Only Comanche Bars Way of Loboes To District Championship With the Defeat of Ranger to a Score 7 to 0

Minus the services of four of the regular players who have been used in every game this season, the Big Dam Loboes held the Ranger Bull Dogs scoreless and put over a touchdown and won the district semi-final game at Nitro Park, Ranger, Tuesday. This victory put one of the greatest obstacles out of the way of the Loboes, and entitles them to meet Comanche in the final game to be played next Monday at a place yet to be decided upon.

The largest crowd ever assembled in Eastland county viewed this game, if not one of the largest ever assembled at a high school game in Texas.

Coaches and players from several schools still in the running were present scouting the game, and sporting editors of several state papers were present to view the classic.

The Loboes, after getting off to a bad start, scored in the first period, then settled down to a defensive game that withstood every attack launched against it by the Bull Dogs. Ranger kicked off to Cisco. Irvin punted from his own 20-yard line. Yonkers of Ranger punted to Fields. Cisco made two attempts to buck the line and failed. On the third run Wilson fumbled and Ranger recovered the ball on Cisco's 20-yard line. Yonkers went through his own left tackle for first down and repeated for another gain, placing the ball well within Cisco's ten yard line. At this point the Lobo line, which had been loafing, awoke to their situation and held against two more furious charges of Yonkers. Ranger then attempted a placement kick which hit the cross bar. Cisco getting the ball on their own 8-yard line. Irvin kicked out of danger. Ranger attempted a pass but "Runt" McCrea intercepted, and the Loboes began their march for the only touchdown of the game. Wilson was a great factor in securing the touchdown, although it was only the splendid offensive work of the line that made it possible for him to rip off his gains. Wilson carried the ball over for the touchdown and then kicked goal from placement. The remainder of the half saw the teams see-sawing back and forth.

In the second half the Loboes got into a bad hole. With the ball near middle field Strickland caught a Cisco pass. However, he playing guard, was ineligible for a pass and the penalty cost the Loboes the ball. Several good runs by Ranger and the completion of the pass, enabled them to carry the ball into Cisco's territory, where for a time things looked bad. The Loboes threatened Ranger's goal line on several occasions, but were held for downs. Attempted placement and drop kicks failed to register. Ranger also tried for field goals but missed. In the last quarter Ranger unleashed a great passing offense that came near tying the score. Harvey threw a beautiful 30-yard pass which was perfectly handled by Walker, who caught it on the dead run and came near running for a touchdown. However, the Bull Dogs were unable to follow up the advantage and their try for goal failed. Following the Lobo count Harvey again started throwing perfectly and aimed passes, which Bohannon was picking from the air with heart-breaking regularity for the Cisco fans. One pass across the goal line came near being completed, the Ranger man catching the ball for an instant, then letting it slip through his hands. On another march down the field on passes Wilson intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard line and the Loboes were carrying the ball when the time-keeper's pistol ended the game.

The Loboes proved conclusively that they are not a one or two man team in this game. With four regulars missing they still outweighed their adversaries, admittedly one of the most dangerous teams in the state, and they came out on top in a game which by all the dope they should have lost. The hard-hitting and hard low tackling of the line was largely responsible for the victory. Also the interference furnished Wilson by his fellows in the back field was praise-worthy.

Captain Alsbrook again demonstrated that he is one of the best end in the state by the steady sure manner in which he handled his position. He also, aided by Morse, executed a beautiful fake play that gained good yardage at a time yards were needed.

Jack Daniel at the other end, was having his greatest day. Jack is one of the hardest workers on the squad and has been faithfully striving for several years preparing himself for his chance which came yesterday. With his team crippled and with his mind puzzled, Chapman turned to Jack, and was not disappointed. Daniel played like a veteran and handled his position with credit to himself and his team. He was in every play and not once was he sucked in on any of Ranger's attempts to run his end.

"Ceedy" Grist proved that the center position can be made a star position. Not once did he make a bad pass, and repeatedly he passed the ball through the line, and was down under punts getting the runner in his tracks. Couch also showed to advantage in getting down under punts, making several tackles which saved much yardage.

