Venerable Cisco Doctor Honoree at Birthday Dinner at Home of J. W. Mancill Sunday; Is 87 and Spry

BIGGER CISCO THAN WHEN HE PREACHED HERE

Rev. Henry Owens, former minister of the Presbyterian church of Cisco, but now stationed at Hillsboro, was a recent guest here between trains, and met some of his old friends. "But I hardly knew where to go after leaving the train," Mr. Owens said. "I did not recognize the present Cisco as the little hamlet where I preached many years ago. My, you have grown. I don't think I ever saw any town that has improved so rapidly, and of such substantial nature. Everything seems to have been done with a view of future growth, as there is nothing temporary, but all buildings and public improvements have been made with a view of permanency. I like the way Cisco is going forward."

LOBOES PLAY HAMLIN HIGH ON TOMORROW

The Cisco Lobo baseball team will play Hamlin high school tomorrow at Hamlin. Up to date the Lobos have not lost a game—winning all three of the games previously played. Two games with Ranger, the first at Humble park, was a Lobo victory 8 to 6, and playing the Ranger team in Ranger Saturday they defeated the Bulldogs again by the same score. In the Saturday game Jobe, a new Lobo, made his first appearance in right field where his work was highly satisfactory, and he proved good at the home plate, being up five times and secured four hits. Britton Phippen, in this game got a three-bagger, which was the best showing made by either team in the game. Russell and Harvey pitched for the Bulldogs, while Petty and Phippen tossed for the Lobos.

John Barry passed through Cisco today enroute to his home in Bailey Borough, after a business trip to Cleburne.

Weird Suicide

ROBERT R. PRESTON

Gravely ill with diabetes, Robert R. Preston, twenty-one, son of a wealthy manufacturer of Oak Park, Ill., and a student in Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., tied two weights about his neck, poised on the end of a wharf and shot himself in the brain, his body falling into the waters of Lake Michigan. On his body were found diaries and notebooks, which told of his decision to have a few months' fling and then kill himself, rather than fight the lifelong battle against the dread disease.

"I have started on the 88th mile in life's journey," said Dr. W. E. Mancill, one of Cisco's pioneers and most esteemed citizens, when asked about the birthday dinner given him Sunday.

"I was 87 years of age Sunday and enjoyed the day very much at home of my son, Waddy Mancill, when all my children and grand children were present except three grand children. On other occasions we have invited in a few friends, but none were present Sunday except members of the Mancill family.

"Twelve years ago—on the occasion of my 75th birthday—my children conceived the idea of celebrating that event with a birthday dinner, and it has been kept up ever since. To me these annual meetings are a source of great pleasure, as it is a family reunion with my children and the day is most pleasantly passed on each occasion."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mancill was the scene of the 87th birthday celebration to this venerable Cisco physician, who has seen Cisco grow from a small village to a pretentious little city. Coming here from Stephens county in 1881, Dr. Mancill located on the lot where his present home stands, and which has been his home ever since.

Dr. Mancill was born in Covington county, Alabama, April 19, 1838, and moved to Texas with his wife in 1870, traveling by rail to Kose, then the terminus of the Houston & Texas Central, landing there on Christmas day. From Kose Dr. Mancill said they procured a wagon and traveled to Bosque county, where they lived until they moved to Stephens county in 1877, from which place they moved to Cisco in September of 1881. R. W. Mancill, his oldest son, was born in Alabama; J. W. Mancill was born in Bosque county. These two are the only surviving children of the six born to Dr. Mancill and wife.

Surrounded by his two sons, their wives and his grand children Sunday, this estimable citizen was the honor guest at the birthday dinner prepared for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mancill, who with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mancill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mancill of the county, Edward Mancill, student at A. & M. college, who came home for the event, and W. G. Mancill, jr., were present. Pleasant reminiscences of Cisco in the past were told by the honoree, while the young folk took kodak pictures of the assemblage and of this 87-year-old youngster.

In speaking of Cisco at the time he located here, Dr. Mancill said the town then boasted of 800 people. "But I only recall four of the families still living here who were living in Cisco when I came. These are the families of John F. Patterson, J. E. Luse, I. Lamb and Tom Johnson. The others have died, or moved away, as my memory serves me."

ABILENE WINS DISTRICT MEET OF LEGION MEN

Owing to the threatening weather early Sunday morning, comparatively few ladies of the John William Butts post auxiliary attended the meeting of the 17th district convention of the American legion, which convened in Stamford Sunday. However, some of them were present, and among them were Mrs. J. D. Alexander, who delivered an address at the afternoon session of the auxiliary. Others from this post attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bible, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mason, Messrs. Phil Keelan, Crigler Paschall, J. T. Maddux, B. V. Frost, T. M. Neil and H. G. Bailey, commandant of the local post. A most interesting program was arranged and carried out as planned, except the address of the state president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Armstrong, who was unable to be present.

