29 Bills Go Into House Hopper as Business Is Begun

REDUCTION OF AD VALOREM TAX SOUGHT

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—House members here today amended the senate proposal restricting the legislators' pay to $8 and provided that house members shall draw $10 a day and senators $8 a day.

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—Miniature pool tables, now prohibited in many communities, would be legalized under the first liberalization bill offered to the 43rd Texas legislature today.

Twenty-nine bills were put in the hopper when Speaker Coke Stevenson announced the house ready for business. Among them are proposals to license automobile drivers, a plan to let counties keep the first $50,000 of motor license fees collected and divide all over $50,000 on a 50-50 basis with the state highway department, and a proposal to examine and license all motor and airplane mechanics.

The reported rush of 1,000 out of state students into Texas supported institutions because of the $30 limit on fees that may be collected led to offering a bill that raises the maximum fee for an out of state student to $90.

Tax payers were promised relief in a bill to limit the state ad valorem rate to 57 cents. This would permit the 15-cent levy for general purposes, 35 cents for schools and seven cents for Confederate pensions. The present rate is 69 cents.

In the senate government economy steps were continued in a measure to abolish the department of reclamation.

TONIGHT IS SET FOR COMMUNITY PROGRAM HERE

The Cisco public schools will sponsor a community program at the high school auditorium tonight at 7:30, according to an announcement from Supt. R. N. Cluck. This program has had to be postponed several times on account of illness.

The inside of the high school has been recently and the public is invited to inspect it, both before and after the program, Supt. Cluck said.

"We are proud of the work," Cluck said, "and we want the public to see it."

The new work consists of calcimining of the walls, replacing broken plaster and repairing cracks in the walls, refinishing the woodwork, and laying new concrete floors in the halls.

Such community programs as this, Supt. Cluck believes, offer an opportunity for the pupils to take part in public entertainment, putting into practice the knowledge and ideas they have acquired in school and developing their personalities.

Hot Meal Will Be Ready for "Ma"

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—A hot meal will be steaming on the dining table at the governor's mansion for Gov-elect Miriam A. Ferguson after her inauguration next Tuesday.

Notice that the usual custom for a retiring governor to leave such a courtesy to his successor was not contemplated this year, led Mrs. J. T. Stockton, of Austin, to announce she personally will see that the meal is there to welcome the new governor. The menu will include fried chicken, Southern style.

Sanitary Conditions in Cisco Found Good, Health Officer Says in Report

The following report on sanitary conditions in Cisco, was submitted to the regular meeting of the city commission Tuesday evening by Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer:

To the Honorable City Commission: We have made the usual round of monthly inspection of the dairies, grocery stores and markets and found all in very good condition. The dairies I think would be a credit to any city.

There has been some complaint about garbage, but this, I am sure, will be satisfactorily handled when the new man has had time to get accustomed to the job. There are people who have no garbage cans or cans without lids, this will have to be corrected before early spring, or the health of the community will be endangered.

There has been considerable catchall trouble among us, as there has been in most places. No local condition is conducive to the presence or spread of the disease. Most of the cases have been mild, but in some instances have been followed by more serious conditions.

Boxing to Be Featured at Smoker Meet

The regular meeting of the Merchants Smoker will be held at the Laguna roof garden tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

The program for this meeting, to consist almost exclusively of entertainment, is being prepared by a committee headed by Don Burger, who announced that four bouts of boxing of three rounds each will be featured. Boys for these matches have already been secured and some fast action is promised. Local boys will meet boys from Eastland and other cities in these events.

Acrobatic dancing and music by the American Legion Novelty orchestra will complete the entertainment. Tickets for this event are selling rapidly and a capacity crowd for the program is expected.

POST OFFICE EXCAVATION BEGINS SOON

Excavation on the federal building lot at E avenue and West Sixth street will begin next week, according to E. Albert Jenson, superintendent of construction for the H. W. Underhill construction company.

The contract will be awarded this week, with a possibility that work may begin Monday, although Jenson expressed a doubt that it would start before Wednesday. The company has already received some bids for the job.

Very little labor will be employed at first, Jenson said, due to the fact that the general excavation will require some time for completion. The hole will range from 12 feet deep at the west end to 8 feet at the other, and will be 115 feet long by 75 feet wide.

Later local labor will be employed as first, Jenson said, due to the fact that the general excavation will require some time for completion. The hole will range from 12 feet deep at the west end to 8 feet at the other, and will be 115 feet long by 75 feet wide.

