ONE GET RICH QUICK CONCERN SAID TO BE PAYING OUT IN FULL

Houston Man Dealing in International Exchange Paying His Investors As Much As Fifty Per Cent Inside of Forty-five Days — Government Is Investigating But He is Paying.

Associated Press. HOUSTON, July 30.—Charles Ponzel, who claims to have amassed millions within a few months and to have paid the public large profits on investments in a deal in international exchange, appeared almost to have satisfied his investors as to his solvency, clerks paying off nearly as much on notes matured for 50 per cent profit, in 45 days, as were returned to frightened investors in principal, without the interest on notes surrendered short of maturity.

ALBANIAN CUSTOM FOR BLOOD BROTHER TO AVENGE ANOTHER

Associated Press. PARIS, July 30.—Vengeance for the assassination of Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation here, is being quietly awaited by a "blood brother" of the Balkan leader, according to a circumstantial story by a French writer, published by the Excelsior.

This man, now rich and influential in France, the story goes, was one of several poor young men who 30 years ago met Essad Pasha, then known as the "Black Dagger of Abdul Hamid" in Constantinople, when he crowded into a card game and insisted upon playing with them. Fearing Essad Pasha, they protested they were too poor to play with him but he insisted, emphasizing it by placing his revolver on the table as a threat.

"Young man," he exclaimed, "this is the first time anyone has dared defy me. Men like you are rare."

Essad Pasha took his own dagger, opened a vein in his wrist and also in that of the young man, each sucking a few drops of blood from the other and they became "blood brothers," according to Albanian customs, sworn to avenge each other's deaths.

"I am ready," this "brother" now is quoted as saying, "to keep my oath, but I have confidence that French courts will make it unnecessary for me to interfere."

WESTERN EDUCATOR WOULD START NEWLY WEDS ON GOOD FARM

By International News Service. FORT COLLINS, Colo., July 30.—"Substanting" of newlyweds to extensive farm lands as a means of maintaining the high standard of rural citizenship and as an aid to the "back to the farm" movement, was advocated here by Professor Eugene Davenport, dean of the department of agriculture of the University of Illinois.

Dean Davenport's solution of the problem of increasing farm production, in face of strong economic attractions of city life, is the formation in each community of an improvement association for the purpose of laying farms in the community and "rustaking" upon them young couples known to the members of the association who want to stay on the farm.

Dean Davenport pointed out that when a young couple just graduated from college—the young man from an agricultural course and the young woman from a domestic science course—sought an opportunity to settle on a farm they were met with many obstacles in the way of financial assistance. They have no security for loans from Federal or State institutions, and the result is they enter some other field of endeavor with a view to accumulating sufficient funds to buy a farm.

"Before they accumulate the necessary capital," Dean Davenport said, "they are already in middle life, have a family and are so well established in some line of business that they cannot afford to give it all up for a new start."

Dean Davenport said loans by the government or state were an impracticable solution of the land problem, since the loans required are personal loans, and the government has no personal knowledge upon which it can award loans to applicants.

"What is needed," Dean Davenport said, "is the financing of farming on a personal basis. The farmer should have personal credit. The personal loan, while, perhaps, risky if one couple is considered, is not in the least risky when a thousand couples are considered. Each community should form an improvement association to hold in the community those young people that are desired on the farms of that community. The association, thus composed of citizens of the community, would have personal knowledge of the young people and would know whom to place on farms, and any state or federal financial assistance could be allotted through the association."

ALLIES TO PROTECT POLES IN TERMS OF SOVIET ARMISTICE

Will Not Permit Poland to Change Its System of Government — People of Warsaw Still Very Much Frightened Over Possible Invasion — Munitions Being Sent In.

Associated Press. PARIS, July 30.—The limitations Great Britain and France would put upon the soviet demand on Poland in arranging an armistice are set forth in the notification to the Warsaw government.

They will not permit Poland to accept whole or partial disarmament change in the Polish system of government dictated by the soviet; for a boundary line less favorable than provisionally drawn by Lloyd George; use of the Polish bridgehead between Germany and Russia. Vast stocks of munitions from the allies are moving toward Warsaw and more are expected to be shipped within a few days.