The address of former National Commander Alvin Ousley was the outstanding feature of the meeting, and 2,000 people packed the Methodist church to listen to his eloquence. Giddings Stone, Brenham, first vice commander of the American legion, was a speaker at the business session. Each of the commanders of posts in the 17th district told of the condition and affairs of his charge.

The delegates were treated to a ranch barbecue served from a ranch chuck wagon, and many for the first time enjoyed a church "wagon feed." Only one incident marred the success of the meeting, and that was the accident that befell two of the Ballinger delegates—W. R. Smith and Carl Wilson—who were injured while coming to the meeting by their car turning over just north of Ballinger. Smith was seriously hurt, sustaining several broken ribs and internal injuries. He was left at the Winters hospital for treatment. Wilson was only slightly hurt.

Abilene and Baird were candidates for the next meeting in July, but Baird withdrew and Abilene was unanimously selected. The convention unanimously endorsed Gen. William Mitchell's stand on aviation, urged flying of the American flag on every public school building during study hours and indorsed the endowment plank.

Neal A. Douglass of Cleburne, accompanied by his daughters, Misses Anne and Gladys, passed through Cisco today enroute to Littlefield on business.

REV. AND MRS. A. ARNDT TO LEAVE FOR HARLINGEN

ALBANY, April 20.—Shackelford county seems to be in the throes of an intensive wildcat drilling program, the only retarding element being the shortage of water. Oil men, as well as farmers are praying for rain. Not all of the operators are playing for wildcats, however.

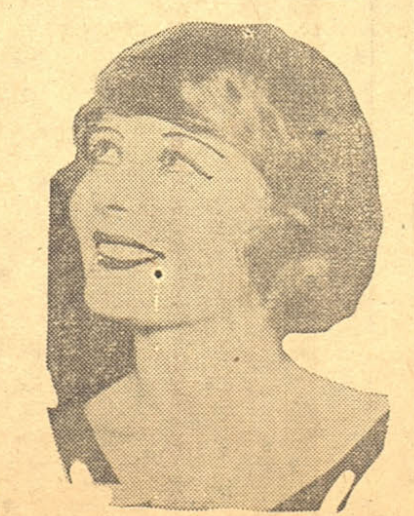

The chief interest lies in the Jeter-Moberly field, surrounding the new Hope Petroleum corporation's well, which has been making 130 barrels daily since drilling in some 30 days ago from the 980 foot level, there being eight tests now drilling in this district, with more to start soon. Landreth Production corporation, which sold Shackelford county interests to the Phillips Petroleum corporation some months ago in one of the biggest deals of the year, has reentered the county, and is now drilling two tests, one on the Moberly lease, the other on the Kendale ranch, survey 20, Blind Asylum lands, three miles southeast of Albany.

Other wildcats now drilling include the Hays, on survey 36, Blind Asylum; Merry Brothers Claussell No. 1, on the T. E. & L. No. 587, Brock & McClain survey 29, E. T. Ry., Loggie on Black ranch lease.

In the Sedwick country the latest producer is that of Paul Helf, Brown No. 1 on survey 67, Lunatic Asylum lands, for initial production of 20 barrels from 367-foot level.

ATTORNEYS CHARGED WITH HIDING LOOT ACQUITTED
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 20.—Wallace Davis and Tom Poe, attorneys, were acquitted by a federal court jury here Saturday of charges of possessing and concealing $100,000 worth of stolen bonds, part of the loot of the $2,000,000 Rondout, Ill., train robbery. The jury was out one hour and 15 minutes. Wallace Davis is a son of the late Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas.

Actress Dying?

WINIFRED W. HART

Mrs. Winifred Westover Hart, film actress and estranged wife of William S. Hart, movies "Two Gun Man," is reported near death from a heart attack in her Los Angeles, Cal. home.

TWO PRETTY GARDENS ON W. FOURTH STREET

Owing to the scarcity of moisture pretty gardens and lawns are not as conspicuous in Cisco this spring as in former years. However, there are some nice vegetable gardens, and pretty shrubbery, notwithstanding the dry spell that has prevailed. Among these are two nice gardens growing side by side on West Fourth street, where Alex Spears and Dan Smith both have something growing for the table. There is not as large a variety as is customary on these garden plots, but those vegetables that are growing are doing fine, and look thrifty. Onions and Irish potatoes are nearly ready for the table, and soon they will be serving new potatoes and onions, as well as some other choice spring eats from the garden.