"This will be quite a foundation job," Jenson said. He pointed out that he expects the general excavation to be completed by the first of February, at which time his company will go forward with the work of putting in the foundation.

42 Caissons. "The building will set on 42 caissons," he said, pointing out that these will go perhaps 20 feet below the basement floor. They will rest on solid shale, he said.

When asked how long the business of putting in a foundation would require, Jenson said that he expected work on the basement floor to be completed six weeks after the general excavation is finished, or by the middle of March, provided there is no undue amount of rain.

"This will be 65 per cent of the concrete work," he said. "Of course the basement walls and the floor of the first story will be concrete."

The post office will be a one story building with a full basement and a mezzanine floor. The mezzanine floor will be used as a lounge for postal employees when they are not on duty, he said.

Brick and Stone. "The building is to be constructed of brick, with stone used to trim it. Just what color of brick will be used, Jenson did not know, for the brick contract has not yet been let. He said that he could tell more about that sometime next week.

"The building will be a one story building with a full basement and a mezzanine floor. The mezzanine floor will be used as a lounge for postal employees when they are not on duty, he said.

Work has already begun on the lot with the erection of a company tool house this week.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE FOR LOBO BANQUET

A joint committee of the Lions and Rotary clubs, meeting yesterday, selected next Thursday evening as the date for the annual Lobo banquet and fixed 7:30 as the hour.

This banquet, while open to all business men and Lobo supporters, will take the place of the regular club noon meetings next week. Each club will keep a record of the attendance of its members and count the banquet as a regular meeting.

Members of the joint committee meeting yesterday afternoon were A. D. Anderson, H. Brandon and H. L. Dyer, of the Lions club, and Leon Maner and E. H. Varnell, of the Rotary club.

W. J. Leach was chosen toastmaster for the banquet and Mr. Dyer and Mr. Varnell named as the committee on arrangements.

The ticket committee will consist of Jack Anderson, chairman, I. R. Haley, Ed Huestis, Leon Maner, Barney Gregory, Ed Caffrey, Rigdon Edwards and Carl Lowery. An out-of-town speaker will be secured and a good program arranged, it was announced.

SAYS CISCO HAS UNIQUE DISTINCTION

Cisco has a distinction that gives it parity in a sense of the word, at least, with New York city, according to F. E. Shoup, of Dallas, assistant to the president of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, to which position he was promoted from advertising manager.

The distinction he told the Rotary club at its noon luncheon today, lies in the fact that it is the western terminus of the longest trunk telephone cable in the world, of which New York City is the eastern terminus.

"That is how New York hears of Cisco," said Mr. Shoup. "Originally, of course, it was our intention to carry this cable on to the Pacific coast but owing to a condition, of which you are all aware, Cisco will retain its unique distinction for some time to come."

Mr. Shoup, a guest of Phillip Pettit, Cisco district manager of the company, declared his affinity for western Texas, although he happens to be a resident of the city of Dallas a city he professed to love.

"Dallas hasn't the romantic spirit that pervades this great section of the state. You have your ups and downs. You're on the top at times and at others you are at the bottom of the heap. But you always come through. And you'll continue to come through. That is the romance of this country."

L. W. DeYong, late of Kansas City, and now advertising manager of the company succeeding Mr. Shoup, also spoke briefly to the club. He was likewise a guest of Mr. Pettit. Mr. DeYong illustrated the vast extent of the Bell system's expansion with a humorous story, relating that a man, whose name had by mistake appeared among the death notices of the newspaper, telephoned a friend who wanted to know from where he was phoning.

W. H. LaRoque, manager of the Daily News, also a guest of Mr. Pettit, spoke to the club. A motion by B. A. Butler to have Mr. LaRoque escorted from the club for alleged aspersions regarding the "senility" of the Rotary club membership, was seconded by R. N. Cluck after Mr. LaRoque's talk. President Collins had ruled the motion out of order.

The feature of the program was the presentation of the high school charter by O. J. Russell, program chairman, in a number of "close harmony" offerings. The youngsters, Pierce Thomason, John Miley, Wilson Lee Graham and Glenn Colburn, were loudly applauded by the club for their offerings.

