DEMOCRATS ARE OPTIMISTIC

Eastland County Election Officers Named For Holding Election at All Precincts of the Twenty-Eight Boxes

FEATHERS AND TAR BE PROPER FOR THESE TWO

The mysterious short man who called on W. C. Couch last week and is alleged to have tricked him into signing some sort of statement, evidently learned just exactly what kind of citizen he and his ancestors are, according to reports brought to Cisco from Staff. It seems that this man, accompanied by another man known to be an Eastland attorney, called on Mr. Couch last week after he had learned about being tricked on a former occasion. The pair went into the field where Mr. Couch was working, and the man alleged to be from Abilene, smilingly produced another statement for Mr. Couch to sign. However, the trickster got the surprise of his life. Mr. Couch addressed them in stern language of the sort usually applied by a man addressing an obstreperous mule, and in no uncertain terms told them who and what they were, and exactly what he thought of them. He then secured a stick of wood and chaperoned them off his place. The Eastland attorney is said to have backed out of reach of the stick of wood, and declared that he was employed merely as a notary, and had nothing to do with the trickery. However, Mr. Couch evidently thought he was in bad company and did not converse with him further. It is stated that he told the short man first where to go and at last reports he was seen departing in the general direction of Abilene, possibly thinking he was obeying orders. It is not known just what kind of statement he had brought back for Mr. Couch's signature.

OKLAHOMA CITY DETECTIVE WAS SHOT BY BANDIT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 3.—City Detective Briggs Chumley was shot to death today when he attempted to arrest two men wanted in a holdup in a restaurant. One bandit, it is believed, was shot, although he escaped.

BUTTE SAYS IT WILL BE A LAND SLIDE FOR HIM

DALAS, Nov. 3. — Answering Mrs. Ferguson's eleventh hour appeal when she charged him with being unchivalrous, and asked the voters not to forsake her because she was her husband's wife, Butte declared today he respected Mrs. Ferguson as the wife and mother, but reiterated his charge she was the stepping stone for the revived political ambitions of Jim. Butte predicted a landslide majority in his favor.

PERSIANS SAY RING LEADERS ARE EXECUTED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Two of the ring leaders of the mob which murdered Major Robert Imbrie, vice consul at Teheran, Persia, were executed, the Persian government advised the state department today. The officials said it is now regarded as an affair is closed.

Tomorrow morning at 8:00 o'clock the 28 voting places will be opened for the reception of ballots in an election that will perhaps be of greater importance than any held in the United States in many years. It is the first presidential election where the third party ticket has really been given any consideration, nor have similar conditions existed in the past such as confronts the people at this time. With the third party complicating the situation it is possible for the election to be thrown to the house, or possibly into the senate, and in the latter eventuality, it is conceded that Charles W. Bryan would be the nominee.

But these conditions will hardly materialize, as likely tomorrow either Davis and Bryan, or Coolidge and Dawes will have a decisive majority in the electoral college.

In the state we have for the first time in the history of Texas a woman as the nominee of the Democratic party, and her election is conceded, the only question that confronts the people of Texas is the majority that will be polled for Mrs. Ferguson.

The two Cisco boxes, like the others of the county and state, will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 7, with the following receiving and counting the ballots:

East Cisco—Hardie Evans, judge; with Joe Clements, and Rev. I. W. Lawrence as assistants. Others have likely been named, but they could not be learned.

West Cisco—Lee Owen, judge; assistants so far named are H. A. Bible, George Huestes, W. B. Statham, L. W. Hilgenberg, D. S. Rumph, and R. R. Asbury.

The judges of the other election precincts are as follows:

Eastland, precinct No. 1—L. L. Hightower, judge; Ernest Laffoon, assistant.

Ranger, precinct No. 2—C. A. Bobo, judge; W. H. Purcer, assistant.

Ranger, precinct No. 25—U. N. Whitehall, judge.

Ranger, precinct No. 27—E. H. Mills, judge; Jack Blackwell, assistant.

Ranger, precinct No. 28—T. K. Taylor, judge; L. B. Frazier, assistant.

Tudor, precinct No. 3—W. P. Guest, judge; no assistant named.

Sabanno, precinct No. 4—Noell Black, judge; no assistant named.

Rising Star, No. 7—John Nunnally and Dutch Shultz.

Desdemona, No. 8—T. L. Acres and J. H. Rushing.

Pioneer, No. 9—E. M. Curry and John Harris.

Fir, No. 10—Joe Jones (no assistant appointed).

Kokomo, No. 11—Davis Neill and Jim Hendricks.

Carbon, No. 12—Lee Speer and W. A. Tate.

Gorman, No. 13—W. H. Mullins and John T. Hambrick.

Long Branch, No. 14—Will McFall and G. W. Stowe.

Okra, No. 15—Henry Hill and Chester Clabourne.

Seranton, No. 16—Ed Bradshaw and J. B. Snoddy.

Nimrod, No. 17—Ed Townsend and Will N. Compton.

Olden, No. 18—John Mays and J. L. Andrews.

Dothan, No. 19—Will Allen and J. T. McCarver.

SATURDAY NIGHT FIGHT RATHER COSTLY AFFAIR

J. W. Wilson, a popular young man of Cisco, is lying at the City hospital suffering with serious knife wounds received Saturday night in front of the Manhattan cafe. Wilson has two painful wounds on his scalp, one about three inches long, and another near the left temple, where the temple artery was severed. The attending surgeon stated this was the most serious wound, as the patient lost considerable blood before it was finally stanchied, and it is reported that Jack Mowdy is at his home at Dothan suffering from severe bruises about his face.

This affray was the culmination of a personal encounter between the two, which was started when Mowdy jostled against Wilson in front of an uptown cafe, it was stated. Wilson is alleged to have pushed him rather violently from him at the time. In company with a friend who was going to take the train for Waco, Wilson then went to the station, and it is stated Mowdy followed him there, when words were passed which resulted in a fist fight in which Mowdy was badly beaten about the face and head.

Returning to town Wilson went to the Manhattan cafe, where he told Night Chief Tub Wilson that he did not want any further difficulty. The night chief told him to get in his car and go home, but as they started Wilson stated his car was out of commission. The officer told him he would get the car started, and while preparing to do so Mowdy appeared and the two men clashed again, and while Wilson had Mowdy down the latter used his knife before the officer could separate them.

Besides the cuts about Wilson's head, there are several scratches and minor cuts on his legs and body, but these are insignificant. Wilson's clothing was cut in several places. The attending surgeon stated today that Mr. Wilson was doing nicely, that his wound would likely heal in a short time, and it would not be necessary for him to remain very long at the hospital. Those who saw Mowdy after the affray stated he was pretty badly used up.

Trial of the case is set for Wednesday.

