TELEPHONE 80. THE CISCO WAY.

Cisco needed a railroad to the northeast. It did not worry over the proposition. It just went to work and built the road.

Cisco needs a wagon road to the coal field south of the city. It is going to work and build it right away.

This is the spirit that is building Cisco.

With the recent development and production to the south, a large volume of increased trade is at Cisco's door. The business men are determined to have this trade and are ready to do anything necessary, in the way of investment, in order to secure it.

The first step is to provide prompt communication and transportation between the two points. This can be done by building a road over which the immense traffic may be handled.

Eastland county has a large roadbuilding fund, created by a bond issue exceeded by only two other counties in the state and the work of constructing good roads all over the county is in progress but, "large bodies move slowly."

County Judge Starnes has assured the people of this section that one of the first roads to be completed in the county will be that between Cisco and Rising Star. But the county is building permanent roads and that work is necessarily slow.

Cisco needs a road to the oil field now. It will build it for use pending the completion of the road to be built by the county.

The Chamber of Commerce and Production has well in hand the raising of the necessary fund. The citizens of Cisco are responding promptly and the money will be raised.

The exceedingly liberal offer of the Humble Oil and Refining company to contribute a sum equal to that raised by the citizens of Cisco, assures that a fund necessary to construct the road will not be wanting.

Money given for this purpose is not a contribution; it is an investment and one which will prove equal, if it does not surpass in returns, any investment any business man in Cisco has ever made.

Cisco is the natural supply point for this great field and the nearest city offering adequate accommodations for the oil men. The necessity for a good road leading between Cisco and the field is apparent.

The road will be constructed just as soon as money and men can bring it about.

That is the Cisco way.

That is the spirit which is making of Cisco the best city in West Texas.

Phone the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Production and tell him you want to do your part in the "Build-a-House" campaign. Cisco will outdistance surrounding cities in proportion to the accommodations we furnish those who wish to take up residence here.

Because of some men's rapid promotion we call them creatures of opportunity—lucky, we say. It would be much nearer the truth to say they were men ready for the opportunity. This is just as true of cities as of men.

The only trouble with this country is there are more chances than there are real men.

The best financial rating any man can possess is the reputation of paying his bills promptly.

The numerical growth of Cisco will be measured by the houses we build.

IS GRAMMAR AN ESSENTIAL STUDY?

Mr. Kellogg, a member of New York state's board of regents, says it is not. Heaven help the man when the pedagogues whose minds are closed to anything that strays from professional apathy, take in after him!

But Bill and Johnnie and Susie, who shed tears of anguish over the "darned thing," may be relied on to rear a suitable monument to his cherished memory in case the pedagogues succeed in their fell designs.

After all, there is very much to be said in support of Mr. Kellogg's theory. As one writer very promptly points out, Shakespeare never saw or heard of an English grammar. And all the years that have elapsed since his day has not produced a single individual capable of competing with him in the use of English.

Milton never heard of such a book as an English grammar. He did very well, too, in his weak and inexperienced way. So well, that his masterpiece will endure as a model when the grammatical critics have faded from the memory of the living.

There is very much to be said in favor of Regent Kellogg. The world has known scores of great writers who never had the slightest inkling of the difference between a verb and an adjective as such. Yet they never used a very improperity. They knew no names for the parts of speech; yet never violated any of the rules in their mechanics.

And no man who has handled "copy" from the pen of a typical professional mind, letter perfect in the mechanics of grammar, but knows that the study of grammar fails utterly to make a correct writer or speaker of either.—Tribune World.

THOSE LOVELY PATRIOT-PROFITEERS

Damages to the amount of $200,000 were presented recently to the war claims department at Washington by owners of property which was taken over by the government and used for war purposes.

The war claims department appointed a board of officers to check over the claims and this board reduced the claims and the board reduced the blue pencil in hand and reduced the claims from the figures fixed by the board of officers to $148,000.

The difference between $200,000 and $148,000 is so great that it is certain to create the suspicion in the minds of the baser sort that someone was trying to talk the country out of $52,000. Don't wait for the rest of the story.