Hungary Wants In Hungary has asked the permission of Great Britain and France to attack the soviet army. It would involve the recognition of the Hungarian army, the demobilization of which was provided for in the Hungarian peace treaty.

Warsaw Frightened

Associated Press. WARSAW, July 30.—Much uncertainty and suspense exists in Warsaw over the question of whether the reds plan to cross the border line, fixed by the supreme council and continue their march on Warsaw.

Rome intercepted a wireless message, it is said, stating that the bolsheviks intend to spar for time before the armistice meeting.

According to some reports the reds set August 4 as the earliest date they are willing to cease hostilities. It is considered apparent that the reds are determined to capture Lemberg as a prize of the last day's battle. The Poles will defend Lemberg to the last if it falls it will be the greatest battle of the conflict, as all Lemberg is prepared to support the soldiers in a fight to the finish.

CONTINUATION LAW OF ILLINOIS SENDS CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 30.—Three thousand children in Chicago between the ages of 14 and 16 who are working attend public school eight hours a week, according to the requirements of the continuation school law, E. G. Cooley, superintendent of the public continuation schools, reports. He says that 42,000 more children of this age are working and should be giving part time to school, but that funds to take care of them are not available. By 1923, he estimates, 75,000 working children of the city will be required to attend the continuation schools.

SHERMAN'S WORDS ON WAR HAVE TRAVELED TO FAR COUNTRIES

GENEVA, July 30.—King Albert of Belgium, accompanied by guide, Joseph Rayenel, who served throughout the war as a "Blue Devil" of France, incidentally being at Verdun, ascended Dru peak the other day. The king and the soldier remained on the summit for half an hour, the guide discreetly, he thought, trying to question the king on his war record. The king was reluctant to speak of his war experience. When the guide came down he asked a newspaper man:

"What was it that the American Sherman said about war? King Albert told me: 'Sherman said all that is to be said about war in three words.'"

BALFOUR DECLARES LEAGUE OF NATIONS MUST BE GIVEN TIME

Says It Will Develop But It Suffers Two Dangers — One From People Who Say It is a Useless Creation — The other Who Think It is a Cure-All—The Meeting.

Associated Press. SAN SEBASTIAN, July 30.—The sessions of the council of the league of nations to be inaugurated tomorrow is expected to continue about a week.

Beginning Tuesday the disarmament commission will convene to prepare a report to be presented to the council before it adjourns.

"The league must have an economic blockade," declared Arthur Balfour, the British representative.

If the blockade applies to nations defying the league he believes the nation will not be able to resist long. Balfour is of the opinion that the league is suffering from two dangers. On the one hand from the people who say it is a useless creation, on the other from those who believe in the league can be found the remedy for all international difficulties. He said the league must be given time to develop.

BIG CAUSEWAY FOR CORPUS CHRISTI IS BEING WORKED OUT

Associated Press. CORPUS CHRISTI, July 30.—Soundings to obtain data upon the contour of the bottom of Nueces bay, borings to determine the length of piles needed and the amount of rock necessary to make the fills, have been made by the engineering department of Nueces county to determine the details of the plan to build a permanent causeway 4,700 feet long to connect Corpus Christi with San Patricio county shore. The State Highway Commission has set aside $200,000 as state and federal aid for the project, while Nueces county has raised a similar amount.

The causeway, as planned will contain 3,000 feet of trestle work and 5,700 feet of rock fill, the latter being surfaced with concrete giving a road surface twenty-four feet wide. Thus two thirds of the causeway will be impervious to storm water, while the remainder, as shown by past experience, can be quickly repaired by collecting debris that might be washed off it on the shores of the land-locked bay.

FORMER GOVERNOR COLQUITT WILL GO STRONG FOR BAILEY

EASTLAND, July 30.—Ex-Governor O. B. Colquitt was in Eastland yesterday attending to oil interests.

The Great Southern Oil and Refining Company No. 2 on the Baumgartner, of which he is the president, is down about 3,300 feet and is expected to be brought in within a few days.