In addition there are many fruit trees on these lots, all laden with fruit that will ripen in season. Both are specializing in pecans, and several pecan trees are bearing, and others nearly ready to bear. The peach, plum and apricot trees are especially prolific. Beauty, as well as utility, features the products on these lots. There are roses in profusion. Perhaps one of the largest and most varied assortment of roses is found on the Spears lot, and it is indeed a beautiful sight to see the many roses now in bloom.

But the rains will come in due season, and the beauty spots of Cisco will not be isolated instances, as there are many pretty lawns and garden spots that only await watering to make the entire city a pleasing spectacle.

WILDCATting ACTIVE NOW IN SHACKELFORD

ALBANY, April 20.—Shackelford county seems to be in the throes of an intensive wildcat drilling program, the only retarding element being the shortage of water. Oil men, as well as farmers are praying for rain. Not all of the operators are playing for wildcats, however.

FISH FOR FORTY-FIVE
THRALL, April 20.—Joe Campbell and T. P. Adams of the San Gabriel community caught a fish in the Gabriel river that weighed 45 pounds. The bait was a 1 1/2 pound catfish. It was still alive when the big fish was taken from the river. Forty-seven persons partook of the big fish at a fish fry. Much was taken home.

Well Known Man Expired at Noon Today After Alighting From His Automobile—Had Not Been Sick

The sudden death this morning of Dr. W. R. DeWitt was a severe shock to the entire citizenship of Cisco. At 11:30 he drove to his home and as he left his auto he was seen to stagger and his son-in-law, Norton Gray, went to his assistance to support him into the house, but he expired in Gray's arms before they reached the building. Physicians were called at once, who pronounced his death due to angina pectoris, caused by the hardening of the blood vessels near the heart, a cause of death not uncommon, it is said, in people of his age.

Dr. DeWitt was a practicing veterinarian, and had been out on a call to treat a sick animal earlier in the day, and had returned home and gone to town, and was just returning home at the noon hour when it was noticed something was wrong, and he died as stated above. None at the Dean drug store, where he made his office, or the family had heard of him complaining lately, and his death was all the more of a shock as it was entirely unexpected, though it was stated that eight or ten years ago he was affected with heart trouble, but seemed to have overcome this complaint.

Dr. DeWitt was 66 years of age on the 24th day of last December. He was born in Tennessee, but came to Dallas, then moved to Comanche where he was in the grocery business for several years, then moved to De Leon, where he continued in the same line of business. He came to Cisco from the latter place about eighteen years ago, where he has resided up to his death today, pursuing the occupation of a veterinarian.

He is survived by a widow and five children. Roy and Lloyd DeWitt of San Francisco; Mrs. H. L. DuBoe, also of San Francisco, and Mrs. E. I. Wisdom and Mrs. Norton Gray of Cisco.

Mrs. DeWitt was ill at the time and the shock was such as to make her condition at present very serious. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon from the family residence at 711 West Third street, conducted by Rev. A. C. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, with which church deceased was affiliated. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

NINE ARRESTED WHILE FISHING IN LAKE CISCO

M. H. Spoon, officer out at lake Cisco, arrested nine for illegally fishing in lake Cisco Friday—six men and three women—all colored. The offenders were arraigned in the corporation court where the women were released, and the men were fined $5 and the costs, each. Their alibi was they didn't know it was a violation of the law to fish in the lake, but one of the women remarked: "It would have been mighty little trouble for us to have gone and asked Mr. Spoon." They know better now. Spoon stated he has had considerable trouble to keep people from fishing in lake Cisco. A large number of young fish has been placed in the lake, and fishing is prohibited until the spawning period is passed.

He jumped out of the car at the first shot and led his soldiers in repelling the attackers, who escaped.

HINDENBURG FOR PRESIDENT

There is a dramatic development in the German national campaign. Field Marshal von Hindenburg, after long hesitation, agrees to run for president as the candidate of the Nationalist party.

The blood-and-iron militarist is backed by Tirpitz and Ludendorff, and is believed to be backed also by the former Kaiser himself, although the latter has made a gesture of denial.

If Hindenburg can win, with his record of reaction and with such support, probably all such efforts as the Dawes settlement are in vain.

But it seems unlikely that Hindenburg can win. The former kaiser is thought to have small influence except upon the Old Guard of Prussianism.

PRISON GATE ARRESTS

Many persons have been disgusted with the sentimental coddling of criminals by a part of the public. On the other hand, a just person also resents the unfair treatment sometimes accorded criminals who have paid the penalty for their crime by serving their prison term.

An abuse of the punished prisoner which has not received much attention is the "prison gate arrest." An English judge, in an otherwise unimportant case, recently took a stand on this point.

"It is the duty," said the judge, "of the police or other authorities intending to bring a prisoner to future trial to make up their minds betimes and give proper notification of prosecution intentions."