LA FOLLETTE ISSUES LAST MINUTE APPEAL

MADISON, Nov. 3.—Back here among home folks La Follette today issued his last minute appeal to the American people to "sweep the progressive ticket into office," charging both the old parties with being controlled by the private monopoly system, and declared it is only through the progressives that the government can be restored to the people.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF ROAD HOG INJURED ON HIGHWAY

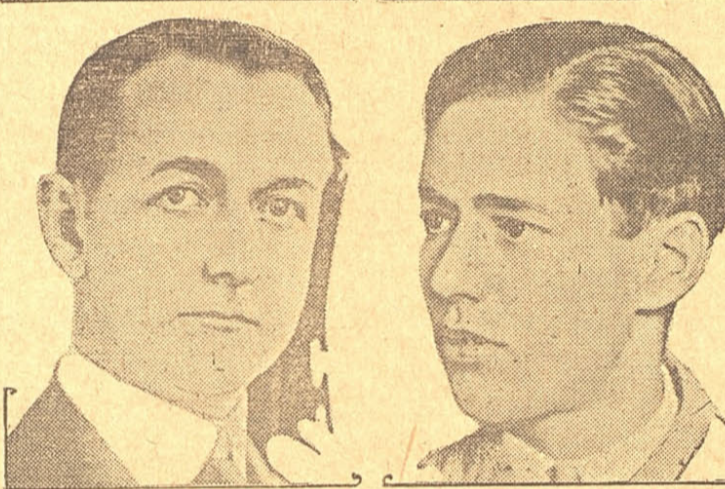

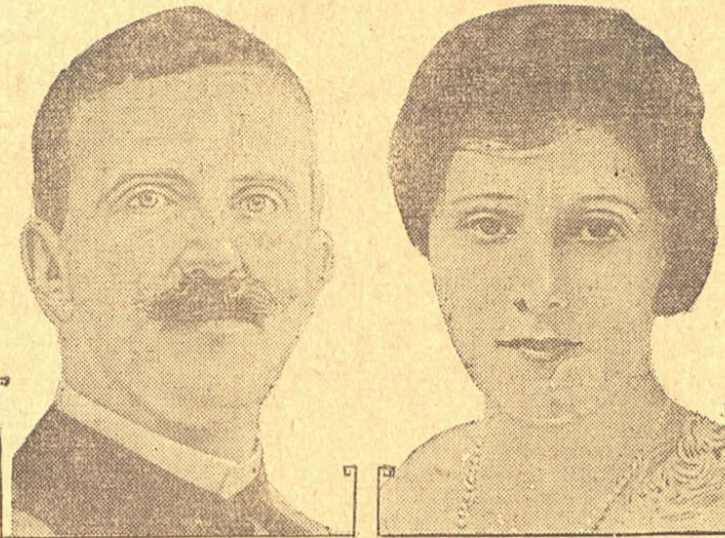

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 3.—Suffering from injuries received on the Cisco-Breckenridge highway while coming from Cisco Wednesday night, Mrs. M. W. Sullins is still confined to her bed at home in this city. It is stated that in company with Mrs. Brown their car came in collision with a half-blind truck coming in the opposite direction, which they claim was "hogging the road."

The women were driving a car belonging to Claude Meeks. The car was badly demolished. Mrs. Brown was not hurt except badly jostled up. Mrs. Sullins' injuries are said to consist of a broken rib, broken nose and severe injuries, possibly some internal injuries.

MARRIED AT ALBANY

BAIRD, Nov. 3.—It has just been announced here that Mrs. Lucy Jarvis of this city, was recently united in marriage to Mr. J. N. Daniels of Moran, where the couple will reside in future. The ceremony was performed at Albany.

MEN AND WOMEN IN NEWS SPOTLIGHT

Louis K. Rittenhouse, wealthy manufacturer, of Orange, N. J., was shot to death by two men as he stepped from his home there to mail a letter. Richard Loeb, one of the slayers of "Bobby" Franks, of Chicago, was not permitted to leave the Joliet, Ill., State's Prison, where he is doing a life term, to attend the funeral of his father, Albert Loeb, multi-millionaire vice-president of Sears Roebuck & Co., of Chicago. In addition to the $125,000 legacy bequeathed her by her husband, Mrs. Oscar Lewisohn, the former Edna May of stage fame, also received the income of a $475,000 trust fund established for her. Italy's black-shirted Fascist army has again sworn its allegiance to King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, in Rome.

JONES COUNTY COTTON CROP IS A BIG ONE

Reports from Jones county show that a big crop of cotton has been gathered, with possibly a fourth of the crop to pick yet. There was an unusually heavy acreage this year and their fight against the grasshoppers was very successful, resulting in a big yield. Late feed was damaged by the early frost, but there will be no shortage in that line, since almost every farmer had enough early maize to care for his needs. There is a big turkey crop all over the county, which will bring in a good sum of money at Thanksgiving time and through the Christmas holidays. The usual heavy grain acreage was displaced by cotton this year. Cotton picking prices range from $1.00 to $1.25 per hundred pounds.

The three large towns of the county, Anson, Stamford and Hamlin, which are situated in a triangle, about twenty miles distant from each other, are prospering as a result.

KLAN RIOTS IN OHIO WILL BE INVESTIGATED

NILES, Nov. 3.—With twenty-five klansmen and Knights of the Flaming Circle, their sworn foes under arrest, Niles, under martial law had been restored to peace today. The troops are to be withdrawn. The governor, however, said he would open a sweeping investigation and learn why the civil authorities were not prepared to handle the situation when they had plenty of advance warning of what might take place.

GETS SPANISH WAR CHECK

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—Louis H. Kenan recently received a pay check for his service as first lieutenant of the second Georgia infantry in the Spanish-American war, after 26 years. The check was discovered when Kenan wrote to Atlanta for some war records. The check was found among his papers.

HIKE AND CAMP AT SCOUT HUT BY TROOP NO. 1

Troop No. 1 Boy Scouts of Cisco, enjoyed a most delightful outing at Lake Cisco Friday night. Leaving the city early in the evening they arrived at the camp in time to prepare a camp supper, and every scout did his bit in preparing the meal, gathering fuel, etc., as commanded by the scout master, R. M. Herron of Kleiman's department store, is now drilling the troop, and reviving great interest in scout work. While holding no title, Herron deserves much praise for the interest he has aroused among the boys.

Those going on the hike and enjoying the camp were Dick St. John, Glenn Roberts, Monroe Witten, Basil Foy, Dwight Moody, Walter Stockard, Chas. Lankford, Weldon Ponnads, Frank Langston, Carl Stockard, R. M. Herron, Odie Stoval, Calhoun Hughes, Carlyle Anderson, scout master and Ernest Lennan, assistant scout master.