While here the governor said that he was "for Bailey strong" and was going to support him.

"I am going to support Bailey," he said, "for he stands for clean government and stands against the Socialist oppressors who would do away with our republican form of government."

It is rumored here that Colquitt will take the stump for Senator Bailey.

ILLINOIS SHERIFF'S LOVE FOR NEGRO PUG LATTER'S DOWNFALL

Joliet Official Allowed Johnson to Take Auto Rides and Indulge in Ice Cream Sodas — Fighter Was Removed to Another Jail and Complains of Treatment.

Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 30.—Although confined in a cell with a private bath, Jack Johnson expressed disapproval of the Geneva, Ill., jail to which he was removed because the sheriff at the Joliet, Ill., jail permitted the former heavyweight champion fighter to ride in an automobile and partake of ice cream sodas.

Johnson complained that the sheriff at the Geneva jail was not allowing him to live in the style to which he was accustomed.

The negro pugilist also is dissatisfied with his lawyer and said he was going to get another.

He is in jail pending federal court action for bail. He is under sentence for violation of the Mann act.

BREAKING A RECORD IN WORK RESTORING TELEPHONE SERVICE

The telephone in the office of the Daily News was connected with the central exchange today and following rapidly, phones in the business houses and offices in the downtown district will be connected.

The company is making a record restoring service following the fire last Sunday night which totally destroyed the exchange. Manager Pettit was of the opinion that they would have all the phones in the business district connected by August 15, but from the way the work is progressing it will be done within a week from this time.

The company has placed on the work all the men that can be used and is making splendid headway.

This afternoon 100 phones had been connected and the work was being pushed vigorously. Manager Pettit is publishing a notice requesting phone patrons that when they hear their phone ring to not think it is an answer and neglect it, but asks them to answer the ring to not think it is an accident and it is the workmen testing out the line to learn if they have the correct number. Prompt answering of these calls will greatly facilitate the work.

MAN WHO IS AS OLD AS THE GOVERNMENT

Associated Press. LAGUNA MOUNTAINS, Calif., July 30.—Said to have been born 144 years ago, the year the Declaration of Independence was signed, on a spot which is now a government reservation and which he still calls home, Domingo Jacinto, chief of a tribe of Digger Indians, was one of the spectators at the Independence Day celebration here. Accompanied by his daughter, a grand daughter and a great grandson, he evinced keen interest in the program.

HOW HAVE THE MIGHTY IN GERMANY FALLEN FOLLOWING THE WAR

Associated Press. BERLIN, July 30.—How the erstwhile well-to-do in present day Germany is described in the Allgemeine Zeitung by an elderly high state functionary, a married man with a family, who says that although he belongs to the upper 30,000 in Prussia, according to the income tax schedule, his style of living is reduced to that of a plain laborer.

"I own a fine mansion in a fashionable Berlin suburb," he writes, "but we have been obliged to let four rooms furnished, and will have to restrict our own apartments still further."

"Before the war we breakfasted on eggs and bacon, white bread and butter, and tea with cream and sugar; now we have to content ourselves with thin gruel, black bread, no butter or sugar, and the nondescript 'official' jam."

Only once or twice a week does meat appear on the dinner table; never a joint. Wine has been abolished. Supper consists of porridge, herrings or cheese. Before the war, the family used seven pints of milk daily; now a quarter of a pint is the allowance.

"Clothes are worn threadbare; my son mends my shoes and my daughter cuts my hair."

"Letter writing has become too expensive. I tear off unused half sheets of letters received and use old envelopes inside out. Baths are cut down to one-half."

"We can no longer afford to entertain company at meals; we meet our friends after supper."

The present lean times, the writer confesses, have not impaired his health very much, although he says he has become "somewhat spare in body."