"Honk" Irvin played perhaps the best game he has exhibited during the season. Not only did he play his line position well, but he out-punted the Ranger men, and on several occasions made good gains when called back to carry the ball. Ranger made a magnificent fight. Yonkers proved that he was entitled to the all-state mention accorded him last year. He was his team's most consistent ground gainer. Walker of the Bull Dogs also looked great. However, for the spectator Harvey was Ranger's best bet, because of his wonderful passing ability, and Bohannon looked as good because of his uncanny ability to bob up from nowhere, and like a magician pluck the ball from the air. The Ranger Bull Dogs lived up to their name, and although they went down in defeat, they made a record of which their town should be proud.

The ladies request the Daily News to extend their appreciation to the business people who co-operated with them in making the fete a success. The ladies also thanked the News for the publicity given the fete.

FUNERAL HELD FOR VICTIM OF GRID ACCIDENT

MESQUITE, Nov. 12.—The funeral services will be held this afternoon for Sill Lawrence, high school grid star of the Mesquite school, and son of S. D. Lawrence, a Mesquite banker, who was fatally injured in the football game with Terrell Armistice day. His skull was fractured while tackling. He expired in a Dallas hospital four hours after receiving the injury.

MRS. FERGUSON WILL TAKE OATH ON ANCIENT BIBLE

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—When Mrs. Ferguson is sworn in as governor by Chief Justice C. M. Curran of the state supreme court, January 20, she will touch a Bible which has been used for such ceremonies ever since the days of the Texas republic. It is a small, leather-backed, moth-eaten volume inscribed "Supreme Court of the Republic of Texas, 1840." It is preserved in the supreme court clerk's office. The fingers of all the Texas chief executives since Sam Houston touched this Bible when they took the oath of office. It is also used for swearing in all chief justices of the supreme court.

COURTESY AND PEP FEATURES RANGER GAME

Texas yesterday observed Armistice day. Those boys who failed to come back from France were remembered in some befitting manner in most every city, town and hamlet in the nation. Celebrations or memorial observances marked the features of the day all over Texas, and the day was commemorated in Cisco with a huge parade of floats and private vehicles. It was the last day also of the Cisco Poultry show, which is held annually here. The parade formed at 1 o'clock and marched down D avenue, around the city park, thence retracing D avenue and, out Fourteenth street to the Bankhead highway. Eastland and Olden were visited, and upon reaching Ranger the Cisco pageant trailed the Ranger parade out to the ball park where they witnessed the Lobo-Bulldog game.

At the game Ranger people, emulating the example set by Breckenridge, demonstrated that a people can dispense courtesy in a football game, for Cisco fans were shown the utmost courtesy, and the fans are praising Ranger hospital-ity, with no visible indication of that bad taste that was apparent after the game with the Abilene Eagles. There was only one unfortunate incident in connection with the game. Sunday night, in the dark hours before dawn, two enthusiastic fans came to Cisco and posted Ranger stickers on windows of the stores of the city. Some of these were semi-obscene. There is a city ordinance against acts of this character, and the night patrolmen placed the young men under arrest and kept them in the city jail the remainder of the night. The next morning an attorney from Ranger arrived, and after learning the facts, advised the boys to plead guilty, which they did. Mayor Williamson fined the pair $10 each, and released them on their own recognizance, stating that he would place the matter before the city commission, and if the commission desired to do so, the fines would be remitted.

PUBLIC UTILITY RATES OF TEXAS BEING COMPILED

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—Rates of all public utilities in Texas are now being obtained by the League of Texas Municipalities in connection with the bureau of government research of the University of Texas. Letters are being sent to city officials over the state, and complete information on the subject will be printed in a bulletin. The chief advantage of the compilation of these rates is that city officials will be able to compare their public utilities accurately. The stupendous amount of work involved in gathering data is shown by the fact that every public utility will be investigated.