Highlights of Sterling Message

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—Following are some of the salient statements of Gov. Ross S. Sterling's message to the Forty-Third legislature:

"This forty-third legislature faces a task and a responsibility of a magnitude and gravity unsurpassed by that of any previous lawmaking body in this state's history."

"The measures to be sponsored by the committee on this subject (fee system) are in accordance with the overwhelming wishes of the people, and it is my hope that they will be enacted, so that this vicious and antiquated scheme of fee grabbing will be stopped forever in Texas."

"Clemency applications consume more of the chief executive's time than any other single activity."

"The recommendations made by the committee in its report on organization and general administration are in the main disappointing. The changes it proposed would tend to concentrate the activities of the state too much in the hands of the governor."

"There has been much talk and clamor of the state deficit. But after all, Texas stands high among the states in point of financial condition. Compared to the bonded debts of many others, which cannot be reduced or payment deferred a small deficit is of minor consequence."

"It occurs to me a well-balanced plan for this state, if it could be worked out practically, would be a combination system of property taxes for local governments and both a sales tax and an income tax for state purposes."

"In seeking ways of retrenching and economizing, the legislature might well consider the consolidation of some of the 254 counties of this state, as offering a means whereby the cost of government may be substantially reduced and its efficiency increased."

"Most of you doubtless realize the need of reforms to strengthen our election laws. It has been demonstrated the legal safeguards of our system of selecting public servants are not adequate to prevent the miscarriage of the popular will. If elections are to be left liable to determination by organized fraud, then suffrage is mockery and democracy a tragic joke."

"By every principle of good government, the chief executive of the state should be elected for four years instead of two. I urge you adopt a joint resolution submitting a constitutional amendment to increase the length of the governor's term of office to four years."

"My final word is a wish—nay, a prayer—for the welfare of the state which I have been privileged to serve as governor; the state in which I was born and have lived my life. I shall retire serene in the consciousness of having done my best for Texas, and with no regret save that I could not do more."

GARNER SAYS HE'LL SUPPORT DEBT RELIEF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Immediate congressional action on drastic proposals to liberalize bankruptcy laws and lighten the nation's burden of debt, was promised today by Speaker of the House, Garner.

"The speaker pledged himself to throw his influence behind the measure and bring it before the house next week."

The bill would enable individuals and corporations to obtain a postponement and in some cases a scaling down of debts. Technically the measure liberalizes federal bankruptcy procedure.

Actually it contemplates revolutionary revision to bring relief from the top-heavy burdens of debts which were contracted when prices were high and dollars cheap, and which many cannot pay now that dollars are dear. It was halted in congressional circles as a direct attack on the depression, a bold attempt to adjust business to changed circumstances.

SENDS LAST MESSAGE TO LEGISLATURE

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—A 2 per cent sales tax and a state income tax both were recommended in Gov. Ross S. Sterling's final message, delivered to the forty-third legislature here today.

The retiring governor condemned the plan of reorganizing the state government recently worked out by a legislative committee at a cost of $50,000. He called for revision of election laws to require personal registration and use of voting machines. He advocated construction of a 1,000-mile fence along the Rio Grande and submission of three constitutional amendments.

One of these proposed amendments would vest a state pardon board with power to grant clemency retaining for the governor only exclusive pardoning power in death cases. Another would make the governor's term of office four years; members of the house of representatives four years and state senators six years. The third would fortify recent road bond assumption statute which some believe invalid under the present constitution.

Discussing the state finances, Governor Sterling said: "Like private enterprises the state has suffered a sharp and tremendous falling-off in revenue. Yet the expenditures are nearly as high as ever. The changed conditions call for a plan-reaching curtailment to resolve the state's budget back to the shrunken level of values and the people's ability to pay."

ARMY FUNDS SLASHED BY HOUSE GROUP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A reduction of more than $31,000,000 in army funds for the next fiscal year was urged by the house appropriations committee today in the face of warnings that world conditions are "unsettled and provocative."

The committee favorably reported a war department supply bill carrying $273,079,588 for military activities and $72,753,994 for harbor improvement, flood control and other extra-military work.

The army itself would receive $4,651,253 less than President Hoover recommended.

"Reductions in the United States army strength since the World War leave the United States the 17th ranking nations in military strength in the world."

No provision whatever was made for citizen military training camp activities.