Certainly the prison gate arrest must create bitterness and cause resentment rather than humility or a determination to go straight.

After the scientists have learned how to make gold by taking one electron from every atom of mercury, some master crook may add an electron to every atom of gold and use the stuff to make thermometers.

It will probably require lots of visioning, and planning, and persistence, but a bridge must and will be built across Williamson Dam—and before this time next year.

DINNER STORIES

The benevolent old lady was about to drop her usual coin in the hat of the blind beggar at the corner.

"No, lady, he's my brother." "I hope your brother is not ill," she went on.

"Oh, no, mum," was the unexpected answer, "he's taken an afternoon off an' gone to the movies."

An old salt was watching a crowd of youngsters playing perilously near the edge of the pier. Quite suddenly he rushed up to them and seized one and commenced to thrash him.

A passerby, happening to notice the affair, questioned the old man. "Well," said the old sailor, "it ain't as if I mind whether they fall in or whether they don't, but it's the uncertainty I can't stand."

As the rich man was motoring through a country district he noticed an old man seated outside a cottage with all his furniture around him.

"Poor old soul," the visitor said, stopping his car and giving the old gentleman a dollar. "What's your trouble—evicted, I suppose?"

"No, sir," was the mournful reply, "it's just my old woman white-washing."

CISCO, TEXAS, MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1925

DEVOTED TO THE INTEREST OF CISCO HIGH SCHOOL

HONESTY AND JUSTICE TO OURSELVES

Who are the honest persons? We are—if we are honest with ourselves as well as with others. First of all, we must be true to ourselves. We should not let other people have a false opinion of us, either good or bad. We are responsible for what other people think of us, to a large extent. Our character should be about the same as our reputation. If we make false impressions on others about ourselves and have people thinking we are more than we really are, then we are dishonest with ourselves as well as with them. We should not try to imitate someone else, because imitators are slaves. Imitation shows that we have no faith in our own ability, in our own talents. We will all do better eventually by simply being ourselves. It is also possible to deceive even ourselves. Pride sometimes makes us blind to the truth. It is as wrong to overestimate, as it is to undervalue ourselves. We should not want good grades for doing a little bit of work. We are dishonest if we take more than we deserve. Also, we should not seek for success that will bring failure to someone else. Honesty to self—justice to others, is a good rule to follow. If we do not use our best efforts and accomplish all that it is possible for us to accomplish, we are not giving ourselves a fair chance, nor are we just to others. Sometimes we mean to do good, but the spirit in which we do it, ruins the deed. This is not fair to ourselves. We should cultivate a good disposition. We should be just to ourselves in the way we live our lives. MARVIN BOYD.

SURE CURE FOR LAZINESS GOOD COMPANY

I often wonder How many people stop To think what a "LAZY AGE" This is. No one wants To work, or do his share In the bettering of HIS COMMUNITY. Now, just the other day I sat in the Study hall Idling away my time, Just doing NOTHING. And it occurred to me, Suddenly, that I, too, might BE BUSY As others were. Straightway I went to my locker And got a book to study. It was not a Book of law, nor medicine, Nor science, nor mathematics. It was a copy of "Huckleberry Finn." And as I read, I THOUGHT WHAT A WORLD OF PLEASURE One could get from a GOOD BOOK. At the same time inform himself, KEEP BUSY AND LAUGH. I THANK YOU.

RANGER BULLDOGS UNABLE TO RECOVER HARD HITS OF CISCO LOBOES

Coach Chapman's Loboes opened their 1925 baseball season very successfully Tuesday afternoon at Humble park. The score was 8-6 for the Loboes. Captain Petty slid some hot ones down the alley, like he meant business. In the first inning he struck out two batters and the third batter popped out to short. The first inning was easy for the Loboes. McCrea beat out a pop-up and got on first. This added pep to the team and a succession of hits, followed by Ranger errors, let the Loboes get away with a four run lead. The batters went out in one, two, three fashion in the second inning. To start the third inning off, the heavy hitting Harvey, Ranger ace, hit liner to deep right field for a home run. The others went in order. In the next three innings Ranger overcame the Loboes' four run lead by one point. Petty was shifted to left field and Phippen relieved him in the box. Ranger secured one run off Phippen in three innings, making their total six runs. In the seventh inning, with two on base, Alsobrook doubling over second, scoring two runs. Alsobrook then scored on a hit to right field. The Loboes scored another run in the eighth and held Ranger scoreless. Neither of the teams scored in the ninth. Petty pitched a great game up until the time he was replaced by Phippen. Harvey, for Harvey, had the edge on Petty, as Ranger went the route for Ranger.