MAGNITUDE OF WEST TEXAS WHEAT CROP IS NOT REALIZED EAST

Special to the News. LUBBOCK, July 30.—Railroad authorities at Washington fail to appreciate the burden of products that the Panhandle and Plains have offered to the railroads in the last month. According to a report received from the Amarillo unit of the West Texas chamber of commerce, the Washington authorities have figured out the wheat production of the Panhandle and Plains at 8,000,000 bushels, whereas conservative reports have placed it at 20,000,000 bushels. Many cars have been detailed to points in this section, but it is feared that Kansas and intermediate states on the route will have taken charge of them before their arrival here.

The West Texas chamber of commerce is now preparing further figures for presentation to the interstate commerce commission showing that the situation needs its clearest consideration in order to avoid loss to the farmers and grain dealers. The report says that 25,000 grain cars are moving Texasward, and that this state should receive a large proportion of them. Once before, it is pointed out, many thousands of cars were started toward the Panhandle and Plains, but got lost or strayed away from the path and helped Kansas, and not Texas.

CHICAGO NATIONALS UNDERHAND PITCHER.

Associated Press. CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—With the signing of Pitcher Joe Jaeger, Manager Mitchell of the Chicago Nationals hopes to have the only real underhand pitcher in the National league next season.

There is not a single underhand twirler in the league, that style of pitching having become extinct when Eskine Mayer, formerly of the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh clubs, passed out of the ranks.

Mitchell regards Jaeger, an overcast veteran who recently received his discharge from the army, as a real "find." Mitchell declares he never saw a pitcher start a ball as slow as Jaeger. He nearly touches the ground with his hand before he delivers the ball. His curve ball takes a peculiar upward shoot, like his fast one, as he pitches with terrific speed.

Jaeger has not had much professional experience but Manager Mitchell regards him as the most promising prospect in years. He is built along the lines of Grover Alexander, is just as tall and pitches with the same speed as the big Nebraskan.

Before entering the army, Jaeger pitched for independent clubs around St. Cloud, Minn., his home. He pitched several games while overseas.

LIGHT PRIMARY VOTE

To the citizen who stops and thinks a bit, it must be quickly apparent that there is something wrong in Texas. Either the voters have lost interest in the administrative affairs of the state, or the candidates offering in the primaries for state offices are not up to the standard fixed by the men who make their election to office possible.

Just where either Bailey or Neff, the two leading candidates for governor in the recent primary election, have anything to be proud of, is something hard to discover when is considered the fact that up to the present time, with approximately all the counties of the state heard from, there have been counted for governor but 416,159 votes.

In the primary election of two years ago, about 600,000 votes were cast. The number of votes in the state have been constantly increasing since that time. With advance information from the census bureau fixing probable population of Texas at 5,000,000, on the usual basis this would give the state close to 1,000,000 votes at the present time.

This being true it can hardly be said that the vote cast in the primary last Saturday is a full and free expression of the people as to their choice for governor. On the other hand, it looks like the voters had no choice, that they are indifferent as to how the state government is conducted. Either that, or they felt from the whole number of candidates offering, that they wanted none of them.

It has been stated that some of the candidates are finding an excuse for this short vote in the fact that the American Party has kept many voters out of the primary. This is hardly an explanation, for none will presume to guess that McGregor, the candidate for governor on the American Party ticket will receive anything like the number of votes between the vote cast two years ago and that of this year, much less the total of the difference between the 400,000 votes cast at the recent primary and the probable 1,000,000 votes in the state.

FALLING PRICES

The recent acute decline in the price of wheat, corn, oats and provisions on the Chicago board of trade, need not cause too hurried rejoicing on the part of the housekeeper. No evidence of any reduction in retail prices is heard nor is there likely to be.

When there is a real decline in the price of commodities it is going to come through the supply exceeding the demand and this is not going to be brought about until the transportation problem is solved.

Were it possible to throw on the market at once, all of the great wheat crop, there would be noted a decline vastly greater than that of the past few days in Chicago. But the railroads are handling but a minor portion of the crop and until it reaches the open market, bumper crop though it be, it can in no way affect retail prices.

The present decline, it will be noted, followed within a very few days after the resumption of future selling on the Chicago board of trade. In other words, just as soon as the gambling game was resumed, manipulations of the prices of commodities began.