EXCHANGE ISSUES DRASTIC ORDERS. Financiers of the nation in the great metropolis of the American world have their ears to the ground. The New York stock exchange has taken action to try to bring a full and free play of the spotlight of publicity on corporate earning statements and balance sheets and to insure greater accuracy in the figures. It is said a majority of the leading corporate executives tendered their moral support to the step; that 10 years ago such action would have been impossible "but conditions have so changed since that the exchange's officials forecast a sure success for the movement."

SAVAGE FAVORS DRASTIC CUT. Rep. W. T. Savage of Dallas county, speaking of tax proposals, declared to a Dallas correspondent there were numerous possibilities for the legislature to make drastic cuts in expenses. Among them he specifically mentioned "the cut in cost of higher education and salaries."

RAIL EARNINGS TAKE UPWARD SWING. An upward swing in railroad earnings which brought a marked decrease in the deficit of the class one railroads of the country for the first 10 months of 1932 was noted in reports to the interstate commerce commission for October. Every cheerful little earful has a meaning all its own.

HIGH INCOME TAX RATES IN 3 NATIONS. effective at $7000 under a sliding scale. Of course, the British figures were prepared when the pound was normal and those of France and Germany are calculated at current rates of exchange. All of which is a reminder that these so-called poverty stricken nations of Europe appropriate four billion dollars a year for the maintenance of larger standing armies and more powerful naval defense than they did before the coming of the World War.

ON THE TRAIL OF THE COLLEGE PARROT. Dean George F. Arps of the Ohio State University college of Education is on the warpath against "the college parrot." Now what is a college parrot? Well, the Dean describes the parrot as one who has generally normal habits and appearance but is possessed of a propensity for memory work that would rival his elders in the old McGuffey reader days. He demands the elimination or the extinction of the parrot. This is his indictment: "Why, many students acquire a degree without having ever responded originally to a single fact; that is to say they have done no thinking in any real sense of the word."

As they grow older many parrots are said to break into political life and win places at the political pie counter. Is it true?

defense of the action. In view of the reduced condition of the city's finances the reduction is apparently justified. On the other hand the charge is leveled that the commission made the move for political purposes to eliminate a number of prospective candidates who cannot devote full time to administration of the city affairs on the salary allowed the mayor because they are without independent means of support.

There is only one way that the commission can answer that charge and convince the public of their sincerity in making the reductions. That is to reduce their present pay to the figures being set for the next administration. Obviously, if there will be need for economy of the sort next May there is a need for it now.

While the commission cannot increase salaries of its members and the mayor over maximums fixed by the preceding administration it has full liberty in reducing those salaries. Think it over.

Melvin Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lawson, 511 West 9th street, was first with the solution of the "crypt-o-gram" which Specs ran in Tuesday's column. Melvin solved it and brought down his solution Wednesday morning. He got the ticket to the Palace theater. If he hasn't called for the ticket Miss Zelma Curtis has it for him in the Daily News business office.

Next with the solution was Miss Doris Surles, 14 years old. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Surles. Here is the solution to the cipher which was correctly reached by these youngsters: "QUIET AND HURRIED ACTION WILL RESULT IN REDUCED RANSOM AND WE SHALL SEE THAT THE BABY WILL BE DELIVERED AS SOON AS THE MONEY IS LEFT THERE."

J. E. Spencer, secretary of the chamber of commerce and chairman of the county R. F. C. emergency employment committee, is in a dilemma. Came a telegram to Mr. Spencer advising him that his committee will have $32,000 in Fort Worth tomorrow and directing that he and all members of the county committee be in that city to receive the check and to execute bonds for the proper expenditure of the fund.

The telegram also directed Mr. Spencer to notify all other members of the county committee. It was sent by D. A. Banded, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and read in part: "Absolutely necessary your entire county administration committee be present at one of the above places to receive your county's allotment and report and application blanks for March and April and execute bonds and receipt. Expect you notify all members of your county committee as sending this only to you."

The problem Mr. Spencer is up against is that of finding expense money for going to Fort Worth to get the check and for notifying the other members of the committee. The chamber of commerce budget is not large enough to take care of the expense and the emergency relief committee has no fund for the item.