When the grand total was reduced to $148,000 every claimant accepted the award without raising a fuss about it. They did not appeal and they did not go to court. They took the $148,000 and swallowed their outraged feelings. Possibly some of them swallowed hard, and twice, but they took their medicine in allopathic doses while they took their money from the government in homeopathic doses.

Who could have the heart, therefore, to accuse such patriots of a conspiracy to grab $52,000 from the public treasury? Rather let us say that they have furnished the country with a beautiful example of love for the flag and devotion to the land of the free and home of the brave. Nothing but patriotism surely, could have induced them to acquiesce with such humble submission to the reduction—nothing else, of course, unless it was the fear of prosecution for perjury or embezzlement, or something of that kind, in making the big claim.—Kansas City Star.

THE PRINTERS AS "GO GETTERS"

While a considerable number of persons have been complaining bitterly about the state of the nation and the impossibility of providing against old age, others have been busy seeing what they could do about it in so far as their own case was concerned. For instance, the International Typographical Union.

Here is a union made up of seventy-one thousand workers. It conducts very ably the relations of its members with their employers and sees to it that arbitration is substituted for industrial war. At the same time it carries on an extensive business on behalf of its members. A leaflet showing the results of six years' operations discloses that it has $2,000,000 in assets, $2,000,000 in death benefits and nearly $1,000,000 for the Union Printers' Home.

Last year the union paid out $355,000 in old age pensions, $302,000 in death benefits and $175,000 in maintaining the home. The sound condition of its financial operations is indicated by the fact that the treasury closed the year with nearly $2,000,000 in the reserve funds.

It is a splendid record of intelligent foresight, thrift and competent administration. The printers might have sat down and deplored things. Instead they set out to accomplish something on their own behalf. As "Go Getters" they went and got.—Kansas City Star.

Shall Samuel Gompers Rule? To Citizens of Eastland County: The Washington Times on its front page July 13, stated: "Organized Labor's opposition will be concentrated against Congressman Blanton of Texas, Senator Thomas of Colorado, and Senator Myers of Montana. The American Federation of Labor is not yet ready to disclose its complete plan of attack against these men. An immense amount of literature goes into their districts, and speakers also are employed in an extensive campaign against them. The fight against Congressman Blanton of Texas will be unusually bitter." Who is Mr. Gompers' candidate? Only Mr. Grisham is running against me in this primary. Mr. Gompers cannot defeat me unless he can do it with Mr. Grisham. If not in behalf of Mr. Grisham, in whose behalf is Mr. Gompers sending literature and employing speakers? Papers over the district are advertising appointments for numerous speakers against me. My district is flooded with literature. Did the American Federation of Labor lie when it said it was filling my district with literature and employing speakers against me? Oil business attracted Mr. Grisham to Eastland County. Let his former neighbors speak. When he ran for Congress against me in 1916, in Kent County where he was principal of the schools for two years and was county judge for two years, he got only 40 votes to my 203 votes; and in Martin County where he lived when he was District Attorney for two years he got only 33 votes to my 124 votes. I received 16,593 votes more than he did. Do you want to support "An also ran?" In Eastland County he received only 86 votes to my 1579 votes. Sincerely your friend, THOMAS L. BLANTON. National Theater

Cow's and cowpunchers are not the only targets that feel the effect of Buck Jones' aim as a rope thrower. This new sensation of the screen, who will be seen at the National theater today in "Forbidden Trails," his latest William Fox production, ropes anything that comes his way. Not even politicians and international notables are excepted.

W. Edgar Horne, member of the house of commons and one of the most important men in the politics of Great Britain, spent a day with Buck in the Hollywood studios, and before they got through Buck roped the M. P. from his horse, which was bred on the great Lucky Baldwin ranch in California.

"This," the British gentleman said, "is the first time I have been roped. Several politicians of Great Britain have tried it, but so far not one of them has succeeded. However, I am perfectly willing to be roped by such a wonderful young man as Mr. Buck Jones."

This was not the first time that Jones had exhibited his skill before political giants. It was at a demonstration of horsemanship before crowned heads and the heads of the peace conference in Paris that Mr. Fox first broached the idea of a screen career to the intrepid rider.