SEEKING TO EXPAND U. S. FOREIGN TRADE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Expansion of American foreign trade is the objective of a motive of the Department of Commerce in establishing new trade commission offices at a number of points, and the enlargement of the forces in the already existing foreign stations. New offices have been opened, or are planned, at Helsingfors, Finland; Christiania, Hamburg; Bombay and Calcutta, India; Montevideo, Uruguay; Ottawa, Canada, and Canton, China.

BALDWIN WILL BE ENGLAND'S NEW PREMIER

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Hamsay McDonald, labor premier, whose party was decisively defeated by the Tories in the parliamentary election, will resign tomorrow, it was definitely announced today. King George will call Stanley Baldwin, leader of the Tories, to form a new cabinet.

Davis and Shaver Declare Reports Encouraging But Wall Street Bets Placed Eleven To One on Coolidge

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—There is a spirit of optimism apparent around Democratic headquarters in New York City, and all reports given out are to the effect that the party of Jefferson will win out in the elections tomorrow. Since the defection of the labor leaders from the La Follette standard and their endorsement of Davis for President, and Al Smith for governor, it is conceded that Democratic chances for carrying New York have been enhanced.

John W. Davis thus expressed himself on the political outlook: "I am confident. Reports from every state are most encouraging. I do not believe Coolidge has gained anything, but on the contrary, has lost strength, while La Follette does not seem to be as strong. There is a decided swing in our direction." Davis said today he will make his final appeal over radio tonight. He will broadcast his last political speech in this campaign from the WEAF at 9:15 for thirty minutes, which will be relayed all over the country.

Tomorrow's march to the polls will be the greatest electoral trek the world ever witnessed. Fully thirty millions are expected, the balloting eclipsing the record vote of 1920 by four millions. All three parties are confident of victory, while neutral observers agree it looks like a Coolidge victory. Wall street is betting eleven to one that he will succeed himself. Today Clem Shaver, Democratic chairman, however, was not alarmed by the straw votes and other indications of Republican winning, but is relying on the "great silent vote" such as won for Wilson over Hughes. In that memorable year it will be recalled, Hughes was picked to win much as Coolidge is now.

NEWS MAN'S MISTAKE

The names of Mrs. A. J. Olson and Mrs. C. L. Mount were inadvertently omitted from the list of ladies who are working so assiduously for the success of the Presbyterian autumn fete. The names as printed Sunday morning were compiled by the editor of the News from memory, but since there are so many enthusiastic women workers in this growing congregation, this editorial oversight will probably be pardoned.

ELECTION NEWS BE BULLETINED BY DAILY NEWS

The Cisco Daily News has made arrangements for a full election report and will bulletin same as fast as it arrives, Tuesday night. This report will include both state and national news, the bulletins arriving fifteen minutes apart.

The bulletins will start about 7:45 o'clock. If some strong-lunged Democrat will volunteer his services, the bulletins will be megaphoned before being posted.

POLITICAL ENMITY LED TO SHOOTING AT ZAPATA

LAREDO, Nov. 3.—A shot through the chest was his reward for publicly championing of Coolidge. James Durst, collector of customs at Zapata, south of here, was brought to a hospital here today critically wounded. Frederick Pueler, Democratic leader of that county, was arrested and released on bond. Political enmity prompted the shooting.

FOUR FATALLY INJURED WHEN CARS COLLIDE

CLEBURNE, Nov. 3.—Four young persons, Miss Lillie Boling, Beatrice Gatwood, Layton Boulware and Miss Hazel Daniels will probably die, hospital attendants said today, following their injuries in auto collision Sunday. The driver of the other car started to stop, but hearing the screams fled.

LABOR BUREAU HAS RENDERED GOOD SERVICE

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—One of the youngest yet most beneficial services recently instituted in Texas is the Free Employment Bureau which has been operating for approximately a year under the direction of the Labor department of the state, according to figures recently compiled by the officials of that department.

The department established and maintains in the larger cities of the state bureaus of free employment which serves primarily to enable the farmer to get in touch with farm laborers during his busy season. During the cotton season which has just closed, the office at San Antonio handled more than four thousand laborers and aided in getting these men to localities where they were needed immediately to help save the cotton crop. In the Fort Worth section the office also handled thousands of applicants, and the Dallas office supplied two thousand men to the agricultural sections of the country.

When the Rio Grande Valley cotton was beginning to suffer from the lack of pickers, the department offices recruited men and were instrumental in helping the farmers of south Texas to a large degree.

The chief difficulty in supplying the laborers is transportation, according to the officials of the department. In many cases the farmers call for their men in trucks and transported them to their farms, but no special rate on the railroads were obtainable, hence the farmers at greater distances found difficulty transporting the workers to their fields.

"The primary idea of the free employment bureaus is to furnish employment for the unemployed in the city," asserted the assistant secretary of labor. "We draw the farm help from the persons who actually need work. Not only do we serve the farmer and laborer, but we also do an economic work in saving crops which might otherwise be damaged or totally destroyed."

For the main part the offices which were established were temporary, the official pointed out, but if funds can be obtained it is hoped to maintain these branches permanently in several of the major cities of the state.

Nothing useful was ever done in a hurry.

DAVIS IS THE MAN

The assurance with which Republican party supporters now ask that that party be returned to power is most refreshing, in view of last summer's sensational disclosures at Washington.

"Party responsibility" has long been a stock phrase with Republican speakers. Back of it was supposed to be the argument that a political party proving false to its trust must be held to strict accountability, and punished for its mistakes and shortcomings.

Between the three men running for the presidency today, there is but one logical choice. If personal fitness and qualification are to be determining factors, Davis is the man!

This, however, will not appeal to the dyed-in-the-wool Republican, who never misses a chance to cast a straight ballot for the Log Cabin candidates.

COMPELLIN GPEOPLE T OVOTE

Professor Merriam of the Department of Political Science of Chicago university does not agree with Judge Landis that people who do not vote should be sent to jail.

The celebrated judge and baseball arbiter may retort that he ought to be in jail, but that does not settle the question. Professor Merriam refuses to admit even that obligatory voting is desirable.

Most people may agree with him. Men and women have struggled for centuries for the right of suffrage. If, after they, or their forefathers, have won the privilege of choosing their own rules, they see fit to enslave themselves again by not taking advantage of the victory, it is their loss more than anyone else's.

It may be that forcing them to go to the polls on election day would be unjust to the rest and harmful to society. Citizens not taking enough interest in public affairs to vote might simply make a mess of things when driven to the polls.

The real remedy, as Professor Merriam remarks, is education. Stimulate citizens' interest in and knowledge of government, and they will want to vote.

DINNER STORIES

Farmer Giles, canvassing for members for a raffle, asked one of his neighbors to enter.

"George," he said, "be you a goin' in for my raffle?"

"How much?" asked George.

"Five shillings," was the reply.

"Put me down," answered George.

"I'll pay you tomorrow."