How is he going to get himself and his committee to Fort Worth to receive the $32,000? There is a paradox for you. Plenty of money but not a nickel to spend. Perhaps the chairman and his committee will be reduced to hitchhikers, thumbing rides to and from

Fort Worth, in order to obtain the big sum. * * * The action of the city commission in cutting the mayor's salary to $50 per month and full-time commissioners to $100 per month next term—the latter action contingent upon defeat of the fourth proposed amendment to the city charter—has evoked a variety of comment over the city. THE CROSS was used as a religious symbol by the aborigines of North and South America, as well as by the most ancient nations of the Old World. The Spanish found the cross used as an object of worship in Mexico. The Indians regarded the cross as a mystic emblem of the four points of the compass. Keeping Up With The Boy Scouts

Annual Meeting a Success. Dr. Jewel Daugherty of Brownwood was re-elected president of the Comanche Trail Council with E. F. Crawford of Cisco, Earl Fairman of Goldthwaite, and R. S. Vestal of Dublin, vice presidents, Russel B. Jones of Breckenridge scout commissioner, and J. K. Wilkes of Brownwood treasurer.

Between 50 and 60 scout leaders attended the afternoon session which opened at 2:45 o'clock and between 90 and 100 people attended the banquet and night program. Scouters from every town in the eight counties were present.

Conference groups went into session about 3 o'clock and reconvened at 4:45 for reports and recommendations. During the period announcements were made of the death of former president Calvin Coolidge who was honorary vice president of the Boy Scouts of America. The group stood while a prayer was said by Judge E. J. Miller and then Ed Shumway, scout executive of Abilene led in the singing of taps.

Dr. N. B. Taylor, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, and pioneer scoutmaster in Brownwood was presented with the Silver Beaver Award, the highest award that can be given by the Comanche Trail Area. High tribute was paid to the influence of Dr. Power during his many years in Brownwood, by those who presented the medal. The award came as a surprise to Dr. Power. Dr. Jewel Daugherty, president of the council first spoke of the award, referring to Dr. Power as "a man who has entered into the homes of Brownwood in a religious, social and educational way more than any other person that ever lived in the city. His own life is a benediction to the citizenship of Brownwood and the council wishes to bestow this award upon him for outstanding service," Dr. Daugherty said.

The badge was then given to T. C. Wilkerson, Jr., a member of the first boy scout troop in Brownwood, of which Dr. Power was scoutmaster, who in turn presented the Silver Beaver, placing the ribbon to which the Beaver was attached around Dr. Power's neck. Mr. Wilkerson addressed his former scoutmaster as "Dr. Power, or 'Father John,' as we used to call you." He said that Scouts in the former troop were now better men for having been under Dr. Power's influence and that Brownwood is a better place, after having Dr. Power live here. Besides Mr. Wilkerson, there were three other former scouts that sat with him at the banquet. They were: Bill Armstrong, Ed Hanley, Jr., and Nat Low. They stood with Dr. Power as the award was presented. At the close of the presentation, Oswald Daugherty, the first scout in this area to attain the rank of Eagle came forward and shook hands with Dr. Power, reminding him that the Scouts of today are still carrying on.

A number of conference missionary society officers were present and instructed the district officers in their work.

One of the largest parties to be held in Desdemona this season was the one given at the attractive home of Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass Thursday afternoon when she and her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Heeter entertained in honor of Mrs. Melvin Logan. The honoree was formerly Miss Georgie Morrow who was reared a few miles north of town and for several years was a teacher and is much beloved by all her friends and acquaintances. She was married on Christmas Day to Melvin Logan at Bunyan and they will make their home on a farm near there. The party given by Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. Heeter was a miscellaneous shower with several other features of entertainment. The first thing each guest did on arrival was to write her name on a quilt block and then outline it with pink floss. Next a large number of tea towels were hemmed and then each one wrote a receipt in a blank book forming a cook book that will prove quite useful to the young bride. A contest of guessing the contents of twelve bottles of substances used in cooking proved very interesting. Mrs. Aaron Henslee then played "Someday Loves You" at the close of which two cute little girls, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Obed Henslee brought in a large, decorated basket filled to overflowing with gifts of love for the honoree. About fifty guests were present and quite a number who could not come sent gifts. The packages were opened and passed around and all declared it was one of the largest and nicest showers ever given anyone in Desdemona. Delicious cake, sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostesses to the guests.