Occasionally this might be to the benefit of the consumer, but what the price of a loaf of bread to the hungry is going to be, is the last thing for a Chicago board of trade gambler to think about.

Transportation is the thing. Get the big wheat crop to market and the price of bread will be forced down, despite the fact that it has, in some cities, Ft. Worth, for instance, continued to advance in the face of a decline in the materials of which it is made.

There may be slight fluctuations from time to time in retail prices, but there will be no substantial reduction until the railroads are able to handle the products of the country in a way to meet the demand promptly.

The interstate commerce commission is making an effort to force the distribution of cars so as to relieve the situation, but it cannot rehabilitate the railroads in a day to their pre-war condition.

CISCO A TRADE CENTER

Next Monday morning a company with large capital will open a furniture store in Cisco. This company has a chain of eleven stores in this section of Texas and while some of them are not far removed from this city, the company with its wide experience, having found it necessary, if it wants the business, it must go to where the business is, hence the new store here. It is this fact that is bringing to Cisco a number of new enterprises.

Within a few days a dry goods store will be opened here by a company also having a chain of stores in the state. This company has had constructed for it a splendid brick building, modernly equipped.

Other concerns are said to be negotiating for the construction of buildings here in which to open for trade in various lines of business. A vacant store room in Cisco would be a curiosity. They are as scarce as are places for residence. There is a large amount of building now going on in the city, but there must be more. Accommodations for the large number of people rushing in here must be provided. The volume of trade in the city has reached vast proportions yet every individual, firm and company engaged in business here is enjoying all the trade their present facilities enable them to handle. Strangers coming here witness this condition and are quick to realize a desire to get in the game and with the large and growing demand the business places may be expected to continue to multiply and they must be hotbeds.

THE AVERAGE MAN

The following comes from the pages of the Birmingham Age-Herald.

"What is your idea of the average man?"

"In a city he's a fellow who's always waiting for the raise that never comes; taken his meals off the arm of a chair until he gets married; and after that eats in the kitchen with his coat off; never spends more than 50 cents on amusements in one day, until after he gets married, and then never spends more than a quarter; and whenever there's a street parade downtown he's always there, somewhere along the line of march."

The writer of the screed printed above doubtless considered himself humorous, but he wasn't. Humor is kindly, sympathetic. He wasn't even witty; he was simply cynical. And he isn't even truthful. The average city man isn't always waiting for a raise of salary or wages. Frequently he runs his own little business, and runs it very successfully. And suppose he does eat off the arm of a self-servicing restaurant chair, before marriage? Maybe each day a pretty girl goes in to lunch with him—eh? And suppose he does eat in the kitchen, with his coat off, after marriage? Perhaps a sweet-faced woman smiles across the table at him. And suppose that he does spend only 25 or 50 cents on amusements each day—what of it? Maybe he gets all he desires; and maybe an easy chair, a fire and a good book, are awaiting him at his room or at home. And suppose one of his chief pleasures is seeing parades pass—hey? Maybe a rosy-cheeked lassie clings to one of his hands and a golden-haired lassie clings to the other.

The average man of America, in city or country, isn't to be pitied. He doesn't need pity; he doesn't desire pity. His home may be humble, but it's home. His fare may be frugal; but it's enough. His clothes may be common; but they serve. His amusements may be few; but they're satisfying. He's not a wage slave; he's a citizen. And he fares better in this country, than he could fare in any other land on earth. His life may be one of toil; but it is or it can be—one of love and content. His pleasures may be comparatively simple and few, but this happiness—or can be—soul satisfying.—Marion (O.) Star.

SHE STOPS BASEBALLS WITH AID OF UMBRELLA

By International News Service.
BALTIMORE, July 29.—An umbrella as a protection from batted balls was used by one of the women who appeared before Judge Williams in juvenile court to protest against the playing of baseball by boys and men on the lot donated by an improvement association as a playground for children. Several women testified they were struck by baseballs when passing the lot. It was one of these who carried an umbrella to ward off batted balls as she would protect herself from the rain.