Next day the two met again.

"Well," said George, "who won the prize?"

"I won the first prize," said the farmer.

"Wasn't I lucky?"

"Who won the second?"

"My wife won the second; wasn't she lucky?"

"And who won the third," queried George patiently.

"My darter; wasn't she lucky? By the way you haven't paid your five shillings yet."

"No," said George. "Wasn't I lucky?"

The wife of a rich man, who lacks the business acumen which made her husband wealthy, directed her secretary to balance her bank account and go through the household books.

"Very extraordinary," the secretary reported. "I find that for the last year you have used an average of four dozen cakes of soap a day at home."

"The rich woman spoke severely to her servants. She said that she realized they would always graft, but their poverty of imagination appalled her."

"When you want a little easy money," said she, "charge other things on the bill. Paint, brass polish, doorknobs, anything but soap, I'm tired of soap."

"It seems certain that the swine exhibit this year is going to be a nice feature, a number of raisers of blooded hogs having signified their intention of entering exhibits," said Mr. Robertson.

CISCO, TEXAS, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1924.

DEVOTED TO THE INTEREST OF CISCO HIGH SCHOOL

CATCH UP AND STAY CAUGHT UP!

Never get behind with your work. It is the best advice to follow; but, if you do, don't stay behind! Catch up!

Nothing is more discouraging than always to have some back work staring us in the face—an extra theme, or notebook, or report overdue—and to be trying, continually, to catch up.

Lately, everyone has been simply swamped with class work and outside duties; too; consequently, most of us are behind with our assignments, for we have a habit of laying aside about half of our work and saying, "I'll do that later when I have more time." Later, of course, we do not find that extra time—there is always something doing in this busy school—therefore, the work is left undone, and it accumulates until it looks like a mountain!

How much time and energy we would save, too! For doing back work always takes twice as much of both time and energy as work done at the proper time.

Not only would we save time and energy, but worry as well—loads of it! What haunting ghosts, stacked up assignments become! Our consciences hurt us, our teachers are cross, our grades fall, and everything goes wrong!

The remedy? Catch up and stay caught up!

"If I was going to give one piece of advice to any young fellow, I'd say: 'When you start a piece of work know what you're plannin' to do—and then go clear through with it; and in that way you won't throw away a lot of work.' A good deal of work has been wasted just in diggin' wells because whoever was diggin' gave up when he was within two foot of water."

GET BUSY RIGHT NOW HELP THE OCCIDENTAL STAFF

Have you heard the wonderful plans for the Occidental? I'm sure you are curious to know about them, aren't you? All right I'll just let you in on a part of the secret.

First, the Occidental will have an attractive, durable, leather cover. How does that sound? Then, there will be something just as attractive between the covers; photographs, for instance, of the faculty, of your class-mates—every one of them—(each class will have individual pictures); also, of our wonderful Lobo football, basketball, tennis, baseball, and track teams; of all the organizations and societies; and a special scenic section—the many beautiful scenes "in and around" Cisco will be pictured. Oh, yes, and snap shots galore! Of your best girl, your rival, your pal, your favorite posse—everything your heart could desire.

The literary section also, will be very interesting and original in thought, and composition. The art section will be sweet! But we must not tell you all of the story—the Occidental when published will do that. The way to get one is to subscribe this week—pay one dollar down and the rest when it comes out. In doing this, you will not only be assured a copy, but you will be doing your part to make the Occidental what we want it to be and what you want it to be!

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE OCCIDENTAL!

LOBOES BRAND MAVERICKS 41-6

Friday afternoon on the Cisco gridiron, the crippled Lobo aggregation defeated the Eastland Mavericks 41-6. The game was hard fought from the beginning, but in the second half the Fighting Lobos proved truly worthy of their name. The Lobos scored in every quarter, but in the first half fumbled frequently. Eastland's only score was made in the second quarter on a forward pass, but failed to kick goal.

The Lobos drew blood in the first few minutes of play by kicking a field goal and from then on scored almost at will. Their goal line was never endangered but once—in the second quarter—and they could have run the score up higher if they had worked as hard in the first half as in the second. They made two touchdowns in the third quarter, and four in the fourth. Cisco kicked three goals, making the final score 41-6 in favor of the Lobos.

Wilson and Grist starred for Cisco with their great defensive playing. Fields was the hero of the second half.

WE GOT EASTLAND'S GOAT

The Pep Squad is continuing the good work they started at the first game of the season. The proof—the originality of their activities. The stunt at the Eastland game Friday proved a great success.

Eastland had the first half of the intermission between the halves in which the squad formed E. H. S. on the field, then gave a snake dance and sang. They brought the Eastland band which was an added feature.

Cisco had the second half of the intermission. The girls, dressed in their costumes—and hats—matched onto the field and formed an "L" for Loboes. The Boom! Bab! Loboes, Rah! Rah! yeh was given, and the "L" marched off the field and gave the "Swing Song" to the awe of the Eastland spectators.

A goat, bearing the inscription "Cisco Loboes" was brought from Eastland with the intended use, if Eastland beat Cisco, of Cisco's being "the goat". But did they beat us? Not by a long sight! After the third quarter, Eastland showed real sportsmanship and gave the goat to Cisco. They even agreed we earned it, which was quite different from the spirit shown by Abilene!

IF ABILENE IS ASHAMED WHY DOESN'T SHE GET BUSY

Abilene is using every method to throw Cisco from the race for state championship. Two men, disguised as Mr. Godbey and the county superintendent, went to the home of Mr. Couch, father of a Cisco star, and had him sign a statement which was supposed to prove the eligibility of Cecil, when in fact it proved quite the opposite. The statement was to prove that Cecil Couch was ineligible to play with the Loboes. These men were Abilene citizens. These same men tried to secure a similar statement proving "Chigger" Brown ineligible. This attempt also failed.

If Abilene is not favorable to such underhand dealings, the authorities should be interested in helping stop these outrages which only prove Abilene's bad sportsmanship.

MOVE RIGHT ALONG, SENIORS!

The Senior class has organized, elected officers, selected colors, and flowers, ordered class rings and invitations, had a few business meetings and one social—in other words, has made a very good start toward doing some very creditable work. The Senior class of '25 certainly should be the liveliest wire in school and the banner class of the Senior classes of C. H. S., since it is the largest class C. H. S. has had in years and its members are possessed of unusual abilities and varied talents. But, as I started to say, there are so many things the class should do that it has not done; for instance, every member should pay his dues regularly. Another thing, arrangements should be made for one meeting and one social a month, to keep up the interest of the class. And, above all, every member should support the Occidental!

Surely you realize that this year's annual is your own—belongs to you more than to any other class—and that its success largely depends upon your individual interest and help. Of course the staff is directly responsible for its being a book that C. H. S. will be proud of, but the staff alone can not make it so! The staff must have the backing of the entire school and particularly of the Senior class.