The League of Texas Municipalities, which was organized in 1923, is a non-partisan organization which has for its aim better municipal government in Texas. Active membership may be held by any incorporated city in Texas. Annual conventions are held in various towns for the purpose of discussing problems which arise in connection with municipalities. The 1925 convention will be held in Waco. A bureau of information is maintained for the use of members. Assistance in drafting charters, model ordinances, information on taxation, paving and other problems are free to members. A special legislative committee also encourages better laws.

PLACE FOR THE MON. GAME BE PICKED TONIGHT

Cisco high school officials and officials of the Comanche high school will meet at Gorman tonight to arrange for the game between Cisco and Comanche, which must be played next Monday.

The main point to be settled this evening is where the game will be played.

If unable to agree on Cisco or Comanche, it is possible that Brownwood or Ranger will be named.

However, every effort will be made to have it staged in Cisco, since it is agreed the attendance would be much greater here than elsewhere.

RANDOLPH LOSES TO SUL ROSS BY SCORE OF 7 TO 0

The football team of the Randolph College, will arrive in Cisco tonight from Alpine, where they played the Sul Ross college team Armistice day. They are coming home defeated, but the splendid showing made for a young team and young school holding an old school to a score of 7 to 0 is not bad. Randolph College has a very formidable eleven, and next season they will be in much better form when honors of the junior college will likely be won on the gridiron.

PATTERSON AND DEMETRAL MAT MATCH A DRAW

The wrestling match at city hall Tuesday night between Jimmy Patterson of Canada and Harry Demetral, of Waco, was declared a draw after an hour of the fastest mat work seen here in many months. Patterson weighed 173 and his opponent 169 and they were just as evenly matched from the point of skill, although the Canadian was clearly the stronger of the two. The first fall was secured by Demetral with an arm bar in 45 minutes. The next fall went to Patterson in about 15 minutes, when Demetral was made helpless for several minutes by a Japanese headlock and was carried off the stage. Patterson is very strong and possesses an uncanny knowledge of jiu jitsu, the ancient Japanese system of wrestling. Frequently during the match it appeared that Demetral had the Canadian at his mercy, but when the latter had an opportunity to apply his thumb to some unprotected joint or nerve center, Demetral immediately released all holds and leaped away from his opponent.

Charley Olson of California will very likely be matched with Patterson at an early date. Olson is one of the best men in the game and the match should draw large crowds from surrounding towns.

COOLIDGE TO CALL SECOND ARMS PARLEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—President Coolidge is only awaiting a favorable opportunity to take the initiative in calling another arms conference, it was ascertained in official circles today, with word from London that the new Tory government would welcome such a move. Coolidge's last speech is recalled when he said when the Daves plan is in operation he would make a step toward another conference to limit production of air craft for war purposes, the size and number of submarines, land forces and modify the international law. It was these points that France refused to consider at the Harding conference, forcing a postponement. The land armament factor is giving Coolidge much worry, as Russia now has the largest European army, and every government but America has recognized the Soviet. What attitude America should give toward Russia in event of another conference is puzzling him.

STAMFORD FAN SEES GAME

Cisco's Chicken Show Draws Many To See Large Number Of Pure Bred Birds; Watched Forty Mile Parade

Notwithstanding the forty-mile parade that carried thousands of people to Ranger to witness the gridiron contest between the Loboes and the Bull Dogs, Armistice day, the streets of Cisco remained crowded all Tuesday afternoon, and the Cisco Poultry show was the main attraction. They witnessed the parade, and lined the street, but contrary to what many feared, they failed to follow in the wake of the parade to Ranger. On the contrary, the crowd remained in Cisco until late in the afternoon, visited the poultry show, saw the pictures at the movie theatres and enjoyed a general holiday.

As the victorious Loboes and fans returned from Ranger, the poultry show came to a close, and the exhibits were loaded in cars and conveyed back to their home roosts, where the busy little leghorns, the big bulky rocks, orpingtons, R. I. reds and the numerous other breeds, will take up their work where it was interrupted when they were taken off their nests for the show. On the whole it was a grand success. Not as largely attended as was the show last year, perhaps, as there was no livestock this year, but chicken fanciers of both Eastland and Stephens county were here and enjoyed every minute of it, for there were some prize birds shown.