JOBE FEATURED IN SECOND GAME

It would have cost John McGraw a million dollars to get what Coach Chapman got for nothing. This million dollar player of Coach Chapman's is no other than Jobe, a new recruit in C. H. S. Jobe was a former star in Putnam hi school. In the return game with Ranger at Ranger Friday afternoon, Jobe showed his worth. This was his first game with the Loboes and he made the most of it. Out of five trips to the plate Jobe made four timely hits, all of which were in the pinches and badly needed. Two singles, a double and a triple constituted Jobe's work, not including two runs as a result. Captain Petty of the Loboes had the Rangerites eating out of his hand after the near fatal first inning when Ranger got away to a three run lead. Later Jobe stepped up to bat and doubled over second. He stole third and later scored the Loboes' first run. The Loboes did not score again and neither did Ranger, until Jobe came to bat, singled and later scored his second run. This left the Loboes lacking only two runs to take the lead—they got them. Phippen relieved Petty in the eighth, holding the Bulldogs scoreless. The Bulldogs had a total of six runs off Petty in seven innings. The Loboes totaled eight runs off Marshall and Harvey in nine innings. An interesting feat of the game was the easy manner in which little Rufus let the heavy hitting Harvey down with three strikes and a wee scratch hit.

MICKIE'S MAXIMS

When the quartet went to Randolph, Shep said they wouldn't get stage fright, he knew! They didn't—there wasn't any stage! Mr. Nigro (in "Bashful Mr. Bobbs" practice)—Laveda, you'll have to accentuate that walk a little more! Laveda—How do you do that? Our teachers are so precise, Everything must be just so, But if it were not for them, And each fancy whim, Just what would we pupils know? A certain young man of the Gusher staff was seen going toward the depot yesterday at 2 o'clock. Now, what for? I read the other day that the rouge and other cosmetics used by girls today were made from insects, bugs, etc. It seems funny to me how a girl will run from a harmless little mouse and then take a crushed beetle to paint her face. That cat is still dead, too. It was the deadiest cat I ever saw! Must have been killed eight times before. A mocking bird flew to the school house roof And laughed at the noises he heard, And he thought to mimic those strange sounds Was not given to the talents of a bird. BUY THOSE OCCIDENTALS NOW, NOT TOMORROW "The Occidentals are here"—what will you think when you hear this statement, and what will you do. Will you be among those who can say, "Here, give me mine quick—Oh! aren't they good—best Occidental I ever did see!—more good photographs—and snapshots—just look at this cute page—Isn't she the sweetest thing? Oh! how handsome! Isn't he a dear? And see this—what clever writeups—" Or will you be one to say, "I wish I had bought one on time—wonder if it is too late?—let me look at yours with you, will you?" Don't be one of the latter kind. Get your Occidental now. Buy it this week. You'll be sorry if you don't. The Southwestern Engraving company says the drawings made by Miss Ruby Payne are the best they have engraved this year and that they are, on their own accord, going to enter our Occidental of '25 in the contest as the best annual of any high school or college in Texas. Now, when you see so many getting theirs, won't you feel sorry that you didn't pay your dollar for a half payment, or two dollars for full payment? The very best thing for you to do now is to take up the money—quick—then find Ed Browne, Lowery Beard or William Morse and get him to sign you up for something you wouldn't be without, when you see them, for twice the price—the best and most attractive Occidental in Texas. SENIOR VAUDEVILLE! EXTRA! EXTRA!!! If one wishes to see what Cisco high school itself is doing, well—just be present at the high school auditorium Friday night, April 24, and you will see. The senior vaudeville will consist of perhaps 10 or 12 numbers, one "stunt" or number being given by each club in the high school. In this way each club—even the faculty—will have a chance to "show off" some of the results of its year's work. Everyone who saw last year's senior vaudeville cannot fail to member the paroxysms of laughter they were forced into upon the presentation of several acts. Remember the "silent drama" presented by the faculty (they are good on those) in which a maiden was kidnapped and taken away to sea, closely pursued by her angry father, and at last rescued by the hero? Boy, that was rich! The faculty will have another program this year, and we know it will be another good one. Also you will again have the privilege of hearing "our own" quartette, which entertained us so delightfully in chapel a few mornings ago. If you feel like spending a couple of hours of real fun, then come to the senior vaudeville by all means; if not, you might as well stay at home for it is going to be the best thing in town. "Tomorrow laughed and turned away—I've changed my name, I'm yesterday!" "In putting off your tasks and ruing them, You waste more time than you would spend in doing them." "Your own good faith must be your chiefest care; No matter what some others do—play fair." Get your ticket from any Senior next week—the price is 25c straight! And we assure you the vaudeville will be worth that price!

TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL PRESS ASSOCIATION

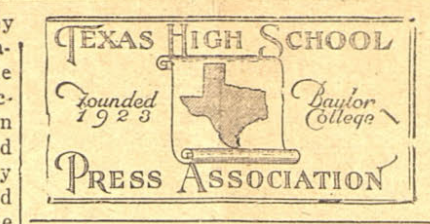

A good book is opened with expectation and closed with profit. COUCH OF CISCO WINS AT RICE Couch went to Houston Saturday to represent our school in the Rice institute track and field event. He was not allowed to run in the 100 and 220 yard dashes because he did not compete in the preliminaries. He entered three events however, and got first place in two of them. He won first in the discus throw, first in the shot put and fourth in the javelin. It is probable that he would have placed in the races if he had run. This is a fine record. Three rousing cheers for Kokomo, the little 200-pound Lobo. The faculty will give you a big surprise at the senior vaudeville. Yes, the faculty always "springs" something new and clever—and their stunt Friday night will be very, very new and clever. DEBATING CLUB SOON TO HAVE TRIAL The Debating club met Tuesday night of last week. Mrs. Kean, being ill, was not able to be present. Miss Robbins was sponsor at this meeting and she sure is a good one. Plans were perfected for the remainder of the year. Say, there is going to be one more trial in the old court before long. Some of the cast get so tickled that they laugh their left ear down, but you'll see more about that later. The debating club is also going to have a banquet at the close of school. Get ready, you speech makers. After the discussion the following impromptu program was given: A speech—"In praise of the onion," by Erwin Browne. A debate—"Resolved that the use of cosmetics should be absolutely abolished," affirmative: Jack Martin and James Flynn; negative: Lecl Bostick and Frank Holmesly. The negative won and therefore girls, you may continue to powder and paint and everything. The Debating club too, will have a "stunt" for the senior vaudeville Friday night. SHORT-O-GRAMS By defeating the Ranger Bulldogs the second time in a week, the Loboes made a clean sweep of the athletic championships of the county. County championships in football, basketball, track and baseball have been won. Add to this the championship for the Lobo Queens and that makes a clean sweep. Not so bad, considering the competition in Eastland county! Jobe did some real hitting at Ranger Friday, getting four hits out of five trips to the plate. Britton Phippen got the longest hit of the day at Ranger when he tripled to deep left center. The district meet will be held at Stephenville Saturday. The Lobo track entries are Couch, Fields, J. Phippen Alsobrook and Ezzell. The baseball team will go to Hamlin for a game Tuesday. "THE BASHFUL MR. DOBBS" RECEIVES UNPRECEDENTED PRAISE The junior class, under the direction of H. V. Nigro, gave a most artistic presentation of "The Bashful Mr. Dobbs," a three-act comedy, at the high school auditorium on Friday evening last. The attention of the full house was secured from the first rise of the curtain until its last drop. "Not a dull moment the whole evening," was the comment on every tongue. It was hard to believe that just high school juniors were on the stage, so realistic were the impersonations, so clever the stage performance and technicalities. One could see the guiding hand of a competent director. The play was enhanced by an added attraction, the lovely chorus

OUR FOLKS AND "THEIRS"

