-6. The Turks probably will have their hands full again this year for the Owls are big again and in a scrimmage with well regarded Springlake last week the Owls battled the Wolverines to a tie.

The Turk squad is as follows: Dennis Ivey, QB, 130; Jerry Green, QB, 140; Curtis Poley, HB, 135; Billy Martin, HB, 115; Dan Davis, HB, 125; Joe Lane, 130, HB; Kenny Sediff, HB, 110; Billy Vevens, HB, 185; Rudolph Munoz, HB, 150; Brent Mullin, C, 170; Ike Ferguson, C, 215; Tony Campos, G, 145; David McKay, G, 160; Junior Munoz, G, 130; Bruce Ferguson, T, 155; Mike Mullin, T, 165; James Adams, T, 150; Leroy Hamner, T, 160; Neil Guest, E, 140; and Dennis King, E, 140.

As our plane approached the Blantyre airport, a sense of excitement and thrill mounted in our hearts. It was good to be returning to our adopted home after a very rewarding nine-month furlough. The first few days we didn't even unpack our suitcases but spent our time in renewing friendships, greeting visitors, and hearing reports of how God's work has gone forward these past months. Existing churches have grown stronger, new churches and preaching points organized, revival fires are burning throughout the country. Now it remains for us to catch step with what God is doing in Malawi and prepare for the Crusade which begins in September.

We had a most pleasant trip flying from Chicago to Amsterdam. We were so impressed with the ingenuity of the Dutch as they reclaim (a daily process) from the sea, the land on which they live. We enjoyed our trip down the canals and the visits to quaint fishing villages and farms. Everyone seemed to have a ready smile for us, except the hotel staff who didn't seem too pleased with our little children clomping through the lobby and restaurant with their newly-acquired wooden shoes.

From Amsterdam we flew to Zurich for a few days. This was a return trip to Switzerland since we enjoyed it so much on the trip to the States. We had a nice excursion along the German Border visiting the Rhine Falls, and many rural towns. We also went to Engleburg and had a nice outing in the Swiss Alps.

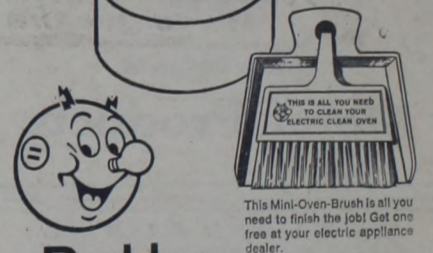

Our three day stopover in Nairobi, waiting for the connecting flight, was also enjoyable. We stayed in the mission guest cottage and did our grocery shopping in the African market. A trip to the game park, curio shopping, and visiting other missionaries occupied our time. This was the first glimpse of Africa for Roy's mother who will be visiting with us for several months and Wayne Cadenhead who is a senior at Baylor and is spending his summer with us. Already Wayne has been a tremendous help to us. He has repaired the lawn mower, built a tool bench, helped with meetings in two different villages (sleeping in the back of a truck or rolled up in a bed roll under the stars), and performing cheerfully all sorts of odd jobs. Roy's mother is teaching Gill the fifth grade Calvert Course. She taught fifth grade in Dallas for 13 years before retiring last year. Did I say retiring?

—just transferring to Malawi!

CARD OF THANKS

Words are simply inadequate to begin to express our very sincere gratitude to everyone for the many, many kind deeds and expressions of sympathy in our time of sorrow the past weeks. We appreciate you all for the ways you showed us you cared; for the many flowers; the calls; the food; the words of comfort and most of all the prayers said in our behalf. There are so many things for which we are grateful we cannot enumerate them and can only say that we are grateful to you our friends everywhere. We pray that God will bless you all for your kindness.

Ex-Students and Teachers Homecoming wish to thank the ladies who were so nice to bake for us at this busy time. We appreciate each and every one of you. We want to apologize for the confusion concerning the place to take the baked items. Your cooperation was greatly appreciated. All the left-over cakes and cookies were given to the school cafeteria, and they were used for refreshments for P-TA Tuesday night. Thank you again

Mrs. Leon Cloyd

"Freshman Day" was "enjoyed" on Friday, September 4 at Flomot High School, by the four freshmen, Cindy Morris, Frances Reed, Marvin Starkey, and Tim Myers. The seniors had quite a line-up of activity for them. The freshmen were dressed in tow-sacks and wore an onion on a string around their necks. (They ate the onion before the day was over). There was a cantaloupe eating contest and a rock race, with the loser having to eat a raw egg. Right after lunch the freshmen had to propose to each other, then sing the song, "Rubber Duckie". Seniors dishing out all the fun were Lucy Reed, Connie Washington, Alvia Joe Calvert, Joe Bob Crowell, Donnie Ray Rogers, Jim Tom Smith, Ray Moreno and David Hunter. To top it all off, the Seniors got a good polish job on their boots.

Mrs. Ernest Fisher of Matador and her daughter, Mrs. James Thomas of Garland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kingston and Mrs. Kingston's mother, Mrs. Pritchett, and Mrs. Effie Speer and family on Friday night of last week.

Friday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Reed were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Peters and James Gowin of Walton, Kan., Linda Hughes and son, Marty of Plainview, and Lennie McDonald from Tech at Lubbock. Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Reed and daughters of Canyon; Mrs. John Mokray and nephew, Ronald Wickle of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pope and children visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. Ikie Gilbert and daughter, Kathy, were in Austin last Thursday and Friday and visited in Anson Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moss and Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert. Mrs. Wilburn Martin and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gilbert were in Anson at the same time visiting the Moss family and the John Gilberts. While there they met Wilburn Martin and daughter, Marilee, Mrs. Martin and her parents had been visiting at Cisco for a few days before coming to Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bond were in Lubbock last Saturday on business.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Thomas were Mrs. Thomas' son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, of Odessa.