It is up to you, Seniors, to do this thing and do it unaniously. Begin by each of you having your picture made this week. Let's have every member of the Senior class represented!

Increase your class spirit. Support its activities. Lend a hand!

TEAM '24

Dedicated to the Loboes and Coach by

The Duet—R. F. and A. N. Sing to tune: "Pal Of My Dreams." Dear old team, how we love you You're the one for us! Dear old team, we can back you With both song and fuss. You're the grandest of teams. The best up to date. We believe you will win This year at the state. Every girl in the Pep Squad Is yelling for you, For we know you will give us The best you can do. We'll always back you The same as before, Oh! how we love you Team '24.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THOSE WHO WONDER

Because we get out in time for the foot ball games on Fridays, it does not follow that the students get to miss any of their classes. Far from it! We have the whole number of periods, forty-five minutes each. To carry out this plan, classes are started at 8:30. We run through five periods in the morning; one hour for lunch follows, and then two periods in the afternoon; which lets us out at 2:45, giving us plenty of time to get to the park. This schedule seems to appeal to the student body as several have expressed the wish that we could carry out this plan every day. In order that the public may not think we miss our classes, we say right here that we do not have one minute cut off of the periods. Our school work is not neglected for football—that is, it's not the fault of the management if it is, for we have the time and opportunity to do every bit of it. Of course, football is a bit existing to all of us, and as the hour approaches, maybe our thoughts do wander to Chesley field a "little but then—look what a team we have! Besides, the "grown folks" get somewhat excited, too. No, dear public, the school work goes on, believe me!

HALLOWE'EN GREETINGS GIVE PLEASURE

It is always sweet to be remembered—and this is just what happened at "this office" this week. "And the Gobble-uns'll git you Ef you don't watch out." Wish we were in Cisco to keep them from catching you. Do be careful and watch out.

ZEKE AND LINOUISE.

WOUFF HONG ALIAS RADIO CLUB BECOMES AGAIN A LIVE WIRE-LESS

The Wouff Hong, otherwise known as the radio club, met Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. The house was called to order by Lee Stockard, and nominations for president, vice president and secretary-treasurer resulted in the following being elected: President, David Pierce; vice president, Tom Foley; secretary-treasurer, Lee Roy Stockard. After the election it was decided by vote that the dues should be fifty cents a semester.

The club then selected a number of magazines to subscribe for, and discussed plans for future work. We will continue our study of the code and other subjects pertaining to radio and wireless. It is our desire to install a receiver and small transmitter. If we cannot do this, one of the members will bring a set to the meetings in order that we may, after the business and study of the club is over, enjoy musical or other programs broadcast.

After this very interesting meeting, the club adjourned to meet November 12. Those present were, Dan Boone, Joe Lee Moore, Carl Stockard, Con Collins, Edgar Noel, Herman Terry, W. D. Evans, Tom Foley, Lee Roy Stockard, David Pierce and Mr. Ford, the sponsor. New members are invited and we promise them a hot initiation.

BY THEIR WORDS

YE SHALL KNOW THEM Bernie—"Yancy gave them to me." ("Roses win fair ladies hearts"—so Yancy thinks.) Robert—"Oh! I'm so thrilled!" Oh! Sub-a-r! Dudley—"In type class" "Pass the erasers, please." Bonnie—"Well I'm expelled for the rest of the day, and so is Cecil. I reckon I'll be forced to take him to the show—again!" Idellah—"Know any more jokes?" Pauline—"Avalon, let me have your vanity."—"Bernie, do you have a lip-stick?" Evelyn—"My hair is getting curly—most certainly 'tis." Ernie—"During the Breckenridge game" "What are you doing, Ceedy?" Ceedy—"Nothing." Ernie—"That's what I thought." Mr. Ford (in chapel) "Want some Hershey, Miss Harlan?" (It happens every day!)

Avalon—"Gotta comb? Lend it to me, quick!" Ed—"Discussing Chaucer in English class" "Oh, that old bird kicked off about the 16th century."

THE SCRUB

On the side-line here I sit Watching the games of the season. Why I'm not in there doing my bit Only the coach knows the reason. I work just as hard, all the rules I obey, And come out to practice every day Just the same as the first team. Oh, say! Do you think if I'm faithful, stay right on the job, At nine o'clock sharp go to bed, and don't sob; Eat three squares a day quite regularly, Keep fit everyway, Coach will let me occasionally Try my hand in the game? You see The first team gets so many chances to play And I sit here with always the fear That maybe I won't make the first Team even next year! ALFRED CARROLL.

YE DANCING SCHULE

Two teachers were caught doing something in one of the halls the other day, that looked remarkably like dancing—and they were lady teachers, too—but exactly what the step was, whether flea-hop, camel-walk, or what new syncope we shall not divulge just yet; no, nor the names of the "light trippers of the fantastic."

If we find anything else that in any way leads to the conclusion that teachers are not really harsh, cruel tyrants, but just real human beings like ourselves, we shall draw up a petition for the opening of a class in the aesthetic art, whereby all—both teachers and pupils—may become thoroughly polished. Attention Randolphs!

JUNIOR DRAMATIS CLUB GIVES ITS FIRST PLAY

Did you know that the Junior Dramatic club has already given one short, one act play, "Macbeth"? Well it has. When? Last Thursday night. The characters were Carl Mount, Bertha Helen Triplett, Eileen Wilson, Richmond Campbell and Nellie Blagburn. Carl Mount was the congressman, who was in favor of prohibition, but enjoyed a drink of booze, just the same. One other number on the program was a piano solo, "Spring Song," by Bessie Olson.

Each performer acquitted himself (or herself) most creditably. The J. D. C. is moving along splendidly under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hazelwood. We are expecting something for the public to enjoy in the near future.

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB GETTING READY FOR BUSINESS

Tuesday night, October 28, the Senior Dramatic club met in the High School Auditorium. As the plays for the coming year have not arrived, Miss Harlan gave the club some of the rules for the technique of dramatic art. The following were appointed to attend to the business of the club: Stage manager, Dudley Lee; ticket manager, J. D. Carroll; prompter, Willie Sandifer; advertising, Ruby Payne; electrician, Edward Lee. The next meeting will be held Nov. 11.

C. H. S. ORCHESTRA DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINS THE STUDENT BODY

Our High school orchestra delightfully entertained the student body Monday morning in chapel. The following program was given: "You Can Have Every Light on Broadway, But Give Me the One Light at Home"—Orchestra. "Monosa"—Piano Solo—Alberta Parsons. "My Sweetheart"—Orchestra. "Marcheta"—Duet—Mr. Kelley and Ruth Johnson. "The Storm"—Orchestra. "Souvenir"—Violin Solo—Ruth Johnson. "Valse Adoration"—Orchestra. Mr. Kelly has worked faithfully with the orchestra and we see a marked improvement since the beginning of the year. The addition of our new violinist, Ruth Johnson, has helped remarkably, and by the end of the year we hope to have one of the largest and best orchestras in the state. (Even beat Abilene.)