LEIPZIG WILL HAVE EXHIBITS OF 30 NATIONS

LEIPZIG, Jan. 12.—Despite the economic unrest, more than 30 countries are sending their products to the forthcoming Leipzig Fair, which will be attended by buyers from 72 countries. The reservations for space already assure a well balanced display with some 8,000 exhibits. An attendance of about 150,000 buyers is expected, rivaling last year's record. With a continuous history of seven centuries, the fair easily is the most important enterprise in the service of international trade. The spring fair will be held from March 5 to 12. The fair first was recommended to American business men by Benjamin Franklin, following his first visit to Europe. More than 100 American exhibits will be seen at the fair this spring, including samples of our latest labor saving and quantity production machinery.

The fair maintains over 400 branch offices throughout the world. Germany has a very vital interest at present in overseas trade and every effort is made to facilitate the international exchange of goods. Although the throngs of business men create a modern babel, the difference of language offers no barrier. An elaborate system of interpreters and a well organized international banking system enable the visitors to enjoy the business facilities of their own homes.

The exhibits are displayed as usual in the special halls in the heart of the city. One building is devoted to the toy exhibits of Germany and other countries, and overflows with some 700 different exhibits, forming by far the largest toy fair in the world. Here are first displayed millions of toys which will later be shipped to all parts of the world, in readiness for another Christmas.

In recent years the exchange at Leipzig has become exclusively a sample fair, and no single article on exhibition is for sale. The exhibition includes the newest products of every phase of industrial Germany and the world.

SPOTLIGHT

BEGIN HERE TODAY
SHEILA SHAYNE, 18, whose parents were well known vaudeville actors, is in New York looking for work. Sheila is a dancer. She has spent almost her entire life on the stage, first traveling with her parents, now dead, and later in vaudeville and road shows. Sheila lives at MA LOWELL'S theatrical rooming house.

"Mm," Joe said, while Bill stood by attentively and the others remained silent. "Jackson Heights. That's Bailey's theater? Well—you could make it in a taxi. After the show. Just a number or so. Is that right, Lane? Or a song?"
Bill leaned forward confidentially, though his lowered voice reached and was meant to reach every corner in the room. "Shayne puts over a song number in great style."

BEGIN HERE TODAY
SHEILA SHAYNE, 18, whose parents were well known vaudeville actors, is in New York looking for a job. Sheila is a dancer. In spite of the fact that she has spent almost her entire life on the stage her ambition is to marry and have a home like those she has seen in small towns in which she has played.

Watteau shepherdess gone Ziegfeld," as she expressed it, sat in a rocking chair working to some embroidery and chatting affably with the feminine member of a kid act who had not, Lottie later confided (rather needlessly), been a kid for almost 30 years.
Lottie greeted Sheila languidly and presented Miss Kilcoyne who smirked and bobbed her curls in what was meant to be a nursery curtsey.

JOE PARIS moved toward the practice rooms followed by the other two men. "Miss Shayne is booked at Jackson Heights tonight," he said.
Without preamble Joe opened the door. This time there was no halting of step or cessation of the music. It was Joe, the great Paris, and welcome indeed! Joe's presence in a practice room always meant something. Sheila continued with the difficult routine. She was dancing beautifully.

"Can't I persuade you?" Dick asked in a low tone.
had called her hopeless. Five minutes more and he would make her the world's leading danseuse. That was show business for you.
Timmy reached the end of the theme and began again but Bill cut in briskly. "That's all, Tim. You, Shayne—come here!"

HER heart was pounding, saying loudly, "You little fool! Why are you refusing? Mr. Stanley will be there! You'll see him. Maybe he will take you home. Tell him you'll be glad to fill in."
Dick Stanley's pleading eyes met the girl's for an instant as she wavered.
"I would like to accommodate you," she began, then added hastily, "but I haven't been dancing. I'll be awfully tired I'm afraid."

THE ride to Jackson Heights in the subway was tiresome. Sheila had practiced all day, hardly stopping for lunch, her muscles becoming more painful as the hours progressed. She knew that a dancer already known as a success would never have consented to fill in this way after weeks without practice.
Of course there were few dance instructors like Brady. This Sheila understood. Brady had been patient and she had intelligence and talent but no one, not even Brady, could turn out a really finished number in so short a time.

Sheila tried on Daisy's costumes which she found hanging against a sheet on the farther wall.
ter door. It was barely 6 o'clock. She had time to eat and make up, to say nothing of resting a little. She would have time also to become acquainted with the other members of the company. There would be Roscoe's band, Lottie Blair and the other specialty numbers. Perhaps she knew some of them already. Hadn't she heard somewhere that Phil Short was with Roscoe now? He had played the saxophone with a radio orchestra on a certain program. Yes, she was certain Phil would be there.