Helen Gould, ex-graduate of Cisco high school, who is now studying in Kansas City, will play over the radio on Monday evening. Helen will be remembered in Cisco not only as a very talented musician, but also as winning the prize in essay contest for Cisco in 1922. Lavinia Holderman was a visitor in C. H. S. Friday afternoon. Lavinia was formerly a commercial student, but is now studying violin in Dallas. Maurine Eastus spent the weekend at her home in Gordon. The quartette sang out at Randolph college Wednesday morning. Fred also sang a solo. A few members of the Spanish club, Mr. Kelley's quartette, and the high school orchestra gave a very entertaining program at Pueblo school house last week. Miss Trigg left Saturday for Cleburne where she attended the annual banquet of the fraternal organizations of Methodist colleges. Hear Capt. Jack's Kid Loafers famous jazz orchestra Friday evening at the Senior Vaudeville. Pep! Well, I guess! Word was received last week from Ranger asking for a reservation of 100 seats for the Ranger delegation at the May Fete. SENIORS—TWELVE OF THEM HAVE "SUNRISE BREAKFAST" Well, we have a dozen, at least, in the senior class who can get up at 6 o'clock in the morning. There may be more than that, but that was the number that went to the school building last Friday morning to go for a hike and indulge in the delight of a sunrise breakfast. If all of the class had been there they would have had a better time, probably, for "the more the merrier," it has often been said. Just the same, those who did go enjoyed them and selves cooking bacon and eggs and of beautiful girls who entertained the appreciative audience between acts. In the first interlude eight charming society girls handsomely gowned, were seen seated at card tables, while another sat at the piano and accompanied them as they sang, "Dreamer of Dreams" Little Miss Ely added to the effect and harmony by playing a violin obligato. Later, a quick change was made, and in mock operatic costumes and fancy "bonnets" the chorus came trooping in to sing, "I Love Me," a parody on the teachers, much to the amusement and delight of all. During the second interlude in picturesque Italian costumes they danced and sang, "In Sunny Italy." The setting of "The Bashful Mr. Bobbs" was in a little hotel in Splinterville, Del., owned by Mrs. Wiggins. Laveda Looney as Mrs. Wiggins was a typical landlady, voice, walk, costume, tooth brush and all. Laveda was great in her part. Howard Brown and Glen Richardson as Mr. and Mrs. Henderson made an ideal married couple, always quarreling and wondering why they ever married each other. They were the ones who opened the play, and a happy selection they were, for they caught the attention of the house with their first words. Just exactly like married folks, but we liked 'em. Evelyn Flaherty as Francis Whitaker, an athletic young lady, and Laveda McCannies as the fascinating Rosalie Otis, who was so interested in showing Mr. Dobbs (the bashful one) the beach, were exceptionally good. Obadiah Stum, Bryan Lovelady, aw shoot! just couldn't help admiring all the beautiful young ladies, especially the little French maid, Julia, Ruth Huestis, who could roll her eyes around so—aw, shoot! now could you blame him? Celestia Vanderpool or "Flurry" the little blonde movie star, was not to be outdone. Thelma Cameron played this part unusually well; she was after her man, dead or alive and she got him, and he wasn't dead—no, not hardly. Elsworth Mayer, as Marston Bobbs, the young, handsome millionaire, cousin of the famous Bashful Mr. Bobbs, was most suitable. Elsworth had a time straightening out his love affairs (not unusual eh, Elsworth?) but he finally married and settled down. (That's the way they always do.) Jean, the leading lady, was a darling with her heart almost broken, but she proved a good cure for bashfulness. Pauline Flaherty was the one who played this part so well; we can't blame any man for getting over being bashful. The famous "Bashful Mr. Bobbs," leading man of the company, was Fred McCanlies, a young, good looking millionaire, who, as we have heard, was very bashful—but Bob got over it all when he saw Jean—well as the little story book always end, "they married and lived happily ever afterwards." The play was a success in every particular, financially and otherwise. We wish it were possible for the junior class to give another evening of entertainment this year; but, as that is impossible, we shall be looking forward to next year when, as seniors, they can pleasure us often. STUDENT OPINION There is in certain ones of any student body a tendency to skip classes—not in Cisco high of course, but in some of the institutions of learning in some states. This fault may be characteristic of a few, even in the best regulated schools and might attack our own at any moment—therefore, let us be prepared against such attack by a fore-knowledge of the causes of this delinquency. So far as I have been able to investigate, there are found only two prominent causes—common cowardice and "pure" laziness. Now, that last statement might hurt the feelings of the guilty ones, but they must make their choice; they are either cowards or sluggards, and one is as bad as the other, for both are a drawback to any school. To back my statement, may I quote from my perfectly good and orthodox dictionary: Sluggard—One who is habitually idle and lazy. Laziness—indolence, sluggishness. Coward—One without courage. Cowardice—Dishonorable fear. Proof: A certain student, being lazy, does not get up his lessons but idles his time away. What is he then? A sluggard—none can dispute it. Not having up his lesson, this student fears to face his instructor, and consequently skips class—hasn't the courage to face the "music." This, all must admit, is cowardice, for fear makes him run away. It is not cowardice to fear and face the unpleasant things of life, but it is cowardice to run away from them—hence, this student is a coward. I trust I have made myself plain—that my conclusions are logical, clear, and forceful. In closing, let me repeat the oft quoted phrase of K. C. B., "I thank you."

A TOAST TO CISCO HIGH

Now here's to the Loboes Who fight on the field With that old fighting spirit That never shall yield! Here's, too, to the Queens, The young ladies who fought, And back to our city The "loving cup" brought! And here's to declaimers, Debaters, and each Who competed with our rivals By making a speech! And a toast to the teachers Who guide us aright; In the gloom and the darkness They show us the light! And here's to each student For each has a share In making the name Of C. H. S. bright and fair! And here's to the classes And clubs of our school—Each one in the building Is an important tool! Here's, too, to the spirit That infuses us so, And gives us the victory Wherever we go! And now if all these things Together we tie, And take them as one, Then—that's Cisco high, Which of all of the schools Out here in the west Is, we haven't a doubt, The strongest and best! The ruin of most men dates from some idle moment. The greatest quality of man is honor; the next, courage.