B. Y. P. U. MAKES CALL FOR NEW MEMBERS

The young people of the Baptist church—most of whom are pupils of C. H. S.—have organized a B. Y. P. U. Of this organization, the following are officers: Quozence McClung, president; Glenn Richardson, secretary-treasurer; Edwin Bates, leader for Group A; Velma Morrison, leader for Group B; and Mattilee Kuncle, pianist.

The union has an orchestra and those assisting in this are Ruth Johnson, violin; Mattilee Kuncle, piano; Frank Holmesley, cornet, and Leavurle Andrus, trombone. A cordial invitation is issued to anyone willing to assist in the orchestra or any other work of the union. Thirty-five members were present on Sunday evening, and it is the wish of the organization to double this membership. Time: Sunday 6:30 p. m. Place: Kindergarten next to Baptist church. Boost the B. Y. P. U.

HOME ECONOMIC CLUB MEETS, WORKS, PLAYS AND EATS

The Home Economics club met Wednesday afternoon. Club pins were selected for members and the club decided to help in the management of the lunch room, for which it will receive one-fourth of the proceeds.

After the business session, the following program was given: Piano Solo—Louise Clark. Value of High School Course in Cooking—Eulah Mae Evans. Some Attributes of a Well Dressed Woman—Pauline Flaherty. The Care of Clothing—Willie Sandifer. After the program refreshments of Hot chocolate and sandwiches were served.

MR. GOBBEY TAKES STRAW VOTE WEDNESDAY MORNING

Our Superintendent gave us a very instructive talk at Wednesday morning assembly, on the coming elections, the use of the electoral college, and the new department in the Texas gubernatorial race. Afterward, he asked to see the hands of those who believed certain ones would be elected. It was surprising to see how many pupils had already decided. Many believed Coolidge would be elected, a few thought Davis would, but La Follette had not one "convert". Many thought Mrs. Ferguson would be the next governor of Texas and some voted for the Republican nominee. Mr. Godbey always has something interesting for us each Wednesday morning, and we look forward to his day with pleasant anticipation.

"It takes a level head to win—a level hand, a level eye. But sometimes, even when you try your level best, things go awry—you drop the ball, you miss your aim, you slip a cog and queer the game. Then comes the test—don't make excuse; don't sulk; stand up in your shoes. Remember, in a certain sense, it takes a level head to lose!"

THOU SHALT NOT COVET

As I was walking down the street I met a man with great big feet; His head was small, his ears were big. He walked and grunted like a pig. He said: "I wish my feet were small, My eyes are good, but I'm too tall. Just look at that man over there—He looks so nice! Now, that's not fair."

A little girl came tripping along And as she tripped, she sang a song; But suddenly, she stopped so pert, "Oh, my! I wish I had that skirt. I have a new one, not pretty like that. And I believe it makes me look fat. I'll tell my Dad; he'll see that I get A skirt like that—oh! you just bet!"

A young flapper passed with very straight hair With big blue eyes and wide baby stare, She tossed her head and kicked her heel, Murmuring, "Gee, how good I feel?"

I strolled along right by her side And said, "I wish to compliment you, girlie!" She sighed, "Oh! if my hair was only curly!"

Well! I was a disappointed one! I had looked at her with eyes of fun And thought, "Here's one satisfied with self, She envies no one her looks or her peif!"

But I found she wanted curly hair And wasn't proud of her baby stare Or big blue eyes. There is a law, "Thou shalt not covet"—I never saw One who obeyed it, nor did you. We all want something We haven't, that's true.

SENIORS HALLOWE'ENED IN TRUE TOM O'SHANTER STYLE

Miss Lola Lennon was hostess to the Seniors, Mavericks, and Loboes Friday night at the home of Mrs. Donahue on Seventh street. The living room was very artistically decorated in black and gold, black cats, witches and bats.

When the guests were assembled in the living room, the lights were turned out and everyone was marched through the "valley of the shadow of death", where he saw all kinds of strange things. At the end of the trail everyone was given a piece of paper with his fortune on it. Some of the fortunes certainly did suit the owners. Delicious punch was served to the guests at this time.

Several contests were run—one being, the water drinking contest. Sides were chosen and a boy and girl selected from each side. The boy was to drink the water and the girl to feed it to him with a spoon. Vista and Glenn won the prize. A prize was offered, also, for the best ghost story told. Vista also captured this prize.

Dancing on the front porch proved an enjoyable entertainment to many. At a late hour the party paraded through town, then back to the hostess' home where other interesting games were played. Some time during the small week hours sandwiches, coffee and pie were served to about sixty guests.

SPOOKY DANCE ENJOYED BY YOUNGER SET

A number of C. H. S. exes, foremost among whom were Misses Flora Mae Stockard and Louise Smith, and Mr. Billy Bacon, entertained with a lively Halloween party Saturday night, in an old vacant house on Twelfth street. Throughout the entire house Halloween decorations were in evidence. Crepe paper streamers were fastened everywhere, while over the walls witches riding on broom sticks, skeletons, and goblins, made for those "dear departed" who return every October 31 to ride again over the scenes where their former "occupations" carried them. Amber lights and autumn noisettes were an added artistic, yea, ghost-like, setting for the bright and fancy costumes of Gypsy colonial dame, Spanish senorita, umbrella clown, and all the weird and spooky ones.

The favorite diversion of the evening was dancing, the old-time barn dances and square dances being especially enjoyed. A special feature on the program was the initiation into the secret society of the spirits of the underworld—the "Truth Society," J. E. Boyce and Bernie were the most truthful of all that were initiated. Cards and forty-two were played by those not dancing.

Refreshments were served to about one hundred guests. Mr. Whitehead (in geometry): "Elsworth, how did you get Myer out of your name? It ought to be Mayer."

LOBO QUEENS TO PLAY PARKS

The "Lobo Queens" will go to Parks Thursday with the anticipation of their first victory. Parks is reputed as having a strong team, since they held Breckenridge to a close score last year. The game is expected to be hard fought, for the "Queens" are anxious to establish a reputation, both in superior athletics and clean sportsmanship. Miss Trigg is coaching the "Queens" this year and under her leadership, results are sure to be obtained. The Pep Squad will be taken to Parks, according to plans.

HI-Y SPONSOR ENTERTAINS THE CLUB

The HI-Y boys were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wells on West Tenth street, Saturday night. All members of the HI-Y were present to share in the games and fun of Halloween. Between games of forty-two and others, refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Wells.