MOVING about, trying on Daisy's costumes which she found hanging against a sheet on the farther wall, Sheila tried not to groan aloud. Her muscles were crying out in torture. How could she possibly go on? Of course she could. That was the thing to do. Sooner or later the soreness would disappear. But as she moved from the wardrobe to her dressing chair she thought she could not bear it. Every step and every movement was agony.

FORD LEADER IN CAR SALES REPORT SHOWS

Since 1927 when the Model T car was discontinued, Ford passenger car sales led those of all other makes, according to a tabulation by the Ford Motor company reported today by S. H. Nance, president of the Nance Motor Co., local Ford dealers.

In this period from January, 1927, to and including October, 1932, the latest month for which reports have been compiled, Ford sales total 4,001,384, as compared with 3,705,827 for its nearest competitor and total sales of all makes of 15,183,842. Ford's share of all business in these six years was 26.4 per cent.

This record, it was pointed out, was made despite the fact that Ford production was halted twice during this six-year period in preparation for the Model A and the V-8 Ford cars. Manufacture of the Model T was discontinued in May, 1927, Ford being out of the market until December of that year when the model A was announced. Ford again was out of the market for the first five months of 1932 until volume deliveries of the new Fords began last June.

The year-to-year record follows: 1927—Ford, 393,424; next make, 647,810; total of all makes, 2,623,538. 1928—Ford, 482,010; next make, 769,927; total of all makes, 3,139,579. 1929—Ford, 1,310,147; next make, 780,014; total of all makes, 3,880,247.

1930—Ford, 1,055,097; next make, 613,884; total of all makes, 2,625,979. 1931—Ford, 528,581; next make, 583,429; total of all makes, 1,908,141. 1932—Ford, 232,125; next make, 305,763; total of all makes, 1,006,358.

Total, Ford—4,001,384; next make, 3,705,827; total of all makes, 15,183,842.

10 months. Ford passenger car sales in October were 20,410 units, which was 32.3 per cent of total sales of all makes. The next make registered 15,772, or 25.0 per cent of all makes. Ford has led in passenger and commercial car sales in the United States each month since June, when volume deliveries of new Fords began.

Sterling Message---

nevertheless proved worth its cost in encouraging diversification, the message declared.

Consolidation of counties and in some cases consolidation of city-county governments were commended as steps to reduce costs.

The adjutant-general's department was complimented for the longest season without a lynching in state history. The highway department was credited with having lifted Texas out of the mud and its administration praised. The board of control, he said, had effected $1,016,000 under appropriations; the prison system by growing its own products and industrial reforms has saved $500,000 and the senate fee committee has saved $500,000 annually.

Prison System Praised. Prison management was praised and the institution said to have been changed from a disgrace to a model of efficiency. A wise pardon and parole system has improved discipline and morale, the governor reported. He recited that there have been 1,615 paroles, 697 furloughs and 25 full pardons for the biennium. Average prison population was 5,266. Any change in its management would be harmful, the governor said. All departments have functioned "efficiently and progressively" during his term. Governor Sterling said. An instance cited was the handling of 2,142 wage claims with recovery of $180,404 by the labor department.

"I shall retire," said the governor, "secure in the consciousness of having done my best for Texas, and with no regret, save that I could not do more. In a few days I shall return to private life and take up the task of rebuilding something out of the wreckage wrought in my personal affairs while I have been serving the state."

Farthest North Well Reopened

FORT NORMAN, Alberta, Jan. 12.—Reopened after 12 years of idleness, the Fort Norman oil well, believed to be the farthest north producer in the world, supplied 20,000 gallons of gasoline to mining operators and natives of the Great Bear region.

Reopening of the wells provided a source of gasoline that brought the price of the fuel from $3 to $6 a gallon down to 90 cents per gallon. Previously, gasoline and oil were taken to the region by dog team, a slow and arduous method, or by airplane, an extremely costly operation.

Fert Norman is 1,500 miles northwest of McMurray, the northernmost railway terminal in the Province of Alberta, and well within the Arctic Circle.

The well was reopened by the Imperial Oil company following discovery of enormous mineral deposits in the Great Bear region. Thousands of dollars worth of machinery and equipment, much of its requiring gasoline for operation, was carried into the district for development of enormous mineral deposits in the Great Bear region. In addition to supplying fuel for airplanes, gasoline lamps, boats and mining machinery, the well produced 1,800 gallons of fuel for the Anglican mission at Aklavik, "the metropolis of the Arctic," to operate an X-ray machine recently installed there.