Regular meeting of the Elks tonight at 8 o'clock. Next Friday night thirty-five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of Elksdom, which will bring the local membership to the 266 mark. Forty additional applications are to be acted upon at an early date. WONDERFUL KANSAS WHEAT CROP DEMANDS THOUSANDS OF CARS

Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 30.—With the second largest wheat crop in its history and prospects of a bumper corn crop at the same time, the great sunlit prairies of Kansas this year are expected to yield approximately half a billion dollars. There are other items, such as alfalfa, oats, barley and potatoes, to bring in a few more millions, not to mention pen money for the women folks for chickens, butter and eggs.

Many Kansas farmers have contended that a good corn year was a bad wheat year. Experience has shown them the rains needed by the corn; at the growing season were usually injurious to the ripening wheat grains, while the blistering sun, which made wonderful wheat, bleached the life out of the corn.

This year, however, mild rains fell through the night, giving strength to the corn and yet not too much moisture, which would soften the ground. Ripening and threshing of wheat continued without interruption.

Stories of the abundance of the wheat crop reach this gateway city daily. There are many tales about roads being choked with volunteer wheat, grain blown from the field and growing in the highways. For instance the little village of Menlo in Thomas county, the center of a very fertile wheat district, is reported as well high enclosed by the miles of growing grain which reach right up to the village. For ten miles looking in every direction the visitor sees almost nothing but what appears one vast field of wheat. Fences, low buildings and roads are hidden by the great yellow carpet.

Menlo in ordinary times is so quiet that the barking of a dog would attract attention but today the hum of the reapers, the grinding of the harvest threshers, the explosion of the exhaust on the tractors and the racket of the unmuffled trucks racing along with their loads of golden grain produce a clamor like the traffic of a large city.

Threshers and other harvest machinery which had supposedly been retired after many years of honorable service, are being bolted and tightened here and there over the state for use in the present emergency.

The only thing which perplexes the Kansas farmer is the problem of transporting his grain. Governor Allen recently estimated that at the present rate the state was receiving freight cars, it would take the railroads two years to move the wheat crop.

Emergency buildings are being constructed to store the grain and meanwhile every leverage possible is being used to get cars to Kansas.

Come to Lake Strickland. Water deep and diving fine. 144

New Paper at Leeray. The Oilfield Journal has been established at Leeray. W. F. Hecht, the business manager was in the city today and said he was much gratified with the patronage coming to the first issue. John B. Hiatt is the editor.

FARM BOYS SPECIAL TO ADVERTISE TEXAS OVER EXTENDED ROUTE

Special to the News.

DALLAS, Texas, July 30.—The Texas Chamber of Commerce will conduct an extensive advertising campaign of Texas resources in connection with the Texas Farm Boy Special which will leave the A. & M. College, August 7, and run through Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ontario, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

A booklet descriptive of Texas has been printed and will be distributed by the thousands along the route. The unique visit of the farm boys to the numerous cities and towns along the route is attracting much press comment and offers an opportunity for wide-spread publicity of Texas' resources. A publicity man from the state chamber will be aboard the train to greet the newspaper men along the route and "slip them the dope" upon the opportunities offered by the Lone Star State to home seekers and investors. Correspondents will be set with the special train by several big Texas newspapers and magazines, including the Houston Chronicle, San Antonio Express, Dallas News, and the Progressive Farmer. These correspondents will help advertise Texas as well as send back the news of the Texas Farm Boy Special for the benefit of the parents and friends of the boys aboard the train.

New Secretary Coming. A dispatch from Cleburne announces that H. A. Oliver has been selected as secretary of the chamber of commerce of that city, relieving the present secretary, Sam Fowlkes, who will come to Cisco to be secretary of the chamber of commerce and production. When appointed, Mr. Fowlkes asked until August 15 to begin the work here, but said then that he would come by August 1 if he could get some person to take his place at Cleburne. He is expected here shortly.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—The annual 250-mile automobile race over the historic Elgin, Ill., course will be decided on August 21 this year. Ralph De Palma, who led the field in the Indianapolis 500 mile race this spring only to lose when his car caught fire, has entered the Elgin event. De Palma's car probably will be the only foreign entry in the race.