After the games and refreshments a business meeting was held and various topics discussed. All expressed having spent a delightful evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Wells are real entertainers.

ARTIST OF THE BLACK CAT DEMONSTRATES HIS MAGIC

Mr. Haley, singing evangelist at the Christian church, during the present meeting, gave C. H. S. a demonstration of his magical powers at the Monday assembly by performing a number of clever tricks. He rolled up his sleeves to prove he had nothing up them, for said he, "It is a politician and not a magician who has something up his sleeve."

Every trick he performed was about as "clear as mud" to us—he was so swift we could not follow and, as he said, "A trick is awfully simple, but if you miss it, it is simply awful." And it was! In "trying to finish the monkey business which Darwin started several years ago," he used a monkey which fitted his hand like a glove, and which he used with such cleverness, the monkey seemed alive—and not much like a monkey, either.

Mr. Haley is an excellent speaker and teller of jokes as well as a magician. Added to this, he sings well, and as he sings, draws beautiful pictures representing his songs. Such entertainers are always welcome to C. H. S. We only wish we could have them often.

OVERHEARD

Lerma: "Isn't that beautiful? What is the lovely thing she is playing?" Edward: "Looks like a piano to me."

Mr. Wells: "We want to reserve a place for Eastland supporters." Miss Harlan: (Senior Dramatic meeting): "Now there will be no kissing in the rehearsals. If a play calls for it, then I will take you individually for practice."

Miss Harlan: "Now the electrician must be one who knows just when the lights are on, or when they are off."

Miss Leighton (In Foods class): "This is called gruel, and it is for sick people and babies." Dixie A.: "Well, we don't need it."

Miss Shear (In Phy. Geog. class, discussing whales): "I saw a whale jaw bone that was as high as this room." Byron Clements: "Gee, I'm glad they don't live in Texas."

Student: "What are you doing wandering around in the halls?" Professor (C. J.): "Oh, I'm seeing that everyone is in his right place."

Boy in Study Hall: "May I move. The sunshine is on this seat." Malcolm: "Brush it off!"

Miss Leighton: "I'll call the roll and if you're absent, you'll know you are in the wrong place."

Student (Friday): "Just one more class and then I eat!" Teacher: "Children, you should all know something of your country!" Student: "I do, I've been all over West Texas."

First Boy (at Mr. Starrs): "What is that noise?" Second Boy: "That's Frank and Evans singing." First Boy: "Oh, I thought it was the windmill."

Mr. Whitehead (in geometry): "Elsworth, how did you get Myer out of your name? It ought to be Mayer."

Student: "I do, I've been all over West Texas."

First Boy (at Mr. Starrs): "What is that noise?" Second Boy: "That's Frank and Evans singing." First Boy: "Oh, I thought it was the windmill."

Mr. Whitehead (in geometry): "Elsworth, how did you get Myer out of your name? It ought to be Mayer."

In History Class—Miss Trigg:

"Where was the 'Library of Ashurbanpal'?"

Floyd Cooper: "As she vanished, who vanished?"

Miss Trigg: "Richard, locate Babylon."

Richard Mc.: "I don't know where Baby-Lonia is."

Oh, why can't I write poetry, Or write something cute and clever, When I start to write for the Gusher No news from my brain can I sever.

Mrs. Hazelwood: "Then what became of Shakespeare?" Con Collins: "He died."

Cecil Bostic: "One of Ben Johnson's comedies is 'Silent Women.'" Chigger: "No! That would be tragedy!"

BASKETBALL LOBOES ALSO COMING OUT FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Coach Whitehead, who turned out such a wonderful basketball team last year within such a short time, sees even greater prospects for this year, and is beginning to form the new team. As the football season is still in its height, many of the men, of course, will not get into basketball practice yet, but he is hoping to whip into shape a championship team as soon as the football season is over. We have some new and promising material which under Coach Whitehead's capable instruction will become star players. Some of them have been practicing about three weeks, now, and have got into mid-season form.

Last year was the first year that basketball in Cisco, drew enough interest to finance itself. This year we are sure to do even better financially; but the thing we are going in for with all our might is the state championship in basketball just as we are in football. We want a basketball "loving cup" too, and we're going to have it. Watch us!

LAZINESS AS IS LAZINESS

Some people think laziness can be acquired, but that is not so. Good old genuine laziness is not acquired, it is a talent born in one, and cultivated more or less, as the case may be.

I claim to be a genius at laziness—an artist, as it were. I am not afraid of work as long as I am not actively connected with it. I am convinced that work is for energetic people; it keeps them occupied and out of mischief, I am also convinced that work is not for lazy people; work and laziness will not mix any more than laziness and water, and you know what throwing water in a bed will do for the occupant.

My physiology says that fat provides the body with energy; still, I have noticed that most fat people grow lazy, or most lazy people grow fat—which is it, Troy? They call both those born lazy and those who think they have acquired laziness, loafers, and do not between me and you and the door knob, I object to being classified with those who have not the genuine laziness—I was born that way!

THEY SAY THAT—

Miss Jones spent the week-end visiting parents and friends at Brownwood, her home town. Pauline Proper, of Breckenridge, was a pleasant week-end visitor at the home of Marjorie Morse.

Avalon Nabors attended a dance at Albany Friday night. Jimmie Fields was a Stamford visitor Saturday.

Randolph College will play Thorp Springs College at Chesley Field Monday afternoon. Coach Chapman, Mr. Ford, Ed. Brown, Phil Berry, Carl Johnson, Oda Alsbrook and Jack Moss attended the Baylor-A. & M. game.

Lerma Bates has returned from Arlington where she was been visiting her father. Coach Whitehead motored to Comanche to attend the Comanche-Breckenridge game.

Miss Winifred Smith, who is a student of A. C. C., visited Miss Mona Roundtree and Artex Wheatley, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Carl Johnston says that the referee for Friday's game must have taken a correspondence course in penalizing.

Marvin Boyd took Mr. Whitehead's place as reporter of Friday's game, to the Star-Telegram.

The Choral Club has received its new music and has begun active work. About twenty girls were out last week for practice and those who were in the building say the music sounded "mighty" pretty.

The referee was from Abilene! Was that why he so kindly touched Cisco's ball?

Abilene's Eagles went to Fort Worth in high-feather Friday—but came back with them all dropping—that is all that were left. Truly, "as ye sow, so shall ye reap."

Ancl Cagle says the reason he liked the last part of the Rise of Silas Lapham the best, was because he didn't have to read any more.

ARMISTICE DAY GAME WILL BE DECISIVE ONE

The Lobos meet the Ranger Bull Dogs Tuesday, November 11 at Ranger. This game will reduce the number of undefeated schools of the district to two, and the winner will probably be matched with Comanche on November 15. No definite information has been received from the Interscholastic League that the winner will be matched with Comanche, but it is assumed here that such will be the case.