Dye Believed Cure For Gas Poisoning

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 12.—Use of methylene blue dye as a cure for poisoning from carbon monoxide gas, commonly caused by the exhaust of automobiles, was believed confirmed today by experiments of a woman scientist at the University of California.

Mrs. M. M. Brooks, research associate in biology, who last April first suggested the same dye as an antidote for cyanide poisoning, announced her findings after long research an experimentation.

Medical experts believe her discovery will be a great boon to mankind because of the increased number of deaths from carbon monoxide gas asphyxiation during the past year.

Making her first tests with animals, Mrs. Brooks found that the effect of gas could be lessened by injection of methylene blue before subjecting them to the deadly fumes.

She also learned chances of recovery of those asphyxiated by the gas could be improved by a later injection of the dye providing this infusion took place before the circulation ceased.

Methylene blue was injected into half of a group of guinea pigs in the first experiment. Then they were all given air containing 10 per cent of carbon monoxide by volume.

Animals given a preliminary treatment with the dye were found to have lived 44 per cent longer than

THE PLUME of the snowy heron not only was a costly thing for the milliner, but for the birds as well. The demand for the plumes, as decorations for women's hats, depleted the ranks of the herons almost to extinction. Since the plumes were grown only by the mother birds, and then only during the breeding season, hunters shot them as they sat on their nests. This meant double destruction — sacrifice of the parent, while the young were left to starve.

Average Motorist Pays $27.90 Gas Tax

HOUSTON, Jan. 12.—The average Texas motorist pays a gasoline tax of $27.80 per year, or an amount from one to three times as large as his automobile license, the Texas Good Roads Association pointed out today in a plea that no more gas tax money be diverted from road purposes.

"The average automobile owner burns 556 gallons of gasoline a year, according to a survey made by the American Petroleum Institute," the statement said. "On this basis, the average Texas motorist pays a gasoline tax of $27.80 per year. Because it is paid in small amounts, he may not realize its size."

"This tax, larger than the taxes on some small homes, is paid cheerfully as a traffic toll to take care of the cost of good roads. Yet $5.56 of this money goes to the federal government, $5.56 to the school fund, and $5.56 to refunding county bonds, so that only $11.12 a year is spent directly on road construction and maintenance."

"The average motorist thus spends about 50 cents a week for this tax, yet only 20 cents of it goes to good roads. Surely he is entitled to insist that there be no further inroads into this 20 cents, and that all of it be spent for the purpose for which the tax was designated."

DEEP MINES HAFT

TRAFFIC OFFENDERS BROKE
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12. — Because municipal judges are suspending a great number of traffic fines, there are no funds to pay the expenses of the street traffic engineering department. During a 45 day period, 7,500 traffic fines were suspended because offenders were "broke."

SEIZED MAN'S NOSE
KENOSHA, Wis., Jan. 12. — Sea gulls are not the favorite pets of Neil Hamelink, Kenosha bartender, since one seized him by the nose. The bird, captured by Matt Koss and brought into Hamelink's place, had a broken wing. While they were discussing what to do for it, the bird rolled over on its back as if dead. Hamelink leaned over it to make a closer examination. The gull sank its talons into his nose in a sudden demonstration of life that inflicted painful lacerations. Hamelink and Koss immediately lost all good Samaritan inclinations and released the bird.

A LOCUST THAT CATCHES MICE LIVES IN AFRICA!

FRENCH OFFICERS, DRESSING HURRIEDLY FOR THE BATTLE OF STEINKERQUE, 1692, TWISTED THEIR CRAVATS CARELESSLY AROUND THEIR NECKS, AND THUS SET A NEW FASHION IN THE WEARING OF NECKWEAR—THE STEINKIRK CRAVAT.

THE STALK-EYED FLY HAS EYES ON THE ENDS OF LONG EXTENSIONS FROM THE SIDES OF THE HEAD.

THE LARGEST of all known locusts is found in Africa. A specimen of this mouse-catching insect reposes in the British Museum of Natural History at South Kensington, and is preserved just as it came from Africa, with a large mouse in its grip. Large spiders, beetles and other insects also fall before the attacks of the giant locust.