THE MOTHER OF WISDOM

Wisdom is usually associated with age. We hear such phrases as "The wisdom of our ancestors," "Venerable Antiquity," "The wisdom of the ages," over and over.

Experience is the mother of wisdom, and the old have, of course, more experience than the young.

Sydney Smith, the wittiest man of his time (1771-1845) in England, had the question in mind when he observed that of individuals living at the same period, the oldest has, of course, the greatest experience.

Thus those who come first—our ancestors—are the young people, and have the least experience. We of today have added to their experience the experience of many years or of many centuries; and, therefore, as far as experience goes, are wiser.

It seemed to Smith that the real feeling should be, not can we be so presumptuous as to put our opinions in opposition to those of our ancestors?

Smith does not dispute with our ancestors the palm of talent, in which they may or may not be our superiors, but the palm of experience in which it is impossible they can be our superiors.

"We cannot, of course, be supposed to maintain that our ancestors wanted wisdom, or that they were necessarily mistaken in their institutions, because their means of information were more limited than ours.

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 12.—I. M. Walker of Eolian and B. B. Chapel of Breckenridge have returned from a trip to Amarillo and the plains country.

It is true enough that experience is the mother of wisdom. But it isn't true that older individuals are always wiser than young ones.

The Cisco pep squad certainly appeared to good advantage at Ranger yesterday. When on foreign football soil it causes a fellow to feel doubly important if he can look down the line and see and hear the sweet singers from Cisco.

JURY TRIALS IN CONTEMPT CASES

Labor has won a notable victory in the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court holding that courts cannot refuse jury trials in contempt cases arising from labor disputes.

This makes a breach in the wall formerly separating criminal contempt from other criminal cases. It is, in a way, an answer to the contention of labor leaders that judges have wielded oppressive power.

The decision, therefore, while curbing to some extent the power of judges, may really benefit the judiciary by allaying public criticism of its procedure.

Ernie Wilson is usually the target for all the heavy-weights of the opposing team, but he quietly wends his way among them like a peanut vendor at a county fair.

THE SEAPLANE OF MERCY

At the northern end of Lake Winnipeg there is an important post of the Hudson Bay Company. An Indian school is also located there.

Recently an outbreak of diphtheria has threatened the school, and civilization's answer to the danger hanging over those children was the dispatch of a seaplane from the city of Winnipeg.

The airplane, in its various forms, is regarded by military authorities as the most important war weapon of the present and the future.

How much finer is this errand of mercy! The flight of the seaplane with its cargo of anti-toxin intended to save the lives of a handful of Indian children helps to point the way to a far nobler use of man's latest inventions than putting them to the destruction of human beings.

DINNER STORIES

At a select resort the men had a good deal of civic spirit; bought apparatus, and organized a fire company.

One night when most of the members were at a dinner party, a slight blaze broke out. The alarm was promptly answered, the caretaker at the engine house distributed hats, and the hose reel was manned.

"I fear this place is too swell for me," he said. "Even the firemen wear evening dress."

Little Janet was exceedingly fond of turkey, and it was therefore with great enthusiasm that she accepted the invitation of her aunt to a holiday dinner.

Janet ate a good share of the bird and then handed up her plate again. "Why Janet," said the aunt, "you have eaten enough turkey. I don't think you had better have any more now."

"But I want some more, auntie," explained the youngster, her face lengthening.

"Not now dear," replied the aunt. "But there is a wishbone that you may pull with me. That will be lots of fun. You pull one side and I pull the other, and whoever gets the longer end will have her wish come true."

Each pulled until the bone snapped. Janet held the longer end. "Now dear," said the aunt, "you've got the longer end. What did you wish for?"

Janet again picked up her plate and answered: "Why, I wished for more turkey!"

Templar Saxo Forgot To Turn Valuables In Night Before

Two antique rings of great value and a gem encrusted lozengette of the early part of the sixteenth century are used by Governor Steed as "props" in the pictorialization of Rafael Sabatini's famous love story, "Captain Blood," which will be shown at the Judia theatre, starting Sunday.