An effort was made to get Ranger to agree to set the date up to Friday or Saturday of this week, but the authorities there deemed it best to play the game as scheduled, inasmuch as they have already made their plans for the Armistice day game. Comanche is scheduled to play Brownwood this week-end, and will have the advantage over the Eastland county entrant because of the fact that they will have a full week of rest before playing the final game, while the winner of the Cisco-Ranger game will have but four days between games.

No team in this section of Texas has shown more remarkable improvement as the season has progressed than has Ranger. Coach Blair Cherry of the Bull Dogs, had difficulty in getting his men to train properly at the beginning of the season, and Ranger got off to a bad start, losing their first two games and getting scoreless ties in their first two class A games.

However, the team has shown great strength. Perhaps their best game was with Breckenridge. They held the Buckaroos to a scoreless tie and did the same with Comanche. They defeated Eastland 13-9, and Cox was in the game going his best the entire time. The Ranger boys have their claws set for the Lobos, and will assuredly put up the battle of their lives to win from Cisco.

Ranger always gives Cisco a terrific battle. Last year they held the Lobos to the close score of 6-0, and it was only by the hardest work that the Lobos won out. This year Ranger is undefeated and has a chance at the district title. They have already tied a game with Comanche, and they feel that if they can get by Cisco that they will win the championship of the district and get into the state finals.

The Lobos, on the other hand, have everything at stake in this game. Due to the fact that Comanche defeated Breckenridge, a team that tied Cisco, Cisco must defeat Ranger who tied Comanche in order to be in the running. Should they lose to Ranger or only get a tie with them, there is a chance that the Lobos will be doped out of the running by virtue of Comanche having defeated a team that tied the Lobos. Should the Lobos succeed in running up a good score on Ranger, there is a chance that the showing against the team that tied Comanche may result in Comanche being doped out and the Lobos being awarded the title without the necessity of a play off.

This is not based on any official ruling of the Interscholastic League, but comparative scores were used to determine some district championships last year, and it might be used this year.

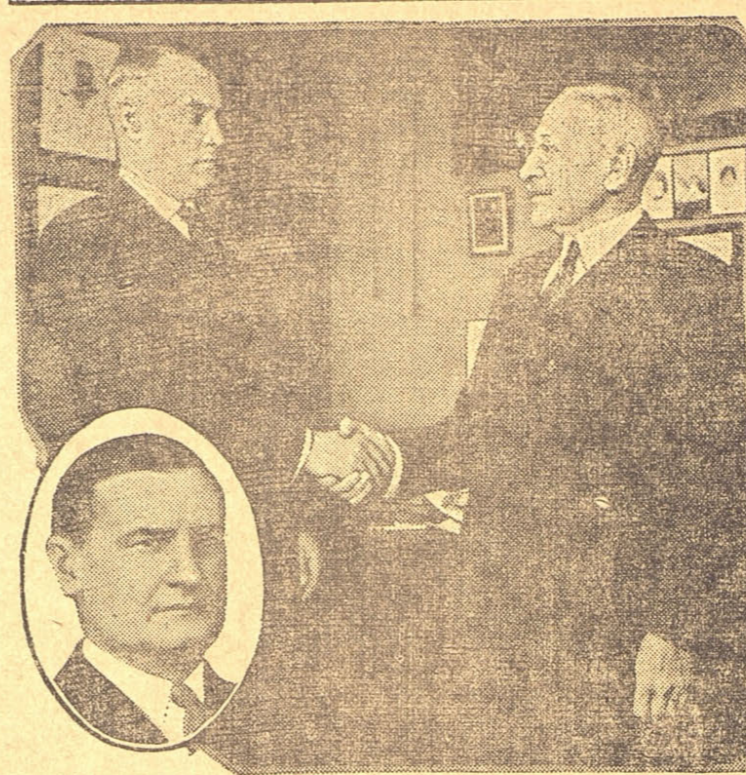

Local fans feel that the Lobos should win this game. They have gone through their slump. Their showing against Breckenridge left them very humble and to a great extent, knocked their over confidence from them. The injured men are getting back in condition. There is every chance that Browne may be able to enter the game against Ranger. Fields has recovered from his injured knee and was again able to strut his stuff against Eastland. Irving's knee is greatly improved and with the rest before the game with Ranger, he should be in fine trim for the game. McCrea is still suffering from his twisted ankle, but with a full week to go should be in shape by November 11. Speights has been in poor physical condition for several weeks due to stomach trouble. However, he is again rounding into shape and should show some of the form against Ranger he showed against the teams in the pre-season games. Strickland is also in good condition again.

This game will be one of the most important games of the season. It will undoubtedly be the district semi-final, and it may be the district final game. Ranger plans to advertise the game extensively over the district, and a crowd fully as large as the crowds at Abilene and Breckenridge respectively, will likely be on hand to see the game. Under the new ruling of the Interscholastic League there can be no tie games played. This game will eliminate either Cisco or Ranger, and the winner will have a good chance to go to the state semi-finals, or the final game.

ANOTHER TEA POT DOME IS NAVY RESERVE

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 3.—Discovery of helium content in gas from a well recently brought in near Woodside, in eastern Utah, by the Utah Oil and Refining company, is the claim of John C. Howard, president, who revealed that the geological structure near Woodside has been set aside by President Coolidge as "Helium Reserve No. 1."

Plans are under way, it was learned here, for exploration by the federal government of the Woodside area to determine the extent of the gas supply and ascertain how great a deposit of the "lifting power" for dirigible airships may be available in the Rocky Mountain region.

If the helium content is sufficient, it was predicted here that a huge plant for the construction of army and navy dirigibles will be erected near the "discovery well" at Woodside.

Two years ago, according to Howard, the company of which he is president geologized the Woodside structure. At a heavy outlay a well was drilled in the desert country under most adverse conditions. Huge

FLAPPER BRIDE SAYS HUSBAND'S MOTHER IN PLOT

HUGO, Okla., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Winona Green, pretty Hugo "flapper" bride, celebrated her 24th birthday in a Little Rock jail, the central figure in a double murder mystery which baffled for weeks the police of Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Mrs. Green who lived here until recently, is charged with the murder of her father-in-law near Little Rock, and her mother-in-law near Picher, Okla. It was only after 20 hours grilling that the girl-wife, confessed to the slayings, finally crying:

"I will tell all to save Roy; he is innocent and knows nothing."

This is her story: She and Roy's mother plotted to kill the elder Green for his insurance. Winona did the shooting, she said. The will was probated and the insurance paid. After several weeks they took a trip to Oklahoma, going to Tulsa, Pawnee, and several other cities. At Picher, where her mother-in-law owned property, Winona confessed, she killed Mrs. Green. Her body was found in a secluded spot in the hills on directions furnished by the "flapper" slayer.