Victory Theater

Mack Sennett's latest five-part comedy sensation, "Down on the Farm," released by United Artists (the Big Four) will be the big feature at the Victory theater for two days, beginning tomorrow.

"Down on the Farm" represents Mack Sennett's genius as "comedy king" at its height. Through five reels he carries the beholder through alternating scenes of comedy, travesty, hilarious satire, serious drama and thrilling episodes, never permitting the action to languish an instant but keeping it up at a speed typically in "Sennett tempo."

The story relates the adventures in romance and finance of a "rusting" combed beauty, namely, Louise Fazenda. The romance of her life is provided by the "hired help" whose fists are as big as his heart. Finance is brought to the plot by the village banker—a kind of a cross between Shylock and Don Juan or a mixture of Turk and "shark." The farm hand loves her for herself alone.

The village house broker and home-wrecker desires her for an inheritance, the existence of which he, for a while, alone knows. But Cupid gets up in the country with Chanticleer and starts on the job with the sun, so it happens, after five reels of excitement, hilarity, bursts of laughter and thrills of suspense that love's labor isn't lost and that though the going may be rough in the country for romance, the altar and the preacher await at the end of the lane to do their duty by the sturdy of life.

Sennett comedy depicts to be seen in this pretentious spectacle and masterpiece of humor are Louise Fazenda, Marie Prevost, Ben Turpin, James Finlayson, Billy Armstrong, John Henry, Jr., Bert Roach, Harry Gribbon and (not to be overlooked, Teddy, Mr. Sennett's Great Dane, and Pepper, the latter's inherited enemy and expert inspector of cream. The entire Sennett menagerie of feathered and four-footed folk is also graphically involved in the plot of "Down on the Farm."

THE GOOD WORD MOVEMENT

You have heard of the uplift movement and the movement for the suppression of the white slave traffic, and the good roads movement and many other movements started by well-meaning men. You have had an opportunity to observe that the Order of Owls leads humanity in its beauty and kindness of purpose and gentleness. This feature of the Owls determined us to launch a Good-Word Movement. Help us put into execution this movement, beginning now and ending with eternity.

We know three men who agreed, when opportunity offered, to say a good word of each other, and they did, with the result that just the conduct of these men toward each other eventually placed each in positions of high standing and influence. Most people follow the leader. If you say something good of a man every time he is mentioned, everybody else is liable to say something good of him. When you are talking unfavorably about one you do yourself more harm than you do him. You never accomplish good for yourself by saying a bad thing about another. Has that ever occurred to you? Has the thought come to you, the only thing that produces good by being cut into is the earth, and that you cannot gain any good for yourself by cutting into the hide of another human being? It doesn't matter how bad any person is, something good may be said of him. If you tell a boy he is good-for-nothing, the possibilities are you will discourage him; make him think the community thinks about him as you have expressed yourself. The result may be he will become an enemy to society, and eventually be what you said, whereas, if you had told him (no matter what was said about him) and no matter what he had done, you knew him to be a mainly sort of boy, you would put him on his pride, he would try to live the part.

Let's get together. Every Owl pick is up. Everybody do it. Push it along. Put some ginger into the movement. It's better than putting flowers on graves. Better than hiring hacks for funerals. It will accomplish much. It will get along without you, but it will get along much better with you. A good word for everybody, and let everybody know the Order of Owls started and the Order of Owls is pushing the Good-Word Movement.—Adv.

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

You are to choose one of two men for Tax Collector Saturday. My opponent has been Tax Assessor for the past six years. His family is grown and children educated.

I am a young man with a wife and two small children to educate and give a chance in life. I have never asked for an office before in my life and defeat to me at this time would greatly hamper my ambitious efforts for success in life. I have been reared in this county and my life is an open book to the people of Eastland County. I earnestly request those who do not know me to investigate me and I feel like you will cheerfully support me.

As to my qualifications, I will say that I was reared on a farm. Early in life I desired an education and after finishing the public schools, I spent three years in college by my own earnings. Since leaving college I have spent five years teaching school practically all of which has been in Eastland County. I have spent two years in Civil Service and am thoroughly qualified to fill the position which I so earnestly seek with credit to myself and the people who support me. If you can help me, you will be helping one who will appreciate and give you efficient service.