During the strenuous activity of a day's work everyone was so busy that the jewels slipped the attention of the property man when the company left for the night.

studio. All the 400 players used in the sequences were questioned, but aside from the fact that they had been worn by Gov. Steed, a role assumed by Templar Saxo, when he visited the shed on the dock to oversee the sale of slaves, no trace of them could be found.

The gems could not be duplicated and work on the production must be delayed until the gems were recovered in some way.

The joy of his appearance was equal to the return of the prodigal son and it was with difficulty that the property man refrained from falling on his neck through sheer joy over the return of the jewels.

BOB MOHLER IN EASTLAND JAIL AWAITING TRIAL

Eastland county officers have brought Bob Mohler from the Tarrant county jail, where he has been for safe keeping pending his appeal from the verdict of the 88th district court. Mohler was convicted of the murder of Hugh Maples of this city, and sentenced to death. The criminal court of appeals reversed and remanded the case, and Judge Hill has set the case for trial December 1. To be on hand when the case is called, Mohler now awaits his second trial in the Eastland county jail.

EASTLAND COUNTY BOYS RECEIVE FAIR CHECKS

EASTLAND, Nov. 12.—Two Flatwood boys have received checks for prizes won on exhibits at the Dallas fair. These checks came to R. H. Bush, county agent, as both of these prize winners are members of the Eastland county Boys clubs, and received their instruction in farming under Bush, and were prizes for exhibits of feterita. A check of $6 was made out to Odie Wood, of Flatwood, whose exhibit of pure line feterita won second place, and another for $2 was made out to Russell Barton, also of Flatwood, who won sixth place in the same exhibit. The heads of feterita exhibited by these two boys were included in the Eastland county exhibit at the Eastland County Flower show and Community fair here.

The Owen well, Mr. Davis said, is just a test, and should it prove good they will drill out the lease.

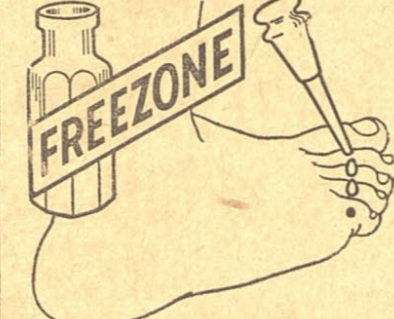

Donnelly Bros., drilling on the John Hart tract near the Owen well, are drilling around 1,200 feet, and making good headway. Both of these wells are near the Southern & Flaherty in the Cisco field.

COUNTY FILES AMENDMENT TO ITS PLEADINGS

EASTLAND, Nov. 12.—The case of Eastland county vs. G. A. Davisson et al, has taken a new turn, for by the amendment to the pleadings filed the county dismisses its case with the exception of the $56,000 claimed against Davisson as the successor of the Fleming-Sitzer roadbuilding company's bond. The suit as originally filed was for approximately $111,000 and was against former County Judge C. R. Starnes, Commissioners M. G. Robinson, E. A. Webb and John Camp and their bondsmen.

The amended petition dismisses all allegations as to fraud and seeks to recover only $56,000 alleged to be due the county as discount on bonds sold. Defendants do not deny that Smith Bros., successors to G. A. Davisson, are due the county discount on certain bonds sold, but claim that the county has not fulfilled its contract with the roadbuilders, in that there is approximately $600,000 of the road bond money that has not been spent as per contract and that when the contractors shall have spent that amount on the roads their commission will take care of the amount they are due the county.

Interior department statistics made public today showed civil war pensions decreased 21,808 last year and now number 146,815, while widows and dependents of veterans of that war declined from 264,580 in 1923, to 253,136 in 1924.

Miss Zona Miller, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Miller, entertained a number of her friends Saturday afternoon with a party to celebrate her eighth birthday anniversary. Mary Jane Morehart cut the button, Helen Hunterman, the wishbone, Ben Burleson, the ring, and Hunter Miller, the dime.