Senior Dramatic club will present "The Bowery Night School," a one act play, at the Senior Vaudeville Friday night. The setting of this little play is in New York City—at a night school—the foreign students trying to learn how to become "Americans." Phil Berry as the "Chink," Joe Corrothers as the Russian Jew, and Dudley Lee as the German school teacher, are some of the amusing roles in this clever play. QUINTETTES, QUARTETTES AND COMEDIANTES ENTERTAIN IN ASSEMBLY We had just about come to the conclusion that our Thursday morning chapel programs were all "blow-up," but the Spanish club came to the rescue by giving a very interesting program, and one that was appreciated, also. The first number was a quintet by the famous Senioritas Jackson, Robinson, Parsons, McClung and Price; they sang "Ojitos Negros." The second number was a comedy, very amusing even to those who didn't understand Spanish (we caught the drift of it any way), given by Senior Terry and Senior Moreno (Brown). Cisco hi students had their first chance to hear the quartet, which is becoming rather famous; they were encored several times. May we hear from them more often. The Flat Tire club will give a demonstration of one of their well known blow outs at the "senior vaudeville." A KINDLY REMINDER Some few clubs and all the classes still owe some or all of the amount of their assessments on the Occidental. It is very necessary that this matter be attended to at once, because the staff is in dire need of funds at present and would greatly appreciate the settlement of all these bills. Send your checks to Jimmie Fields, the business manager of the annual. See Carl Mount as Augustus Saldefrac, a rawther exquisite young gentleman. Both are in the junior dramatic play that will be given in the senior vaudeville. NEW CLUB ORGANIZES A new and very mysterious club has been formed in C. H. S. It goes by the name of the "Crepe Hangers." A special club room has been furnished for their meetings every Thursday night. At the last meeting the following were elected to membership in the club: Elsworth Mayer, Rochelle Daniel and Alfred Carroll. Plans were made for a dance which is to be given Friday night. The club is planning many interesting things for the future. Watch it grow! See Bessie Olson as Aunt Susan Jones from Splinterville, a scream, she is! Tickets for the May festival are not out yet, but they will be on sale the latter part of this week—and we might add that it would be a very wise thing for you to get your ticket early because from the way the neighboring towns are reserving tickets, they may not last long! The price of each ticket is 50c.

CLEBURNE IS SORRY TO LOSE GOOD CITIZEN

C. R. WEST

In speaking of C. R. West, who has permanently located in Cisco and will engage in the dry goods business, the Cleburne Morning view had the following to say:

C. R. West, who is widely known in this section and who has for past several years been engaged in the automobile business here, leave today for Cisco, where he recently purchased the Boaz Goods company.

Mr. West came to Cleburne in 1910 and was connected with Cobb-West Dry Goods company until 1918. Since the latter date, has been in the automobile business here. His new line of business will be known as West's Dry Goods company.

Mr. West called at the Review yesterday, asked that his name be placed on the mailing list for the Review, daily, and had the following to say in regard to leaving this city: "I regret more than anyone knows, to leave Cleburne, not that good towns and people can't be found everywhere, but my associations and business relations have grown endearing from year to year. In the face of serious disadvantages and handicaps, Cleburne has grown in the years that I have lived here, really out of believable proportions. We must have reverses many times to bring the best that is in us to the surface and the good and loyal citizenship here has done its best. I have always wanted to see Cleburne paved, and I deeply regret to be leaving just as our dream is realized. I shall never forget how good the city as a whole has been to me and my family and to show this, I am leaving them here until I know that I want to take them away from friends they cherish dearly. I hope and expect to see Cleburne grow by leaps and bounds, for there is a permanency here that few towns have. I know but little about Cisco yet, but each person I have chanced to meet, is all for Cisco, and that is a splendid spirit to display. I hope to be back from time to time and will always be glad to read of any good thing that might be coming to Cleburne and Johnson county. I hope to do well, of course, in my new field of work, but in case of any reverse, I know that I can always come back and find the good wholesome welcome I have enjoyed in this splendid city."

The Woman Who Knows

Houston, Texas—"Because of my father-in-law having been benefited by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery while living with us, I knew about Dr. Pierce's remedies. I knew about his poor health and how he gained strength, could rest and sleep better and was more active and cheerful. Later on it became necessary for me to take a woman's tonic, and I chose Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After the first few doses I felt better, and now recommend it very highly for women during middle age."—Mrs. Fannie Dishon, 2211 Center St. All dealers. Liquid or tablet form.

Chesterfield's popularity was won on taste alone

Put a ring around that word — and don't forget it!

Taste! That one word explains Chesterfield's enormous popularity. "They satisfy," because they contain the richest, mellowest tobaccos that money can buy. And they're mild, because these tobaccos are blended in just the right proportions for taste and aroma. It's a blend of unique character and it can't be copied!

No wonder smokers everywhere are changing from all kinds of cigarettes to Chesterfield.
